a molten calf and said, /
'This is your God who brought you out of Egypt,' /
and had wrought great provocations,

19 Yet you in your manifold mercies / did not forsake them in the wilderness. /
The pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day / to lead them in the way, / neither the pillar of fire by night to show them light / and the way in which they should go.

20 You also gave your good Spirit to instruct them. /
You did not withhold your manna from their mouth, / and you gave them water for their thirst.

21 Indeed, for forty years you sustained them in the wilderness, / and they lacked nothing. / Their clothes did not grow old / and their feet did not swell.

22 Moreover, you gave them kingdoms and nations / and divided them into corners. /
Thus they possessed the land of Sihon, / the land of the king of Heshbon, / and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children you also multiplied / like the stars of heaven / and brought them into the land, / concerning which you had promised to their fathers / that they should go in to possess it.

24 Thus the children went in and possessed the land, / and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, / and gave them into their hands, with their kings and the people of the land, / so that they might do with them as they wished.

25 And they took strong cities and a fat land / and possessed houses full of all goods, / wells dug, vineyards and olive-groves, / and fruit trees in abundance. / Thus they ate and were filled / and became fat and delighted themselves in your great goodness.

26 Nevertheless, they were disobedient and rebelled against you, / and they cast your law behind their backs / and slew your prophets who testified against them to turn them to you, / and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore, you delivered them into the hand / of their enemies who distressed them. /
And in the time of their trouble, when they cried to you, /
you heard them from heaven. /
And according to your manifold mercies you gave them deliverers / who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, / they did evil again before you; / therefore, you left them in the hand of their enemies /
so that they had the dominion over them. / Yet when they returned and cried to you, /
you heard them from heaven, /
and many times you delivered them / according to your mercies.

29 You testified against them so that you might bring them back to your law. /
Yet they dealt proudly and did not listen to your commandments, /
but sinned against your judgments / (which if a man does, he shall live in them), / withdrew the shoulder, / hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years you forbore over them / and testified against them by your Spirit in your prophets. /
Yet they would not give ear. /
Therefore, you gave them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless, for your great mercies' sake / you did not utterly consume them / nor forsake them, / for you are a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, mighty, / and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy, / do not let all the trouble seem little before you / that has come upon us, / on our kings, on our princes, / on our priests, on our prophets, / on our fathers, and on all your people / since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day.

33 But you are just in all that is brought upon us. /
For you have done right, / but we have done wickedly.

34 Neither our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers / have kept your law / nor listened to your commandments and your testimonies / with which you testified against them.

35 For they have not served you in their kingdom— / and in your great goodness that you gave them, / and in the large and fat land which you gave before them— / neither did they turn from their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are servants this day, / and for the land that you gave to our fathers / to eat its fruit and its good, / behold, we are servants in it.

37 And it yields much increase to the kings / whom you have set over us because of our sins. /
They also have dominion over our bodies / and over our livestock at their pleasure, / and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this we make a sure covenant and write it. And our princes, Levites, and priests set their seals to it."

Chapter 10

The names of those who sealed the covenant, 1-28. The points of the covenant, 29-39.

1 Now those who sealed were Nehemiah (the Tirshatha and the son of Hachaliah), Zidkijah, 2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, 3 Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah, 4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, 5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, 6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, 7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, 8 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests. 9 And the Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel, 10 And their brothers, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, 11 Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah, 12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, 13 Hodijah, Bani, and Beninu. 14 The chief of the people: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zatthu, Bani, 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, 16

Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, 17 Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur, 18 Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, 19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, 20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, 21 Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua, 22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, 23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub, 24 Hallohesh, Pileha, Shobek, 25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, 26 Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, 27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

28 And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinims, and all those who had separated themselves from the people of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone having knowledge and having understanding, 29 They united with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse and into an oath to walk in God’s law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, his judgments, and his statutes, 30 And that we would not give our daughters to the people of the land nor take their daughters for our sons; 31 And if the people of the land should bring wares or any provisions on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it from them on the sabbath or on the holy day; and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

32 We also made ordinances for ourselves to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God: 33 For the show-bread, for the continual food-offering, for the continual burnt-offering, for the sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, for the holy things, and for the sin-offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people for the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law; 35 And to bring the first-fruits of our ground and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD; 36 And the first-born of our sons and of our livestock, as it is written in the law, and the first-born of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God to the priests who minister in the house of our God; 37 And that we should bring the first-fruits of our dough and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine, and of oil to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites, so that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. 38 And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites take tithes. And the Levites shall bring up the tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers of the treasure house. 39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the chambers where the vessels of the sanctuary are, as well as the priests who minister, the gatekeepers, and the singers. And we will not forsake the house of our God.

The rulers, voluntary men, and the tenth man chosen by lot dwell at Jerusalem, 1, 2. A catalog of their names, 3-19. The remnant dwell in other cities, 20-36.

1 And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem. The rest of the people also cast lots to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities. 2 And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

3 Now these are the chief of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. But in the cities of Judah everyone dwelt in his possession in their cities, namely, Israel, the priests, the Levites, the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants. 4 And some of the children of Judah and some of the children of Benjamin dwelt at Jerusalem. Of the children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez; 5 And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. 6 All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

7 And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah; 8 And after him, Gabbai and Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight. 9 And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer. And Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

10 Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin; 11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God. 12 And their brothers who performed the work of the house numbered eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah, 13 And his brothers, chief of the fathers, two hundred and forty-two; and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14 And their brothers, mighty men of valor, one hundred twenty-eight. And their overseer was Zabdiel the son of one of the great men.

15 And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; 16 And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God; 17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah the second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. 18 All the Levites in the holy city numbered two hundred and eighty-four.

19 Moreover, the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers who kept the gates, numbered one hundred and seventy-two.

20 And the rest of Israel, the priests, and the Levites were in all the cities of Judah, each in his inheritance. 21 But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel. And Ziha and Gispa were over the Nethinims.

22 And the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of the house of God. 23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day. 24 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Kirjath-arba and in its villages, at Dibon and in its villages, at Jekabzeel and in its villages, 26 At Jeshua, at Moladah, at Beth-phelet, 27 At Hazar-shual, at Beer-sheba and in its villages, 28 At Ziklag, at Mekonah and in its villages, 29 At En-rimmon, at Zareah, at Jarmuth, 30 Zanoah, Adullam, and in their villages, at Lachish and its fields, and at Azekah and in its villages. And they dwelt from Beer-sheba to the valley of Hinnom. 31 The children of Benjamin also dwelt from Geba, at Michmash, Aija, and Beth-el, and in their villages, 32 And at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, 33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, 34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, 35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. 36 And some divisions of the Levites in Judah were joined to Benjamin.

Chapter 12

The priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel, 1-9. The succession of high priests, 10-21. Certain chief Levites, 22-26. The solemnity of the dedication of the walls, 27-43. The offices of priests and Levites appointed in the temple, 44-47.

1 Now these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, 2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, 3 Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, 4 Iddo, Ginnetho, Abijah, 5 Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, 6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, 7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brothers in the days of Jeshua.

8 Moreover, the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who was over the thanksgiving—he and his brothers. 9 Also, Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, were over against them in the watches. 10 And Jeshua begot Joiakim, Joiakim also begot Eliashib, Eliashib begot Joiada, 11 Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua.

12 And in the days of Joiakim these were the priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; 13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan; 14 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph; 15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai; 16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; 17 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; 18 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; 19 Of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; 20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; 21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.

22 As for the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, the chiefs of the fathers were recorded, and also the priests in the reign of Darius the Persian. 23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. 24 And the chief of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers over against them, to praise and to give thanks according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward. 25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates. 26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest and scribe.

27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places to bring them to Jerusalem to keep the dedication with gladness, with thanksgivings, with singing, and with cymbals, psalteries, and harps. 28 And the sons of the singers assembled, both out of the plain country around Jerusalem and from the villages of Netophathi, 29 And from the house of Gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built themselves villages around Jerusalem. 30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and then they purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall and appointed two great companies of those who gave thanks, of which one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung-gate. 32 And after them went Hoshaiah and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, 34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah, 35 And some of the priests' sons with trumpets, namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; 36 And his brothers, Shemaiah, Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them. 37 And at the fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David at the ascent of the wall above the house of David, even to the water-gate eastward.

38 And the other company of those who gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even to the broad wall, 39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, above the old gate, above the fish-gate, the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even to the sheep-gate. And they stood still in the prison-gate. 40 So the two companies of those who gave thanks stood in the house of God, and I and the half of the rulers with me; 41 And the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; 42 And Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud with Jezrahiah their overseer. 43 Also that day, they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy. The wives and the children also rejoiced. Thus the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 And at that time some were appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites, for Judah rejoiced over the priests and over the Levites who served. 45 And both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the ward of their God and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David and of Solomon his son. 46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old, there were chiefs for the singers and for songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. 47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah gave the portions for the singers and the gatekeepers, every day his portion. And they sanctified holy things for the Levites, and the Levites sanctified them for the children of Aaron.

Upon the reading of the law, separation is made from the mixed multitude, 1-3. Nehemiah, at his return, causes the chambers to be cleansed, 4-9. He reforms the offices in the house of God, 10-14; the violation of the sabbath, 15-22; and the marriages with the strange wives, 23-31.

1 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people. And therein was found written that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God forever, 2 Because they did not meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Baalam against them so that he would curse them—but our God turned the curse into a blessing. 3 Now it came to pass when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied to Tobiah. 5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where they formerly laid the food-offerings, the frankincense, the vessels, the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the offerings of the priests. 6 But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem. For in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I came to the king, and after some days I obtained leave of the king. 7 And I came to Jerusalem and discerned the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah in preparing for him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. 8 And it grieved me greatly; therefore, I cast all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. 9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers. And I brought there again the vessels of the house of God, with the food-offering and the frankincense.

10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them, for the Levites and the singers who did the work had each fled to his field. 11 Then I contended with the rulers and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" Then I assembled them and set them in their place. 12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. 13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah, and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, for they were accounted faithful. Their office was to distribute to their brothers. 14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for its offices.

19 And it came to pass when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and charged that they should not be opened until after the sabbath. And I set some of my servants at the gates so that there should be no burden brought in on the sabbath day. 20 And the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice. 21 Then I testified against them and said to them, "Why do you lodge in front of the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time forth they no longer came on the sabbath. 22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves and that they should come and keep the gates to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your mercy.

23 In those days I also saw Jews who had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab. 24 And their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. 25 And I contended with them, cursed them, smote some of them, plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves. 26 Did Solomon king of Israel not sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him who was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless, foreign women even caused him to sin. 27 Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil and transgress against our God in marrying foreign wives?" 28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite; therefore, I chased him away from me. 29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

30 Thus I cleansed them from all strangers and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, each in his business, 31 And for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

The Story of Esther

Esther | Ἐσθήρ | רתסא

Chapter 1

Ahasuerus makes royal feasts, 1-9. Vashti, sent for, refuses to come, 10-12. Ahasuerus, by the counsel of Memucan, puts away Vashti and makes the decree of men's sovereignty, 13-22.

1 Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus (this is Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Cush, over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces), 2 That in those days, when king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in the palace of Shushan, 3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast to all his princes and his servants. The power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, were before him 4 When he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred and eighty days.

5 And when these days had expired, the king held a feast for seven days for all the people who were present in the palace of Shushan, both for great and small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace 6 Where white, green, and blue hangings were fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble. The couches were of gold and silver upon a pavement of red, blue, white, and black marble. 7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold (the vessels being diverse from one another) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king. 8 And the drinking was according to the law, and no one was forced, for thus the king had appointed to all the officers of his house that they should do according to every man's pleasure. 9 Also, Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

13 Then the king said to the wise men who knew the times (for thus was the king's manner toward all who knew law and judgment 14 And were close to him: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face and who sat the first in the kingdom), 15 "What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law because she has not performed the commandment of king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?" 16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, "Vashti the queen has not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes and to all the people who are in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus. 17 For this deed of the queen will come abroad to all women to make their husbands contemptible in their eyes when they say, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she did not come.' 18 This day, the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard about the deed of the queen will say the same thing to all the king's princes. Thus there will arise too much contempt and wrath. 19 If it pleases the king, let a royal commandment go from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes so that it may not be altered, that Vashti may no longer come before king Ahasuerus. And let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she is. 20 And when the king's decree which he shall make is published throughout all his empire (for it is great), all the wives will give to their husbands honor, both to great and small."

21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan. 22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

Out of the choice of young women a queen is to be chosen, 1-4. Mordecai the adoptive father of Esther, 5-7. Esther is preferred over the rest, 8-11. The manner of purification and going before the king, 12-14. Esther, best pleasing the king, is made queen, 15-20. Mordecai, discovering a treason, is recorded in the chronicles, 21-23.

1 After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. 2 Then the king's servants who ministered to him said, "Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king. 3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom so that they may collect all the fair young virgins to the palace of Shushan to the house of the women, into the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women. And let their things for purification be given to them. 4 And let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5 Now in the palace of Shushan there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite, 6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. 7 And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. And the young woman was fair and beautiful. And when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

8 So it came to pass when the king's commandment and his decree were heard and when many young women were assembled at the palace of Shushan to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also to the king's house to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. 9 And the young woman pleased him and she obtained kindness from him. And he speedily gave her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven attendants who were suitable to be given to her out of the king's house. And he moved her and her attendants to the best place of the house of the women. 10 Esther had not revealed her people nor her kindred, for Mordecai had charged her that she should not disclose it. 11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house to know how Esther did and what would become of her.

12 Now when every young woman's turn had come to go before king Ahasuerus, after she had been there twelve months, according to the manner of the women (for thus were the days of their purifications accomplished, namely, six months with oil of myrrh and six months with sweet odors, and with other things for the purifying of the women), 13 Then in this manner every young woman came to the king: whatever she desired was given to her to go with her out of the house of the women to the king’s house. 14 In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second house of the women to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king’s chamberlain, who kept the concubines. She came before the king no more unless the king delighted in her and she was called by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his daughter, had come to go before the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king’s chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked upon her. 16 Thus Esther was taken to king Ahasuerus into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins. So he set the royal crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti. 18 Then the king made a great feast to all his princes and his servants, even Esther’s feast. And he made a release to the provinces and gave gifts according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were assembled the second time, Mordecai sat in the king’s gate. 20 Esther had not yet revealed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her, for Esther performed the commandment of Mordecai, as when she was brought up with him.

21 In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king’s gate, two of the king’s chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, who were keepers of the door, were angry and sought to lay hands on king Ahasuerus. 22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it to Esther the queen. And Esther told the king about it in Mordecai’s name. 23 And when inquisition was made about the matter and it was discovered, they were both hanged on a tree. And it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

Chapter 3

Haman, advanced by the king and despised by Mordecai, seeks revenge upon all the Jews, 1-6. He casts lots, 7. He obtains by slander a decree from the king to put the Jews to death, 8-15.

1 After these things, king Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, advancing him and setting his seat above all the princes who were with him. 2 And all the king’s servants who were in the king’s gate bowed and did obeisance to Haman, for the king had thus commanded concerning him. But Mordecai did not bow nor do him obeisance. 3 Then the king’s servants who were in the king’s gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you transgress the king’s commandment?" 4 Now it came to pass when they spoke daily to him and he did not listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai’s matters would stand, for he had told them that he was a Jew. 5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow nor do him obeisance, Haman was full of wrath. 6 And he scorned to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had revealed to him the people of Mordecai. Therefore, Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 In the first month (that is, the month Nisan), in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur (that is, the lot) before Haman from day to day and from month to month, to the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar). 8 And Haman said to king Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom. And their laws are diverse from all people, neither do they keep the king’s laws. Therefore, it is not for the king’s profit to allow them to remain. 9 If it pleases the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed. And I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those who have the charge of the business to bring it into the king’s treasuries." 10 And the king took his ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. 11 And the king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you."

12 Then the king’s scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and all that Haman had commanded was written to the king’s lieutenants, to the governors who were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to its writing, and to every people after their language. In the name of king Ahasuerus it was written and sealed with the king’s ring. 13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king’s provinces to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all Jews—both young and old, little children and women—in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar), and to plunder their goods. 14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published to all people that they should be ready for that day. 15 The posts departed, being hastened by the king’s commandment, and the decree was given in the palace of Shushan. And the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews, 1-3. Esther, understanding it, sends to Mordecai, who tells the cause and advises her to undertake the appeal, 4-9. She, excusing herself, is threatened by Mordecai, 10-14. She, appointing a fast, undertakes the appeal, 15-17.

1 When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes and put on sackcloth with ashes, went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and bitter cry. 2 And he came as far as the king’s gate, for no one could enter into the king’s gate clothed with sackcloth. 3 And in every province wherever the king’s commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing. And many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 So Esther’s attendants and her chamberlains came and told it to her. Then the queen was exceedingly grieved, and she sent clothing to clothe Mordecai and to take away his sackcloth from him, but he did not receive it. 5 Then Esther called for Hatach, one of the king’s chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and commanded him to go to Mordecai to know what it was and why it was. 6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai to the street of the city, which was before the king's gate. 7 And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. 8 Also, he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them to show it to Esther, to declare it to her, and to charge her that she should go before the king to make supplication to him and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. 10 Again, Esther spoke to Hatach and gave him commandment to say to Mordecai, 11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that whoever, whether man or woman, comes to the king into the inner court who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except him to whom the king holds out the golden scepter so that he may live. But I have not been called to come before the king these thirty days." 12 And they told Esther's words to Mordecai.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, "Do not think to yourself that you shall escape in the king's house more than all the Jews. 14 For if you altogether hold your peace at this time, then enlargement and deliverance will arise to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will be destroyed. And who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

15 Then Esther told them to return Mordecai this answer: 16 "Go, assemble all the Jews who are present in Shushan and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I also and my attendants will fast likewise. And so I will go before the king, which is not according to the law, and if I perish, I perish." 17 So Mordecai went his way and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Esther, adventuring on the king's favor, obtains the grace of the golden scepter and invites the king and Haman to a banquet, 1-5. She, being encouraged by the king in her appeal, invites them to another banquet the next day, 6-8. Haman, proud of his advancement, complains at the contempt of Mordecai, 9-13. By the counsel of Zeresh he prepares for him a gallows, 14.

1 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house. And the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. 2 And it came to pass when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favor in his sight, and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther drew near and touched the top of the scepter. 3 Then the king said to her, "What do you wish, queen Esther? And what is your request? It shall be given to you even to the half of the kingdom." 4 And Esther answered, "If it seems good to the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

5 Then the king said, "Cause Haman to make haste so that he may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. 6 And the king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed." 7 Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is this: 8 If I have found

9 Then Haman went forth that day joyful and with a glad heart. But when Haman saw Mordecai in the king’s gate, and that he did not stand up nor move for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai. 10 Nevertheless, Haman refrained himself. And when he came home, he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife. 11 And Haman told them about the glory of his riches, the multitude of his children, all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. 12 Haman said moreover, "Even Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself. And tomorrow I am invited by her together with the king. 13 Yet all this avails me nothing so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate." 14 Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak to the king so that Mordecai may be hanged upon it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet." And the thing pleased Haman, and he caused the gallows to be made.

Ahasuerus, reading in the chronicles of the good service done by Mordecai, takes care for his reward, 1-3. Haman, coming to appeal that Mordecai might be hanged, gives counsel that he might do him honor, 4-11. Complaining about this, his friends tell him about his final destiny, 12-14.

1 On that night the king could not sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles, and they were read before the king. 2 And it was found written that Mordecai had reported Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s chamberlains and the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hands on king Ahasuerus. 3 And the king said, "What honor and dignity has been done to Mordecai for this?" Then the king’s servants who ministered to him said, "There has nothing been done for him." 4 And the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outward court of the king’s house to speak to the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. 5 And the king’s servants said to him, "Behold, Haman stands in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in." 6 So Haman came in, and the king said to him, "What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor?" Now Haman thought in his heart, "To whom would the king delight to do honor more than myself?" 7 And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor, 8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king uses to wear, the horse that the king rides upon, and the royal crown which is set upon his head. 9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king’s most noble princes so that they may array the man whom the king delights to honor, bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, 'Thus it shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor.'"

10 Then the king said to Haman, "Make haste and take the apparel and the horse as you have said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew who sits at the king’s gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken." 11 Then Haman took the apparel and the horse, arrayed Mordecai, brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, "Thus it shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor."

12 And Mordecai came back to the king’s gate, but Haman hastened to his house mourning and having his head covered. 13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had befallen him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him, but will surely fall before him."

14 And while they were still talking with him, the king’s chamberlains came and hastened to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Chapter 7

Esther, entertaining the king and Haman, makes an appeal for her own life and for her people’s, 1-4. She accuses Haman, 5, 6. The king, in his anger, after being told about the gallows which Haman had made for Mordecai, causes him to be hanged thereon, 7-10.

1 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. 2 And the king said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition, queen Esther? It shall be granted to you. And what is your request? It shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom." 3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, "If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given to me at my petition and my people at my request, 4 For we are sold—I and my people—to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for men-servants and women-servants, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could not have compensated for the damage to the king." 5 Then king Ahasuerus answered and said to Esther the queen, "Who is he and where is he who dares presume in his heart to do so?" 6 And Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman." Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king arose from the banquet of wine in his wrath and went into the palace-garden. And Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen, for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. 8 Then the king returned out of the palace-garden into the place of the banquet of wine, and Haman had fallen upon the couch on which Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he force the queen also before me in the house?" As the word went out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face. 9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, "Behold also the gallows fifty cubits high which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, stands in the house of Haman." Then the king said, "Hang him upon it." 10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s wrath was pacified.

Chapter 8

Mordecai is advanced, 1, 2. Esther makes an appeal to reverse Haman’s letters, 3-6. Ahasuerus grants liberty to the Jews to defend themselves, 7-14. Mordecai’s honor and the Jews' joy, 15-17.

1 On that day king Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, to Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told what he was to her. 2 And the king took off his ring which he had taken from Haman and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 And Esther spoke yet again before the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite and his plan that he had devised against the Jews. 4 Then the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king, 5 And said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the thing seems right before the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. 6 For how can I endure to see the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

7 Then king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, "Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him upon the gallows because he laid his hand upon the Jews. 8 Also, write to the Jews, as it pleases you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring, for the writing which is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's ring, no man may reverse."

9 Then the king's scribes were called at that time in the third month (that is, the month Sivan) on the twenty-third day. And it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India to Cush, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, to every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing and according to their language. 10 And he wrote in king Ahasuerus's name and sealed it with the king's ring. He sent letters by posts on horseback, riding on royal horses that were bred from swift horses. 11 In them the king granted the Jews who were in every city to assemble and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to plunder their goods, 12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (which is the month Adar). 13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published to all people so that the Jews would be ready for that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. 14 So the posts who rode upon royal horses went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at the palace of Shushan.

15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and with a garment of fine linen and purple, and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. 16 The Jews had light, gladness, joy, and honor. 17 And in every province and in every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews, for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

The Jews slay their enemies and the ten sons of Haman, 1-11. Ahasuerus, at the request of Esther, grants another day of slaughter and Haman's sons to be hanged, 12-19. The two days of Purim are made a festival, 20-32.

1 Now in the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar), on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king’s commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over those who hated them), 2 The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of king Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought their hurt. And no man could withstand them, for the fear of them fell upon all people. 3 And all the rulers of the provinces, the lieutenants, the deputies, and officers of the king helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. 4 For Mordecai was great in the king’s house and his fame went out throughout all the provinces, for this man Mordecai became greater and greater. 5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter, and with destruction, and did what they pleased to those who hated them. 6 And in the palace of Shushan the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. 7 And they slew Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, 8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, 9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha, 10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

11 On that day the number of those who were slain in the palace of Shushan was brought before the king. 12 And the king said to Esther the queen, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the palace of Shushan and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king’s provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. Or what is your request further? It shall be done." 13 Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day’s decree, and let Haman’s ten sons be hanged upon the gallows." 14 And the king commanded it to be done so. And the decree was given at Shushan, and they hanged Haman’s ten sons. 15 For the Jews who were in Shushan assembled also on the fourteenth day of the month Adar and slew three hundred men at Shushan. But on the plunder they did not lay their hands.

16 But the other Jews who were in the king’s provinces assembled and stood for their lives and had rest from their enemies, and slew seventy-five thousand of their foes (but they did not lay their hands on the plunder) 17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar. And on the fourteenth day of the same they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews who were at Shushan assembled on the thirteenth day of the month and on the fourteenth day. And on the fifteenth day of the same they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. 19 Therefore, the Jews of the villages, who dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions to one another.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, both near and far, 21 To establish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and the fifteenth day of the same every year, 22 As the days on which the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned for them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions to one another and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun and as Mordecai had written to them, 24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them and had cast Pur (that is, the lot) to consume them and to destroy them. 25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked plan which he devised against the Jews should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. 26 Therefore, they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore, for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come to them, 27 The Jews ordained and took upon themselves, upon their descendants, and upon all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail that they would keep these two days according to their writing and according to their appointed time every year, 28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor their memorial perish from their descendants.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. 30 And he sent the letters to all the Jews, to the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their descendants the matters of the fastings and their cry. 32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Ahasuerus' greatness, 1, 2. Mordecai’s advancement, 3.

1 And king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land and upon the islands of the sea. 2 And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? 3 For Mordecai the Jew was next to king Ahasuerus, great among the Jews and accepted by the multitude of his brothers, seeking the wealth of his people and speaking peace to all his nation.

The Trial of Job

Job | Ἰώβ | בויא

Chapter 1

The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children, 1-5. Satan, appearing before God, by slander obtains leave to afflict Job, 6-12. Realizing the loss of his children and goods, in his mourning Job blesses God, 13-22.

1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. And that man was upright and just, one who feared God and shunned evil. 2 And there were born to him seven sons and three daughters. 3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very great household. This man was the greatest of all the men of the east. 4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, each his day, and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. 5 And it came to pass when the days of their feasting had ended, that Job sent and sanctified them, and he rose early in the morning and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all, for Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Thus Job did continually.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them. 7 And the LORD said to Satan, "Where did you come from?" Then Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth and from walking up and down upon it." 8 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is no one like him on the earth, an upright and a just man, one who fears God and shuns evil?" 9 Then Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? 10 Have you not made a hedge around him, around his house, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance has increased in the land. 11 But put forth your hand now and touch all that he has, and he will curse you to your face." 12 And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only do not put forth your hand upon him." So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house, 14 And a messenger to Job came and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys feeding beside them, 15 And the Sabeans fell upon them and took them away. They have even slain the servants with the edge of the sword, and only I alone have escaped to tell you." 16 While he was still speaking, another also came, saying, "The fire of God has fallen from heaven and has burned up the sheep and the servants and consumed them, and only I have escaped alone to tell you." 17 While he was still speaking, another also came, saying, "The Chaldeans made three bands and fell upon the camels and have carried them away. They have even slain the servants with the edge of the sword, and only I alone have escaped to tell you." 18 While he was still speaking, another also came, saying, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house, 19 And behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness and smote the four corners of the house. It fell upon the young men, and they are dead, and only I alone have escaped to tell you."

20 Then Job arose, rent his mantle, shaved his head, fell upon the ground, and worshiped 21 And said,

> "Naked I came from my mother’s womb, / > and naked I shall return there. /
> The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away. / > Blessed be the name of the LORD."

22 In all this Job did not sin or charge God foolishly.

Chapter 2

Satan, appearing again before God, obtains further leave to test Job, 1-6. He smites him with sore boils, 7, 8. Job reproves his wife, who moved him to curse God, 9, 10. His three friends condole with him in silence, 11-13.

1 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD. 2 And the LORD said to Satan, "Where did you come from?" And Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth and from walking up and down upon it." 3 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is no one like him on the earth, an upright and a just man, one who fears God and shuns evil? And still he holds firmly to his integrity, although you moved me against him to destroy him without cause." 4 And Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin, even all that a man has he will give for his life. 5 But put forth your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face." 6 And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand, but save his life."

7 So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot to his crown. 8 And he took for himself a potsherd with which to scrape himself and sat down among the ashes.

9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still retain your integrity? Curse God and die." 10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite—for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. 12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, they did not know him. And they raised their voice and wept, and they each rent his mantle and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven. 13 Thus they sat down with him upon the ground for seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Chapter 3

Job curses the day and services of his birth, 1-12. The ease of death, 13-19. He bemoans life because of his anguish, 20-26.

1 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed his day. 2 And Job spoke and said,

3 "Let the day perish in which I was born, / and the night in which it was said, /
'There is a male child conceived.'

4 Let that day be darkness. /
Do not let God regard it from above, / neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it. /
Let a cloud dwell upon it. /
Let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it. /
Do not let it be joined to the days of the year. /
Do not let it come into the number of the months.

7 Behold, let that night be solitary. /
Let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it who curse the day, /
who are ready to rouse up Leviathan.

9 Let the stars of its twilight be dark. / Let it look for light, but have none, / neither let it see the dawning of the day,

10 Because it did not prevent my birth / nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

11 Why did I not die from the womb? /
Why did I not expire at the time of my birth?

12 Why did the knees receive me, /
or why the breasts so that I should be nursed?

13 For now I should have lain still and been quiet. /
I should have slept. Then I would have been at rest

14 With kings and counselors of the earth / who built desolate places for themselves,

15 Or with princes who had gold, / who filled their houses with silver.

16 Or why was I not like a hidden untimely birth, / like infants which never saw light?

17 There the wicked cease from troubling, / and there the weary are at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together. /
They do not hear the voice of the oppressor.

19 The small and great are there, / and the servant is free from his master.

20 Why is light given to him who is in misery, / and life to the bitter in soul,

21 Who long for death, but it does not come, / and dig for it more than for hidden treasures,

22 Who rejoice exceedingly / and are glad when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid / and whom God has hedged in?

24 For my sighing comes before I eat, / and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For the thing which I greatly feared has come upon me, / and that which I dreaded has come to me.

26 I was not in safety, neither did I have rest, / neither was I quiet, yet trouble came."

Chapter 4

Eliphaz reproves Job for lack of religion, 1-6. He teaches God's judgments to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked, 7-11. His fearful vision to humble the excellency of creatures before God, 12-21.

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 "If someone should attempt a word with you, will you be grieved? /
But who can refrain from speaking?

3 Behold, you have instructed many / and you have strengthened the weak hands.

4 Your words have upheld him who was falling, / and you have strengthened the feeble knees.

5 But now it has come upon you, and you faint. /
It touches you, and you are troubled.

6 Is this not your fear, your confidence, your hope, / and the uprightness of your ways?

7 Remember, I pray you: who has perished, being innocent? /
Or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, those who plow iniquity / and sow wickedness reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, / and by the breath of his nostrils they are consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion, / and the teeth of the young lions are broken.

11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey, / and the stout lion’s whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, / and my ear received a small sound of it.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, /
when deep sleep falls on men,

14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, / which made all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face. /
The hair of my flesh stood up.

16 It stood still, but I could not discern its form. /
An image was before my eyes. /
There was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 'Shall mortal man be more just than God? /
Shall a man be more pure than his maker?

18 Behold, he put no trust in his servants, / and his angels he charged with folly.

19 How much less in those who dwell in houses of clay, / whose foundation is in the dust, / who are crushed before the moth?

20 They are destroyed from morning to evening. /
They perish forever without any regarding it.

21 Does their excellence which is in them not depart? /
They die, even without wisdom.'"

Chapter 5

Eliphaz shows that the end of the wicked is misery, 1-5; that man is born to trouble, 6, 7; that God is to be regarded in affliction, 8-16; the happy end of God’s correction, 17-27.

1 "Call now, if there is any who will answer you. /
And to which of the saints will you turn?

2 For wrath kills the foolish man, / and envy slays the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root, /
but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are far from safety. /
They are crushed in the gate, / neither is there anyone to deliver them.

5 The hungry eat up his harvest / and take it even out of the thorns, / and the robber swallows up their substance.

6 Although affliction does not come forth from the dust, / neither does trouble spring out of the ground,

7 Yet man is born to trouble, /
as the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek God, / and to God I would commit my cause,

9 Who does great and unsearchable things, / wonderful things without number.

10 He gives rain upon the earth / and sends waters upon the fields,

11 To set on high those who are low /
so that those who mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 He disappoints the devices of the crafty /
so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness, / and the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darkness in the day-time / and grope in the noon-day as in the night.

15 But he saves the poor from the sword, from their mouth, / and from the hand of the mighty.

16 So the poor has hope, / and iniquity stops her mouth.

17 Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects; / therefore, do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

18 For he makes sore and binds up. /
He wounds and his hands make whole.

19 He will deliver you in six troubles, /
even in seven no evil shall touch you.

20 In famine he will redeem you from death, / and in war from the power of the sword.

21 You shall be hid from the scourge of the tongue, / neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes.

22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh, /
neither shall you be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 For you shall be in league with the stones of the field, / and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.

24 And you shall know that your tabernacle will be in peace, / and you shall visit your habitation and miss nothing.

25 You shall also know that your posterity will be great / and your offspring like the grass of the earth.

26 You shall come to your grave in a full age, / like a stack of grain comes in its season.

27 Behold this, we have searched it, and it is so. / Hear it, and know it for your good."

Chapter 6

Job shows that his complaints are not causeless, 1-7. He wishes for death, wherein he is assured of comfort, 8-13. He reproves his friends for unkindness, 14-30.

1 But Job answered and said,

2 "Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed / and my calamity laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea. /
Therefore, my words are swallowed up.

4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, / the poison of which drinks up my spirit. /
The terrors of God set themselves in array against me.

5 Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass? /
Or does the ox low over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavory be eaten without salt? /
Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch / are like loathsome food to me.

8 Oh that I might have my request, / and that God would grant me the thing that I long for,

9 Even that it would please God to destroy me, / that he would let loose his hand and cut me off!

10 Then I would still have comfort— /
I would even harden myself in sorrow, which does not spare— / for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

11 What is my strength that I should hope? /
And what is my end that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? /
Or is my flesh of brass?

13 Is my help not in me? /
And is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 To him who is afflicted, pity should be shown from his friend, / but he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brothers have dealt deceitfully like a brook, / and like the stream of brooks they pass away,

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, / and in which the snow is hid.

17 In the time when they become warm, they vanish. /
When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside. /
They go to nothing and perish.

19 The troops of Tema looked, / the companies of Sheba waited for them.

20 They were confounded because they had hoped. /
They came there and were ashamed.

21 For now you are nothing. /
You see my casting down and are afraid.

22 Did I say, 'Bring to me,' /
or, 'Give a reward for me from your substance,'

23 Or, 'Deliver me from the enemy’s hand,' / or, 'Redeem me from the hand of the mighty'?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue. /

And cause me to understand in what I have erred.

25 How forcible right words are! /
But what does your arguing reprove?

26 Do you think to reprove words, / seeing that the speeches of one who is desperate are like wind?

27 You even overwhelm the fatherless / and you dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore, be content, look upon me, / for it is evident to you if I lie.

29 Turn back, I pray you. Do not let it be iniquity. /
Yes, turn back again, for my righteousness is in it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? /
Can my taste not discern perverse things?"

Chapter 7

Job excuses his desire of death, 1-11. He bewails his own restlessness and expostulates with God, 12-21.

1 "Is there not an appointed time for man upon earth? /
Are his days not also like the days of a hireling?

2 As a servant earnestly desires the shadow, / and as a hireling looks for the reward of his work,

3 So I am made to possess months of vanity, / and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise and the night be gone?' /
And I am full of tossings to and fro until the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust. /
My skin has broken and become loathsome.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle / and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind. /
My eye will no longer see good.

8 The eye of him who has seen me shall see me no more. /
Your eyes are upon me, and I shall be no more.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away, /
so he who goes down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall no longer return to his house, /
neither shall his place know him anymore.

11 Therefore, I will not restrain my mouth. /
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit. /
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea or a sea-creature / that you set a watch over me?

13 When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me. /
My couch shall ease my complaint,'

14 You scare me with dreams / and terrify me through visions,

15 So that my soul chooses strangling / and death rather than my life.

16 I loathe it. I shall not live forever. /
Leave me alone, for my days are vanity.

17 What is man that you should magnify him, /
that you should set your heart upon him,

18 And that you should visit him every morning / and try him every moment?

19 How long will you not depart from me, /
nor leave me alone until I swallow my spittle?

20 I have sinned. What shall I do to you, O you preserver of men? / Why have you set me as a mark against you / so that I am a burden to myself?

21 And why do you not pardon my transgression / and take away my iniquity? /
For now I shall sleep in the dust. /
And you shall seek me in the morning, but I shall be no more."

Chapter 8

Bildad shows God’s justice in dealing with men according to their works, 1-7. He alleges antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite, 8-19. He applies God’s just dealing to Job, 20-22.

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

2 "How long will you speak these things? /
And how long shall the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?

3 Does God pervert judgment? /

Or does the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If your children have sinned against him, /
he has cast them away for their transgression.

5 If you would seek God diligently / and make your supplication to the Almighty,

6 If you were pure and upright, / surely now he would awake for you / and make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous.

7 Though your beginning was small, / yet your latter end would greatly increase.

8 For inquire, I pray you, of the former age, / and apply yourself to that which their fathers have searched out.

9 (For we are only of yesterday and know nothing / because our days upon earth are a shadow.)

10 Will they not teach you and tell you / and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow without mire? /
Can the reed grow without water?

12 While it is still in its greenness and not cut down, /
it withers before any other herb.

13 Thus are the paths of all who forget God. /
And the hypocrite’s hope shall perish,

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, / and whose trust shall be a spider’s web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand. /
He shall firmly hold it, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, / and his branch shoots forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped around the heap. /
He sees the place of stones.

18 If he destroys him from his place, /
then it shall deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.'

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, / and out of the earth others shall grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, / neither will he help the evildoers,

21 Until he fills your mouth with laughing / and your lips with rejoicing.

22 Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame. /
And the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nothing."

Chapter 9

Job acknowledges God's justice, 1-21. Man's innocence is not to be condemned by afflictions, 22-35.

1 Then Job answered and said,

2 "Truly I know that it is so, /
but how should man be just with God?

3 If he will contend with him, /
he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart and mighty in strength. /
Who has hardened himself against him and prospered?

5 He removes the mountains, and they do not know, / and he overturns them in his anger.

6 He shakes the earth out of her place, / and its pillars tremble.

7 He commands the sun, and it does not rise. /
He also seals up the stars.

8 He alone spreads out the heavens / and treads upon the waves of the sea.

9 He made Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, / and the chambers of the south.

10 He does great things past finding out / and even wonders without number.

11 Behold, he goes by me, and I do not see him. /
He passes on also, but I do not perceive him.

12 Behold, he takes away. Who can hinder him? /
Who will say to him, 'What are you doing?'

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, /
the proud helpers stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him / and choose out my words to reason with him?

15 Though I were righteous, yet I would not answer. /
But I would make supplication to my judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me, / yet I would not believe that he had listened to my voice.

17 For he breaks me with a tempest / and multiplies my wounds without cause.

18 He will not allow me to take my breath, /
but fills me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, behold, he is strong. /
And if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, my own mouth will condemn me. /
If I say, 'I am perfect,' that also will prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet I would not know my soul. /
I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing; therefore, I said, /
'He destroys the perfect and the wicked.'

23 If the scourge slays suddenly, / he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. /
He covers the faces of its judges. /
If it is not he, then who is it?

25 Now my days are swifter than a runner. /
They flee away. They see no good.

26 They have passed by like the swift ships, / like the eagle that hastens to the prey.

27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint. /
I will leave off my heaviness and comfort myself,'

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows. /
I know that you will not hold me innocent.

29 If I am wicked, /
why then do I labor in vain?

30 If I wash myself with snow water / and make my hands clean with lye,

31 Yet you will plunge me in the ditch, / and my own clothes shall abhor me.

32 For he is not a man as I am that I should answer him, / that we should come together in judgment.

33 There is no judge between us / who might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take away his rod from me, / and do not let his fear terrify me.

35 Then I would speak and not fear him, /
but it is not so with me."

Chapter 10

Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulates with God about his afflictions, 1-17. He bewails life and craves a little ease before death, 18-22.

1 "My soul is weary of my life. /
I will leave my complaint upon myself. /
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me. /
Show me why you contend with me.

3 Is it good to you that you should oppress, / that you should despise the work of your hands / and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Do you have eyes of flesh? /
Or do you see as man sees?

5 Are your days as the days of man? /
Are your years as man’s days,

6 That you inquire after my iniquity / and search after my sin?

7 You know that I am not wicked. /
And there is no one who can deliver out of your hand.

8 Your hands have made me and fashioned me /
in all my parts, yet you destroy me.

9 Remember, I implore you, that you have made me like the clay. /
And will you bring me into dust again?

10 Have you not poured me out like milk / and curdled me like cheese?

11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh / and fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 You have granted me life and favor, / and your visitation has preserved my spirit.

13 And these things you have hid in your heart. /
I know that this is with you.

14 If I sin, then you mark me / and will not acquit me from my iniquity.

15 If I am wicked, woe to me. /
And if I am righteous, yet I will not lift up my head. /
I am full of shame; / therefore, see my affliction.

16 And if my head exalts itself, you hunt me like a fierce lion, / and again you show yourself wonderful upon me.

17 You renew your witnesses against me / and increase your indignation upon me. /
Changes and war are against me.

18 Why then have you brought me forth from the womb? /
O that I had expired, and no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not been. /
I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.'

20 Are my days not few? / Cease then and leave me alone / so that I may take comfort a little

21 Before I go where I shall not return from, / even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death,

22 A land of thick darkness like darkness itself, / and of the shadow of death without any order, / and where the light is like darkness."

Chapter 11

Zophar reproves Job for justifying himself, 1-4. God’s wisdom is unsearchable, 5-12. The assured blessing of repentance, 13-20.

1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

2 "Should the multitude of words not be answered? /
And should a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should your falsehoods make men hold their peace? /
And when you mock, shall no man make you ashamed?

4 For you have said, 'My doctrine is pure / and I am clean in your eyes.'

5 But oh that God would speak / and open his lips against you,

6 And that he would show you the secrets of wisdom, / that they are manifold in understanding! / Know therefore that God exacts of you / less than your iniquity deserves.

7 Can you by searching find out God? /
Can you find out the Almighty to perfection?

8 It is as high as heaven. What can you do? /
It is deeper than hell. What can you know?

9 Its measure is longer than the earth / and broader than the sea.

10 If he passes by, imprisons, / or calls to judgment, then who can hinder him?

11 For he knows vain men. /
He sees wickedness also. Will he not then consider it?

12 For vain man would be wise, / though man is born like a wild donkey’s colt.

13 If you prepare your heart, / stretch out your hands toward him.

14 If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away, / and do not let wickedness dwell in your tabernacles.

15 For then you shall lift up your face without spot. /
You shall even be steadfast and shall not fear.

16 For you shall forget your misery, / and remember it as waters that pass away.

17 And your age shall be clearer than the noon-day. /
You shall shine forth. You shall be like the morning.

18 And you shall be secure because there is hope. /
You shall even dig around you and take your rest in safety.

19 Also, you shall lie down, and no one shall make you afraid. /
Indeed, many shall make petition to you.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail. /
They shall not escape. /
Their hope shall be the expiration of the breath."

Chapter 12

Job maintains himself against his friends who reprove him, 1-6. He acknowledges the general doctrine of God’s omnipotence, 7-25.

1 And Job answered and said,

2 "No doubt, but you are the people, / and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you. /
I am not inferior to you. /
Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

4 I am like one mocked by his neighbor, / who calls upon God, and he answers him. /
The just upright man is derided.

5 He who is ready to slip with his feet is like a lamp despised / in the thought of him who is at ease.

6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, / and those who provoke God are secure, / into whose hand God brings abundantly.

7 But now ask the beasts, and they shall teach you, / and the birds of the air, and they shall tell you;

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you, / and the fish of the sea shall declare to you.

9 Who does not know in all these / that the hand of the LORD has wrought this?

10 In his hand is the soul of every living thing / and the breath of all mankind.

11 Does the ear not try words, / and the mouth taste its food?

12 With the ancient is wisdom, / and in length of days understanding.

13 With him is wisdom and strength. /
He has counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaks down, and it cannot be built again. /
He shuts up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholds the waters, and they dry up. /
He also sends them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 With him is strength and wisdom. /
The deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leads counselors away captive / and makes the judges fools.

18 He releases the bonds of kings / and girds their loins with a girdle.

19 He leads princes away captive / and overthrows the mighty.

20 He removes away the speech of the trusty / and takes away the understanding of the aged.

21 He pours contempt upon princes / and weakens the strength of the mighty.

22 He reveals deep things out of darkness / and brings to light the shadow of death.

23 He increases nations and destroys them. /
He enlarges nations and diminishes them.

24 He takes away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth / and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They grope in the dark without light, / and he makes them to stagger like a drunken man."

Chapter 13

Job reproves his friends for partiality, 1-13. He professes his confidence in God, and then entreats to know his own sins and God's purpose in afflicting him, 14-28.

1 "Behold, my eye has seen all this, / my ear has heard and understood it.

2 What you know, the same I also know. /
I am not inferior to you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, / and I desire to reason with God.

4 But you are forgers of lies. /
You are all physicians of no value.

5 O that you would altogether hold your peace, / and it would be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning / and listen to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will you speak wickedly for God / and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will you accept his person? /
Will you contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? /
Or as one man mocks another, do you likewise mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, / if you secretly accept persons.

11 Shall his excellence not make you afraid / and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like ashes, / your defenses like defenses of clay.

13 Hold your peace. Leave me alone so that I may speak. /
And let come on me what will.

14 Why do I take my flesh in my teeth / and put my life in my hand?

15 Though he slay me, yet I will trust in him. /
But I will maintain my own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation, / for a hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech / and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause. /
I know that I shall be justified.

19 Who is he who will plead with me? /
For now, if I hold my tongue, I shall expire.

20 Only do not do two things to me, /
then I will not hide myself from you:

21 Withdraw your hand far from me, /
and do not let your dread make me afraid.

22 Then call, and I will answer. /
Or let me speak, and answer me.

23 How many are my iniquities and sins? /
Make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Why do you hide your face / and hold me for your enemy?

25 Will you terrify a leaf driven to and fro? /
And will you pursue the dry stubble?

26 For you write bitter things against me / and make me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

27 You put my feet also in the stocks / and look narrowly to all my paths. /
You set a print upon the soles of my feet.

28 And he wastes away like a rotten thing, / like a garment that is moth-eaten."

Chapter 14

Job entreats God for favor by the shortness of life and certainty of death, 1-6. He waits for his change, 7-15. By sin the creature is subject to corruption, 16-22.

1 "Man, who is born of a woman, / is of few days and full of trouble.

2 He comes forth like a flower and is cut down. /
He also flees like a shadow and does not continue.

3 And do you open your eyes upon such a one / and bring me into judgment with you?

4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? /
No one.

5 Seeing his days are determined, / the number of his months is with you, / and you have appointed his bounds that he cannot pass.

6 Turn from him so that he may rest / until he accomplishes his day like a hireling.

7 For there is hope for a tree, / if it is cut down, that it will sprout again / and that its tender branch will not cease.

8 Though its root becomes old in the earth / and its stump dies in the ground,

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud / and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dies and wastes away. /

Indeed, man yields his breath, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea / and the flood decays and dries up,

12 So man lies down and does not rise. /
Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake / nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that you would hide me in the grave, / that you would keep me secret until your wrath is past, / that you would appoint me a set time and remember me!

14 If a man dies, shall he live again? /
All the days of my appointed time I will wait / until my change comes.

15 You shall call, and I will answer you. /
You will have a desire for the work of your hands.

16 For now you number my steps. /
Do you not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, / and you sew up my iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling comes to nothing, / and the rock is removed out of its place.

19 The waters wear the stones. /
You wash away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth / and you destroy the hope of man.

20 You prevail forever against him, and he passes. /
You change his countenance and send him away.

21 His sons come to honor, and he does not know it. /
They are brought low, but he does not perceive it.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, / and his soul within him shall mourn."

Chapter 15

Eliphaz reproves Job for impiety in justifying himself, 1-16. He proves by tradition the unquietness of wicked men, 17-35.

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 "Should a wise man utter vain knowledge / and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk / or with speeches with which he can do no good?

4 You even cast off fear / and restrain prayer before God.

5 For your mouth utters your iniquity, / and you choose the language of the crafty.

6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I. /
Your own lips even testify against you.

7 Are you the first man who was born? /
Or were you made before the hills?

8 Have you heard the secret of God? /
And do you limit wisdom to yourself?

9 What do you know that we do not know? /
What do you understand which is not in us?

10 With us are both the gray headed and very aged men, / much older than your father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with you? /
Is there any secret thing with you?

12 Why does your heart carry you away? /
And what do your eyes wink at 13 That you turn your spirit against God / and let such words go out of your mouth?

14 What is man that he should be clean, / and he who is born of a woman that he should be righteous?

15 Behold, he puts no trust in his saints. /
The heavens are not even clean in his sight.

16 How much more abominable and filthy / is man who drinks iniquity like water?

17 I will show you. Hear me. /
And that which I have seen, I will declare 18 (Which wise men have told / from their fathers and have not hid it,

19 To whom alone the earth was given, / and no stranger passed among them).

20 The wicked man travails with pain all his days, / and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 A dreadful sound is in his ears. /
In prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He does not believe that he shall return out of darkness, / and he is waited for by the sword.

23 He wanders abroad for bread, saying, 'Where is it?' /
He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid. /
They shall prevail against him like a king ready for battle.

25 For he stretches out his hand against God / and strengthens himself against the Almighty.

26 He runs upon him with a stiff neck, / with the thick bosses of his bucklers,

27 Because he covers his face with his fatness / and makes collops of fat on his loins.

28 And he dwells in desolate cities / and in houses which no man inhabits, / which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, / neither shall he prolong its perfection upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness. /
The flame shall dry up his branches, / and by the breath of his mouth he shall go away.

31 Do not let him who is deceived trust in vanity, / for vanity shall be his recompense.

32 It shall be accomplished before his time, / and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape like the vine / and cast off his flower like the olive-tree.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, / and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 They conceive mischief and bring forth vanity, / and their belly prepares deceit."

Chapter 16

Job reproves his friends for unmercifulness, 1-16. He maintains his innocence, 17-22.

1 Then Job answered and said,

2 "I have heard many such things. /
You are all miserable comforters.

3 Shall vain words have an end? /
Or what emboldens you that you answer?

4 I also could speak as you do. /
If your soul were in my soul’s stead, /
I could heap up words against you / and shake my head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, / and the moving of my lips would assuage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged. /
And though I forbear, what am I eased?

7 But now he has made me weary. /
You have made all my company desolate.

8 And you have filled me with wrinkles, / which is a witness against me. / And my leanness rising up in me / bears witness to my face.

9 He tears me in his wrath and hates me. /
He gnashes upon me with his teeth. /
My enemy sharpens his eyes upon me.

10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth. /
They have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully. /
They have gathered themselves against me.

11 God has delivered me to the ungodly / and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he has broken me apart. /
He has also taken me by my neck, shaken me to pieces, / and set me up for his mark.

13 His archers encompass me. /
He cleaves my kidneys apart and does not spare. /
He pours out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaks me with breach upon breach. /
He runs upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin / and defiled my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, / and on my eyelids are the shades of death,

17 Although there is no injustice in my hands / and my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, do not cover my blood, / and let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, / and he who vouches for me is on high.

20 My friends scorn me. /
My eye pours out tears to God.

21 O that one might plead for a man with God /
as a man pleads for his neighbor!

22 When a few years have come, / then I shall go the way from where I shall not return."

Chapter 17

Job appeals from men to God, 1-5. The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted may astonish, but not discourage the righteous, 6-10. His hope is not in life, but in death, 11-16.

1 "My breath is corrupt. My days are extinct. /
The graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not mockers with me? /
And does my eye not continue in their provocation?

3 Give now a pledge and put me in a surety with you. /
Who is he who will strike hands with me?

4 For you have hid their heart from understanding; / therefore, you shall not exalt them.

5 He who speaks flattery to his friends, /
even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He has made me also a by-word of the people, / and they spit in my face.

7 My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, / and all my members are like a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, / and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous shall also hold on his way, / and he who has clean hands shall grow stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, come back again, / for I shall not find one wise man among you.

11 My days are past. My purposes are broken off, / even the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day. /
The light is short because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the grave is my house. /
I have made my bed in the darkness.

14 I have said to corruption, 'You are my father,' / and to the worm, 'You are my mother and my sister.'

15 And now where is my hope? /
As for my hope, who will see it?

16 They shall go down to the bars of the pit / when our rest together is in the dust."

Chapter 18

Bildad reproves Job for presumption and impatience, 1-4. The calamities of the wicked, 5-21.

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

2 "How long will it be before you make an end of words? /
Mark, and afterward we will speak.

3 Why are we counted as beasts / and reputed vile in your sight?

4 He tears himself in his anger. /
Shall the earth be forsaken for you? /
And shall the rock be removed out of its place?

5 Indeed, the light of the wicked shall be put out, / and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, / and his lamp above him shall be put out.

7 The steps of his strength shall be hindered, / and his own counsel shall cast him down.

8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, / and he walks upon a snare.

9 The snare shall take him by the heel, / and the robber shall prevail against him.

10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, / and a trap for him in the way.

11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side / and shall chase him at his heels.

12 His strength shall be hunger-bitten, / and destruction shall be ready at his side.

13 It shall devour the strength of his skin. /
Even the first-born of death shall devour his strength.

14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle / and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

15 There shall dwell in his tabernacle that which is no longer his. / Brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

16 His roots shall be dried up beneath, / and his branch shall be cut off above.

17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, / and he shall have no name in the street.

18 He shall be driven from light into darkness / and chased out of the world.

19 He shall have neither son nor posterity among his people, / nor anyone remaining in his dwellings.

20 Those who are in the west are astonished at his day, / while those in the east are terrified.

21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, / and this is the place of him who does not know God."

Chapter 19

Job, bemoaning his friends' cruelty, shows there is misery enough in him to feed their cruelty, 1-20. He craves pity, 21, 22. He believes the resurrection, 23-29.

1 Then Job answered and said,

2 "How long will you vex my soul / and break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times you have reproached me. /
You are not ashamed that you make yourselves strange to me.

4 And if it is indeed that I have erred, /
my error remains with myself.

5 If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me / and plead against me my reproach,

6 Know now that God has overthrown me / and has encompassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard. /
I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 He has fenced up my way so that I cannot pass. /
He has set darkness in my paths.

9 He has stripped me of my glory / and taken the crown from my head.

10 He has destroyed me on every side, and I am gone. /
And my hope he has removed like a tree.

11 He has also kindled his wrath against me, / and he counts me to him as one of his enemies.

12 His troops come together, / raise up their way against me, / and encamp around my tabernacle.

13 He has put my brothers far from me, / and my acquaintances are truly estranged from me.

14 My kinsmen have failed, / and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 Those who dwell in my house and my women-servants / count me for a stranger. /
I am a foreigner in their sight.

16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer. /
I entreated him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, / and I entreated to the children of my mother’s womb.

18 Young children even despise me. /
I arose, and they spoke against me.

19 All my intimate friends abhorred me. /
And those whom I loved have turned against me.

20 My bone cleaves to my skin and to my flesh, / and I have escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O my friends, / for the hand of God has touched me.

22 Why do you persecute me as God does / and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 Oh that my words were now written! /
Oh that they were printed in a book!

24 Oh that they were engraved with an iron pen and lead / in the rock forever!

25 For I know that my redeemer lives, / and that he will stand at the latter day upon the earth.

26 And after my skin is destroyed, /
yet in my flesh I shall see God,

27 Whom I shall see for myself, / and my eyes shall behold, and not another. /
My heart is consumed within me.

28 Therefore, you should say, 'Why do we persecute him, / seeing the root of the matter is found in him?'

29 Be afraid of the sword, / for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, / so that you may know there is a judgment."

Chapter 20

Zophar shows the state and portion of the wicked, 1-29.

1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

2 "Therefore, my thoughts cause me to answer, /
and for this I make haste.

3 I have heard the correction of my reproach, / and the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.

4 Do you not know this of old, / since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short / and the joy of the hypocrite is only for a moment?

6 Though his excellence mounts up to the heavens / and his head reaches to the clouds,

7 Yet he shall perish forever like his own dung. /
Those who have seen him shall say, 'Where is he?'

8 He shall fly away like a dream and will not be found. /
He shall even be chased away like a vision of the night.

9 The eye which saw him shall see him no more, / neither shall his place behold him anymore.

10 His children shall seek to please the poor, / and his hands shall restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, / which shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness may be sweet in his mouth, / though he may hide it under his tongue,

13 Though he may spare it and not forsake it, /
but keep it still within his mouth,

14 Yet his food in his bowels is turned, / it is the gall of asps within him.

15 He has swallowed down riches and he shall vomit them up again. /
God shall cast them out of his belly.

16 He shall suck the poison of asps. /
The viper’s tongue shall slay him.

17 He shall not see the river, /
the flowing brooks of honey and butter.

18 That for which he labored he shall restore / and shall not swallow it. / According to his substance the restitution shall be, /
and he shall not rejoice in it.

19 For he has oppressed and has forsaken the poor. /
He has violently taken away a house which he did not build.

20 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly. /
He shall not save anything of that in which he desired.

21 None of his food shall be left; / therefore, no man shall look for his goods.

22 In the fullness of his sufficiency he shall be in distress. /
Every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

23 When he is about to fill his belly, /
God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him /
and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, / and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn and comes out of the body. /

The glittering sword even comes out of his gall. / Terrors are upon him.

26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places. /
A fire not blown shall consume him. /
It shall go ill with him who is left in his tabernacle.

27 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity, / and the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, / and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, / and the heritage appointed to him by God."

Chapter 21

Job shows that even in the judgment of man he has reason to be grieved, 1-6. Sometimes the wicked prosper, though they despise God, 7-15. Sometimes their destruction is manifest, 16-20. The happy and unhappy are alike in death, 21-26. The judgment of the wicked is in another world, 27-34.

1 But Job answered and said,

2 "Hear diligently my speech, /
and let this be your consolation.

3 Allow me that I may speak. /
And after I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? /
And if it were so, why should my spirit not be troubled?

5 Mark me, be astonished, / and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, / and trembling takes hold of my flesh.

7 Why do the wicked live, / become old, and are mighty in power?

8 Their posterity is established in their sight with them, / and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, / neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull engenders and does not fail. /
Their cow brings forth and does not miscarry her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, / and their children dance.

12 They take the tambourine and harp / and rejoice at the sound of the pipe.

13 They spend their days in wealth / and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore, they say to God, 'Depart from us, / for we do not desire the knowledge of your ways.

15 What is the Almighty that we should serve him? /
And what profit should we have if we pray to him?'

16 Behold, their good is not in their hand. /
The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How often is the candle of the wicked put out? /
And how often does their destruction come upon them? /
God distributes sorrows in his anger.

18 They are like stubble before the wind / and like chaff that the storm carries away.

19 God lays up his iniquity for his children. /
He rewards him, and he shall know it.

20 His own eyes shall see his destruction, / and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure does he have in his house after him / when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any teach God knowledge, / seeing that he judges those who are high?

23 One dies in his full strength, / being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His pails are full of milk / and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dies in the bitterness of his soul / and never eats with pleasure.

26 They shall lie down alike in the dust, / and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts / and the devices which you wrongfully plot against me.

28 For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince? /

And where are the dwelling places of the wicked?'

29 Have you not asked those who go by the way? /
And do you not know their tokens,

30 That the wicked is reserved for the day of destruction? /
They will be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his way to his face? /
And who shall repay him what he has done?

32 Yet he shall be brought to the grave / and shall remain in the tomb.

33 The clods of the valley will be sweet to him, / and every man will draw after him, /
as there are innumerable before him.

34 How then do you comfort me in vain, / seeing in your answers there remains falsehood?"

Chapter 22

Eliphaz shows that man's goodness does not profit God, 1-4. He accuses Job of various sins, 5-20. He exhorts him to repentance, with promises of mercy, 21-30.

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 "Can a man be profitable to God, /
as he who is wise may be profitable to himself?

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous? /
Or is it gain to him that you make your ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove you for fear of you? /
Will he enter with you into judgment?

5 Is your wickedness not great / and your iniquities infinite?

6 For you have taken a pledge from your brother for nothing / and stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 You have not given water to the weary to drink / and you have withheld bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth, / and the honorable man dwelt in it.

9 You have sent widows away empty, / and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore, snares are around you, / and sudden fear troubles you,

11 Or darkness so that you cannot see, / and abundance of waters cover you.

12 Is God not in the height of heaven? /
And behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And you say, 'How does God know? /
Can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him so that he does not see, / and he walks in the circuit of heaven.'

15 Have you marked the old way / which wicked men have trodden?

16 They were cut down out of time, / and their foundation was overflowed with a flood!

17 They said to God, 'Depart from us,' / and, 'What can the Almighty do for us?'

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things. /
But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see it and are glad, / and the innocent deride them:

20 'Surely our substance is not cut down, / and the fire consumes their remnant.'

21 Now acquaint yourself with him and be at peace. /
By this good shall come to you.

22 Receive, I pray you, the law from his mouth / and lay up his words in your heart.

23 If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up, /
if you put away iniquity far from your tabernacles.

24 Then you shall lay your gold in the dust, /
the gold of Ophir in the stones of the brooks,

25 And the Almighty shall even be your treasure, / and you shall have plenty of silver.

26 For then you shall have your delight in the Almighty / and shall lift up your face to God.

27 You shall make your prayer to him, and he shall hear you, / and you shall pay your vows.

28 You shall also decree a thing, / and it shall be established to you. /
And the light shall shine upon your ways.

29 When men are cast down, you shall say, / 'There is exaltation,' / and he shall save the humble person.

30 He shall deliver even him who is not innocent. /
And he shall be delivered by the pureness of your hands."

Chapter 23

Job longs to appear before God, 1-5, in confidence of his mercy, 6, 7. God, who is invisible, observes our ways, 8-10. Job's innocence, 11, 12. God's decree is immutable, 13-17.

1 Then Job answered and said,

2 "Even today my complaint is bitter. /
My stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! /
Oh that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him / and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me / and understand what he would say to me.

6 Would he plead against me with his great power? /
No, but he would put strength in me.

7 There the righteous might dispute with him, / and I would be delivered forever from my judge.

8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there. /
I go backward, but I cannot perceive him.

9 I go on the left hand where he works, / but I cannot behold him. /
He hides himself on the right hand / so that I cannot see him.

10 But he knows the way that I take. /
When he has tried me, I shall come forth like gold.

11 My foot has held his steps. /
His way I have kept and not declined,

12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips. /

I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my appointed food.

13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? /
And what his soul desires, even that he does.

14 For he performs the thing that is appointed for me. /
And many such things are with him.

15 Therefore, I am troubled at his presence. /
When I consider, I am afraid of him.

16 For God makes my heart soft, / and the Almighty troubles me.

17 For I am not cut off by the darkness, /
but he has hidden the darkness from my face."

Chapter 24

Wickedness often goes unpunished, 1-16. There is a secret judgment for the wicked, 17-25.

1 "Why, seeing times are not hid from the Almighty, / do those who know him not see his days?

2 Some remove the landmarks. /
They violently take away flocks and their feed.

3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless / and take the widow’s ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way. /
The poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, like wild donkeys in the desert, /
they go forth to their work, seeking for a prey. /
The wilderness yields food for them and for their children.

6 They each reap his grain in the field, / and they gather the vintage of the wicked.

7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, / and they have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains / and embrace the rock for lack of a shelter.

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast / and from the poor take a pledge.

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing / and they take away the sheaf from the hungry,

11 Who make oil within their walls, / tread their wine-presses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, / and the soul of the wounded cries out. /
Yet God does not lay folly to them.

13 They are of those who rebel against the light. /
They do not know its ways / nor abide in its paths.

14 The murderer rising with the light / kills the poor and needy, / and in the night is like a thief.

15 Also, the eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight, / saying, 'No eye shall see me,' / and disguises his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses / which they had marked for themselves in the day-time. /
They do not know the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death, / because they are familiar with the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift upon the face of the waters. /
Their portion is cursed in the earth. /
He does not behold the way of the vineyards.

19 As drought and heat consume the snow-waters, /
so does the grave to those who have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him. /
The worm shall feed sweetly on him. /
He shall no longer be remembered. /
And wickedness shall be broken like a tree.

21 He oppresses the barren who does not bear / and does not do good to the widow.

22 He also draws the mighty with his power. /
He rises up, and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it is given him to be in safety, on which he rests, / yet his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for a little while, / but are gone and brought low. /
They are taken out of the way like all others, / and cut off like the tops of the heads of grain.

25 And if it is not so now, who will make me a liar / and make my speech of no worth?"

Chapter 25

Bildad shows that man cannot be justified before God, 1-6.

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

2 "Dominion and fear are with him. /
He makes peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number to his armies? /
And upon whom does his light not arise?

4 How then can man be justified with God? /
Or how can he be clean who is born of a woman?

5 Behold, even the moon has no brightness, / and the stars are not pure in his sight.

6 How much less is man who is a maggot, / and the son of man who is a worm?"

Chapter 26

Job, reproving the uncharitable spirit of Bildad, 1-4, acknowledges the power of God to be infinite and unsearchable, 5-14.

1 But Job answered and said,

2 "How have you helped him who is without power? /
How do you save the arm that has no strength?

3 How have you counseled him who has no wisdom? /
And how have you abundantly declared the thing as it is?

4 To whom have you uttered words? /
And whose spirit came from you?

5 Those who are dead tremble /
beneath the waters and the inhabitants thereof.

6 Hell is naked before him, / and destruction has no covering.

7 He stretches out the north over the empty place / and hangs the earth upon nothing.

8 He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, / and the cloud is not rent under them.

9 He holds back the face of his throne / and spreads his cloud upon it.

10 He has encompassed the waters with bounds / until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble / and are astonished at his reproof.

12 He divides the sea by his power, / and by his understanding he smites through the proud.

13 By his Spirit he has garnished the heavens. /
His hand has formed the crooked serpent.

14 Behold, these are parts of his ways, / and how little a portion is heard of him! /
But the thunder of his power, who can understand?"

Chapter 27

Job protests his sincerity, 1-7. The hypocrite is without hope, 8-10. The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses, 11-23.

1 Moreover, Job continued his parable and said,

2 "As God lives, who has taken away my judgment, / and the Almighty who has afflicted my soul,

3 All the while my breath is in me, / and the spirit of God is in my nostrils,

4 My lips shall not speak wickedness / nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 Far be it from me that I should justify you. /
Until I die I will not remove my integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold firmly and will not let it go. /
My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let my enemy be like the wicked, / and he who rises up against me like the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he has gained, / when God takes away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry /
when trouble comes upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? /
Will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you by the hand of God. /
That which is with the Almighty I will not conceal.

12 Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves. /
Why then are you thus altogether vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, /
the heritage oppressors receive from the Almighty.

14 If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword, / and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those who survive him shall be buried in death, / and his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he should heap up silver like the dust / and lay up clothing like the clay,

17 He may lay it up, but the just shall put it on, / and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He builds his house like a moth, / like a booth that the watchman makes.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered. /
He opens his eyes and he is no more.

20 Terrors take hold of him like a flood. /
A tempest steals him away in the night.

21 The east wind carries him away, and he departs. /
It sweeps him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him and not spare. /
He would willingly flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him / and hiss him out of his place."

Chapter 28

There is a knowledge of natural things, 1-11. But wisdom is an excellent gift from God, 12-28.

1 "Surely there is a vein for the silver / and a place for gold where they refine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, / and brass is melted out of the stone.

3 He sets an end to darkness, / and to all perfection he searches out / the stones of darkness and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaks out from the inhabitant, / even the waters forgotten by the foot. /
They are dried up. They have gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it comes bread, / and underneath it is turned up as by fire.

6 Its stones are the place of sapphires, / and it has dust of gold.

7 There is a path which no bird knows, / and which the falcon’s eye has not seen.

8 The lion’s whelps have not trodden it, / and no fierce lion has passed by it.

9 He puts forth his hand upon the rock. /
He overturns the mountains by the roots.

10 He cuts out rivers among the rocks. /
His eye sees every precious thing.

11 He binds the floods from overflowing. /
The thing that is hid he brings forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? /
And where is the place of understanding?

13 Man does not know its price, /
neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 The depth says, 'It is not in me.' /
And the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

15 It cannot be obtained for gold, / neither shall silver be weighed for its price.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, / with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it, / and its exchange shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of coral or of pearls, / for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Cush shall not equal it, / neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 Where then does wisdom come from? /
And where is the place of understanding?

21 It is hid from the eyes of all living / and kept close from the birds of the air.

22 Destruction and death say, /
'We have heard its fame with our ears.'

23 God understands its way / and knows its place.

24 For he looks to the ends of the earth / and sees under the whole heaven.

25 When he made the weight for the winds / and weighed the waters by measure,

26 When he made a decree for the rain / and a way for the lightning of the thunder,

27 He saw it and declared it. /
He prepared it and even searched it out.

28 And to man he said, /
'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom. /
And to depart from evil is understanding.'"

Chapter 29

Job bemoans his former prosperity, 1-25.

1 Moreover, Job continued his parable and said,

2 "Oh that I were as in months past, /
as in the days when God preserved me,

3 When his candle shined upon my head / and by his light I walked through darkness,

4 As I was in the days of my youth; /
when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was still with me; /
when my children were around me;

6 When I washed my steps with butter, / and the rock poured me out rivers of oil;

7 When I went out to the gate through the city; /
when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me and hid themselves. /
And the aged arose and stood up.

9 The princes refrained from talking / and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 The nobles held their peace / and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, it blessed me. /
And when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me.

12 For I delivered the poor who cried, / and the fatherless, and him who had no one to help him.

13 The blessing of him who was ready to perish came upon me, / and I caused the widow’s heart to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me. /
My judgment was like a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind / and I was feet to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor. /
And the cause which I did not know, I searched out.

17 And I broke the jaws of the wicked / and plucked the prey out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, 'I shall die in my nest / and multiply my days like the sand.

19 My root was spread out by the waters, / and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was fresh in me, / and my bow was renewed in my hand.'

21 To me men gave ear, waited, / and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they did not speak again, / and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain, / and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24 If I laughed at them, they did not believe it. /
And the light of my countenance they did not cast down.

25 I chose out their way, sat as chief, / and dwelt like a king in the army, / like one who comforts the mourners."

Chapter 30

Job’s honor is turned into extreme contempt, 1-14; and his prosperity into calamity, 15-31.

1 "But now those who are younger than I / have me in derision, / whose fathers I would have disdained / to put with the dogs of my flock.

2 Indeed, to what might the strength of their hands profit me, / in whom old age had perished?

3 For lack and famine they were solitary, / fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.

4 They cut up mallows by the bushes / and juniper roots for their food.

5 They were driven forth from among men /
(they cried after them as after a thief),

6 To dwell in the clefts of the valleys, /
in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed. /
Under the nettles they were collected.

8 They were children of fools, even children of base men. /
They were viler than the earth.

9 And now I am their song. /
Indeed, I am their by-word.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, / and they do not spare to spit in my face.

11 Because he has loosened my cord and afflicted me, /
they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand the disorderly youth rise. /
They push away my feet /
and raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path. /
They set forward my calamity. /
They have no helper.

14 They came upon me like a wide breaking in of waters. /
In the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me. /

They pursue my soul like the wind, / and my welfare passes away like a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me. /
The days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season, / and my sinews take no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease my garment is changed. /
It binds me around like the collar of my coat.

19 He has cast me into the mire, / and I have become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry to you, and you do not hear me. /
I stand up, and you do not regard me.

21 You have become cruel to me. /
With your strong hand you oppose yourself against me.

22 You lift me up to the wind and cause me to ride upon it. /
You dissolve my substance.

23 For I know that you will bring me to death / and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Yet he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, / though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did I not weep for him who was in trouble? /
Was my soul not grieved for the poor?

26 When I looked for good, evil came. /
And when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled and did not rest. /
The days of affliction came upon me.

28 I went mourning without the sun. /
I stood up and cried in the congregation.

29 I am a brother to jackals / and a companion to owls.

30 My skin is black upon me, / and my bones are burned with heat.

31 My harp is also turned to mourning, / and my pipe into the voice of those who weep."

Chapter 31

Job makes a solemn protestation of his integrity in various duties, 1-40.

1 "I made a covenant with my eyes. /
Why then should I think upon a virgin?

2 For what portion of God is there from above, / and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is destruction not for the wicked / and a strange punishment for the workers of iniquity?

4 Does he not see my ways / and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity / or if my foot has hastened to deceit,

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance /
so that God may know my integrity.

7 If my step has turned out of the way / and my heart walked after my eyes, / and if any blot has cleaved to my hands,

8 Then let me sow and let another eat, / even let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If my heart has been deceived by a woman / or if I have laid wait at my neighbor’s door,

10 Then let my wife grind to another, / and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is a heinous crime. /
Indeed, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumes to destruction / and would root out all my increase.

13 If I despised the cause of my man-servant / or of my woman-servant /
when they contended with me,

14 What then shall I do when God rises up? /
And when he visits, what shall I answer him?

15 Did he who made me in the womb not make him? /
And did not the same one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, / have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, / and the fatherless has not eaten any of it

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me as with a father, / and I have guided her from my mother’s womb),

19 If I have seen any perish for lack of clothing / or any poor without covering,

20 If his loins have not blessed me / and if he has not been warmed with the fleece of my sheep,

21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless /
when I saw my help in the gate,

22 Then let my arm fall from my shoulder-blade / and my arm be broken from the bone.

23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, / and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope / or have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence,'

25 If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great / and because my hand had gained much,

26 If I have beheld the sun when it shined / or the moon walking in brightness,

27 And my heart has been secretly enticed / or my mouth has kissed my hand,

28 This also would have been an iniquity to be punished by the judge, / for I would have denied the God who is above.

29 If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me / or have lifted up myself when evil found him

30 (For I have not allowed my mouth to sin / by wishing a curse to his soul),

31 If the men of my tabernacle have not said, /
'Who can find someone who has not been satisfied with his flesh?'

32 (The stranger did not lodge in the street, / but I opened my doors to the traveler),

33 If I have covered my transgressions like Adam / by hiding my iniquity in my bosom

34 Because I feared a great multitude / and the contempt of families terrified me, / so that I kept silence and did not go out of the door,

35 Oh that one would hear me! /
Behold, my desire is that the Almighty would answer me / and that my adversary had written a book.

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder / and bind it on myself like a crown.

37 I would declare to him the number of my steps. /
Like a prince I would go near to him.

38 If my land cries against me /
and its furrows likewise complain,

39 If I have eaten its fruits without money / or have caused its owners to lose their life,

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat / and weeds instead of barley."

[The words of Job are finished.]

Chapter 32

Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends, 1-5. Because wisdom does not come from age, he excuses the boldness of his youth, 6-10. He reproves them for not satisfying Job, 11-15. His zeal to speak, 16-22.

1 So these three men ceased to answer Job because he was righteous in his own eyes. 2 Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram, was kindled against Job because he justified himself rather than God. 3 His wrath was also kindled against his three friends because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job. 4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were older than he was. 5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said,

> "I am young, and you are very old; / > therefore, I was afraid and dared not show you my opinion.
>
> 7 I said, 'Days should speak, / > and multitude of years should teach wisdom.'
>
> 8 But there is a spirit in man, / > and the inspiration of the Almighty gives them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise, / neither do the aged understand judgment.

10 Therefore, I said, 'Listen to me. /
I also will show my opinion.'

11 Behold, I waited for your words. /
I gave ear to your reasons / while you searched out what to say.

12 I even attended to you, / and behold, there was none of you who convinced Job /
or who answered his words,

13 Lest you should say, 'We have found out wisdom. /
God thrusts him down, not man.'

14 Now he has not directed his words against me, / neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed. They answered no more. /
They left off speaking.

16 Seeing that I had waited (for they did not speak, / but stood still and answered no more),

17 I will also answer my part / and will also show my opinion.

18 For I am full of matter, / and the spirit within me constrains me.

19 Behold, my belly is like wine which has no vent, /
it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak so that I may be refreshed. /
I will open my lips and answer.

21 Do not let me, I pray you, accept any man’s person, / neither let me give flattering titles to man.

22 For I do not know to give flattering titles. /
In so doing, my Maker would soon take me away."

Chapter 33

Elihu offers himself instead of God to reason with Job, 1-7. He excuses God from giving man an account of his ways, by his greatness, 8-13. God calls man to repentance by visions, by afflictions, and by his ministry, 14-30. He incites Job to attention, 31-33.

1 "Therefore, Job, I pray you, hear my speeches / and listen to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth. /
My tongue has spoken in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart, / and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The Spirit of God has made me, / and the breath of the Almighty has given me life.

5 If you can answer me, / set your words in order before me and stand up.

6 Behold, I am according to your wish in God’s stead. /
I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, / neither shall my hand be heavy upon you.

8 Surely you have spoken in my hearing, / and I have heard the voice of your words, saying,

9 'I am clean without transgression. /
I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he finds occasions against me, /
he counts me for his enemy,

11 He puts my feet in the stocks, / and he marks all my paths.'

12 Behold, in this you are not just. /
I will answer you that God is greater than man.

13 Why do you strive against him? /
For he does not give account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaks once, even twice, / yet man does not perceive it.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, / when deep sleep falls upon men, / in slumberings upon the bed,

16 He opens the ears of men / and seals their instruction

17 So that he may withdraw man from his purpose / and hide pride from man.

18 He keeps back his soul from the pit / and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, / and the multitude of his bones with strong pain,

20 So that his life abhors bread, / and his soul dainty food.

21 His flesh is consumed away so that it cannot be seen. /
And his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 His soul even draws near to the grave, / and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there is a messenger with him, / an interpreter, one among a thousand, / to show to man his uprightness,

24 Then he is gracious to him and says, /
'Deliver him from going down to the pit. /
I have found a ransom.'

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child’s. /
He will return to the days of his youth.

26 He shall pray to God, and he will be favorable to him. / And he shall see his face with joy, / for he will render to man his righteousness.

27 He looks upon [his fellow] man and says, /
'I have sinned and perverted that which was right, /
and it did not profit me.

28 He will deliver my soul from going into the pit, / and my life shall see the light.'

29 Behold, all these things God works twice / and even three times with man

30 To bring back his soul from the pit, / to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, and listen to me. /
Hold your peace, and I will speak.

32 If you have anything to say, answer me. /
Speak, for I desire to justify you.

33 If not, listen to me. /
Hold your peace, and I shall teach you wisdom."

Chapter 34

Elihu accuses Job of charging God with injustice, 1-9. God cannot be unjust because he is omnipotent, 10-30. Man must humble himself to God, 31-33. Elihu reproves Job, 34-37.

1 Furthermore, Elihu answered and said,

2 "Hear my words, O you wise men, / and give ear to me, you who have knowledge.

3 For the ear tries words / like the mouth tastes food.

4 Let us choose for ourselves judgment. /
Let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job has said, 'I am righteous, / and God has taken away my judgment.

6 Should I lie against my right? /
My wound is incurable without transgression.'

7 What man is like Job / who drinks up scorning like water,

8 Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity / and walks with wicked men?

9 For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing / that he should delight himself with God.'

10 Therefore, listen to me, you men of understanding. / Far be it from God that he should do wickedness, / and from the Almighty that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man he shall render to him, / and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Surely God will not do wickedly, / neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

13 Who has given him a charge over the earth? /
Or who has disposed the whole world?

14 If he should set his heart upon man, /
if he should gather to himself his spirit and his breath, 15 All flesh would perish together / and man would return to dust.

16 If now you have understanding, hear this. /

Listen to the voice of my words.

17 Shall even he who hates right govern? /
And will you condemn him who is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, 'You are wicked,' / and to princes, 'You are ungodly'?

19 How much less to him who does not accept the persons of princes / nor regards the rich more than the poor? /
For they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment they shall die. /
And the people shall be troubled at midnight and pass away. /
And the mighty shall be taken away without the hand [of men].

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, / and he sees all his goings.

22 There is no darkness nor shadow of death / where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right, / that he should enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall break mighty men in pieces without number / and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore, he knows their works. /
He overturns them in the night so that they are destroyed.

26 Because they are wicked men, he strikes them /
in the open sight of others,

27 Because they turned back from him / and would not consider any of his ways,

28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come to him. /
And he hears the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he gives quietness, who then can make trouble? /
And when he hides his face, who then can behold him, / whether it be done against a nation or against a man only?

30 This is so that the hypocrite may not reign, / lest the people should be ensnared.

31 Surely it is proper to be said to God, /
'I have borne chastisement. I will not offend anymore.

32 That which I do not see, teach me. /
If I have done iniquity, I will do no more.'

33 Should it be according to your mind? He will recompense it, / whether you refuse or whether you choose, and not I. / Therefore, speak what you know.

34 Let men of understanding tell me, / and let a wise man listen to me.

35 Job has spoken without knowledge, / and his words were without wisdom.

36 My desire is that Job may be tried to the end / because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he adds rebellion to his sin. /
He claps his hands among us / and multiplies his words against God."

Chapter 35

Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend to him, 1-8. Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for lack of faith, 9-16.

1 Elihu spoke moreover and said,

2 "Do you think this to be right that you said, /
'My righteousness is more than God’s'?

3 For you said, 'What advantage will it be to you? /
What profit shall I have if I am cleansed from my sin?'

4 I will answer you / and your companions with you.

5 Look to the heavens and see, / and behold the clouds which are higher than you.

6 If you sin, what do you do against him? /
Or if your transgressions are multiplied, / what do you do to him?

7 If you are righteous, what do you give to him? /
Or what does he receive from your hand?

8 Your wickedness may hurt a man like yourself, / and your righteousness may profit a son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions / they make the oppressed to cry. /
They cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But no one says, 'Where is God my maker / who gives songs in the night,

11 Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth / and makes us wiser than the birds of heaven?'

12 There they cry, but no one gives answer / because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, / neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 Although you say you shall not see him, / yet judgment is before him; therefore, trust in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, he has visited in his anger, / yet he does not know it in great extremity.

16 Therefore, Job opens his mouth in vain. /
He multiplies words without knowledge."

Chapter 36

Elihu shows how God is just in his ways, 1-15. How Job's sins hinder God's blessings, 16-23. God's works are to be magnified, 24-33.

1 Elihu also proceeded and said,

2 "Allow me a little, and I will show you / that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will bring my knowledge from afar / and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false. /
He who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

5 Behold, God is mighty and does not despise anyone. /
He is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He does not preserve the life of the wicked, /
but gives right to the poor.

7 He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous. /
But with kings on the throne, /
he even establishes them forever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they are bound in fetters / and are held in cords of affliction,

9 Then he shows them their work / and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He also opens their ear to discipline / and commands that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, / they shall spend their days in prosperity / and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they do not obey, / they shall perish by the sword / and die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath. /
They do not cry when he binds them.

14 They die in youth / and their life is among the unclean.

15 He delivers the poor in his affliction / and opens their ears in oppression.

16 Even so he would have enticed you out of distress / into a broad place where there is no constraint, / and that which should be set on your table / would be full of fatness.

17 But you have fulfilled the judgment of the wicked. /
Judgment and justice take hold of you.

18 Because there is wrath, /
beware lest he take you away with his stroke. /
Then a great ransom cannot deliver you.

19 Will your riches or all the forces of your strength suffice / so that you would not be in distress?

20 Do not desire the night / when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, do not regard iniquity, / for this you have chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalts by his power. /
Who teaches like him?

23 Who has enjoined him his way? /
Or who can say, 'You have wrought iniquity'?

24 Remember that you magnify his work, / which men behold.

25 Every man may see it. /
Man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we do not know him, / neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he makes the drops of water small. /
They pour down rain according to its vapor,

28 Which the clouds drop / and distill upon man abundantly.

29 Also, can any understand the spreadings of the clouds / or the thunder of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreads his light upon it / and covers the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them he judges the people. /
He gives food in abundance.

32 With clouds he covers the light / and commands it not to shine by the intervening cloud.

33 The noise thereof announces him, /
the livestock also, concerning the storm that comes up."

Chapter 37

God is to be feared because of his great works, 1-14. His wisdom is unsearchable in them, 15-24.

1 "At this also my heart trembles / and is moved out of its place.

2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice / and the sound that goes out of his mouth.

3 He directs it under the whole heaven, / and his lightning to the ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roars. /
He thunders with the voice of his excellence, / and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thunders marvelously with his voice. /
He does great things which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he says to the snow, 'Be on the earth,' / and likewise to the small rain / and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He seals up the hand of every man /
so that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens / and remain in their places.

9 From the south comes the whirlwind, / and cold from the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given, / and the breadth of the waters is constrained.

11 Also, with moisture he lades the thick cloud. /
He scatters his bright cloud,

12 And it is turned around by his counsels / so that they may do whatever he commands them / upon the face of the world on the earth.

13 He causes it to come, whether for correction, / for his land, or for mercy.

14 Listen to this, O Job. /
Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Do you know when God disposed them / and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Do you know the balancings of the clouds, /
the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge,

17 You whose garments are warm, /
when he quiets the earth by the south wind?

18 Have you with him spread out the sky, / which is as strong as a cast metal mirror?

19 Teach us what we shall say to him, /
for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told to him that I speak? /
If a man speaks, surely he will be swallowed up.

21 And now men do not see the bright light / which is in the clouds. /
But the wind passes and cleanses them.

22 Fair weather comes from the north. /
With God is awesome majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out. /
He is excellent in power, / in judgment, and in abundance of justice. /
He will not afflict.

24 Men therefore fear him. /
He does not respect any who are wise of heart."

Chapter 38

God challenges Job to answer, 1-3. God, by his mighty works, convinces Job of ignorance, 4-30, and of imbecility, 31-41.

1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,

2 "Who is this who darkens counsel / by words without knowledge?

3 Now gird up your loins like a man, /
for I will demand of you, and answer me.

4 Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? /
Declare, if you have understanding.

5 Who has laid its measures, if you know? /
Or who has stretched the line upon it?

6 Upon what are its foundations fastened? /
Or who laid its corner stone

7 When the morning stars sang together / and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors /
when it broke forth as if it had issued out of the womb,

9 When I made a cloud its garment / and thick darkness a swaddling cloth for it,

10 And broke up for it my decreed place / and set bars and doors

11 And said, 'You shall come here, but no further, / and your proud waves shall be stayed here'?

12 Have you commanded the morning since your days / and caused the day-spring to know its place

13 So that it might take hold of the ends of earth / and that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned like clay to the seal, / and they stand like a garment.

15 And from the wicked their light is withheld, / and the high arm shall be broken.

16 Have you entered into the springs of the sea? /
Or have you walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have the gates of death been opened to you? /
Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Have you perceived the breadth of the earth? /
Declare if you know it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwells? /
And as for darkness, where is its place

20 That you should take it to its bound / and that you should know the paths to its house?

21 Do you know it because you were born then, / or because the number of your days is great?

22 Have you entered into the treasures of the snow? /
Or have you seen the treasures of the hail,

23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, / against the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, / which scatters the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who has divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, / or a way for the lightning of thunder,

26 To cause it to rain on the earth where no man is, / on the wilderness in which there is no man,

27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground, / and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 Has the rain a father? /
Or who has begotten the drops of the dew?

29 Out of whose womb did the ice come? /
And the hoary frost of heaven, who has engendered it?

30 The waters become hard like stone, / and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 Can you bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, / or loosen the cords of Orion?

32 Can you bring forth Mazzaroth in its season? /
Or can you guide Arcturus with its sons?

33 Do you know the ordinances of heaven? /
Can you set its dominion on the earth?

34 Can you lift your voice to the clouds /
so that abundance of waters may cover you?

35 Can you send lightnings so that they may go / and say to you, 'Here we are'?

36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? /
Or who has given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? /
Or who can stay the bottles of heaven

38 When the dust grows into hardness / and the clods cleave fast together?

39 Will you hunt the prey for the lion / or fill the appetite of the young lions

40 When they couch in their dens / and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 Who provides for the raven his food? /
When his young ones cry to God, / they wander for lack of food."

Chapter 39

Of the wild goats and deer, 1-4. Of the wild donkey, 5-8. The wild ox, 9-12. The peacock and ostrich, 13-18. The horse, 19-25. The hawk, 26. The eagle, 27-30.

1 "Do you know the time / when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? /
Or can you mark when the deer bring forth?

2 Can you number the months that they fulfill? /
Or do you know the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, / they cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones become strong, they grow up with grain, / they go forth and do not return to them.

5 Who has sent out the wild donkey free? /
Or who has loosened the bonds of the wild donkey,

6 Whose house I have made the wilderness / and the barren land his dwellings?

7 He scorns the multitude of the city, / neither does he regard the shouting of the driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, / and he searches after every green thing.

9 Will the wild ox be willing to serve you /
or abide by your crib?

10 Can you bind the wild ox with ropes in the furrow? /
Or will he harrow the valleys after you?

11 Will you trust him because his strength is great? /
Or will you leave your labor to him?

12 Will you believe him that he will bring home your seed / and gather it into your barn?

13 Did you give the beautiful wings to the peacocks, / or wings and feathers to the ostrich,

14 Which leaves her eggs in the earth, /
warms them in the dust,

15 And forgets that the foot may crush them / or that the wild beast may break them?

16 She is hardened against her young ones / as though they were not hers. /
Her labor is in vain without fear

17 Because God has withheld wisdom from her, / neither has he imparted to her understanding.

18 When she lifts herself on high, / she scorns the horse and his rider.

19 Have you given the horse strength? /
Have you clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Can you make him afraid like a locust? /
The glory of his nostrils is terrible.

21 He paws in the valley and rejoices in his strength. /
He goes on to meet the armed men.

22 He mocks at fear and is not terrified, / neither does he turn back from the sword.

23 The quiver rattles against him, /
the glittering spear and the shield.

24 He swallows the ground with fierceness and rage, /
neither does he believe that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He says among the trumpets, 'Ha, ha,' / and he smells the battle afar off, / the thunder of the captains and the shouting.

26 Does the hawk fly by your wisdom / and stretch her wings toward the south?

27 Does the eagle mount up at your command / and make her nest on high?

28 She dwells and abides on the rock, / upon the crag of the rock and the strong place.

29 From there she seeks the prey, / and her eyes behold afar off.

30 Her young ones also sip up blood. /
And where the slain are, there she is."

Chapter 40

Job humbles himself to God, 1-5. God stirs him up to show his righteousness, power, and wisdom, 6-15. Of the behemoth, 16-24.

1 Moreover, the LORD answered Job and said,

2 "Shall he who contends with the Almighty instruct him? /
He who reproves God, let him answer it."

3 Then Job answered the LORD and said,

4 "Behold, I am vile. /
What shall I answer you? /
I will lay my hand upon my mouth.

5 Once I have spoken, but I will not answer, / even twice, but I will proceed no further."

6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,

7 "Now gird up your loins like a man. /
I will demand of you, and you declare to me.

8 Will you also disannul my judgment? /
Will you condemn me so that you may be righteous?

9 Have you an arm like God? /
Or can you thunder with a voice like his?

10 Deck yourself now with majesty and excellence, / and array yourself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of your wrath. /
Behold everyone who is proud and abase him.

12 Look at everyone who is proud and bring him low. /
Tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together. /
Bind their faces in secret.

14 Then I will also confess to you / that your own right hand can save you.

15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with you. /
He eats grass like an ox.

16 Behold now, his strength is in his loins, / and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moves his tail like a cedar. /
The sinews of his male organs are wrapped together.

18 His bones are like strong pieces of brass. /
His bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God. /
He who made him can make his sword to approach him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, / and all the beasts of the field play there.

21 He lies under the shady trees, /
in the covert of the reed and mire.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow. /
The willows of the brook encompass him.

23 Behold, he drinks up a river and does not hasten. /
He trusts that he can draw up the Jordan into his mouth.

24 He takes it with his eyes. /
His nose pierces through snares."

Chapter 41

Of God’s great power in the leviathan, 1-34.

1 "Can you draw out leviathan with a hook, / or his tongue with a cord which you let down?

2 Can you put a hook into his nose / or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications to you? /
Will he speak soft words to you?

4 Will he make a covenant with you? /
Will you take him for a servant forever?

5 Will you play with him as with a bird? /
Or will you bind him for your young women?

6 Shall the traders make a banquet of him? /
Shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Can you fill his skin with barbed irons / or his head with fish spears?

8 Lay your hand upon him. /
Remember the battle, and do so no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain. /
Shall one not be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 No one is so fierce that he dare rouse him. /
Who then is able to stand before me?

11 Who has first benefited me that I should repay him? /
Whatever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, / his power, or his orderly proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? /
Or who can come to him with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? /
His teeth are terrible around.

15 His scales are his pride, / shut together as with a compact seal.

16 One is so near to another / that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined to one another. /
They stick together so that they cannot be separated.

18 His sneezings flash light, / and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, / and sparks of fire dart forth.

20 Out of his nostrils issues smoke /
as from a boiling pot or cauldron.

21 His breath kindles coals, / and a flame issues from his mouth.

22 In his neck remains strength, / and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 The hanging parts of his flesh are joined together. /
They are firm in themselves. They cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone, /
even as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raises himself, the mighty are afraid. /
By reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him who attacks him cannot hold, / nor the spear, the dart, or the habergeon.

27 He esteems iron as straw / and brass as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee. /
Sling-stones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble. /
He laughs at the shaking of a spear.

30 Sharp stones are under him. /
He spreads sharp pointed things upon the mire.

31 He makes the deep to boil like a pot. /
He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

32 He makes a path to shine after him. /
One would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon earth there is nothing like him, / being one who is made without fear.

34 He beholds all high things. /
He is a king over all the children of pride."

Chapter 42

Job submits himself to God, 1-6. God prefers Job's cause and reproves Job's friends, Job prays for his friends, and God accepts Job, 7-9. He magnifies and blesses Job, 10-15.

Job's age and death, 16, 17.

1 Then Job answered the LORD and said,

2 "I know that you can do everything / and that no thought can be withheld from you.

3 Who is he who hides counsel without knowledge? /
Therefore, I have uttered that which I did not understand, / things too wonderful for me which I did not know.

4 Hear, I implore you, and I will speak. /
I will ask of you, and you declare to me.

5 I have heard of you by the hearing of the ear, /
but now my eye sees you.

6 Therefore, I abhor myself / and repent in dust and ashes."

7 And it came to pass after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken about me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has. 8 Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job, and offer for yourselves a burnt-offering. And my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, lest I deal with you after your folly, in that you have not spoken about me the thing which is right, like my servant Job." 9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did according as the LORD commanded them. The LORD also accepted Job.

10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job when he prayed for his friends. The LORD also gave Job twice as much as he had before. 11 Then all his brothers came there to him, along with all his sisters and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house. And they condoled with him and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him. Everyone also gave him a piece of money and everyone an earring of gold. 12 Thus the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning, for he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys. 13 He had also seven sons and three daughters. 14 And he called the name of the first Jemima, and the name of the second Kezia, and the name of the third Keren-happuch. 15 And in all the land no women were found so fair as the daughters of Job. And their father gave them inheritance among their brothers. 16 After this, Job lived one hundred and forty years and saw his sons and his sons' sons, even four generations. 17 And Job died, being old and full of days.

BOOK I

Psalm 1

The happiness of the godly, 1-3. The unhappiness of the ungodly, 4-6.

1 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the ungodly, / nor stands in the way of sinners, / nor sits in the seat of scoffers.

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, / and on his law he meditates day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water / that brings forth its fruit in season, / and its leaf shall not wither. /
And whatever he does shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so, /
but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.

5 Therefore, the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, / nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD knows the way of the righteous. /
But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psalm 2

The kingdom of Christ, 1-9. Kings are exhorted to accept it, 10-12.

1 Why do the heathen rage / and the people plot a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, / and the rulers take counsel together / against the LORD and against his anointed, saying,

3 "Let us break their bonds apart / and cast away their cords from us."

4 He who sits in the heavens shall laugh. /
The Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then he shall speak to them in his wrath / and trouble them in his sore displeasure.

6 "Yet I have set my king / upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare the decree. /
The LORD has said to me, 'You are my Son. /
This day I have begotten you.

8 Ask of me, and I will give you the heathen for your inheritance / and the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.

9 You shall break them with a rod of iron. /
You shall dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.'"

10 Now therefore, be wise, O kings. /
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear / and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish from the way, / for his wrath may soon be kindled. / Blessed are all those who put their trust in him.

Psalm 3

The security of God’s protection, 1-8.

1 [A Psalm of David: when he fled from Absalom his son.]

LORD, how those who trouble me are multiplied! /
Many are those who rise up against me.

2 There are many who say of my soul, /
"There is no help for him in God." /
[Selah.]

3 But you, O LORD, are a shield for me, /
my glory and the lifter up of my head.

4 I cried to the LORD with my voice, / and he heard me from his holy hill. /
[Selah.]

5 I laid myself down and slept. /

I awoke, for the LORD sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people / who have set themselves against me on all sides.

7 Arise, O LORD. Save me, O my God. /
For you have smitten all my enemies upon the cheek bone. /
You have broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongs to the LORD. /
Your blessing is upon your people. /
[Selah.]

Psalm 4

David prays for audience, 1. He reproves and exhorts his enemies, 2-5. Man's happiness is in God's favor, 6-8.

1 [To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm of David.]

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness. /
You have enlarged me when I was in distress. /
Have mercy upon me and hear my prayer.

2 O sons of men, how long will you turn my glory into shame? /
How long will you love vanity and seek after falsehood? /
[Selah.]

3 But know that the LORD has set apart him who is godly for himself. /
The LORD will hear when I call to him.

4 Stand in awe and do not sin. /
Speak with your own heart upon your bed and be still. /
[Selah.]

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness / and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There are many who say, "Who will show us any good?" /
LORD, lift upon us the light of your countenance.

7 You have put gladness in my heart, / more than in the time when their grain and their wine increased.

8 I will both lay myself down in peace and sleep, / for you only, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5

David prays and professes his diligence in prayer, 1-3. God does not favor the wicked, 4-6. David, professing his faith, prays to God to guide him, 7-9; to destroy his enemies, 10; and to preserve the godly, 11, 12.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Nehiloth. A Psalm of David.] Give ear to my words, O LORD. /

Consider my meditation.

2 Listen to the voice of my cry, my King and my God. /
For to you I will pray.

3 My voice you shall hear in the morning, O LORD. /
In the morning I will direct my prayer to you and will look up.

4 For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness, / neither shall evil dwell with you.

5 The foolish shall not stand in your sight. /
You hate all workers of iniquity.

6 You shall destroy those who speak falsehood. /
The LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into your house / in the multitude of your mercy, / and in your fear I will worship / toward your holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies. /
Make your way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth. /
Their inward part is wickedness. /
Their throat is an open sepulcher. /
They flatter with their tongue.

10 Destroy them, O God. /
Let them fall by their own counsels. /
Cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions. /
For they have rebelled against you.

11 But let all those who put their trust in you rejoice. /
Let them always shout for joy because you defend them. /
Let them also who love your name be joyful in you.

12 For you, LORD, will bless the righteous. /
With favor you will compass him as with a shield.

1 [To the Chief Musician on Neginoth upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David.]

O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger, /
neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am weak. /
O LORD, heal me, for my bones are agitated.

3 My soul is also greatly disquieted. /
But you, O LORD, how long?

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul. /
Oh save me for your mercy's sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of you. /
In the grave, who will give you thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning. /
All the night I make my bed to swim. /
I water my couch with my tears.

7 My eye is consumed because of grief. /
It grows old because of all my enemies.

8 Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, / for the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The LORD has heard my supplication. /
The LORD will receive my prayer.

10 Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly disquieted. /
Let them return and be suddenly ashamed.

O LORD my God, I put my trust in you. /
Save me from all those who persecute me, and deliver me,

2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, / rending it in pieces, while there is no one to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this, /
if there is iniquity in my hands,

4 If I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me /
(I have even delivered him who without cause is my enemy),

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul and take it. /
Let him even tread down my life upon the earth / and lay my honor in the dust. /

6 Arise, O LORD, in your anger, /

8 The LORD shall judge the people. /
Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness / and according to my integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, / but establish the just, / for the righteous God tries the hearts and minds.

10 My defense is from God, / who saves the upright in heart.

11 God judges the righteous, / and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he does not turn, he will whet his sword. /
He has bent his bow and made it ready.

13 He has also prepared for him the instruments of death. /
He ordains his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travails with iniquity, / has conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, dug it, / and has fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, / and his violent dealing shall come down upon the crown of his own head.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness / and sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

Psalm 8

God's glory is magnified by his works and by his love to man, 1-9.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Gittith. A Psalm of David.]

O Yahweh our Lord, /
how excellent your name is in all the earth! /
You have set your glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have ordained strength / because of your enemies /
so that you might still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, /
the moon and the stars, which you have ordained,

4 What is man that you are mindful of him, /
and the son of man that you visit him?

5 For you have made him a little lower than the angels / and have crowned him with glory and honor.

6 You have made him to have dominion over the works of your hands. /
You have put all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and oxen /
and even the beasts of the field,

8 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, / and whatever passes through the paths of the seas.

9 O Yahweh our Lord, /
how excellent your name is in all the earth!

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Muthlabben. A Psalm of David.]

I will praise you, O LORD, with my whole heart. /
I will show forth all your wonderful works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in you. /
I will sing praise to your name, O most High.

3 When my enemies are turned back, / they shall fall and perish at your presence.

4 For you have maintained my right and my cause. /
You sat on the throne judging right.

5 You have rebuked the heathen, / you have destroyed the wicked, /
you have blotted out their name forever and ever.

6 O enemy, destructions have come to a perpetual end, / and you have destroyed cities. /
Their memorial has perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure forever. /
He has prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness. /
He shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 The LORD will also be a refuge for the oppressed, /
a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And those who know your name will put their trust in you, / for you, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.

11 Sing praises to the LORD who dwells in Zion. /
Declare among the people his doings.

12 For he who avenges blood remembers them. /
He does not forget the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD. /
Consider my trouble which I suffer from those who hate me, /
and lift me up from the gates of death

14 So that I may show forth all your praise / in the gates of the daughter of Zion. /
I will rejoice in your salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made. /
In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.

16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executes. /
The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. /
[Higgaion. Selah.]

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell— /
all the nations who forget God.

18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten. /
The expectation of the poor shall not perish forever.

19 Arise, O LORD. /
Do not let man prevail. /
Let the heathen be judged in your sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD, /
so that the nations may know themselves to be only men. /
[Selah.]

Psalm 10

David accuses the wicked, 1-11. He prays for remedy, 12-15. He professes his confidence, 16-18.

1 Why do you stand afar off, O LORD? /
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride persecutes the poor. /
Let them be taken in the devices that they have conceived.

3 For the wicked boasts about his heart’s desire / and blesses the covetous, whom the LORD abhors.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, / will not seek after God. /
God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous. /
Your judgments are far above out of his sight. /
As for all his enemies, he puffs at them.

6 He has said in his heart, "I shall not be moved, / for I shall never be in adversity."

7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud. /
Under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He sits in the lurking places of the villages. /
In the secret places he murders the innocent. /
His eyes are secretly set against the poor.

9 He lies in wait secretly like a lion in his den. /
He lies in wait to catch the poor. /
He catches the poor when he draws him into his net.

10 He crouches and humbles himself / so that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

11 He has said in his heart, "God has forgotten. /

He hides his face. He will never see it."

12 Arise, O LORD. O God, lift up your hand. /
Do not forget the humble.

13 Why does the wicked despise God? /
He has said in his heart, "You will not require it."

14 You have seen it, / for you behold mischief and spite to requite it with your hand. /
The poor commits himself to you. /
You are the helper of the fatherless.

15 Break the arm of the wicked and the evil man. /
Seek out his wickedness until you find none.

16 The LORD is King forever and ever. /
The heathen have perished out of his land.

17 LORD, you have heard the desire of the humble. /
You will prepare their heart. /
You will cause your ear to hear,

18 Doing justice for the fatherless and the oppressed /
so that man who is from the earth may no longer oppress.

1 [A Prayer of David.]

Hear the right, O LORD. /
Attend to my cry. /
Give ear to my prayer, / which does not go out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from your presence. /

5 Uphold my goings in your paths /

Incline your ear to me and hear my speech.

7 Show your wonderful loving-kindness, /

8 Keep me as the apple of your eye. /
Hide me under the shadow of your wings

10 They are enclosed in their own fat. /
They speak proudly with their mouth.

11 They have now compassed us in our steps. /
They have set their eyes bowing down to the earth,

13 Arise, O LORD. /
Disappoint him. Cast him down. /
Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword,

14 From men who are your hand, O LORD, / from men of the world who have their portion in this life / and whose belly you fill with your hidden treasure. /
They are full of children / and leave the rest of their substance to their babies.

15 As for me, I shall behold your face in righteousness. /
I shall be satisfied with your likeness when I awake.

Psalm 18

David praises God for his manifold and marvelous blessings, 1-50.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the Servant of the LORD: who spoke the words of this song to the LORD in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said,]

I will love you, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, / my God, my strength in whom I will trust, / my buckler, the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD who is worthy to be praised, / and I shall be saved from my enemies.

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, / and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The sorrows of hell encompassed me. /
The snares of death seized me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD / and cried to my God. /
He heard my voice out of his temple, / and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled, / and also the foundations of the hills moved / and were shaken, because he was angry.

8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, / and fire out of his mouth devoured. /
Coals were kindled by it.

9 He also bowed the heavens and came down, / and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub and flew. /
He even flew upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place, his pavilion around him, / dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed / with hail stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, / and the Highest gave his voice / with hail stones and coals of fire.

14 He even sent out his arrows and scattered them, / and he shot out lightnings and completely defeated them.

15 Then the channels of waters were seen / and the foundations of the world were uncovered / at your rebuke, O LORD, / at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.

16 He sent from above, he took me, /
he drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy / and from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

18 They attacked me in the day of my calamity, /

but the LORD was my stay.

19 He also brought me forth in a large place. /
He delivered me because he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me /
according to my righteousness. /
According to the cleanness of my hands /
he has recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD / and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, / and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright before him / and I kept myself from my iniquity.

24 Therefore, the LORD has recompensed me /
according to my righteousness, /
according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

25 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful. /
With an upright man you will show yourself upright.

26 With the pure you will show yourself pure. /
With the perverse you will contend.

27 For you will save the afflicted people, /
but will bring down high looks.

28 For you will light my candle. /
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by you I have run through a troop. /
And by my God I have leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect. /
The word of the LORD is tried. /
He is a buckler to all those who trust in him.

31 For who is God except the LORD? /
Or who is a rock except our God?

32 It is God who girds me with strength / and makes my way perfect.

33 He makes my feet like those of a doe / and sets me upon my high places.

34 He teaches my hands to war /

so that a bow of steel is broken by my arms.

35 You have also given me the shield of your salvation. /
Your right hand has held me up, / and your gentleness has made me great.

36 You have enlarged my steps under me, / and my feet have not slipped.

37 I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them, / neither did I turn back until they were consumed.

38 I have wounded them so that they were not able to rise. /
They have fallen under my feet.

39 For you have girded me with strength to battle. /
You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

40 You have also given me the necks of my enemies /
so that I might destroy those who hate me.

41 They cried, but there was no one to save them, /
even to the LORD, but he did not answer them.

42 Then I beat them as small as the dust before the wind. /
I cast them out like the dirt in the streets.

43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people / and you have made me the head of the heathen. /
A people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me. /
The strangers shall submit themselves to me.

45 The strangers shall fade away / and be afraid from their strongholds.

46 The LORD lives. Blessed be my rock. /
Let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God who avenges me / and subdues the people under me.

48 He delivers me from my enemies. /
You even lift me up above those who rise up against me. /
You have delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore, I will give thanks to you, O LORD, among the heathen / and sing praises to your name.

50 He gives great deliverance to his king / and shows mercy to his anointed, / to David, and to his offspring forever.

10 I was cast upon you from my birth. /
You are my God from the time I was born.

11 Do not be far from me, for trouble is near. /
For there is no one to help.

12 Many bulls have surrounded me. /
Strong bulls of Bashan have compassed me.

13 They gaped upon me with their mouths / like a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, / and all my bones are out of joint. /
My heart is like wax. /
It is melted in the midst of my body.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, / and my tongue cleaves to my jaws. /
And you have brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have compassed me. /
The assembly of the wicked have enclosed me. /
They pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may number all my bones. /
They look and stare upon me.

18 They part my garments among them /
and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But do not be far from me, O LORD. /
O my strength, hasten to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword, / my darling from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lion’s mouth, / for you have heard me from the horns of the wild oxen.

22 I will declare your name to my brothers. /
In the midst of the congregation I will praise you.

23 You who fear the LORD, praise him. /
All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him. /
And fear him, all you offspring of Israel.

24 For he has not despised nor abhorred / the affliction of the afflicted, / neither has he hid his face from him. /
But when he cried to him, he heard.

25 My praise shall be of you in the great congregation. /
I will pay my vows before those who fear him.

26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied. /
They shall praise the LORD who seek him. /
Your heart shall live forever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn to the LORD, / and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before you.

28 For the kingdom is the LORD’S, / and he is the governor among the nations.

29 All those who are fat upon earth shall eat and worship. /
All those who go down to the dust shall bow before him. /
And no one can keep his own soul alive.

30 Posterity shall serve him. /
It shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

31 They shall come and declare his righteousness / to a people who shall be born, / that he has done this.

9 Lift up your heads, O gates, / even lift them up, you everlasting doors, / for I have walked in my integrity. /

I have also trusted in the LORD; / therefore, I shall not slide.

2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me. /
Try my mind and my heart.

3 For your loving-kindness is before my eyes, / and I have walked in your truth.

4 I have not sat with vain persons, / neither will I go in with dissemblers.

5 I have hated the congregation of evildoers / and will not sit with the wicked.

6 I will wash my hands in innocence / and will compass your altar, O LORD,

7 So that I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving / and tell of all your wondrous works.

8 LORD, I have loved the habitation of your house / and the place where your honor dwells.

9 Do not gather my soul with sinners /

Redeem me and be merciful to me.

12 My foot stands in an even place. /
In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

Psalm 27

David sustains his faith by prayer, 1-14.

1 [A Psalm of David.]

The LORD is my light and my salvation. /
Whom shall I fear? /
The LORD is the strength of my life. /
Of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, / even my enemies and my foes, / came upon me to eat up my flesh, / they stumbled and fell.

3 Though a host should encamp against me, /
my heart shall not fear. /
Though war should rise against me, / in this I will be confident.

4 One thing I have desired of the LORD / that I will seek after: / that I may dwell in the house of the LORD /
all the days of my life / to behold the beauty of the LORD / and to inquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he will hide me in his pavilion. /
In the secret of his tabernacle he will hide me. /
He will set me up upon a rock.

6 And now my head shall be lifted / above my enemies around me; / therefore, I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy. /
I will sing, I will even sing praises to the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice, / and have mercy upon me and answer me.

8 When you said, "Seek my face," my heart said to you, /
"Your face, LORD, I will seek."

9 Do not hide your face from me. /
Do not put your servant away in anger. /
You have been my help. /
Do not leave me, neither forsake me, /
O God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, /
the LORD will take me up.

11 Teach me your way, O LORD, / and lead me in a plain path / because of my enemies.

12 Do not deliver me over to the will of my enemies, / for false witnesses have risen against me, / and those who breathe out cruelty.

13 I would have fainted unless I had believed to see /

1 [A Psalm of David.]

To you I will cry, O LORD my rock. /
Do not be silent to me, /
lest, if you are silent to me, /
I become like those who go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry to you, /
when I lift my hands toward your holy oracle.

3 Do not draw me away with the wicked / and with the workers of iniquity, / who speak peace to their neighbors, /
but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds / and according to the wickedness of their endeavors. /

Give them after the work of their hands. /
Render to them what they deserve.

5 Because they do not regard the works of the LORD / nor the operation of his hands, /
he will destroy them and not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD /
because he has heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield. / My heart trusted in him, and I am helped; / therefore, my heart greatly rejoices, / and with my song I will praise him.

and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

9 Save your people and bless your inheritance. /
Feed them also and lift them up forever.

David exhorts princes to give glory to God, 1, 2; by reason of his power, 3-10; and protection of his people, 11.

1 [A Psalm of David.]

Give to the LORD, O you mighty, / give to the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give to the LORD the glory due to his name. /
Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters. /
The God of glory thunders. /
The LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful. /
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars. /
The LORD even breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He makes them also to skip like a calf, /
Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.

7 The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness. /
The LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD makes the deer bring forth / and makes the forests bare. /
And in his temple everyone speaks of his glory.

10 The LORD sits upon the flood. /
The LORD even sits king forever.

11 The LORD will give strength to his people. /
The LORD will bless his people with peace.

Psalm 30

David praises God for his deliverance, 1-3. He exhorts others to praise him by example of God's dealings with him, 4-12.

1 [A Psalm and Song: for the dedication of the house of David.]

I will extol you, O LORD, for you have lifted me up / and have not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, /
I cried to you, and you have healed me.

3 O LORD, you have brought up my soul from the grave. /
You have kept me alive /
so that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing to the LORD, O saints of his, / and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his anger endures only a moment. /
In his favor is life. /
Weeping may endure for a night, /
but joy comes in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity, I said, /
"I shall never be moved."

7 LORD, by your favor / you have made my mountain to stand strong. / You hid your face, / and I was troubled.

8 I cried to you, O LORD. /
And to the LORD I made supplication.

9 What profit is there in my blood / when I go down to the pit? / Shall the dust praise you? /
Shall it declare your truth?

10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me. /
LORD, be my helper.

11 You have turned for me my mourning into dancing. /
You have put off my sackcloth / and girded me with gladness,

12 To the end that my glory may sing praise to you and not be silent. /
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

Psalm 31

David, showing his confidence in God, craves his help, 1-6. He rejoices in his mercy, 7, 8. He prays in his calamity, 9-18. He praises God for his goodness, 19-24.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.]

In you, O LORD, I put my trust. /
Let me never be ashamed. /
Deliver me in your righteousness.

2 Bow down your ear to me. Deliver me speedily. / Be my strong rock, /
a house of defense to save me.

3 For you are my rock and my fortress; / therefore, for your name’s sake lead me and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me, / for you are my strength.

5 Into your hand I commit my spirit. /
You have redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

6 I have hated those who regard lying vanities, /
but I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in your mercy, / for you have considered my trouble. /
You have known my soul in adversities,

8 And have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy. /
You have set my foot in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble. /
My eye is consumed with grief, even my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief / and my years with sighing. /
My strength fails because of my iniquity / and my bones are consumed.

11 I was a reproach among all my enemies, / but especially among my neighbors, / and a fear to my acquaintances. /
Those who saw me outside fled from me.

12 I am forgotten like a dead man out of mind. /
I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the slander of many. / Fear was on every side. /
While they took counsel together against me, /
they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in you, O LORD. /
I said, "You are my God."

15 My times are in your hand. / Deliver me from the hand of my enemies / and from those who persecute me.

16 Make your face to shine upon your servant. /
Save me for your mercies' sake.

17 Do not let me be ashamed, O LORD, / for I have called upon you. /
Let the wicked be ashamed. /
Let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence, / which speak grievous things proudly / and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 Oh how great your goodness is, / which you have laid up for those who fear you, / which you have wrought for those who trust in you / before the sons of men!

20 You shall hide them in the secret of your presence / from the pride of man. /
You shall keep them secretly in a pavilion / from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD, /
for he has shown me his wonderful kindness in a strong city.

22 For I said in my haste, /
"I am cut off from before your eyes." /
Nevertheless, you heard the voice of my supplications /
when I cried to you.

23 O love the LORD, all his saints, / for the LORD preserves the faithful / and fully recompenses the proud doer.

24 Be of good courage, and he will strengthen your heart, / all you who hope in the LORD.

"Ah, we would have it so." /
Do not let them say, /
"We have swallowed him up."

27 Let them shout for joy and be glad / who favor my righteous cause. /
Let them even say continually, /
"Let the LORD be magnified, / who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant."

28 And my tongue shall speak of your righteousness /

Psalm 36

The grievous estate of the wicked, 1-4. The excellency of God's mercy, 8, 9. David prays for favor to God's children, 10-12.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the Servant of the LORD.]

The transgression of the wicked says within my heart / that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes / until his iniquity is found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit. /
He has ceased to be wise and to do good.

4 He devises mischief upon his bed. /
He sets himself in a way that is not good. /
He does not abhor evil.

5 Your mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens / and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like the great mountains. /
Your judgments are a great deep. /
O LORD, you preserve man and beast.

7 How excellent your loving-kindness is, O God! /
Therefore, the children of men put their trust / under the shadow of your wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of your house, / and you shall make them drink from the river of your delights.

9 For with you is the fountain of life. /
In your light we shall see light.

10 O continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, / and your righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Do not let the foot of pride come against me, / and do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

12 There the workers of iniquity have fallen. /
They are cast down and shall not be able to rise.

Psalm 37

David persuades to patience and confidence in God by the different estate of the godly and the wicked, 1-40.

1 [A Psalm of David.]

Do not fret yourself because of evildoers, / neither be envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass / and wither like the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD and do good. /
Dwell in the land, and truly you shall be fed.

4 Delight yourself also in the LORD, / and he will give you the desires of your heart.

5 Commit your way to the LORD. /
Trust also in him, and he will bring it to pass.

6 And he will bring forth your righteousness like the light / and your judgment like the noon-day.

7 Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for him. /
Do not fret yourself because of him who prospers in his way, / because of the man who brings wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger and forsake wrath. /
Do not fret yourself. It leads only to evil-doing.

9 For evildoers shall be cut off, / but those who wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be. /
You shall even diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth / and delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just / and gnashes upon him with his teeth.

13 The Lord will laugh at him, / for he sees that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword and bent their bow / to cast down the poor and needy / and to slay those who are of upright deportment.

15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, / and their bows shall be broken.

16 A little that a righteous man has is better / than the riches of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, /
but the LORD upholds the righteous.

18 The LORD knows the days of the upright, / and their inheritance shall be forever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time, / and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, / and the enemies of the LORD shall be like the fat of lambs. /
They shall consume. Into smoke they shall consume away.

21 The wicked borrows and does not pay back, /
but the righteous shows mercy and gives.

22 For those who are blessed by him shall inherit the earth, / and those who are cursed by him shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD, / and he delights in his way.

24 Though he should fall, he shall not be utterly cast down, / for the LORD upholds him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old, / yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken / nor his children begging for bread.

26 He is ever merciful and lends, / and his offspring is blessed.

27 Depart from evil and do good, / and dwell forevermore.

28 For the LORD loves judgment / and does not forsake his saints. /
They are preserved forever, /
but the offspring of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land / and dwell therein forever.

30 The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom, / and his tongue talks of judgment.

31 The law of his God is in his heart. /
None of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watches the righteous / and seeks to slay him.

33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand / nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait on the LORD and keep his way, / and he will exalt you to inherit the land. /
When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power / and spreading himself like a green bay tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and behold, he was no more. /
I even sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, / for the end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together. /
The end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD. /
He is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD will help them and deliver them. /
He will deliver them from the wicked and save them / because they trust in him.

Psalm 38

David moves God to take compassion on his pitiful case, 1-22.

1 [A Psalm of David: to bring to remembrance.]

O LORD, do not rebuke me in your wrath, /
neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.

2 For your arrows stick firmly in me, / and your hand falls heavy upon me.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your anger, / neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For my iniquities have gone over my head. /
Like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds are offensive and are corrupt / because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled. I am bowed down greatly. /
I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease, / and there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and grievously broken. /
I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before you, / and my groaning is not hid from you.

10 My heart pants. My strength fails me. /
As for the light of my eyes, that also is gone from me.

11 My loved ones and my friends stand aloof from my affliction, / and my kinsmen stand afar off.

12 Those who also seek after my life lay snares for me. /
And those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things / and plot deceits all the day long.

13 But I, like a deaf man, did not hear. /
And I was like a mute man who does not open his mouth.

14 Thus I was like a man who does not hear, / and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in you, O LORD, I hope. /
You will hear, O Lord my God.

16 For I said, "Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me. /
When my foot slips, they magnify themselves against me."

17 For I am ready to fall, / and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will declare my iniquity. /
I will be sorry for my sin.

19 But my enemies are lively and they are strong, / and those who hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 Those who also render evil for good / are my adversaries because I follow the thing that is good.

21 Do not forsake me, O LORD. /

O my God, do not be far from me.

22 Make haste to help me, /
O Lord my salvation.

Psalm 39

David’s care of his thoughts, 1-3. The consideration of the brevity and vanity of life, 4-6; the reverence of God’s judgments, 7-9, and prayer, are his bridles for impatience, 10-13.

1 [To the Chief Musician, even to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.]

I said, "I will take heed to my ways /
so that I do not sin with my tongue. /
I will keep my mouth with a bridle / while the wicked is before me."

2 I was mute with silence. /
I held my peace, even from good, / and my sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me. /
While I was musing, the fire burned. /
Then I spoke with my tongue:

4 "LORD, make me to know my end / and the measure of my days, what it is, / so that I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, you have made my days as a hand-breadth / and my lifetime as nothing before you. / Truly every man at his best state is altogether vanity." /
[Selah.]

6 "Surely every man walks in a vain show. /
Surely they are disquieted in vain. /
He heaps up riches and does not know who gathers them.

7 And now, Lord, what do I wait for? /
My hope is in you.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions. /
Do not make me the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was mute. I did not open my mouth / because you did it.

10 Remove your stroke away from me. /
I am consumed by the blow of your hand.

11 When you, with rebukes, correct man for iniquity, /

you make his beauty to consume away like a moth. / Surely every man is vanity." /
[Selah.]

12 "Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my cry. /
Do not hold your peace at my tears, / for I am a stranger with you, / and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13 O spare me so that I may recover strength / before I go from here and am no more."

Psalm 40

The benefit of confidence in God, 1-5. Obedience is the best sacrifice, 6-10. The sense of David's evils inflames his prayer, 11-17.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.]

I waited patiently for the LORD, / and he inclined to me and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, / out of the miry clay, / and set my feet upon a rock / and established my goings.

3 And he has put a new song in my mouth, / even praise to our God. /
Many shall see it and fear / and trust in the LORD.

4 Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his trust / and does not respect the proud / or those who turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD, my God, / are your wonderful works which you have done / and your thoughts which are toward us. /
They cannot be reckoned up in order to you. /
If I would declare and speak of them, /
they are more than can be numbered.

6 Sacrifice and offering you did not desire. /
You have opened my ears. /
Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required.

7 Then I said, "Behold, I come. /
In the volume of the book it is written about me.

8 I delight to do your will, O my God. /

Your law is even within my heart."

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation. /
Behold, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, as you know.

10 I have not hid your righteousness within my heart. /
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation. /
I have not concealed your loving-kindness and your truth / from the great congregation.

11 Do not withhold your tender mercies from me, O LORD. /
Let your loving-kindness and your truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have encompassed me. /
My iniquities have taken hold upon me /
so that I am not able to look up. /
They are more than the hairs of my head; /
therefore, my heart fails me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me. /
O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together / who seek after my soul to destroy it. / Let them be driven backward and put to shame / who wish me evil.

15 Let them be desolate by reason of their shame / who say to me, "Aha, aha."

16 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. /
Let those who love your salvation say continually, /
"May the LORD be magnified."

17 But I am poor and needy, / yet the Lord thinks upon me. /
You are my help and my deliverer. /
Make no delay, O my God.

Psalm 41

The recompense of the charitable, 1-3. David bemoans his enemies' treachery, 4-9. He flees to God for help, 10-13.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.]

Blessed is he who considers the poor. /

The LORD will deliver him in the time of trouble.

2 The LORD will preserve him and keep him alive, / and he shall be blessed upon the earth. /
And you will not deliver him to the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing. /
You will restore his health in his sickness.

4 I said, "LORD, be merciful to me. /
Heal my soul, for I have sinned against you."

5 My enemies speak evil of me, /
"When shall he die and his name perish?"

6 And if he comes to see me, he speaks vanity. /
His heart gathers iniquity to itself. /
When he goes abroad, he tells it.

7 All who hate me whisper together against me. /
They devise my hurt against me.

8 "An evil disease," they say, "cleaves fast to him. /
And now that he lies he shall rise no more."

9 Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted, / who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.

10 But you, O LORD, be merciful to me and raise me up /
so that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that you favor me, / because my enemy does not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, you uphold me in my integrity / and set me before your face forever.

13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel /
from everlasting to everlasting. /
Amen and amen.

Psalm 42

David’s zeal to serve God in the temple, 1-4. He encourages his soul to trust in God, 5-11.

1 [To the Chief Musician. Maschil for the Sons of Korah.]

As the deer pants after the water brooks, / so my soul pants after you, O God.

2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. /
When shall I come and appear before God?

3 My tears have been my food day and night /
while they continually say to me, "Where is your God?"

4 When I remember these things, /
I pour out my soul in me. /
For I had gone with the multitude. /
I went with them to the house of God, / with the voice of joy and praise, / with a multitude who kept holy-day.

5 Why are you cast down, O my soul? /
And why are you disquieted in me? /
Hope in God. For I shall again praise him /
for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me; / therefore, I will remember you from the land of the Jordan / and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

7 Deep calls to deep at the noise of your water-spouts. /
All your waves and your billows have gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will command his loving-kindness in the day-time, / and in the night his song shall be with me, / and my prayer to the God of my life.

9 I will say to God my rock, /
"Why have you forgotten me? /
Why do I go mourning /
because of the oppression of the enemy?"

10 As with a sword in my bones, my enemies reproach me / while they daily say to me, "Where is your God?"

11 Why are you cast down, O my soul? /
And why are you disquieted within me? /
Hope in God. For I shall again praise him /
who is the health of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 43

David, praying to be restored to the temple, promises to serve God joyfully, 1-4. He encourages his soul to trust in God, 5.

1 Judge me, O God, / and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. /
O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For you are the God of my strength. /
Why do you cast me off? /
Why do I go mourning /
because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 O send out your light and your truth. /
Let them lead me. /
Let them bring me to your holy hill / and to your tabernacles.

4 Then I will go to the altar of God, / to God, my exceeding joy. /
Upon the harp I will even praise you, /
O God my God.

5 Why are you cast down, O my soul? /
And why are you disquieted within me? /
Hope in God. For I shall again praise him /
who is the health of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 44

The church, in memory of former favors, 1-6, bemoans her present evils, 7-16. Professing her integrity, 17-23, she fervently prays for help, 24-26.

1 [To the Chief Musician for the Sons of Korah. Maschil.]

We have heard with our ears, O God. /
Our fathers have told us what work you did in their days, / in the times of old:

2 How you drove out the heathen with your hand / and planted them, / how you afflicted the people /
and cast them out.

3 For they did not obtain the land in possession by their own sword, / neither did their own arm save them, / but your right hand, your arm, / and the light of your countenance, / because you were favorable to them.

4 You are my King, O God. /
Command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through you we will push down our enemies. /
Through your name we will tread them under who rise up against us.

6 For I will not trust in my bow, / neither shall my sword save me.

7 But you have saved us from our enemies /
and have put them to shame who hated us.

8 In God we boast all the day long. /
We will praise your name forever. /
[Selah.]

9 But you have cast off and put us to shame /
and do not go forth with our armies.

10 You make us to turn back from the enemy. /
And those who hate us plunder for themselves.

11 You have given us like sheep appointed for food / and scattered us among the heathen.

12 You sell your people for nothing / and have not increased your wealth by their price.

13 You make us a reproach to our neighbors, /
a scorn and a derision to those who are around us.

14 You make us a by-word among the heathen, /
a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My disgrace is continually before me, /
and the shame of my face has covered me,

16 Because of the voice of him who reproaches and blasphemes, / because of the enemy and avenger.

17 All this has come upon us, yet we have not forgotten you, / neither have we dealt falsely in your covenant.

18 Our heart has not turned back, / neither have our steps declined from your way,

19 Though you have severely broken us in the place of jackals / and covered us with the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God /
or stretched out our hands to a strange god,

21 Will God not search this out? /
For he knows the secrets of the heart.

22 Indeed, for your sake we are killed all the day long. /
We are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 Awake, why do you sleep, O Lord? /

Arise, do not cast us off forever.

24 Why do you hide your face /
and forget our affliction and our oppression?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust. /
Our belly cleaves to the earth.

26 Arise for our help / and redeem us for your mercies' sake.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Shoshannim for the Sons of Korah. Maschil. A Song of Love.]

My heart is inditing a good matter. /
I speak of the things which I have made concerning the king. /
My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 You are fairer than the children of men. / Grace is poured into your lips; / therefore, God has blessed you forever.

3 Gird your sword upon your thigh, O most mighty, / with your glory and your majesty.

4 And in your majesty ride prosperously / because of truth, meekness, and righteousness. /
And your right hand shall teach you awesome things.

5 Your arrows are sharp / in the heart of the king's enemies, /
by which the people fall under you.

6 Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. /
The scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of justice.

7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness; / therefore, God, your God, has anointed you /

8 All your garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia. /
Out of the ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.

9 Kings' daughters were among your honorable women. /
Upon your right hand stood the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Listen, O daughter. Consider, and incline your ear. /
Forget your own people and your father’s house,

11 And the king shall greatly desire your beauty. /
Worship him, for he is your lord.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift. /
Even the rich among the people shall entreat your favor.

13 The king’s daughter is all glorious within. /
Her clothing is wrought with gold.

14 She shall be brought to the king in clothing of needle-work. /
The virgins, her companions who follow her, / shall be brought to you.

15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought. /
They shall enter into the king’s palace.

16 In place of your fathers will be your children, / whom you may make princes in all the earth.

17 I will make your name to be remembered in all generations; / therefore, the people shall praise you forever and ever.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.]

Hear this, all you people. /
Give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,

2 Both low and high, / rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom. /
The meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline my ear to a parable. /
I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Why should I fear in the days of evil /
when the iniquity of my heels encompasses me?

6 Those who trust in their wealth / and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches,

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, / nor give to God a ransom for him

8 (For the redemption of their soul is costly, / and it ceases forever),

9 That he should still live forever / and not see corruption.

10 For he sees that wise men die; /
likewise the fool and the brutish person perish / and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is that their houses shall continue forever / and their dwelling places to all generations. /
They call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man being in honor does not abide. /
He is like the beasts that perish.

13 Their way is their folly, / yet their posterity approve their sayings. /
[Selah.]

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave. /
Death shall feed on them. /
The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning. /
Their beauty shall consume / in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave, / for he shall receive me. /
[Selah.]

16 Do not be afraid when one is made rich, /
when the glory of his house is increased,

17 For when he dies he shall carry nothing away. /
His glory shall not descend after him.

18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul— / and men will praise you when you do well to yourself—

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers. /
They shall never see light.

20 A man who is in honor and does not understand / is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

The majesty of God in the church, 1-4. His order to gather his saints, 5, 6. The pleasure of God is not in ceremonies, 7-13, but in sincerity of obedience, 14-23.

1 [A Psalm of Asaph.]

The mighty God, even the LORD, has spoken / and called the earth from the rising to the setting of the sun.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, /
God has shined.

3 Our God shall come and shall not keep silence. /

A fire shall devour before him /
and it shall be very tempestuous around him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above / and to the earth so that he may judge his people.

5 "Gather my saints together to me, /
those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness, / for God is judge himself. /
[Selah.]

7 "Hear, O my people, and I will speak, /
O Israel, and I will testify against you. /
I am God, even your God.

8 I will not reprove you for your sacrifices / or your burnt-offerings which have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bull out of your house /
nor male goats out of your folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, / and the livestock upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the birds of the mountains. /
And the wild beasts of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you, / for the world is mine, and the fullness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls / or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer to God thanksgiving / and pay your vows to the Most High.

15 And call upon me in the day of trouble. /
I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me."

16 But to the wicked, God says, /
"What have you to do to declare my statutes, / or that you should take my covenant in your mouth,

17 Seeing you hate instruction / and cast my words behind you?

18 When you saw a thief, you consented with him. /
You have been partaker with adulterers.

19 You give your mouth to evil / and your tongue frames deceit.

20 You sit and speak against your brother. /
You slander your own mother's son.

21 These things you have done, and I kept silence. /
You thought that I was altogether such a one as yourself. /
But I will reprove you and set them in order before your eyes.

22 Now consider this, you who forget God, /
lest I tear you in pieces and there be no one to deliver:

23 Whoever offers praise glorifies me, / and to him who orders his deportment aright /
I will show the salvation of God."

Psalm 51

David prays for remission of sins, whereof he makes a deep confession, 1-5. He prays for sanctification, 6-15. God does not delight in sacrifice, but in sincerity, 16, 17. He prays for the church, 18, 19.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David: when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.]

Have mercy upon me, O God, /
according to your loving-kindness. /
According to the multitude of your tender mercies, / blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity / and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions, / and my sin is always before me.

4 Against you, you only, I have sinned / and done this evil in your sight, / so that you may be justified when you speak / and clear when you judge.

5 Behold, I was shaped in iniquity, / and in sin my mother conceived me.

6 Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts. /
And in the hidden part you shall make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean. /
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness /

so that the bones which you have broken may rejoice.

9 Hide your face from my sins /
and blot out all my iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, / and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Do not cast me away from your presence, / and do not take your Holy Spirit from me.

12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation / and uphold me with your free spirit.

13 Then I will teach transgressors your ways, / and sinners shall be converted to you.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, / God of my salvation, /
and my tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.

15 O Lord, open my lips, / and my mouth shall show forth your praise.

16 For you do not desire sacrifice, or else I would give it. /
You do not delight in burnt-offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. /
A broken and a contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

18 Do good in your good pleasure to Zion. /
Build the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then you shall be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, / with burnt-offering and whole burnt-offering. /
Then they shall offer bulls upon your altar.

Psalm 52

David, condemning the spitefulness of Doeg, prophesies his destruction, 1-5. The righteous shall rejoice at it, 6, 7. David, upon his confidence in God's mercy, gives thanks, 8, 9.

1 [To the Chief Musician. Maschil. A Psalm of David: when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."]

Why do you boast yourself in mischief, O mighty man? /
The goodness of God endures continually.

2 Your tongue devises mischiefs, / like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 You love evil more than good / and lying rather than speaking righteousness. /
[Selah.]

4 You love all devouring words, /
O deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise destroy you forever. /
He shall take you away and pluck you out of your dwelling-place. /
He shall root you out of the land of the living. /
[Selah.]

6 The righteous also shall see and fear. /
They shall laugh at him:

7 "Behold, this is the man who did not make God his strength, / but trusted in the abundance of his riches / and strengthened himself in his wickedness."

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God. /
I trust in the mercy of God forever and ever.

9 I will praise you forever because you have done it. /
I will wait on your name, for it is good, / in the presence of your saints.

Psalm 53

David describes the corruption of a natural man, 1-3. He convinces the wicked by the light of their own conscience, 4, 5. He glories in the salvation of God, 6.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Mahalath. Maschil. A Psalm of David.]

The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." /
They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity. /
There is no one who does good.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men / to see if there were any who understood, / who sought God.

3 Every one of them has gone back. /
They have altogether become filthy. /
There is no one who does good, not even one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, / who eat up my people like they eat bread / and have not called upon God?

5 There they were in great fear, / where no fear was, / for God has scattered the bones / of him who encamps against you. /
You have put them to shame / because God has despised them.

6 O that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! /
When God brings back the captivity of his people, /
Jacob shall rejoice and Israel shall be glad.

David, bemoaning the Ziphims, prays for salvation, 1-3. Upon his confidence in God's help he promises sacrifice, 4-7.

1 [To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. Maschil. A Psalm of David: when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, "Does David not hide himself with us?"]

Save me, O God, by your name, / and judge me by your strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God. /
Give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers have risen up against me, / and oppressors seek after my soul. /
They have not set God before them. /
[Selah.]

4 Behold, God is my helper. /
The Lord is with those who uphold my soul.

5 He will reward evil to my enemies. /
Cut them off in your truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice to you. /
I will praise your name, O LORD, for it is good.

7 For he has delivered me out of all trouble, / and my eye has seen its desire upon my enemies.

Psalm 55

David, in his prayer, bemoans his fearful case, 1-8. He prays against his enemies, of whose wickedness and treachery he makes accusation, 9-15. He comforts himself in God’s preservation of him and confusion of his enemies, 16-23.

1 [To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. Maschil. A Psalm of David.] Give ear to my prayer, O God, / and do not hide yourself from my supplication.

2 Attend to me and hear me. /
I mourn in my complaint and make a noise

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, / because of the oppression of the wicked. /
For they cast iniquity upon me, / and in wrath they hate me.

4 My heart is severely pained within me, / and the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me, / and horror has overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, "O that I had wings like a dove! /
For then I would fly away and be at rest.

7 Behold, then I would wander far off / and remain in the wilderness." /
[Selah.]

8 "I would hasten my escape / from the windy storm and tempest."

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their languages, / for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go around it upon its walls. /
Mischief and sorrow are also in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst of it. /
Deceit and guile do not depart from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy who reproached me— / then I could have borne it— / neither was it he who hated me who magnified himself against me— / then I would have hid myself from him.

13 But it was you, a man my equal, / my guide, and my acquaintance.

14 We took sweet counsel together / and walked to the house of God in company.

15 Let death seize upon them, / and let them go down alive into hell, / for wickedness is in their dwellings and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God, / and the LORD will save me.

17 Evening, morning, and at noon, I will pray and cry aloud, / and he will hear my voice.

18 He has delivered my soul in peace / from the battle that was against me, / for there were many with me.

19 God will hear and afflict them, / even he who abides of old. /
[Selah.]
Because they have no changes, /
therefore they do not fear God.

20 He has put forth his hands / against those who are at peace with him. /
He has broken his covenant.

21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, / but war was in his heart. /
His words were softer than oil, / yet they were drawn swords.

22 Cast your burden upon the LORD, / and he will sustain you. /
He will never allow the righteous to be moved.

23 But you, O God, will bring them down / into the pit of destruction. / Bloody and deceitful men / shall not live out half their days. /
But I will trust in you.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Jonathelem-rechokim. Michtam of David: when the Philistines took him in Gath.]

Be merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up. /
Fighting daily he oppresses me.

2 My enemies would swallow me up daily, / for they are many who fight against me, O Most High.

3 In the time when I am afraid, /
I will trust in you.

4 In God (I will praise his word), /
in God I have put my trust. /
I will not fear /
what flesh can do to me.

5 Every day they wrest my words. /
All their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They assemble themselves, they hide themselves, / they mark my steps /
when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? /
In your anger cast down the people, O God.

8 You number my wanderings. /
Put my tears into your bottle. /
Are they not in your book?

9 When I cry to you, my enemies shall turn back. /
I know this, for God is for me.

10 In God (I will praise his word), /
in the LORD (I will praise his word),

11 In God I have put my trust. /
I will not be afraid /
of what man can do to me.

12 Your vows are upon me, O God. /
I will render praises to you.

13 For you have delivered my soul from death. /
Will you not deliver my feet from falling / so that I may walk before God /
in the light of the living?

1 [To the Chief Musician. Al-taschith. Michtam of David: when he fled from Saul in the cave.]

Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, / for my soul trusts in you. / Even in the shadow of your wings I will make my refuge / until these calamities have passed.

to God who performs all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven and save me /
from the reproach of him who would swallow me up. /
[Selah.]
God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4 My soul is among lions. /
And I lie even among those who are set on fire, / even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows / and their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens. /
Let your glory be above all the earth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps. /
My soul is bowed down. /
They have dug a pit before me, /
into the midst of which they have fallen themselves. /
[Selah.]

7 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed. /
I will sing and give praise.

8 Awake, my glory. Awake, psaltery and harp. /
I myself will awake early.

9 I will praise you, O Lord, among the people. /
I will sing to you among the nations.

10 For your mercy is great to the heavens / and your truth to the clouds.

11 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens. /
Let your glory be above all the earth.

Psalm 58

David reproves wicked judges, 1, 2; describes the nature of the wicked, 3-5; devotes them to God’s judgments, 6-9; at which the righteous shall rejoice, 10, 11.

1 [To the Chief Musician. Al-taschith. Michtam of David.]

Do you indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? /
Do you judge uprightly, O sons of men?

2 No, in your heart you work wickedness. /
You weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 The wicked are estranged from their birth. /
They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.

4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent. /
They are like the deaf adder that stops her ear,

5 Which will not listen to the voice of charmers, / charming ever so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth. /
Break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.

7 Let them melt away like waters which run continually. /
When he bends his bow to shoot his arrows, /
let them be as though they were cut off.

8 Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away, / like the untimely birth of a woman that has not seen the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, / he shall take them away with a whirlwind, / the green and the burning alike.

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance. /
He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,

11 So that a man shall say, /
"Truly there is a reward for the righteous. / Truly he is a God who judges in the earth."

1 [To the Chief Musician. Al-taschith. Michtam of David: when Saul sent and they watched the house to kill him.]

Deliver me from my enemies, O my God. /
Defend me from those who rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity / and save me from bloody men.

3 For behold, they lie in wait for my soul. /
The mighty are gathered against me, /
but not for my transgression or my sin, O LORD.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault. /
Awake to help me, and behold.

5 You therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, / awake to visit all the heathen. /
Do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. /
[Selah.]

6 They return at evening. /
They make a noise like a dog /
and go throughout the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth. / Swords are in their lips, / for they say, "Who hears?"

8 But you, O LORD, shall laugh at them. /
You shall have all the heathen in derision.

9 Because of his strength I will wait upon you, / for God is my defense.

10 As for my God, his mercy shall go before me. /
God will let me see my desire upon my enemies.

11 Do not slay them, lest my people forget. / Scatter them by your power and bring them down, /
O Lord our shield.

12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips, / let them even be taken in their pride, / and also for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrath, / consume them, so that they may not be. /
And let them know that God rules in Jacob / to the ends of the earth. /
[Selah.]

14 And at evening let them return. /
And let them make a noise like a dog /
and go throughout the city.

15 Let them wander up and down for food / and wait all night if they are not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of your power. /
I will even sing aloud of your mercy in the morning, / for you have been my defense / and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 To you, O my strength, I will sing, / for God is my defense and the God of my mercy.

Psalm 60

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Shushan-eduth. Michtam of David for Teaching: when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned and smote twelve thousand of Edom in the valley of salt.]

O God, you have cast us off. /
You have scattered us. /
You have been displeased. /
O turn yourself to us again.

2 You have made the earth to tremble. /
You have broken it. /
Heal its breaches, for it shakes.

3 You have shown your people hard things. /
You have made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 You have given a banner to those who fear you /
so that it may be displayed because of the truth. /
[Selah.]

5 So that your beloved may be delivered, / save with your right hand and hear me.

6 God has spoken in his holiness, "I will rejoice. /
I will divide Shechem /
and measure out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine. And Manasseh is mine. / Ephraim also is the strength of my head. /
Judah is my lawgiver.

8 Moab is my wash-pot. /
Over Edom I will cast out my shoe. /
Over Philistia I shout in triumph."

9 Who will bring me into the strong city? /
Who will lead me into Edom?

10 Will you not, O God, who had cast us off, / and you, O God, who did not go out with our armies?

11 Give us help from trouble, /
for the help of man is vain.

12 Through God we shall do valiantly, /
for he will tread down our enemies.

Psalm 61

David flees to God upon his former experience, 1-3. He vows perpetual service to him because of his promises, 4-8.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Neginah. A Psalm of David.] Hear my cry, O God. /

Attend to my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth I will cry to you / when my heart is overwhelmed. /
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I am.

3 For you have been a shelter for me / and a strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will abide in your tabernacle forever. /
I will trust in the covert of your wings. /
[Selah.]

5 For you, O God, have heard my vows. /
You have given me the heritage / of those who fear your name.

6 You will prolong the king’s life. /
His years shall be like many generations.

7 He shall abide before God forever. /
O prepare mercy and truth, / which may preserve him.

8 So I will sing praise to your name forever /
when I daily perform my vows.

Psalm 62

David, professing his confidence in God, discourages his enemies, 1-4. In the same confidence he encourages the godly, 5-8. No trust is to be put in worldly things, 9, 10. Power and mercy belong to God, 11, 12.

1 [To the Chief Musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.] Truly my soul waits upon God. /

My salvation comes from him.

2 Only he is my rock and my salvation. /
He is my defense. /

I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will you devise mischief against a man? /
All of you shall be slain. /
You shall be like a bowing wall and like a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellence. /
They delight in lies. /
They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. /
[Selah.]

5 My soul, wait only upon God, / for my expectation is from him.

6 Only he is my rock and my salvation. /
He is my defense. /
I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory. /
The rock of my strength, my refuge is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times, you people. /
Pour out your heart before him. /
God is a refuge for us. /
[Selah.]

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, / and men of high degree are a lie. /
They will be laid in the balance. /
They are altogether lighter than vanity.

10 Do not trust in oppression, / and do not become vain in robbery. /
If riches increase, do not set your heart upon them.

11 God has spoken once, / and twice I have heard this: / that power belongs to God,

12 And to you, O Lord, belongs mercy. /
For you render to every man according to his work.

O God, you are my God. /

My soul thirsts for you. /
My flesh longs for you /
in a dry and thirsty land where there is no water.

2 Thus I have seen you in the sanctuary, / seeing your power and your glory.

my lips shall praise you.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.]

Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer. /
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked, /
from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity,

3 Who whet their tongue like a sword / and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words,

4 So that they may shoot in secret at the perfect. /
Suddenly they shoot at him and do not fear.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter. /
They talk about laying snares secretly. /
They say, "Who will see them?"

6 They search out iniquities. /
They accomplish a diligent search. /
Both the inward thought and the heart of every one of them is deep.

As for our transgressions, you shall purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom you choose and cause to approach you / so that he may dwell in your courts. /
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house, /
even of your holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness you will answer us, /
O God of our salvation. /
You are the confidence of all the ends of the earth /
and of those who are afar off upon the sea,

6 Who by his strength firmly sets the mountains, /
being girded with power,

7 Who stills the noise of the seas, / the noise of their waves, / and the tumult of the people.

8 Also those who dwell in the uttermost parts are in awe of your signs. /
You make the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9 You visit the earth and water it. /
You greatly enrich it with the river of God, /
which is full of water. /
You prepare their grain when you have thus provided for it.

10 You water its ridges abundantly. /
You settle its furrows. /
You make it soft with showers. /
You bless its springing.

11 You crown the year with your goodness, / and your paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness, / and the little hills rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks. /
The valleys are also covered over with grain. /
They shout for joy. They also sing.

His eyes behold the nations. /
Do not let the rebellious exalt themselves. /
[Selah.]

and make the voice of his praise to be heard,

9 Who holds our soul in life / and does not allow our feet to be moved.

10 For you, O God, have proved us. /
You have tried us like silver is tried.

11 You have brought us into the net. /
You have laid affliction upon our loins.

12 You have caused men to ride over our heads. /
We went through fire and through water, /
but you brought us out into a wealthy place.

13 I will go into your house with burnt-offerings. /
I will pay you my vows,

14 Which my lips have uttered / and my mouth has spoken when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer to you burnt-sacrifices of fattened calves / with the incense of rams. /
I will offer bulls with goats. /
[Selah.]

16 Come and hear, all you who fear God, / and I will declare what he has done for my soul.

17 I cried to him with my mouth, /
and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, /
the Lord will not hear me.

19 But truly God has heard me. /
He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God /

who has not turned away my prayer / or his mercy from me.

Psalm 67

A prayer for the enlargement of God's kingdom, 1, 2; to the joy of the people, 3-5; and the increase of God's blessings, 6, 7.

1 [To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm or Song.]

May God be merciful to us and bless us / and cause his face to shine upon us. /
[Selah.]

2 Then your way may be known upon earth, / your saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise you, O God. /
Let all the people praise you.

4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy, / for you shall judge the people righteously / and govern the nations upon earth. /
[Selah.]

5 Let the people praise you, O God. /
Let all the people praise you.

6 Then the earth shall yield her increase, / and God, even our own God, will bless us.

7 God will bless us, /
and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 68

A prayer at the removing of the ark, 1-3. An exhortation to praise God for his mercies, 4-6; for his care of the church, 7-18; for his great works, 19-35.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm or Song of David.]

Let God arise. Let his enemies be scattered. /
Let those who also hate him flee before him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away. /
As wax melts before the fire, /
so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad. /
Let them rejoice before God. /
Indeed, let them exceedingly rejoice.

4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name. / Extol him who rides upon the heavens / by his name, YAH, / and rejoice before him.

5 A father of the fatherless and a judge of the widows / is God in his holy habitation.

6 God sets the solitary in families. /
He brings out those who are bound with chains. /
But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, when you went forth before your people, / when you marched through the wilderness, /
[Selah.]

8 The earth shook, / the heavens also dropped at the presence of God. / Even Sinai itself was moved / at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 You, O God, sent a plentiful rain, /
by which you confirmed your inheritance when it was weary.

10 Your congregation has dwelt therein. /
You, O God, have prepared your goodness for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word. /
The company of those who published it was great.

12 Kings of armies fled apace. /
And she who waited at home divided the plunder.

13 Though you have lain among the sheep-folds, / the wings of a dove are covered with silver, / and her feathers with yellow gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, /
it was white as snow in Salmon.

15 The hill of God is like the hill of Bashan, /
a high hill like the hill of Bashan.

16 Why do you leap, you lofty hills? /
This is the hill which God desires to dwell in. / Indeed, the LORD will dwell in it forever.

17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, / even thousands of angels. /
The Lord is among them. /
Sinai is in the holy place.

18 You have ascended on high. /
You have led captivity captive. /
You have received gifts among men, / even among the rebellious also, / so that the LORD God might dwell with them.

19 Blessed be the Lord who daily loads us with benefits, / even the God of our salvation. /
[Selah.]

20 He who is our God is the God of salvation. /
And the issues from death belong to GOD the Lord.

21 But God will wound the head of his enemies / and the hairy scalp of such a one as goes on still in his trespasses.

22 The Lord said, "I will bring back from Bashan, /
I will bring my people back from the depths of the sea,

23 So that your foot may be dipped / in the blood of your enemies, / and the tongue of your dogs in the same."

24 They have seen your goings, O God, / even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.

25 The singers went before. /
The players on instruments followed after. /
Among them were the young women playing with tambourines.

26 Bless God in the congregations, / even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel.

27 There is the youngest, Benjamin, with their ruler, / the princes of Judah and their counsel, /
the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

28 Your God has commanded your strength. /
Strengthen, O God, that which you have wrought for us.

29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem, / kings shall bring presents to you.

30 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, /
the multitude of the bulls with the calves of the people, / until each submits himself with pieces of silver. / Scatter the people who delight in war.

31 Princes shall come out of Egypt. /
Cush shall soon stretch out her hands to God.

32 Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth. /

O sing praises to the Lord, /
[Selah.]

33 To him who rides upon the heavens of heavens, which are of old. /
Behold, he sends out his voice—a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe strength to God. /
His excellence is over Israel, / and his strength is in the clouds.

35 O God, you are awesome out of your holy places. /
The God of Israel is he who gives strength and power to his people. / Blessed be God.

Psalm 69

David bemoans his affliction, 1-12. He prays for deliverance, 13-21. He devotes his enemies to destruction, 22-29. He praises God with thanksgiving, 30-36.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Shoshannim. A Psalm of David.]

Save me, O God, /
for the waters have come to my soul.

2 I sink in deep mire / where there is no standing. /
I have come into deep waters /
where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary of my crying. /
My throat is dried. /
My eyes fail while I wait for my God.

4 Those who hate me without a cause / are more than the hairs of my head. /
Those who would destroy me are mighty, / being my enemies without cause. /
Then I restored that which I did not take away.

5 O God, you know my foolishness, / and my sins are not hid from you.

6 Do not let those who wait on you, /
O Lord GOD of hosts, /
be ashamed for my sake. /
Do not let those who seek you / be confounded for my sake, /
O God of Israel.

7 Because for your sake I have borne reproach. /
Shame has covered my face.

8 I have become a stranger to my brothers / and a foreigner to my mother’s children.

9 For the zeal of your house has eaten me up. /
And the reproaches of those who reproached you / have fallen upon me.

10 When I wept and chastened my soul with fasting, / that was to my reproach.

11 I also made sackcloth my garment / and became a proverb to them.

12 Those who sit in the gate speak against me. /
I was the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, O LORD, / in an acceptable time. /
O God, in the multitude of your mercy, / hear me in the truth of your salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire / and do not let me sink. /
Let me be delivered from those who hate me /
and out of the deep waters.

15 Do not let the flood waters overflow me, / neither let the deep swallow me up / or the pit shut her mouth upon me.

16 Hear me, O LORD, for your loving-kindness is good. / Turn to me according to the multitude of your tender mercies.

17 And do not hide your face from your servant, / for I am in trouble. Hear me speedily.

18 Draw near to my soul and redeem it. /
Deliver me because of my enemies.

19 You have known my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor. /
My adversaries are all before you.

20 Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness. /
And I looked for some to take pity, but there was none, / and for comforters, but I found none.

21 They also gave me gall for my food, / and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table become a snare before them. /
And that which should have been for their welfare, / let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened so that they do not see, / and make their loins continually shake.

24 Pour out your indignation upon them, / and let your wrathful anger take hold of them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate, / and let no one dwell in their tents.

26 For they persecute him whom you have smitten / and talk to the grief of those whom you have wounded.

27 Add iniquity to their iniquity. /
And do not let them come into your righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living / and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor and sorrowful. /
Let your salvation, O God, set me up on high.

30 I will praise the name of God with a song /
and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox / or bull that has horns and hooves.

32 The humble shall see this and be glad. /
And you who seek God, your heart shall live.

33 For the LORD hears the poor / and does not despise his prisoners.

34 Let the heaven and earth praise him, /
the seas and everything that moves therein.

35 For God will save Zion and build the cities of Judah /
so that they may dwell there and have it in possession.

36 The offspring of his servants shall also inherit it. /
And those who love his name shall dwell therein.

Psalm 70

David solicits God to the speedy destruction of the wicked and the preservation of the godly, 1-5.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David: to bring to remembrance.]

Make haste, O God, to deliver me. /
Make haste to help me, O LORD.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded / who seek after my soul. /
Let them be turned backward and put to shame / who desire my hurt.

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame / who say, "Aha, aha."

4 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. /
And let those who love your salvation say continually, /
"Let God be magnified."

5 But I am poor and needy. /
Make haste to me, O God. /
You are my help and my deliverer. /
O LORD, make no delay.

Psalm 71

David, in confidence of faith and experience of God's favor, prays both for himself and against the enemies of his soul, 1-13. He promises constancy, 14-16. He prays for perseverance, 17, 18. He praises God and promises to do it cheerfully, 19-24.

1 In you, O LORD, I put my trust. /
Let me never be put to shame.

2 Deliver me in your righteousness and cause me to escape. /
Incline your ear to me and save me.

3 Be my strong habitation to which I may continually resort. /
You have given commandment to save me, /
for you are my rock and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, / from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For you are my hope, O Lord GOD. /
You are my trust from my youth.

6 I have been sustained by you from my birth. /
You are he who brought me into life. /

My praise shall be continually of you.

7 I have become a wonder to many, / but you are my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with your praise / and with your honor all the day.

9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age. /
Do not forsake me when my strength fails.

10 For my enemies speak against me, / and those who lie in wait for my soul take counsel together,

11 Saying, "God has forsaken him. /
Persecute and take him, for there is no one to deliver him."

12 O God, do not be far from me. /
O my God, make haste for my help.

13 Let them be confounded and consumed / who are adversaries to my soul. /
Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor / who seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually / and will praise you more and more.

15 My mouth shall show forth your righteousness / and your salvation all the day, / for I do not know the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD. /
I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours only.

17 O God, you have taught me from my youth, / and until now I have declared your wondrous works.

18 And even when I am old and gray-headed, / O God, do not forsake me, / until I have shown your strength to this generation / and your power to everyone who is to come.

19 Your righteousness also, O God, is very high, / who have done great things. O God, who is like you?

20 You, who have shown me great and severe troubles, / will revive me again /
and bring me back from the depths of the earth.

21 You will increase my greatness / and comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise you with the psaltery, / even your truth, O my God. /
To you I will sing with the harp, /
O Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing to you, / along with my soul which you have redeemed.

24 My tongue shall also talk / of your righteousness all the day long. / For they are confounded, / for they are brought to shame who seek my hurt.

Psalm 72

David, praying for Solomon, shows the goodness and glory of his kingdom, and in type of Christ's kingdom, 1-17. He blesses God, 18-20.

1 [A Psalm for Solomon.]

Give the king your judgments, O God, / and your righteousness to the king's son.

2 He shall judge your people with righteousness / and your poor with judgment.

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, / and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 He shall judge the poor of the people. /
He shall save the children of the needy / and break the oppressor in pieces.

5 They shall fear you as long as the sun and moon endure, / throughout all generations.

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass, / like showers that water the earth.

7 In his days the righteous shall flourish, / and abundance of peace so long as the moon endures.

8 He shall also have dominion from sea to sea /
and from the river to the ends of the earth.

9 Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him, / and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the islands shall bring presents. /
The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Indeed, all kings shall fall down before him. /

All nations shall serve him.

12 For he shall deliver the needy when he cries, / and also the poor and him who has no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy / and save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence, / and precious shall be their blood in his sight.

15 And he shall live, and to him the gold of Sheba shall be given. /
Prayer shall also be made for him continually, / and daily he shall be praised.

16 There shall be a handful of grain in the earth / upon the top of the mountains. /
Its fruit shall shake like Lebanon. /
And those of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

17 His name shall endure forever. /
His name shall be continued as long as the sun. /
And men shall be blessed in him. /
All nations shall call him blessed.

18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, / who only does wondrous things.

19 And blessed be his glorious name forever. /
And let the whole earth be filled with his glory. /
Amen and amen.

BOOK III

Psalm 73

The prophet, prevailing in a temptation, 1, shows the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked, 2-12; the wound given thereby, diffidence, 13, 14; the victory over it, and knowledge of God’s purpose in destroying the wicked and sustaining the righteous, 15-28.

1 [A Psalm of Asaph.]

Truly God is good to Israel, /
even to those who are of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone. /
My steps had well near slipped.

3 For I was envious at the foolish / when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no pangs in their death, /
but their strength is firm.

5 They are not in trouble like other men, / neither are they afflicted like other men.

6 Therefore, pride encompasses them like a chain. /
Violence covers them like a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness. /
The imaginations of their heart transgressed.

8 They are corrupt and speak wickedly concerning oppression. /
They speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens / and their tongue walks through the earth.

10 Therefore, his people return here. /
And waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, "How does God know? /
And is there knowledge in the Most High?"

12 Behold, these are the ungodly / who prosper in the world. They increase in riches.

13 Truly I have cleansed my heart in vain /
and washed my hands in innocence.

14 For all the day long I have been afflicted / and chastened every morning.

15 If I had said, "I will speak thus," / behold, I would have offended against the generation of your children.

16 When I thought to know this, /
it was too painful for me,

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God. /
Then I understood their end.

18 Surely you set them in slippery places. /
You cast them down into destruction.

19 How they are brought into desolation in a moment! /
They are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awakes, / so, O Lord, when you awake, you will despise their image.

21 Thus my soul was grieved / and I was pricked in my heart.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant. /
I was like a beast before you.

23 Nevertheless, I am continually with you. /
You have held me by my right hand.

24 You will guide me with your counsel, / and afterward, receive me to glory.

25 Whom do I have in heaven but you? /
And there is no one upon earth that I desire besides you.

26 My flesh and my heart fails, / but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

27 For behold, those who are far from you shall perish. /
You have destroyed all those who go astray from you.

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God. /
I have put my trust in the Lord GOD /
so that I may declare all your works.

Psalm 74

The prophet bemoans the desolation of the sanctuary, 1-9. He moves God to help in consideration of his power, 10-17; of his reproachful enemies, of his children, and of his covenant, 18-23.

1 [Maschil of Asaph.]

O God, why have you cast us off forever? /
Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?

2 Remember your congregation which you have purchased of old, / the rod of your inheritance which you have redeemed, /
this mount Zion in which you have dwelt.

3 Lift up your feet to the perpetual desolations, / even all that the enemy has done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 Your enemies roar in the midst of your congregations. /
They set up their ensigns for signs.

5 They seemed like men who lifted up axes / upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down its carved work /
at once with axes and hammers.

7 They have cast fire into your sanctuary. /
They have defiled by casting down /
the dwelling-place of your name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, "Let us destroy them together." /
They have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We do not see our signs. /
There is no longer any prophet, / neither is there among us any who knows how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? /
Shall the enemy blaspheme your name forever?

11 Why do you withdraw your hand, / even your right hand? Pluck it out of your bosom.

12 For God is my King of old, / working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 You divided the sea by your strength. /
You broke the heads of the sea-monsters in the waters.

14 You broke the head of leviathan in pieces / and gave him to be food for the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 You cleaved the fountain and the flood. /
You dried up mighty rivers.

16 The day is yours, the night also is yours. /
You have prepared the light and the sun.

17 You have set all the borders of the earth. /
You have made summer and winter.

18 Remember this: the enemy has reproached, O LORD, / and the foolish people have blasphemed your name.

19 O do not deliver the soul of your turtle-dove to the multitude of the wicked. /
Do not forget the congregation of your poor forever.

20 Have respect to the covenant, / for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O do not let the oppressed return ashamed. /
Let the poor and needy praise your name.

22 Arise, O God, plead your own cause. /
Remember how the foolish man reproaches you daily.

23 Do not forget the voice of your enemies. /
The tumult of those who rise against you increases continually.

Psalm 75

The prophet praises God, 1. He promises to judge uprightly, 2, 3. He rebukes the proud by consideration of God's providence, 4-8. He praises God and promises to execute justice, 9, 10.

1 [To the Chief Musician. Al-taschith. A Psalm or Song of Asaph.]

To you, O God, we give thanks, / to you we give thanks, for your name is near. /
Your wondrous works we declare.

2 "When I receive the congregation, /
I will judge uprightly.

3 The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved. /
I bear up its pillars." /
[Selah.]

4 "I said to the fools, 'Do not deal foolishly,' / and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up the horn.

5 Do not lift up your horn on high. /
Do not speak with a stiff neck.'"

6 For promotion comes neither from the east, /
nor from the west, nor from the south.

7 But God is the judge. /
He puts down one and sets up another.

8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, / and the wine is red. /
It is full of mixture, / and he pours out of the same. /
But all the wicked of the earth / shall wring out its dregs and drink them.

9 But I will declare it forever. /
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 All the horns of the wicked I will also cut off, /
but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Psalm 76

A declaration of God's majesty in the church, 1-10. An exhortation to serve him reverently, 11, 12.

1 [To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm or Song of Asaph.]

God is known in Judah. /
His name is great in Israel.

2 Also in Salem is his tabernacle / and his dwelling place in Zion.

3 There he broke the arrows of the bow, / the shield, the sword, and the battle. /
[Selah.]

4 You are more glorious and excellent / than the mountains of prey.

5 The stout-hearted are plundered. /
They have slept their sleep. /
And none of the men of might have found their hands.

6 At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, /
both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

7 You, even you, are to be feared. /
And who may stand in your sight when you are angry?

8 You caused judgment to be heard from heaven. /
The earth feared and was still

9 When God arose to judgment / to save all the meek of the earth. /
[Selah.]

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise you. /
The remainder of wrath you will restrain.

11 Make vows and fulfill them to the LORD your God. / Let all who are around him bring presents / to him who ought to be feared.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes. /
He is fearful to the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

The psalmist shows what fierce combat he had with diffidence, 1-9. The victory which he had by consideration of God’s great and gracious works, 10-20.

1 [To the Chief Musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.]

I cried to God with my voice, / even to God with my voice, and he gave ear to me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord. /
My hand was stretched out in the night and did not cease. /

My soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God and was troubled. /
I meditated, and my spirit was overwhelmed. /
[Selah.]

4 You hold my eyes waking. /
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old, /
the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night. /
I mused within my heart, / and my spirit made diligent search.

7 Will the Lord cast off forever? /
And will he no longer be favorable?

8 Is his mercy wholly gone forever? /
Does his promise fail forevermore?

9 Has God forgotten to be gracious? /
Has he in anger shut up his tender mercies? /
[Selah.]

10 And I said, "This is my infirmity, / but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."

11 I will remember the works of the LORD. /
Surely I will remember your wonders of old.

12 I will also meditate on all your work / and talk of your doings.

13 Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary. /
Who is so great a God as our God?

14 You are the God who does wonders. /
You have declared your strength among the people.

15 You have with your arm redeemed your people, / the sons of Jacob and Joseph. /
[Selah.]

16 The waters saw you, O God, / the waters saw you. They were afraid. /
The depths were also disturbed.

17 The clouds poured out water. /
The skies sent out a sound. /
Your arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of your thunder was in the heaven. /
The lightnings lightened the world. /
The earth trembled and shook.

19 Your way was in the sea, / your paths in the great waters, / and your footsteps were not known.

20 You led your people like a flock /
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God, 1-8. The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient, 9-66. The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David, 67-72.

1 [Maschil of Asaph.]

Give ear, O my people, to my law. /
Incline your ear to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable. /
I will utter dark sayings of old,

3 Which we have heard and known / and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, / showing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, / his strength, and his wonderful works that he has done.

5 For he established a testimony in Jacob / and appointed a law in Israel, / which he commanded our fathers, / that they should make them known to their children,

6 So that the generation to come might know them, / even the children who should be born, / who should arise and declare them to their children;

7 So that they might set their hope in God / and not forget the works of God, /
but keep his commandments,

8 And might not be as their fathers, / a stubborn and rebellious generation, /
a generation that did not set their heart aright / and whose spirit was not steadfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, / turned back in the day of battle.

10 They did not keep the covenant of God / and refused to walk in his law.

11 They forgot his works / and his wonders that he had shown them.

12 He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers, / in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

13 He divided the sea and caused them to pass through. /
He made the waters to stand like a heap.

14 In the day-time he also led them with a cloud, / and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He cleaved the rocks in the wilderness / and gave them drink as abundant as the depths.

16 He also brought streams out of the rock / and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 Yet they still went on to sin against him /
by provoking the Most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tested God in their heart / by asking food for their desire.

19 They even spoke against God. /
They said, "Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock so that the waters gushed out / and the streams overflowed. /
Can he give bread also? /
Can he provide flesh for his people?"

21 Therefore, the LORD heard this and was angry. / Thus a fire was kindled against Jacob, / and anger also came up against Israel,

22 Because they did not believe in God / and did not trust in his salvation,

23 Though he commanded the clouds from above / and opened the doors of heaven,

24 And rained down manna upon them to eat / and gave them the grain of heaven.

25 Man ate angels' food. /
He sent them food to the full.

26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven. /
And by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He also rained flesh upon them like dust, /
and feathered birds like the sand of the sea.

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp / around their habitations.

29 So they ate and were well filled, / for he gave them their own desire.

30 They were not estranged from their desire. /
But while their food was still in their mouths,

31 The wrath of God came upon them / and slew the fattest of them / and smote down the chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they sinned still / and did not believe in his wondrous works.

33 Therefore, he consumed their days in vanity /
and their years in trouble.

34 When he slew them, they sought him. /
They returned and inquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that God was their rock / and the high God their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless, they flattered him with their mouth / and they lied to him with their tongues.

37 For their heart was not right with him, / neither were they steadfast in his covenant.

38 But he, being full of compassion, / forgave their iniquity and did not destroy them. /
Many a time he even turned his anger away / and did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For he remembered that they were only flesh, /
a wind that passes away and does not return.

40 How often they provoked him in the wilderness / and grieved him in the desert!

41 They even turned back and tested God / and limited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They did not remember his hand /

nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy,

43 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt / and his wonders in the field of Zoan,

44 And had turned their rivers into blood, / and also their floods, so that they could not drink.

45 He sent swarms of flies among them which devoured them, / and also frogs which destroyed them.

46 He also gave their increase to the ravaging-locust / and their labor to the swarming-locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail / and their sycamore trees with frost.

48 He also gave up their livestock to the hail / and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, / wrath, indignation, and trouble, /
by sending evil angels among them.

50 He made a way for his anger. /
He did not spare their soul from death, /
but gave their life over to the pestilence

51 And smote all the first-born in Egypt, /
the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham,

52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep / and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them on safely so that they did not fear. /
But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, / even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

55 He also cast out the heathen before them. /
He divided them an inheritance by line / and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tested and provoked the most high God / and did not keep his testimonies,

57 But turned back and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers. /
They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places / and moved him to jealousy with their engraved images.

59 When God heard this, he was angry / and greatly abhorred Israel,

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, /
the tent which he placed among men,

61 And delivered his strength into captivity / and his glory into the enemy’s hand.

62 He also gave over his people to the sword / and was angry with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men, / and their young women were not given to marriage.

64 Their priests fell by the sword, / and their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awoke like someone out of sleep / and like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.

66 And he smote his enemies backward. /
He put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover, he refused the tabernacle of Joseph / and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim,

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, /
the mount Zion which he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, / like the earth which he has established forever.

70 He also chose David his servant / and took him from the sheep-folds.

71 From following the ewes great with young he brought him / to feed Jacob his people and Israel his inheritance.

72 Thus he fed them according to the integrity of his heart / and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

The psalmist bemoans the desolation of Jerusalem, 1-7. He prays for deliverance, 8-12; and promises thankfulness, 13.

1 [A Psalm of Asaph.]

O God, the heathen have come into your inheritance. /
They have defiled your holy temple. /
They have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2 They have given the dead bodies of your servants / to be food for the birds of the heaven, /
the flesh of your saints to the beasts of the earth.

3 They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem, / and there was no one to bury them.

4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, /
a scorn and derision to those who are around us.

5 How long, LORD? Will you be angry forever? /
Shall your jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out your wrath upon the heathen / who have not known you / and upon the kingdoms /
that have not called upon your name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob / and laid waste his dwelling-place.

8 O do not hold former iniquities against us. / Let your tender mercies speedily meet us, /
for we are brought very low.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, / for the glory of your name, / and deliver us and purge away our sins / for your name’s sake.

10 Why should the heathen say, "Where is their God?" /
Let him be known among the heathen in our sight /
by avenging the blood of your servants which is shed.

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you. / According to the greatness of your power / preserve those who are appointed to die.

12 And render to our neighbors seven-fold into their bosom / their reproach with which they have reproached you, O Lord.

13 So we your people and sheep of your pasture / will give you thanks forever. /
We will show forth your praise to all generations.

Psalm 80

The psalmist in his prayer bemoans the miseries of the church, 1-7. God's former favors are turned into judgments, 8-13. He prays for deliverance, 14-19.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Shoshannim Eduth. A Psalm of Asaph.]

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, / you who lead Joseph like a flock. /
You who dwell between the cherubim, shine forth.

2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, / stir up your strength / and come and save us.

3 Turn us back, O God, /
and cause your face to shine, and we shall be saved.

4 O LORD God of hosts, /
how long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?

5 You feed them with the bread of tears /
and give them tears to drink in great measure.

6 You make us a strife to our neighbors, / and our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us back, O God of hosts, /
and cause your face to shine, and we shall be saved.

8 You have brought a vine out of Egypt. /
You have cast out the heathen and planted it.

9 You cleared a place before it, / and it took deep root and filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with its shade, / and its boughs were like the beautiful cedars.

11 She sent out her boughs to the sea / and her branches to the river.

12 Why have you then broken down her hedges /
so that all those who pass by the way pluck her?

13 The boar from the forest wastes it, / and the wild beast of the field devours it.

14 Return, we implore you, O God of hosts. /
Look down from heaven and behold. Visit this vine,

15 The vineyard which your right hand planted, /

the branch that you made strong for yourself.

16 It is burnt with fire. It is cut down. /
They perish at the rebuke of your countenance.

17 Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, / upon the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.

18 Then we will not go back from you. /
Revive us, and we will call upon your name.

19 Turn us back, O LORD God of hosts, / cause your face to shine, and we shall be saved.

Psalm 81

An exhortation to a solemn praising of God, 1-3. God challenges that duty by reason of his benefits, 4-7. God, exhorting to obedience, admonishes them for their disobedience, which proves their own hurt, 8-16.

1 [To the Chief Musician upon Gittith. A Psalm of Asaph.]

Sing aloud to God our strength. /
Make a joyful noise to the God of Jacob.

2 Take a psalm and bring here the tambourine, /
the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon, / and at the full moon on our solemn feast day.

4 For this was a statute for Israel / and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 He ordained this in Joseph for a testimony / when he went out through the land of Egypt. /
I heard a language that I did not understand:

6 "I removed his shoulder from the burden. /
His hands were delivered from the pots.

7 You called in trouble, and I delivered you. /
I answered you in the secret place of thunder. /
I proved you at the waters of Meribah." /
[Selah.]

8 "Hear, O my people, and I will testify to you, /
O Israel, if you would listen to me.

9 There shall no strange god be in you, / neither shall you worship any strange god.

10 I am the LORD your God /
who brought you out of the land of Egypt. /
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not listen to my voice, / and Israel would not obey me.

12 So I gave them up to the lust of their hearts, / and they walked in their own counsels.

13 O that my people had listened to me / and Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I would soon subdue their enemies / and turn my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves to him, / and their time should have endured forever.

16 He would have fed them also with the finest of the wheat. /
And with honey out of the rock I would satisfy you."

Psalm 82

The psalmist, having exhorted the judges, 1-4, and reproved their negligence, 5-7, prays God to judge, 8.

1 [A Psalm of Asaph.]

God stands in the congregation of the mighty. /
He judges among the gods.

2 "How long will you judge unjustly / and accept the persons of the wicked?" /
[Selah.]

3 "Defend the poor and fatherless. /
Do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Deliver the poor and needy. /
Deliver them from the hand of the wicked.

5 They do not know, neither will they understand. /
They walk on in darkness. /
All the foundations of the earth are out of course.

6 I have said, 'You are gods, / and all of you are children of the Most High.

7 But you shall die like men / and fall like one of the princes.'"

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth, /
for you will inherit all nations.

1 [A Song or Psalm of Asaph.]

Do not keep silent, O God. /
Do not hold your peace and do not be still, O God.

2 For behold, your enemies make a tumult, /
and those who hate you have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against your people / and consulted against your hidden ones.

4 They have said, "Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation / so that the name of Israel may no longer be in remembrance."

5 For they have consulted together with one consent. /
They are confederated against you:

6 The tabernacles of Edom and the Ishmaelites, / of Moab and the Hagarenes,

7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek, /
the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre.

8 Assur is also joined with them. /
They have helped the children of Lot. /
[Selah.]

9 Do to them as to the Midianites, / as to Sisera and to Jabin at the brook of Kison,

10 Who perished at En-dor. /
They became like dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like Oreb and like Zeeb, /
even all their princes like Zebah and like Zalmunna,

12 Who said, "Let us take for ourselves /
the houses of God in possession."

13 O my God, make them like a wheel, / like the stubble before the wind.

14 As the fire burns a forest / and as the flame sets the mountains on fire,

15 So persecute them with your tempest / and make them afraid with your storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame /
so that they may seek your name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled forever. /
Let them even be put to shame and perish,

18 So that men may know that you, whose name alone is YAHWEH, / are the most high over all the earth.

How amiable your tabernacles are, /
O LORD of hosts!

My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

3 Even the sparrow has found a house, / and the swallow a nest for herself, / where she may lay her young / near your altars, O LORD of hosts, /
my King and my God.

4 Blessed are those who dwell in your house. /
They are always praising you. /
[Selah.]

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in you, / in whose heart are the ways of them.

6 Passing through the valley of Baca they make it a well. /
The rain also fills the pools.

7 They go from strength to strength. /
Every one of them in Zion appears before God.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer. /
Give ear, O God of Jacob. /
[Selah.]

9 Behold, O God our shield, / and look upon the face of your anointed.

10 For a day in your courts is better than a thousand [elsewhere]. /
I would rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God / than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield. /
The LORD will give grace and glory. /
No good will he withhold from those who walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts, /
blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

The Psalmist, out of the experience of former mercies, prays for the continuance thereof, 1-7. He promises to wait thereon, out of confidence of God's goodness, 8-13.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.]

LORD, you have been favorable to your land. /
You have brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people. /
You have covered all their sin. /
[Selah.]

3 You have taken away all your wrath. /
You have turned yourself from the fierceness of your anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, / and cause your anger toward us to cease.

5 Will you be angry with us forever? /
Will you draw out your anger to all generations?

6 Will you not revive us again /
so that your people may rejoice in you?

7 Show us your mercy, O LORD, / and grant us your salvation.

8 I will hear what God, Yahweh, will speak, / for he will speak peace to his people and to his saints. /
But do not let them turn back to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is near those who fear him /
so that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together. /
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth, / and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12 Indeed, the LORD will give that which is good, / and our land shall yield her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him / and set us in the way of his steps.

Psalm 86

David strengthens his prayer by the consciousness of his religion, 1-4; by the goodness and power of God 5-10. He desires the continuance of former grace, 11-13. After describing his enemies and appealing to God, he craves some token of God's goodness, 14-17.

1 [A Prayer of David.]

Bow down your ear, O LORD. /
Hear me, for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul, for I am holy. /
O you, my God, save your servant who trusts in you.

3 Be merciful to me, O Lord, /
for I cry to you daily.

4 Bring joy to the soul of your servant, / for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

5 For you, Lord, are good and ready to forgive / and abundant in mercy to all those who call upon you.

6 Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer / and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon you, / for you will answer me.

8 Among the gods there is no one like you, O Lord, / neither are there any works like your works.

9 All nations whom you have made / shall come and worship before you, /
O Lord, and shall glorify your name.

10 For you are great and do wondrous things. /
You are God alone.

11 Teach me your way, O LORD. /
I will walk in your truth. /
Unite my heart to fear your name.

12 I will praise you, O Lord my God, with all my heart / and I will glorify your name forevermore.

13 For your mercy is great toward me, /
and you have delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud have risen against me, / and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul. /
They have not set you before them.

15 But you, O Lord, are a God full of compassion and gracious. /
You are patient and abundant in mercy and truth.

16 O turn to me and have mercy upon me. / Give your strength to your servant / and save the son of your woman-servant.

17 Show me a token for good / so that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed, / because you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

O LORD God of my salvation, /
I have cried day and night before you.

2 Let my prayer come before you. /
Incline your ear to my cry,

3 For my soul is full of troubles, /
and my life draws near to the grave.

4 I am counted with those who go down into the pit. /
I am like a man who has no strength,

5 Free among the dead, / like the slain who lie in the grave, / whom you no longer remember, / and they are cut off from your hand.

6 You have laid me in the lowest pit, /
in darkness, in the deeps.

7 Your wrath lies hard upon me, / and you have afflicted me with all your waves. /
[Selah.]

8 You have put away my acquaintances far from me. /
You have made me an abomination to them. /
I am shut up and I cannot come forth.

9 My eye mourns by reason of affliction. /
LORD, I have called daily upon you. /
I have stretched out my hands to you.

10 Will you show wonders to the dead? /
Shall the dead arise and praise you? /

11 Shall your loving-kindness be declared in the grave, / or your faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall your wonders be known in the dark / and your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But to you I have cried, O LORD, / and in the morning my prayer shall come before you.

14 LORD, why do you cast off my soul? /
Why do you hide your face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth. /
While I suffer your terrors I am distracted.

16 Your fierce wrath goes over me. /
Your terrors have cut me off.

17 They came around me daily like water. /
They encompassed me together.

18 You have put loved one and friend far from me / and my acquaintances into darkness.

Psalm 89

The psalmist praises God for his covenant, 1-4; for his wonderful power, 5-14; for the care of his church, 15-18; for his favor to the kingdom of David, 19-37. Then bemoaning contrary events, 38-45, he expostulates, prays, and blesses God, 46-52.

1 [Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.]

I will sing of the mercies of the LORD forever. /
With my mouth I will make your faithfulness known to all generations.

2 For I have said, "Mercy shall be built up forever. /
You will establish your faithfulness in the very heavens."

3 "I have made a covenant with my chosen. /
I have sworn to David my servant,

4 'I will establish your offspring forever / and build up your throne to all generations.'" /
[Selah.]

5 And the heavens shall praise your wonders, O LORD, / and also your faithfulness in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared to the LORD? /
Who among the sons of the mighty can be compared to the LORD?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints / and to be had in reverence by all those who are around him.

8 O LORD God of hosts, / who is mighty like you, O Yah? /

And your faithfulness is around you.

9 You rule the raging of the sea. /
When its waves arise, you still them.

10 You have broken Rahab in pieces like one who is slain. /
You have scattered your enemies with your strong arm.

11 The heavens are yours, the earth also is yours. /
As for the world and its fullness, you have founded them.

12 The north and the south, you have created them. /
Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in your name.

13 You have a mighty arm. /
Your hand is strong and your right hand is high.

14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of your throne. /
Mercy and truth shall go before your face.

15 Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound. /
They shall walk, O LORD, in the light of your countenance.

16 In your name they shall rejoice all the day, / and in your righteousness they shall be exalted.

17 For you are the glory of their strength, / and in your favor our horn shall be exalted.

18 For the LORD is our defense, / and the Holy One of Israel is our king.

19 Then you spoke in a vision to your holy one / and said, "I have laid help upon one who is mighty. /
I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

20 I have found David my servant. /
With my holy oil I have anointed him.

21 With him my hand shall be established. /
My arm shall also strengthen him.

22 The enemy shall not exact tribute from him, /
nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

23 And I will beat down his foes before his face / and afflict those who hate him.

24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him, / and in my name his horn shall be exalted.

25 I will set his hand on the sea / and his right hand on the rivers.

26 He shall cry to me, 'You are my father, /
my God, and the rock of my salvation.'

27 Also I will make him my first-born, / higher than the kings of the earth.

28 I will keep my mercy for him forevermore, / and my covenant shall stand firmly with him.

29 I will also make his offspring to endure forever, /
and his throne as the days of heaven.

30 If his children forsake my law /
and do not walk in my judgments,

31 If they break my statutes / and do not keep my commandments,

32 Then I will visit their transgression with the rod / and their iniquity with stripes.

33 Nevertheless, I will not utterly take my loving-kindness from him / nor allow my faithfulness to fail.

34 I will not break my covenant /
nor alter the thing that has gone out of my lips.

35 Once I have sworn by my holiness, /
I will not lie to David.

36 His offspring shall endure forever, / and his throne as the sun before me.

37 It shall be established forever like the moon, / like the faithful witness in the sky." /
[Selah.]

38 But you have cast off and abhorred, / you have been angry with your anointed.

39 You have made the covenant of your servant void. /
You have profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.

40 You have broken all his hedges down. /
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.

41 All who pass by the way plunder him. /
He is a reproach to his neighbors.

42 You have set up the right hand of his adversaries. /
You have made all his enemies to rejoice.

43 You have also turned the edge of his sword / and have not made him to stand in the battle.

44 You have made his glory to cease / and cast his throne down to the ground.

45 The days of his youth you have shortened. /
You have covered him with shame. /
[Selah.]

46 How long, LORD, will you hide yourself? /
Forever? Shall your wrath burn like fire?

47 Remember how short my time is. /
Why have you made all men in vain?

48 What man is he who lives and shall not see death? /
Shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? /
[Selah.]

49 Lord, where are your former loving-kindnesses / which you swore to David in your truth?

50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of your servants, /
how I bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people,

51 With which your enemies have reproached, O LORD, / with which they have reproached the footsteps of your anointed.

52 Blessed be the LORD forevermore. /
Amen and amen.

BOOK IV

Psalm 90

Moses sets forth God's providence, 1, 2. The frailty of the state of man, 3-9, and brevity of life, 10, 11. He prays for the knowledge and sensible experience of God's good providence, 12-17.

1 [A Prayer of Moses the Man of God.]

Lord, you have been our dwelling-place / in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, / or before you had formed the earth and the world, /
even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.

3 You turn man to destruction / and say, "Return, you children of men."

4 For a thousand years in your sight / are like yesterday when it is past / and like a watch in the night.

5 You carry them away as with a flood. They are like a dream. /
In the morning they are like grass which grows.

6 In the morning it flourishes and grows. /
In the evening it is cut down and withers.

7 For we are consumed by your anger, /
and by your wrath we are troubled.

8 You have set our iniquities before you, /
our secret sins in the light of your countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in your wrath. /
We spend our years as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are seventy years. /
And if by reason of strength they are eighty years, / yet their strength is labor and sorrow, / for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knows the power of your anger? /
Even according to your fear, so is your wrath.

12 So teach us to number our days /
so that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? /
And repent concerning your servants.

14 O satisfy us early with your mercy /
so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days in which you have afflicted us / and the years in which we have seen evil.

16 Let your work appear to your servants / and your glory to their children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us. /
And establish the work of our hands upon us. /
Yes, the work of our hands, establish it.

Psalm 91

The state of the godly, 1, 2. Their safety, 3-8. Their habitation, 9, 10. Their servants, 11-

13. Their friend; with the effects of them all, 14-16.

1 He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High / shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, / my God in whom I trust."

3 Surely he shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler / and from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall cover you with his feathers, / and under his wings you shall trust. /
His truth shall be your shield and buckler.

5 You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, /
nor of the arrow that flies by day,

6 Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, /
nor of the destruction that wastes at noon-day.

7 A thousand shall fall at your side, / and ten thousand at your right hand, / but it shall not come near you.

8 Only with your eyes you shall behold / and see the reward of the wicked.

9 For you, LORD, are my refuge! /
You have made the Most High your habitation.

10 There shall no evil befall you, / neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.

11 For he shall give his angels charge over you / to keep you in all your ways.

12 They shall bear you up in their hands, /
lest you dash your foot against a stone.

13 You shall tread upon the lion and the adder. /
The young lion and the serpent you shall trample under feet.

14 "Because he has set his love upon me, therefore I will deliver him. /
I will set him on high because he has known my name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him. /
I will be with him in trouble. /
I will deliver him and honor him.

16 With long life I will satisfy him / and show him my salvation."

Psalm 92

The prophet exhorts to praise God, 1-3, for his great works, 4, 5; for his judgments on the wicked, 6-9; and for his goodness to the godly, 10-15.

1 [A Psalm or Song for the Sabbath Day.]

It is a good thing to give thanks to the LORD / and to sing praises to your name, O Most High,

2 To show forth your loving-kindness in the morning / and your faithfulness every night,

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings and upon the psaltery, / upon the harp with a solemn sound.

4 For you, LORD, have made me glad through your work. /
I will triumph in the works of your hands.

5 O LORD, how great your works are! /
And your thoughts are very deep.

6 A brutish man does not know, / neither does a fool understand this.

7 When the wicked spring like the grass / and when all the workers of iniquity flourish, /
it is that they shall be destroyed forever.

8 But you, LORD, are most high forevermore.

9 For behold, your enemies, O LORD, / for behold, your enemies shall perish. /
All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10 But you shall exalt my horn like the horn of a wild ox. /
I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

11 My eye has also seen my enemies, / and my ears shall hear the wicked / who rise up against me.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree. /
He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those who are planted in the house of the LORD / shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age. /

They shall be fat and flourishing,

15 To show that the LORD is upright. /
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

The majesty, stability, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom, 1-5.

1 The LORD reigns. /
He is clothed with majesty. /
The LORD is clothed with strength, / with which he has girded himself. /
The world is also established so that it cannot be moved.

2 Your throne is established of old. /
You are from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, / the floods have lifted up their voice. /
The floods lift their waves.

4 The LORD on high is mightier / than the noise of many waters, /
even mightier than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Your testimonies are very sure. /
Holiness is suitable for your house, O LORD, forever.

Psalm 94

The prophet, calling for justice, bemoans tyranny and impiety, 1-7. He teaches God's providence, 8-11. He shows the blessedness of affliction, 12-15. God is the defender of the afflicted, 16-23.

1 O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongs, /
O God, to whom vengeance belongs, show yourself.

2 Lift up yourself, judge of the earth. /
Render a reward to the proud.

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, /
how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things, / and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 They break your people in pieces, O LORD, / and afflict your heritage.

6 They slay the widow and the stranger / and murder the fatherless.

7 Yet they say, "The LORD will not see, / neither will the God of Jacob regard it."

8 Understand, you brutish among the people. /
And you fools, when will you be wise?

9 He who planted the ear, shall he not hear? /
He who formed the eye, shall he not see?

10 He who chastises the heathen, shall he not correct? /
He who teaches man knowledge, shall he not know?

11 The LORD knows the thoughts of man, /
that they are vanity.

12 Blessed is the man whom you chasten, O LORD, / and teach him out of your law,

13 So that you may give him rest from the days of adversity / until the pit is dug for the wicked.

14 For the LORD will not cast off his people, / neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 But judgment shall return to righteousness, / and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers? /
Or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the LORD had been my help, /
my soul would have almost dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, "My foot slips," / your mercy, O LORD, held me up.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, / your comforts delight my soul.

20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with you, / which frames mischief by a law?

21 They assemble themselves against the soul of the righteous / and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the LORD is my defense, / and my God is the rock of my refuge.

23 And he will bring upon them their own iniquity / and will cut them off in their own wickedness. /
Indeed, the LORD our God will cut them off.

Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

5 The sea is his, and he made it. /

9 When your fathers tested me, / proved me, and saw my work.

10 Forty long years I was grieved with this generation / and said, "It is a people who err in their heart, /

Psalm 102

In his prayer, the prophet makes a grievous complaint, 1-11. He takes comfort in the eternity and mercy of God, 12-17. The mercies of God are to be recorded, 18-22. He sustains his weakness by the unchangeableness of God, 23-28.

1 [A Prayer of the Afflicted: when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.]

Hear my prayer, O LORD, / and let my cry come to you.

2 Do not hide your face from me / in the day when I am in trouble. /
Incline your ear to me. /
In the day when I call, answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed like smoke, / and my bones are burned like a hearth.

4 My heart is smitten and withered like grass /
so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, /
my bones cleave to my skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness. /
I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch and am like a sparrow / alone upon the housetop.

8 My enemies reproach me all the day, / and those who are enraged against me have sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread / and mingled my drink with weeping

10 Because of your indignation and your wrath. /
For you have lifted me up and cast me down.

11 My days are like a shadow that declines, / and I am withered like grass.

12 But you, O LORD, shall endure forever, / and your remembrance to all generations.

13 You shall arise and have mercy upon Zion, / for the time to favor her, / even the set time, has come.

14 For your servants take pleasure in her stones /
and favor the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, / and all the kings of the earth your glory.

16 When the LORD builds up Zion, /
he will appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute / and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come. /
And the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary. /
From heaven the LORD has beheld the earth,

20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner, / to release those who are appointed to death,

21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion / and his praise in Jerusalem,

22 When the people are assembled, / and also the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He weakened my strength in the way. /
He shortened my days.

24 I said, "O my God, do not take me away / in the midst of my days. /
Your years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old you have laid the foundation of the earth, / and the heavens are the work of your hands.

26 They shall perish, but you will endure. /
Indeed, all of them shall grow old like a garment. /
Like a vesture you will change them, /
and they shall be changed.

27 But you are the same, /
and your years will have no end.

28 The children of your servants shall continue, / and their offspring shall be established before you."

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, /

4 Who redeems your life from destruction, / who crowns you with loving-kindness and tender mercies,

5 Who satisfies your mouth with good things /
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle’s.

6 The LORD executes righteousness / and judgment for all who are oppressed.

7 He made his ways known to Moses, /

8 The LORD is merciful and gracious, / slow to anger, and abundant in mercy.

9 He will not always chide, /
neither will he keep his anger forever.

10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins / or rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 For as the heaven is high above the earth, /
so is his mercy great toward those who fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, /
so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

13 As a father pities his children, /
so the LORD pities those who fear him.

14 For he knows our frame. /
He remembers that we are dust.

15 As for man, his days are like grass. /
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

16 For the wind passes over it, and it is gone, / and his righteousness to children’s children,

18 To those who keep his covenant, / and to those who remember his commandments to do them.

19 The LORD has prepared his throne in the heavens, / and his kingdom rules over all.

20 Bless the LORD, you angels of his, / who excel in strength, who do his commandments, / listening to the voice of his word.

21 Bless the LORD, all you hosts of his, /

22 Bless the LORD, all his works /

Bless the LORD, O my soul.

The earth is full of your riches.

25 Thus is this great and wide sea / in which are moving things innumerable, / both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships. /
There is that leviathan which you have made to play therein.

27 These all wait upon you /
so that you may give them their food in due season.

28 That which you give them, they gather. /
You open your hand, and they are filled with good.

29 You hide your face, and they are troubled. / You take away their breath, and they die /
and return to their dust.

30 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created. /
And you renew the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD shall endure forever. /
The LORD shall rejoice in his works.

32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles. /
He touches the hills, and they smoke.

33 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live. /
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet. /
I will be glad in the LORD.

35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth, / and let the wicked be no more. /
Bless the LORD, O my soul. /
Praise the LORD.

17 He sent a man before them, /
even Joseph, who was sold for a servant.

18 They hurt his feet with fetters, /
and he was laid in iron.

19 Until the time that his word came to pass, /
the word of the LORD tried him.

20 The king sent and released him, /
even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 He made him lord of his house / and ruler of all his substance,

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure / and teach his elders wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt, / and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people greatly / and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people, / to deal subtly with his servants.

26 He sent Moses his servant / and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 They showed his signs among them / and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness and made it dark, / and they did not rebel against his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood / and slew their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance / in the chambers of their kings.

31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies /
and lice in all their borders.

32 He gave them hail for rain / and flaming fire in their land.

33 He also smote their vines and their fig-trees / and broke the trees of their borders.

34 He spoke, and the swarming-locusts / and licking-locusts came—and that without number—

35 And ate up all the herbs in their land / and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 He also smote all the first-born in their land, /
the chief of all their strength.

37 He also brought them forth with silver and gold. /
And there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 Egypt was glad when they departed, / for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 He spread a cloud for a covering / and fire to give light in the night.

40 The people asked, and he brought quails / and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out. /
They ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered his holy promise / and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy / and his chosen with gladness.

44 He gave them the lands of the heathen, / and they inherited the labor of the people,

45 So that they might observe his statutes / and keep his laws. /

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 106

The psalmist exhorts to praise God, 1-3. He prays for pardon of sin, as God pardoned the fathers, 4-6. The story of the people's rebellion and God's mercy, 7-46. He concludes with prayer and praise, 47, 48.

1 Praise the LORD. /
O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good. /
For his mercy endures forever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? /
Who can show forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are those who keep judgment / and he who does righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, / with the favor that you bear to your people. /
O visit me with your salvation

5 So that I may see the good of your chosen, / so that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, /
so that I may glory with your inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers. /
We have committed iniquity. We have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers did not understand your wonders in Egypt. /
They did not remember the multitude of your mercies, / but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red Sea.

8 Nevertheless, he saved them for his name's sake /
so that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up. /
Thus he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him who hated them / and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their enemies. /
There was not one of them left.

12 Then they believed his words. /
They sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his works. /
They did not wait for his counsel,

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness / and tested God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request, /
but sent leanness into their soul.

16 In the camp they also envied Moses / and Aaron, the saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan / and covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company. /
The flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb / and worshiped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed their glory / into the similitude of an ox that eats grass.

21 They forgot God their Savior / who had done great things in Egypt,

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham / and awesome things by the Red Sea;

23 Therefore, he said that he would destroy them, / had Moses his chosen not stood before him in the breach / to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 They even despised the pleasant land / and did not believe his word,

25 But murmured in their tents / and did not listen to the voice of the LORD;

26 Therefore, he lifted up his hand against them / to overthrow them in the wilderness,

27 To overthrow their offspring among the nations / and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also to Baal-peor / and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions, / and the plague broke in upon them.

30 Then Phinehas stood up and executed judgment. /
And so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted to him for righteousness / to all generations forever.

32 They also angered him at the waters of strife /
so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes,

33 For they provoked his spirit / and he spoke unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the nations, / concerning whom the LORD commanded them,

35 But were mingled among the heathen /
and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols, / which were a snare to them.

37 They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons

38 And shed innocent blood, / even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, / whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan. /
And the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus they were defiled with their own works / and went astray with their own inventions.

40 Therefore, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against his people / because he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen, / and those who hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, / and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 Many times he delivered them, / but they provoked him with their counsel / and were brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless, he regarded their affliction /
when he heard their cry.

45 And he remembered for them his covenant / and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 He also made them to be pitied /
by all those who carried them captive.

47 Save us, O LORD our God, / and gather us from among the heathen / so that we may give thanks to your holy name / and triumph in your praise.

48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel /
from everlasting to everlasting. /
And let all the people say, "Amen." /
Praise the LORD.

BOOK V

Psalm 107

The psalmist exhorts the redeemed to praise God and to observe his manifold providence, 1-3, over travelers, 4-9; over captives, 10-16; over sick men, 17-22; over sailors, 23-32; and in many varieties of life, 33-43.

1 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good. /
For his mercy endures forever.

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, / whom he has redeemed from the hand of the enemy

3 And gathered out of the lands / from the east, from the west, / from the north, and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way. /
They found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, / their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, / and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way /
so that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness /
and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he satisfies the longing soul / and fills the hungry soul with goodness.

10 There are those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, / being bound in affliction and iron,

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God / and despised the counsel of the Most High.

12 Therefore, he brought down their heart with labor. /

They fell down, and there was no one to help.

13 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, / and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death / and broke their bonds apart.

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness /
and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he has broken the gates of brass / and cut the bars of iron apart.

17 Fools, because of their transgression / and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhors all manner of food, / and they draw near to the gates of death.

19 Then they cry to the LORD in their trouble, / and he saves them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word and healed them / and delivered them from their destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness /
and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving / and declare his works with rejoicing.

23 Those who go down to the sea in ships, / who do business on great waters,

24 These see the works of the LORD / and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commands and raises the stormy wind, / which lifts up its waves.

26 They mount up to the heaven. /
They go down again to the depths. /
Their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro and stagger like a drunken man. /
They are at their wit’s end.

28 Then they cry to the LORD in their trouble, /
and he brings them out of their distresses.

29 He calms the storm to a gentle breeze /
so that the waves of the sea are still.

30 Then they are glad because they are quiet. /
Thus he brings them to their desired haven.

31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness /
and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people / and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He turns rivers into a wilderness, /
the water-springs into dry ground,

34 And a fruitful land into barrenness / because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.

35 He turns the wilderness into a standing water / and dry ground into water-springs.

36 And there he makes the hungry to dwell /
so that they may prepare a city for habitation.

37 They sow the fields and plant vineyards, / which yield fruits of increase.

38 He also blesses them so that they are multiplied greatly. /
He does not allow their livestock to decrease.

39 Again, they are diminished and brought low / through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 He pours contempt upon princes / and causes them to wander in the wilderness where there is no way.

41 Yet he sets the poor on high from affliction / and increases their families like a flock.

42 The righteous shall see it and rejoice, / and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

43 Whoever is wise and will observe these things, / even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.

1 [A Song or Psalm of David.]

O God, my heart is fixed. /
I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp. /
I myself will awake early.

3 I will praise you, O LORD, among the people, / and I will sing praises to you among the nations.

4 For your mercy is great above the heavens, / and your truth reaches to the clouds.

5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, /
and your glory above all the earth,

6 So that your beloved may be delivered. /
Save with your right hand, and answer me.

7 God has spoken in his holiness: "I will rejoice. /
I will divide Shechem /
and measure out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine. /
Manasseh is mine. /
Ephraim also is the strength of my head. /
Judah is my lawgiver.

9 Moab is my wash-pot. /
Over Edom I will cast out my shoe. /
Over Philistia I will triumph."

10 Who will bring me into the strong city? /
Who will lead me into Edom?

11 Will you not, O God, who have cast us off? /
And will you not, O God, go forth with our armies?

12 Give us help from trouble, /
for vain is the help of man.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly, /
for he will tread down our enemies.

Psalm 109

David speaks against his slanderous enemies, 1-5. He prays against them and declares God’s judgment, 6-15. He shows their sin, 16-20. Bemoaning his own misery, he prays for help, 21-28. He promises thankfulness, 29-31.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.]

Do not hold your peace, O God of my praise,

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful / are opened against me. /
They have spoken against me /
with a lying tongue.

3 They encompassed me also with words of hatred / and fought against me without a cause.

4 For my love they are my adversaries, /
but I give myself to prayer.

5 And they have rewarded me evil for good / and hatred for my love.

6 Set a wicked man over him, / and let Satan stand at his right hand.

7 When he is judged, let him be condemned / and let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few / and let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless / and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children continually wander around and beg. /
Let them also seek their bread out of their desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner catch all that he has, /
and let strangers plunder his labor.

12 Let there be no one to extend mercy to him, /
neither let there be any to favor his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off, / and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD, / and do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the LORD continually / so that he may cut off their memory from the earth.

16 For he did not remember to show mercy, / but persecuted the poor and needy man /
so that he might even slay the broken in heart.

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come to him. /
As he did not delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment, / so let it come into his body like water / and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be to him as the garment which covers him / and for a girdle with which he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of my adversaries from the LORD / and of those who speak evil against my soul.

21 But deal with me, O Yahweh the Lord, for your name's sake. /
Because your mercy is good, deliver me.

22 For I am poor and needy, / and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declines. /
I am tossed up and down like the locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting, / and my flesh fails for lack of fatness.

25 I also became a reproach to them. /
When they looked upon me, they shook their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God. /
O save me according to your mercy,

27 So that they may know that this is your hand, /
that you, LORD, have done it.

28 They may curse, but you bless. / When they arise, let them be ashamed, / but let your servant rejoice.

29 Let my adversaries be clothed with shame, / and let them cover themselves with their own shame / as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth. /
I will even praise him among the multitude.

31 For he will stand at the right hand of the poor / to save him from those who condemn his soul.

1 I love the LORD because he has heard / my voice and my supplications.

2 Because he has inclined his ear to me, /
therefore I will call upon him as long as I live.

3 The sorrows of death encompassed me, / and the pains of hell came upon me. /
I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then I called upon the name of the LORD: /
"O LORD, I implore you, deliver my soul."

5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous. /
Indeed, our God is merciful.

6 The LORD preserves the simple. /
I was brought low, and he helped me.

7 Return to your rest, O my soul, / for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

8 For you have delivered my soul from death, / my eyes from tears, /
and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the LORD /
in the land of the living.

10 I believed; therefore, I said, /
"I was greatly afflicted."

11 I said in my haste, /
"All men are liars."

12 What shall I render to the LORD /

24 This is the day which the LORD has made. /
We will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Save now, I implore you, O LORD. /
O LORD, I implore you, send prosperity now.

26 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD. /
We have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

27 God is the LORD, who has shown us light. / Bind the sacrifice with cords, / even to the horns of the altar.

28 You are my God, and I will praise you. /
My God, I will exalt you.

29 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good. /
For his mercy endures forever.

Psalm 119

This psalm contains various prayers, praises, and professions of obedience, 1-176.

[ALEPH - א]

1 Blessed are the undefiled in the way / who walk in the law of the LORD.

2 Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, / who seek him with the whole heart.

3 They also do no iniquity. /
They walk in his ways.

4 You have commanded us /
to keep your precepts diligently.

5 O that my ways were directed / to keep your statutes!

6 Then I shall not be ashamed /
when I have respect for all your commandments.

7 I will praise you with uprightness of heart /
when I have learned your righteous judgments.

8 I will keep your statutes. /
O do not forsake me utterly.

[BET - ב]

9 How shall a young man cleanse his way? /
By taking heed to it, according to your word.

10 With my whole heart I have sought you. /
O do not let me wander from your commandments.

11 I have hid your word in my heart /
so that I might not sin against you.

12 Blessed are you, O LORD. /
Teach me your statutes.

13 With my lips I have declared /
all the judgments of your mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies /
as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate in your precepts / and have respect for your ways.

16 I will delight myself in your statutes. /
I will not forget your word.

[GIMEL - ג]

17 Deal bountifully with your servant /
so that I may live and keep your word.

18 Open my eyes so that I may behold / wondrous things out of your law.

19 I am a stranger in the earth. /
Do not hide your commandments from me.

20 My soul breaks for the longing / that it has to your judgments at all times.

21 You have rebuked the proud who are cursed, / who err from your commandments.

22 Remove from me reproach and contempt, / for I have kept your testimonies.

23 Princes also sat and spoke against me, /
but your servant meditated in your statutes.

24 Your testimonies are also my delight / and my counselors.

[DALET - ד]

25 My soul cleaves to the dust. /
Revive me according to your word.

26 I have declared my ways, and you heard me. /
Teach me your statutes.

27 Make me to understand the way of your precepts, / and I shall talk of your wondrous works.

28 My soul melts for heaviness. /
Strengthen me according to your word.

29 Remove from me the way of lying / and grant me your law graciously.

30 I have chosen the way of truth. /
Your judgments I have laid before me.

31 I have adhered to your testimonies. /
O LORD, do not put me to shame.

32 I will run the way of your commandments /
when you enlarge my heart.

[HE - ה]

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of your statutes, / and I shall keep it to the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep your law. /
I shall even observe it with my whole heart.

35 Make me to go in the path of your commandments, / for in that I delight.

36 Incline my heart to your testimonies / and not to covetousness.

37 Turn away my eyes from beholding vanity / and revive me in your way.

38 Establish your word to your servant / who is devoted to your fear.

39 Turn away my reproach which I fear, /
for your judgments are good.

40 Behold, I have longed after your precepts. /
Revive me in your righteousness.

[VAV - ו]

41 Let your mercies come also to me, O LORD, /
even your salvation, according to your word.

42 And I shall have an answer for him who reproaches me, / for I trust in your word.

43 And do not take the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, / for I have hoped in your judgments.

44 And I shall keep your law continually / forever and ever.

45 And I will walk at liberty, / for I seek your precepts.

46 I will also speak of your testimonies before kings /
and will not be ashamed.

47 And I will delight myself in your commandments, / which I have loved.

48 I will also lift my hands to your commandments, which I have loved. /
And I will meditate in your statutes.

[ZAYIN - ז]

49 Remember the word to your servant, / upon which you have caused me to hope.

50 This is my comfort in my affliction, / for your word has revived me.

51 The proud have had me greatly in derision, /
yet I have not declined from your law.

52 I remembered your judgments of old, O LORD, / and have comforted myself.

53 Horror has taken hold upon me / because of the wicked who forsake your law.

54 Your statutes have been my songs /
in the house of my pilgrimage.

55 I have remembered your name, O LORD, in the night / and have kept your law.

56 This I had / because I kept your precepts.

[HET - ח]

57 You are my portion, O LORD. /
I have said that I would keep your words.

58 I entreated your favor with my whole heart. /
Be merciful to me according to your word.

59 I considered my ways /
and turned my feet to your testimonies.

60 I made haste and did not delay /
to keep your commandments.

61 The ropes of the wicked have surrounded me, /
but I have not forgotten your law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you /
because of your righteous judgments.

63 I am a companion of all those who fear /
you and of those who keep your precepts.

64 The earth, O LORD, is full of your mercy. /
Teach me your statutes.

[TET - ט]

65 You have dealt well with your servant, /
O LORD, according to your word.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge, / for I have believed your commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, / but now I have kept your word.

68 You are good and do good. /
Teach me your statutes.

69 The proud have forged a lie against me, /
but I will keep your precepts with my whole heart.

70 Their heart is as gross as fat, /
but I delight in your law.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted /
so that I might learn your statutes.

72 The law of your mouth is better to me / than thousands of gold and silver.

[YOD - י]

73 Your hands have made me and fashioned me. /
Give me understanding so that I may learn your commandments.

74 Those who fear you will be glad when they see me / because I have hoped in your word.

75 I know, O LORD, that your judgments are right / and that you in faithfulness have afflicted me.

76 Let, I pray you, your merciful kindness be for my comfort / according to your word to your servant.

77 Let your tender mercies come to me so that I may live, / for your law is my delight.

78 Let the proud be ashamed, for they dealt perversely with me without a cause. /
But I will meditate in your precepts.

79 Let those who fear you turn to me, /
and those who have known your testimonies.

80 Let my heart be sound in your statutes /
so that I may not be ashamed.

[KAF - כ]

81 My soul faints for your salvation, /
but I hope in your word.

82 My eyes fail for your word, / saying, "When will you comfort me?"

83 For I have become like a bottle in the smoke, / yet I do not forget your statutes.

84 How many are the days of your servant? /
When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?

85 The proud have dug pits for me, / which are not according to your law.

86 All your commandments are faithful. /
They persecute me wrongfully. Help me.

87 They had almost consumed me upon earth, /
but I did not forsake your precepts.

88 Revive me after your loving-kindness, / and I shall keep the testimony of your mouth.

[LAMED - ל]

89 Forever, O LORD, / your word is settled in heaven.

90 Your faithfulness is to all generations. /
You have established the earth, and it abides.

91 They continue this day according to your ordinances, / for all are your servants.

92 Unless your law had been my delight, /
I would have perished in my affliction.

93 I will never forget your precepts, / for with them you have revived me.

94 I am yours. Save me, / for I have sought your precepts.

95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me, /
but I will consider your testimonies.

96 I have seen an end of all perfection, / but your commandment is exceedingly broad.

[MEM - מ]

97 O how I love your law! /
It is my meditation all the day.

98 You, through your commandments, have made me wiser than my enemies, / for they are always with me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, / for your testimonies are my meditation.

100 I understand more than the ancients / because I keep your precepts.

101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way /
so that I might keep your word.

102 I have not departed from your judgments, /
for you have taught me.

103 How sweet your words are to my taste! /
They are even sweeter than honey to my mouth!

104 Through your precepts I get understanding; / therefore, I hate every false way.

[NUN - נ]

105 Your word is a lamp to my feet / and a light to my path.

106 I have sworn, and I will perform it, / that I will keep your righteous judgments.

107 I am afflicted very much. / Revive me, O LORD, according to your word.

108 Accept, I implore you, the voluntary-offerings of my mouth, O LORD, / and teach me your judgments.

109 My soul is continually in my hand, /
yet I do not forget your law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, /
yet I did not err from your precepts.

111 I have taken your testimonies as a heritage forever, / for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

112 I have inclined my heart to perform your statutes / always, even to the end.

[SAMEKH - ס]

113 I hate vain thoughts, /
but I love your law.

114 You are my hiding place and my shield. /
I hope in your word.

115 Depart from me, you evil-doers, /
for I will keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according to your word so that I may live, / and do not let me be ashamed of my hope.

117 Support me, and I shall be safe / and will have respect for your statutes continually.

118 You have trodden down all those who err from your statutes, / for their deceit is falsehood.

119 You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross; / therefore, I love your testimonies.

120 My flesh trembles for fear of you, / and I am afraid of your judgments.

[AYIN - ע]

121 I have done judgment and justice. /
Do not leave me to my oppressors.

122 Be surety for your servant for good. /
Do not let the proud oppress me.

123 My eyes fail for your salvation / and for the word of your righteousness.

124 Deal with your servant according to your mercy /
and teach me your statutes.

125 I am your servant. Give me understanding / so that I may know your testimonies.

126 It is time for you, LORD, to work, /
for they have made your law void.

127 Therefore, I love your commandments / above gold, even above fine gold.

128 Therefore, I esteem all your precepts concerning all things to be right, / and I hate every false way.

[PE - פ]

129 Your testimonies are wonderful; / therefore, my soul keeps them.

130 The entrance of your words gives light. /
It gives understanding to the simple.

131 I opened my mouth and panted, /
for I longed for your commandments.

132 Look upon me and be merciful to me, /
as you always do to those who love your name.

133 Order my steps in your word / and do not let any iniquity have dominion over me.

134 Deliver me from the oppression of man, / and I will keep your precepts.

135 Make your face to shine upon your servant /
and teach me your statutes.

136 Rivers of waters run down my eyes / because they do not keep your law.

[TSADI - צ]

137 You are righteous, O LORD, / and your judgments are upright.

138 Your testimonies that you have commanded are righteous / and very faithful.

139 My zeal has consumed me /
because my enemies have forgotten your words.

140 Your word is very pure; / therefore, your servant loves it.

141 I am small and despised, / yet I do not forget your precepts.

142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, / and your law is the truth.

143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me, / yet your commandments are my delights.

144 The righteousness of your testimonies is everlasting. /
Give me understanding, and I shall live.

[QOF - ק]

145 I cried with my whole heart. Hear me, O LORD. /
I will keep your statutes.

146 I cried to you. Save me, / and I shall keep your testimonies.

147 I came before the dawning of the morning and cried. /
I hoped in your word.

148 My eyes anticipated the night watches /
so that I might meditate in your word.

149 Hear my voice according to your loving-kindness. /
O LORD, revive me according to your judgment.

150 They draw near who follow after mischief. /
They are far from your law.

151 You are near, O LORD, / and all your commandments are truth.

152 Concerning your testimonies, I have known of old / that you have founded them forever.

[RESH - ר]

154 Consider my affliction and deliver me, / for I do not forget your law.

154 Plead my cause and deliver me. /
Revive me according to your word.

155 Salvation is far from the wicked, / for they do not seek your statutes.

156 Your tender mercies are great, O LORD. /
Revive me according to your judgments.

157 Many are my persecutors and my enemies, /
yet I do not decline from your testimonies.

158 I beheld the transgressors and was grieved / because they did not keep your word.

159 Consider how I love your precepts. / Revive me, O LORD, according to your loving-kindness.

160 Your word is true from the beginning. /
Every one of your righteous judgments endures forever.

[SHIN - ש]

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause, / but my heart stands in awe of your word.

162 I rejoice at your word / like one who finds great plunder.

163 I hate and abhor lying, /
but I love your law.

164 Seven times a day I praise you /
because of your righteous judgments.

165 Those who love your law have great peace, / and nothing shall cause them to stumble.

166 LORD, I have hoped for your salvation / and performed your commandments.

167 My soul has kept your testimonies, / and I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept your precepts and your testimonies, / for all my ways are before you.

[TAV - ת]

169 Let my cry come near before you, O LORD. /
Give me understanding according to your word.

170 Let my supplication come before you. / Deliver me according to your word.

171 My lips shall utter praise /
when you have taught me your statutes.

172 My tongue shall speak of your word, / for all your commandments are righteousness.

173 Let your hand help me, /
for I have chosen your precepts.

174 I have longed for your salvation, O LORD, / and your law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise you. /
Let your judgments help me.

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep. Seek your servant, / for I do not forget your commandments.

6 My soul waits for the Lord / more than those who watch for the morning, /

LORD, remember David / and all his afflictions, and vowed to the mighty God of Jacob:

3 "Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house / or go up into my bed,

4 I will not give sleep to my eyes /
or slumber to my eyelids,

5 Until I find a place for the LORD, /
a habitation for the mighty God of Jacob."

6 Behold, we heard of it at Ephratah. /
We found it in the fields of Jaar.

7 We will go into his tabernacles. /
We will worship at his footstool.

8 Arise, O LORD, into your rest— / you and the ark of your strength.

9 Let your priests be clothed with righteousness, / and let your saints shout for joy.

10 For your servant David’s sake, / do not turn away the face of your anointed.

11 The LORD has sworn in truth to David / and he will not turn from it: /
"The fruit of your body I will set upon your throne.

12 If your children will keep my covenant / and my testimony that I shall teach them, /
their children shall also sit upon your throne forever."

13 For the LORD has chosen Zion. /
He has desired it for his habitation.

14 "This is my rest forever. /
Here I will dwell, for I have desired it.

15 I will abundantly bless her provision. /
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation, / and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

17 There I will make the horn of David to bud. /
I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.

18 His enemies I will clothe with shame, / but upon himself his crown shall flourish."

for brothers to dwell together in unity!

2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head / that ran down upon the beard, / even Aaron’s beard, /
that went down to the skirts of his garment.

3 It is like the dew of Hermon / and like the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion. / For there the LORD commanded the blessing, / even life forever.

Psalm 134

An exhortation to bless God, 1-3.

1 [A Song of Degrees.]

Behold, bless the LORD, all servants of the LORD, / who by night stand in the house of the LORD.

2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary / and bless the LORD.

3 May the LORD who made heaven and earth /
bless you out of Zion.

Psalm 135

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy, 1-4; for his power, 5-7; for his judgments, 8-14. The vanity of idols, 15-18. An exhortation to bless God, 19-21.

1 Praise the LORD. /
Praise the name of the LORD. /
Praise him, O servants of the LORD.

2 You who stand in the house of the LORD, /
in the courts of the house of our God,

3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good. /
Sing praises to his name, for it is pleasant.

4 For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself, /
Israel for his peculiar treasure.

5 For I know that the LORD is great / and that our Lord is above all gods.

6 Whatever the LORD pleased, he did / in heaven and in earth, /
in the seas and all deep places.

7 He causes the vapors to ascend / from the ends of the earth. /
He makes lightnings for the rain. /
He brings the wind out of his treasuries.

8 He smote the first-born of Egypt, /
both of man and beast.

9 He sent tokens and wonders / into the midst of you, O Egypt, / upon Pharaoh and upon all his servants.

10 He smote great nations / and slew mighty kings:

11 Sihon king of the Amorites, / Og king of Bashan, / and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

12 He gave their land for a heritage, /
a heritage to Israel his people.

13 Your name, O LORD, endures forever, / and your memorial, O LORD, /
throughout all generations.

14 For the LORD will judge his people / and have compassion on his servants.

15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, /
the work of men’s hands.

16 They have mouths, but they do not speak. /
They have eyes, but they do not see.

17 They have ears, but they do not hear, / neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 Those who make them are like them, /
and so is everyone who trusts in them.

19 Bless the LORD, O house of Israel. /
Bless the LORD, O house of Aaron.

20 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi. /
You who fear the LORD, bless the LORD.

21 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion, / who dwells at Jerusalem. Praise the LORD.

Psalm 136

An exhortation to give thanks to God for particular mercies, 1-26.

1 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good— /
for his mercy endures forever—

2 O give thanks to the God of gods— / +for his mercy endures forever—

3 O give thanks to the Lord of lords— /
for his mercy endures forever—

4 To him who alone does great wonders— /
for his mercy endures forever—

5 To him who by wisdom made the heavens— /
for his mercy endures forever—

6 To him who stretched out the earth above the waters— /
for his mercy endures forever—

7 To him who made great lights— /
for his mercy endures forever—

8 The sun to rule by day— /
for his mercy endures forever—

9 The moon and stars to rule by night— /
for his mercy endures forever—

10 To him who smote Egypt in their first-born— /
for his mercy endures forever—

11 And brought out Israel from among them— /
for his mercy endures forever—

12 With a strong hand and with an out-stretched arm— /
for his mercy endures forever—

13 To him who divided the Red Sea into parts— /
for his mercy endures forever—

14 And made Israel to pass through its midst— /
for his mercy endures forever—

15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea— /
for his mercy endures forever—

16 To him who led his people through the wilderness— /
for his mercy endures forever—

17 To him who smote great kings— /
for his mercy endures forever—

18 And slew famous kings— /
for his mercy endures forever—

19 Sihon king of the Amorites— /
for his mercy endures forever—

20 And Og king of Bashan— /
for his mercy endures forever—

21 And gave their land for a heritage— /
for his mercy endures forever—

22 Even a heritage to Israel his servant— /
for his mercy endures forever—

23 Who remembered us in our low estate— /
for his mercy endures forever—

24 And has redeemed us from our enemies— /
for his mercy endures forever—

25 Who gives food to all flesh— /
for his mercy endures forever—

26 O give thanks to the God of heaven— /
for his mercy endures forever.

Psalm 137

The constancy of the Jews in captivity, 1-6. The prophet curses Edom and Babel, 7-9.

1 By the rivers of Babylon / we sat down. We even wept / when we remembered Zion.

2 We hung our harps /
upon the willows in its midst.

3 For there those who carried us away captive / required of us a song, / and those who wasted us / required of us mirth, saying, /
"Sing us one of the songs of Zion."

4 How shall we sing the LORD’S song / in a foreign land?

5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, /
let my right hand forget her skill.

6 If I do not remember you, / let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, /
if I do not prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy.

7 Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom / in the day of Jerusalem, / who said, "Raze it, raze it, / even to its foundation."

8 O daughter of Babylon, who is to be destroyed, / happy shall he be who rewards you /
as you have served us.

9 Happy shall he be who takes and dashes your little ones / against the stones.

Psalm 138

David praises God for the truth of his word, 1-3. He prophesies that the kings of the earth shall praise God, 4-6. He professes his confidence in God, 7, 8.

1 [A Psalm of David.]

I will praise you with my whole heart. /
Before the gods I will sing praise to you.

2 I will worship toward your holy temple / and praise your name / for your loving-kindness and for your truth, / for you have magnified your word / above all your name.

3 In the day when I cried you answered me / and strengthened me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O LORD, /
when they hear the words of your mouth.

5 Indeed, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD, / for the glory of the LORD is great.

6 Though the LORD is high, / yet he regards the lowly. /
But the proud he knows afar off.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, / you will revive me. /
You will stretch forth your hand / against the wrath of my enemies, / and your right hand will save me.

8 The LORD will perfect that which concerns me. /
Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever. /
Do not forsake the works of your own hands.

Psalm 139

David praises God for his all-seeing providence, 1-16; and for his infinite mercies, 17, 18. He defies the wicked, 19-22. He prays for sincerity, 23, 24.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.]

O LORD, you have searched me and known me.

2 You know my sitting down and my rising up. /
You understand my thought afar off.

3 You compass my path and my lying down / and are acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word on my tongue, /
but behold, O LORD, you know it altogether.

5 You have beset me behind and before / and laid your hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me. /
It is high. I cannot attain to it.

7 Where shall I go from your Spirit? /
Or where shall I flee from your presence?

8 If I ascend into heaven, you are there. /
If I make my bed in hell, behold, you are there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning / and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

10 Even there your hand shall lead me /
and your right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me, / even the night shall be light around me,"

12 Even the darkness does not hide from you, / but the night shines like the day. /
The darkness and the light are both alike to you.

13 For you have possessed my inmost being. /
You have covered me in my mother’s womb.

14 I will praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. / Your works are wonderful, / and that my soul knows well.

15 My substance was not hid from you / when I was made in secret / and skillfully formed in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Your eyes saw my substance, being without form. / And in your book they were all written, / even the days that were ordained for me, /
when as yet there were none of them.

17 How precious your thoughts are to me, O God! /
How great the sum of them is!

18 If I should count them, / they are more in number than the sand. /
When I awake, I am still with you.

19 Surely you will slay the wicked, O God. /
Depart from me therefore, you bloody men.

20 For they speak against you wickedly, / and your enemies take your name in vain.

21 Do I, O LORD, not hate those who hate you? /
And am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred. /
I count them my enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart. /
Try me and know my thoughts.

24 See if there is any wicked way in me / and lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

David prays to be delivered from Saul and Doeg, 1-7. He prays against them, 8-11. He comforts himself by confidence in God, 12, 13.

1 [To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.]

Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil men. /
Preserve me from the violent men

2 Who devise mischiefs in their heart. /
Continually they are assembled for war.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent. / Adder’s poison is under their lips. /
[Selah.]

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked. / Preserve me from the violent men /
who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and also cords. /
They have spread a net by the wayside. /
They have set traps for me. /
[Selah.]

6 I said to the LORD, "You are my God." /
Hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

7 O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, /
you have covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the wicked. /
Do not further his wicked device, / lest they exalt themselves. /
[Selah.]

9 As for the head of those who encompass me, /
let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

10 Let burning coals fall upon them. /
Let them be cast into the fire, / into deep pits, so that they do not rise again.

11 Do not let an evil speaker be established on the earth. /
Evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

12 I know that the LORD will maintain / the cause of the afflicted / and the right of the poor.

13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks to your name. /
The upright shall dwell in your presence.

David prays that his appeal may be acceptable, 1, 2; his conscience sincere, 3-6; and his life free from snares, 7-10.

1 [A Psalm of David.]

LORD, I cry to you. Make haste to me. /
Give ear to my voice when I cry to you.

2 Let my prayer be set forth before you as incense, / and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth. /
Keep the door of my lips.

4 Do not incline my heart to any evil thing / or to practice wicked works / with men who work iniquity. /
And do not let me eat their dainties.

5 Let the righteous smite me—it shall be a kindness. /
And let him reprove me—it shall be an excellent oil. /
Do not let my head refuse it. /
For still my prayer shall be against their wickedness.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, /
they shall hear my words, for they are sweet.

7 As when one plows and cleaves the earth, /
so our bones are scattered at the grave’s mouth

8 But my eyes are to you, O GOD the Lord. /
My trust is in you. Do not leave my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me / and the traps of the workers of iniquity.

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets / while I escape.

Psalm 142

David shows that in his trouble all his comfort was in prayer to God, 1-7.

1 [Maschil of David: a prayer when he was in the cave.]

I cried to the LORD with my voice. /
With my voice to the LORD I made my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him. /
I uttered before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, / you knew my path. /
In the way in which I walked / they have secretly laid a snare for me.

4 I looked on my right hand and beheld, / but there was no man who would know me. / Refuge failed me. /
No man cared for my soul.

5 I cried to you, O LORD. /
I said, "You are my refuge / and my portion in the land of the living."

6 Attend to my cry, /
for I am brought very low. / Deliver me from my persecutors, / for they are stronger than I am.

7 Bring my soul out of prison /
so that I may praise your name. /
The righteous shall encompass me, / for you will deal bountifully with me.

1 [A Psalm of David.]

Hear my prayer, O LORD. Give ear to my supplications. /
Answer me in your faithfulness and in your righteousness.

2 And do not enter into judgment with your servant, /
for in your sight no living man is righteous.

3 For the enemy has persecuted my soul. /
He has smitten my life down to the ground. /
He has made me to dwell in darkness / like those who have been long dead.

4 Therefore, my spirit is overwhelmed within me. /
My heart within me is desolate.

5 I remember the days of old. /
I meditate on all your works. /
I muse on the work of your hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands to you. /
My soul thirsts after you like a thirsty land. /
[Selah.]

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD. My spirit fails. /
Do not hide your face from me, /
lest I be like those who go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear your loving-kindness in the morning, / for I trust in you. / Cause me to know the way in which I should walk, /

for I lift up my soul to you.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies. /
I flee to you to hide me.

10 Teach me to do your will, / for you are my God. /
Your Spirit is good. /
Lead me into the land of uprightness.

11 Revive me, O LORD, for your name’s sake. /
For your righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And in your mercy cut off my enemies / and destroy all those who afflict my soul, / for I am your servant.

1 [A Psalm of David.]

Blessed be the LORD my strength / who teaches my hands to war /
and my fingers to fight;

2 My goodness, my fortress, / my high tower, and my deliverer; / my shield, and he in whom I trust, / who subdues my people under me.

3 LORD, what is man that you take knowledge of him, /
or the son of man that you make account of him?

4 Man is like vanity. /
His days are like a shadow that passes away.

5 Bow your heavens, O LORD, and come down. /
Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth lightning and scatter them. /
Shoot your arrows and destroy them.

7 Send your hand from above. / Rid me and deliver me from the great waters, /
from the hand of strange children,

8 Whose mouth speaks vanity /

and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will sing a new song to you, O God. /
Upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings /
I will sing praises to you.

10 It is he who gives salvation to kings, / who delivers David his servant / from the hurtful sword.

11 Rid me and deliver me /
from the hand of strange children, /
whose mouth speaks vanity /
and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood,

12 So that our sons may be like plants / grown up in their youth; /
so that our daughters may be like corner stones, / polished after the similitude of a palace;

13 So that our granaries may be full, / affording all manner of store; / so that our sheep may bring forth thousands / and ten thousands in our streets;

14 So that our oxen may be strong to labor; /
so that there is no breaking in nor going out; /
and so that there is no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy are the people who are in such a case. /
Indeed, happy are the people whose God is the LORD.

1 [David’s Psalm of Praise.]

I will extol you, my God, O king, / and I will bless your name forever and ever.

2 Every day I will bless you / and will praise your name forever and ever.

3 The LORD is great and greatly to be praised, / and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation shall praise your works to another / and declare your mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honor of your majesty / and of your wondrous works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of your awesome acts. /
And I will declare your greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of your great goodness / and sing of your righteousness.

8 The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, / slow to anger and of great mercy.

9 The LORD is good to all, / and his tender mercies are over all his works.

10 All your works shall praise you, O LORD, / and your saints shall bless you.

11 They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom /
and talk of your power,

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts / and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, / and your dominion endures throughout all generations.

14 The LORD upholds all who fall / and raises up all those who are bowed down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon you, / and you give them their food in due season.

16 You open your hand / and satisfy the desire of every living creature.

17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways / and holy in all his works.

18 The LORD is near to all those who call upon him, / to all who call upon him in truth.

19 He will fulfill the desire of those who fear him. /
He also will hear their cry and save them.

20 The LORD preserves all those who love him, /
but all the wicked he will destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD. /
And let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

The psalmist vows perpetual praises to God, 1, 2. He exhorts not to trust in man, 3, 4. God, for his power, justice, mercy, and kingdom, is only worthy to be trusted, 5-10.

1 Praise the LORD. /
Praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 While I live I will praise the LORD. /
I will sing praises to my God while I have any being.

3 Do not put your trust in princes /
nor in a son of man, in whom there is no help.

4 His breath goes forth and he returns to the earth. /
In that very day his thoughts perish.

5 Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, / whose hope is in the LORD his God,

6 Who made heaven, earth, / the sea, and all that is in them, /
who keeps truth forever,

7 Who executes judgment for the oppressed, / who gives food to the hungry. /
The LORD sets the prisoners free.

8 The LORD opens the eyes of the blind. /
The LORD raises those who are bowed down. /
The LORD loves the righteous.

9 The LORD preserves the strangers. /
He relieves the fatherless and widow, /
but the way of the wicked he turns upside down.

10 The LORD will reign forever, / even your God, O Zion, to all generations. /
Praise the LORD.

Chapter 1

The use of the proverbs, 1-6. An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word, 7-9; to avoid the enticings of sinners, 10-19. Wisdom bemoans her contempt, 20-23. She threatens her despisers, 24-33.

1 [The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.]

2 To know wisdom and instruction, / to perceive the words of understanding,

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, / justice, judgment, and equity,

4 To give subtlety to the simple, / to the young man knowledge and discretion,

5 A wise man will hear and will increase learning, / and a man of understanding shall attain to wise counsels,

6 To understand a proverb and the interpretation, /
the words of the wise and their dark sayings.

7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, /
but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, hear the instruction of your father /
and do not forsake the law of your mother,

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace to your head / and chains around your neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice you, / do not consent.

11 If they say, "Come with us. Let us lie in wait for blood. /
Let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause.

12 Let us swallow them up alive like the grave, / and whole, like those who go down into the pit.

13 We shall find all precious substance. /
We shall fill our houses with plunder.

14 Cast in your lot among us. /
Let us all have one purse"—

15 My son, do not walk in the way with them. /
Refrain your foot from their path,

16 For their feet run to evil / and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread / in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lie in wait for their own blood. /
They lurk secretly for their own lives.

19 Thus are the ways of everyone who is greedy of gain, / who takes away the life of its owners.

20 Wisdom cries outside. /
She utters her voice in the streets.

21 She cries in the chief place of concourse, / in the openings of the gates. /
In the city she utters her words, saying,

22 "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity, / and the scorners delight in their scorning, / and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn at my reproof. /
Behold, I will pour out my spirit to you. /
I will make my words known to you.

24 Because I have called and you refused, /
I have stretched out my hand and no man regarded.

25 But you have set at nothing all my counsel / and rejected my reproof.

26 I also will laugh at your calamity. /
I will mock when your fear comes,

27 When your fear comes like desolation, / and your destruction comes like a whirlwind, / when distress and anguish come upon you.

28 They shall call upon me, but I will not answer. /
They shall seek me early, but they shall not find me.

29 For they hated knowledge / and did not choose the fear of the LORD.

30 They rejected my counsel. /
They despised all my reproof.

31 Therefore, they shall eat the fruit of their own way / and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, / and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But whoever listens to me shall dwell in safety / and shall be quiet from fear of evil."

Chapter 2

Wisdom promises godliness to her children, 1-9; and safety from evil company, 10-19; and direction in good ways, 20-22.

1 My son, if you will receive my words / and hide my commandments with you,

2 So that you incline your ear to wisdom /
and apply your heart to understanding,

3 If you even cry after knowledge / and lift up your voice for understanding,

4 If you seek her like silver / and search for her like hidden treasures,

5 Then you shall understand the fear of the LORD / and find the knowledge of God,

6 For the LORD gives wisdom. /
Out of his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.

7 He lays up sound wisdom for the righteous. /
He is a buckler to those who walk uprightly.

8 He keeps the paths of judgment / and preserves the way of his saints.

9 Then you shall understand righteousness, judgment, / equity, and every good path.

10 When wisdom enters into your heart / and knowledge is pleasant to your soul,

11 Discretion shall preserve you, / understanding shall keep you,

12 To deliver you from the way of the evil men, / from the men who speak perverse things,

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness / to walk in the ways of darkness,

14 Who rejoice to do evil /
and delight in the perverseness of the wicked,

15 Whose ways are crooked, / and who are perverse in their paths;

16 To deliver you from the strange woman, /
even from the stranger who flatters with her words,

17 Who forsakes the guide of her youth / and forgets the covenant of her God.

18 For her house inclines to death / and her paths to the dead.

19 None who go to her return again, /
neither do they take hold of the paths of life.

20 So you shall walk in the way of good men / and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, / and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, / and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

Chapter 3

Various exhortations, 1-12. The gain of wisdom, 13-26. Exhortation to doing good, etc. 27-32. The different state of the wicked and upright, 33-35.

1 My son, do not forget my law, /
but let your heart keep my commandments,

2 For length of days, long life, /
and peace they shall add to you.

3 Do not let mercy and truth forsake you. / Bind them around your neck. /
Write them upon the tablet of your heart.

4 Then you shall find favor and good understanding / in the sight of God and man.

5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, / and do not lean on your own understanding.

6 In all your ways acknowledge him, / and he will direct your paths.

7 Do not be wise in your own eyes. /

Fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

8 It shall be health to your body / and marrow to your bones.

9 Honor the LORD with your substance / and with the first-fruits of all your increase,

10 And your barns shall be filled with plenty, / and your presses shall burst out with new wine.

11 My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, /
neither be weary of his correction,

12 For whom the LORD loves he corrects, / even as a father [corrects] the son in whom he delights.

13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom / and the man who gets understanding,

14 For its merchandise is better than the merchandise of silver / and its gain than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than rubies, / and all the things you can desire are not to be compared to her.

16 Length of days is in her right hand, / and in her left hand are riches and honor.

17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, / and all her paths are peace.

18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold upon her. /
And happy is everyone who retains her.

19 The LORD by wisdom has founded the earth. /
By understanding he has established the heavens.

20 By his knowledge the depths are broken up, / and the clouds drop down the dew.

21 My son, do not let them depart from your eyes. /
Keep sound wisdom and discretion,

22 And they shall be life to your soul /
and grace to your neck.

23 Then you shall walk in your way safely, / and your foot shall not stumble.

24 When you lie down, you shall not be afraid. /
You shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet.

25 Do not be afraid of sudden fear / or of the desolation of the wicked when it comes,

26 For the LORD will be your confidence / and will keep your foot from being taken.

27 Do not withhold good from them to whom it is due, / when it is in the power of your hand to do it.

28 Do not say to your neighbor, "Go, and come back, / and tomorrow I will give," when you have it with you.

29 Do not devise evil against your neighbor, / seeing he dwells securely by you.

30 Do not strive with a man without cause, /
if he has done you no harm.

31 Do not envy the oppressor, / and choose none of his ways,

32 For the perverse is an abomination to the LORD, /
but his secret is with the righteous.

33 The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked, / but he blesses the habitation of the just.

34 Surely he scorns the scorners, /
but he gives grace to the lowly.

35 The wise shall inherit glory, / but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

Chapter 4

Solomon persuades to wisdom, 1-13, and to shun wickedness, 14-19. He exhorts to sanctification, 20-27.

1 Hear, children, the instruction of a father, / and attend to know understanding,

2 For I give you good doctrine. /
Do not forsake my law.

3 For I was my father’s son, / tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 He also taught me and said to me, /

"Let your heart retain my words. /
Keep my commandments, and live.

5 Get wisdom. Get understanding. /
Do not forget it. Do not decline from the words of my mouth.

6 Do not forsake her, and she shall preserve you. /
Love her, and she shall keep you.

7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore, get wisdom. /
And with all your getting get understanding.

8 Exalt her, and she shall promote you. /
She shall bring you to honor when you embrace her.

9 She shall give to your head an ornament of grace. /
A crown of glory she shall deliver to you."

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings, / and the years of your life shall be many.

11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom. /
I have led you in right paths.

12 When you go, your steps shall not be hindered, / and when you run, you shall not stumble.

13 Take firm hold of instruction. Do not let her go. /
Keep her, for she is your life.

14 Do not enter into the path of the wicked, / and do not go in the way of evil men.

15 Avoid it, do not pass by it, / turn from it, and pass on.

16 For they do not sleep, unless they have done mischief, / and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness / and drink the wine of violence.

18 But the path of the just is like the shining light / that shines more and more to the perfect day.

19 The way of the wicked is like darkness. /
They do not know at what they stumble.

20 My son, attend to my words. /
Incline your ear to my sayings.

21 Do not let them depart from your eyes. /
Keep them in the midst of your heart.

22 For they are life to those who find them / and health to all their flesh.

23 Keep your heart with all diligence, / for out of it flows the source of life.

24 Put away from you a crooked mouth, / and perverse lips put far from you.

25 Let your eyes look right on, / and let your eyelids look straight before you.

26 Ponder the path of your feet, / and let all your ways be established.

27 Do not turn to the right hand or to the left. / Turn your foot away from evil.

Chapter 5

Solomon exhorts to wisdom, 1, 2. He shows the mischief of lewdness and riot, 3-14. He exhorts to contentedness, liberality, and chastity, 15-21. The wicked are overtaken with their own sins, 22, 23.

1 My son, attend to my wisdom / and bow your ear to my understanding,

2 So that you may regard discretion, /
and that your lips may keep knowledge.

3 For the lips of a strange woman drop like a honey-comb, / and her mouth is smoother than oil,

4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, /
sharp as a two-edged sword.

5 Her feet go down to death. /
Her steps take hold upon hell.

6 She does not ponder the path of life. /
Her ways are movable, and she does not know it.

7 Hear me now therefore, O children, / and do not depart from the words of my mouth.

8 Keep your way far from her, /
and do not come near the door of her house,

9 Lest you give your honor to others / and your years to the cruel,

10 Lest strangers be filled with your wealth / and your labors be in the house of a stranger,

11 And you mourn at the last /
when your flesh and your body are consumed

12 And say, "How I have hated instruction, / and my heart despised reproof,

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers / nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!

14 I was almost in all evil /
in the midst of the congregation and assembly."

15 Drink waters out of your own cistern, / and running waters out of your own well.

16 Let your fountains be dispersed abroad, / and rivers of waters in the streets.

17 Let them be only your own, / and not for strangers with you.

18 Let your fountain be blessed, / and rejoice with the wife of your youth.

19 Let her be like a loving doe and a pleasant deer. /
Let her breasts satisfy you at all times, / and be ravished always with her love.

20 And why will you, my son, be ravished with a strange woman / and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, / and he ponders all his goings.

22 His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, / and he shall be held with the cords of his sins.

23 He shall die without instruction, / and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

Chapter 6

Against suretyship, 1-5; idleness, 6-11; and mischievousness, 12-15. Seven things hateful to God, 16-19. The blessings of obedience, 20-24. The mischiefs of lewdness, 25-35.

1 My son, if you are surety for your friend, /
if you have stricken your hand with a stranger,

2 You are snared with the words of your mouth, /

you are taken with the words of your mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself / when you have come into the hand of your friend: / go, humble yourself, and make urgent request to your friend.

4 Do not give sleep to your eyes / nor slumber to your eyelids.

5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter / and like a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 Go to the ant, you sluggard. /
Consider her ways and be wise.

7 She, having no guide, /
overseer, or ruler,

8 Provides her provisions in the summer / and gathers her food in the harvest.

9 How long will you sleep, O sluggard? /
When will you arise out of your sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, /
a little folding of the hands to sleep,

11 And your poverty shall come as one who travels, / and your lack as an armed man.

12 A worthless person, a wicked man, / walks with a crooked mouth.

13 He winks with his eyes. /
He speaks with his feet. /
He teaches with his fingers.

14 Perverseness is in his heart. /
He devises mischief continually. /
He sows discord.

15 Therefore, his calamity shall come suddenly. /
He shall be suddenly broken without remedy.

16 These six things the LORD hates, / even seven are abominations to him:

17 A proud look, a lying tongue, / hands that shed innocent blood,

18 A heart that devises wicked imaginations, / feet that are swift in running to mischief,

19 A false witness who speaks lies, / and him who sows discord among brothers.

20 My son, keep your father’s commandment /
and do not forsake the law of your mother.

21 Bind them continually upon your heart / and tie them around your neck.

22 When you go, it shall lead you. /
When you sleep, it shall keep you. /
And when you awake, it shall talk with you.

23 For the commandment is a lamp, the law is light, / and reproofs of instruction are the way of life

24 To keep you from the evil woman, / from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 Do not lust after her beauty in your heart, / neither let her take you with her eyelids.

26 For by means of a lewd woman a man is brought to a piece of bread, / and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom / and his clothes not be burned?

28 Can one go upon hot coals / and his feet not be burned?

29 Such is he who goes in to his neighbor’s wife. /
Whoever touches her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief if he steals / to satisfy his soul when he is hungry.

31 But if he is found, he shall restore seven-fold. /
He shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding. /
He who does it destroys his own soul.

33 He shall get a wound and dishonor, / and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man; / therefore, he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransom, / neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

Chapter 7

Solomon persuades to a sincere and kind familiarity with wisdom, 1-5. In an example of his own experience, he shows, 6-9, the cunning of a harlot, 10-21; and the desperate simplicity of a young incontinent man, 22, 23. He dissuades from such wickedness, 24-27.

1 My son, keep my words / and lay up my commandments with you.

2 Keep my commandments and live, /
and my law as the apple of your eye.

3 Bind them upon your fingers. /
Write them upon the tablet of your heart.

4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," / and call understanding your kinswoman,

5 So that they may keep you from the strange woman, / from the stranger who flatters with her words.

6 For at the window of my house /
I looked through my casement

7 And beheld among the simple ones. /
I discerned among the youths /
a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner. /
And he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, in the evening, / in the black and dark night.

10 And behold, a woman met him / with the attire of a harlot and subtle of heart.

11 (She is loud and stubborn. /
Her feet do not abide in her house.

12 Now she is outside, now in the streets, / and lies in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, kissed him, / and with an impudent face said to him,

14 "I have peace-offerings with me. /
This day I have paid my vows.

15 Therefore, I came forth to meet you, / diligently to seek your face, and I have found you.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, / with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed / with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning. /
Let us solace ourselves with affection.

19 For the husband is not at home. /
He has gone on a long journey.

20 He has taken a bag of money with him / and will come home at the day appointed."

21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield. /
With the flattering of her lips she impelled him.

22 He goes after her quickly, / like an ox goes to the slaughter, / or like a fool to the correction of the stocks,

23 Until a dart strikes through his liver, / as a bird hastens to the snare, / and does not know that it is for his life.

24 Now therefore, listen to me, O children, /
and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Do not let your heart decline to her ways. /
Do not go astray in her paths.

26 For she has cast down many wounded, / and many strong men have been slain by her.

27 Her house is the way to hell, / going down to the chambers of death.

Chapter 8

The fame, 1-5, and evidence of wisdom, 6-9. The excellency, 10, 11, the nature, 12-14, the power, 15-17, the riches, 18-21, and the eternity of wisdom, 22-31. Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it brings, 32-36.

1 Does wisdom not cry, / and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She stands on the top of high places, /
by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She cries at the gates, at the entry of the city, /
at the entrance of the doors,

4 "To you, O men, I call, / and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O you simple, understand wisdom, / and you fools, be of an understanding heart.

6 Hear, for I will speak of excellent things, / and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth, / and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness. /
There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him who understands, / and right to those who find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction instead of silver, / and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies, / and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I, wisdom, dwell with prudence / and find out knowledge of ingenious inventions.

13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil. / Pride, arrogance, the evil way, / and the perverse mouth I hate.

14 Counsel and sound wisdom are mine. /
I am understanding. I have strength.

15 By me kings reign / and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, / and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love those who love me, / and those who seek me early shall find me.

18 Riches and honor are with me, / durable riches and righteousness.

19 My fruit is better than gold, / even fine gold, and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I lead in the way of righteousness, /
in the midst of the paths of judgment,

21 So that I may cause those who love me to inherit substance. /

And I will fill their treasures.

22 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, / before his works of old.

23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, / before the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth, /
when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, / before the hills, I was brought forth,

26 While he had not yet made the earth, the fields, /
nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there. /
When he set a compass upon the face of the depth,

28 When he established the clouds above, / when he strengthened the fountains of the deep,

29 When he gave to the sea his decree / that the waters should not pass his commandment, /
and when he appointed the foundations of the earth,

30 I was by him as one brought up with him, / and I was daily his delight, / rejoicing always before him,

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth. /
And my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore, listen to me, O children, /
for blessed are those who keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction and be wise, / and do not refuse it.

34 Blessed is the man who hears me, / watching daily at my gates, / waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoever finds me finds life / and obtains favor from the LORD.

36 But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul. /
All those who hate me love death."

Chapter 9

The discipline, 1-3, and doctrine of wisdom, 4-12. The custom, 13-15, and error of folly, 16-18.

1 Wisdom has built her house. /
She has hewn out her seven pillars.

2 She has killed her beasts. She has mingled her wine. /
She has also furnished her table.

3 She has sent forth her attendants. /
She cries upon the highest places of the city,

4 "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here." /
As for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,

5 "Come, eat my bread, / and drink the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish and live. /
And go in the way of understanding."

7 He who reproves a scorner gets shame for himself. /
And he who rebukes a wicked man gets himself a blot.

8 Do not reprove a scorner, lest he hate you. /
Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be wiser still. / Teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, / and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

11 For by me your days shall be multiplied, / and the years of your life shall be increased.

12 If you are wise, you shall be wise for yourself, /
but if you scorn, you alone shall bear it.

13 A foolish woman is clamorous. /
She is simple and knows nothing.

14 For she sits at the door of her house, / on a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call to passengers / who go right on their ways,

16 "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here." /
And as for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,

17 "Stolen waters are sweet, / and bread eaten in secret is pleasant."

18 But he does not know that the dead are there, / and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

Chapter 10

From this chapter to the twenty-fifth are various observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices, 1-32.

1 [The proverbs of Solomon.]

A wise son makes a glad father, / but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, /
but righteousness delivers from death.

3 The LORD will not allow the soul of the righteous to famish, / but he casts away the substance of the wicked.

4 He becomes poor who deals with a slack hand, /
but the hand of the diligent makes rich.

5 He who gathers in summer is a wise son, /
but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just, / but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blessed, / but the name of the wicked shall perish.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments, /
but a prating fool shall fall.

9 He who walks uprightly walks surely, / but he who perverts his ways shall be known.

10 He who winks with the eye causes sorrow, /
but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life, /
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirs up strife, /
but love covers all sins.

13 In the lips of him who has understanding, wisdom is found, / but a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge, / but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The rich man’s wealth is his strong city. /
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labor of the righteous tends to life, /
but the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life who keeps instruction, /
but he who refuses reproof errs.

18 He who hides hatred has lying lips, /
and he who utters a slander is a fool.

19 In the multitude of words there is no lack of sin, / but he who restrains his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is like choice silver. /
The heart of the wicked is of little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many, / but fools die for lack of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, it makes rich, / and he adds no sorrow with it.

23 To do mischief is pleasure to a fool, /
but a man of understanding has wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him, /
but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passes, so is the wicked no more, /
but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth and as smoke to the eyes, /
so is the sluggard to those who send him.

27 The fear of the LORD prolongs days, /
but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness, /
but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright, /
but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed, / but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom, /
but the perverse tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, / but the mouth of the wicked speaks perverseness.

Chapter 11

Various observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices, 1-31.

1 A false balance is an abomination to the LORD, /
but a just weight is his delight.

2 When pride comes, shame comes, / but with the lowly is wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them, /
but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, /
but righteousness delivers from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way, / but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them, /
but transgressors shall be taken in their own desires.

7 When a wicked man dies, his expectation shall perish, / and the hope of unjust men perishes.

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, / and the wicked comes in his stead.

9 A hypocrite destroys his neighbor with his mouth, /
but through knowledge the just shall be delivered.

10 When the righteous prosper, the city rejoices, / and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted, / but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He who is void of wisdom despises his neighbor, /
but a man of understanding holds his peace.

13 A gossiper reveals secrets, /
but he who is of a faithful spirit conceals the matter.

14 Where no counsel is, the people fall, /
but in the multitude of counselors there is safety.

15 He who is surety for a stranger shall suffer for it, / and he who hates suretyship is secure.

16 A gracious woman retains honor, / and strong men retain riches.

17 The merciful man does good to his own soul, /
but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.

18 The wicked works a deceitful work, /
but to him who sows righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tends to life, /
so he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death.

20 Those who are of a perverse heart are abominations to the LORD, / but those who are upright in their way are his delight.

21 Though hand joins in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished, / but the offspring of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine’s snout, /
so is a fair woman who is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good, / but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is one who scatters, / and yet increases, / and there is one who withholds more than is proper, / but it tends to poverty.

25 The liberal soul shall be made fat, / and he who waters shall be watered also himself.

26 He who withholds grain, the people shall curse him, /
but blessing shall be upon the head of him who sells it.

27 He who diligently seeks good procures favor, /
but he who seeks mischief, it shall come to him.

28 He who trusts in his riches shall fall, /
but the righteous shall flourish like a branch.

29 He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind, / and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, / and he who wins souls is wise.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed upon the earth, / much more the wicked and the sinner.

His neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.

11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise. /
And when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considers the house of the wicked, /
but God overthrows the wicked for their wickedness.

13 Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor, /
he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifies anger, / and a reward in the bosom, strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the just to do judgment, /
but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man who wanders out of the way of understanding / shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man. /
He who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, / and the transgressor for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness / than with a contentious and angry woman.

20 There is a treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise, / but a foolish man spends it up.

21 He who follows after righteousness and mercy / finds life, righteousness, and honor.

22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty / and casts down the strength of its confidence.

23 Whoever keeps his mouth and his tongue / keeps his soul from troubles.

24 The proud and haughty man, "Scoffer," is his name. /
He works in the arrogance of pride.

25 The desire of the slothful kills him, / for his hands refuse to labor.

26 He covets greedily all the day long, / but the righteous gives and does not spare.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination. /
How much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind?

28 A false witness shall perish, /
but the man who listens shall speak forever.

29 A wicked man hardens his face, /
but as for the upright, he directs his way.

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding / nor counsel against the LORD.

31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle, / but safety is from the LORD.

Chapter 22

Various observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices, 1-29.

1 A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, / and loving favor rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and poor meet together. /
The LORD is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man foresees the evil and hides himself, /
but the simple pass on and are punished.

4 By humility and the fear of the LORD / are riches, honor, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse. /
He who keeps his soul shall be far from them.

6 Train up a child in the way he should go, / and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

7 The rich rules over the poor, / and the borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He who sows iniquity shall reap vanity, / and the rod of his anger shall fail.

9 He who has a bountiful eye shall be blessed, / for he gives some of his bread to the poor.

10 Cast out the scorner and contention shall end, / even strife and reproach shall cease.

11 He who loves pureness of heart and has grace on his lips, / the king shall be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, / and he overthrows the words of the transgressor.

13 The slothful man says, "There is a lion outside. /
I shall be slain in the streets."

14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit. /
He who is abhorred by the LORD shall fall therein.

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child, /
but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches, / and he who gives to the rich, shall surely come to poverty.

17 Bow down your ear and hear the words of the wise, / and apply your heart to my knowledge,

18 For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you, /
if they are ready on your lips.

19 So that your trust may be in the LORD, /
I have made known to you this day, even to you.

20 Have I not written to you excellent things /
in counsels and knowledge

21 So that I might make you know the certainty of the words of truth, / and so that you might answer the words of truth to those who send to you?

22 Do not rob the poor, because he is poor, / neither oppress the afflicted in the gate,

23 For the LORD will plead their cause / and plunder the soul of those who plundered them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man, / and with a furious man you shall not go,

25 Lest you learn his ways / and get a snare to your soul.

26 Do not be one of those who strike hands / or of those who are sureties for debts.

27 If you have nothing to pay, /
why should he take away your bed from under you?

28 Do not remove the ancient landmark / which your fathers have set.

29 Do you see a man diligent in his business? /
He shall stand before kings. /
He shall not stand before obscure men.

Chapter 23

Various observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices, 1-35.

1 When you sit to eat with a ruler, / consider diligently what is before you,

2 And put a knife to your throat /
if you are a man given to appetite.

3 Do not be desirous of his dainties, / for they are deceitful food.

4 Do not labor to be rich. /
Cease from your own wisdom.

5 Will you set your eyes upon that which is not? /
For riches certainly make for themselves wings. /
They fly away like an eagle toward heaven.

6 Do not eat the bread of him who has an evil eye, / neither desire his dainties,

7 For as he thinks in his heart, so he is. /
"Eat and drink," he says to you, but his heart is not with you.

8 You shall vomit up the morsel which you have eaten / and lose your sweet words.

9 Do not speak in the ears of a fool, /

for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

10 Do not remove the old landmark, / and do not enter into the fields of the fatherless,

11 For their redeemer is mighty. /
He will plead their cause with you.

12 Apply your heart to instruction / and your ears to the words of knowledge.

13 Do not withhold correction from the child, / for if you beat him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 You shall beat him with the rod / and shall deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, if your heart is wise, /
my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

16 Indeed, my heart shall rejoice /
when your lips speak right things.

17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, /
but be in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18 For surely there is an end, /
and your expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear, my son, and be wise, / and guide your heart in the way.

20 Do not be among drunkards / or among riotous eaters of flesh,

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty, / and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 Listen to your father who begot you, / and do not despise your mother when she is old.

23 Buy the truth and do not sell it, / even wisdom, instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice. /
And he who begets a wise child shall rejoice in him.

25 Your father and your mother shall be glad, / and she who bore you shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me your heart, / and let your eyes observe my ways.

27 For a lewd woman is a deep ditch, / and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lies in wait as for prey / and increases the transgressors among men.

29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has contentions? /
Who has babbling? Who has wounds without cause? /
Who has redness of eyes?

30 Those who stay long at the wine, /
those who go to seek mixed wine.

31 Do not look upon the wine when it is red, / when it gives its color in the cup, when it moves itself aright.

32 At the last it bites like a serpent / and stings like an adder.

33 Your eyes shall behold strange women, / and your heart shall utter perverse things.

34 You shall be like someone who lies down in the midst of the sea, / or like someone who lies upon the top of a mast.

35 "They have stricken me," you will say, "and I was not sick. /
They have beaten me, and I did not feel it. /
When shall I awake? I will seek it yet again."

Chapter 24

Various observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices, 1-34.

1 Do not be envious against evil men, / neither desire to be with them,

2 For their heart devises destruction / and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom a house is built, / and by understanding it is established,

4 And by knowledge the chambers shall be filled / with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is strong, / and a man of knowledge increases strength.

6 For by wise counsel you shall make your war, / and in multitude of counselors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool. /

He does not open his mouth in the gate.

8 He who devises to do evil / shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin, /
and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If you faint in the day of adversity, / your strength is small.

11 Hold back and deliver those who are drawn to death / and those who are ready to be slain.

12 If you say, "Behold, we did not know it," / does he who ponders the heart not consider it? /
And he who keeps your soul, does he not know it? /
And will he not render to every man according to his works?

13 My son, eat honey because it is good, / and the honey-comb which is sweet to your taste.

14 Thus shall the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul. /
When you have found it, there shall be a reward, /
and your expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, / against the dwelling of the righteous. /
Do not destroy his resting-place.

16 For a just man falls seven times and rises again, /
but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, / and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles,

18 Lest the LORD see it and it displease him, / and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Do not fret yourself because of evil men, / neither be envious of the wicked,

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man. /
The candle of the wicked shall be extinguished.

21 My son, fear the LORD and the king, / and do not meddle with those who are given to change,

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly. /
And who knows the ruin of the both of them?

23 These things also belong to the wise. /

It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous," /
the people shall curse him, nations shall abhor him.

25 But to those who rebuke him shall be delight, / and a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips / who gives a right answer.

27 Prepare your work outside / and make it fit for yourself in the field, / and afterward, build your house.

28 Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, / and do not deceive with your lips.

29 Do not say, "I will do so to him as he has done to me. /
I will render to the man according to his work."

30 I went by the field of the slothful / and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding,

31 And behold, it was all grown over with thorns, / nettles had covered its face, / and its stone wall was broken down.

32 Then I saw and considered it well. /
I looked upon it and received instruction.

33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, /
a little folding of the hands to sleep,

34 And your poverty shall come like one who travels, / and your need like an armed man.

Chapter 25

Observations about kings, 1-7, and about avoiding causes of quarrels, and various causes thereof, 8-28.

1 [These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.]

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, /
but the honor of kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height and the earth for depth, / and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, / and there shall come forth a vessel for the refiner.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, / and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 Do not put forth yourself in the presence of the king, / and do not stand in the place of great men,

7 For it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here," / than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince / whom your eyes have seen.

8 Do not go forth hastily to strive, / lest you not know what to do in the end thereof /
when your neighbor has put you to shame.

9 Debate your cause with your neighbor himself, / and do not reveal a secret to another,

10 Lest he who hears it put you to shame, / and your infamy not turn away.

11 A word fitly spoken / is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold, / so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, /
so is a faithful messenger to those who send him, / for he refreshes the soul of his masters.

14 Whoever boasts himself of a false gift / is like clouds and wind without rain.

15 By long forbearing a prince is persuaded, / and a soft tongue breaks the bone.

16 Have you found honey? Eat so much as is sufficient for you, / lest you be filled with it and vomit it.

17 Withdraw your foot from your neighbor’s house, /
lest he be weary of you and thus hate you.

18 A man who bears false witness against his neighbor / is a maul, a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble / is like a broken tooth and a foot out of joint.

20 As he who takes away a garment in cold weather, / and as vinegar upon soda, /
so is he who sings songs to a heavy heart.

21 If your enemy hungers, give him bread to eat, /
and if he thirsts, give him water to drink,

22 For you shall heap coals of fire upon his head, / and the LORD will reward you.

23 The north wind drives away rain, / and so does an angry countenance to a backbiting tongue.

24 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top / than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, /
so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked / is as a turbid fountain and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much honey. /
And for men to search their own glory is not glory.

28 He who has no rule over his own spirit / is like a city that is broken down and without walls.

Chapter 26

Observations about fools, 1-12; about sluggards, 13-16; and about contentious busy-bodies, 17-28.

1 As snow in summer and as rain in harvest, /
so honor is not appropriate for a fool.

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, / so the causeless curse shall not come.

3 A whip is for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, / and a rod for the fool’s back.

4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, /
lest you also be like him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, / lest he be wise in his own conceit.

6 He who sends a message by the hand of a fool / cuts off the feet and drinks damage.

7 The legs of the lame are not equal, / and so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 As he who binds a stone in a sling, /
so is he who gives honor to a fool.

9 As a thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard, /
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God who formed all things / both rewards the fool and rewards transgressors.

11 As a dog returns to his vomit, /
so a fool returns to his folly.

12 Do you see a man wise in his own conceit? /
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

13 The slothful man says, "There is a lion in the way. /
A lion is in the streets."

14 As the door turns upon its hinges, / so does the slothful upon his bed.

15 The slothful hides his hand in his bosom. /
It grieves him to bring it back to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit / than seven men who can render a reason.

17 He who passes by and meddles with strife not belonging to him / is like one who takes a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man who casts fire-brands, /
arrows, and death,

19 So is the man who deceives his neighbor, / and says, "Am I not joking?"

20 Where there is no wood, the fire goes out. /
And where there is no gossiper, the strife ceases.

21 As coals are to burning coals and wood to fire, /
so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a gossiper are like dainty morsels, / and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart / are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He who hates dissembles with his lips / and lays up deceit within him.

25 When he speaks fair, do not believe him, / for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 His hatred is covered by deceit. /
His wickedness shall be shown before the whole congregation.

27 Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it, / and he who rolls a stone, it will return upon him.

28 A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it, / and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Chapter 27

Observations of self love, 1-4; of true love, 5-10; of care to avoid offenses, 11-22; and of the household care, 23-27.

1 Do not boast about tomorrow, / for you do not know what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; /
a stranger, and not your own lips.

3 A stone is heavy and the sand weighty, / but a fool’s wrath is heavier than both.

4 Wrath is cruel and anger is outrageous, / but who is able to stand before envy?

5 Open rebuke is better / than secret love.

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend, /
but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

7 The full soul loathes a honey-comb, /
but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wanders from her nest, /
so is a man who wanders from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart, / and so does the sweetness of a man’s friend by hearty counsel.

10 Your own friend and your father’s friend, do not forsake, / neither go into your brother’s house in the day of your calamity, / for better is a neighbor who is near than a brother far off.

11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, / so that I may answer him who reproaches me.

12 A prudent man foresees the evil and hides himself, /
but the simple pass on and are punished.

13 Take his garment who is surety for a stranger, / and hold him in pledge for a strange woman.

14 He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, / rising early in the morning, /
it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 A continual dropping on a very rainy day / and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whoever hides her has hidden the wind / and has grasped ointment with his right hand.

17 As iron sharpens iron, / so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.

18 He who keeps the fig-tree shall eat its fruit, / and he who guards his master shall be honored.

19 As in water face reflects face, /
so the heart of man to man.

20 Hell and destruction are never full, / and the eyes of man are never satisfied.

21 As the refining-pot for silver and the furnace for gold, / so is a man to his praise.

22 Though you should bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, / yet his foolishness will not depart from him.

23 Be diligent to know the state of your flocks, /
and look well to your herds,

24 For riches are not forever— / and does the crown endure to every generation?

25 When the grass is removed, and the tender grass shows itself, / and herbs of the mountains are gathered,

26 The lambs will be for your clothing, / and the goats the price of a field.

27 And you shall have enough goats' milk for your food, / for the food of your household, / and for sustenance for your young women.

Chapter 28

General observations of impiety and religious integrity, 1-28.

1 The wicked flee when no man pursues, /
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are its princes, / but by a man of understanding and knowledge /
the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor man who oppresses the poor / is like a sweeping rain which leaves no food.

4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, /
but those who keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men do not understand judgment, /
but those who seek the LORD understand all things.

6 Better is the poor who walks in his uprightness / than the rich who is perverse in his ways.

7 He who keeps the law is a wise son, /
but he who is a companion of riotous men shames his father.

8 He who by usury and unjust gain increases his substance, / he shall gather it for him who will pity the poor.

9 He who turns away his ear from hearing the law, /
even his prayer shall be an abomination.

10 Whoever causes the righteous to go astray in an evil way / shall fall himself into his own pit, /
but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit, /
but the poor man who has understanding searches him out.

12 When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory, /
but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

13 He who covers his sins shall not prosper, /
but he who confesses and forsakes them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man who fears always, / but he who hardens his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a roaring lion and a hungry bear, /
so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince who lacks understanding is also a great oppressor, / but he who hates covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man who does violence to the blood of any person / shall flee to the pit. Let no man stay him.

18 He who walks uprightly shall be saved, /
but he who is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread, / but he who follows after vain persons shall be filled with poverty.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings, / but he who makes haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good, / because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

22 He who hastens to be rich has an evil eye /
and does not consider that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He who rebukes a man afterward shall find more favor / than he who flatters with the tongue.

24 He who robs his father or his mother, / and says, "It is no transgression," /
the same is the companion of a destroyer.

25 He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife, /
but he who puts his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26 He who trusts in his own heart is a fool, /
but whoever walks wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He who gives to the poor shall lack nothing, / but he who hides his eyes shall have many curses.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves, / but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Chapter 29

Observations of public government, 1-14, and of private, 15-21. Of anger, pride, thievery, cowardice, and corruption, 22-27.

1 He who is often reproved and hardens his neck / shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice, / but when the wicked bears rule, the people mourn.

3 He who loves wisdom makes his father glad, / but he who keeps company with harlots spends his substance.

4 The king by judgment establishes the land, /
but he who receives gifts overthrows it.

5 A man who flatters his neighbor / spreads a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare, /
but the righteous sings and rejoices.

7 The righteous considers the cause of the poor, /
but the wicked does not regard to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare, /
but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contends with a foolish man, / whether he rages or laughs, there is no rest.

10 The blood-thirsty hate the upright, /
but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool utters all his mind, /
but a wise man keeps it in until afterward.

12 If a ruler listens to lies, / all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the oppressor meet together; /
the LORD enlightens both their eyes.

14 The king who faithfully judges the poor, / his throne shall be established forever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom, /
but a child left to himself brings his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increases, / but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 Correct your son and he shall give you rest. /
He shall even give delight to your soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people perish, /
but he who keeps the law is happy.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words, / for though he understands, he will not answer.

20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? /
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21 He who delicately brings up his servant from a child / shall have him at length become his son.

22 An angry man stirs up strife, / and a furious man abounds in transgression.

23 A man’s pride shall bring him low, / but honor shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoever is partner with a thief hates his own soul. /
He hears cursing and does not disclose it.

25 The fear of man brings a snare, /
but he who puts his trust in the LORD shall be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler’s favor, / but every man’s judgment comes from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just, / and he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

Chapter 30

Agur’s confession of his faith, 1-6. The two points of his prayer, 7-9. The meanest are not to be wronged, 10. Four wicked generations, 11-14. Four things insatiable, 15, 16. Parents are not to be despised, 17. Four things hard to be known, 18-20. Four things intolerable. 21-23. Four things exceedingly wise, 24-28. Four things stately, 29-31. Wrath is to be prevented, 32, 33.

1 [The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy. The man spoke to Ithiel, even to Ithiel and Ucal.]

2 Surely I am more brutish than any man / and do not have the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom /
nor have the knowledge of the Holy One.

4 Who has ascended into heaven and descended? /
Who has gathered the wind in his fists? /
Who has bound the waters in a garment? /
Who has established all the ends of the earth? /
What is his name, and what is his son’s name, if you can tell?

5 Every word of God is pure. /
He is a shield to those who put their trust in him.

6 Do not add to his words, / lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.

7 Two things I have required of you, / do not deny them to me before I die:

8 Keep vanity and lies far from me, / and give me neither poverty nor riches. / Feed me with the food of my portion,

9 Lest I be full and deny you and say, "Who is the LORD?" / or lest I be poor and steal / and take the name of my God in vain.

10 Do not accuse a servant to his master, / lest he curse you and you be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curses their father / and does not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, / but are not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! /
And their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation whose teeth are like swords / and their jaw-teeth are like knives / to devour the poor from off the earth / and the needy from among men.

15 The horse-leech has two daughters, crying, "Give, give." /
There are three things that are never satisfied, /
even four things that do not say, "It is enough":

16 The grave, the barren womb, / the earth that is not filled with water, / and the fire that does not say, "It is enough."

17 The eye that mocks at its father / and despises to obey its mother, / the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, / and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me, / even four which I do not know:

19 The way of an eagle in the air, / the way of a serpent upon a rock, / the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, / and the way of a man with a young woman.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman: / she eats and wipes her mouth / and says, "I have done no wickedness."

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, /
even for four which it cannot bear:

22 A servant when he reigns, /
a fool when he is filled with food,

23 An odious woman when she is married, / and a woman-servant who is heir to her mistress.

24 There are four things which are little upon the earth, /
but they are very wise:

25 The ants are a people not strong, / yet they prepare their food in the summer,

26 The conies are but a feeble people, /
yet they make their houses in the rocks,

27 The locusts have no king, /
yet all of them go forth by bands,

28 The spider takes hold with her hands / and is in kings' palaces.

29 There are three things which go well, / even four are stately in going:

30 A lion, which is strongest among beasts / and does not turn away for any,

31 A greyhound, a male goat, / and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself / or if you have thought evil, / lay your hand upon your mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk brings forth butter, / and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood, / and the forcing of wrath brings forth strife.

Chapter 31

Lemuel’s lesson of chastity and temperance, 1-5. The afflicted are to be comforted and defended, 6-9. The praise and properties of a virtuous woman, 10-31.

1 [The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.]

2 What, my son? And what, the son of my womb? /
And what, the son of my vows?

3 Do not give your strength to women /

nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine / nor for princes strong drink,

5 Lest they drink, forget the law, / and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

6 Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish / and wine to those who are of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink and forget his poverty / and remember his misery no more.

8 Open your mouth for the mute / in the cause of all those who are appointed to destruction.

9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, / and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

[ALEPH - א]

10 Who can find a virtuous woman? /
For her price is far above rubies.

[BET - ב]

11 The heart of her husband safely trusts in her, / and he shall have no lack of gain.

[GIMEL - ג]

12 She will do him good and not evil /
all the days of her life.

[DALET - ד]

13 She seeks wool and flax / and works willingly with her hands.

[HE - ה]

14 She is like the merchant’s ships. /
She brings her food from afar.

[VAV - ו]

15 She also rises while it is still night / and gives food to her household / and a portion to her attendants.

[ZAYIN - ז]

16 She considers a field and buys it. /
With the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

[HET - ח]

17 She girds her loins with strength / and strengthens her arms.

[TET - ט]

18 She perceives that her merchandise is good. /
Her candle does not go out by night.

[YOD - י]

19 She lays her hands to the distaff, / and her hands hold the spindle.

[KAF - כ]

20 She stretches out her hand to the poor. /
She even reaches forth her hands to the needy.

[LAMED - ל]

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household, / for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

[MEM - מ]

22 She makes herself coverings of tapestry. /
Her clothing is silk and purple.

[NUN - נ]

23 Her husband is known in the gates / when he sits among the elders of the land.

[SAMEKH - ס]

24 She makes fine linen and sells it, / and delivers girdles to the merchant.

[AYIN - ע]

25 Strength and honor are her clothing, / and she shall rejoice in time to come.

[PE - פ]

26 She opens her mouth with wisdom, / and on her tongue is the law of kindness.

[TSADI - צ]

27 She looks well to the ways of her household / and does not eat the bread of idleness.

[QOF - ק]

28 Her children rise up and call her blessed, / her husband also, and he praises her:

[RESH - ר]

29 "Many daughters have done virtuously, / but you excel them all."

[SHIN - ש]

30 Favor is deceitful and beauty is vain, / but a woman who fears the LORD shall be praised.

[TAV - ת]

31 Give her the fruit of her hands, / and let her own works praise her in the gates.

The Words of Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes | Ἐκκλησιαστής | תלהק

Chapter 1

The preacher shows that all human courses are vain, 1-3; because the creatures are restless in their courses, 4-8, they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten, 9-11; and because he has found it so in the studies of wisdom, 12-18.

1 [The words of the preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem.]

2 "Vanity of vanities," says the preacher. /
"Vanity of vanities. All is vanity."

3 What profit does a man have of all his labor, / which he takes under the sun?

4 One generation passes away and another generation comes, / but the earth abides forever.

5 The sun also rises, / and the sun goes down. /
It hastens to its place where it arose.

6 The wind goes toward the south / and turns around to the north. /
It whirls around continually. /
And the wind returns again according to its circuits.

7 All the rivers run into the sea, / yet the sea is not full. /
To the place from where the rivers come, / there they return again.

8 All things are full of labor. / Man cannot utter it. /
The eye is not satisfied with seeing / nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 The thing that has been, is that which shall be. /
And that which is done, is that which shall be done. /
And there is nothing new under the sun.

10 Is there anything of which it may be said, /
"See, this is new"? /
It has already existed long ago, /
which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things, / neither shall there be any remembrance / of things that are to come / with those that shall come after.

12 I, the preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven. This is a grievous labor that God has given to the sons of man to be exercised with. 14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun, and behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. 15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight. And that which is lacking cannot be numbered.

16 I spoke with my own heart, saying, "Behold, I have come to great estate and have gained more wisdom than all those who have been before me in Jerusalem, and my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge." 17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit. 18 For in much wisdom is much grief. And he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure, 1-11. Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event, 12-17. The vanity of human labor, in leaving it they know not to whom, 18-23. Nothing better than joy in our labor; but that is God's gift, 24-26.

1 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will prove you with mirth; therefore, enjoy pleasure," and behold, this also is vanity. 2 I said of laughter, "It is mad," and of mirth, "What does it do?" 3 I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine—my heart yet guiding me with wisdom—and how to lay hold on folly, until I might see what was good for the sons of men which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life. 4 I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. 5 I made myself gardens and orchards and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruits. 6 I made myself pools of water, to water with them the forest that brings forth trees. 7 I procured myself men-servants and women-servants and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of great and small livestock above all that were in Jerusalem before me. 8 I gathered myself also silver and gold and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces. I procured myself men-singers and women-singers and the delights of the sons of men—many concubines.

9 Thus I was great and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem, and also my wisdom remained with me. 10 And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them. I did not withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced in all my labor. And this was my portion of all my labor. 11 Then I considered all the works that my hands had wrought and the labor that I had labored to do, and behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, madness, and folly. For what can the man do who comes after the king? Even that which has already been done. 13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness.

14 The wise man’s eyes are in his head, /
but the fool walks in darkness.

And I myself perceived also that one event happens to them all. 15 Then I said in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so it happens even to me. And why was I then more wise?" Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. 16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool forever, seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how does the wise man die? As the fool. 17 Therefore, I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous to me. For all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 Indeed, I hated all my labor which I had taken under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who shall be after me. 19 And who knows whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? Yet he shall have rule over all my labor in which I have labored and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. 20 Therefore, I began to cause my heart to despair of all the labor which I took under the sun. 21 For there is a man whose labor is in wisdom, in knowledge, and in equity, yet to a man who has not labored in it, he shall leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. 22 For what does man have of all his labor and of the vexation of his heart in which he has labored under the sun? 23 For all his days are sorrows and his labor grief. Even his heart does not take rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. 25 For who can eat or who else can hasten to it more than I? 26 For to the man who is good in his sight, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy, but to the sinner he gives toil, to gather and to amass, so that he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Chapter 3

By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail, 1-10. There is an excellency in God’s works, 11-15. But as for man, God shall judge his works hereafter, though here he be like a beast, 16-22.

1 To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time to be born, and a time to die; /
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; /
a time to break down, and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; /
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones; /
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to get, and a time to lose; /
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; /
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to hate; /
a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 What profit does he have who works in that in which he labors? 10 I have seen the labor which God has given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. He also has set the world in their heart so that no man can find out the work that God makes from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice and to do good in his life, 13 And also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor—this is the gift of God. 14 I know that whatever God does shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it nor anything taken from it. And God does it so that men should fear before him. 15 That which has been is now, and that which is to be has already been. And God requires that which is past.

16 And moreover, I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there, and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. 17 I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked." For there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. 18 I said in my heart concerning the state of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. 19 For that which befalls the sons of men befalls beasts, even one thing befalls them: as one dies, so the other dies. Indeed, they all have one breath, so that a man has no pre-eminence above a beast, for all is vanity. 20 All go to one place. All are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. 21 Who knows whether the spirit of man goes upward or whether the spirit of the beast goes downward to the earth? 22 Therefore, I perceive that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, for that is his portion. For who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

Chapter 4

Vanity is increased to men by oppression, 1-3; by envy, 4; by idleness, 5, 6; by covetousness, 7, 8; by solitariness, 9-12; by willfulness, 13-16.

1 Thus I returned and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun. And behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter. And on the side of their oppressors there was power, but they had no comforter. 2 Therefore, I praised the dead who are already dead more than the living who are still alive. 3 Indeed, better is he than both of them who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 Again, I considered all labor and every right work, that for this, a man is envied by his neighbor. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The fool folds his hands together / and eats his own flesh.

6 Better is a handful with quietness, / than both the hands full with toil and vexation of spirit.

7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun. 8 There is one alone, and there is not a second, and he has neither child nor brother. Yet there is no end of all his labor, neither is his eye satisfied with riches, neither does he say, "For whom do I labor and bereave my soul of good?" This is also vanity. It is even a grievous labor.

9 Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their labor. 10 For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he does not have another to help him to rise. 11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat. But how can one be warm alone? 12 And if one prevails against him, two shall withstand him. A three-fold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor and a wise child, than an old and foolish king who will no more be admonished. 14 For out of prison he comes to reign, for even in his own kingdom he has been poor. 15 I considered all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the second youth who shall stand up in his stead. 16 There is no end of all the people, even of all who have been before them. Those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Chapter 5

Vanities in divine service, 1-7; in murmuring against oppression, 8; and in riches, 9-17. Joy in riches is the gift of God, 18-20.

1 Keep your foot when you go to the house of God, and be more ready to hear than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not consider that they do evil. 2 Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God. For God is in heaven, and you upon earth; therefore, let your words be few.

3 For a dream comes through the multitude of business, / and a fool’s voice is known by a multitude of words.

4 When you vow a vow to God, do not defer to pay it, for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you have vowed. 5 It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. 6 Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin, neither say before the angel that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands? 7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also diverse vanities. But fear God.

8 If you see the oppression of the poor and violent perversion of judgment and justice in a province, do not wonder at the matter. For he who is higher than the highest regards, and there are higher than those. 9 Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all. The king himself is served by the field.

10 He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver, nor he who loves abundance with increase. This is also vanity. 11 When goods increase, they are increased who eat them. And what good is there to their owners except the beholding of them with their eyes? 12 The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much, but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for their owner to his hurt. 14 But those riches perish by evil labor, and if he begets a son, there is nothing in his hand. 15 As he came into the world, so he shall return naked as he came, and shall take nothing of his labor that he can carry away in his hand. 16 And this also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so he shall go. And what profit does he have who has labored for the wind? 17 All his days he also eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 Behold that which I have seen. It is good and fitting for one to eat and to drink and to enjoy the good of all his labor that he takes under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him, for it is his portion. 19 Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth and has given him power to eat of it, to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. 20 For he shall not often remember the days of his life, because God answers him in the joy of his heart.

Chapter 6

The vanity of riches without use, 1, 2; though a man have many children and a long life, 3-6. The vanity of sight and wandering desires, 7-9. The conclusion of vanities, 10-12.

1 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: 2 A man to whom God has given riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God does not give him power to enjoy them, but a stranger enjoys them. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease. 3 If a man begets a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good and he also has no burial, I say that the one of an untimely birth is better than he is. 4 For that one comes with vanity and departs in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness. 5 Moreover, he has not seen the sun or known anything. This one has more rest than the other. 6 Even though he lives a thousand years twice told, yet he has seen no good. Do not all go to one place?

> 7 All the labor of man is for his mouth, > and yet the appetite is not filled.

8 For what does the wise have more than the fool? What does the poor have who knows how to walk before the living? 9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which has been is named already, and it is known what man is, for he cannot contend with him who is mightier than he is. 11 Seeing there are many things that increase vanity, what is man the better? 12 For who knows what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spends as a shadow? For who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

Chapter 7

Remedies against vanity are a good name, 1; mortification, 2-6; patience, 7-10; and wisdom, 11-22. The difficulty of wisdom, 23-29.

1 A good name is better than precious ointment, / and the day of death than the day of one’s birth.

2 It is better to go to the house of mourning / than to go to the house of feasting, / for that is the end of all men, / and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 Sorrow is better than laughter, /
for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, /
but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise / than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, / so is the laughter of the fool. /
This also is vanity.

7 Surely oppression makes a wise man mad, / and a gift destroys the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than its beginning. /
And the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry, / for anger rests in the bosom of fools.

10 Do not say, "Why were the former days better than these?" /
For you do not inquire wisely concerning this.

11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance, / and by it there is profit to those who see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense, / but the excellence of knowledge / is that wisdom gives life to those who have it.

13 Consider the work of God, / for who can make straight that which he has made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider this: God also has set one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 I have seen all things in the days of my vanity. There is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness. 16 Do not be righteous over much, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? 17 Do not be exceedingly wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? 18 It is good that you should take hold of this, and also do not withdraw your hand from this, for he who fears God shall escape from them all.

19 Wisdom strengthens the wise more than ten mighty men who are in the city. 20 For there is not a just man upon earth who does good and does not sin. 21 Also, take no heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you, 22 For often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others.

23 All this I have proved by wisdom. I said, "I will be wise," but it was far from me. 24 That which is far off and exceedingly deep, who can find it out? 25 I applied my heart to know, to search, to seek out wisdom and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness. 26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets and whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 "Behold, I have found this," says the preacher, "counting one by one to find out the account, 28 Which yet my soul seeks, but I do not find. One man among a thousand I have found, but a woman among all those I have not found. 29 Behold, I have only found this: that God has made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions."

Chapter 8

True wisdom is modest, 1. Kings are to be respected, 2-5. Divine providence is to be observed, 6-11. It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity, 12-15. The work of God is unsearchable, 16, 17.

> 1 Who is like the wise man? /
> And who knows the interpretation of a thing? /
> A man’s wisdom causes his face to shine, / > and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel you to keep the king’s commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God. 3 Do not be hasty to go out of his sight. Do not stand in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him. 4 Where the word of a king is, there is power. And who may say to him, "What are you doing?"

> 5 He who keeps the commandment shall feel no evil thing. /
> And a wise man’s heart discerns both time and judgment.

6 For to every purpose there is time and judgment; therefore, the misery of man is great upon him. 7 For he does not know that which shall be. For who can tell him when it shall be? 8 There is no man who has power over the spirit to retain the spirit, neither does he have power in the day of death. And there is no discharge in that war, neither shall wickedness deliver those who are given to it. 9 All this I have seen, applying my heart to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man rules over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the holy place, and they were forgotten in the city where they had done so. This is also vanity. 11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. 12 Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and his days are prolonged, yet surely I know that it will be well with those who fear God, who fear before him. 13 But it will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong his days like a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to see the business that is done upon the earth (for there is also one who neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), 17 I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. Because even though a man may labor to seek it out, yet he shall not find it, and even though a wise man thinks to know it, yet he shall not be able to find it.

Chapter 9

Like things happen to good and bad, 1-3. There is a necessity of death to men, 4-6. Comfort is all their portion in this life, 7-10. God's providence rules over all, 11, 12. Wisdom is better than strength, 13-18.

1 For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this: that the righteous and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God. No man knows either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous, to the wicked, to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who does not sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner. As is he who swears, so is he who fears an oath. 3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event to all. Also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. 4 For to him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion. 5 For the living know that they shall die, but the dead do not know anything, neither do they have anymore a reward, for their memory is forgotten. 6 Also, their love, their hatred, and their envy has now perished, neither do they have anymore a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

7 Go your way, eat your bread with joy, / and drink your wine with a merry heart, / for God now accepts your works.

8 Let your garments always be white, / and let your head lack no ointment.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of the life of your vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all the days of your vanity, for that is your portion in this life and in your labor which you take under the sun.

10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might, for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave where you go.

11 I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill, but time and chance happens to them all. 12 For man also does not know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, so are the sons of men snared in an evil time when it falls suddenly upon them.

13 This wisdom I have also seen under the sun, and it seemed to me great: 14 There was a little city with few men in it, and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. 15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no man remembered that same poor man. 16 Then I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." Nevertheless, the poor man’s wisdom is despised and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet / more than the cry of him who rules among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, /
but one sinner destroys much good.

Chapter 10

Observations of wisdom and folly, 1-15; of riot, 16, 17; slothfulness, 18; and money, 19. Men’s thoughts of kings ought to be reverent, 20.

1 Dead flies cause the ointment of the perfumer to send forth an offensive odor, / and so does a little folly to him who is in reputation for wisdom and honor.

2 A wise man’s heart is at his right hand, / but a fool’s heart is at his left.

3 Also, when he who is a fool walks by the way, his wisdom fails him / and he says to everyone that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rises against you, / do not leave your place, / for yielding pacifies great offenses.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, /
as an error which proceeds from the ruler:

6 Folly is set in great dignity, / and the rich sit in a low place.

7 I have seen servants upon horses, / and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He who digs a pit shall fall into it, / and whoever breaks a hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoever removes stones shall be hurt by them, / and he who cleaves wood shall be endangered by it.

10 If the iron is blunt / and he does not whet the edge, /
then he must use more strength. /
But wisdom has the advantage to give success.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment, / and a babbler is no better.

12 The words of a wise man’s mouth are gracious, /
but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness, / and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool is also full of words. /
A man cannot tell what shall be. /
And what shall be after him, / who can tell him?

15 The labor of the foolish wearies every one of them, / because he does not know how to go to the city.

16 Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child / and your princes eat in the morning!

17 You are blessed, O land, when your king is the son of nobles / and your princes eat in due season— / for strength and not for drunkenness!

18 By much slothfulness the building decays, / and through idleness of the hands the house drops through.

19 A feast is made for laughter, / and wine makes merry, /

but money answers all things.

20 Do not curse the king, not even in your thoughts, / and do not curse the rich in your bed-chamber, / for a bird of the air will carry the voice, / and that which has wings will tell the matter.

Chapter 11

Directions for charity, 1-6. Death in life, 7, 8, and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on, 9, 10.

1 Cast your bread upon the waters, / for you shall find it after many days.

2 Give a portion to seven, or even to eight, / for you do not know what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds are full of rain, / they empty themselves upon the earth. /
And if the tree falls toward the south or toward the north, / in the place where the tree falls, there it shall be.

4 He who observes the wind shall not sow, / and he who regards the clouds shall not reap.

5 As you do not know what is the way of the spirit / nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child, / even so you do not know the works of God who makes all.

6 In the morning sow your seed, / and in the evening do not withhold your hand, / for you do not know which shall prosper, either this or that, / or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, / and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun.

8 But if a man lives many years / and rejoices in them all, / yet let him remember the days of darkness, / for they shall be many. /
All that comes is vanity.

9 Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, / and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth. / Walk in the ways of your heart / and in the sight of your eyes. /
But know that for all these things /
God will bring you into judgment.

10 Therefore, remove sorrow from your heart / and put away evil from your flesh, / for childhood and youth are vanity.

Chapter 12

The Creator is to be remembered in due time, 1-7. The preacher's care to edify, 8-12. The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity, 13, 14.

1 Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, / before the evil days come / and the years draw near when you shall say, /
"I have no pleasure in them";

2 Before the sun, the light, the moon, / and the stars are darkened, / and the clouds return after the rain;

3 In the day when the keepers of the house tremble, / and the strong men bow themselves, / and the grinders cease because they are few, / and those who look out of the windows are darkened,

4 And the doors are shut in the streets; / when the sound of the grinding is low, / and one shall rise up at the voice of the bird, / and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

5 When they are afraid of that which is high, / and fears are in the way; / when the almond tree flourishes, /
the locust is a burden, / and desire fails— /
for man goes to his eternal home, / and the mourners go throughout the streets;

6 Before the silver cord is removed, / the golden bowl is broken, / the pitcher is broken at the fountain, / or the wheel broken at the cistern,

7 And the dust returns to the earth as it was, /
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

8 "Vanity of vanities," says the preacher. "All is vanity."

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. He even gave good heed, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. 10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words. And that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are like goads and like nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. 12 And further, my son, be admonished by these: of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness to the flesh.

13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. 14 For God will bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Song of Solomon

Song of Solomon | Ἆσμα Ἀσμάτων | מירישה ריש

Chapter 1

The church’s love for Christ, 1-4. She confesses her deformity, 5, 6, and prays to be directed to his flock, 7. Christ directs her to the shepherds' tents, 8; and showing his love to her, 9, 10, gives her gracious promises, 11. The church and Christ congratulate one another, 12-17.

1 [The song of songs, which is Solomon’s.]

[Lady:]

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, /
for your love is better than wine.

3 The savor of your ointments is pleasing. /
Your name is like ointment poured forth. /
Therefore, the virgins love you.

4 Draw me. We will run after you. /
The king has brought me into his chambers.

[Others:]

We will be glad and rejoice in you. /
We will remember your love more than wine. /
The upright love you.

[Lady:]

5 I am black, but beautiful, /
O daughters of Jerusalem, /
like the tents of Kedar, / like the curtains of Solomon.

6 Do not look upon me because I am black, / because the sun has looked upon me. /
My mother’s children were angry with me. /
They made me the keeper of the vineyards, /
but I have not kept my own vineyard.

7 Tell me, O you whom my soul loves, / where you feed, where you make your flock to rest at noon. /
For why should I be like one who turns aside /
by the flocks of your companions?

[Gentleman:]

8 If you do not know, O fairest among women, / go forth by the footsteps of the flock / and feed your kids beside the shepherds' tents.

9 I have compared you, O my love, / to a company of horses in Pharaoh’s chariots.

10 Your cheeks are beautiful with rows of jewels, / your neck with chains of gold.

[Others:]

11 We will make for you borders of gold / with studs of silver.

[Lady:]

12 While the king sits at his table, /
my spikenard sends forth its smell.

13 A bundle of myrrh is my well beloved to me. /
He shall lie all night between my breasts.

14 My beloved is to me like a cluster of camphor / in the vineyards of En-gedi.

[Gentleman:]

15 Behold, you are fair, my love. /
Behold, you are fair. /
You have doves' eyes.

[Lady:]

16 Behold, you are fair, my beloved, even pleasant. /
Also our bed is green.

[Gentleman:]

17 The beams of our house are cedar / and our rafters of fir.

Chapter 2

The mutual love of Christ and his church, 1-7. The hope, 8, 9, and calling of the church, 10-13. Christ's care for the church, 14, 15. The profession of the church, her faith and hope, 16, 17.

[Lady:]

1 I am the rose of Sharon / and the lily of the valleys.

[Gentleman:]

2 As the lily among thorns, / so is my love among the daughters.

[Lady:]

3 As the apple-tree among the trees of the forest, / so is my beloved among the sons. /
I sat down under his shadow with great delight, / and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banqueting house, / and his banner over me was love.

5 Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples, / for I am sick with love.

6 His left hand is under my head / and his right hand embraces me.

7 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, /
by the gazelles and by the does of the field, /
that you do not stir or awake my love /
until he pleases.

8 The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes / leaping upon the mountains, / skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young buck. /
Behold, he stands behind our wall. /
He looks through the windows. /
He glances through the lattice.

10 My beloved spoke and said to me, /
"Rise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For behold, the winter is past, /
the rain is over and gone.

12 The flowers appear on the earth. /
The time of the singing of birds has come, / and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land.

13 The fig-tree puts forth her green figs, / and the vines with the tender grape / give a good smell. / Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away."

[Gentleman:]

14 O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, / in the secret places of the precipice, / let me see your countenance, /
let me hear your voice. /
For your voice is sweet and your countenance is beautiful.

15 Take for us the foxes, / the little foxes that plunder the vines, / for our vines have tender grapes.

[Lady:]

16 My beloved is mine and I am his. /
He feeds among the lilies.

17 Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away, / turn, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young buck / upon the mountains of Bether.

Chapter 3

The church’s fight and victory in temptation, 1-5. The church glories in Christ, 6-11.

[Lady:]

1 By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loves. /
I sought him, but I did not find him.

2 I will rise now and go throughout the city in the streets, / and in the broad ways /
I will seek him whom my soul loves. /
I sought him, but I did not find him.

3 The watchmen who go throughout the city found me, / to whom I said, "Did you see him whom my soul loves?"

4 It was only a little that I passed from them, / but I found him whom my soul loves. /
I held him and would not let him go / until I had brought him into my mother’s house / and into the chamber of her who conceived me.

5 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, /
by the gazelles and by the does of the field, / that you do not stir up or awake my love /
until he pleases.

6 Who is this who comes out of the wilderness / like pillars of smoke, / perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, / with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon’s. / Sixty valiant men are around it, / of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war. /
Every man has his sword upon his thigh /
because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a chariot / of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made its pillars of silver, / its back of gold, its seat of purple, / its midst being covered with love / from the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon / with the crown with which his mother crowned him / in the day of his espousals / and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Chapter 4

Christ sets forth the graces of the church, 1-7. He shows his love to her, 8-15. The church prays to be made fit for his presence, 16.

[Gentleman:]

1 Behold, you are fair, my love. /
Behold, you are fair. /
You have doves' eyes within your veil. /
Your hair is like a flock of goats / that appear from mount Gilead.

2 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, / which came up from the washing, / all of which bear twins, / and not one is barren among them.

3 Your lips are like a thread of scarlet / and your speech is lovely. /
Your temples are like a piece of pomegranate / within your veil.

4 Your neck is like the tower of David / built for an armory, / on which hang a thousand bucklers, /
all shields of mighty men.

5 Your two breasts are like two fawns / that are twins of a gazelle, / which feed among the lilies.

6 Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away, /
I will go to the mountain of myrrh /
and to the hill of frankincense.

7 You are all fair, my love. /
There is no spot in you.

8 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, / with me from Lebanon. / Look from the top of Amana, / from the top of Shenir and Hermon, / from the lions' dens, /
from the mountains of the leopards.

9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse. /
You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, / with one chain of your neck.

10 How fair your love is, my sister, my spouse! /
How much better your love is than wine, / and the smell of your ointments than all spices!

11 Your lips, O my spouse, / drop like the honey-comb. /
Honey and milk are under your tongue. /
And the smell of your garments / is like the smell of Lebanon.

12 A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse, /
a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

13 Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates, / with pleasant fruits, / camphor, with spikenard,

14 Spikenard and saffron, / calamus and cinnamon, /
with all trees of frankincense, / myrrh and aloes, /
with all the chief spices,

15 A fountain of gardens, / a well of living waters, / and streams from Lebanon.

[Lady:]

16 Awake, O north wind, and come, O south. /
Blow upon my garden so that its spices may flow out. / Let my beloved come into his garden / and eat his pleasant fruits.

Chapter 5

Christ wakes the church with his calling, 1. The church, having a taste of Christ's love, is sick with love, 2-8. A description of Christ by his graces, 9-16.

[Gentleman:]

1 I have come into my garden, my sister, my spouse. /
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice. /
I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey. /
I have drank my wine with my milk.

[Others:]

Eat, O friends. /
Drink, yes, drink abundantly, O beloved.

[Lady:]

2 I sleep, but my heart wakes. /
It is the voice of my beloved who knocks, saying, /
"Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled, / for my head is filled with dew / and my locks with the drops of the night."

3 I have put off my coat. How shall I put it on? /
I have washed my feet. How shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put his hand in by the hole of the door, / and my heart was moved for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved, / and my hands dropped with myrrh, / my fingers with sweet-smelling myrrh, / upon the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my beloved, /
but my beloved had withdrawn himself and was gone. /
My soul failed when he spoke. /
I sought him, but I could not find him. /
I called him, but he gave me no answer.

7 The watchmen who went throughout the city found me, / they smote me, they wounded me. /
The keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, /
if you find my beloved, / that you tell him that I am sick with love.

[Others:]

9 What is your beloved more than another beloved, /
O fairest among women? /
What is your beloved more than another beloved / that you charge us so?

[Lady:]

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, / the chief among ten thousand.

11 His head is like the finest gold. /
His locks are bushy and black as a raven.

12 His eyes are like the eyes of doves / by the rivers of waters, / washed with milk /
and set in fullness.

13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices / pouring forth perfumes. /
His lips are like lilies / dropping sweet-smelling myrrh.

14 His hands are like gold rings / set with the beryl. /
His belly is like bright ivory / overlaid with sapphires.

15 His legs are like pillars of marble / set upon sockets of fine gold. /
His countenance is like Lebanon, / as excellent as the cedars.

16 His mouth is most sweet. /
Indeed, he is altogether lovely. /
This is my beloved and this is my friend, /
O daughters of Jerusalem.

Chapter 6

The church professes her faith in Christ, 1-3. Christ shows the graces of the church, 4-9; and his love toward her, 10-13.

[Others:]

1 Where has your beloved gone, /
O fairest among women? /
Where has your beloved turned aside / so that we may seek him with you?

[Lady:]

2 My beloved has gone down into his garden, / to the beds of spices, / to feed in the gardens and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved’s and my beloved is mine. /
He feeds among the lilies.

[Gentleman:]

4 You are as beautiful as Tirzah, O my love, / as lovely as Jerusalem, /
as awesome as an army with banners.

5 Turn away your eyes from me, / for they have overcome me. /
Your hair is like a flock of goats /
that appear from Gilead.

6 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep / which go up from the washing, / of which every one bears twins, / and there is not one barren among them.

7 Like a piece of pomegranate are your temples /
within your veil.

8 There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, / and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one. /
She is the only one of her mother. /
She is the choice one of her who bore her. /
The daughters saw her and blessed her, / even the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 Who is she who looks forth like the morning, / as fair as the moon, /
as clear as the sun, /
and as awesome as an army with banners?

[Lady:]

11 I went down into the garden of nuts / to see the fruits of the valley, / and to see whether the vine flourished / and the pomegranates budded.

12 Before I was aware, my soul made me / like the chariots of Amminadib.

[Others:]

13 Return, return, O Shulamite. /
Return, return, so that we may look upon you.

[Gentleman:]

Why should you gaze at the Shulamite, / as at the company of two armies?

Chapter 7

A further description of the church’s graces, 1-9. The church professes her faith and desire, 10-13.

[Gentleman:]

1 How beautiful are your feet with shoes, /
O prince’s daughter! /
The joints of your thighs are like jewels, /
the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

2 Your navel is like a round goblet / which does not lack liquor. /
Your belly is like a heap of wheat / surrounded by lilies.

3 Your two breasts are like two fawns /
that are twins of a gazelle.

4 Your neck is like a tower of ivory. / Your eyes are like the fish-pools in Heshbon /
by the gate of Bath-rabbim. /
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon / which looks toward Damascus.

5 Your head upon you is like Carmel, / and the hair of your head like purple. /
The king is held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleasant you are, /
O love, for delights!

7 Your stature is like a palm tree, / and your breasts like clusters of grapes.

8 I said, "I will go up to the palm tree. /
I will take hold of its boughs." /
Now also your breasts shall be like clusters of the vine, / and the smell of your nose like apples.

9 And the roof of your mouth shall be like the best wine—

[Lady:]

that goes down sweetly for my beloved, / causing the lips of those who are asleep to speak.

10 I am my beloved’s, /
and his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field. /
Let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards. /
Let us see if the vine flourishes, / whether the tender grape appears / and the pomegranates bud forth. /
There I will give you my love.

13 The mandrakes give a smell, / and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, / new and old, / which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

Chapter 8

The love of the church for Christ, 1-5. The vehemency of love, 6, 7. The calling of the Gentiles, 8-13. The church prays for Christ’s coming, 14.

[Lady:]

1 O that you were like my brother /
who was nourished at the breasts of my mother! /
When I should find you outside, I would kiss you. /
Indeed, I should not be despised.

2 I would lead you and bring you into my mother’s house, / who would instruct me. /
I would cause you to drink spiced wine, /
the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand should be under my head / and his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, / that you do not stir or awake my love /
until he pleases.

[Others:]

5 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness / leaning upon her beloved?

[Lady:]

I raised you up under the apple-tree. /
There your mother brought you forth. /
There she brought you forth who bore you.

6 Set me as a seal upon your heart, / as a seal upon your arm. /
For love is as strong as death, / jealousy as cruel as the grave. /
Its coals are coals of fire / which has a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, / neither can the floods drown it. /
If a man would give all the substance of his house for love, / it would utterly be despised.

[Others:]

8 We have a little sister / and she has no breasts. /
What shall we do for our sister / in the day when she is spoken for?

9 If she is a wall, /
we will build upon her a palace of silver. /
And if she is a door, /
we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

[Lady:]

10 I am a wall and my breasts like towers. /
Then I was in his eyes as one who found favor.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon. /
He lent out the vineyard to keepers. /
Each for its fruit was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard which is mine is before me. /
You, O Solomon, must have a thousand, / and those who keep its fruit, two hundred.

[Gentleman:]

13 You who dwell in the gardens, / the companions listen to your voice. /
Cause me to hear it.

[Lady:]

14 Make haste, my beloved, / and be like a gazelle or a young buck / upon the mountains of spices.

The Vision of Isaiah

Isaiah | Ἡσαΐας | והיעשי

Chapter 1

Isaiah gives an accusation against Judah for her rebellion, 1-4. He laments her judgments, 5-9. He upbraids their whole service, 10-15. He exhorts to repentance with promises and threatenings, 16-20. Bewailing their wickedness, he denounces God’s judgments, 21-24. He promises grace, 25-27; and threatens destruction to the wicked, 28-31.

1 [The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.]

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth. /
For the LORD has spoken, /
"I have nourished and brought up children, / and they have rebelled against me.

3 The ox knows his owner / and the donkey his master’s crib, / but Israel does not know, /
my people do not consider."

4 Ah, sinful nation, / a people laden with iniquity, / offspring of evil-doers, / children who are corrupters. /
They have forsaken the LORD. /
They have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger. /
They have gone away backward.

5 Why should you be stricken anymore? /
You will revolt more and more. /
The whole head is sick, / and the whole heart is faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even to the head / there is no soundness in it, /
but wounds, bruises, and putrefying sores. /
They have not been closed, neither bound up, / neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your country is desolate. /
Your cities are burned with fire. /
Your land, strangers devour it in your presence / and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left / like a cottage in a vineyard, / like a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, / like a besieged city.

9 Unless the LORD of hosts / had left to us a very small remnant, / we should have been like Sodom, /
we should have been like Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, / rulers of Sodom. / Give ear to the law of our God, / people of Gomorrah.

11 The LORD says, /
"To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to me? /
I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams / and the fat of fed beasts, / and I do not delight in the blood / of bulls, of lambs, or of male goats.

12 When you come to appear before me, / who has required this at your hand / to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations. /
Incense is an abomination to me. /
The new moons and sabbaths, /
the calling of assemblies, /
I cannot endure. /
It is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts / my soul hates. /
They are a trouble to me. /
I am weary to bear them.

15 And when you spread forth your hands, /
I will hide my eyes from you. /
Indeed, when you make many prayers, /
I will not hear. /
Your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash, make yourselves clean. / Put away the evil of your doings / from before my eyes. / Cease to do evil.

17 Learn to do well. /
Seek judgment. Relieve the oppressed. /
Judge the fatherless. Plead for the widow.

18 "Come now and let us reason together," says the LORD. /
"Though your sins are like scarlet, / they shall be white as snow. /
Though they are red like crimson, / they shall be like wool.

19 If you are willing and obedient, / you shall eat the good of the land,

20 But if you refuse and rebel, / you shall be devoured with the sword, / for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."

21 How the faithful city / has become a harlot! /
It was full of judgment, / and righteousness lodged in it, /
but now murderers.

22 Your silver has become dross / and your wine mixed with water.

23 Your princes are rebellious / and companions of thieves. / Everyone loves gifts / and follows after rewards. /
They do not judge the fatherless, / neither does the cause of the widow come to them.

24 Therefore, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, / the mighty One of Israel, says, /
"Ah, I will ease myself of my adversaries / and avenge myself of my enemies.

25 And I will turn my hand upon you / and thoroughly purge away your dross / and take away all your tin.

26 And I will restore your judges as at the first / and your counselors as at the beginning. / Afterward, you shall be called, /
The City of Righteousness, /
The Faithful City."

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, / and her converts with righteousness.

28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners / shall be together, / and those who forsake the LORD / shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks / which you have desired, / and you shall be confounded because of the gardens / that you have chosen.

30 For you shall be like an oak whose leaf fades / and like a garden that has no water.

31 And the strong shall be like tow / and its maker like a spark, / and they shall both burn together, / and no one shall quench them.

Chapter 2

Isaiah prophesies the coming of Christ's kingdom, 1-5. Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking, 6-9. He exhorts to fear because of the powerful effects of God's majesty, 10-22.

1 [The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.]

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, / that the mountain of the LORD'S house /
shall be established on the top of the mountains / and shall be exalted above the hills. /
And all nations shall flow to it.

3 And many people shall go and say, /
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, /
to the house of the God of Jacob. /
And he will teach us his ways, /
and we will walk in his paths." /
For out of Zion the law shall go forth, /
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he will judge among the nations / and will rebuke many people. /
And they shall beat their swords into plow-shares /
and their spears into pruning-hooks. / Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, /
neither shall they learn war anymore.

5 O house of Jacob, come, and let us walk /
in the light of the LORD.

6 Therefore, you have forsaken your people the house of Jacob, / because they are replenished from the east / and are soothsayers like the Philistines, / and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land is also full of silver and gold, / neither is there any end of their treasures. / Their land is also full of horses, / neither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land is also full of idols. /
They worship the work of their own hands, / that which their own fingers have made.

9 And the common man bows down, / and the great man humbles himself; / therefore, do not forgive them.

10 Enter into the rock / and hide in the dust / from before the fear of the LORD /
and the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, / and the haughtiness of men shall be abased, / and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts / shall be upon everyone who is proud and lofty, / and upon everyone who is lifted up /
(and he shall be brought low),

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon / that are high and lifted up, / and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And upon all the high mountains, /
and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, /
and upon every fortified wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, / and upon all pleasant pictures.

17 And the loftiness of man shall be abased, /
and the haughtiness of men shall be made low. /
The LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

18 And he will utterly abolish the idols.

19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks / and into the caves of the earth /
from before the fear of the LORD /
and the glory of his majesty, /

when he arises to shake the earth terribly.

20 In that day a man shall cast / his idols of silver and his idols of gold, / which they made each one for himself to worship, / to the moles and to the bats.

21 And they shall go into the clefts of the rocks / and into the tops of the ragged rocks /
from before the fear of the LORD /
and the glory of his majesty, /
when he arises to shake the earth terribly.

22 Cease from man, whose breath is in his nostrils. /
For what is he to be accounted of?

Chapter 3

The great calamities which come by sin, 1-9. The different reward of the righteous and wicked, 10, 11. The oppression and covetousness of the rulers, 12-15. The judgments which shall be for the pride of the women, 16-24. The general desolation, 25, 26.

1 For behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, / takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah / the rod and the staff, /
the whole support of bread, /
the whole support of water,

2 The mighty man, the man of war, / the judge, the prophet, /
the prudent, the ancient,

3 The captain of fifty, the honorable man, / the counselor, the skillful craftsman, / and the eloquent orator.

4 And I will give children to be their princes, / and babies shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, / each by another and each by his neighbor. /
The child shall behave himself proudly against the elder, / and the base against the honorable.

6 When a man takes hold of his brother / of the house of his father, saying, /
"You have clothing. /
Be our ruler. /
And let this ruin be under your hand,"

7 In that day he shall swear, saying, /
"I will not be a healer, /
for in my house there is neither bread nor clothing. /
Do not make me a ruler of the people."

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, / and Judah has fallen, / because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD / to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The show of their countenance witnesses against them. /
They declare their sin like Sodom. /
They do not hide it. /
Woe to their soul! /
For they have rewarded evil to themselves.

10 Say to the righteous that it shall be well with him, / for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Woe to the wicked! It shall be ill with him, / for the reward of his hands shall be given to him.

12 As for my people, children are their oppressors / and women rule over them. /
O my people, those who lead you cause you to err /
and destroy the way of your paths.

13 The LORD stands up to plead / and stands to judge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into judgment / with the elders of his people and with their princes: /
"For you have eaten up the vineyard. /
The plunder of the poor is in your houses."

15 The Lord GOD of hosts says, /
"What do you mean that you beat my people to pieces / and grind the faces of the poor?"

16 Moreover, the LORD says, /
"Because the daughters of Zion are haughty / and walk with extended necks / and wanton eyes, / walking with short steps as they go / and making a tinkling with their feet,

17 Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab /
the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, / and the LORD will uncover their secret parts."

18 In that day the Lord will take away the show of their tinkling ornaments around their feet, their headwear, their crescents, 19 The chains, the bracelets, the veils, 20 The caps, the ornaments of the legs, the head-bands, the perfume boxes, the amulets, 21 The rings, the nose-jewels, 22 The changeable suits of apparel, the mantles, the cloaks, the purses, 23 The mirrors, the fine linen, the hoods, and the veils.

24 And it shall come to pass, that,

Instead of sweet smell there shall be an offensive odor; / and instead of a girdle, a rent; / and instead of well set hair, baldness; / and instead of a mantle, a girding of sackcloth; / and burning instead of beauty.

25 Your men shall fall by the sword / and your mighty in the war.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn. /
And being desolate, she shall sit upon the ground.

Chapter 4

In the extremity of evils, Christ’s kingdom shall be a sanctuary, 1-6.

1 And in that day seven women / shall take hold of one man, saying, /
"We will eat our own bread /
and wear our own apparel. /
Only let us be called by your name / to take away our reproach."

2 In that day the Branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be for beauty and glory for those of Israel who have escaped. 3 And it shall come to pass, that he who is left in Zion and he who remains in Jerusalem shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem. 4 When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and has purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst of it by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning, 5 The LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion and upon her assemblies a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night, for upon all the glory there shall be a defense. 6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shade in the day-time from the heat, for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

Chapter 5

Under the parable of a vineyard, God excuses his severe judgment, 1-7. His judgments upon covetousness, 8-10; upon lasciviousness, 11, 12; upon impiety, 13-19; and upon injustice, 20-25. The executioners of God's judgments, 26-30.

1 Now I will sing to my well-beloved /
a song of my beloved concerning his vineyard. /
My well-beloved has a vineyard /
on a very fruitful hill.

2 And he fenced it, gathered out its stones, / planted it with the choicest vine, / built a tower in the midst of it, / and made a wine-press therein. /
And he expected that it would bring forth grapes, / and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, / judge, I pray you, between me and my vineyard.

4 What more could have been done to my vineyard / that I have not done in it? /
Why, when I expected that it would bring forth grapes, / did it bring forth wild grapes?

5 And now come. I will tell you / what I will do to my vineyard. /
I will take away its hedge / and it shall be eaten up, / and break down its wall / and it shall be trodden down.

6 And I will lay it waste. /
It shall not be pruned nor dug, / but there shall come up briers and thorns. /
I will also command the clouds / that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, / and the men of Judah his pleasant plant. / And he looked for judgment, but behold oppression, / for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 Woe to those who join house to house, / who lay field to field / until there is no place and you have been placed / alone in the midst of the earth!

9 In my ears the LORD of hosts said, / "Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, /
even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Even ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, / and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah."

11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning / so that they may follow strong drink, / who continue until night / until wine inflames them!

12 And the harp, the psaltery, the tambourine, pipe, / and wine are in their feasts, / but they do not regard the work of the LORD, /
neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 Therefore, my people have gone into captivity / because they have no knowledge. /
And their honorable men are famished, / and their multitude are dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore, hell has enlarged herself / and opened her mouth without measure. /
And their glory, their multitude, their pomp, / and he who rejoices shall descend into it.

15 And man shall be brought down, / the mighty man shall be humbled, / and the eyes of the lofty shall be abased.

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, / and God who is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then the lambs shall feed after their manner, / and strangers shall eat in the waste places of the fat ones.

18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of vanity / and sin as with a cart-rope,

19 Who say, "Let him make speed and hasten his work /
so that we may see it. /
And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come / so that we may know it!"

20 Woe to those who call evil good / and good evil, /
who put darkness for light / and light for darkness, / who put bitter for sweet / and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes / and prudent in their own sight!

22 Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine / and men of strength to mingle strong drink,

23 Who justify the wicked for reward / and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore, as the fire devours the stubble / and the flame consumes the chaff, / so their root shall be as rottenness / and their blossom shall go up like dust, / because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts / and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore, the anger of the LORD is kindled against his people, / and he has stretched forth his hand against them and has smitten them. /
And the hills trembled, / and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. /
For all this his anger is not turned away, /
but his hand is stretched out still.

26 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from afar / and will hiss to them from the end of the earth, / and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them / and none shall slumber nor sleep, / neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosened /
nor the latchet of their shoes be broken,

28 Whose arrows are sharp / and all their bows bent, / their horses' hooves shall be counted like flint / and their wheels like a whirlwind.

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion. /
They shall roar like young lions. /
They shall even roar and lay hold of the prey, / and shall carry it away safe, / and no one shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them / like the roaring of the sea. /
And if one looks to the land, / behold, darkness and sorrow, /
and the light is darkened in its heavens.

Chapter 6

Isaiah, in a vision of the Lord in his glory, 1-4, being terrified, has his apprehensions removed, 5-7. He offers himself and is sent to show the obstinacy of the people to their desolation, 8-12. A remnant shall be saved, 13.

1 In the year that king Uzziah died I also saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and elevated, and his train filled the temple. 2 Above it stood seraphim. Each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew.
3 And one cried to another and said,

"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts. /
The whole earth is full of his glory."

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him who cried, and the house was filled with smoke. 5 Then I said,

"Woe is me! For I am undone / because I am a man of unclean lips / and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips. /
For my eyes have seen the King, /
the LORD of hosts."

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. 7 And he laid it upon my mouth and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips, and your iniquity is taken away and your sin purged."

8 Also, I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"
Then I said, "Here I am. Send me." 9 And he said, "Go, and tell this people,

'In hearing you hear, but do not understand. /
In seeing you see, but do not perceive.'

10 Make the heart of this people fat, / make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes, / lest they see with their eyes, / hear with their ears, / understand with their heart, / and convert and be healed."

11 Then I said, "Lord, how long?" And he answered, /
"Until the cities are wasted without inhabitant, / the houses are without man, /
the land is utterly desolate,

12 And the LORD has moved men far away, / and there is a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 And if there is a tenth left in it, / it shall return and be eaten. /
As a terebinth and as an oak / whose substance is in them when they cast their leaves, / so the holy seed shall be its substance."

Chapter 7

Ahaz, being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah, 1-9. Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign and refusing it, has for a sign Christ promised, 10-16. His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria, 17-25.

1 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. 2 And it was told to the house of David, saying, "Syria is confederated with Ephraim." And his heart and the heart of his people shook like trees of the forest shaken by the wind.

3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go forth now to meet Ahaz—you and Shear-jashub your son—at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field, 4 And say to him, 'Take heed and be quiet. Do not fear, neither be faint-hearted because of the two tails of these smoking fire-brands—because of the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria and of the son of Remaliah. 5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have taken evil counsel against you, saying, 6 "Let us go up against Judah and harass it, and let us make a breach therein for us and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal," 7 Thus says the Lord GOD:

"It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, / and the head of Damascus is Rezin. /
And within sixty-five years /
Ephraim shall be broken so that it is not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, / and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. /
If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established."'"

10 Moreover, the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying, 11 "Ask for yourself a sign from the LORD your God. Ask it either in the depth or in the height above." 12 But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, neither will I test the LORD." 13 And he said, "Hear now, O house of David. Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also? 14 Therefore, the Lord himself will give you a sign: behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. 15 He shall eat butter and honey, so that he may know to refuse the evil and choose the good. 16 For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you abhor shall be forsaken by both her kings.

17 "The LORD will bring upon you, upon your people, and upon your father's house days that have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah—the king of Assyria."

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD will hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. 19 And they shall come, and all of them shall rest in the desolate valleys, in the holes of the rocks, upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In the same day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired from beyond the river (namely, by the king of Assyria) the head and the hair of the feet. And it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep. 22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, he shall eat butter. For everyone who is left in the land shall eat butter and honey.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand pieces of silver, it shall even be for briers and thorns. 24 Men shall come there with arrows and with bows, because all the land shall become briers and thorns. 25 And on all hills that are dug with the mattock, the fear of briers and thorns shall not come there, but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen and for the treading of sheep.

Chapter 8

In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesies that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria, 1-4. Judah likewise for their infidelity, 5-8. God's judgments shall be irresistible, 9, 10. Comfort shall be to those who fear God, 11-18. Great afflictions to idolaters, 19-22.

1 Moreover, the LORD said to me, "Take a great scroll and write in it with a man's pen, 'Maher-shalal-hash-baz.'" 2 And I took for myself faithful witnesses to record: Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. 3 And I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz. 4 For before the child has knowledge to cry, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria."

5 The LORD also spoke to me again, saying,

6 "Because this people refuses / the waters of Shiloah that flow gently / and rejoices in Rezin and Remaliah’s son,

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord brings up upon them / the waters of the river, strong and many, / even the king of Assyria and all his glory. /
And he shall come up over all its channels / and go over all its banks.

8 And he shall pass through Judah. /
He shall overflow and go over. /
He shall reach even to the neck. /
And the extension of his wings / shall fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.

9 Associate yourselves, O people, and you shall be broken in pieces. /
And give ear, all you of far countries. /
Gird yourselves, and you shall be broken in pieces. /
Gird yourselves, and you shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nothing. / Speak the word, and it shall not stand, / for God is with us."

11 For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 "Do not say, 'A confederacy,' / to all those to whom this people shall say, 'A confederacy,' / neither fear their fear, nor be afraid.

13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself, / and let him be your fear and let him be your dread.

14 And he will be for a sanctuary, / but for a stone of stumbling / and for a rock of offense / to both the houses of Israel, / for a trap and for a snare / to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shall stumble, / fall, be broken, /
be ensnared, and be taken."

16 Bind up the testimony. Seal the law among my disciples. 17 And I will wait upon the LORD, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. 18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts who dwells on mount Zion.

19 And when they say to you, "Seek those who have familiar spirits and wizards who peep and mutter," should a people not seek their God? Should they seek the dead on behalf of the living? 20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. 21 And they shall pass through it distressed and hungry. And it shall come to pass when they are hungry, that they shall fret themselves and curse their king and their God and look upward. 22 And they shall look to the earth, and behold, trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish, and they shall be driven to darkness.

Chapter 9

What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions by the birth and kingdom of Christ, 1-7. The judgments upon Israel for their pride, 8-12, for their hypocrisy, 13-17, and for their impenitence, 18-21.

1 Nevertheless, there shall be no more gloom to her who was in anguish. In the former time, he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time, he has made glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

2 The people who walked in darkness / have seen a great light. /
Those who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, / upon them the light has shined.

3 You have multiplied the nation. /
You have increased its joy. /
They joy before you according to the joy in harvest, / and as men rejoice when they divide the plunder.

4 For you have broken the yoke of his burden / and the staff of his shoulder, / the rod of his oppressor, / as in the day of Midian.

5 For all the armor of the armed man in the noisy battle / and the garments rolled in blood / shall be for burning and fuel for the fire.

6 For to us a child is born, / to us a son is given. /
And the government shall be upon his shoulder. /
And his name shall be called /
Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, /
The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government / and peace there shall be no end, / upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom, / to order it and to establish it / with judgment and with justice / from now on even forever. /
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, / and it has fallen upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, / even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, / who say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 "The bricks have fallen down, / but we will build with hewn stones. /
The sycamores are cut down, /
but we will change them into cedars."

11 Therefore, the LORD will set up / the adversaries of Rezin against him /
and join his enemies together,

12 The Syrians before and the Philistines behind. /
And they shall devour Israel with open mouth. /
For all this his anger is not turned away, /
but his hand is still stretched out.

13 For the people do not turn to him who smites them, / neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Therefore, the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, / branch and rush, in one day.

15 The ancient and honorable, he is the head, / and the prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err, / and those who are led by them are destroyed.

17 Therefore, the Lord will have no joy / in their young men, / neither will he have mercy /
on their fatherless and widows, / for everyone is a hypocrite and an evil-doer, / and every mouth speaks folly. /
For all this his anger is not turned away, /
but his hand is still stretched out.

18 For wickedness burns like the fire. /
It shall devour the briers and thorns / and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, / and they shall mount up like the rising of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts / the land is darkened, / and the people shall be like fuel for the fire. /
No man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall snatch on the right hand / and be hungry. /
And he shall eat on the left hand, / and they shall not be satisfied. /
Every man shall eat the flesh of his own arm.

21 Manasseh is against Ephraim, / Ephraim is against Manasseh, / and together they are against Judah. /
For all this his anger is not turned away, /
but his hand is still stretched out.

Chapter 10

The woe of tyrants, 1-4. Assyria, the rod of hypocrites, shall be broken for his pride, 5-19. A remnant of Israel shall be saved, 20-23. Judah is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria, 24-34.

1 Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees / and who write grievousness which they have prescribed,

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment / and to take away the right from the poor of my people, / so that widows may be their plunder / and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And what will you do in the day of visitation / and in the desolation which shall come from far? /
To whom will you flee for help? /
And where will you leave your glory?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners / and they shall fall under the slain. /
For all this his anger is not turned away, /
but his hand is stretched out still.

5 O Assyrian, the rod of my anger, / and the staff in whose hand is my indignation.

6 I will send him against a hypocritical nation, / and against the people of my wrath /
I will give him a charge, / to take the loot, to take the plunder, / and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 Although he does not mean so, / neither does his heart think so, / yet it is in his heart to destroy / and cut off many nations.

8 For he says, "Are my princes not altogether kings?

9 Is Calno not as Carchemish? /
Is Hamath not as Arpad? /
Is Samaria not as Damascus?

10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, / and whose engraved images excelled those of Jerusalem and of Samaria,

11 Shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, / do so to Jerusalem and her idols?"

12 Therefore, it shall come to pass when the Lord has performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, that I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria and the glory of his high looks. 13 For he says,

"By the strength of my hand I have done it, / and by my wisdom, for I am prudent. /
And I have removed the bounds of the people / and have robbed their treasures, / and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man.

14 And my hand has found the riches of the people like a nest. /
And like one gathering eggs that are left, /
I have gathered all the earth, / and there was no one who moved the wing, / opened the mouth, or peeped."

15 Shall the ax boast itself against him who hews with it? /
Or shall the saw magnify itself against him who moves it? /
That would be as if the rod should shake itself against those who lift it, / or as if the staff should lift itself as if it were not wood.

16 Therefore, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, / will send leanness among his fat ones, / and under his glory he will kindle /
a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire / and his Holy One for a flame, / and it shall burn and devour his thorns / and his briers in one day.

18 And it shall consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful field, / both soul and body, / and they shall be as when a standard-bearer faints.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few / so that a child may write them.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, / that the remnant of Israel / and those who have escaped of the house of Jacob / shall no longer again lean upon him who smote them, / but shall lean upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, / to the mighty God.

22 For though your people Israel are like the sand of the sea, / yet a remnant of them shall return. /
The consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

23 For the Lord GOD of hosts / will make a consumption, even determined, / in the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: "O my people who dwell in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He shall smite you with a rod and shall lift up his staff against you after the manner of Egypt. 25 For yet a very little while and the indignation shall cease, and my anger will turn to their destruction. 26 And the LORD of hosts will raise up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. And as his rod was upon the sea, so he shall lift it up after the manner of Egypt. 27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off your shoulder and his yoke from off your neck. And the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing."

28 He has come to Aiath. /
He has passed to Migron. /
At Michmash he has laid up his baggage.

29 They have gone over the passage. /
They have taken up their lodging at Geba. /
Ramah is afraid. /
Gibeah of Saul has fled.

30 Lift up your voice, O daughter of Gallim. / Cause it to be heard to Laish, O poor Anathoth.

31 Madmenah has fled away. /
The inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

32 This very day he shall remain at Nob. /
He shall shake his hand / against the mountain of the daughter of Zion, /
the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts / will lop the bough with terror, / and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, / and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, / and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

Chapter 11

The peaceable kingdom of the Branch out of the root of Jesse, 1-9. The victorious restoration of Israel and vocation of the Gentiles, 10-16.

1 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, / and a Branch shall grow out of his roots.

2 And the Spirit of the LORD will rest upon him— / the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, / the Spirit of counsel and might, /

the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD—

3 And his delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. /
And he will not judge after the sight of his eyes, / neither reprove after the hearing of his ears.

4 But with righteousness he will judge the poor / and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth. /
He will smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, / and with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.

5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, / and faithfulness the girdle of his loins.

6 The wolf shall also dwell with the lamb, / and the leopard shall lie down with the kid. /
The calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf shall be together, / and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed. /
Their young ones shall lie down together. /
And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the nursing child shall play near the hole of the asp, / and the weaned child shall put his hand on the den of the adder.

9 They shall not hurt nor destroy / in all my holy mountain, / for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, /
as the waters cover the sea.

10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse / which shall stand for an ensign of the people. /
The Gentiles shall seek it. /
And his rest shall be glorious.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, /
that the Lord will set his hand again the second time / to recover the remnant of his people / which shall be left from Assyria, from Egypt, / from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, / from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, / and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel / and gather the dispersed of Judah / from the four corners of the earth.

13 The envy of Ephraim shall also depart, / and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off. / Ephraim shall not envy Judah, / and Judah shall not distress Ephraim.

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west. /
They shall plunder those of the east together. /
They shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab. /
And the children of Ammon shall obey them.

15 And the LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea. /
And with his mighty wind he will shake his hand over the river, / and he will smite it in the seven streams / and make men go over in sandals.

16 And there shall be a highway for the remnant of his people / which shall be left from Assyria, / as there was for Israel / in the day that he came up from the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

A joyful thanksgiving of the faithful for the mercies of God, 1-6.

1 And in that day you shall say,

"O LORD, I will praise you. / Though you were angry with me, / your anger is turned away / and you have comforted me.

2 Behold, God is my salvation. /
I will trust and not be afraid, / for Yah, YAHWEH, is my strength and my song. /
He also has become my salvation."

3 Therefore, with joy you shall draw water / out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day you shall say,

"Praise the LORD. Call upon his name. / Declare his doings among the people. /
Make mention that his name is exalted.

5 Sing to the LORD, for he has done excellent things. /
This is known in all the earth.

6 Cry aloud and shout, inhabitant of Zion, / for the Holy One of Israel is great in the midst of you."

Chapter 13

God musters the armies of his wrath, 1-5. He threatens to destroy Babylon by the Medes, 6-18. The desolation of Babylon, 19-22.

1 [The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.]

2 Lift up a banner upon the high mountain, / exalt the voice to them, / and shake the hand so that they may go / into the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, /
I have also called my mighty ones for my anger, /
even those who rejoice in my highness.

4 Listen, a tumult in the mountains, / like that of a great multitude. / Listen, the uproar of the kingdoms / of nations gathered together. /
The LORD of hosts musters /
the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, / from the end of heaven, /
even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, / to destroy the whole land.

6 Howl, for the day of the LORD is at hand. /
It shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore, all hands shall be faint, / every man’s heart shall melt,

8 And they shall be afraid. /
Pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them. /
They shall be in pain like a woman who travails. /
They shall be amazed at one another. /
Their faces shall be like flames.

9 Behold, the day of the LORD comes, / cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, / to lay the land desolate. /
And he will destroy its sinners out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven and its constellations / shall not give their light. /
The sun shall be darkened in his going forth, / and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil / and the wicked for their iniquity. /

And I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease / and lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold, / even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore, I will shake the heavens. /
And the earth shall be shaken out of her place / in the wrath of the LORD of hosts / and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be like the chased gazelle / and like a sheep that no man takes up. / Every man shall turn to his own people / and flee each to his own land.

15 Everyone who is found shall be thrust through. /
And everyone who is joined to them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children shall also be dashed to pieces before their eyes. / Their houses shall be plundered / and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, / who shall not regard silver, / and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows shall also dash the young men to pieces. /
And they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. /
Their eye shall not spare children.

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, / the beauty of the Chaldeans' excellence, / shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It shall never be inhabited, / neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation, / neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, / neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there, / and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures. / Owls shall dwell there, / and wild goats shall dance there.

22 And the wolves shall cry in their desolate houses, / and jackals in their pleasant palaces. / And her time is near to come, / and her days shall not be prolonged.

Chapter 14

God's merciful restoration of Israel, 1, 2. Their triumphant exultation over Babel, 3-23. God's purpose against Assyria, 24-28. Palestina is threatened, 29-32.

1 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob and will again choose Israel and set them in their own land. And the strangers shall be joined with them and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. 2 And the people shall take them and bring them to their place. And the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for men-servants and women-servants. And they shall take them captives, whose captives they were, and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD gives you rest from your sorrow, from your fear, and from the hard bondage in which you were made to serve, 4 That you shall take up this proverb against the king of Babylon and say,

"How the oppressor has ceased! /
The golden city has ceased!

5 The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked / and the scepter of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath / with a continual stroke, /
he who ruled the nations in anger / is persecuted, and no one hinders.

7 The whole earth is at rest and is quiet. /
They break forth into singing.

8 Even the fir-trees / and the cedars of Lebanon rejoice at you, saying, /
'Since you are laid down, /
no feller has come up against us.'

9 Hell from beneath is moved for you / to meet you at your coming. /
It stirs up the dead for you, /
even all the chief ones of the earth. /
It has raised up from their thrones /
all the kings of the nations.

10 All of them shall speak and say to you, /
'Have you also become weak as we are? /
Have you become like us?'

11 Your pomp is brought down to the grave, / and also the noise of your harps. /
The worm is spread under you, / and the worms cover you.

12 How you have fallen from heaven, /
O morning-star, son of the dawn! /
How you are cut down to the ground, / who weakened the nations!

13 For you have said in your heart, /
'I will ascend into heaven. /
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God. /
I will also sit upon the mountain of the congregation /
in the uttermost parts of the north.

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds. /
I will be like the Most High.'

15 Yet you shall be brought down to hell, /
to the sides of the pit.

16 Those who see you shall narrowly look upon you / and consider you, saying, /
'Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, /
who shook kingdoms,

17 Who made the world like a wilderness / and destroyed its cities, / who did not open the house of his prisoners?'

18 All the kings of the nations, / even all of them, lie in glory, /
each in his own house.

19 But you are cast away from your grave / like an abominable branch, / clothed with the slain, /
with those thrust through with a sword, / those who go down to the stones of the pit / like a carcass trodden under foot.

20 You shall not be joined with them in burial / because you have destroyed your land / and slain your people. /
The offspring of evil-doers / shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children / for the iniquity of their fathers. /
They shall not rise, nor possess the land, / nor fill the face of the world with cities."

22 "For I will arise against them," says the LORD of hosts, "and cut off from Babylon the name, remnant, son, and nephew," says the LORD. 23 "I will also make it a possession for the bittern and pools of water. And I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says the LORD of hosts.

24 The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying, "Surely as I have thought, so it shall come to pass, and as I have purposed, so it shall stand. 25 I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot. Then his yoke shall depart from off them, and his burden shall depart from off their shoulders. 26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth. And this is the hand that is stretched over all the nations. 27 For the LORD of hosts has purposed, and who shall make it void? And his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?"

28 [In the year that king Ahaz died, this burden came.]

29 Do not rejoice, all Philistia, / because the rod of him who smote you is broken. /
For out of the serpent’s root shall come forth an adder, / and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the first-born of the poor shall feed, / and the needy shall lie down in safety. /
And I will kill your root with famine, / and he shall slay your remnant.

31 Howl, O gate. Cry, O city. /
You, all Philistia, are dissolved. /
For there shall come from the north a smoke, / and no one shall be alone in his appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? /
That the LORD has founded Zion, / and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

Chapter 15

The lamentable state of Moab, 1-9.

1 [The burden of Moab.]

For in the night, Ar of Moab is laid waste /
and brought to silence. /
For in the night, Kir of Moab is laid waste /

and brought to silence.

2 He has gone up to Bajith and to Dibon, /
the high places, to weep. /
Moab shall howl over Nebo and over Medeba. /
On all their heads there shall be baldness, / and every beard shorn.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth. /
On the tops of their houses and in their streets / everyone shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, along with Elealeh. / Their voice shall be heard even to Jahaz; / therefore, the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out. /
His life shall be grievous to him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab. /
His fugitives shall flee as far as Zoar, /
as far as Eglath-shelishiyah. /
For they shall go up the ascent of Luhith with weeping, / for in the way of Horonaim / they shall raise a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim are desolate, / for the herb has withered away, the grass fails, /
there is no green thing.

7 Therefore, the abundance they have gained, / and that which they have laid up, /
they shall carry away to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab, / her howling to Eglaim, / and her howling to Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood, / for I will bring more upon Dimon, / lions upon him who escapes of Moab / and upon the remnant of the land.

Chapter 16

Moab is exhorted to yield obedience to the throne of David, 1-5. Moab is threatened for her pride, 6-8. The prophet bewails her, 9-11. The judgment of Moab, 12-14.

1 Send the lamb to the ruler of the land / from Sela to the wilderness, / to the mountain of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, /
that as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, / so the daughters of Moab shall be / at the fords of Arnon.

3 Take counsel. Execute judgment. / Make your shadow as the night /
in the midst of the noon-day. / Hide the outcasts. /
Do not discover him who wanders.

4 Let my outcasts dwell with you, Moab. /
Be a covert to them /
from the face of the destroyer. /
For the extortioner is at an end. /
Devastation ceases. /
The oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy the throne shall be established. / And he shall sit upon it in truth / in the tabernacle of David, / judging, seeking judgment, / and hastening righteousness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, / that he is very proud, /
even of his haughtiness, his pride, and his wrath. /
But his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore, Moab shall howl for Moab, / everyone shall howl. /
For the foundations of Kir-hareseth you shall mourn. /
Surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon / and the vine of Sibmah languish. /
The lords of the heathen / have broken down her principal plants. /
They have come even to Jazer /
and they wandered through the wilderness. /
Her branches have extended / and passed over the sea.

9 Therefore, I will wail with the weeping of Jazer / for the vine of Sibmah. /
I will water you with my tears, /
O Heshbon and Elealeh, /
for on your summer fruits and on your harvest /
the battle shout has fallen.

10 And gladness and joy are taken away / from the plentiful field, / and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, / neither shall there be shouting. /
The treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses. /
I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.

11 Therefore, my heart shall sound like a harp for Moab / and my inward parts for Kir-haresh.

12 And it shall come to pass when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray, but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning Moab since that time. 14 But now the LORD has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as the years of a hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be despised with all that great multitude, and the remnant shall be very small and feeble."

Chapter 17

Syria and Israel are threatened, 1-5. A remnant shall forsake idolatry, 6-8. The rest shall be plagued for their impiety, 9-11. The woe of Israel's enemies, 12-14.

1 [The burden of Damascus.]

"Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city / and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken. / They shall be for flocks, / which shall lie down and no one shall make them afraid.

3 The fortress shall also cease from Ephraim, / and the kingdom from Damascus, / and the remnant of Syria. /
They shall be like the glory of the children of Israel," /
says the LORD of hosts.

4 "And in that day it shall come to pass, / that the glory of Jacob shall be diminished / and the fatness of his flesh shall become lean.

5 And it shall be as when the harvester gathers the grain / and reaps the heads with his arm. /
And it shall be as he who gathers heads [of grain] /
in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, / like the shaking of an olive-tree— / two or three berries /
in the top of the uppermost bough, / four or five in its outermost fruitful branches," / says the LORD God of Israel.

7 In that day a man shall look to his Maker, / and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, / the work of his hands, / neither shall he respect that which his fingers have made, / either the groves or the images.

9 In that day his strong cities shall be as a forsaken bough and an uppermost branch which they left because of the children of Israel. And there shall be desolation.

10 Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation / and have not been mindful of the rock of your strength, / therefore you shall plant pleasant plants / and shall set it with foreign cuttings.

11 In the day you shall make your plant to grow, / and in the morning you shall make your seed to flourish, / but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief / and of desperate sorrow.

12 Woe to the multitude of many people / who make a noise like the noise of the seas, / and to the rushing of nations / who make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters, / but God will rebuke them, and they shall flee far off / and be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind / and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And behold at the time of evening trouble. /
And before the morning he is no more. /
This is the portion of those who ravage us / and the lot of those who rob us.

Chapter 18

God, in care of his people, will destroy the Ethiopians, 1-6. An accession thereby shall be made to the church, 7.

1 Woe to the land shadowing with wings, / which is beyond the rivers of Cush,

2 That sends ambassadors by the sea, / even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, /
"Go, you swift messengers, / to a nation scattered and peeled, / to a people awesome from their beginning until now, / a nation measured by line and trodden down, / whose land the rivers have laid waste."

3 All you inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth, /
see when he lifts up an ensign on the mountains. /
And when he blows a trumpet, hear.

4 For thus the LORD said to me: /
"I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling-place / like a clear heat upon herbs / and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."

5 For before the harvest when the bud is perfect / and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, / he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks / and take away and cut down the branches.

6 They shall be left together to the birds of the mountains / and to the beasts of the earth. /
And the birds shall summer upon them, / and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

7 In that time the present shall be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people scattered and peeled, and from a people awesome from their beginning until now, a nation measured by line and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have divided, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts—mount Zion.

Chapter 19

The confusion of Egypt, 1-10. The foolishness of their princes, 11-17. The calling of Egypt into the church, 18-22. The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel, 23-25.

1 [The burden of Egypt.]

"Behold, the LORD rides upon a swift cloud / and will come into Egypt. /
And the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, / and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians, / and each shall fight against his brother / and each against his neighbor, / city against city and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst of her, / and I will destroy her counsel. /
And they shall seek the idols, the charmers, /
those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards.

4 And I will give the Egyptians over / into the hand of a cruel lord. / And a fierce king shall rule over them," / says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, / and the rivers shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away, / and the brooks of defense shall be emptied and dried up. /
The reeds and rushes shall wither.

7 The paper-reeds by the brooks, / by the mouth of the brooks, / and everything sown by the brooks shall wither, / be driven away, and be no more.

8 The fishermen shall also mourn, / all those who cast a hook into the brooks shall lament, /
and those who spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover, those who work in fine flax /
and those who weave net-works shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, /
all who make sluices and ponds for fish.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools. /
The counsel of the wise counselors of Pharaoh has become brutish. /
How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, /
the son of ancient kings"?

12 Where are they? Where are your wise men? / And let them tell you now, / and let them know what the LORD of hosts / has purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan have become fools, / the princes of Noph are deceived. /
They have also seduced Egypt, /
even those who are the support of its tribes.

14 The LORD has mingled a perverse spirit in the midst of it. /
And they have caused Egypt to err in every work of it, / as a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

15 There shall not be any work for Egypt / which the head or tail, branch or rush, may perform.

16 In that day Egypt shall be like women, and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shakes over it. 17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror to Egypt. Everyone who makes mention of it shall be afraid in himself because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he has determined against it.

18 In that day five cities in the land of Egypt shall speak the language of Canaan and swear to the LORD of hosts. One shall be called, The City of Destruction.

19 In that day there shall be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt and a pillar at its border to the LORD. 20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt. For they shall cry to the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a savior and a great one, and he shall deliver them. 21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day and shall do sacrifice and oblation. They shall even vow a vow to the LORD and perform it. 22 And the LORD will smite Egypt. He will smite and heal it. And they shall return even to the LORD, and he will be entreated by them and will heal them.

23 In that day there shall be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day Israel shall be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land, 25 Whom the LORD of hosts will bless, saying, "Blessed is Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

Chapter 20

A type prefiguring the shameful captivity of Egypt and Ethiopia, 1-6.

1 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him) and fought against Ashdod and took it, 2 At the same time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and remove the sackcloth from off your loins and take off your shoe from your foot." And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. 3 And the LORD said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Cush, 4 So the king of Assyria shall lead away the Egyptians prisoners and the Cushites captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their backsides uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. 5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Cush their expectation and of Egypt their glory. 6 And the inhabitant of this coastland shall say in that day, 'Behold, such is our expectation where we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And how shall we escape?'"

Chapter 21

The prophet, bewailing the captivity of his people, sees in a vision the fall of Babylon by the Medes and Persians, 1-10. Edom, scorning the prophet, is moved to repentance, 11, 12. The set time of Arabia's calamity, 13-17.

1 [The burden of the desert of the sea.]

As whirlwinds in the south pass through, / so it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared to me. /
The treacherous dealer deals treacherously, / and the destroyer destroys. / Go up, O Elam. Besiege, O Media. /
All her sighing I have made to cease.

3 Therefore, my loins are filled with pain. / Pangs have taken hold upon me /
like the pangs of a woman who travails. /
I was bowed down when I heard it. /
I was dismayed when I saw it.

4 My heart panted, fearfulness terrified me. /
The night of my pleasure /
he has turned into fear for me.

5 Prepare the table, / watch in the watch-tower, / eat, drink. / Arise, you princes, / and anoint the shield.

6 For thus the Lord has said to me: /
"Go, set a watchman, /
let him declare what he sees.

7 And when he sees a chariot with a couple of horsemen, /
a chariot of donkeys, and a chariot of camels, /
he shall listen diligently with much heed."

8 Then he cried like a lion, /
"My lord, I stand continually / upon the watch-tower in the day time, / and I am set in my ward whole nights.

9 And behold, here comes a chariot of men / with a couple of horsemen." /
And he answered and said, /
"Babylon has fallen, has fallen, / and all the engraved images of her gods /
he has broken to the ground."

10 O my threshing and the grain of my floor, / that which I have heard from the LORD of hosts, / the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

11 [The burden of Dumah.]

He calls to me out of Seir, /
"Watchman, what of the night? /
Watchman, what of the night?"

12 The watchman said, /
"The morning comes, and also the night. /
If you will inquire, inquire. Return, come."

13 [The burden upon Arabia.]

In the forest in Arabia you shall lodge, /
O you traveling companies of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema / brought water to him who was thirsty, /
they met with their bread him who fled.

15 For they fled from the swords, / from the drawn sword, / from the bent bow, / and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus the Lord has said to me: "Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail. 17 And the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished. For the LORD God of Israel has spoken it."

Chapter 22

The prophet laments the invasion of Judah and Jerusalem, 1-7. He reproves their human wisdom and worldly joy, 8-14. He prophesies Shebna's deprivation, 15-19, and the substitution of Eliakim, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, 20-25.

1 [The burden of the valley of vision.]

What ails you now, / that you have wholly gone up to the house-tops?

2 The tumultuous city, the joyous city, / is full of noise. /
Your slain men are not slain with the sword, / neither are they dead in battle.

3 All your rulers have fled together. /
They are bound by the archers. /
All who are found in you are bound together. /
They fled far away.

4 Therefore, I said, /
"Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. /
Do not labor to comfort me / because of the devastation of the daughter of my people."

5 For the Lord GOD of hosts has set a day / of trouble, treading down, and perplexity / in the valley of vision, / of breaking down the walls / and crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bore the quiver / with chariots of men and horsemen, / and Kir uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, / that your choicest valleys / shall be full of chariots, / and the horsemen /
shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 And he uncovered the coverings of Judah, / and you looked in that day / to the armor of the house of the forest.

9 You have also seen the breaches of the city of David, that they are many. And you collected the waters of the lower pool. 10 You have numbered the houses of Jerusalem and you have broken down the houses to fortify the wall. 11 You also made a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool.

But you have not looked to its maker, /
neither had respect to him who fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day the Lord GOD of hosts called / to weeping, to mourning, to baldness, / and to girding with sackcloth.

13 And behold, there is joy and gladness, / slaying oxen, killing sheep, / eating flesh, and drinking wine. /
"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we shall die."

14 And it was revealed in my ears / by the LORD of hosts, /
"Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you / until you die," /
says the Lord GOD of hosts.

15 Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: / "Go, get yourself to this treasurer, /
even to Shebna who is over the house, and say,

16 'What are you doing here? And who do you have here / that you have hewed out a sepulcher here for yourself— / cutting himself out a sepulcher on high / and carving a habitation for himself in a rock?

17 Behold, the LORD will carry you away with a mighty captivity / and will surely cover you.

18 With violence he will surely turn / and toss you like a ball into a wide country. /
There you shall die, /
and there the chariots of your glory / shall be the shame of your lord’s house.'

19 And I will drive you from your station, / and from your state he shall pull you down.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, /
that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah,

21 And I will clothe him with your robe / and strengthen him with your girdle, / and I will commit your government into his hand. /
And he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem / and to the house of Judah.

22 And the key of the house of David /
I will lay upon his shoulder. /
So he shall open, and no one shall shut. /
And he shall shut, and no one shall open.

23 And I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. /
And he shall be for a glorious throne to his father’s house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father’s house: the offspring and the descendants, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. 25 In that day," says the LORD of hosts, "the nail that is fastened in the sure place shall give way, be cut down, and fall. And the burden that was upon it shall be cut off. For the LORD has spoken it."

Chapter 23

The miserable overthrow of Tyre, 1-14. Her restoration and lewdness, 15-18.

1 [The burden of Tyre.]

Howl, you ships of Tarshish, / for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. /
From the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be still, you inhabitants of the coastland, / you whom the merchants of Zidon, who pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, / the harvest of the river, is her revenue, / and she is a market of nations.

4 Be ashamed, O Zidon, for the sea has spoken, / even the strength of the sea, saying, /
"I do not travail nor bring forth children, / neither do I nourish young men nor bring up virgins."

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, /
so they shall be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass over to Tarshish. /
Howl, you inhabitants of the coast.

7 Is this your joyous city, / whose antiquity is of ancient days? /
Her own feet shall carry her far off to sojourn.

8 Who has taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, / whose merchants are princes, / whose traders are the honorable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts has purposed it / to stain the pride of all glory /
and to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth.

10 Pass through your land like a river, /
O daughter of Tarshish. There is no more strength.

11 He stretched his hand over the sea. /
He shook the kingdoms. /
The LORD has given a commandment against the merchant city / to destroy its strongholds.

12 And he said, "You shall no longer rejoice, /
O oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon. /
Arise, pass over to Chittim. /
You shall have no rest there also."

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans. This people was not, until the Assyrian founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up its towers, they raised up its palaces, and they brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, you ships of Tarshish, / for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten for seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years, it shall happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot.

16 Take a harp, / go throughout the city, /
you harlot who has been forgotten. / Make sweet melody / and sing many songs / so that you may be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her wages and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. 18 And her merchandise and her wages shall be holiness to the LORD. It shall not be treasured nor laid up, for her merchandise shall be for those who dwell before the LORD, for sufficient food and for durable clothing.

Chapter 24

The doleful judgments of God upon the land, 1-12. A remnant shall joyfully praise him, 13-15. God in his judgments shall advance his kingdom, 16-23.

1 Behold, the LORD makes the earth empty, makes it waste, / turns it upside down, and scatters abroad its inhabitants.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; / as with the servant, so with his master; / as with the woman-servant, so with her mistress; /
as with the buyer, so with the seller; /
as with the lender, so with the borrower; /
as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, / for the LORD has spoken this word.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, / the world languishes and fades away, /
the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth is also defiled under its inhabitants / because they have transgressed the laws, / changed the ordinance, / and broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore, the curse has devoured the earth, / and those who dwell in it are desolate. / Therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned / and few men are left.

7 The new wine mourns, the vine languishes, / all the merry-hearted sigh.

8 The mirth of tambourines ceases. /
The noise of those who rejoice ends. /
The joy of the harp ceases.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song. /
Strong drink shall be bitter to those who drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down. /
Every house is shut up so that no man may enter.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets. /
All joy is darkened, /
the mirth of the land is gone.

12 Desolation is left in the city, / and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 So shall it be in the midst of the land among the people, / like the shaking of an olive-tree, / and like the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice. /
They shall sing for the majesty of the LORD. /
They shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Therefore, glorify the LORD in the fires, / even the name of the LORD God of Israel /
in the coastlands of the sea.

16 From the uttermost part of the earth we have heard songs, / even glory to the righteous. /
But I said, "My leanness, my leanness, /
woe to me! /
The treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously. /
Indeed, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously."

17 Fear, the pit, and the snare are upon you, /
O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, / that he who flees from the noise of the fear / shall fall into the pit, / and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit / shall be taken in the snare, / for the windows from on high are open, / and the foundations of the earth shake.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, / the earth is entirely dissolved, / the earth is exceedingly moved.

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard / and shall sway to and fro like a hammock. /
Its transgression shall be heavy upon it. /
It shall fall and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, / that the LORD shall punish / the host of the high ones who are on high / and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered / as prisoners are gathered in the pit. /
They shall be shut up in the prison, / and after many days they shall be visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded / and the sun ashamed / when the LORD of hosts reigns / on mount Zion, in Jerusalem, / and before his ancients gloriously.

Chapter 25

God is glorious in his judgments on Babel, 1-5, and his people's salvation, 6-12.

1 O LORD, you are my God. /
I will exalt you. I will praise your name, / for you have done wonderful things. /
Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For you have made a city into a heap, /
a fortified city into a ruin, /
a palace of strangers to be no city. /
It shall never be built.

3 Therefore, the strong people shall glorify you, /
the city of the terrible nations shall fear you.

4 For you have been a defense to the poor, / a defense to the needy in his distress, /
a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, / when the blast of the terrible ones / is like a storm against the wall.

5 Like the heat in a dry place, / you will bring down the noise of strangers. /
Like the heat with the shade of a cloud, /
the song of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 And on this mountain / the LORD of hosts will make for all people / a feast of fat things, /
a feast of wines on the dregs, / of fat things full of marrow, / of wines on the dregs well refined.

7 And he will destroy on this mountain /
the face of the covering cast over all people / and the veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will swallow up death in victory. /
And the Lord GOD will wipe away tears / from off all faces, / and the rebuke of his people /
he will remove from all the earth. /
For the LORD has spoken it.

9 And it shall be said in that day, /
"Behold, this is our God. /

We have waited for him, and he will save us. /
This is the LORD. We have waited for him. /
We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

10 For on this mountain the hand of the LORD shall rest, / and Moab shall be trodden down under him, / even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he will spread forth his hands in the midst of them, /
as he who swims spreads forth his hands to swim. /
And he will bring down their pride together / with the tricks of their hands.

12 And the fortress of the high fort of your walls / he will bring down, lay low, / and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

Chapter 26

A song of praise and confidence in God for the blessings of righteousness, judgments on their enemies, and favor to his people, and their chastisement, repentance, and hope, 1-21.

1 In that day this song shall be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city. /
God will appoint salvation for walls and bulwarks.

2 Open the gates /
so that the righteous nation which keeps the truth may enter in.

3 You will keep him in perfect peace, / whose mind is stayed on you, / because he trusts in you.

4 Trust in the LORD forever, / for in the LORD YAHWEH is everlasting strength.

5 For he brings down those who dwell on high. /
The lofty city, he lays it low. /
He lays it low, even to the ground. /
He brings it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, / even the feet of the poor and the steps of the needy."

7 The way of the just is uprightness. /
You, most upright, weigh the path of the just.

8 Even in the way of your judgments, /
O LORD, we have waited for you. /
The desire of our soul /
is to your name and to the remembrance of you.

9 With my soul I have desired you in the night. /
Indeed, with my spirit within me I will seek you early. /
For when your judgments are in the earth, /
the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 Let favor be shown to the wicked, / yet he will not learn righteousness. /
In the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly / and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when your hand is lifted up, / they will not see. /
But they shall see your zeal for the people /
and be put to shame. /
Even the fire of your enemies shall devour them.

12 LORD, you will ordain peace for us, /
for you also have wrought all our works in us.

13 O LORD our God, /
other lords beside you have had dominion over us, /
but by you only we will make mention of your name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live. /
They are deceased, they shall not rise. /
Therefore, you have visited and destroyed them / and made all their memory to perish.

15 You have increased the nation, O LORD, / you have increased the nation. You are glorified. /
You have enlarged all the borders of the land.

16 LORD, in trouble they have visited you. /
They poured out a prayer /
when your chastening was upon them.

17 As a woman with child / who draws near the time of her delivery / is in pain and cries out in her pangs, /
so we have been in your sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child. We have been in pain. /
We have, it seems, brought forth wind. /
We have not wrought any deliverance on the earth, /
neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Your dead men shall live. /
Together with my dead body they shall arise. /
Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust, /
for your dew is like the dew of herbs, / and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 Come, my people, enter into your chambers / and shut your doors around you. / Hide yourself for a little while / until the indignation has passed.

21 For behold, the LORD comes out of his place / to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. /
The earth shall also disclose her blood / and shall no longer cover her slain.

Chapter 27

God’s care over his vineyard, 1-6. His chastisements on them, 7-9. His severe judgments against them, 10, 11. Their return, 12, 13.

1 In that day the LORD with his keen, great, and strong sword will punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent. And he will slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing to her,

"A vineyard of red wine.

3 I, the LORD, keep it. /
I will water it every moment. /
Lest any hurt it, /
I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me. /
Who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? /
I would go through them. /
I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold of my strength / so that he may make peace with me. /
And he shall make peace with me."

6 He shall cause those who descend from Jacob to take root. / Israel shall blossom and bud / and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 Has he smitten him, /
as he smote those who smote him? /
Or is he slain according to the slaughter /
of those who are slain by him?

8 In measure, when it shoots forth, / you will debate with it. /
He stays his rough wind /
in the day of the east wind.

9 By this therefore, the iniquity of Jacob shall be purged, / and this is all the fruit to take away his sin: / when he makes all the stones of the altar / like chalk-stones that are beaten apart, /
the groves and images shall not stand up.

10 Yet the fortified city shall be desolate / and the habitation forsaken and left like a wilderness. /
There the calf shall feed, and there he shall lie down / and consume its branches.

11 When its boughs are withered, / they shall be broken off. /
The women come and set them on fire, / for it is a people of no understanding. / Therefore, he who made them will not have mercy on them, / and he who formed them will show them no favor.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day, / that the LORD shall thresh / from the channel of the river to the stream of Egypt, / and you shall be gathered one by one, O children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, / that the great trumpet shall be blown, / and they shall come who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, / with the outcasts in the land of Egypt, / and shall worship the LORD on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Chapter 28

The prophet threatens Ephraim for their pride and drunkenness, 1-4. The remnant shall be advanced in the kingdom of Christ, 5, 6. He rebukes their error, 7, 8; their being apt to learn, 9-13; and their security, 14, 15. Christ the sure foundation is promised, 16. Their security shall be tried, 17-22. They are incited to the consideration of God’s discreet providence, 23-29.

1 Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, / whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, / who are on the head of the rich valleys / of those who are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one. / Like a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, / like a flood of mighty waters overflowing, / he shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim / shall be trodden under feet.

4 And the glorious beauty, / which is on the head of the rich valley, / shall be a fading flower / and like the early fruit before the summer, / which he who looks upon it sees, / and while it is still in his hand he eats it up.

5 In that day the LORD of hosts will be / for a crown of glory and for a diadem of beauty / to the remnant of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him who sits in judgment, / and for strength to those who turn the battle to the gate.

7 But they also have erred through wine, / and through strong drink are out of the way. /
The priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink. /
They are overwhelmed with wine. /
They are out of the way through strong drink. /
They err in vision. They stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness / so that there is no clean place.

9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? /
And whom shall he make to understand doctrine? /
Those who are weaned from the milk /
and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept, / line upon line, line upon line, /
here a little, and there a little.

11 For with stammering lips and another language /
he will speak to this people,

12 To whom he said, "This is the rest / with which you may cause the weary to rest," / and, "This is the refreshing," / yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was to them / precept upon precept, precept upon precept, /
line upon line, line upon line, /
here a little, and there a little, / so that they might go and fall backward and be broken, / snared, and taken.

14 Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, you scornful men, / who rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because you have said, /
"We have made a covenant with death / and we are in agreement with hell. /
When the overflowing scourge passes through, / it shall not reach us, / for we have made lies our refuge, / and under falsehood we have hid ourselves,"

16 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: /
"Behold, I lay a stone in Zion for a foundation, /
a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation. /
He who believes shall not make haste.

17 I will also lay judgment to the line / and righteousness to the plummet. /
And the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, / and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

18 And your covenant with death shall be made void, / and your agreement with hell shall not stand. /
When the overflowing scourge passes through, / you shall be trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goes forth it shall take you. / For morning by morning it shall pass over, / by day and by night. /
And it shall be a vexation only to understand the report."

20 For the bed is shorter than a man can stretch himself on, / and the covering narrower than he can wrap himself in.

21 For the LORD will rise as on mount Perazim, / he will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon, / so that he may do his work, his strange work, / and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore, do not be mockers, / lest your bonds be made strong, / for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, / even determined upon the whole earth.

23 Give ear and hear my voice. /
Listen and hear my speech.

24 Does the plowman plow all day to sow? /
Does he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he has made even its face, / does he not cast abroad the vetches, scatter the cumin, / cast in the principal wheat, the appointed barley, / and the spelt in their place?

26 For his God instructs him to discretion / and teaches him.

27 For the vetches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, / neither is a cart-wheel turned around upon the cumin. /
But the vetches are beaten out with a staff / and the cumin with a rod.

28 Bread-grain is bruised, / because he will not always be threshing it, / nor break it with the wheel of his cart, / nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also comes forth from the LORD of hosts, / who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in operation.

Chapter 29

God's heavy judgment upon Jerusalem, 1-6. The insatiableness of her enemies, 7, 8. The senselessness, 9-12, and deep hypocrisy of the Jews, 13-16. A promise of sanctification to the godly, 17-24.

1 Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! / Add year to year. /
Let them kill sacrifices.

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, / and there shall be heaviness and sorrow, / and she shall be to me like Ariel.

3 And I will encamp against you all around, / and I will lay siege against you with siege-works / and raise forts against you.

4 And you shall be brought down / and shall speak out of the ground. /
Your speech shall be low out of the dust. /
Your voice shall be out of the ground, / like one who has a familiar spirit. /
And your speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover, the multitude of your strangers / shall be like small dust / and the multitude of the terrible ones / shall be like chaff that passes away. /
It shall even be at an instant, suddenly.

6 You shall be visited by the LORD of hosts / with thunder, with an earthquake, with great noise, / with storm and tempest, / and with the flame of devouring fire.

7 And the multitude of all the nations / who fight against Ariel, / even all who fight against her and her fortress, / and who distress her, / shall be like a dream of a night-vision.

8 It shall even be as when a hungry man dreams, / and behold, he eats, /
but he awakes and his soul is empty, / or as when a thirsty man dreams, / and behold, he drinks, /
but he awakes, and behold, he is faint / and his soul has appetite. / Thus the multitude of all the nations shall be / who fight against mount Zion.

9 Stay yourselves, and wonder. / Cry out, and cry. /
They are drunken, but not with wine. /
They stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For the LORD has poured out upon you / the spirit of deep sleep / and has closed your eyes (the prophets), / and he has covered your heads (the seers).

11 And the vision of all has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is learned, saying, "Read this, I pray you," and he says, "I cannot, for it is sealed." 12 And the book is delivered to him who is not learned, saying, "Read this, I pray you," and he says, "I am not learned."

13 Therefore, the Lord said,

"Because this people draw near to me with their mouth / and honor me with their lips, / but have removed their heart far from me, / and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men, 14 Therefore behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work / among this people, /

even an astonishing work and a wonder. /
For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish / and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid."

15 Woe to those who seek deep / to hide their counsel from the LORD, / and their works are in the dark / and they say, "Who sees us?" and, "Who knows us?"

16 Surely your turning of things upside down / shall be esteemed as the potter’s clay. /
For shall the work say of him who made it, /
"He did not make me"? /
Or shall the thing framed say of him who framed it, /
"He had no understanding"?

17 Is it not yet a very little while, / and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, / and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

18 And in that day the deaf shall hear / the words of the book, / and the eyes of the blind shall see / out of obscurity and out of darkness.

19 The meek shall also increase their joy in the LORD, / and the poor among men shall rejoice / in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the terrible one is brought to nothing / and the scoffer is consumed, / and all who watch for iniquity are cut off,

21 Who make a man an offender for a word, / lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate, / and turn aside the just for a thing of nothing.

22 Therefore, thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:

"Jacob shall not now be ashamed, / neither shall his face now become pale.

23 But when he sees his children, / the work of my hands, in the midst of him, /
they shall sanctify my name / and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, / and shall fear the God of Israel.

24 Those who also erred in spirit shall come to understanding, / and those who murmured shall learn doctrine."

Chapter 30

The prophet threatens the people for their confidence in Egypt, 1-7, and contempt of God's word, 8-17. God's mercies toward his church, 18-26. God's wrath and the people's joy in the destruction of Assyria, 27-33.

1 "Woe to the rebellious children," says the LORD, / "who take counsel, but not from me, / and who cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit, /
so that they may add sin to sin.

2 They walk to go down into Egypt / and have not inquired of me, / to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh / and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 Therefore, the strength of Pharaoh shall be your shame, / and refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

4 For his princes were at Zoan / and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 They were all ashamed / of a people who could not profit them, / neither be a help nor profit, /
but a shame, and also a reproach."

6 [The burden of the beasts of the south.]

Into the land of trouble and anguish, / where the young and the old lion / and the viper and flying serpent come from, / they will carry their riches / upon the shoulders of young donkeys / and their treasures upon the bunches of camels / to a people who shall not profit them.

7 For the Egyptian shall help in vain and to no purpose. / Therefore, I have called her, /
"Rahab who sits still."

8 Now go, write it before them in a tablet / and note it in a book, / so that it may be for the time to come /
forever and ever,

9 That this is a rebellious people, / lying children, / children who will not hear the law of the LORD,

10 Who say to the seers, "Do not see," / and to the prophets, /
"Do not prophesy to us right things. /
Speak to us smooth things. /
Prophesy deceits.

11 Withdraw from the way. /
Turn aside from the path. / Cause the Holy One of Israel / to cease from before us."

12 Therefore, thus says the Holy One of Israel: /
"Because you despise this word / and trust in oppression and perverseness / and lean upon it,

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you / like a breach ready to fall, / swelling out in a high wall, / whose breaking comes suddenly at an instant.

14 And he shall break it / like the breaking of the potter’s vessel, / breaking it in pieces without sparing, / so that there shall not be found in its bursting / a piece to take fire from the hearth / or to take water out of the pit."

15 For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: /
"In returning and rest you shall be saved. /
In quietness and in confidence your strength shall be." /
And you have not been willing.

16 But you said, "No, for we will flee upon horses." /
Therefore, you shall flee. /
And you also said, "We will ride upon the swift." /
Therefore, those who pursue you shall be swift.

17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one. /
At the rebuke of five you shall flee / until you are left / like a beacon upon the top of a mountain / and like an ensign on a hill.

18 And therefore, the LORD will wait / so that he may be gracious to you, / and therefore, he will be exalted / so that he may have mercy upon you, / for the LORD is a God of judgment. / Blessed are all those who wait for him.

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You shall no longer weep. He will be very gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When he hears it, he will answer you. 20 And though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers will not be hidden anymore, but your eyes shall see your teachers. 21 And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," when you turn to the right hand and when you turn to the left. 22 You shall also defile the covering of your engraved images of silver and the ornament of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away like a polluted cloth. You shall say to it, "Be gone from me."

23 Then he shall give the rain of your seed, with which you shall sow the ground, and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous. In that day your livestock shall feed in large pastures. 24 The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that plow the ground shall eat clean provender, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. 25 And there shall be upon every high mountain and upon every high hill rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. 26 Moreover, the light of the moon shall be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, like the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD binds up the breach of his people and heals the stroke of their wound.

27 Behold, the name of the LORD comes from far, / burning with his anger, and its burden is heavy. / His lips are full of indignation / and his tongue is like a devouring fire.

28 And his breath is like an overflowing stream, / reaching to the midst of the neck, / to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity. /
And a bridle shall be put in the jaws of the people, / causing them to err.

29 You shall have a song, as in the night, / when a holy solemnity is kept, / and gladness of heart, / as when one goes with a pipe / to come upon the mountain of the LORD, / to the mighty One of Israel.

30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard / and shall show the descent of his arm, / with the indignation of his anger, / with the flame of a devouring fire, / with scattering, tempest, and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the LORD / the Assyrian shall be beaten down, / who smote with a rod.

32 And in every place where the grounded staff passes, / which the LORD lays upon him, /
it shall be with tambourines and harps. /
And in battles of shaking he will fight with it.

33 For Tophet is ordained of old. / Indeed, for the king it is prepared. /
He has made it deep and large. /
Its pile is fire and much wood. /
The breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, / kindles it.

Chapter 31

The prophet shows the folly and danger of trusting to Egypt and forsaking God, 1-5. He exhorts to conversion, 6, 7. He shows the fall of Assyria, 8, 9.

1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt / for help and rely on horses, / who trust in chariots because they are many / and in horsemen because they are very strong, / but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, /
neither seek the LORD!

2 Yet he is also wise / and will bring evil / and will not call back his words, / but will arise against the house of the evil-doers / and against the help of those who work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men and not God, / and their horses flesh and not spirit. /
When the LORD stretches out his hand, / both he who helps shall fall / and he who is helped shall fall down, / and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus the LORD has spoken to me: /
"As the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey / when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, / and he will not be afraid of their voice / nor abase himself for their noise, / so the LORD of hosts will come down / to fight for mount Zion and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, / so the LORD of hosts will defend Jerusalem. /
Defending, he will also deliver it. /
And passing over, he will preserve it."

6 Turn to him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. 7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made for you for a sin.

8 "Then the Assyrian shall fall by the sword, / but not one of a man. /
And the sword shall devour him, /
but not one of a mortal. /
But he shall flee from the sword, / and his young men shall be forced labor.

9 And he shall pass over to his stronghold for fear, / and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign," / says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion / and his furnace in Jerusalem.

Chapter 32

The blessings of Christ’s kingdom, 1-8. Desolation is foreshown, 9-14. Restoration is promised to succeed, 15-20.

1 Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness / and princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And a man shall be like a hiding-place from the wind / and a covert from the tempest, / like streams of water in a dry place, / like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of those who see shall not be dim, / and the ears of those who hear shall listen.

4 The heart of the rash / shall understand knowledge, / and the tongue of the stammerers / shall be ready to speak plainly.

5 The vile person shall no longer be called liberal, / nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villainy, / and his heart will work iniquity, / to practice hypocrisy / and to utter error against the LORD, / to make the soul of the hungry empty, / and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments of the churl are evil. /
He devises wicked devices / to destroy the poor with lying words, / even when the needy speaks right.

8 But the liberal devises liberal things, / and by liberal things he shall stand.

9 Rise up, you women who are at ease. /
Hear my voice, you careless daughters. /
Give ear to my speech.

10 Many days and years you shall be troubled, / you careless women, / for the vintage shall fail, /
the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, you women who are at ease. /
Be troubled, you careless ones. / Strip, make yourselves bare, / and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the breasts, / for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of my people / thorns and briers shall come up, / and also upon all the houses of joy / in the joyous city.

14 For the palaces shall be forsaken, / the multitude of the city shall be left, / the forts and towers shall be for dens forever, /
a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks,

15 Until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, / and the wilderness is a fruitful field, / and the fruitful field is counted as a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, / and righteousness shall remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace, / and the effect of righteousness / shall be quietness and assurance forever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, /
in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places,

19 When it hails, coming down on the forest, / and the city is utterly laid low.

20 Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, / who send forth the feet of the ox and the donkey.

Chapter 33

God’s judgments against the enemies of the church, 1-12. The consternation of sinners and privileges of the godly, 13-24.

1 Woe to you destroyer, / and you were not laid waste, / and you who deal treacherously, / and they did not deal treacherously with you! /
When you cease to lay waste, /
you shall be wasted, / and when you make an end to deal treacherously, / they shall deal treacherously with you.

2 O LORD, be gracious to us. /
We have waited for you. /
Be their arm every morning / and our salvation in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled. /
At the lifting up of yourself the nations were scattered.

4 And your plunder shall be gathered / like the gathering of the ravaging-locust. /

As the running to and fro of locusts /
he shall run upon them.

5 The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high. /
He has filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of your times / and strength of salvation. /
The fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry outside. /
The ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 The highways lie waste, /
the way-faring man ceases. /
He has broken the covenant. /
He has despised the cities. /
He regards no man.

9 The earth mourns and languishes. /
Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down. /
Sharon is like a wilderness. /
And Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

10 "Now I will rise," says the LORD. /
"Now I will be exalted. /
Now I will lift up myself.

11 You shall conceive chaff. /
You shall bring forth stubble. /
Your breath, like a fire, shall devour you.

12 And the people shall be like the burnings of lime. /
Like thorns cut up they shall be burned in the fire.

13 You who are far off, hear what I have done. /
And you who are near, acknowledge my might."

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid. / Fearfulness has surprised the hypocrites. /
"Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? /
Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?"

15 He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly, / he who despises the gain of oppressions, / who shakes his hands from holding of bribes, / who stops his ears from hearing about blood / and shuts his eyes from seeing evil,

16 He shall dwell on high. /
His place of defense shall be the fortresses of rocks. /

Bread shall be given to him. His waters shall be sure.

17 Your eyes shall see the king in his beauty. /
They shall behold the land that is very far off.

18 Your heart shall meditate terror. /
"Where is the scribe? Where is the receiver? / Where is he who counted the towers?"

19 You shall not see a fierce people, / a people of deeper speech than you can perceive, / of a stammering tongue that you cannot understand.

20 Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities. /
Your eyes shall see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, /
a tabernacle that shall not be taken down. / Not one of its stakes shall ever be removed, / neither shall any of its cords be broken.

21 But there the glorious LORD will be for us / a place of broad rivers and streams, / in which no galley with oars shall go, / neither shall gallant ship pass through it.

22 For the LORD is our judge. /
The LORD is our lawgiver. /
The LORD is our king. /
He will save us.

23 Your tacklings are loosened. /
They could not well strengthen their mast. /
They could not spread the sail. /
Then the loot of a great plunder is divided. /
The lame take the plunder.

24 And the inhabitants shall not say, "I am sick." /
The people who dwell therein / shall have their iniquity forgiven.

Chapter 34

The judgments with which God revenges his church, 1-10. The desolation of her enemies, 11-15. The certainty of the prophecy, 16, 17.

1 Come near, you nations, to hear. /
And listen, you people. /
Let the earth hear, and all that is in it, /
the world, and all things that spring from it.

2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations / and his fury upon all their armies. /

He has utterly destroyed them. /
He has delivered them to the slaughter.

3 Their slain shall also be cast out, / and their ill smell shall come up from their carcasses. /
The mountains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, / and the heavens shall be rolled together like a scroll. / And all their hosts shall fall down / as the leaf falls from the vine / and like a falling fig from the fig-tree.

5 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven. / Behold, it shall come down upon Edom / and upon the people of my curse to judgment.

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood. /
It is made fat with fatness, / with the blood of lambs and goats, / with the fat of the kidneys of rams. /
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah / and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

7 And the wild oxen shall come down with them, / and the young bulls with the strong bulls. /
And their land shall be drenched with blood / and their dust made fat with fatness.

8 For it is the day of the LORD’S vengeance, / and the year of recompenses / for the controversy of Zion.

9 And its streams shall be turned into pitch / and its dust into brimstone, / and its land shall become burning pitch.

10 It shall not be quenched night or day. /
Its smoke shall ascend forever. /
From generation to generation it shall lie waste. /
None shall pass through it forever and ever.

11 But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it. /
The owl and the raven shall dwell in it. /
And he shall stretch out upon it /
the line of confusion and the stones of emptiness.

12 They shall call her nobles to the kingdom, / but no one shall be there, / and all her princes shall be nothing.

13 And thorns shall come up in her palaces, / nettles and brambles in her fortresses, / and it shall be a habitation of jackals / and a court for owls.

14 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wolves, / and the wild goat shall cry to his fellow. /
The screech-owl shall also rest there / and find for herself a place of rest.

15 There the great owl shall make her nest, lay, / and hatch and gather under her shadow. /
There the vultures shall also be gathered, / each with her mate.

16 Seek out of the book of the LORD, and read. /
Not one of these shall fail. /
Not one shall lack her mate. /
For my mouth has commanded, / and his Spirit has gathered them.

17 And he has cast the lot for them, / and his hand has divided it to them by line. /
They shall possess it forever. /
From generation to generation they shall dwell therein.

Chapter 36

Sennacherib invades Judah, 1. Rabshakeh, sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasions solicits the people to revolt, 2-21. His words are told to Hezekiah, 22.

4 And Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: "What confidence is this in which you trust? 5 You say (but they are only vain words), 'I have counsel and strength for the war.' Now in whom do you trust that you rebel against me? 6 Behold, you trust in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will enter his hand and pierce it. Thus Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who trust in him. 7 But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'? 8 Now therefore, give pledges, I pray you, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you can on your part set riders upon them. 9 How then will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? 10 And have I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.'"'"

11 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Speak, I pray you, to your servants in the Syrian language, for we understand it. And do not speak to us in the Jew's language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall." 12 But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit upon the wall, who will have to devour their vilest excretions with you?"

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jew's language and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. 14 Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you, 15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us. This city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria." 16 Do not listen to Hezekiah,' for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make an agreement with me by a present and come out to me. And each of you eat from his vine, and each from his fig-tree, and each of you drink the waters from his own cistern 17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. 18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? 20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, who have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?'"

21 But they held their peace and did not answer him a word, for the king's commandment was, saying, "Do not answer him." 22 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

Chapter 37

Hezekiah, mourning, sends to Isaiah to pray for them, 1-5. Isaiah comforts them, 6, 7. Sennacherib, going to encounter Tirhakah, sends a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah, 8-13. Hezekiah's prayer, 14-20. Isaiah's prophecy of the pride and destruction of Sennacherib and the good of Zion, 21-35. An angel slays the Assyrians, 36. Sennacherib is slain at Nineveh by his own sons, 37, 38.

1 And it came to pass when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. 2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. 3 And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of trouble, of rebuke, and of blasphemy, for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. 4 It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'"

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. 6 And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master: 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. 7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'"

8 So Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. 9 And he heard it said concerning Tirhakah king of Cush: "He has come forth to make war with you." And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10 "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." 11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly. And shall you be delivered? 12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?'"

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. And Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD. 15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying, 16 "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. 17 Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear. Open your eyes, O LORD, and see. And hear all the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to reproach the living God. 18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their countries 19 And have cast their gods into the fire, for they were not gods, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone. Therefore, they have destroyed them. 20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are the LORD, even you only."

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, 22 This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

> "The virgin, the daughter of Zion, / > has despised you and derided you. /
> The daughter of Jerusalem / > has shaken her head at you.
>
> 23 Whom have you reproached and blasphemed? /
> And against whom have you exalted your voice / > and lifted your eyes on high? / > Even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 By your servants you have reproached the Lord / and have said, 'By the multitude of my chariots /
I have come up to the height of the mountains, / to the sides of Lebanon, / and I will cut down its tall cedars / and its choice fir-trees, / and I will enter into the height of its border, /
the forest of its fruitful field.

25 I have dug and drank water, / and with the sole of my feet I have dried up / all the rivers of the besieged places.'

26 Have you not heard long ago, / how I have done it, / and of ancient times, that I have formed it? / Now I have brought it to pass, / that you should lay waste fortified cities / into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore, their inhabitants were of small power. /
They were dismayed and confounded. /
They were like the grass of the field, / like the green herb, / like the grass on the house-tops, / and like grain blasted before it is grown up.

28 But I know your sitting down, / your going out, your coming in, / and your rage against me.

29 Because your rage against me / and your tumult have come up into my ears, / therefore I will put my hook in your nose / and my bridle in your lips, / and I will turn you back by the way /
by which you came.

30 "And this shall be a sign to you: you shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and the second year that which springs of the same, and in the third year sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. 31 And the remnant of the house of Judah who have escaped shall again take root downward and bear fruit upward. 32 For out of Jerusalem a remnant shall go forth, and out of mount Zion those who escape. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this."'

33 "Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: 'He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a siege-mound against it. 34 By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and shall not come into this city,' says the LORD. 35 'For I will defend this city to save it for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.'"

36 Then the angel of the LORD went forth and smote one hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. And when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. 37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went and returned and dwelt at Nineveh. 38 And it came to pass as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 38

Hezekiah, having received a message of death, by prayer has his life lengthened, 1-7. The sun goes ten degrees backward for a sign of that promise, 8. His song of thanksgiving, 9-22.

1 In those days Hezekiah was sick with a mortal disease. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Set your house in order, for you shall die, and not live.'" 2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall and prayed to the LORD 3 And said, "Remember now, O LORD, I implore you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart and have done that which is good in your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying, 5 "Go and say to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add to your days fifteen years. 6 And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. And I will defend this city."'

7 "And this shall be a sign to you from the LORD that the LORD will do this thing that he has spoken: 8 Behold, I will bring back the shadow of the degrees, which has gone down on the sun-dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward." So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it had gone down.

9 [The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness.]

10 I said, "In the cutting off of my days, /
I shall go to the gates of the grave. /
I am deprived of the remainder of my years."

11 I said, "I shall not see the LORD, / even the LORD, in the land of the living. /
I shall no longer behold man / with the inhabitants of the world.

12 My dwelling is plucked up and carried away from me / like a shepherd’s tent. /
I have cut off my life like a weaver. /
He will cut me off with pining sickness. /
From day even to night you will make an end of me.

13 I reckoned until morning, that as a lion, / so he will break all my bones. /
From day even to night you will make an end of me.

14 Like a crane or a swallow, so I chattered. /
I mourned like a dove. /
My eyes fail with looking upward. /
O LORD, I am oppressed. Undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? He has both spoken to me, / and he himself has done it. /
I shall go softly all my years /
in the bitterness of my soul.

16 O Lord, by these things men live, / and in all these things is the life of my spirit. /
So you will recover me and make me to live.

17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness. /
But you have in love to my soul delivered it / from the pit of corruption, / for you have cast all my sins behind your back.

18 For the grave cannot praise you, / death cannot celebrate you. /
Those who go down into the pit / cannot hope for your truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise you, / as I do this day. /
The father shall make known your truth to the children.

20 The LORD was ready to save me; / therefore, we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments / all the days of our life in the house of the LORD."

21 For Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he will recover." 22 Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

Chapter 39

Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah because of the wonder, has notice of his treasures, 1, 2. Isaiah, understanding this, foretells the Babylonian captivity, 3-8.

1 At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that he had been sick and had recovered. 2 And Hezekiah rejoiced over them and showed them the house of his precious things: the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious ointment, all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them. 3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say? And from where did they come to you?" And Hezekiah said, "They have come to me from a far country, even from Babylon." 4 Then he said, "What have they seen in your house?" And Hezekiah answered, "All that is in my house they have seen. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them."

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: 6 'Behold, the days come, that all that is in your house and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left,' says the LORD. 7 'And of your sons who shall issue from you, which you shall beget, they shall take away and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'" 8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "Good is the word of the LORD which you have spoken." He said moreover, "For there shall be peace and truth in my days."

Chapter 40

The promulgation of the Gospel, 1, 2. The preaching of John the Baptist, 3-8. The preaching of the apostles, 9-11. The prophet, by the omnipotence of God, 12-17, and his incomparableness, 18-25, comforts the people, 26-31.

1 "Comfort, comfort my people," / says your God.

2 "Speak comfortably to Jerusalem, / and cry to her, /
that her warfare is accomplished, / that her iniquity is pardoned, / for she has received from the LORD’S hand / double for all her sins."

3 The voice of him who cries in the wilderness, /
"Prepare the way of the LORD. /
Make straight in the desert /
a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, / every mountain and hill shall be made low, /
the crooked shall be made straight, / and the rough places plain.

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, / and all flesh together shall see it. /
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."

6 The voice said, "Cry." /
And he said, "What shall I cry?" /
All flesh is grass, / and all its goodliness is like the flower of the field.

7 The grass withers, the flower fades, / because the spirit of the LORD blows upon it. / Surely the people are grass.

8 The grass withers, the flower fades, /
but the word of our God shall stand forever.

9 O Zion, who brings good tidings, / go up upon the high mountain. /
O Jerusalem, who brings good tidings, / lift up your voice with strength. /
Lift it up, do not be afraid. /
Say to the cities of Judah, /
"Behold your God!"

10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come with a strong hand, / and his arm will rule for him. / Behold, his reward is with him /
and his work before him.

11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd. /
He will gather the lambs with his arm / and carry them in his bosom, / and will gently lead those who are with young.

12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, / measured heaven with the span, / comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, / and weighed the mountains in scales / and the hills in a balance?

13 Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, / or being his counselor has taught him?

14 With whom did he take counsel, / and who instructed him, / taught him in the path of judgment, / taught him knowledge, / and showed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket / and are counted as the small dust on the balance. /
Behold, he takes up the islands like a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, / nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing, / and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 To whom then will you compare God? /
Or what likeness will you compare to him?

19 The workman melts an engraved image, / and the goldsmith spreads it over with gold / and casts silver chains.

20 He who is so impoverished that he has no oblation / chooses a tree that will not rot. /
He seeks for himself a skillful workman / to prepare an engraved image that shall not be moved.

21 Have you not known? Have you not heard? /
Has it not been told to you from the beginning? /
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is he who sits upon the circle of the earth, / and its inhabitants are like locusts, / who stretches out the heavens like a curtain / and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.

23 He brings the princes to nothing / and makes the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 They have hardly been planted, / they have hardly been sown, / their stem has hardly taken root in the earth, / and then he blows upon them and they wither, / and the whirlwind takes them away like stubble.

25 "To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal?" / says the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high / and behold who has created these things, / who brings out their host by number. /
He calls them all by name. /
By the greatness of his might / and because he is strong in power, / not one fails.

27 Why do you say, O Jacob, / and speak, O Israel, "My way is hid from the LORD, / and my judgment is passed over by my God"?

28 Have you not known? Have you not heard? /
The everlasting God, the LORD, / the Creator of the ends of the earth, / does not faint, neither is weary. /

There is no searching of his understanding.

29 He gives power to the faint, / and to those who have no might he increases strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, / and the young men shall utterly fall,

31 But those who wait upon the LORD / shall renew their strength. /
They shall mount up with wings like eagles. /
They shall run and not be weary. /
They shall walk and not faint.

Chapter 41

God expostulates with his people about his mercies to the church, 1-9, about his promises, 10-20, and about the vanity of idols, 21-29.

1 "Keep silence before me, O coastlands, / and let the people renew their strength. /
Let them come near, then let them speak. /
Let us come near together for judgment.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, / called him to his foot, / gave the nations before him, / and made him rule over kings? /
He gave them as the dust to his sword / and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them and passed safely, /
even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who has wrought and done it, / calling the generations from the beginning? / I, the LORD, the first / and with the last, I am he."

5 The coastlands saw it and feared. /
The ends of the earth were afraid, / drew near, and came.

6 They each helped his neighbor, / and each said to his brother, /
"Be of good courage."

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, / and he who smooths with the hammer / encouraged him who smote the anvil, / saying, "It is ready for the soldering." /
And he fastened it with nails / so that it should not be moved.

8 "But you, Israel, are my servant, /
Jacob whom I have chosen, /
the offspring of Abraham my friend,

9 You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth / and called you from the chief men thereof / and said to you, 'You are my servant. /
I have chosen you and not cast you away.'

10 Do not fear, for I am with you. /
Do not be dismayed, for I am your God. /
I will strengthen you and I will even help you. /
I will also uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all those who were incensed against you / shall be ashamed and confounded. /
They shall be as nothing. /
And those who contend with you shall perish.

12 You shall seek them and shall not find them, / even those who contended with you. /
Those who war against you / shall be as nothing, as a thing that does not exist.

13 For I, the LORD your God, / will hold your right hand, / saying to you, 'Do not fear. /
I will help you.'

14 Do not fear, you worm Jacob / and you men of Israel. /
I will help you," says the LORD, /
"and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make you a new sharp threshing instrument / having teeth. /
You shall thresh the mountains and beat them small, / and shall make the hills like chaff.

16 You shall fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, / and the whirlwind shall scatter them. /
And you shall rejoice in the LORD / and glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water and there is none, / and their tongue fails for thirst, /

I, the LORD, will hear them. /
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places / and fountains in the midst of the valleys. /
I will make the wilderness a pool of water / and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, /
the shittah-tree, the myrtle, and the oil-tree. /
I will set in the desert the fir-tree, the pine, /
and the box-tree together,

20 So that they may see, know, / consider, and understand together, / that the hand of the LORD has done this, / and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

21 Produce your cause," says the LORD. /
"Bring forth your strong reasons," says the King of Jacob.

22 "Let them bring them forth and show us / what shall happen. /
Let them show the former things, what they are, / so that we may consider them / and know the latter end of them. /
Or declare to us things to come.

23 Show the things that are to come hereafter / so that we may know that you are gods. /
Indeed, do good or do evil /
so that we may be dismayed and behold it together.

24 Behold, you are of nothing, / and your work is of nothing. /
He who chooses you is an abomination.

25 I have raised up someone from the north, and he shall come. /
From the rising of the sun he shall call upon my name. /
And he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, / like the potter who treads the clay.

26 Who has declared from the beginning / so that we may know, / and beforehand /
so that we may say, 'He is righteous'? /
Surely, there is no one who shows. /
Surely, there is no one who declares. /
Surely, there is no one who hears your words.

27 The first shall say to Zion, /

'Behold, behold them.' /
And I will give to Jerusalem /
a herald of good tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man, / even among them, and there was no counselor, / who, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity. /
Their works are nothing. /
Their molten images are wind and confusion."

Chapter 42

The office of Christ, graced with meekness and constancy, 1-4. God's promise to him, 5-9. An exhortation to praise God for his Gospel, 10-12. God will manifest himself and check idolatry, 13-17. He reproves the people of incredulity, 18-25.

1 "Behold my servant, whom I uphold, / my elect, in whom my soul delights. /
I have put my Spirit upon him. /
He shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, / nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed he shall not break, / and the smoking flax he shall not quench. /
He shall bring forth judgment to truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged / until he has set judgment in the earth. /
And the coastlands shall wait for his law."

5 Thus says God the LORD, / he who created the heavens / and expanded them, /
he who spread forth the earth / and that which it produces, / he who gives breath to the people upon it /
and spirit to those who walk therein:

6 "I, the LORD, have called you in righteousness, / and I will hold your hand. /
I will keep you / and give you as a covenant to the people, /
as a light to the Gentiles,

7 To open the blind eyes, / to bring out the prisoners from the prison, / and those who sit in darkness out of the prison-house.

8 I am Yahweh. That is my name. /
And I will not give my glory to another, / neither my praise to engraved images.

9 Behold, the former things have come to pass, / and new things I declare. / Before they spring forth I tell you of them."

10 Sing to the LORD a new song, / and his praise from the end of the earth, / you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, /
the islands, and their inhabitants.

11 Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice, / the villages that Kedar inhabits. /
Let the inhabitants of the rock sing. /
Let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory to the LORD / and declare his praise in the coastlands.

13 The LORD will go forth like a mighty man, /
he will stir up jealousy like a man of war. /
He will cry and even roar. /
He will prevail against his enemies.

14 "I have for a long time held my peace. /
I have been still and restrained myself. /
Now I will cry like a travailing woman. /
I will destroy and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills / and dry up all their herbs. /
And I will make the rivers to be islands, / and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they did not know. /
I will lead them in paths that they have not known. /
I will make darkness light before them, / and crooked things straight. /
I will do these things for them, /
and not forsake them."

17 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, / who trust in engraved images, / who say to the molten images, /
"You are our gods."

18 Hear, you deaf, / and look, you blind, so that you may see.

19 Who is blind, but my servant, / or deaf, as my messenger whom I sent? /

Who is blind as he who is perfect, / and blind as the LORD’S servant?

20 Seeing many things, you do not observe. /
Opening the ears, he does not hear.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake. /
He will magnify the law and make it honorable.

22 But this is a people robbed and pillaged. /
All of them are snared in holes, / and they are hid in prison-houses. /
They are for plunder, and no one delivers, / for loot, and no one says, "Restore."

23 Who among you will give ear to this? /
Who will listen and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for plunder and Israel to the robbers? / Was it not the LORD, /
he against whom we have sinned? /
For they would not walk in his ways, / neither were they obedient to his law.

25 Therefore, he has poured upon him the fury of his anger / and the strength of battle. /
It has set him on fire around, yet he did not know. /
It burned him, yet he did not lay it to heart.

Chapter 43

The Lord comforts the church with his promises, 1-7. He appeals to the people for witness of his omnipotence, 8-13. He foretells them the destruction of Babylon, 14-17, and his wonderful deliverance of his people, 18-21. He reproves the people as inexcusable, 22-28.

1 But now thus says the LORD who created you, O Jacob, / and he who formed you, O Israel: /
"Do not fear, for I have redeemed you. /
I have called you by your name. You are mine.

2 When you pass through the waters, /
I will be with you. /
And [when you pass] through the rivers, /
they shall not overflow you. /
When you walk through the fire, /

you shall not be burned, /
neither shall the flame kindle upon you.

3 For I am the LORD your God, / the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. /
I gave Egypt for your ransom, /
Cush and Seba for you.

4 Since you have been precious in my sight, / you have been honorable, / and I have loved you, / therefore I will give men in your stead / and people for your life.

5 Do not fear, for I am with you. /
I will bring your offspring from the east / and gather you from the west.

6 I will say to the north, 'Give up,' / and to the south, 'Do not keep back.' / Bring my sons from far / and my daughters from the ends of the earth,

7 Even everyone who is called by my name, / for I have created him for my glory. /
I have formed him. Truly, I have made him."

8 Bring forth the blind people who have eyes / and the deaf who have ears.

9 Let all the nations be collected / and let the people be assembled. / Who among them can declare this / and show us former things? /
Let them bring forth their witnesses /
so that they may be justified. /
Or let them hear and say, "It is truth."

10 "You are my witnesses," says the LORD, /
"and my servant whom I have chosen, / so that you may know and believe me / and understand that I am he. / Before me there was no god formed, / neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, am the LORD, / and besides me there is no savior.

12 I have declared, and have saved, / and I have shown, / when there was no strange god among you; / therefore, you are my witnesses," / says the LORD, "that I am God.

13 Even before the day was, I am he. /
And there is no one who can deliver out of my hand. /
I will work, and who shall hinder it?"

14 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, /
the Holy One of Israel: /
"For your sake I have sent to Babylon / and have brought down all their nobles / and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, /
the Creator of Israel, your King."

16 Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea / and a path in the mighty waters,

17 Who brings forth the chariot and horse, /
the army and the power /
(they shall lie down together, they shall not rise, /
they are extinct, they are quenched like tow):

18 "Do not remember the former things, / neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing. /
Now it shall spring forth. Shall you not know it? /
I will even make a way in the wilderness /
and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honor me, / the jackals and the owls, / because I give waters in the wilderness /
and rivers in the desert /
to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people I have formed for myself, /
they shall show forth my praise.

22 Yet you have not called upon me, O Jacob, / but you have been weary of me, O Israel.

23 You have not brought me the sheep of your burnt-offerings, /
neither have you honored me with your sacrifices. /
I have not caused you to serve with an offering, / nor wearied you with incense.

24 You have bought me no sweet cane with money, / neither have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices. /
But you have made me to serve with your sins, /
you have wearied me with your iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he / who blots out your transgressions for my own sake / and will not remember your sins.

26 Put me in remembrance. Let us plead together. /
Declare, so that you may be justified.

27 Your first father has sinned, / and your teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore, I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, / and have given Jacob to the curse / and Israel to reproaches."

Chapter 44

God comforts the church with his promises, 1-6. The vanity of idols, 7, 8, and folly of idol makers, 9-20. He exhorts to praise God for his redemption and omnipotence, 21-28.

1 "Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant, / and Israel, whom I have chosen.

2 Thus says the LORD who made you / and formed you from the womb, who will help you: /
'Do not fear, O Jacob, my servant, /
and you, Jesurun, whom I have chosen,

3 For I will pour water upon him who is thirsty / and floods upon the dry ground. /
I will pour my Spirit upon your descendants / and my blessing upon your offspring.

4 And they shall spring up among the grass / like willows by the watercourses.'

5 One shall say, 'I am the LORD’S,' / and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob, / and another shall write with his hand, 'To the LORD,' / and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus says the LORD the King of Israel, / and his redeemer the LORD of hosts: /
'I am the first, and I am the last, / and besides me there is no God.

7 And who is like me? /
Let him call and declare it and set it in order for me, /
since I appointed the ancient people. /
And the things that are coming, and shall come, / let them declare these to them.

8 Do not fear, neither be afraid. /
Have I not told you from that time and declared it? /
You are even my witnesses. /
Is there a God besides me? / Truly there is no God. I do not know any.'"

9 Those who make an engraved image are all of them vanity, and their delectable things shall not profit, and they are their own witnesses. They neither see nor know so that they may be ashamed. 10 Who has formed a god or cast an engraved image, which is profitable for nothing? 11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed. The workmen, they are only men. Let them all be assembled. Let them stand up. Yet they shall fear and they shall be ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs works in the coals, fashions it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms. Indeed, he is hungry and his strength fails. He drinks no water and is faint. 13 The carpenter stretches out his rule. He marks it out with a line. He fits it with planes and marks it out with the compass. He makes it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, so that it may remain in the house. 14 He hews down cedars for himself and takes the cypress and the oak, which he strengthens for himself among the trees of the forest. He plants an ash, and the rain nourishes it. 15 Then it shall be for a man to burn, for he will take some of it and warm himself. Indeed he kindles it and bakes bread. He even makes a god and worships it. He makes it an engraved image and falls down to it. 16 He burns part of it in the fire. With part of it he eats flesh. He roasts meat and is satisfied. Indeed, he warms himself and says, "Aha, I am warm. I have seen the fire." 17 And from the rest of it he makes a god, even his engraved image. He falls down to it, worships it, and prays to it and says, "Deliver me, for you are my god."

18 They have not known nor understood, for he has shut their eyes so that they cannot see, and their hearts so that they cannot understand. 19 And no one considers in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, "I have burned part of it in the fire. I have also baked bread upon its coals. I have roasted flesh and eaten it. And shall I make the rest of it an abomination? Shall I fall down to a block of wood?" 20 He feeds on ashes. A deceived heart has turned him aside so that he cannot deliver his soul or say, "Is there not a lie in my right hand?"

21 "Remember these, O Jacob / and Israel, for you are my servant. /
I have formed you. You are my servant. /
O Israel, you shall not be forgotten by me.

22 I have blotted out your transgressions like a thick cloud, / and your sins like a cloud. / Return to me, for I have redeemed you."

23 Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it. /
Shout, you lower parts of the earth. /
Break forth into singing, you mountains, /
O forest, and every tree therein, / for the LORD has redeemed Jacob / and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus says the LORD your Redeemer / and he who formed you from the womb: /
"I am the LORD who makes all things, / who stretches forth the heavens alone, / who spreads abroad the earth by myself,

25 Who frustrates the tokens of the liars / and makes diviners mad, / who turns wise men backward / and makes their knowledge foolish,

26 Who confirms the word of his servant / and performs the counsel of his messengers, / who says to Jerusalem, 'You shall be inhabited,' / and to the cities of Judah, 'You shall be built, / and I will raise up her decayed places,'

27 Who says to the deep, 'Be dry,' / and I will dry up your rivers,

28 Who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd, / and he shall perform all my pleasure,' / even saying to Jerusalem, 'You shall be built,' / and to the temple, 'Your foundation shall be laid.'"

Chapter 45

God calls Cyrus for his church's sake, 1-4. By his omnipotence he challenges obedience, 5-19. He convinces the idols of vanity by his saving power, 20-25.

1 Thus says the LORD to his anointed, / to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held / to subdue nations before him, / and I will ungird the loins of kings, / to open before him the two-leaved gates, / and the gates shall not be shut:

2 "I will go before you / and make the crooked places straight. /

I will break in pieces the gates of brass / and cut apart the bars of iron.

3 And I will give you the treasures of darkness / and hidden riches of secret places / so that you may know that I, the LORD, / who call you by your name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant’s sake / and Israel my elect, /
I have even called you by your name. /
I have surnamed you, though you have not known me.

5 I am the LORD, and there is no one else. /
There is no God besides me. /
I girded you, though you have not known me,

6 So that they may know / from the rising of the sun and from the west, / that there is no one besides me. /
I am the LORD, and there is no one else.

7 I form the light and create darkness. /
I make peace and create evil. /
I, the LORD, do all these things.

8 Drop down, you heavens, from above, / and let the skies pour down righteousness. /
Let the earth open, / and let them bring forth salvation, / and let righteousness spring up together. /
I, the LORD, have created it.

9 Woe to him who contends with his Maker! /
Let the potsherd contend with the potsherds of the earth. / Shall the clay say to him who fashions it, /
'What are you making?' /
Or shall your work say, /
'He has no hands'?

10 Woe to him who says to his father, /
'What are you begetting?' / or to the woman, /
'What have you brought forth?'"

11 Thus says the LORD, / the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: /
"You ask me about things to come concerning my sons, /
and you command me concerning the work of my hands.

12 I have made the earth, / and created man upon it. /

I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, / and all their host I have commanded.

13 I have raised him up in righteousness / and I will direct all his ways. /
He shall build my city / and let my captives go, / not for price nor reward," /
says the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus says the LORD: /
"The labor of Egypt and merchandise of Cush, / along with the Sabeans, men of stature, / shall come over to you, / and they shall be yours. /
They shall come after you. /
In chains they shall come over, / and they shall fall down to you. /
They shall make supplication to you, saying, /
'Surely God is in you, and there is no one else. /
There is no other God.'"

15 Truly you are a God who hides yourself, /
O God of Israel, the Savior.

16 They shall be ashamed and also confounded, all of them. /
They shall go in disgrace together who are makers of idols.

17 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD / with an everlasting salvation. /
You shall not be ashamed nor confounded / to a world without end.

18 For thus says the LORD who created the heavens / (God himself / who formed the earth and made it, / who has established it, / who did not create it in vain, / who formed it to be inhabited): /
"I am the LORD, and there is no one else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, / in a dark place of the earth. /
I have not said to the offspring of Jacob, /
'Seek me in vain.' /
I, the LORD, speak righteousness. /
I declare things that are right.

20 Assemble yourselves and come. / Draw near together, /

you who have escaped of the nations. /
They have no knowledge /
who set up the wood of their engraved image / and pray to a god that cannot save.

21 Announce, and bring them near, / even let them take counsel together. /
Who has declared this from ancient time? /
Who has told it from that time? /
Have I, the LORD, not? /
And there is no other God besides me, / a just God and a Savior. /
There is no one besides me.

22 Look to me and be saved, / all the ends of the earth, /
for I am God, and there is no one else.

23 I have sworn by myself, /
the word has gone out of my mouth in righteousness / and shall not return, / that to me every knee shall bow, / every tongue shall swear.

24 Surely they will say of me, /
'In the LORD I have righteousness and strength.' /
Even to him men shall come. /
And all who are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 In the LORD all the offspring of Israel / shall be justified and shall glory."

Chapter 46

The idols of Babylon could not save themselves, 1, 2. God saves his people to the end, 3, 4. Idols are not comparable to God for power, 5-11, or present salvation, 12, 13.

1 Bel bows down and Nebo stoops. /
Their idols were upon the beasts and upon the livestock. /
Your loads were heavy. /
They were a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoop. They bow down together. /
They could not deliver the burden, /
but they themselves have gone into captivity.

3 "Listen to me, O house of Jacob, / and all the remnant of the house of Israel, / which are borne by me from the birth, / which are carried from the womb.

4 And even to your old age I am he. /
And even to hoary hairs I will carry you. /
I have made and I will bear. /
I will even carry and will deliver you.

5 To whom will you compare me and make me equal, / and compare me so that we may be alike?

6 They lavish gold out of the bag / and weigh silver in the balance. /
They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god. /
They fall down and they even worship.

7 They bear him upon the shoulder. /
They carry him and set him in his place and he stands. /
From his place he shall not move. /
Indeed, one shall cry to him, yet he cannot answer / nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and stand firm. /
Bring it back to mind, O transgressors.

9 Remember the former things of old, / for I am God, and there is no one else. /
I am God, and there is no one like me,

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, / and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, / saying, 'My counsel shall stand, / and I will do all my pleasure;'

11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, /
the man who executes my counsel from a far country. /
I have spoken it and I will also bring it to pass. /
I have purposed it and I will also perform it.

12 Listen to me, you stout-hearted, / who are far from righteousness.

13 I bring my righteousness near. /
It shall not be far off, / and my salvation shall not delay. /
And I will place salvation in Zion / for Israel my glory."

Chapter 47

God’s judgment upon Babylon and Chaldea for their unmercifulness, 1-6. Their pride and other sins, 7-10. Their enchantments shall not deliver them, 11-15.

1 "Come down and sit in the dust, /
O virgin daughter of Babylon. /
Sit on the ground without a throne, /
O daughter of the Chaldeans. /
For you shall no longer be called / tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones and grind meal. /
Remove your veil. /
Make the leg bare. Uncover the thigh. /
Pass over the rivers.

3 Your nakedness shall be uncovered. /
Even your shame shall be seen. /
I will take vengeance, / and I will spare no man."

4 As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, /
the Holy One of Israel.

5 "Sit silent and go into darkness, /
O daughter of the Chaldeans, /
for you shall no longer be called, /
The Mistress of Kingdoms.

6 I was angry with my people. /
I have polluted my inheritance / and given them into your hand. /
You showed them no mercy. / Upon the ancient / you have very heavily laid your yoke.

7 And you said, /
'I shall be a mistress forever,' /
so that you did not lay these things to your heart, / neither remembered its latter end.

8 Now therefore, hear this, you who are given to pleasures, / who dwell carelessly, / who say in your heart, /
'I am, and no one else besides me. /
I shall not sit as a widow, / neither shall I know the loss of children.'

9 But these two things shall come to you / in a moment in one day: /
the loss of children and widowhood. /
They shall come upon you in their perfection /
in spite of the multitude of your sorceries / and in spite of the great abundance of your enchantments.

10 For you have trusted in your wickedness. /
You have said, 'No one sees me.' /
Your wisdom and your knowledge, /
it has perverted you. /
And you have said in your heart, /
'I am, and no one else besides me.'

11 Therefore, evil shall come upon you. /
You shall not know from where it rises. /
And mischief shall fall upon you. /
You shall not be able to put it off. /
And desolation shall come upon you suddenly, / which you shall not know.

12 Stand now with your enchantments / and with the multitude of your sorceries / in which you have labored from your youth. /
It may be you are able to profit. /
Perhaps you may prevail.

13 You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels. /
Now let the astrologers, the star-gazers, /
and the monthly prognosticators / stand up and save you / from these things that shall come upon you.

14 Behold, they shall be like stubble. /
The fire shall burn them. /
They shall not deliver themselves /
from the power of the flame. /
There shall not be a coal to warm them /
or a fire to sit by.

15 Thus they shall be to you / with whom you have labored, /
even your merchants, from your youth. /
They shall each wander to his quarter. /
No one shall save you."

Chapter 48

God, to convince the people of their foreknown obstinacy, revealed his prophecies, 1-8. He saves them for his own sake, 9-11. He exhorts them to obedience because of his power and providence, 12-15. He laments their backwardness, 16-19. He powerfully delivers his people out of Babylon, 20-22.

1 "Hear this, O house of Jacob, / who are called by the name of Israel / and have come forth out of the waters of Judah, / who swear by the name of the LORD / and make mention of the God of Israel, /
but not in truth nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves after the holy city, / and stay themselves upon the God of Israel. /
The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning, / and they went forth from my mouth, / and I proclaimed them. /
I did them suddenly / and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that you are obstinate, / and your neck is an iron sinew and your brow brass,

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to you. / Before it came to pass I showed it to you, / lest you should say, 'My idol has done them, / and my engraved image and my molten image / has commanded them.'

6 You have heard it. See all of this. /
And will you not declare it? /
I have showed you new things from this time, /
even hidden things, and you did not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning, / even before the day when you did not hear them, / lest you should say, 'Behold, I knew them.'

8 Indeed, you did not hear. /
Indeed, you did not know. /
Indeed, from that time your ear was not opened. /
For I knew that you would deal very treacherously / and were called a transgressor from the womb.

9 For my name’s sake I will defer my anger, / and for my praise I will refrain for you, /
so that I do not cut you off.

10 Behold, I have refined you, but not with silver. /
I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.

11 For my own sake, even for my own sake, I will do it. /
For how should my name be profaned? /
And I will not give my glory to another.

12 Listen to me, O Jacob, / and Israel my called. /
I am he. I am the first. /
I am also the last.

13 My hand has also laid the foundation of the earth, / and my right hand has spanned the heavens. /
When I call to them, /
they stand up together.

14 All of you, assemble yourselves and hear. /
Who among them has declared these things? /
The LORD has loved him. /
He will do his pleasure on Babylon, / and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken. /
Indeed, I have called him. /
I have brought him, /
and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 Come near to me. Hear this. /
I have not spoken in secret from the beginning. /
From the time that it was, there I am. /
And now the Lord GOD and his Spirit has sent me."

17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, /
the Holy One of Israel: /
"I am the LORD your God, /
who teaches you to profit, / who leads you by the way that you should go.

18 O that you had listened to my commandments! /
Then your peace would have been like a river / and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

19 Your descendants also would have been like the sand, / and the offspring of your body like its grains. /
His name should not have been cut off / nor destroyed from before me."

20 Go forth from Babylon. / Flee from the Chaldeans. /
With a voice of singing / declare, tell this, / and utter it even to the end of the earth, / saying, "The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob."

21 And they did not thirst / when he led them through the deserts. /
He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them. /

He also cleaved the rock and the waters gushed out.

22 "There is no peace," /
says the LORD, "for the wicked."

Chapter 49

The designation of Christ, under the type of Isaiah, to his office as Mediator, 1-3. He is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises, 4-12. God's love is perpetual to his church, 13-17. The ample restoration of the church, 18-23. The powerful deliverance out of captivity, 24-26.

1 Listen to me, O islands, / and listen, you people, from far. /
The LORD has called me from the womb. /
From the body of my mother /
he has made mention of my name.

2 And he has made my mouth like a sharp sword. /
In the shadow of his hand he has hid me. /
He made me a polished shaft, /
and in his quiver he has hid me.

3 And he said to me, "You are my servant, /
O Israel, in whom I will be glorified."

4 Then I said, "I have labored in vain. /
I have spent my strength for nothing and in vain. /
Yet surely my judgment is with the LORD / and my work with my God."

5 And now, the LORD says, / who formed me from the womb to be his servant / to bring Jacob back to him, / though Israel is not gathered / (yet I shall be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, / and my God shall be my strength),

6 And he said, "It is a light thing / that you should be my servant / to raise up the tribes of Jacob / and to restore the preserved of Israel. /
I will also give you as a light to the Gentiles / so that you may be my salvation / to the end of the earth."

7 Thus says the LORD, / the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, / to him whom man despises, / to him whom the nation abhors, / to a servant of rulers: /

"Kings shall see and arise, / princes also shall worship, / because of the LORD who is faithful, / and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose you."

8 Thus says the LORD: /
"In an acceptable time I have heard you, / and in a day of salvation I have helped you. / And I will preserve you and give you / as a covenant to the people, / to establish the earth, /
to cause to inherit the desolate heritages,

9 So that you may say to the prisoners, 'Go forth,' / and to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves.' /
They shall feed in the ways, /
and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall neither hunger nor thirst, / neither shall the heat or sun smite them, / for he who has mercy on them shall lead them, /
even by the springs of water he shall guide them.

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, / and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come from far. /
And behold, these from the north and from the west, / and these from the land of Sinim."

13 Sing, O heavens, and be joyful, O earth, / and break forth into singing, O mountains, / for the LORD has comforted his people /
and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me, / and my Lord has forgotten me."

15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child, / that she should not have compassion / on the son of her womb? / Even they may forget, / yet I will not forget you.

16 Behold, I have engraved you / upon the palms of my hands. /
Your walls are continually before me.

17 Your children shall make haste. / Your destroyers and those who made you waste / shall go forth from you.

18 Lift up your eyes around and behold. /
All these assemble themselves and come to you. /
As I live," says the LORD, /
"you shall surely clothe yourself with them all / as with an ornament, / and bind them on yourself /
as a bride does.

19 For your waste and your desolate places / and the land of your destruction / shall even now be too narrow /
by reason of the inhabitants. /
And those who swallowed you up / shall be far away.

20 The children which you shall have, / after you have lost the other, / shall say again in your ears, /
'The place is too narrow for me. /
Give place to me so that I may dwell.'

21 Then you shall say in your heart, / 'Who has begotten these for me, / seeing I have lost my children and am desolate, / a captive, and wandering to and fro? /
And who has brought these up? /
Behold, I was left alone. /
These, where have they been?'"

22 Thus says the Lord GOD: /
"Behold, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles / and set up my standard to the people. /
And they shall bring your sons in their arms, / and your daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be your nursing fathers, / and their queens your nursing mothers. /
They shall bow to you with their face toward the earth /
and lick up the dust of your feet. /
And you shall know that I am the LORD, /
for they shall not be ashamed who wait for me.

24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, / or the lawful captive delivered?"

25 But thus says the LORD: /
"Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, / and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered, / for I will contend with him who contends with you, / and I will save your children.

26 And I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh, / and they shall be drunken with their own blood, / as with sweet wine. /
And all flesh shall know / that I, the LORD, am your Savior / and your Redeemer, /
the mighty One of Jacob."

Chapter 50

Christ shows that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save, 1-4; by his obedience in that work, 5, 6; and by his confidence in that assistance, 7-9. An exhortation to trust in God and not in ourselves, 10, 11.

1 Thus says the LORD: /
"Where is the bill of your mother’s divorcement, / whom I have put away? /
Or which of my creditors is it / to whom I have sold you? / Behold, for your iniquities you have sold yourselves, /
and for your transgressions your mother is put away.

2 Why, when I came, was there no man? /
Why, when I called, was there no one to answer? /
Is my hand shortened at all so that it cannot redeem? /
Or have I no power to deliver? /
Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea. /
I make the rivers a wilderness. /
Their fish become putrid because there is no water / and die for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness / and I make sackcloth their covering."

4 The Lord GOD has given me / the tongue of the learned / so that I should know how to speak a word /
in season to him who is weary. /
He wakens morning by morning. /
He wakens my ear /
to hear as the learned.

5 The Lord GOD opened my ear, / and I was not rebellious, / neither turned away backward.

6 I gave my back to the smiters / and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair. /
I did not hide my face from shame and spitting.

7 For the Lord GOD will help me; / therefore, I shall not be confounded. / Therefore, I have set my face like a flint, / and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 He is near who justifies me. /
Who will contend with me? /
Let us stand together. /
Who is my adversary? /
Let him come near to me.

9 Behold the Lord GOD will help me. /
Who is he who shall condemn me? /
Behold, all of them shall wax old like a garment. /
The moth shall eat them up.

10 Who is among you who fears the LORD, / who obeys the voice of his servant, / who walks in darkness and has no light? / Let him trust in the name of the LORD / and rely upon his God.

11 Behold, all you who kindle a fire, / who encompass yourselves with sparks, / walk in the light of your fire / and in the sparks that you have kindled. /
This you shall have from my hand: / you shall lie down in sorrow.

Chapter 51

An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ, 1, 2, by reason of his comfortable promises, 3, of his righteous salvation, 4-6, and man's mortality, 7, 8. Christ by his sanctified arm defends his people from the fear of man, 9-16. He bewails the afflictions of Jerusalem, 17-20, and promises deliverance, 21-23.

1 "Listen to me, you who follow after righteousness, / you who seek the LORD. /
Look to the rock from where you are hewn, / and to the hole of the pit from where you are dug.

2 Look to Abraham your father / and to Sarah who bore you, / for I called him alone, / blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD will comfort Zion. /

He will comfort all her waste places, / and he will make her wilderness like Eden / and her desert like the garden of the LORD. /
Joy and gladness shall be found therein, /
thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

4 Listen to me, my people, / and give ear to me, O my nation. /
For a law shall proceed from me, / and I will make my judgment to rest /
as a light to the people.

5 My righteousness is near. / My salvation has gone forth, / and my arms shall judge the people. /
The coastlands shall wait upon me, /
and in my arm they shall trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens / and look upon the earth beneath, / for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, /
the earth shall become old like a garment, / and its inhabitants shall die in a like manner. /
But my salvation shall be forever, / and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 Listen to me, you who know righteousness, / the people in whose heart my law is. / Do not fear the reproach of men, / neither be afraid of their revilings.

8 For the moth shall eat them like a garment, / and the worm shall eat them like wool. /
But my righteousness shall be forever, / and my salvation from generation to generation."

9 Awake, awake, put on your strength, /
O arm of the LORD. /
Awake, as in the ancient days, /
in the generations of old. /
Is it not you who cut Rahab / and wounded the dragon?

10 Is it not you who dried the sea, / the waters of the great deep, / who has made the depths of the sea a way / for the ransomed to pass over?

11 Therefore, the redeemed of the LORD shall return / and come with singing to Zion, / and everlasting joy shall be upon their head. /

They shall obtain gladness and joy. /
Sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 "I, even I, am he who comforts you. / Who are you, that you should be afraid / of a man who shall die, /
and of the son of man /
who shall be made as grass,

13 That you forget the LORD your maker, / who has stretched forth the heavens / and laid the foundations of the earth, / and that you have feared continually every day / because of the fury of the oppressor, /
as if he were ready to destroy? /
And where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hastens so that he may be released. /
He shall not die in the pit, / neither shall his bread fail.

15 But I am the LORD your God / who divided the sea, whose waves roared. /
The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And I have put my words in your mouth / and have covered you in the shadow of my hand, / so that I may plant the heavens, / lay the foundations of the earth, / and say to Zion, 'You are my people.'"

17 Awake, awake, / stand up, O Jerusalem, / which have drank from the hand of the LORD /
the cup of his fury. /
You have drank the dregs of the cup of trembling / and wrung them out.

18 There is no one to guide her / among all the sons whom she has brought forth, / neither is there any who takes her by the hand / of all the sons whom she has brought up.

19 There are two things that have come to you / (who shall be sorry for you?): / they are desolation and destruction, / famine and the sword. /
By whom shall I comfort you?

20 Your sons have fainted. /
They lie at the head of all the streets /

like a gazelle in a net. /
They are full of the fury of the LORD, /
the rebuke of your God.

21 Now therefore, hear this, you afflicted / and drunken, but not with wine.

22 Thus says your Lord Yahweh, / and your God who pleads the cause of his people: /
"Behold, I have taken out of your hand / the cup of trembling, /
even the dregs of the cup of my fury. /
You shall no longer drink it again.

23 But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you, / who have said to your soul, /
'Prostrate yourself so that we may go over.' /
And you have laid your body like the ground, / like the street for those passing by."

Chapter 52

Christ persuades the church to believe his free redemption, 1-6, to receive the ministers thereof, 7, 8, to joy in the power thereof, 9, 10, and to free themselves from bondage, 11, 12. Christ's kingdom shall be exalted, 13-15.

1 Awake, awake, /
put on your strength, O Zion. /
Put on your beautiful garments, /
O Jerusalem, the holy city. /
For from now on the uncircumcised and the unclean / shall no longer come into you.

2 Shake yourself from the dust. / Arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem. /
Release yourself from the bonds of your neck, /
O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus says the LORD: "You have sold yourselves for nothing, and you shall be redeemed without money." 4 For thus says the Lord GOD: "My people went down formerly into Egypt to sojourn there, and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. 5 Now therefore, what do I have here," says the LORD, "that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them make them to howl," says the LORD, "and my name continually every day is blasphemed. 6 Therefore, my people shall know my name. Therefore, they shall know in that day that I am he who speaks, 'Behold, it is I.'"

7 How beautiful upon the mountains / are the feet of him who brings good tidings, / who publishes peace, / who brings good tidings of good, / who publishes salvation, / who says to Zion, /
"Your God reigns!"

8 Your watchmen shall lift up their voices. /
With their voices together they shall sing, / for they shall see eye to eye, / when the LORD brings back Zion.

9 Break forth into joy, sing together, / you waste places of Jerusalem, /
for the LORD has comforted his people, /
he has redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD has made his holy arm bare / in the eyes of all the nations. / And all the ends of the earth shall see / the salvation of our God.

11 Depart, depart, go out from there. / Touch no unclean thing. / Go out of the midst of her. Be clean, / you who bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For you shall not go out with haste / nor go by flight, / for the LORD will go before you, / and the God of Israel will be your rear-ward.

13 Behold, my servant shall deal prudently. /
He shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at you / (his visage was so marred more than any man, / and his form more than the sons of men),

15 So he shall sprinkle many nations. /
The kings shall shut their mouths at him, / for that which had not been told to them they shall see, / and that which they had not heard they shall consider.

Chapter 53

The prophet, lamenting incredulity, excuses the scandal of the cross, 1-3, by the benefit of his passion, 4-9, and the good success thereof, 10-12.

1 Who has believed our report? /
And to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant / and as a root out of a dry ground. /
He has no form nor majesty. And when we see him, /
there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected by men, / a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief. /
And like one from whom we hide our faces, /
he was despised, and we did not esteem him.

4 Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows, / yet we esteemed him stricken, / smitten by God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions. /
He was bruised for our iniquities. /
The chastisement of our peace was upon him, /
and with his stripes we are healed.

6 We have all like sheep gone astray. /
We have each turned to his own way, / and the LORD has laid on him /
the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed and he was afflicted, / yet he did not open his mouth. /
As a lamb is led to the slaughter, / and as a sheep before her shearers is mute, /
so he did not open his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment. /
And who shall declare his generation? /
For he was cut off from the land of the living. /
For the transgression of my people he was stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, / and with the rich in his death, / because he had done no violence, /
neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him. /
He has put him to grief. /
When you make his soul an offering for sin, /

he shall see his offspring. /
He shall prolong his days, / and the pleasure of the LORD / shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul / and shall be satisfied. /
By his knowledge /
my righteous servant shall justify many, / for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore, I will divide to him a portion with the great, / and he shall divide the plunder with the strong, / because he has poured out his soul to death /
and he was numbered with the transgressors. /
And he bore the sin of many / and made intercession for the transgressors.

Chapter 54

The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesies the amplitude of their church, 1-3; their safety, 4, 5; their certain deliverance out of affliction, 6-10; their fair edification, 11-14; and their sure preservation, 15-17.

1 "Sing, O barren, you who did not bear. / Break forth into singing and cry aloud, /
you who did not travail with child. /
For more are the children of the desolate / than the children of the married wife," /
says the LORD.

2 "Enlarge the place of your tent, /
and let them extend the curtains of your habitations. / Do not spare, /
lengthen your cords, /
and strengthen your stakes,

3 For you shall break forth on the right hand and on the left, / and your offspring shall inherit the Gentiles / and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Do not fear, / for you shall not be ashamed. /
Do not be confounded, / for you shall not be put to shame. /

For you shall forget the shame of your youth, / and shall not remember the reproach / of your widowhood anymore.

5 For your maker is your husband. /
The LORD of hosts is his name. /
And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. /
He shall be called The God of the Whole Earth.

6 For the LORD has called you / like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, / even like a wife of youth when she is refused," /
says your God.

7 "For a small moment I have forsaken you, / but with great mercies I will gather you.

8 In a little wrath /
I hid my face from you for a moment, /
but with everlasting kindness /
I will have mercy on you," / says the LORD your Redeemer.

9 "For this is like the waters of Noah to me. /
For as I have sworn that the waters of Noah / shall no longer overflow the earth, / so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you / nor rebuke you.

10 For the mountains shall depart / and the hills be removed, / but my kindness shall not depart from you, / neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed," / says the LORD who has mercy on you.

11 "Oh you afflicted, tossed with tempest / and not comforted, /
behold, I will lay your stones with fair colors /
and lay your foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make your windows of agates, / your gates of carbuncles, / and all your borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all your children shall be taught from the LORD, / and the peace of your children shall be great.

14 In righteousness you shall be established. /
You shall be far from oppression, /
for you shall not fear. /
You shall be far from terror, /
for it shall not come near you.

15 Behold, they shall surely assemble, but not by me. /
Whoever assembles against you shall fall for your sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith / who blows the coals in the fire / and brings forth an instrument for his work. /
And I have created the waster to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper. /
And every tongue that rises against you in judgment / you shall condemn. /
This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, / and their righteousness is from me," /
says the LORD.

Chapter 55

The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calls to faith, 1-5, and to repentance, 6, 7. The happy success of those who believe, 8-13.

1 "Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters, / and he who has no money, / come, buy, and eat. /
Yes, come, buy wine and milk / without money and without price.

2 Why do you spend money for that which is not bread, / and your labor for that which does not satisfy? / Listen diligently to me, and eat that which is good, / and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear and come to me. /
Hear, and your soul shall live. /
And I will make an everlasting covenant with you, / even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, /
a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, you shall call a nation that you do not know, / and nations that did not know you shall run to you / because of the LORD your God / and because of the Holy One of Israel, / for he has glorified you."

6 Seek the LORD while he may be found. /
Call upon him while he is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way / and the unrighteous man his thoughts. / And let him return to the LORD, / and he will have mercy upon him, / and to our God, /
for he will abundantly pardon.

8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, / neither are your ways my ways," says the LORD.

9 "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, / so are my ways higher than your ways /
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain comes down, / and the snow from heaven, / and does not return there, / but waters the earth / and makes it bring forth and bud / so that it may give seed to the sower /
and bread to the eater,

11 So shall my word be that proceeds from my mouth. /
It shall not return to me void, / but it shall accomplish that which I please / and prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

12 For you shall go out with joy / and be led forth with peace. /
The mountains and the hills / shall break forth before you into singing, / and all the trees of the field / shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn, / the fir-tree shall come up, / and instead of the brier, /
the myrtle-tree shall come up, / and it shall be to the LORD for a name, / for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off."

Chapter 56

The prophet exhorts to sanctification, 1, 2. He promises it shall be general, without respect of persons, 3-8. He draws up a charge against blind watchmen, 9-12.

1 Thus says the LORD: /
"Keep judgment and do justice, / for my salvation is near to come / and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man who does this, / and the son of man who lays hold upon it, / who keeps the sabbath from profaning it, / and keeps his hand from doing any evil."

3 Do not let the son of the stranger, / who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, /
"The LORD has utterly separated me from his people," / neither let the eunuch say, /
"Behold, I am a dry tree."

4 For thus says the LORD: /
"To the eunuchs who keep my sabbaths / and choose the things that please me / and take hold of my covenant,

5 Even to them I will give in my house / and within my walls a place and a name / better than that of sons and daughters. /
I will give them an everlasting name /
that shall not be cut off.

6 Also, the sons of the stranger / who join themselves to the LORD to serve him, / to love the name of the LORD, / and to be his servants, /
everyone who keeps the sabbath from profaning it / and takes hold of my covenant,

7 Even them I will bring to my holy mountain / and make them joyful in my house of prayer. /
Their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices / shall be accepted upon my altar, / for my house shall be called / a house of prayer for all people."

8 The Lord GOD who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, /
"Yet I will gather others to him, /
besides those who are gathered to him."

9 All you beasts of the field, come to devour, / even all you beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are blind. /
They are all ignorant. /
They are all mute dogs /
that cannot bark. /
They are sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Indeed, they are greedy dogs / which can never have enough, / and they are shepherds / who cannot understand. /
They all look to their own way, /
each for his gain, from his quarter.

12 "Come," they say, "I will bring wine, / and we will fill ourselves with strong drink, / and tomorrow shall be like this day, / and much more abundant."

Chapter 57

The blessed death of the righteous, 1, 2. God reproves the Jews for their lewd idolatry, 3-12. He gives promises of mercy to the penitent, 13-21.

1 The righteous perish, / and no man lays it to heart. / And merciful men are taken away, / no one considering / that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

2 He shall enter into peace. /
They shall rest in their beds, / each one walking in his uprightness.

3 "But draw near here, / you sons of the sorceress, /
the offspring of the adulterer and the lewd.

4 Who are you mocking? / Against whom do you make a wide mouth / and thrust out the tongue? /
Are you not children of transgression, / offspring of falsehood,

5 Inflaming yourselves with idols / under every green tree, / slaying the children in the valleys / under the cliffs of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion. /
They, they are your lot. /
Even to them you have poured a drink-offering. /
You have offered a food-offering. / Should I receive comfort in these?

7 Upon a lofty and high mountain / you have set your bed. /
Even there you went up /
to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors and also the posts / you have set up your remembrance, / for you have uncovered yourself / to someone other than me / and have gone up. /
You have enlarged your bed /
and made yourself a covenant with them. /
You loved their bed / where you saw it.

9 And you went to the king with ointment / and increased your perfumes. /
You sent your messengers far off, / and debased yourself even to hell.

10 You are wearied in the greatness of your way, / yet you did not say, 'There is no hope.' /
You have found the life of your hand; / therefore, you were not grieved.

11 And of whom have you been afraid or feared, / so that you have lied and not remembered me /
nor laid it to your heart? / Have I not held my peace even of old, / and you do not fear me?

12 I will declare your righteousness and your works, / for they shall not profit you.

13 When you cry, let your companies deliver you. /
But the wind shall carry them all away. /
Vanity shall take them. /
But he who puts his trust in me shall possess the land / and shall inherit my holy mountain."

14 He shall say, /
"Cast up, cast up, prepare the way, / take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people."

15 For thus says the high and lofty One / who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: /
"I dwell in the high and holy place, / with him also who is of a contrite and humble spirit, / to revive the spirit of the humble / and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend forever, / neither will I always be angry, / for the spirit would fail before me— /
the souls which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness /
I was angry and smote him. /
I hid myself and was angry, / and he went on backsliding / in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways and will heal him. /
I will also lead him /
and restore comforts to him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips. / Peace, peace to him who is far off / and to him who is near," /
says the LORD, /
"and I will heal him."

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea / when it cannot rest, / whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 "There is no peace," /
says my God, "for the wicked."

Chapter 58

The prophet, being sent to reprove hypocrisy, shows the difference between a counterfeit fast and a true fast, 1-7. He declares what promises are due to godliness, 8-12, and to the keeping of the sabbath, 13, 14.

1 "Cry aloud, do not spare. /
Lift up your voice like a trumpet. / Show my people their transgression, / and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily / and delight to know my ways, / like a nation that did righteousness / and did not forsake the ordinance of their God. /
They ask of me the ordinances of justice. /
They take delight in approaching to God.

3 'Why have we fasted,' they say, 'and you do not see? /
Why have we afflicted our soul, and you take no knowledge?' /

Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure / and exact all your labors.

4 Behold, you fast for strife and debate / and to smite with the fist of wickedness. /
You shall not fast as you do this day / to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is this the fast that I have chosen: / a day for a man to afflict his soul? /
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush /
and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? /
Will you call this a fast / and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is this not the fast that I have chosen: / to release the bonds of wickedness, / to undo the heavy burdens, / and to let the oppressed go free, / and that you break every yoke?

7 Is it not to deal your bread to the hungry, / and that you should bring the poor who are cast out to your house, / when you see the naked that you should cover him, / and that you should not hide yourself from your own flesh?

8 Then your light shall break forth like the morning, / and your health shall spring forth speedily. /
And your righteousness shall go before you. /
The glory of the LORD shall be your rear-ward.

9 Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer. /
You shall cry, and he will say, 'Here I am.' /
If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, /
the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity,

10 And if you draw out your soul to the hungry / and satisfy the afflicted soul, / then your light shall rise in obscurity / and your darkness shall be like the noon day.

11 And the LORD will guide you continually, / satisfy your soul in drought, / and make your bones fat. /
And you shall be like a watered garden / and like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.

12 And those amidst you shall build the old waste places. /
You shall raise up the foundations of many generations, / and you shall be called, The Repairer of the Breach, /
The Restorer of Paths to Dwell In.

13 If you turn away your foot from the sabbath, / from doing your pleasure on my holy day, / and call the sabbath a delight, / and the holy [day] of the LORD honorable, / and honor him, not doing your own ways, / nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words,

14 Then you shall delight yourself in the LORD, / and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of the earth / and feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father. /
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."

Chapter 59

The calamities of the Jews not owing to lack of saving power in God, but to their own enormous sins, 1-15. Salvation is only of God, 16-19. The covenant of the Redeemer, 20, 21.

1 Behold, the LORD’S hand is not shortened / so that it cannot save, / neither his ear heavy /
so that it cannot hear.

2 But your iniquities have come between / and separated you and your God, / and your sins have hid his face from you /
so that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood / and your fingers with iniquity. /
Your lips have spoken lies, / your tongue has uttered perverseness.

4 No one calls for justice, / nor any pleads for truth. /
They trust in vanity and speak lies. /
They conceive mischief and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch adders' eggs / and weave the spider’s web. /
He who eats their eggs dies, / and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, / neither shall they cover themselves with their works. / Their works are works of iniquity, / and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, / and they make haste to shed innocent blood. /
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity. / Wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they do not know, / and there is no judgment in their goings. /
They have made themselves crooked paths. /
Whoever goes therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore, judgment is far from us, / neither does justice overtake us. /
We wait for light, but behold obscurity, / for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, / and we grope as if we had no eyes. /
We stumble at noon day as in the night. /
Among those who are strong we are like dead men.

11 We all roar like bears / and mourn bitterly like doves. /
We look for judgment, but there is none, /
for salvation, but it is far from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before you / and our sins testify against us, / for our transgressions are with us, /
and as for our iniquities, we know them,

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, / and departing away from our God, / speaking oppression and revolt, / conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, / and justice stands afar off. /
For truth has fallen in the street, / and equity cannot enter.

15 Indeed, truth fails. /
And he who departs from evil makes himself plunder. /
And the LORD saw it, and it displeased him /
that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was no man, / and wondered that there was no intercessor; / therefore, his arm brought salvation to him, / and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he put on righteousness as a breast-plate, / and a helmet of salvation upon his head. /
And he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, / and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay: / fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies. /
To the coastlands he will repay recompense.

19 So they shall fear the name of the LORD from the west, / and his glory from the rising of the sun. /
When the enemy comes in like a flood, / the Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him.

20 "And the Redeemer will come to Zion / and to those in Jacob who turn from transgression," /
says the LORD.

21 "As for me, this is my covenant with them," says the LORD. "My Spirit who is upon you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your children, nor out of the mouth of your children's children," says the LORD, "from now on and forever."

Chapter 60

The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 1-14, and the great blessings after a short affliction, 15-22.

1 "Arise, shine, for your light has come, / and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

2 For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, / and gross darkness the people, / but the LORD will arise upon you, / and his glory will be seen upon you.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to your light, / and kings to the brightness of your rising.

4 Lift up your eyes around and see. /
They all assemble themselves. They come to you. /
Your sons shall come from far, / and your daughters shall be nursed at your side.

5 Then you shall see and flow together, / and your heart shall fear and be enlarged, / because the abundance of the sea shall be converted to you, / the forces of the Gentiles shall come to you.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover you, / dromedaries of Midian and Ephah. /
All those from Sheba shall come. /
They shall bring gold and incense / and show forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you. /
The rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you. /
They shall come up with acceptance on my altar, / and I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these who fly like a cloud, / like doves to their windows?

9 Surely the coastlands shall wait for me, / and the ships of Tarshish first, / to bring your sons from far, / their silver and their gold with them, / to the name of the LORD your God / and to the Holy One of Israel, / because he has glorified you.

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up your walls, / and their kings shall minister to you, / for in my wrath I smote you, / but in my favor I have had mercy on you.

11 Therefore, your gates shall be open continually. /
They shall not be shut, day or night, / so that men may bring to you the forces of the Gentiles, / with their kings being led in procession.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish. /
Indeed, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, / the fir-tree, the pine-tree, and the box-tree together, / to beautify the place of my sanctuary. /
And I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons of those who afflicted you / shall also come bending to you. /
And all those who despised you / shall bow themselves down / at the soles of your feet. /
And they shall call you, The City of the LORD, /

The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas you have been forsaken and hated / so that no man went through you, /
I will make you an eternal excellence, /
a joy of many generations.

16 You shall also drink the milk of the Gentiles / and shall nurse from the breast of kings. /
And you shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior / and your Redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, / for iron I will bring silver, / for wood, brass, / and for stones, iron. /
I will also make your officers peace / and your exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no longer be heard in your land, / wasting nor destruction within your borders, / but you shall call your walls Salvation / and your gates Praise.

19 The sun shall no longer be your light by day, / neither for brightness shall the moon give light to you, /
but the LORD will be to you an everlasting light, / and your God will be your glory.

20 Your sun shall go down no more, / neither shall your moon withdraw itself, / for the LORD will be your everlasting light, / and the days of your mourning shall be ended.

21 Your people shall also be all righteous. /
They shall inherit the land forever, /
the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, /
so that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand / and a small one a strong nation. /
I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time."

Chapter 61

The office of Christ, 1-3. The forwardness, 4-6, and blessings of the faithful, 7-11.

1 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me / because the LORD has anointed me / to publish good tidings to the meek. /
He has sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, / to proclaim liberty to the captives / and the opening of the prison to those who are bound,

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD / and the day of vengeance of our God, /
to comfort all who mourn,

3 To appoint to those who mourn in Zion, / to give to them beauty for ashes, /
the oil of joy for mourning, /
the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. /
And they will be called trees of righteousness, /
the planting of the LORD, so that he may be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wastes, / they shall raise up the former desolations, / and they shall repair the waste cities, /
the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, / and the sons of the foreigner / shall be your plowmen and your vine-dressers.

6 But you shall be named Priests of the LORD. /
Men shall call you Ministers of Our God. /
You shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, / and in their glory you shall boast yourselves.

7 Instead of your shame you shall have double. /
Instead of disgrace they shall rejoice in their portion. /
Therefore, in their land they shall possess the double. / Everlasting joy shall be to them.

8 "For I, the LORD, love judgment. /
I hate robbery for burnt-offering. /
I will direct their work in truth / and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their descendants shall be known among the Gentiles / and their offspring among the people. /
All who see them shall acknowledge them, / that they are a people the LORD has blessed."

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD. /
My soul shall be joyful in my God. /
He has clothed me with the garments of salvation. /
He has covered me with the robe of righteousness, /
as a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments / and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth brings forth her bud / and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth, /

so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise / to spring forth before all the nations.

Chapter 62

The fervent desire of the prophet to confirm the church in God's promises, 1-5. The office of the ministers (to which they are incited) in preaching the Gospel, 6-9, and preparing the people thereto, 10-12.

1 For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, / and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, / until its righteousness goes forth like brightness / and its salvation like a lamp that burns.

2 And the Gentiles shall see your righteousness, / and all kings your glory. /
And you shall be called by a new name / which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 You shall also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD / and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

4 You shall no longer be termed Forsaken, / neither shall your land be termed Desolate anymore, / but you shall be called Hephzi-bah, / and your land Beulah, / for the LORD delights in you, / and your land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marries a virgin, / so your sons shall marry you. /
And as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, / so your God will rejoice over you.

6 I have set watchmen / upon your walls, O Jerusalem, / which shall never hold their peace / day or night. /
You who make mention of the LORD, /
do not keep silent,

7 And give him no rest / until he establishes / and until he makes Jerusalem /
a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD has sworn by his right hand / and by the arm of his strength, /

"Surely I will no longer give your grain / to be food for your enemies, / and the sons of the stranger shall not drink your wine /
for which you have labored,

9 But those who have gathered it shall eat it / and praise the LORD, / and those who have collected it shall drink it / in the courts of my holiness."

10 Go through, go through the gates. / Prepare the way of the people. /
Cast up, cast up the highway. /
Gather out the stones. /
Lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD has proclaimed / to the end of the world, /
"Say to the daughter of Zion, /
'Behold, your salvation comes. / Behold, his reward is with him /
and his work before him.'"

12 And they shall call them, The Holy People, /
The Redeemed of the LORD. /
And you shall be called, Sought Out, /
A City not Forsaken.

Chapter 63

Christ shows who he is, 1, his victory over his enemies, 2-6, and his mercy toward his church, 7-9. In his just wrath he remembers his free mercy, 10-14. The church, in her prayer, 15, 16, makes confession and professes her faith, 17-19.

1 Who is this who comes from Edom / with dyed garments from Bozrah, /
this who is glorious in his apparel, / traveling in the greatness of his strength? /
"I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."

2 Why are you red in your apparel, / and your garments like him who treads in the wine-vat.

3 "I have trodden the wine-press alone, /
and from the people there was no one with me. /
For I will tread them in my anger / and trample them in my fury, / and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, / and I will stain all my clothing.

4 For the day of vengeance is in my heart, / and the year of my redeemed has come.

5 And I looked, and there was no one to help. /
And I wondered that there was no one to uphold. /
Therefore, my own arm brought salvation to me. /
And my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in my anger / and make them drunk in my fury, / and I will bring their strength down to the earth."

7 I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the LORD / and the praises of the LORD, /
according to all that the LORD has bestowed on us / and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, / which he has bestowed on them according to his mercies / and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses.

8 For he said, "Surely they are my people, / children who will not lie." /
So he was their Savior.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, / and the angel of his presence saved them. /
In his love and in his pity he redeemed them. /
And he bore them and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled and vexed his Holy Spirit; / therefore, he was turned to be their enemy / and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, / Moses and his people, saying, /
"Where is he who brought them out of the sea /
with the shepherd of his flock? / Where is he who put his Holy Spirit / within him,

12 Who led them by the right hand of Moses / with his glorious arm, / dividing the water before them, / to make himself an everlasting name,

13 Who led them through the deep, / like a horse in the wilderness, / so that they should not stumble?"

14 Like the livestock that go down in the valley, / the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest. / Thus you led your people / to make yourself a glorious name.

15 Look down from heaven and behold /
from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory. /
Where is your zeal and your strength, / the sounding of your heart and of your mercy toward me? /
Are they restrained?

16 Doubtless you are our Father, / though Abraham is ignorant of us, / and Israel does not acknowledge us. /
You, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer. /
Your name is from everlasting.

17 O LORD, why have you made us to err from your ways / and hardened our heart from your fear? / Return for your servants' sake, / the tribes of your inheritance.

18 The people of your holiness have possessed it only a little while. /
Our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary.

19 We are yours. You never bore rule over them. /
They were not called by your name.

Chapter 64

The church prays for the illustration of God’s power, 1-3. Celebrating God’s mercy, it makes confession of their natural corruptions, 4-8. The church bemoans their afflictions, 9-12.

1 Oh that you would rend the heavens and come down, /
so that the mountains might flow down at your presence—

2 As when the fire burns brushwood / and the fire causes the waters to boil— / to make your name known to your adversaries /
so that the nations may tremble at your presence!

3 When you did awesome things / which we did not look for, / you came down, /
the mountains flowed down at your presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, / nor perceived by the ear, / neither has the eye seen, O God, besides you, / what he has prepared for him who waits for him.

5 You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness, / those who remember you in your ways. /
Behold, you are angry, for we have sinned. /
We continued in them, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all like an unclean thing, / and all our righteousnesses are like filthy rags. /
And we all fade like a leaf. /
And our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And there is no one who calls upon your name, / who stirs up himself to take hold of you, / for you have hid your face from us / and have consumed us because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, you are our father. /
We are the clay, and you our potter, /
and we are all the work of your hand.

9 Do not be very angry, O LORD, / neither remember iniquity forever. /
Behold, see, we implore you, we are all your people.

10 Your holy cities are a wilderness. /
Zion is a wilderness, /
Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, / where our fathers praised you, / is burned with fire, /
and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

12 Will you refrain yourself for these things, O LORD? /
Will you hold your peace and grievously afflict us?

1 "I am sought by those who did not ask for me. /
I am found by those who did not seek me. /
I said, 'Behold me, behold me,' / to a nation that was not called by my name.

2 I have spread out my hands all the day / to a rebellious people, / which walks in a way that is not good / after their own thoughts,

3 A people who provokes me to anger / continually to my face, /

who sacrifices in gardens / and burns incense upon altars of brick,

4 Who remain among the graves / and lodge in the monuments, / who eat swine’s flesh /
and broth of abominable things is in their vessels,

5 Who say, 'Stand by yourself, /
do not come near me, for I am holier than you.' /
These are a smoke in my nose, /
a fire that burns all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me. /
I will not keep silence, but will recompense, /
even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together," /
says the LORD, /
"who have burned incense upon the mountains / and blasphemed me upon the hills. / Therefore, I will measure their former work / into their bosom."

8 Thus says the LORD: /
"As the new wine is found in the cluster, / and one says, 'Do not destroy it, / for a blessing is in it,' / so I will do for my servants' sake / so that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth offspring out of Jacob, / and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains. /
And my elect shall inherit it, / and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, / and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, / for my people who have sought me.

11 But you are those who forsake the LORD, / who forget my holy mountain, / who prepare a table for that troop, / and who furnish the drink-offering to that number.

12 Therefore, I will number you to the sword, / and you shall all bow down to the slaughter. /
Because when I called, you did not answer. /
When I spoke, you did not hear, / but did evil before my eyes / and chose that in which I did not delight."

13 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: /
"Behold, my servants shall eat, /
but you shall be hungry. /
Behold, my servants shall drink, /
but you shall be thirsty. / Behold, my servants shall rejoice, /
but you shall be ashamed.

14 Behold, my servants shall sing / for joy of heart, / but you shall cry for sorrow of heart / and howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And you shall leave your name for a curse to my chosen, / and the Lord GOD will slay you / and call his servants by another name,

16 So that he who blesses himself in the earth / shall bless himself in the God of truth, / and he who swears in the earth / shall swear by the God of truth, / because the former troubles are forgotten / and because they are hid from my eyes.

17 For behold, I create new heavens / and a new earth. /
And the former shall not be remembered, / nor will they come into mind.

18 But be glad and rejoice forever / in that which I create. / For behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing / and her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem / and be glad in my people. /
And there shall no longer be heard in her /
the voice of weeping and the voice of crying.

20 No longer shall there be from there an infant of days / nor an old man who has not filled his days. /
For the child shall die at a hundred years old, / but the sinner being a hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses and inhabit them, / and they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

22 They shall not build and another inhabit. /
They shall not plant and another eat. /
For the days of my people shall be like the days of a tree, / and my elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labor in vain, / nor bring forth for trouble, / for they are a people blessed by the LORD, / and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, / that before they call, I will answer, / and while they are still speaking, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, / and the lion shall eat straw like the bull, / and dust shall be the serpents' food. /
They shall neither hurt nor destroy /
in all my holy mountain," /
says the LORD.

Chapter 66

The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity, 1-4. He comforts the humble by showing the confusion of their enemies, 5-6, with the marvelous growth, 7-9, and the gracious benefits of the church, 10-14. God’s severe judgments against the wicked, 15-17. The Gentiles shall have a holy church, 18-23, and see the condemnation of the wicked, 24.

1 Thus says the LORD: /
"The heaven is my throne /
and the earth is my footstool. /
Where is the house that you build for me? /
And where is the place of my rest?

2 For all these things my hand has made, / and all these things have been," /
says the LORD. /
"But to this man I will look, / even to him who is poor and of a contrite spirit / and trembles at my word.

3 He who kills an ox is as if he slew a man. /
He who sacrifices a lamb is as if he cut off a dog’s neck. /
He who offers an oblation is as if he offered swine’s blood. /
He who burns incense is as if he blessed an idol. /
Indeed, they have chosen their own ways, / and their soul delights in their abominations.

4 I will also choose their delusions / and will bring their fears upon them. /
Because when I called, no one answered. /
When I spoke, they did not hear. /
And they did evil before my eyes /
and chose that in which I did not delight."

5 Hear the word of the LORD, / you who tremble at his word: /
"Your brothers who hated you, / who cast you out for my name’s sake, said, /
'Let the LORD be glorified, / but he shall appear to your joy,' / and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, / a voice from the temple, /
[it is] the voice of the LORD / who renders recompense to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth. / Before her pain came, / she had delivered a male child.

8 Who has heard such a thing? /
Who has seen such things? /
Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? /
Or shall a nation be born at once? /
For as soon as Zion travailed, /
she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth / and not cause to bring forth?" /
says the LORD. /
"Shall I cause to bring forth / and shut the womb?" /
says your God.

10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem / and be glad with her, all you who love her. / Rejoice for joy with her, /
all you who mourn for her,

11 So that you may nurse and be satisfied / with the breasts of her consolations, / so that you may draw milk and be delighted / with the abundance of her glory."

12 For thus says the LORD: /
"Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, / and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream. /
Then you shall nurse, /
you shall be borne upon her sides / and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforts, / so I will comfort you, / and you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."

14 And when you see this, your heart shall rejoice, / and your bones shall flourish like an herb. /
And the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, / and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For behold, the LORD will come with fire / and with his chariots like a whirlwind / to render his anger with fury / and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword / the LORD will plead with all flesh. /
And the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 "Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves / in the gardens, /
following one in the midst, / eating swine’s flesh, abominable things, and the mouse, / they shall be consumed together," /
says the LORD.

18 "For I know their works and their thoughts. The time comes that I will gather all nations and languages, and they shall come and see my glory. 19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape of them to the nations—to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal, to Javan, and to the coastlands afar off—who have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory. And they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles. 20 And they shall bring all your brothers for an offering to the LORD out of all nations upon horses, in chariots, in litters, upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem," says the LORD, "as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. 21 And I will also take some of them for priests and for Levites," says the LORD.

22 "For as the new heavens and the new earth, / which I will make, / shall remain before me," /
says the LORD, /
"so your descendants and your name shall remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, / that from one new moon to another / and from one sabbath to another, / all flesh shall come to worship before me," /
says the LORD.

24 "And they shall go forth and look / upon the carcasses of the men / who have transgressed against me. /
For their worm shall not die, / neither shall their fire be quenched, / and they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh."

[Tanach reading: go to Jeremiah]

The Word of the Lord to Jeremiah

Jeremiah | Ἰερεμίας | והימרי

Chapter 1

The time, 1-3; and the calling of Jeremiah, 4-10. His prophetic visions of an almond rod and a boiling pot, 11-14. His heavy message against Judah, 15, 16. God encourages him with his promise of assistance, 17-19.

1 [The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, 2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3 It also came in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.]

4 Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

> 5 "Before I formed you in embryo I knew you. / > And before you were born I sanctified you / > and ordained you a prophet to the nations."

6 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a child." 7 But the LORD said to me,

> "Do not say, 'I am a child,' / > for you shall go to all whom I shall send you, / > and whatever I command you, you shall speak.
>
> 8 Do not be afraid of their faces, / > for I am with you to deliver you," /
> says the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand and touched my mouth. And the LORD said to me,

> "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth.
>
> 10 Behold, I have this day set you / > over the nations and over the kingdoms / > to root out, to pull down, / > to destroy, to throw down, / > to build, and to plant."

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" And I said, "I see a rod of an almond-tree." 12 Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well. For I will hasten my word to perform it."

13 And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?"
And I said, "I see a boiling pot, and its face is toward the north." 14 Then the LORD said to me, "Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. 15
For behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD, "and they shall come and shall each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls around and against all the cities of Judah. 16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands. 17 Therefore, gird up your loins, arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be dismayed at their faces, lest I confound you before them. 18 For behold, I have made you this day a fortified city, an iron pillar, and brazen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against her princes, against her priests, and against the people of the land. 19
And they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you, for I am with you," says the LORD, "to deliver you."

Chapter 2

God, having shown his former kindness, expostulates with the Jews on their causeless and unexampled revolt, 1-13. They are the causes of their own calamities, 14-17. The sins and idolatries of Judah, 18-34. Her confidence is rejected, 35-37.

1 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD:

> "I remember you, the kindness of your youth, / > the love of your espousals, / > when you went after me in the wilderness, / > in a land that was not sown.
>
> 3 Israel was holiness to the LORD / > and the first-fruits of his increase. /
> All who devour him shall offend. / > Evil shall come upon them," /
> says the LORD.'"

4 Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob and all the families of the house of Israel.
5 Thus says the LORD:

> "What iniquity have your fathers found in me / > that they have gone far from me / > and have walked after vanity and have become vain?

6 They did not say, /
'Where is the LORD who brought us / out of the land of Egypt, / who led us through the wilderness, / through a land of deserts and of pits, / through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, / through a land that no man passed through / and where no man dwelt?'

7 And I brought you into a plentiful country / to eat its fruit and its goodness, / but when you entered, you defiled my land / and made my heritage an abomination.

8 The priests did not say, 'Where is the LORD?' /
And those who handle the law did not know me. /
The pastors also transgressed against me, / and the prophets prophesied by Baal /
and walked after things that do not profit.

9 Therefore, I will still plead with you," /
says the LORD, /
"and with your children’s children I will plead.

10 For pass over to the coastlands of Chittim and see. / And send to Kedar and consider diligently / and see if there is such a thing.

11 Has a nation changed their gods? /
(And yet they are not gods.) /
But my people have changed their glory /
for that which does not profit.

12 Be astonished, O heavens, at this, / and be horribly afraid, be very desolate," /
says the LORD.

13 "For my people have committed two evils: / they have forsaken me, /
the fountain of living waters, / and hewed out for themselves cisterns, / broken cisterns that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a servant? /
Is he a home-born slave? /
Why is he laid waste?

15 The young lions roared upon him / and yelled and made his land waste. / His cities are burned / without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes / have broken the crown of your head.

17 Have you not procured this to yourself / in that you have forsaken the LORD your God /
when he led you by the way?

18 And now what have you to do in the way of Egypt, / to drink the waters of Sihor? /
Or what have you to do in the way of Assyria, / to drink the waters of the river?

19 Your own wickedness shall correct you, / and your backslidings shall reprove you. / Know therefore, and see that it is an evil and bitter thing / that you have forsaken the LORD your God / and that my fear is not in you," /
says the Lord GOD of hosts.

20 "For of old time I have broken your yoke / and torn off your bonds, / and you said, 'I will not transgress,' / when upon every high hill / and under every green tree /
you wander, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted you a noble vine, / wholly a right seed. /
How then are you turned into the degenerate plant / of a strange vine to me?

22 For though you shall wash yourself with lye / and use much soap, /
yet your iniquity is marked before me," /
says the Lord GOD.

23 "How can you say, 'I am not polluted. /
I have not gone after Baalim'? /
See your way in the valley. /
Know what you have done. /
You are a swift dromedary traversing her ways.

24 A wild donkey used to the wilderness / that snuffs up the wind at her pleasure, / in her occasion, who can turn her away? /
All those who seek her will not weary themselves. /
In her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold your foot from being unshod / and your throat from thirst. /
But you said, 'There is no hope. /
No, for I have loved strangers, / and after them I will go.'

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, / so is the house of Israel ashamed— / they, their kings, their princes, / their priests, and their prophets—

27 Saying to a wooden idol, 'You are my father,' / and to a stone, 'You have brought me forth.' /
For they have turned their back to me and not their face, / but in the time of their trouble they will say, /
'Arise, and save us.'

28 But where are your gods / that you have made for yourself? / Let them arise if they can save you /
in the time of your trouble. /
For according to the number of your cities / are your gods, O Judah.

29 Why will you plead with me? /
You all have transgressed against me," /
says the LORD.

30 "In vain I have smitten your children. /
They have received no correction. /
Your own sword has devoured your prophets / like a destroying lion.

31 O generation, see the word of the LORD. / Have I been a wilderness to Israel / or a land of darkness? /
Why do my people say, 'We are lords. /
We will no longer come to you'?

32 Can a virgin forget her ornaments, / or a bride her attire? /
Yet my people have forgotten me / days without number.

33 Why do you trim your way to seek love? /
Therefore, you have also taught the wicked ones your ways.

34 Also in your skirts is found the blood / of the souls of the poor innocents. /
I have not found it by secret search, / but upon all these.

35 Yet you say, 'Because I am innocent, / surely his anger will turn from me.' / Behold, I will plead with you / because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

36 Why do you go around so much / to change your way? /
You shall also be ashamed of Egypt, /
as you were ashamed of Assyria.

37 You shall even go forth from him / with your hands upon your head, / for the LORD has rejected your confidences, / and you shall not prosper in them."

Chapter 3

God’s great mercy in Judah’s vile lewdness, 1-5. Judah is worse than Israel, 6-11. The promises of the gospel to the penitent, 12-19. Israel reproved and called by God, makes a solemn confession of their sins, 20-25.

1 He says, "If a man puts away his wife, / and she goes from him / and becomes another man’s, / shall he return to her again? /
Shall that land not be greatly polluted? /
But you have played the harlot with many lovers, / yet return again to me," /
says the LORD.

2 "Lift up your eyes to the high places and see / where you have not been lain with. /
In the roads you have sat for them / like the Arabian in the wilderness, / and you have polluted the land / with your acts of lewdness and with your wickedness.

3 Therefore, the showers have been withheld / and there has been no latter rain. / Yet you had a harlot’s forehead /
and you refused to be ashamed.

4 Will you not from this time cry to me, /
'My father, you are the guide of my youth'?

5 'Will he retain his anger forever? /
Will he keep it to the end?' /
Behold, you have spoken / and done evil things as you could."

6 The LORD also said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Have you seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the harlot. 7 And I said after she had done all these things, 'Turn to me.' But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. 8 And I saw that for all the causes by which backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce. Yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but went and played the harlot also. 9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her lewdness, that she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and with wood. 10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to me with her whole heart, but feignedly," says the LORD.

11 And the LORD said to me, "The backsliding Israel has justified herself more than treacherous Judah. 12 Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, 'Return, you backsliding Israel,' /

says the LORD. /
'And I will not cause my anger to fall upon you, / for I am merciful,' /
says the LORD, /
'and I will not keep anger forever.

13 Only acknowledge your iniquity / that you have transgressed against the LORD your God, / scattered your ways to the strangers /
under every green tree, / and have not obeyed my voice,' /
says the LORD.

14 'Turn, O backsliding children,' /
says the LORD. /
'For I am married to you. /
And I will take you one from a city and two from a family, / and I will bring you to Zion.'

15 "And I will give you pastors according to my heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. 16 And it shall come to pass when you are multiplied and increased in the land in those days," says the LORD, "that they shall no longer say, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD,' neither shall it come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall that be done anymore. 17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem, The Throne of the LORD, and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. They shall not walk anymore after the imagination of their evil heart. 18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together from the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance to your fathers.

19 "But I said,

'How shall I put you among the children / and give you a pleasant land, /
a beautiful heritage of the hosts of nations?' /
And I said, 'You shall call me, My Father, / and shall not turn away from me.'

20 Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, / so you have dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel," /
says the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, / weeping and supplications of the children of Israel, / for they have perverted their way / and have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 "Return, you backsliding children, / and I will heal your backslidings." /
"Behold, we come to you, / for you are the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills / and from the multitude of mountains. / Truly the salvation of Israel / is in the LORD our God.

24 "For the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth—their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. 25 We lie down in our shame, and our disgrace covers us, for we have sinned against the LORD our God—we and our fathers—from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

Chapter 4

God calls Israel by his promise, 1, 2. He exhorts Judah to repentance by fearful judgments, 3-18. A grievous lamentation for Judah, 19-31.

1 "If you will return, O Israel," /
says the LORD, /
"return to me. /
And if you will put away your abominations out of my sight /
and not wander,

2 Then you shall swear, 'The LORD lives,' / in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness. /
And the nations shall bless themselves in him, / and in him they shall glory."

3 For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

"Break up your fallow ground /
and do not sow among thorns.

4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD / and take away the foreskins of your heart, / men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, / lest my fury come forth like fire / and burn so that none can quench it /
because of the evil of your doings."

5 Declare in Judah and publish in Jerusalem, / and say, "Blow the trumpet in the land. / Cry, gather together, and say, /
'Assemble yourselves, /
and let us go into the fortified cities.'

6 Set up the standard toward Zion. / Retire, do not stay, / for I will bring evil from the north, / and a great destruction.

7 The lion has come up from his thicket, / and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way. /
He has gone forth from his place / to make your land desolate. /
Your cities shall be laid waste / without an inhabitant.

8 For this gird yourself with sackcloth, / lament, and howl, / for the fierce anger of the LORD /
has not turned back from us."

9 "And it shall come to pass at that day," /
says the LORD, /
"that the heart of the king / and the heart of the princes shall perish, / the priests shall be astonished, / and the prophets shall wonder."

10 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You shall have peace,' whereas the sword reaches to the soul."

11 At that time it shall be said to this people and to Jerusalem, /
"A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness / toward the daughter of my people, / not to fan, nor to cleanse,

12 Even a full wind from those places shall come to me. /
Now I will also give sentence against them.

13 "Behold, he shall come up like clouds, / and his chariots shall be like a whirlwind. /
His horses are swifter than eagles. /
Woe to us! For we are laid waste."

14 O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness / so that you may be saved. /
How long shall your vain thoughts / lodge within you?

15 For a voice declares from Dan / and publishes affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 "Make mention to the nations. / Behold, publish against Jerusalem, /
'Watchers come from a far country / and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 Like keepers of a field / they are against her on all sides, / because she has been rebellious against me,' /
says the LORD.

18 Your way and your doings have procured / these things to you. /
This is your wickedness because it is bitter, / because it reaches to your heart."

19 My anguish, my anguish! /
I am pained at my very heart. /
My heart makes a noise in me. /
I cannot hold my peace / because you have heard, O my soul, /
the sound of the trumpet, /
the alarm of war.

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried, / for the whole land is laid waste. / Suddenly my tents are ruined, / and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard / and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 "For my people are foolish, / they have not known me. /
They are foolish children, / and they have no understanding. /
They are wise to do evil, /
but to do good they have no knowledge."

23 I beheld the earth, / and behold, it was without form and void, / and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 I beheld the mountains, and behold, they trembled, / and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and behold, there was no man, / and all the birds of the heavens had fled.

26 I beheld, and behold, the fruitful place was a wilderness, / and all its cities were broken down / at the presence of the LORD / and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus the LORD has said: /
"The whole land shall be desolate, /
yet I will not make a full end.

28 For this the earth shall mourn / and the heavens above shall be black. /
For I have spoken it and I have purposed it. /
I will not repent, neither will I turn back from it."

29 The whole city shall flee / at the noise of the horsemen and bowmen. /
They shall go into thickets / and climb up upon the rocks. / Every city shall be forsaken, / and not a man dwells therein.

30 And when you are laid waste, what will you do? / Though you clothe yourself with crimson, / though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, / though you rend your face with painting, /
in vain you shall make yourself fair. /
Your lovers will despise you. They will seek your life.

31 For I have heard a voice like that of a woman in travail, / and the anguish like that of her who brings forth her first child, / the voice of the daughter of Zion who bewails herself, / who spreads her hands, saying, /
"Woe is me now! For my soul is wearied / because of murderers."

Chapter 5

The judgments of God upon the Jews for their perverseness, 1-6; for their adultery, 7-9; for their impiety, 10-14; for their worship of idols, 15-18; for their contempt of God, 19-24; and for their great corruption in the civil state, 25-29; and ecclesiastical, 30, 31.

1 "Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem. / And now look, and know, / and seek in its broad places. /
If you can find a man, /
if there is anyone who executes judgment, / who seeks the truth, /
then I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, 'The LORD lives,' /
surely they swear falsely."

3 O LORD, are your eyes not upon the truth? /
You have stricken them, /
but they have not grieved. /
You have consumed them, /
but they have refused to receive correction. /
They have made their faces harder than a rock. /
They have refused to return.

4 Therefore, I said, "Surely these are poor. /
They are foolish, / for they do not know the way of the LORD, / nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will go to the great men / and speak to them, / for they have known the way of the LORD / and the judgment of their God." /
But these have altogether broken the yoke / and torn off the bonds.

6 Therefore, a lion from the forest shall slay them, / a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, /
a leopard shall watch over their cities. / Everyone who goes out from there / shall be torn in pieces / because their transgressions are many / and their backslidings have increased.

7 "How shall I pardon you for this? / Your children have forsaken me / and sworn by those who are not gods. /
When I had fed them to the full, / they committed adultery / and assembled themselves by troops / in the harlots' houses.

8 They were like fed horses in the morning. /
Everyone neighed after his neighbor’s wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things?" /
says the LORD. /
"And shall my soul not be avenged /
on such a nation as this?

10 Go up upon her walls and destroy, / but do not make a full end. / Take away her branches, / for they are not the LORD’S.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah / have dealt very treacherously against me," /
says the LORD.

12 They have denied the LORD / and said, "It is not he. / Evil shall not come upon us, / neither shall we see sword nor famine.

13 And the prophets shall become wind, / and the word is not in them. /
Thus it shall be done to them."

14 Therefore, thus says the LORD God of hosts: /
"Because you speak this word, / behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, / and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Behold, I will bring a nation upon you from far, / O house of Israel," /
says the LORD. /
"It is a mighty nation, /
it is an ancient nation, /
a nation whose language you do not know, / neither understand what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulcher. /
They are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up your harvest and your bread, / which your sons and your daughters should eat. /
They shall eat up your flocks and your herds. /
They shall eat up your vines and your fig-trees. /
They shall impoverish with the sword your fortified cities / in which you have trusted.

18 "Nevertheless, in those days," says the LORD, "I will not make a full end with you. 19 And it shall come to pass, when you shall say, 'Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?' Then you shall answer them, 'As you have forsaken me and served strange gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'

20 "Declare this in the house of Jacob / and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 'Now hear this, O foolish people and without understanding, / who have eyes and do not see, / who have ears and do not hear.

22 Do you not fear me?' /
says the LORD. /
'Will you not tremble at my presence, / who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea /
by a perpetual decree so that it cannot pass it? /
And though its waves toss themselves, /
yet they cannot prevail. /
Even though they roar, /
yet they cannot pass over it.

23 But this people have a revolting and a rebellious heart. /
They have revolted and gone.

24 They do not say in their heart, / "Let us now fear the LORD our God /
who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season. /
He reserves to us the appointed weeks of harvest."

25 Your iniquities have turned away these things, / and your sins have withheld good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men. /
They lie in wait like he who sets snares. /
They set a trap. They catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, /
so are their houses full of deceit. /
Therefore, they have become great and have grown rich.

28 They have become fat. They shine. /
They even surpass the deeds of the wicked. /
They do not judge the cause, / the cause of the fatherless, /
yet they prosper. /
And the right of the needy /
they do not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things?' /
says the LORD. /
'Shall my soul not be avenged /
on such a nation as this?'

30 A wonderful and horrible thing / is committed in the land:

31 The prophets prophesy falsely, / and the priests bear rule by their means, / and my people love to have it so. /
And what will you do in the end thereof?"

Chapter 6

The enemies sent against Judah, 1-3; encourage themselves, 4, 5. God animates and directs the besiegers against the guilty city because of their sins, 6-8. The prophet laments the judgments of God because of their sins, 9-17. He proclaims God's wrath, 18-25. He calls the people to mourn for the judgment on their sins, 26-30.

1 "O children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee / out of the midst of Jerusalem, / blow the trumpet in Tekoa, / and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem, / for evil appears out of the north, / even great destruction.

2 I have compared the daughter of Zion / to a beautiful and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her. /
They shall pitch their tents against her on every side. /
They shall each feed in his place.

4 Prepare war against her. / Arise, and let us go up at noon. /
Woe to us! For the day departs, / and the shadows of the evening are lengthened.

5 Arise, and let us go by night / and destroy her palaces."

6 For thus the LORD of hosts has said: /
"Hew down trees /
and cast a siege-mound against Jerusalem. /
This is the city to be visited. /
There is only oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fountain casts out her waters, / so she casts out her wickedness. /
Violence and devastation is heard in her. /
Continually before me are grief and wounds.

8 Be instructed, O Jerusalem, / lest my soul depart from you, / lest I make you desolate, / a land not inhabited."

9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: /
"They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine. / Turn back your hand / like a grape-gatherer into the baskets."

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning / so that they may hear? / Behold, their ear is uncircumcised /
and they cannot listen. /
Behold, the word of the LORD is to them a reproach. /
They have no delight in it.

11 Therefore, I am full of the fury of the LORD. /
I am weary with holding in. /
"I will pour it out upon the children abroad / and upon the assembly of young men together. /

For even the husband with the wife shall be taken, / the aged with him who is full of days.

12 And their houses shall be turned to others, / with their fields and wives together, / for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land," /
says the LORD.

13 "For from their least even to their greatest, / everyone is given to covetousness. /
And from the prophet even to the priest, / everyone deals falsely.

14 They have also healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, / saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? /
No. They were not at all ashamed, /
neither could they blush. /
Therefore, they shall fall among those who fall. /
At the time that I visit them they shall be cast down," /
says the LORD.

16 Thus says the LORD: /
"Stand in the ways and see, / and ask for the old paths, / where the good way is, and walk in it. /
Then you shall find rest for your souls. /
But they said, 'We will not walk in it.'

17 Also, I set watchmen over you, saying, / 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet.' /
But they said, 'We will not listen.'

18 Therefore, hear, you nations, / and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, O earth. /
Behold, I will bring evil upon this people, / even the fruit of their thoughts, / because they have not listened to my words / nor to my law, but have rejected it.

20 For what purpose does incense come to me from Sheba / and the sweet cane from a distant country? /
Your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, / nor are your sacrifices sweet to me."

21 Therefore, thus says the LORD: /
"Behold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, / and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them. /
The neighbor and his friend shall perish."

22 Thus says the LORD: /
"Behold, a people comes from the north country, / and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear. /
They are cruel and have no mercy. /
Their voice roars like the sea. /
And they ride upon horses, / set in array as men for war / against you, O daughter of Zion."

24 We have heard its fame. Our hands become feeble. / Anguish has taken hold of us, / and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Do not go forth into the field / nor walk by the way, / for the sword of the enemy / and fear is on every side.

26 O daughter of my people, gird yourself with sackcloth / and wallow yourself in ashes. /
Make for yourself a mourning, as for an only son, / a most bitter lamentation, /
for the destroyer shall suddenly come upon us.

27 "I have set you as a tower and a fortress among my people / so that you may know and try their way."

28 They are all grievous revolters, / walking slanderously. /
They are brass and iron. /
They are all corrupters.

29 The bellows is burned. /
The lead is consumed by the fire. /
The founder melts in vain, /
for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 Men shall call them reprobate silver / because the LORD has rejected them.

Chapter 7

Jeremiah is sent to call to true repentance, to prevent the Jews' captivity, 1-7. He rejects their vain confidence, 8-11; by the example of Shiloh, 12-16. He threatens them for their idolatry, 17-20. He rejects the sacrifices of the disobedient, 21-28. He exhorts to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 29-31; and the judgments for the same, 32-34.

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Stand in the gate of the LORD’S house and proclaim this word there and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.'" 3 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. 4 Do not trust in lying words, saying, 'The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are these.' 5 For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbor, 6 If you do not oppress the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt, 7 Then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, forever and ever.

8 "Behold, you trust in lying words that cannot profit. 9 Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know, 10 And come and stand before me in this house which is called by my name and say, 'We are delivered,' in order to do all these abominations? 11 Has this house which is called by my name become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it," says the LORD.

12 "But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. 13 And now, because you have done all these works," says the LORD, "and I spoke to you, rising early and speaking, but you did not hear, and I called you, but you did not answer, 14 Therefore I will do to this house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. 15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even all the offspring of Ephraim.

16 "Therefore, do not pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me, for I will not hear you. 17 Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 The children gather wood, the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven. And they pour out drink-offerings to other gods to provoke me to anger. 19 Do they provoke me to anger?" says the LORD. "Do they not provoke themselves to the shame of their own faces?" 20 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, my anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field and upon the fruit of the ground, and it shall burn and shall not be quenched."

21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Put your burnt-offerings to your sacrifices and eat flesh. 22 For in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak to your fathers or command them concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices. 23 But this thing I commanded them, saying, 'Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people. And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you so that it may be well with you.' 24 But they did not listen nor incline their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward. 25 Since the day that your fathers came forth from the land of Egypt to this day, I have even sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising early and sending them. 26 Yet they did not listen to me nor incline their ear, but hardened their neck. They did worse than their fathers.

27 "Therefore, you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you.

You shall also call to them, but they will not answer you. 28 But you shall say to them,

> 'This is a nation that does not obey / > the voice of the LORD their God, /
> nor receives correction. / > Truth has perished / > and is cut off from their mouth.
>
> 29 Cut off your hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, / > and take up a lamentation on high places, / > for the LORD has rejected and forsaken / > the generation of his wrath.'

30 "For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight," says the LORD. "They have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name to pollute it. 31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command them, neither did it come into my heart.

32 "Therefore, behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that it shall no longer be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter, for they shall bury in Tophet until there is no place. 33 And the carcasses of this people shall be food for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth, and no one shall frighten them away. 34 Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of mirth, the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, for the land shall be desolate."

Chapter 8

The calamity of the Jews, both dead and alive, 1-3. He upbraids their foolish and shameless impenitence, 4-12. He shows their grievous judgment, 13-17; and bewails their desperate estate, 18-22.

1 "At that time," says the LORD, "they shall bring the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of the princes, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of their graves, 2 And they shall spread them before the sun, the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, whom they have served, after whom they have walked, whom they have sought, and whom they have worshiped. They shall not be gathered nor be buried. They shall be for dung upon the face of the earth. 3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the remnant of those who remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places where I have driven them," says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Moreover, you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD:

"Shall they fall and not arise? /
Shall he turn away and not return?

5 Why then has this people of Jerusalem slid back / by a perpetual backsliding? /
They hold fast deceit. /
They refuse to return.

6 I listened and heard, / but they did not speak aright. /
No man repented of his wickedness, / saying, 'What have I done?' / Everyone turned to his course, / like a horse rushing to the battle.

7 Even the stork in the heaven / knows her appointed times. /
And the turtle-dove, the crane, and the swallow / observe the time of their coming. / But my people do not know /
the judgment of the LORD.

8 How do you say, 'We are wise, / and the law of the LORD is with us'? /
Behold, certainly in vain he has made it. /
The pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 The wise men are ashamed. /
They are dismayed and taken. /
Behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD. /
And what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore, I will give their wives to others / and their fields to those who inherit them, / for everyone from the least even to the greatest / is given to covetousness. /
From the prophet even to the priest, / each deals falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, / saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? /
No. They were not at all ashamed, /
neither could they blush. /
Therefore, they shall fall among those who fall. /
In the time of their visitation they shall be cast down," /
says the LORD.

13 "I will surely consume them," /
says the LORD. /
"There shall be no grapes on the vine / nor figs on the fig-tree, / and the leaf shall fade. /
And the things that I have given to them / shall pass away from them."'"

14 Why do we sit still? / Assemble yourselves, /
and let us enter into the fortified cities / and be silent there. /
For the LORD our God has put us to silence / and given us water of gall to drink / because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We looked for peace, but no good came, / and for a time of health, and behold, trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan. /
The whole land trembled / at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones, / for they have come and have devoured the land / and all that is in it, / and also the city /
and those who dwell therein.

17 "For behold, I will send serpents among you, / adders which will not be charmed, / and they shall bite you," /
says the LORD.

18 When I would comfort myself against sorrow, /
my heart is faint in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people / because of those who dwell in a distant country: /
"Is the LORD not in Zion? / Is her king not in her?" /
"Why have they provoked me to anger / with their engraved images / and with strange vanities?"

20 "The harvest has past, the summer has ended, / and we are not saved."

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt. /
I am black. Astonishment has taken hold upon me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead? /
Is there no physician there? /
Why then is the health / of the daughter of my people not recovered?

Chapter 9

Jeremiah laments the Jews for their manifold sins, 1-8; and for their judgment, 9-11. Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity, 12-16. He exhorts to mourn for their destruction, 17-22; and to trust not in themselves, but in God, 23, 24. He threatens both Jews and Gentiles, 25, 26.

1 Oh that my head were waters / and my eyes a fountain of tears /
so that I might weep day and night /
for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness / a lodging-place of way-faring men / so that I might leave my people / and go from them! /
For they are all adulterers, / an assembly of treacherous men.

3 "And they bend their tongues like their bows for lies, / but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth, / for they proceed from evil to evil / and they do not know me," /
says the LORD.

4 "Everyone, take heed of his neighbor / and do not trust in any brother, / for every brother will utterly supplant / and every neighbor will walk slanderously.

5 And they will each deceive his neighbor / and will not speak the truth. /
They have taught their tongue to speak lies / and they weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Your habitation is in the midst of deceit. / Through deceit they refuse to know me," /
says the LORD.

7 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: /
"Behold, I will melt them and try them. /
For what else shall I do / for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is like an arrow shot out. /
It speaks deceit. /
One speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, /
but in his heart he lies in wait.

9 Shall I not visit them for these things?" /
says the LORD. /
"Shall my soul not be avenged /
on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains I will take up a weeping and wailing, / and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, / because they are burned up / so that no one can pass through them, / neither can men hear the voice of the livestock. /
Both the bird of the heavens and the beast have fled. /
They are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps / and a den of jackals, / and I will make the cities of Judah desolate /
without an inhabitant."

12 Who is the wise man who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken so that he may declare it? For why has the land perished and burned up like a wilderness so that no one passes through? 13 And the LORD says, "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein, 14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them," 15 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. 16 I will also scatter them among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. And I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them."

17 Thus says the LORD of hosts: /
"Consider, and call for the mourning women /
so that they may come, / and send for skillful women /
so that they may come.

18 And let them make haste and take up a wailing for us / so that our eyes may run down with tears /
and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, /
'How we are laid waste! /
We are greatly confounded / because we have forsaken the land, / because our dwellings have cast us out.'"

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O women, / and let your ear receive the word of his mouth. / Teach your daughters wailing, / and each her neighbor a lamentation.

21 For death has come up into our windows / and has entered into our palaces / to cut off the children from outside / and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, "Thus says the LORD: /
'Even the carcasses of men shall fall / as dung upon the open field / and as the handful after the harvester, / and no one shall gather them.'"

23 Thus says the LORD: "Do not let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might. Do not let the rich man glory in his riches. 24 But let him who glories, glory in this: that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who exercises loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth, for in these things I delight," says the LORD.

25 "Behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that I will punish all those who are circumcised with the uncircumcised: 26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the children of Ammon, Moab, and all who are in the utmost corners who dwell in the wilderness. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart."

Chapter 10

The unequal comparison of God and idols, 1-16. The prophet exhorts to flee from the calamity to come, 17, 18. He laments the destruction of the tabernacle by foolish pastors, 19-22. He makes a humble supplication, 23-25.

1 Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel. 2 Thus says the LORD:

"Do not learn the way of the heathen, / and do not be dismayed at the signs of heaven, / for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain. /
For one cuts a tree out of the forest, /
the work of the hands of the workman with an ax.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold. /
They fasten it with nails and with hammers /
so that it may not move.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, but do not speak. /
They must be carried because they cannot walk. /
Do not be afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, / neither is it also in them to do good."

6 There is no one like you, O LORD. /
You are great, and your name is great in might.

7 Who would not fear you, O King of nations? /
For to you it belongs, / because among all the wise men of the nations / and in all their kingdoms /
there is no one like you.

8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish. /
The doctrine of vanities is only wood.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, / and gold from Uphaz, /
the work of the workman and of the hands of the founder. /
Their clothing is blue and purple. /
They are all the work of skillful men.

10 But the LORD is the true God. /
He is the living God and an everlasting king. /
At his wrath the earth shall tremble, / and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 Thus you shall say to them: "The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens."

12 He has made the earth by his power, / has established the world by his wisdom, / and has stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

13 When he utters his voice, /
there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, /
and he causes the vapors to ascend /
from the ends of the earth. /
He makes lightnings with rain /
and brings forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge. /
Every founder is confounded by the engraved image, /
for his molten image is falsehood /
and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity and the work of errors. /
In the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The portion of Jacob is not like them, / for he is the former of all things, /
and Israel is the rod of his inheritance. /
The LORD of hosts is his name.

17 Gather up your wares out of the land, /
O inhabitant of the fortress.

18 For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time / and will distress them so that they are found out."

19 Woe is me for my hurt! /
My wound is grievous, / but I said, "Truly this is a grief, / and I must bear it."

20 My tabernacle is laid waste / and all my cords are broken. /
My children have gone from me / and they are no more. /
There is no one to stretch forth my tent anymore /
and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors have become brutish / and have not sought the LORD; / therefore, they shall not prosper, / and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 The voice of tidings, behold, it comes / with a great commotion from the north country / to make the cities of Judah desolate /
and a den of jackals.

23 O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself. /
It is not in man who walks to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, correct me, but with judgment, / not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing.

25 Pour out your fury upon the heathen who do not know you / and upon the families who do not call on your name, / for they have eaten up Jacob. /
They have devoured him and consumed him, / and have made his habitation desolate.

Chapter 11

Jeremiah proclaims God’s covenant, 1-7; rebukes the Jews' disobeying thereof, 8-10; prophesies evils to come upon them, 11-17; and upon the men of Anathoth for conspiring to kill him, 18-23.

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem 3 And say to them, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, 4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth from the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, 'Obey my voice and do according to all which I command you. Then you shall be my people, and I will be your God,' 5 So that I may perform the oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day."'" Then I answered and said, "So be it, O LORD."

6 Then the LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, 'Hear the words of this covenant and do them. 7 For I earnestly testified to your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and testifying, saying, "Obey my voice." 8 Yet they did not obey nor incline their ear, but each walked in the imagination of his evil heart. Therefore, I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do, but they did not do them.'"

9 And the LORD said to me, "A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to hear my words, and they went after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers." 11 Therefore, thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will bring evil upon them which they shall not be able to escape. And though they shall cry to me, I will not listen to them. 12 Then the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem shall go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense, but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble. 13 For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah, and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.

14 "Therefore, do not pray for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them, for I will not hear them in the time when they cry to me for their trouble.

15 "What has my beloved to do in my house, / seeing she has wrought lewdness with many, / and the holy flesh is passed from you? /
When you do evil, you rejoice."

16 The LORD called your name, /
"A green olive tree, fair, and with good fruit." /
With the noise of a great tumult / he has kindled fire upon it, /
and its branches are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense to Baal.

18 And the LORD has given me knowledge of it, and I know it. /
Then you showed me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter. /
And I did not know that they had devised devices against me, saying, /
"Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, / and let us cut him off from the land of the living / so that his name may no longer be remembered."

20 But, O LORD of hosts, who judges righteously, / who tries the mind and the heart, / let me see your vengeance on them, /
for to you I have revealed my cause.

21 Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, "Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD so that you do not die by our hand." 22 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: "Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters shall die by famine. 23 And there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation."

Chapter 12

Jeremiah expostulates with God concerning the ways of providence in permitting the wicked to prosper, 1-4. God admonishes him of his brothers' treachery against him, 5, 6; and laments his heritage, 7-13. He promises to the penitent a return from captivity, 14-17.

1 You are righteous, O LORD, /
when I plead with you. /
Yet let me speak with you about your judgments. /
Why does the way of the wicked prosper? /
Why are they all happy who deal very treacherously?

2 You have planted them, they have even taken root. /
They grow, they even bring forth fruit. /
You are near in their mouth /
and far from their heart.

3 But you, O LORD, know me. /
You have seen me and tried my heart toward you. / Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, / and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn / and the herbs of every field wither / for the wickedness of those who dwell therein? /
The beasts are consumed, and also the birds, / because they said, "He will not see our last end."

5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, / then how can you contend with horses? /
And if in the land of peace, in which you have trusted, they wearied you, / then how will you do in the swelling of the Jordan?

6 For even your brothers and the house of your father, / even they have dealt treacherously with you. /
They have even called a multitude after you. /
Do not believe them, though they speak fair words to you."

7 "I have forsaken my house. /
I have left my heritage. /
I have given the dearly beloved of my soul / into the hand of her enemies.

8 My heritage is to me / like a lion in the forest. /
It cries out against me; /
therefore, I have hated it.

9 My heritage is to me like a speckled bird. /
The birds around are against her. / Come, assemble all the beasts of the field, / come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard. /
They have trodden my portion under foot. /
They have made my pleasant portion / a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, / and being desolate it mourns to me. /
The whole land is made desolate, / because no man lays it to heart.

12 The destroyers have come upon all high places through the wilderness, / for the sword of the LORD shall devour / from one end of the land even to the other end of the land. /
No flesh shall have peace.

13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns. /
They have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit. /
And they shall be ashamed of your revenues /
because of the fierce anger of the LORD."

14 Thus says the LORD against all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: "Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. 15 And it shall come to pass after I have plucked them out, that I will return and have compassion on them and will bring them back, every man to his heritage and every man to his land. 16 And it shall come to pass, that if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, 'The LORD lives,' as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they shall be built in the midst of my people. 17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation," says the LORD.

Chapter 13

By the type of a linen girdle hidden at the Euphrates, God prefigures the destruction of his people, 1-11. Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine, he foretells their drunkenness in misery, 12-14. He exhorts to prevent their future judgments, 15-21. He shows their abominations are the cause thereof, 23-27.

1 Thus says the LORD to me: "Go and get for yourself a linen girdle and put it upon your loins, and do not put it in water." 2 So I procured a girdle according to the word of the LORD and put it on my loins. 3 And the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, 4 "Take the girdle that you have procured, which is upon your loins, and arise, go to the Euphrates and hide it there in a hole of the rock." 5 So I went and hid it by the Euphrates as the LORD commanded me. 6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates and take the girdle from there which I commanded you to hide there." 7 Then I went to the Euphrates, dug, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it, and behold, the girdle was marred. It was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9 "Thus says the LORD: 'After this manner I will mar the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. 10 This evil people who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the imagination of their heart and walk after other gods to serve them and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing. 11 For as the girdle cleaves to the loins of a man, so I have caused to cleave to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah,' says the LORD, 'so that they might be to me for a people, for a name, for praise, and for glory. But they would not hear.'

12 "Therefore, you shall speak to them this word: 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Every bottle shall be filled with wine."' And they shall say to you, 'Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?' 13 Then you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit upon David’s throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with drunkenness. 14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together," says the LORD. "I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them."'"

15 Hear, and give ear. Do not be proud. /
For the LORD has spoken.

16 Give glory to the LORD your God / before he causes darkness / and before your feet stumble / upon the dark mountains. / And while you look for light, /
he shall turn it into the shadow of death /
and make it gross darkness.

17 But if you will not hear it, / my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride, / and my eye shall weep bitterly and run down with tears, / because the LORD’S flock is carried away captive.

18 Say to the king and to the queen, / "Humble yourselves, sit down, / for your principalities shall come down, / even the crown of your glory."

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, / and no one shall open them. /
Judah shall be carried away captive all of it. /
It shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 "Lift up your eyes and behold / those who come from the north. / Where is the flock that was given to you, / your beautiful flock?

21 What will you say when he punishes you? /
For you have taught them / to be captains and as chief over you. / Shall sorrows not take you, / like those of a woman in travail?

22 And if you say in your heart, /
'Why do these things come upon me?' /
it is for the greatness of your iniquity / that your skirts are uncovered / and your heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin / or the leopard his spots? /
Then you also may do good / who are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore, I will scatter them / like the stubble that passes away / by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is your lot, / the portion of your measures from me," /
says the LORD, /
"because you have forgotten me /
and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore, I will uncover your skirts upon your face / so that your shame may appear.

27 Your adulteries and your neighings, / the enormity of your lewdness /
on the hills in the fields— /
I have seen your abominations. /
Woe to you O Jerusalem! /
Will you not be made clean? /
When shall it yet be?"

Chapter 14

The grievous famine, 1-6; causes Jeremiah to pray, 7-9. The Lord will not be entreated for the people, 10-12. Lying prophets are no excuse for them, 13-16. Jeremiah is moved to intercede for them, 17-22.

1 [The word from the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought.]

2 "Judah mourns, and her gates languish. /
They are black to the ground. /
And the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters. /
They came to the pits and found no water. /
They returned with their vessels empty. /
They were ashamed and confounded / and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is cracked, / for there was no rain on the earth, /
the plowmen were ashamed, /
they covered their heads.

5 Even the doe also brought forth in the field and forsook it / because there was no grass.

6 And the wild donkeys stood in the high places, / they snuffed up the wind like jackals. /
Their eyes failed because there was no grass.

7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, / do it for your name’s sake, / for our backslidings are many. /
We have sinned against you.

8 O the hope of Israel, / his Savior in time of trouble, / why should you be like a stranger in the land / and like a way-faring man / who turns aside to stay for a night?

9 Why should you be like a man astonished, / like a mighty man who cannot save? / Yet you, O LORD, are in the midst of us, / and we are called by your name. /
Do not leave us."

10 Thus says the LORD to this people: /
"Thus they have loved to wander, /
they have not restrained their feet; / therefore, the LORD does not accept them. /
He will now remember their iniquity / and visit their sins."

11 Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray for this people for their good. 12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry. And when they offer a burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence."

13 Then I said, "Ah Lord GOD! Behold, the prophets say to them, 'You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.'" 14 Then the LORD said to me, "The prophets prophesy lies in my name. I have not sent them, neither have I commanded them nor spoken to them. They prophesy to you false visions, divinations, predictions, and deceits of their heart. 15 Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, and I did not send them, yet they say, 'Sword and famine shall not be in this land': 'By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed. 16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword, and they shall have no one to bury them—them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters—for I will pour their wickedness upon them.'

17 "Therefore, you shall say this word to them: /
'Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, / and do not let them cease, /
for the virgin daughter of my people is broken / with a great breach, / with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, / then behold the slain with the sword! /
And if I enter into the city, / then behold those who are sick with famine! /
Even both the prophet and the priest / have gone into a land that they do not know.'"

19 Have you utterly rejected Judah? /
Has your soul loathed Zion? /
Why have you smitten us /
and there is no healing for us? /
We looked for peace, and there is no good, / and for the time of healing, and behold, trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness / and the iniquity of our fathers, / for we have sinned against you.

21 Do not abhor us for your name’s sake. /
Do not disgrace the throne of your glory. /
Remember, do not break your covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles / who can cause rain? /
Or can the heavens give showers? /
Are you not he, O LORD our God? /
Therefore, we will wait upon you, / for you have made all these things.

Chapter 15

The utter rejection and manifold judgments of the Jews, 1-9. Jeremiah, bewailing their spite, receives a promise for himself, 10, 11; and a threatening for them, 12-14. He prays, 15-18; and receives a gracious promise, 19-21.

1 Then the LORD said to me, "Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people. Cast them out of my sight and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, that they shall say to you, 'Where shall we go forth?' Then you shall tell them, 'Thus says the LORD:

> "Those who are for death, to death. Those who are for the sword, to the sword. Those who are for the famine, to the famine. And those who are for the captivity, to the captivity."'

3 "And I will appoint over them four kinds," says the LORD. "The sword to slay, the dogs to tear, the birds of the heaven and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. 4 And I will cause them to be a horror among all kingdoms of the earth because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 "For who shall have pity upon you, O Jerusalem? /
Or who shall bemoan you? /
Or who shall go aside /
to ask concerning your welfare?

6 You have forsaken me," /
says the LORD, /
"you have gone backward; /
therefore, I will stretch out my hand against you / and destroy you. /
I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan / in the gates of the land. /
I will bereave them of children. /
I will destroy my people, /
since they do not return from their ways.

8 Their widows are multiplied to me / above the sand of the seas. /
I have brought upon them / against the mother of the young men /
a destroyer at noon-day. /
I will suddenly cause to fall upon her / terrors and anguish.

9 She who has borne seven languishes. /
She has resigned her breath. /
Her sun has gone down while it was still day. /
She has been ashamed and confounded. /
And their remnant I will deliver to the sword / before their enemies," /
says the LORD.

10 Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me, a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor have men lent to me on usury, yet every one of them curses me. 11 The LORD said, "Truly it shall be well with your remnant. Truly I will cause the enemy to treat you well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. 12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel? 13 Your substance and your treasures I will give as plunder without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders. 14 And I will make you to pass with your enemies into a land which you do not know, for a fire is kindled in my anger which shall burn upon you."

15 O LORD, you know. / Remember me, visit me, /
and avenge me of my persecutors. /
Do not take me away in your patience. /
Know that for your sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Your words were found, and I ate them. /
And your word was to me /
the joy and rejoicing of my heart, / for I am called by your name, /
O LORD God of hosts.

17 I did not sit in the assembly of the mockers nor rejoice. /
I sat alone because of your hand, / for you have filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my pain perpetual and my wound incurable, / which refuses to be healed? /
Will you be altogether to me like a liar /
and like waters that fail?

19 Therefore, thus says the LORD: /
"If you return, then I will bring you back, / and you shall stand before me. /
And if you separate the precious from the vile, / you shall be as my mouth. /
They shall return to you, /
but you shall not return to them.

20 And I will make you to this people a fortified brazen wall. /
And they shall fight against you, / but they shall not prevail against you, / for I am with you to save you and to deliver you," /
says the LORD.

21 "And I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked / and redeem you from the hand of the terrible."

Chapter 16

The prophet, under the types of abstaining from marriage, from houses of mourning, and feasting, foretells the utter ruin of the Jews, 1-9; because they were worse than their fathers, 10-13. Their return from captivity shall be stranger than their deliverance out of Egypt, 14, 15. God will doubly recompense their idolatry, 16-21.

1 The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, 2 "You shall not take a wife for yourself, neither shall you have sons nor daughters in this place." 3 For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them and their fathers who begot them in this land: 4 "They shall die by grievous deaths. They shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried, but they shall be like dung upon the face of the earth. And they shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, and their carcasses shall be food for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth."

5 For thus says the LORD: "Do not enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them, for I have taken away my peace from this people," says the LORD, "even loving-kindness and mercies. 6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; 7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. 8 Also, you shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them to eat and to drink." 9 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes and in your days the voice of mirth, the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 "And it shall come to pass when you tell this people all these words, that they shall say to you, 'Why has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? What is our iniquity? What is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?' 11 Then you shall say to them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me,' says the LORD, 'and have walked after other gods, served them, and worshiped them, and have forsaken me and have not kept my law, 12 And you have done worse than your fathers, for, behold, you all walk after the imagination of your evil heart so that you do not listen to me. 13 Therefore, I will cast you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers, and there you shall serve other gods day and night, where I will not show you favor.'

14 "Therefore, behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that it shall no longer be said, 'The LORD lives, who brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt,' 15 But, 'The LORD lives, who brought the children of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands where he had driven them.' And I will bring them back into their land that I gave to their fathers.

16 "Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says the LORD, "and they shall fish them. And afterward, I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. 17 For my eyes are upon all their ways. They are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from my eyes. 18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double because they have defiled my land. They have filled my inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things."

> 19 O LORD, my strength and my fortress, / > and my refuge in the day of affliction, / > the Gentiles shall come to you / > from the ends of the earth and shall say, /
> "Surely our fathers have inherited lies, / > vanity, and things in which there is no profit."
>
> 20 Shall a man make gods for himself / > which are not gods?

21 "Therefore, behold, this time I will cause them to know, I will cause them to know my hand and my might. And they shall know that my name is YAHWEH."

Chapter 17

The captivity of Judah for her sin, 1-4. Trust in man is cursed, 5, 6; in God is blessed, 7, 8. The deceitful heart cannot deceive God, 9-11. The salvation of God, 12-14. The prophet appeals to God concerning the mockers of his prophecy, 15-18. He is sent to renew the covenant in hallowing the sabbath, 19-27.

1 The sin of Judah is written / with a pen of iron and with the point of a diamond. /
It is engraved upon the tablet of their heart / and upon the horns of your altars,

2 While their children remember their altars / and their groves by the green trees / upon the high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, /
I will give your substance / and all your treasures as plunder, / and your high places for sin, / throughout all your borders.

4 And you, even yourself, / shall discontinue from your heritage / that I gave you, / and I will cause you to serve your enemies / in the land which you do not know, / for you have kindled a fire in my anger / which shall burn forever.

5 Thus says the LORD: /
"Cursed is the man who trusts in man / and makes flesh his strength, / and whose heart departs from the LORD,

6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert. /
It shall not see when good comes, / but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, /
in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD /
and whose hope is the LORD,

8 For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters / that spreads out its roots by the river. /
It shall not fear when heat comes, / but its leaf shall be green. /
It shall not be anxious in the year of drought, / neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 The heart is deceitful above all things / and desperately wicked. Who can know it?

10 I, the LORD, search the heart. /
I try the mind, /
even to give every man according to his ways / and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sits on eggs and does not hatch them, / so he who gets riches, and not by right, / shall leave them in the midst of his days, / and at his end shall be a fool."

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning / is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, / all who forsake you shall be ashamed, / and those who depart from me / shall be written in the earth, / because they have forsaken the LORD, /
the fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed. / Save me, and I shall be saved, /
for you are my praise.

15 Behold, they say to me, /
"Where is the word of the LORD? / Let it come now."

16 As for me, I have not hastened / from being a pastor to follow you, / neither have I desired the woeful day. /
You know that which was uttered by my lips / was right before you.

17 Do not be a terror to me. /
You are my hope in the day of evil.

18 Let them be confounded who persecute me, / but do not let me be confounded. / Let them be dismayed, /
but do not let me be dismayed. / Bring upon them the day of evil / and destroy them with double destruction.

19 Thus the LORD said to me: "Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem, 20 And say to them, 'Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates. 21 Thus says the LORD: "Take heed to yourselves. Bear no burden on the sabbath day nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem. 22 Do not carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do any work. But hallow the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. 23 Yet they did not obey nor incline their ear, but made their neck stiff so that they might not hear nor receive instruction.

24 "And it shall come to pass, that if you diligently listen to me," says the LORD, "to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day and do no work therein, 25 Then there shall enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses—they and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—and this city shall remain forever. 26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, from the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the plain, from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt-offerings, sacrifices, food-offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD. 27 But if you will not listen to me to hallow the sabbath day and to bear no burdens while entering at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem and shall not be quenched."'"

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words." 3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. 4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter. So he made it again another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 6 "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?" says the LORD. "Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so you are in my hand, O house of Israel. 7 The instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom to pluck up, to pull down, and to destroy it, 8 If that nation against which I have pronounced turns from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. 9 And the instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom to build and to plant it, 10 If it does evil in my sight so that it does not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good with which I said I would benefit them. 11 Now therefore, come, speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I frame evil against you and devise a device against you. Now each of you return from his evil way and make your ways and your doings good."' 12 And they said, 'There is no hope, but we will walk after our own devices and will each do the imagination of his evil heart.'

13 "Therefore, thus says the LORD: /
'Ask now among the heathen, /
"Who has heard such things?" /
The virgin of Israel /
has done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon / which comes from the rock of the field? /
Or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place / be forsaken?

15 For my people have forgotten me / and they have burned incense to vanity. /
And they have been made to stumble in their ways / on the ancient paths, / to walk in tracks, /
in a way not cast up,

16 To make their land desolate / and a perpetual hissing. /
Everyone who passes by it shall be astonished / and wag his head.

17 I will scatter them like an east wind / before the enemy. /
I will show them the back and not the face /
in the day of their calamity.'"

18 Then they said,

"Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah, / for the law shall not perish from the priest, / nor counsel from the wise, /
nor the word from the prophet. / Come, and let us smite him with the tongue / and not give heed to any of his words."

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, / and listen to the voice of those who contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? /
For they have dug a pit for my soul. /
Remember that I stood before you / to speak good for them /
and to turn away your wrath from them.

21 Therefore, deliver their children to the famine / and pour out their blood by the force of the sword, / let their wives be bereaved of their children and be widows, / and let their men be put to death / and their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses / when you bring a troop suddenly upon them, / for they have dug a pit to take me / and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, you know /
all their counsel against me to slay me. /
Do not forgive their iniquity, / neither blot out their sin from your sight, /
but let them be overthrown before you. /
Deal thus with them in the time of your anger.

Chapter 19

Under the type of breaking a potter's vessel is foretold the desolation of the Jews for their sins, 1-15.

1 Thus says the LORD: "Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take some of the ancients of the people and some of the ancients of the priests, 2 And go forth to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you, 3 And say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle, 4 Because they have forsaken me and have estranged this place and have burned incense in it to other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents. 5 They have also built the high places of Baal to burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings to Baal, which I did not command nor speak it, neither did it come into my mind. 6 Therefore, behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that this place shall no longer be called Tophet, nor The Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but The Valley of Slaughter. 7 And I will make the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem void in this place. And I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hands of those who seek their lives. And their carcasses I will give to be food for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. 8 And I will make this city desolate and a hissing. Everyone who passes by it shall be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. 9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall each eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress with which their enemies and those who seek their lives shall distress them."'

10 "Then you shall break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you 11 And say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel that cannot be made whole again. And they shall bury them in Tophet until there is no place to bury. 12 Thus I will do to this place," says the LORD, "and to its inhabitants, and even make this city like Tophet. 13 And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled like the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven and have poured out drink-offerings to other gods."'"

14 Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the court of the LORD'S house and said to all the people, 15 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks so that they might not hear my words.'"

Chapter 20

Pashur, smiting Jeremiah, receives a new name and a fearful doom, 1-6. Jeremiah bewails contempt, 7-9, treachery, 10-13, and his birth, 14-18.

1 Now Pashur the priest, the son of Immer, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. 2 Then Pashur struck Jeremiah the prophet and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD. 3 And it came to pass on the next day, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD has not called your name Pashur, but Magor-missabib. 4 For thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. And they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall behold it. And I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon and shall slay them with the sword. 5 Moreover, I will deliver all the strength of this city, all its labors, and all its precious things. Indeed, all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies, who shall pillage them, take them, and carry them to Babylon. 6 And you, Pashur, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity. And you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die and be buried—you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.'"

7 O LORD, you have deceived me, and I was deceived. /
You are stronger than I, and have prevailed. /
I am in derision daily. /
Everyone mocks me.

8 For as often as I speak, I cry out. /
I proclaim, "Violence and destruction," / because the word of the LORD has become to me /
a continual reproach and derision.

9 Then I said, "I will not make mention of him / nor speak anymore in his name." /
But his word was in my heart like a burning fire / shut up in my bones, / and I was weary with forbearing / and I could not stay.

10 For I heard the defaming of many, / "Fear is on every side. /
Report," they say, "and we will report it." /
All my familiar friends watched for my fall, saying, /
"Perhaps he will be enticed, / and we shall prevail against him / and take our revenge on him."

11 But the LORD is with me like an awesome mighty one; / therefore, my persecutors shall stumble / and shall not prevail. /
They shall be greatly ashamed, /
for they shall not prosper. /
Their everlasting disgrace shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, who tries the righteous / and sees the mind and the heart, /
let me see your vengeance on them, /
for I have opened my cause to you.

13 Sing to the LORD, /
praise the LORD, /
for he has delivered the soul of the poor / from the hand of evil-doers.

14 Cursed is the day / in which I was born. /
Do not let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed.

15 Cursed is the man who brought tidings / to my father, saying, /
"A male child is born to you," / making him very glad.

16 And let that man be like the cities / which the LORD overthrew and did not repent. / And let him hear the cry in the morning /
and the shouting at noon,

17 Because he did not slay me at my birth / so that my mother might have been my grave /
and she always be great with child.

18 Why was I brought into the world / to see labor and sorrow /
so that my days should be consumed with shame?

Chapter 21

Zedekiah sends to Jeremiah to inquire of the LORD about the event of Nebuchadnezzar's war, 1, 2. Jeremiah foretells a hard siege and miserable captivity, 3-7. He counsels the people to fall to the Chaldeans, 8-10; and upbraids the king's house, 11-14.

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashur the son of Melchiah and Zephaniah the priest, the son of Maaseiah, saying, 2 "Inquire, I pray you, of the LORD for us, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us. It may be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works so that he may go up from us."

3 Then Jeremiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to Zedekiah: 4 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon and against the Chaldeans who besiege you outside the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. 5 And I myself will fight against you with an out-stretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, in fury, and in great wrath. 6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast. They shall die by a great pestilence. 7 And afterward," says the LORD, "I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants, and the people who are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life. And he shall smite them with the edge of the sword. He shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy."'

8 "And to this people you shall say, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. 9 He who abides in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, but he who goes out and falls to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for plunder. 10 For I have set my face against this city for evil and not for good," says the LORD. "It shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire."'

11 "And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, 12 O house of David. Thus says the LORD:

> "Execute judgment in the morning / > and deliver him who is made desolate / > out of the hand of the oppressor, / > lest my fury go out like fire / > and burn so that no one can quench it /
> because of the evil of your doings.
>
> 13 Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley / > and rock of the plain," /
> says the LORD, /
> "who say, 'Who shall come down against us? /
> Or who shall enter into our habitations?'
>
> 14 But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings," /
> says the LORD. /
> "And I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, /
> and it shall devour all things around it."'"

Chapter 22

He exhorts to repentance, with promises and threats, 1-9. The judgment of Shallum, 10-12; of Jehoiakim, 13-19; and of Coniah, 20-30.

1 Thus says the LORD: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah and speak this word there 2 And say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, who sits upon the throne of David—you, your servants, and your people who enter by these gates. 3 Thus says the LORD: "Execute judgment and righteousness, and deliver him who is laid waste out of the hand of the oppressor. And do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. 4 For if you do this thing indeed, then there shall enter by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses—he, his servants, and his people. 5 But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself," says the LORD, "that this house shall become a desolation."'" 6 For thus says the LORD to the king's house of Judah:

"You are Gilead to me, / and the head of Lebanon. /
Yet surely I will make you a wilderness / and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against you, / each with his weapons, / and they shall cut down your choice cedars / and cast them into the fire.

8 "And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall each say to his neighbor, 'Why has the LORD done so to this great city?' 9 Then they shall answer, 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and worshiped other gods and served them.'"

10 Do not weep for the dead, / neither bemoan him, /
but weep bitterly for him who goes away, / for he shall no longer return / nor see his native country.

11 For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, who went forth from this place: "He shall not return there anymore, 12 But he shall die in the place where they have led him captive and shall no longer see this land.

13 "Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness / and his chambers by wrong, / who uses his neighbor's service without wages /
and does not give him his wages,

14 Who says, 'I will build myself a wide house / and large chambers,' / and cuts out windows for himself, / and it is ceiled with cedar and painted with vermilion.

15 Shall you reign because you close yourself in cedar? / Did your father not eat and drink / and do judgment and justice? /
Then it was well with him.

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy. /
Then it was well with him. /
Was this not to know me?" /
says the LORD.

17 "But your eyes and your heart / are only for your covetousness, / for shedding innocent blood, / for oppression, and for doing violence."

18 Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah:

"They shall not lament for him, saying, /
'Ah, my brother!' or, 'Ah, sister!' /
They shall not lament for him, saying, /
'Ah, lord!' or, 'Ah, his glory!'

19 He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, / drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 Go up to Lebanon and cry, / and lift up your voice in Bashan / and cry from the passages, / for all your lovers are destroyed.

21 I spoke to you in your prosperity, / but you said, 'I will not hear.' /
This has been your manner from your youth, / that you have not obeyed my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all your pastors, / and your lovers shall go into captivity. / Surely then you shall be ashamed and confounded / for all your wickedness.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, / who makes your nest in the cedars, / how gracious you shall be when pangs come upon you, /
the pain like that of a woman in travail!

24 "As I live," says the LORD, "though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet I would pluck you from there. 25 And I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life and into the hand of those of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of the Chaldeans. 26 And I will cast out you and your mother who bore you into another country where you were not born. And there you shall die. 27 But to the land to which they desire to return, they shall not return there.

28 "Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? /
Is he a vessel in which there is no pleasure? /
Why are they cast out—he and his offspring— /
and are cast into a land which they do not know?

29 O earth, earth, earth, /
hear the word of the LORD.

30 Thus says the LORD: /
'Write this man childless, /
a man who shall not prosper in his days, / for no man of his offspring shall prosper, / sitting upon the throne of David / and ruling anymore in Judah.'"

Chapter 23

He prophesies a restoration of the scattered flock, 1-4. Christ shall rule and save them, 5-8. Against false prophets, 9-32; and mockers of the true prophets, 33-40.

1 "Woe to the pastors who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!" says the LORD. 2 Therefore, thus says the LORD God of Israel against the pastors who feed my people: "You have scattered my flock, driven them away, and have not visited them. Behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings," says the LORD. 3 "And I will gather the remnant of my flock from all countries where I have driven them and bring them back to their folds, and they shall be fruitful and increase. 4 And I will set shepherds over them who shall feed them. And they shall no longer fear nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking," says the LORD.

5 "Behold, the days come," /
says the LORD, /
"that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, / and a King shall reign and prosper / and shall execute judgment and justice upon the earth.

6 In his days Judah shall be saved, / and Israel shall dwell in safety. /
And this is his name by which he shall be called: / YAHWEH OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 "Therefore, behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that they shall no longer say, 'The LORD lives, who brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt,' 8 But, 'The LORD lives, who brought and who led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the north country and from all countries where I have driven them,' and they shall dwell in their own land."

9 My heart within me is broken / because of the prophets. /
All my bones shake. /
I am like a drunken man / and like a man whom wine has overcome / because of the LORD /
and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers. /
For because of swearing the land mourns. /
The pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, / and their course is evil / and their force is not right.

11 "For both prophet and priest are profane. / Even in my house I have found their wickedness," /
says the LORD.

12 "Therefore, their way shall be to them / as slippery ways in the darkness. /
They shall be driven on and fall therein, / for I will bring evil upon them, / even the year of their visitation," /
says the LORD.

13 "And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria. / They prophesied in Baal /
and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have also seen in the prophets of Jerusalem / a horrible thing: /
they commit adultery and walk in lies. /
And they strengthen the hands of evil-doers /
so that no one returns from his wickedness. /
All of them are to me like Sodom, / and the inhabitants of it like Gomorrah."

15 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets:

"Behold, I will feed them with wormwood / and make them drink the water of gall, / for from the prophets of Jerusalem / hypocrisy has gone forth into all the land."

16 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Do not listen to the words of the prophets / who prophesy to you. /
They make you vain. /
They speak a vision of their own heart / and not from the mouth of the LORD.

17 They still say to those who despise me, /
'The LORD has said, "You shall have peace."' /
And they say to everyone / who walks after the imagination of his own heart, /
'No evil shall come upon you.'

18 For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD / and has perceived and heard his word? /
Who has marked his word and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury, / even a grievous whirlwind. /
It shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return / until he has executed /
and until he has performed the thoughts of his heart. /
In the latter days you shall consider it perfectly.

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran. /
I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel / and had caused my people to hear my words, / then they would have turned them from their evil way / and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand," /
says the LORD, /
"and not a God afar off?

24 Can a man hide himself in secret places / that I shall not see him?" /
says the LORD. /
"Do I not fill heaven and earth?" /
says the LORD.

25 "I have heard what the prophets said who prophesy lies in my name, saying, 'I have dreamed. I have dreamed.' 26 How long? Is it in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart, 27 Who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they each tell to his neighbor, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal? 28 The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream, and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat?" says the LORD. 29 "Is my word not like a fire and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?" says the LORD. 30 "Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who steal my words each from his neighbor. 31 Behold, I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who use their tongues and say, 'He says.' 32 Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams," says the LORD, "who tell them and cause my people to err by their lies and by their lightness, yet I did not send them nor command them. Therefore, they shall not profit this people at all," says the LORD.

33 "And when this people, the prophet, or a priest asks you, saying, 'What is the burden of the LORD?' You shall then say to them, '"You are the burden, and I will even forsake you," says the LORD.' 34 And as for the prophet, the priest, and the people who say, 'The burden of the LORD,' I will even punish that man and his house. 35 Thus each of you shall say to his neighbor and each to his brother: 'What has the LORD answered?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?' 36 And you shall no longer mention the burden of the LORD. For every man’s word shall be his burden, for you have perverted the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God. 37 Thus you shall say to the prophet: 'What has the LORD answered you?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?' 38 But since you say, 'The burden of the LORD,' therefore, thus says the LORD: 'Because you say this word, "The burden of the LORD," and I have sent to you, saying, "You shall not say, 'The burden of the LORD,'"' 39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you and the city that I gave to you and your fathers and cast you out of my presence. 40 And I will bring upon you an everlasting reproach and a perpetual shame which shall not be forgotten."

Chapter 24

Under the type of good and bad figs, 1-3, he foretells the restoration of those who were in captivity, 4-7; and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest, 8-10.

1 The LORD showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, the princes of Judah, and the carpenters and smiths from Jerusalem and had brought them to Babylon. 2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe, and the other basket had very poor figs, which could not be eaten they were so bad. 3 Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" And I said, "Figs. The good figs, very good, and the bad, very bad, which cannot be eaten they are so bad."

4 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 5 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Like these good figs, so I will acknowledge those who are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. 6 For I will set my eyes upon them for good and bring them back to this land. And I will build them and not pull them down. And I will plant them and not pluck them up. 7 And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

8 'And as the bad figs, which cannot be eaten they are so bad,' surely thus says the LORD: 'So I will give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, his princes, the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt. 9 And I will make them a horror among all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. 10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them until they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.'"

Chapter 25

Jeremiah, reproving the Jews' disobedience to the prophets, 1-7, foretells the seventy years' captivity, 8-11; and after that, the destruction of Babylon, 12-14. Under the type of a cup of wine he foretells the destruction of all nations, 15-33. The howling of the shepherds, 34-38.

1 A word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah (that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), 2 Which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 3 "From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even to this day, that is the twenty-third year, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you have not listened. 4 And the LORD has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear. 5 They said, 'Turn back now each from his evil way and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers forever and ever, 6 And do not go after other gods to serve them and to worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, and I will do you no hurt.' 7 Yet you have not listened to me," says the LORD, "so that you might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 "Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Because you have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,' says the LORD, 'and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around, and will utterly destroy them and make them an astonishment, a hissing, and perpetual desolations. 10 Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle. 11 And this whole land shall be a desolation and an astonishment. And these nations shall serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

12 'And it shall come to pass when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation,' says the LORD, 'for their iniquity, the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. 13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. 14 For many nations and great kings shall also reduce them to subjection. And I will recompense them according to their deeds and according to the works of their own hands.'"

15 For thus says the LORD God of Israel to me: "Take the wine cup of this fury from my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. 16 And they shall drink and be moved and enraged because of the sword that I will send among them."

17 Then I took the cup from the LORD’S hand and made all the nations to drink, to whom the LORD had sent me, 18 Namely, Jerusalem, the cities of Judah, her kings, and her princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; 19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his princes, and all his people, 20 And all the mingled people; all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the land of the Philistines, Ashkelon, Azzah, Ekron, the remnant of Ashdod; 21 Edom, Moab, the children of Ammon; 22 All the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Zidon, the kings of the coastlands which are beyond the sea; 23 Dedan, Tema, Buz, all who are in the utmost corners; 24 All the kings of Arabia, all the kings of the mingled people who dwell in the desert; 25 All the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, all the kings of the Medes; 26 All the kings of the north, far and near, with one another, and all the kingdoms of the world which are upon the face of the earth. And the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 "Therefore, you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Drink, be drunken, vomit, fall, and rise no more because of the sword which I will send among you."' 28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "You shall certainly drink. 29 For behold, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished, for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth," says the LORD of hosts.'

30 "Therefore, prophesy against them all these words, and say to them, 'The LORD shall roar from on high / and utter his voice from his holy habitation. /

He shall mightily roar upon his habitation. /
He shall give a shout, like those who tread the grapes, / against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth, /
for the LORD has a controversy with the nations. /
He will plead with all flesh. /
He will give those who are wicked to the sword,' /
says the LORD."

32 Thus says the LORD of hosts: /
"Behold, evil shall go forth / from nation to nation, / and a great whirlwind shall be raised / from the borders of the earth.

33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried. They shall be dung upon the ground.

34 Howl, you shepherds, and cry, / and wallow yourselves in the ashes, / you principal of the flock, /
for the days of your slaughter / and of your dispersions are accomplished, / and you shall fall like a precious vessel.

35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, / nor the principal of the flock to escape.

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds / and a howling of the principal of the flock shall be heard, / for the LORD has laid waste their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down /
because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He has forsaken his covert like a lion, / for their land is desolate / because of the fierceness of the oppressor / and because of his fierce anger."

Chapter 26

Jeremiah, by promises and threatenings, exhorts to repentance, 1-7. He is therefore apprehended, 8, 9, and arraigned, 10, 11. His apology, 12-15. He is acquitted in judgment, by the example of Micah, 16-19, and of Urijah, 20-23, and by the care of Ahikam, 24.

1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, this word from the LORD came, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD: 'Stand in the court of the LORD’S house and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD’S house, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not diminish a word. 3 It may be that they will listen and each turn from his evil way so that I may repent of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings.' 4 And you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: "If you will not listen to me to walk in my law which I have set before you, 5 To listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I have sent to you, both rising early and sending them, but you have not listened, 6 Then I will make this house like Shiloh and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth."'"

7 So the priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. 8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests, the prophets, and all the people took him, saying, "You shall surely die. 9 Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant'?" And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to the house of the LORD and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD’S house. 11 Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and to all the people, saying, "This man is worthy to die, for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. 13 Now therefore, amend your ways and your doings and obey the voice of the LORD your God, and the LORD will repent of the evil that he has pronounced against you. 14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand. Do with me as it seems good and proper to you. 15 But know for certain, that if you put me to death, you will surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, upon this city, and upon its inhabitants. For of a truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

16 Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets, "This man is not worthy to die, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God." 17 Then some of the elders of the land arose and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, 18 "Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

> "Zion shall be plowed like a field, / > Jerusalem shall become heaps, / > and the mountain of the house /
> like the high places of the forest."'

19 "Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and implore the LORD, and the LORD repented of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus we might procure great evil against our souls."

20 And there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. 21 And when Jehoiakim the king and all his mighty men and all the princes heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But when Urijah heard it, he was afraid and fled and went into Egypt. 22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor and some men with him into Egypt. 23 And they brought forth Urijah from Egypt and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who slew him with the sword and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

Chapter 27

Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesies the subduing of the neighbor kings to Nebuchadnezzar, 1-7. He exhorts them to yield and not to believe the false prophets, 8-11. He does similarly to Zedekiah, 12-18. He foretells the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon and there remain until the day of visitation, 19-22.

1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD to me: 'Make for yourself bonds and yokes and put them upon your neck, 3 And send them to the king of Edom, to the king of Moab, to the king of the Ammonites, to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. 4 And command them to say to their masters, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel—thus you shall say to your masters: 5 'I have made the earth, the man, and the beasts that are upon the ground by my great power and by my out-stretched arm, and have given it to whom it seemed proper to me. 6 And now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant. And the beasts of the field I have given him also to serve him. 7 And all nations shall serve him, his son, and his son’s son until the very time of his land comes. And then many nations and great kings shall bring him into subjection.

8 'And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and which will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish,' says the LORD, 'with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence until I have consumed them by his hand. 9 Therefore, do not listen to your prophets, to your diviners, to your dreamers, to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers who speak to you, saying, "You shall not serve the king of Babylon." 10 For they prophesy a lie to you to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. 11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, those I will let remain in their own land,' says the LORD, 'and they shall till it and dwell in it.'"'"

12 I also spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, serve him and his people, and live. 13 Why will you die—you and your people—by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? 14 Therefore, do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon,' for they prophesy a lie to you. 15 For I have not sent them," says the LORD, "yet they prophesy a lie in my name so that I might drive you out and that you might perish—you and the prophets who prophesy to you."

16 Then I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, "Behold, the vessels of the LORD’S house shall now shortly be brought back from Babylon," for they prophesy a lie to you. 17 Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city be laid waste? 18 But if they are prophets and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts so that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem do not go to Babylon. 19 For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, concerning the sea, concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels that remain in this city, 20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem— 21 Indeed, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem: 22 "They shall be carried to Babylon, and there they shall be until the day that I visit them," says the LORD. "Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place."'"

Chapter 28

Hananiah prophesies falsely the return of the vessels and of Jeconiah, 1-4. Jeremiah, wishing it to be true, shows that the event will declare the true prophets, 5-9. Hananiah breaks Jeremiah’s yoke, 10, 11. Jeremiah tells of an iron yoke, 12-14; and foretells Hananiah's death, 15-17.

1 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the prophet, the son of Azur, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, 2 "Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3 Within two full years I will bring back into this place all the vessels of the LORD'S house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon. 4 And I will bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah with all the captives of Judah who went into Babylon,' says the LORD. 'For I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, 6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen. May the LORD do so. May the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the LORD'S house and all that is carried away captive from Babylon into this place. 7 Nevertheless, now hear this word that I speak in your ears and in the ears of all the people. 8 The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied both against many countries and against great kingdoms concerning war, evil, and pestilence. 9 The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet comes to pass, the prophet shall be known that the LORD has truly sent him."

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck and broke it. 11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within two full years.'" And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 "Go and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "You have broken the yokes of wood, but you shall make for them yokes of iron." 14 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations so that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they shall serve him. And I have given him the beasts of the field also."'" 15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Hear now, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, but you make this people to trust in a lie. 16 Therefore, thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will cast you from off the face of the earth. This year you shall die because you have taught rebellion against the LORD.'"

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Chapter 29

Jeremiah sends a letter to the captives in Babylon to be quiet there, 1-7, and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 8, 9; and that they shall return with grace after seventy years, 10-14. He foretells the destruction of the rest for their disobedience, 15-19. He shows the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two lying prophets, 20-23. Shemaiah writes a letter against Jeremiah, 24-29. Jeremiah foretells his doom, 30-32.

1 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders who were carried away as captives, to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon 2 (After Jeconiah the king, the queen, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the carpenters, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem) 3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying, 4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all who are carried away as captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon: 5 'Build houses and dwell in them. Plant gardens and eat their fruit. 6 Take wives and beget sons and daughters. Take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands so that they may bear sons and daughters. Multiply there and do not be diminished. 7 And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away as captives, and pray to the LORD for it, for in its peace you shall have peace.' 8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are in the midst of you deceive you, neither listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed, 9 For they prophesy falsely to you in my name. I have not sent them,' says the LORD.

10 "For thus says the LORD: 'After seventy years is accomplished at Babylon I will visit you and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. 11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you,' says the LORD, 'thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you an expected end. 12 Then you shall call upon me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. 13 And you shall seek me and find me when you search for me with all your heart. 14 And I will be found by you,' says the LORD, 'and I will turn away your captivity and gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you,' says the LORD, 'and I will bring you back into the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.'

15 "Because you have said, 'The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,' 16 Know that thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits upon the throne of David, concerning all the people who dwell in this city, and concerning your brothers who have not gone forth with you into captivity— 17 Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence and will make them like vile figs that cannot be eaten they are so bad. 18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth to be a curse, an astonishment, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them, 19 For they have not listened to my words,' says the LORD, 'which I sent to them by my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, but you would not hear,' says the LORD. 20 Hear therefore the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon. 21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: 'Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes. 22 And concerning them a curse shall be taken up by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, "May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire, 23 Because they have committed villainy in Israel, have committed adultery with their neighbor’s wives, and have spoken lying words in my name which I have not commanded them. Even I know and am a witness," says the LORD.'"

24 Thus you shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, 25 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'Because you have sent letters in your name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, 26 "The LORD has made you priest in place of Jehoiada the priest, so that you should be officers in the house of the LORD. For every man who is mad and makes himself a prophet, you should put him in prison and in the stocks. 27 Now therefore, why have you not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth who makes himself a prophet to you? 28 For therefore he sent to us in Babylon, saying, 'This captivity is long. Build houses and dwell in them. Plant gardens and eat their fruit.'"'"

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. 30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 31 "Send to all those of the captivity, saying, 'Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: "Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him, and he caused you to trust in a lie," 32 Therefore, thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his offspring. He shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people," says the LORD, "because he has taught rebellion against the LORD."'"

Chapter 30

God shows Jeremiah the return of the Jews, 1-3. After their trouble they shall have deliverance, 4-9. He comforts Jacob, 10-17. Their return shall be gracious, 18-22. Wrath shall fall on the wicked, 23, 24.

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, saying, 'Write for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. 3 For behold, the days come,' says the LORD, 'that I will bring back the captivity of my people Israel and Judah,' says the LORD, 'and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.'"

4 And these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah:

5 "For thus says the LORD:

> 'We have heard a voice of trembling, / > of fear, and not of peace.
>
> 6 Ask now, and see whether a man travails with child. /
> Why do I see every man / > with his hands on his loins like a woman in travail, / > and all faces are turned into paleness?
>
> 7 Alas! For that day is great / > so that none is like it. /
> It is even the time of Jacob’s trouble, /
> but he shall be saved out of it.

8 'For it shall come to pass in that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'that I will break his yoke from off your neck and will tear off your bonds, and strangers shall no longer bring him into subjection, 9 But they shall serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up to them.

10 'Therefore, do not fear, O my servant Jacob,' /
says the LORD, /
'neither be dismayed, O Israel, /
for behold, I will save you from afar /
and your offspring from the land of their captivity, / and Jacob shall return and be in rest and quiet, /
and no one shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with you,' /
says the LORD, /
'to save you. /
Though I make a full end of all nations / where I have scattered you, / yet I will not make a full end of you. /
But I will correct you in measure / and will not leave you altogether unpunished.'

12 For thus says the LORD: /
'Your bruise is incurable / and your wound is grievous.

13 There is no one to plead your cause. /
For your wound, you have no healing medicines.

14 All your lovers have forgotten you. /
They do not seek you, / for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, / with the chastisements of a cruel one, / for the multitude of your iniquity, /
because your sins were increased.

15 Why do you cry for your affliction? / Your sorrow is incurable /
for the multitude of your iniquity. /
Because your sins were increased, /
I have done these things to you.

16 Therefore, all those who devour you shall be devoured. /
And all your adversaries, every one of them shall go into captivity. /
And those who plunder you shall be plunder, / and all who prey upon you I will give for plunder.

17 For I will restore health to you / and heal you of your wounds,' /
says the LORD, /
'because they called you an outcast, saying, /
"This is Zion, whom no man seeks after."'

18 Thus says the LORD: /
'Behold, I will bring back the captivity of Jacob’s tents / and have mercy on his dwelling places, / and the city shall be built upon her own heap, / and the palace shall remain after its manner.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving / and the voice of those who make merry. /
And I will multiply them, and they shall not be few. /
I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children shall also be as in former time, / and their congregation shall be established before me, / and I will punish all who oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be from themselves, / and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them. / And I will cause him to draw near, / and he shall approach me. /
For who is this who engaged his heart / to approach me?' /
says the LORD.

22 'And you shall be my people, / and I will be your God.'"

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goes forth with fury, / a continuing whirlwind. /
It shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return / until he has done it and until he has performed /
the intents of his heart. /
In the latter days you shall consider it.

Chapter 31

The restoration of Israel, 1-9. The publication thereof, 10-14. Rachel mourning is comforted, 15-17. Ephraim repenting is brought home again, 18-21. Christ is promised, 22-26. His care over the church, 27-30. His new covenant, 31-34. The stability, 35-37, and amplitude of the church, 38-40.

1 "At the same time," says the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people."

2 Thus says the LORD:

"The people who were left by the sword / found grace in the wilderness, /
even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest."

3 The LORD appeared of old to me, saying, /
"I have loved you with an everlasting love; /
therefore, with loving-kindness have I drawn you.

4 Again I will build you, and you shall be built, / O virgin of Israel. /
You shall again be adorned with your tambourines / and shall go forth in the dances of those who make merry.

5 Again you shall plant vines / upon the mountains of Samaria. /
The planters shall plant / and shall eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day / that the watchmen upon the mountains of Ephraim shall cry, /
'Arise, and let us go up to Zion / to the LORD our God.'"

7 For thus says the LORD:

"Sing with gladness for Jacob / and shout among the chief of the nations. / Publish, praise, and say, /
'O LORD, save your people, /
the remnant of Israel.'

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country / and gather them from the borders of the earth, / and with them the blind and the lame, /
the woman with child / and her who travails with child, together. /
A great company shall return there.

9 They shall come with weeping, / and with supplications I will lead them. /
I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters /
in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble, / for I am a father to Israel, / and Ephraim is my first-born."

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, / and declare it in the coastlands afar off and say, /
"He who scattered Israel will gather him and keep him / as a shepherd does his flock."

11 For the LORD has redeemed Jacob / and ransomed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he is.

12 "Therefore, they shall come and sing in the height of Zion / and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD / for wheat, for wine, for oil, / and for the young of the flock and of the herd. /
And their soul shall be like a watered garden, / and they shall not sorrow anymore at all.

13 Then the virgin shall rejoice in the dance, / both young men and old together, / for I will turn their mourning into joy / and comfort them /
and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, / and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness," /
says the LORD.

15 Thus says the LORD:

"A voice was heard in Ramah, / lamentation and bitter weeping. /
Rachel weeping for her children / refused to be comforted for her children, / because they were no more."

16 Thus says the LORD:

"Refrain your voice from weeping / and your eyes from tears, / for your work shall be rewarded," /
says the LORD, /
"and they shall come back from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in your end," /
says the LORD, /
"that your children shall come back to their own border.

18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself, saying, / 'You have chastised me, and I was chastised, / like a bull unaccustomed to the yoke. / Turn me, and I shall be turned, / for you are the LORD my God.

19 Surely after I was turned, I repented. /
And after I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh. /
I was ashamed and even confounded / because I bore the reproach of my youth.'

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? /
Is he a pleasant child? /
For since I spoke against him, /
I earnestly remember him still; / therefore, my heart yearns for him. /
I will surely have mercy upon him," /
says the LORD.

21 "Set yourself up way-marks. /
Make yourself high heaps. / Set your heart toward the highway, / even the way which you went. / Turn back, O virgin of Israel, / turn back to these cities of yours.

22 How long will you wander around, / O backsliding daughter? /
For the LORD has created a new thing in the earth: /
a woman shall compass a man."

23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Yet again they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in her cities when I bring back their captivity:

'May the LORD bless you, / O habitation of justice, / mountain of holiness.'

24 "And there shall dwell in Judah itself and in all her cities together farmers and those who go forth with flocks. 25 For I have satiated the weary soul and I have replenished every sorrowful soul." 26 Upon this I awoke and beheld, and my sleep was sweet to me.

27 "Behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of beast. 28 And it shall come to pass, that as I have watched over them to pluck up, to break down, to throw down, to destroy, and to afflict, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," says the LORD. 29 "In those days they shall no longer say,

'The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.'

30 But everyone shall die for his own iniquity. Every man who eats the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 "Behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, 32 But not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant which they broke, although I was a husband to them," says the LORD. 33 "But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days," says the LORD, "I will put my law in their inward parts and write it in their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 34 And no longer shall they each teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them," says the LORD. "For I will forgive their iniquity and will no longer remember their sin."

35 Thus says the LORD,
who gives the sun for a light by day and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who divides the sea when its waves roar,
the LORD of hosts is his name:

36 "If those ordinances depart from before me,"
says the LORD,
"then the offspring of Israel shall also cease from being a nation before me forever."

37 Thus says the LORD:

"If heaven above can be measured and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath,
I will also cast off all the offspring of Israel for all that they have done,"
says the LORD.

38 "Behold, the days come," says the LORD, "that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananeel to the gate of the corner. 39 And the measuring line shall again go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb and shall compass about to Goath. 40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook of Kidron, to the corner of the horse-gate toward the east, shall be holy to the LORD. It shall not be plucked up nor thrown down anymore forever."

Chapter 32

Jeremiah, being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 1-5, buys Hanameel's field, 6-12. Baruch must preserve the evidences as tokens of the people's return, 13-15. Jeremiah's prayer to God, 16-25. God confirms the captivity for their sins, 26-35; and promises a gracious return, 36-44.

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house, 3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had confined him, saying, "Why do you prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it. 4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes. 5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall be until I visit him," says the LORD. "Though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper"'?"

6 And Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying, 7 'Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, "Buy for yourself my field that is in Anathoth, for the right of redemption is yours to buy it."' 8 So Hanameel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Buy my field, I pray you, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin, for the right of inheritance is yours and the redemption is yours. Buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 "And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son that was in Anathoth and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. 10 And I signed the contract and sealed it, took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. 11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom and that which was open, 12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel my uncle's son and in the presence of the witnesses who signed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison. 13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying, 14 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both that which is sealed and this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel so that they may remain many days." 15 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land."'

16 "Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying, 17 'Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, you have made the heaven and the earth by your great power and out-stretched arm, and there is nothing too hard for you. 18 You show loving-kindness to thousands and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them. The Great, the Mighty God, YAHWEH of Hosts, is his name, 19 Great in counsel and mighty in work. For your eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men to give each according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings. 20 You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other men, and have made yourself a name, as at this day. 21 You have brought forth your people Israel from the land of Egypt with signs, with wonders, with a strong hand, with an out-stretched arm, and with great terror. 22 You have given them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey, 23 And they came in and possessed it, but they did not obey your voice nor walk in your law. They have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do; therefore, you have caused all this evil to come upon them. 24 Behold the siege-mounds, they have come to the city to take it, and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, the famine, and the pestilence. And what you have spoken has come to pass, and behold, you see it. 25 And you have said to me, O Lord GOD, "Buy yourself the field for money and take witnesses," for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.'"

26 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 27 "Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for me?" 28 Therefore, thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it. 29 And the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire and burn it with the houses upon whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal and poured out drink-offerings to other gods to provoke me to anger. 30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth, for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands," says the LORD. 31 "For this city has been to me as a provocation of my anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even to this day so that I should remove it from before my face, 32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger—they, their kings, their princes, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 And they have turned the back to me and not the face. Though I taught them, rising early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. 34 But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name to defile it. 35 And they built the high places of Baal which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech, which I did not command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination to cause Judah to sin.

36 "And now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, of which you say, 'It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence': 37 'Behold, I will gather them out of all countries where I have driven them in my anger, in my fury, and in great wrath, and I will bring them back to this place and cause them to dwell in safety. 38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. 39 And I will give them one heart and one way so that they may fear me forever for their good and the good of their children after them. 40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good, but I will put my fear in their hearts so that they shall not depart from me. 41 Indeed, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.' 42 For thus says the LORD: 'As I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. 43 And fields shall be bought in this land, of which you say, "It is desolate without man or beast. It is given into the hand of the Chaldeans." 44 Men shall buy fields for money, sign evidences and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south, for I will cause their captivity to return,' says the LORD."

Chapter 33

God promises to the captivity a gracious return, 1-8; a joyful state, 9-11; a settled government, 12-14; Christ the branch of righteousness, 15, 16; a continuance of kingdom and priesthood, 17, 18; and the stability of a blessed posterity, 19-26.

1 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time while he was still confined in the court of the prison, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD, the maker of this, the LORD who formed it to establish it, Yahweh is his name: 3 'Call to me, and I will answer you and show you great and mighty things which you do not know.' 4 For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the siege-mounds and by the sword: 5 'They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in my anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city. 6 Behold, I will bring it health and healing. I will cure them and will reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth. 7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return and will build them, as at the first. 8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me, and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned and by which they have transgressed against me. 9 And it shall be to me for a name of joy, for praise, and for honor before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them. And they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure to it.'

10 "Thus says the LORD: 'Again there shall be heard in this place, which you say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate without man, without inhabitant, and without beast, 11 The voice of joy, the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, the voice of the bride, and the voice of those who shall say, "Praise the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good. For his mercy endures forever," and of those who shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return, as at the first,' says the LORD.

12 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all its cities shall be a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. 13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the valley, in the cities of the south, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks shall pass again under the hands of him who counts them,' says the LORD.

14 'Behold, the days come,' says the LORD, 'that I will perform that good thing which I have promised to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah. 15 In those days and at that time I will cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up to David, and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land. 16 In those days Judah shall be saved and Jerusalem shall dwell in safety. And this is the name by which she shall be called: YAHWEH Our Righteousness.' 17 For thus says the LORD: 'David shall never lack a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel, 18 Neither shall the priests the Levites lack a man before me to offer burnt-offerings, to kindle food-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.'"

19 And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 20 "Thus says the LORD: 'If you can break my covenant of the day and my covenant of the night so that there should not be day and night in their season, 21 Then may my covenant also be broken with David my servant so that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne, and also with the Levites the priests, my ministers. 22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured, so I will multiply the offspring of David my servant and the Levites who minister to me.'"

23 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 24 "Do you not consider what this people has spoken, saying, 'The two families which the LORD has chosen, he has even cast them off'? Thus they have despised my people so that they should no longer be a nation before them. 25 Thus says the LORD: 'If my covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth, 26 Then I will cast away the offspring of Jacob and David my servant so that I will not take any of his offspring to be rulers over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will cause their captivity to return and have mercy on them.'"

Chapter 34

Jeremiah prophesies the captivity of Zedekiah and the city, 1-7. The princes and the people, having dismissed their servants, cause them to return contrary to the covenant of God, 8-11. Jeremiah gives them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies for their disobedience, 12-22.

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, all his army, all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people fought against Jerusalem and against all its cities, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. 3 And you shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be taken and delivered into his hand. And your eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon.'"' 4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah. Thus says the LORD concerning you: 'You shall not die by the sword, 5 But you shall die in peace. And as with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they shall burn odors for you. And they will lament you, saying, "Ah, lord!"' For I have pronounced the word," says the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem 7 When the king of Babylon’s army fought against Jerusalem, against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah, for these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem to proclaim liberty to them, 9 That every man should liberate his man-servant and every man his woman-servant, being a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, so that no one should retain them in service, namely, a Jew his brother. 10 Now when all the princes and all the people who had entered into the covenant heard that everyone should liberate his man-servant and everyone his woman-servant so that no one should retain them in service anymore, they obeyed and let them go. 11 But afterward, they turned and caused the men-servants and the women-servants whom they had liberated to return, and brought them into subjection as men-servants and as women-servants.

12 Therefore, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 13 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth from the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, 14 "At the end of seven years each of you shall dismiss his brother, a Hebrew, who has been sold to you. And when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you." But your fathers did not listen to me or incline their ear. 15 And you had now turned and had done right in my sight, each in proclaiming liberty to his neighbor, and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name. 16 But you turned and profaned my name and each caused his man-servant and each his woman-servant, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection to be your men-servants and women-servants.'

17 "Therefore, thus says the LORD: 'You have not listened to me in proclaiming liberty, each to his brother and each to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim a liberty for you,' says the LORD, 'to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine, and I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. 18 And I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts— 19 The princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf— 20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life. And their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. 21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes I will give into the hand of their enemies, into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon’s army, which have gone up from you. 22 Behold, I will command,' says the LORD, 'and cause them to return to this city, and they shall fight against it, take it, and burn it with fire. And I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.'"

By the obedience of the Rechabites, 1-11, Jeremiah condemns the disobedience of the Jews, 12-17. God blesses the Rechabites for their obedience, 18, 19.

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, 2 "Go to the house of the Rechabites and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink." 3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah the son of Habaziniah, his brothers, all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites, 4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, who was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door. 5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine and cups, and I said to them, "Drink wine." 6 But they said, "We will drink no wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink no wine—neither you nor your sons forever— 7 Neither shall you build house, sow seed, plant vineyard, nor have any. But all your days you shall dwell in tents so that you may live many days in the land where you are strangers.' 8 Thus we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he has charged us, to drink no wine all our days—we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters— 9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in, neither do we have vineyard, field, nor seed. 10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. 11 But it came to pass when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and for fear of the army of the Syrians.' So we dwell at Jerusalem."

12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 13 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?" says the LORD. 14 "The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab that he commanded his sons not to drink wine are performed. For to this day they drink none, but obey their father’s commandment. But I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, and you did not listen to me. 15 I have also sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, 'Return each of you now from his evil way, amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers. But you have not inclined your ear nor listened to me. 16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me,'"' 17 Therefore, thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard, and I have called to them, but they have not answered.'"

18 And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he has commanded you, 19 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not lack a man to stand before me forever."'"

Chapter 36

Jeremiah causes Baruch to write his prophecy, 1-4, and publicly to read it, 5-10. The princes, having intelligence thereof by Michaiah, send Jehudi to fetch the scroll and read it, 11-18. They make Baruch hide himself and Jeremiah, 19. The king Jehoiakim, being certified thereof, hears part of it and burns the scroll, 20-26. Jeremiah denounces his judgment, 27-31. Baruch writes a new copy, 32.

1 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Take for yourself a scroll of a book and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, against Judah, and against all the nations from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. 3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them so that they may each return from his evil way and that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah. And Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD which he had spoken to him upon a scroll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am confined. I cannot go into the house of the LORD. 6 Therefore, go and read the words of the LORD from the scroll which you have written from my mouth in the ears of the people in the LORD’S house upon the day of fasting. And also you shall read them in the ears of all of Judah who come out of their cities. 7 It may be that they will present their supplication before the LORD and will each return from his evil way, for the anger and the fury is great that the LORD has pronounced against this people." 8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD’S house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. 10 Then Baruch read in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD’S house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 He went down into the king’s house, into the scribe’s chamber, and behold, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. 13 Then Michaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. 14 Therefore, all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them. 15 And they said to him, "Sit down now and read it in our ears." So Baruch read it in their ears. 16 Now it came to pass when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear to one another and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." 17 And they asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words from his mouth?" 18 Then Baruch answered them, "He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book." 19 Then the princes said to Baruch, "Go, hide yourself—you and Jeremiah—and let no man know where you are."

20 And they went to the king in the court, but they laid up the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe and told all the words in the ears of the king. 21 So the king sent Jehudi to bring the scroll, and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. 22 Now the king sat in the winter-house in the ninth month, and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him. 23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the scribe’s pen-knife and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. 24 Yet they were not afraid nor rent their garments—neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words. 25 Nevertheless, Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the scroll, but he would not hear them. 26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after the king had burned the scroll and the words which Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, 28 "Take for yourself again another scroll and write in it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah has burned. 29 And you shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, 'Thus says the LORD: "You have burned this scroll, saying, 'Why have you written therein, saying, "The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land and cause man and beast to cease from there"?'" 30 Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: "He shall have no one to sit upon the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat and in the night to the frost. 31 And I will punish him and his offspring and his servants for their iniquity, and I will bring upon them, upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they did not listen."'"

32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And again there were added to them many words like these.

Chapter 37

The Egyptians having raised the siege of the Chaldeans, king Zedekiah sends to Jeremiah to pray for the people, 1-5. Jeremiah prophesies the Chaldeans' certain return and victory, 6-10. He is taken for a fugitive, beaten, and put in prison, 11-15. He assures Zedekiah of the captivity, 16, 17. Entreating for his liberty, he obtains some favor, 18-21.

1 And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. 2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the priest, the son of Maaseiah, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Pray now to the LORD our God for us." 4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people, for they had not put him into prison. 5 Then Pharaoh’s army had come from Egypt. And when the Chaldeans who besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 7 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Thus you shall say to the king of Judah who sent you to me to inquire of me: "Behold, Pharaoh’s army, which has come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. 8 And the Chaldeans shall come back, fight against this city, take it, and burn it with fire."' 9 Thus says the LORD: 'Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely depart from us," for they will not depart. 10 For though you had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, yet they would each rise up in his tent and burn this city with fire.'"

11 And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh’s army, 12 Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to separate himself from there in the midst of the people. 13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

"You are falling away to the Chaldeans." 14 Then Jeremiah said, "It is false. I do not fall away to the Chaldeans." But he did not listen to him. So Irijah took Jeremiah and brought him to the princes. 15 Therefore, the princes were angry with Jeremiah and beat him and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had made that the prison. 16 So Jeremiah had entered into the dungeon and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days.

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. And the king asked him secretly in his house and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?" And Jeremiah said, "There is." He said, "You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon." 18 Moreover, Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, "In what have I offended against you, against your servants, or against this people that you have put me in prison? 19 Where are your prophets now who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon shall not come against you nor against this land'? 20 Now therefore, hear, I pray you, O my lord the king. Let my supplication, I pray you, be accepted before you, that you do not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there." 21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison and that they should give him a piece of bread daily out of the baker’s street until all the bread in the city was consumed. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malchiah, 1-6. Ebed-melech, by appeal, gets him some enlargement, 7-13. Upon secret conference, he counsels the king by yielding to save his life, 14-23. By the king’s instructions he conceals the conference from the princes, 24-28.

1 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashur, Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD: 'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, but he who goes forth to the Chaldeans shall live, for he shall have his life for plunder and shall live.' 3 Thus says the LORD: 'This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon’s army, which shall take it.'" 4 Therefore, the princes said to the king, "We implore you, let this man be put to death, for thus he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city and the hands of all the people in speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt." 5 Then Zedekiah the king said, "Behold, he is in your hand, for the king is not he who can do anything against you." 6 Then they took Jeremiah and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech that was in the court of the prison. And they let Jeremiah down with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire. So Jeremiah sunk in the mire. 7 Now when Ebed-melech the Cushite, one of the eunuchs who was in the king’s house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king was sitting in the gate of Benjamin), 8 Ebed-melech went out of the king’s house and spoke to the king, saying, 9 "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon. And he is likely to die by hunger in the place where he is, for there is no more bread in the city." 10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Cushite, saying, "Take from here thirty men with you and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he dies." 11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went into the house of the king under the treasury, took from there old cast cloths and old decayed rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. 12 And Ebed-melech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, "Now put these old cast cloths and decayed rags under your armpits under the cords." And Jeremiah did so. 13 So they drew Jeremiah up with cords and took him out of the dungeon. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you a thing. Hide nothing from me." 15 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me." 16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you will assuredly go forth to the king of Babylon’s princes, then your soul shall live and this city shall not be burned with fire, and you shall live, along with your house. 18 But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon’s princes, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape from their hand.'" 19 And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand and they mock me." 20 But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Obey, I implore you, the voice of the LORD, which I speak to you, so that it may be well with you, and that your soul may live. 21 But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD has revealed to me: 22 'And behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah’s house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon’s princes, and those women shall say, > "Your friends have enticed you / > and have prevailed against you. / > Your feet are sunk in the mire, / > and they have turned away from you."

23 'So they shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans. And you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon, and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.'"

24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. 25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king, do not hide it from us and we will not put you to death, and also what the king said to you,' 26 Then you shall say to them, 'I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan’s house to die there.'" 27 Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him, and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him, for the matter was not perceived. 28 So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken, and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

Jerusalem is taken, 1-3. Zedekiah is made blind and sent to Babylon, 4-7. The city laid in ruins, 8, and the people taken captive, 9, 10. Nebuchadnezzar's charge for the good usage of Jeremiah, 11-14. God's promise to Ebed-melech, 15-18.

1 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. 2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up. 3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, and Rab-mag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon. 4 And it came to pass, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, they fled and went out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls, and he went out the way of the plain. 5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And when they had taken him, they brought him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. 6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes. The king of Babylon also slew all the nobles of Judah. 7 Moreover, he put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with chains to carry him to Babylon. 8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with fire and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. 9 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who fell away, who fell to him, with the rest of the people who remained. 10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the people who had nothing in the land of Judah and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, 12 "Take him, look well to him, and do him no harm, but do to him even as he says to you." 13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes, 14 They even sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, so that he should carry him home. So he dwelt among the people.

15 Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah while he was confined in the court of the prison, saying, 16 "Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Cushite, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil and not for good, and they shall be accomplished in that day before you. 17 But I will deliver you in that day," says the LORD, "and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. 18 For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be as plunder to you because you have put your trust in me," says the LORD.'"

Chapter 40

Jeremiah, being set free by Nebuzar-adan, goes to Gedaliah, 1-6. The dispersed Jews go to him, 7-12. Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy is not believed, 13-16.

1 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all who were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. 2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "The LORD your God has pronounced this evil upon this place. 3 Now the LORD has brought it and done according as he has said. Because you have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come upon you. 4 And now, behold, I release you this day from the chains which were upon your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well to you. But if it seems ill to you to come with me into Babylon, forbear. Behold, all the land is before you. Where it seems good and right for you to go, go there." 5 Now while he had not yet gone back, he said, "Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people, or go wherever it seems convenient for you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him provisions and a reward and let him go. 6 Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mizpah and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

7 Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields—they and their men—heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land and had committed to him men, women, children, and those of the poorest of the land who were not carried away captive to Babylon, 8 They came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite—they and their men. 9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore to them and to their men, saying, "Do not fear to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. 10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah to serve the Chaldeans who will come to us. But you, gather wine, summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels and dwell in your cities that you have taken." 11 Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab, among the Ammonites, in Edom, and who were in all the countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, 12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits in abundance.

13 Moreover, Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah 14 And said to him, "Do you certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay you?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them. 15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Let me go, I pray you, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it. Why should he slay you so that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered and the remnant of Judah perish?" 16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing, for you speak falsely of Ishmael."

Ishmael, treacherously killing Gedaliah and others, purposes with the remnant to flee to the Ammonites, 1-10. Johanan recovers the captives and is minded to flee into Egypt, 11-18.

1 Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mizpah. And there they ate bread together in Mizpah. 2 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him arose and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. 3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews who were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, as well as the Chaldean men of war who were found there.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, 5 That there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes rent and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. 6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went. And it came to pass as he met them, that he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam." 7 And it came to pass when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them and cast them into the midst of the pit—he and the men who were with him. 8 But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not slay us, for we have treasures in the field of wheat, of barley, of oil, and of honey." So he forbore and did not slay them among their brothers.

9 Now the pit into which Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were slain. 10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the remnant of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king’s daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces who were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 They took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. 13 Now it came to pass when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces who were with him, that they were glad. 14 So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and returned and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. 15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites. 16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces who were with him took all the remnant of the people from Mizpeh whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah after he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon. 17 And they departed and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt 18 Because of the Chaldeans. For they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

Chapter 42

Johanan desires Jeremiah to inquire of God, promising obedience to his will, 1-6.

Jeremiah assures him of safety in Judea, 7-12; and destruction in Egypt, 13-18. He reproves their hypocrisy in asking for counsel with which they had no intention to comply, 19-22.

1 Then all the captains of the forces, Johanan the son of Kareah, Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest came near 2 And said to Jeremiah the prophet, "We implore you, let our supplication be accepted before you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, even for all this remnant (for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes behold us), 3 So that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we may walk and the thing that we may do." 4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. Behold, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words. And it shall come to pass, that whatever thing the LORD answers you, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you." 5 Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not do according to all things for which the LORD your God sends you to us. 6 Whether it be good or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send you, so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

7 And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. 8 Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, 9 And said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him: 10 'If you will still abide in this land, then I will build you and not pull you down, and I will plant you and not pluck you up, for I repent of the evil that I have done to you. 11 Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Do not be afraid of him,' says the LORD, 'for I am with you to save you and to deliver you from his hand. 12 And I will show mercies to you, so that he may have mercy upon you and cause you to return to your own land. 13 But if you say, "We will not dwell in this land," neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, 14 Saying, "No, but we will go into the land of Egypt where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor hunger for bread. And there we will dwell," 15 Then therefore, hear the word of the LORD, you remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "If you wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt and go to sojourn there, 16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine of which you were afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt. And there you shall die. 17 Thus it shall be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there. They shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. And none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them."'

18 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'As my anger and my fury has been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my fury shall be poured forth upon you when you enter into Egypt. And you shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach, and you shall see this place no more.' 19 The LORD has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, 'Do not go into Egypt.' Know certainly that I have admonished you this day. 20 For you dissembled in your hearts when you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God, and according to all that the LORD our God says, declare it to us, and we will do it.' 21 And now I have this day declared it to you, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God nor anything for which he has sent me to you. 22 Now therefore, know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence in the place where you desire to go and to sojourn."

Chapter 43

Johanan, discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carries him and the rest into Egypt, 1-7. Jeremiah prophesies by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians, 8-13.

1 And it came to pass when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, 2 That Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, "You speak falsely. The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go into Egypt to sojourn there.' 3 But Baruch the son of Neriah entices you against us to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans so that they may put us to death and carry us away as captives into Babylon." 4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces, and all the people did not obey the voice of the LORD to dwell in the land of Judah. 5 But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took all the remnant of Judah, who had returned from all nations where they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah— 6 Even men, women, children, the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. 7 So they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. Thus they came even to Tahpanhes.

8 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, 9 "Take great stones in your hand and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah, 10 And say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid, and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. 11 And when he comes, he shall smite the land of Egypt and deliver those who are for death to death, and those who are for captivity to captivity, and those who are for the sword to the sword. 12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and he shall burn them and carry them away as captives. And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he shall go forth from there in peace. 13 He shall also break the images of Beth-shemesh, which is in the land of Egypt, and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he shall burn with fire."'"

Jeremiah expresses the desolation of Judah for their idolatry, 1-10. He prophesies the destruction of those who commit idolatry in Egypt, 11-14. The obstinacy of the Jews, 15-19; for which Jeremiah threatens them, 20-28; and for a sign prophesies the destruction of Egypt, 29, 30.

1 A word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'You have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem and upon all the cities of Judah, and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwells in them 3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger in that they went to burn incense and to serve other gods, whom they did not know—neither they, you, nor your fathers. 4 Yet I sent all my servants the prophets to you, rising early and sending them, saying, "Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate." 5 But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness and burn no incense to other gods. 6 Therefore, my fury and my anger was poured forth and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day. 7 And now, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: "Why do you commit this great evil against your souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah to leave yourselves no one to remain, 8 In that you provoke me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to dwell, so that you may cut yourselves off and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? 9 Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10 They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared. They have not walked in my law nor in my statutes which I set before you and before your fathers."'

11 "Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will set my face against you for evil and to cut off all Judah. 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine. They shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine. And they shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach. 13 For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, 14 So that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there shall escape or remain to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there. For none shall return but those who escape.'"

15 Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods and all the women who stood by, a great multitude, even all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, 16 "As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you. 17 But we will certainly do whatever thing proceeds from our own mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink-offerings to her, as we have done—we, our fathers, our kings, and our princes—in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of provisions and were well and saw no evil. 18 But since we ceased to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink-offerings to her, we have lacked all things and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. 19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink-offerings to her, did we make for her cakes to worship her and pour out drink-offerings to her without our men?"

20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, to the women, and to all the people who had given him that answer, saying, 21 "The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem—you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land—did the LORD not remember them, and did it not come into his mind? 22 So the LORD could no longer bear because of the evil of your doings and because of the abominations which you have committed; therefore, your land is a desolation, an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because you have burned incense and because you have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies, therefore this evil has happened to you, as at this day."

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. 25 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hand, saying, "We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink-offerings to her." You will surely accomplish your vows and surely perform your vows.' 26 Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: 'Behold, I have sworn by my great name,' says the LORD, 'that my name shall no longer be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "The Lord GOD lives." 27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil and not for good. And all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine until there is an end of them. 28 Yet a small number who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there shall know whose words shall stand—mine, or theirs. 29 And this shall be a sign to you,' says the LORD, 'that I will punish you in this place so that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil.' 30 Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy and sought his life.'"

Baruch, being dismayed, 1-3, Jeremiah instructs and comforts him, 4, 5.

1 Jeremiah the prophet spoke a word to Baruch the son of Neriah when he had written these words in a book from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: 3 'You said, "Woe is me now! For the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing and I find no rest."' 4 Thus you shall say to him: 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, that which I have built I will break down and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land." 5 And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them. For behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh,' says the LORD, 'but your life I will give to you for plunder in all places where you go.'"

Chapter 46

Jeremiah prophesies the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at the Euphrates, 1-12, and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadnezzar, 13-26. He comforts Jacob in his chastisement, 27, 28.

1 [The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles.]

2 [Against Egypt. Concerning the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, who was by the Euphrates River in Carshemish, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.]

3 "Order the buckler and shield / and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses and mount, you horsemen, / and stand forth with your helmets. /
Furbish the spears and put on the coats of mail.

5 Why have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? / And their mighty ones are beaten down, / have fled apace, and do not look back, / for fear was on all sides," /
says the LORD.

6 Do not let the swift flee away / nor the mighty man escape! /
They shall stumble and fall / toward the north by the Euphrates River.

7 Who is this who comes up like a flood, / whose waters are moved like the rivers?

8 Egypt rises up like a flood, / and his waters are moved like the rivers, / and he says, "I will go up and cover the earth. /
I will destroy the city and its inhabitants."

9 Come up, you horses, and rage, you chariots, / and let the mighty men come forth— / the Cushites and the Libyans who handle the shield, / and the Lydians who handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, / a day of vengeance, /
so that he may avenge himself of his adversaries. /
And the sword shall devour and shall be satiated / and made drunk with their blood, / for the Lord GOD of hosts has a sacrifice / in the north country by the Euphrates River.

11 Go up into Gilead and take balm, /
O virgin, the daughter of Egypt. /
In vain you shall use many medicines, / for you shall not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of your shame, / and your cry has filled the land. /
For the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, / and they have fallen both together.

13 [The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.]

14 "Declare in Egypt, publish in Migdol, / and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes. / Say, 'Stand fast and prepare, / for the sword shall devour around you.'

15 Why are your valiant men swept away? /
They did not stand because the LORD drove them.

16 He made many to fall. /
Even one fell upon another. /
And they said, 'Arise, and let us go back to our own people / and to the land of our nativity / from the oppressing sword.'

17 They cried there, 'Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a noise. /
He has passed the time appointed.'

18 As I live," says the King, / whose name is the LORD of hosts, /
"surely as Tabor is among the mountains / and as Carmel by the sea, so he shall come.

19 O daughter dwelling in Egypt, / furnish yourself to go into captivity, / for Noph shall be waste and desolate /
without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, /
but destruction comes. It comes out of the north.

21 Even her hired men are in the midst of her / like fattened bulls, / for they also have turned back / and have fled away together. /
They did not stand /
because the day of their calamity had come upon them, /
and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent, / for they shall march with an army / and come against her with axes, / like hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest," /
says the LORD, /
"though it cannot be searched / because they are more than the swarming-locusts / and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded. /
She shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north."

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel says, "Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods and their kings—even Pharaoh and all those who trust in him— 26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants. And afterward, it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old," says the LORD.

27 "But do not fear, O my servant Jacob, / and do not be dismayed, O Israel, /
for behold, I will save you from afar /
and your offspring from the land of their captivity. /
And Jacob shall return and be in rest and at ease, /
and no one shall make him afraid.

28 Do not fear, O Jacob my servant," /
says the LORD, /
"for I am with you. /
I will make a full end of all the nations / where I have driven you, /
but I will not make a full end of you. /
I will correct you in measure / and will not leave you wholly unpunished."

Chapter 47

The destruction of the Philistines, 1-7.

1 [The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines before Pharaoh smote Gaza.]

2 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, waters rise out of the north / and shall be an overflowing flood. /
They shall overflow the land and all that is in it— /
the city and those who dwell therein. /
Then the men shall cry, / and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stomping of the hooves of his strong horses, / at the rushing of his chariots, / and at the rumbling of his wheels, / the fathers shall not look back to their children /
for feebleness of hands,

4 Because of the day that comes / to lay waste all the Philistines, / and to cut off from Tyre and Zidon / every helper who remains. / For the LORD will lay waste the Philistines, / the remnant of the country of Caphtor.

5 Baldness has come upon Gaza. / Ashkelon is cut off /
with the remnant of their valley. /
How long will you cut yourself?

6 O sword of the LORD, /
how long will it be before you are quiet? /
Put yourself up into your scabbard. / Rest, and be still.

7 How can it be quiet, / seeing the LORD has given it a charge / against Ashkelon and against the sea shore? /
There he has appointed it."

Chapter 48

The judgment of Moab, 1-6, for their pride, 7-10; for their security, 11-13; for their carnal confidence, 14-25; and for their contempt of God and his people, 26-46. The restoration of Moab, 47.

1 [Against Moab.] Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Woe to Nebo! For it is laid waste. /
Kiriathaim is confounded and taken. /
Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab. /
In Heshbon they have devised evil against it. /
'Come, and let us cut it off from being a nation.' /
You also shall be cut down, O Madmen. /
The sword shall pursue you.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, /
'Devastation and great destruction.'

4 Moab is destroyed. /
Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the ascent of Luhith / continual weeping shall go up. /
For in the descent of Horonaim /
the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 Flee, save your lives, / and be like the heath in the wilderness.

7 For because you have trusted / in your works and in your treasures, / you also shall be taken. / And Chemosh shall go forth into captivity / with his priests and his princes together.

8 And the destroyer shall come upon every city, / and no city shall escape. /
The valley shall also perish, / and the plain shall be destroyed, / as the LORD has spoken.

9 Give wings to Moab /
so that it may flee and get away, / for its cities shall be desolate / without any to dwell in them.

10 Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully, / and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

11 Moab has been at ease from his youth, / and he has settled on his dregs / and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, / neither has he gone into captivity. / Therefore, his taste remained in him, /
and his scent is not changed.

12 "Therefore, behold, the days come," /
says the LORD, /
"that I will send to him wanderers / who shall cause him to wander, / and shall empty his vessels / and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, / as the house of Israel was ashamed / of Beth-el their confidence.

14 "How do you say, /
'We are mighty and strong men for the war'?

15 Moab is laid waste and gone up out of her cities, / and his chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter," / says the King, /
whose name is the LORD of hosts.

16 "The calamity of Moab is near to come, / and his affliction hastens fast.

17 All you who are around him, bemoan him, / and all you who know his name. / Say, 'How the strong staff is broken, /
the beautiful rod!'

18 You daughter who inhabits Dibon, / come down from your glory and sit in thirst, / for the destroyer of Moab shall come upon you / and he shall destroy your strongholds.

19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way and watch. / Ask him who flees and her who escapes, / and say, 'What has been done?'

20 Moab is confounded, / for it is broken down. /
Howl and cry. /
Tell it in Arnon / that Moab is laid waste.

21 "And judgment has come upon the plain country: upon Holon, upon Jahazah, upon Mephaath, 22 Upon Dibon, upon Nebo, upon Beth-diblathaim, 23 Upon Kiriathaim, upon Beth-gamul, upon Beth-meon, 24 Upon Kerioth, upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. 25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken," says the LORD. 26 "Make him drunken, for he magnified himself against the LORD. Moab shall also wallow in his vomit and shall also be in derision. 27 For was Israel not a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For since you have spoken of him, you have leaped for joy.

28 "O you who dwell in Moab, / leave the cities, dwell in the rock, / and be like the dove that makes her nest /
in the sides of the hole’s mouth.

29 We have heard the pride of Moab /
(he is exceedingly proud), / his loftiness, his arrogance, his pride, / and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath," /
says the LORD, /
"that it is nothing. /
His boastings have wrought nothing.

31 Therefore, I will howl for Moab, / and I will cry out for all Moab. /
My heart shall mourn for the men of Kirheres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, /
I will weep for you with the weeping of Jazer. /
Your plants have gone over the sea. /
They reach even to the sea of Jazer. /
The destroyer has fallen / upon your summer fruits and upon your vintage.

33 And joy and gladness is taken / from the plentiful field and from the land of Moab, / and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses. /
No one shall tread with shouting. /
Their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 "From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, and even to Jahaz, they have uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah. For the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate. 35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab," says the LORD, "him who offers in the high places and him who burns incense to his gods.

36 "Therefore, my heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and my heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kirheres because the riches that he has gotten have perished. 37 For every head shall be bald and every beard clipped. Upon all the hands are cuttings, and upon the loins is sackcloth. 38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab and in its streets, for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which there is no pleasure," says the LORD. 39 "They shall howl, saying, 'How it is broken down! How Moab has turned the back with shame!' So Moab shall be a derision and a dismaying to all who are around him."

40 For thus says the LORD: /
"Behold, he shall fly like an eagle / and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken / and the strongholds are surprised, / and the mighty men’s hearts in Moab at that day / shall be like the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people / because he has magnified himself against the LORD.

43 Fear, the pit, and the snare / shall be upon you, O inhabitant of Moab," /
says the LORD.

44 "He who flees from the fear / shall fall into the pit. /
And he who gets out of the pit /
shall be taken in the snare. /
For I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, /
the year of their visitation," /
says the LORD.

45 "Those who fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon / because of the force. /
But a fire shall come out of Heshbon, / and a flame from the midst of Sihon, / and shall devour the corner of Moab / and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 Woe to you, O Moab! /
The people of Chemosh perish, /
for your sons are taken away captive, / and your daughters into captivity.

47 Yet I will bring back the captivity of Moab / in the latter days," /
says the LORD.

[Thus far is the judgment of Moab.]

Chapter 49

The judgment of the Ammonites, 1-5. Their restoration, 6. The judgment of Edom, 7-22; of Damascus, 23-27; of Kedar, 28, 29; of Hazor, 30-33; and of Elam, 34-38. The restoration of Elam, 39.

1 [Concerning the Ammonites.] Thus says the LORD:

"Does Israel have no sons? /
Does he have no heir? /
Why then does their king inherit Gad, /
and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come," /
says the LORD, /
"that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard / in Rabbah of the Ammonites, / and it shall be a desolate heap, / and her daughters shall be burned with fire. / Then Israel shall be heir to those who were his heirs," /
says the LORD.

3 "Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste. /
Cry, you daughters of Rabbah. /
Gird yourselves with sackcloth. /
Lament, and run to and fro by the hedges. /
For their king shall go into captivity, / and his priests and his princes together.

4 Why do you glory in the valleys, / your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter, / who trusted in her treasures, saying, /
'Who shall come to me?'

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon you," / says the Lord GOD of hosts, /
"from all those who are around you. /
And you shall each be driven out headlong. /
And no one shall gather up him who wanders.

6 And afterward, I will bring back the captivity / of the children of Ammon," /
says the LORD.

7 [Concerning Edom.] Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Is wisdom no longer in Teman? /
Has counsel perished from the prudent? /
Has their wisdom vanished?

8 Flee, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan, / for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, /
the time that I will visit him.

9 If grape-gatherers come to you, / would they not leave some gleaning grapes? /
If thieves by night, /
they will destroy until they have enough.

10 But I have made Esau bare, / I have uncovered his secret places, / and he shall not be able to hide himself. / His offspring is laid waste, / along with his brothers and his neighbors, / and he is no more.

11 Leave your fatherless children. /
I will preserve them alive. /
And let your widows trust in me."

12 For thus says the LORD: "Behold, those whose judgment was not to drink the cup have assuredly drank. And are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink it. 13 For I have sworn by myself," says the LORD, "that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse, and all her cities shall be perpetual wastes."

14 I have heard a rumor from the LORD, / and an ambassador is sent to the heathen, saying, / "Assemble, and come against her /
and rise up to the battle,

15 For behold, I will make you small among the heathen / and despised among men.

16 Your terribleness has deceived you, / and the pride of your heart, /
O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, / who hold the height of the hill. /
Though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, /
I will bring you down from there," /
says the LORD.

17 "Also, Edom shall be a desolation. Everyone who goes by it shall be astonished and shall hiss at all her plagues. 18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighboring cities," says the LORD, "no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it. 19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of the Jordan against the habitation of the strong, but I will suddenly make him run away from her. And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her? For who is like me? And who will appoint me the time? And who is that shepherd who will stand before me?"

20 Therefore, hear the counsel of the LORD that he has taken against Edom, and also his purposes that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman. Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out. Surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall. At the cry its noise was heard in the Red Sea. 22 Behold, he shall come up and fly like the eagle and spread his wings over Bozrah. And at that day the heart of the mighty men of Edom shall be like the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 [Concerning Damascus.]

"Hamath is confounded, and also Arpad, /
for they have heard evil tidings. /
They are faint-hearted. /
There is sorrow on the sea. /
It cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus has become feeble and turns herself to flee, / and fear has seized upon her. / Anguish and sorrows have taken her / like a woman in travail.

25 How the city of praise is not left, / the city of my joy!

26 Therefore, her young men shall fall in her streets, / and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day," /
says the LORD of hosts.

27 "And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, / and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad."

28 [Concerning Kedar and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall smite.] Thus says the LORD:

"Arise, go up to Kedar / and lay waste the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks they shall take away. /
They shall take for themselves their curtains, /
all their vessels, and their camels, / and they shall cry to them, /
'Fear is on every side.'

30 Flee, get yourselves far off, dwell deep, / O inhabitants of Hazor," /
says the LORD, /
"for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon / has taken counsel against you / and has conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, go up to the wealthy nation / that dwells without care," /
says the LORD, /
"that has neither gates nor bars, /
that dwells alone.

32 And their camels shall be loot / and the multitude of their livestock for plunder. /
And I will scatter into all winds / those who are in the utmost corners, / and I will bring their calamity / from all sides of it," /
says the LORD.

33 "And Hazor shall be a dwelling for jackals / and a desolation forever. /
No man shall abide there. /
No son of man shall dwell in it."

34 [The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah.]

35 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, /
the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam I will bring the four winds / from the four quarters of heaven / and will scatter them toward all those winds. /
And there shall be no nation / where the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies / and before those who seek their life. /
And I will bring evil upon them, / even my fierce anger," /
says the LORD, /
"and I will send the sword after them /
until I have consumed them.

38 And I will set my throne in Elam / and will destroy from there the king and the princes," /
says the LORD.

39 "But it shall come to pass in the latter days, / that I will bring back the captivity of Elam," /
says the LORD.

Chapter 50

The judgment of Babylon and the redemption of Israel, 1-46.

1 [The word that the LORD spoke against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.]

2 "Declare among the nations and publish, / and set up a standard. / Publish, and do not conceal. /
Say, 'Babylon is taken. /
Bel is confounded. /
Merodach is broken in pieces. /
Her idols are confounded. /
Her images are broken in pieces.'

3 For out of the north there comes a nation against her / which shall make her land desolate, / and no one shall dwell in it. /
They shall flee, they shall depart— /
both man and beast.

4 "In those days and in that time," /
says the LORD, /
"the children of Israel shall come— / they and the children of Judah together— / going and weeping. /
They shall go and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion / with their faces toward it, saying, /
'Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD /
in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.'

6 "My people have been lost sheep. /
Their shepherds have caused them to go astray. /
They have turned them away on the mountains. /
They have gone from mountain to hill. /
They have forgotten their resting-place.

7 All who found them have devoured them. /
And their adversaries said, 'We do not offend / because they have sinned against the LORD, /
the habitation of justice, / even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.'

8 Flee out of the midst of Babylon / and go forth from the land of the Chaldeans, / and be like the male goats before the flocks.

9 For behold, I will raise and cause to come against Babylon / an assembly of great nations from the north country. /
And they shall set themselves in array against her. /
From there she shall be taken. /
Their arrows shall be like those of an expert warrior. /
None shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be plundered. / All who plunder her shall be satisfied," /
says the LORD.

11 "Because you were glad, because you rejoiced, /
O destroyers of my heritage, / because you have grown fat like a heifer in the grass /
and bellow like bulls,

12 Your mother shall be greatly confounded. /
She who bore you shall be ashamed. /
Behold, the hindmost of the nations / shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, / but it shall be wholly desolate. / Everyone who goes by Babylon / shall be astonished and hiss at all her plagues.

14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon on every side. /
All you who bend the bow, / shoot at her, spare no arrows, / for she has sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her on every side. /
She has given her hand. /
Her foundations have fallen. /
Her walls are thrown down. /
Since it is the vengeance of the LORD, / take vengeance upon her. /
As she has done, do to her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon / and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest. /
For fear of the oppressing sword, / they shall each turn to his people /
and shall each flee to his own land.

17 "Israel is a scattered sheep. /
The lions have driven him away. /
First the king of Assyria has devoured him, / and last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon / has broken his bones.

18 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

'Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, /
as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel back to his habitation, / and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, / and his soul shall be satisfied / upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days and in that time,' /
says the LORD, /
'the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, / and there shall be none, / and the sins of Judah, / and they shall not be found, / for I will pardon those whom I reserve.'

21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, / and against the inhabitants of Pekod. / Waste and utterly destroy after them," /
says the LORD, /
"and do according to all that I have commanded you.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, / and of great destruction.

23 How the hammer of the whole earth / is cut apart and broken! / How Babylon has become / a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for you, / and you are also taken, O Babylon, / and you were not aware. /
You are found and also caught / because you have striven against the LORD."

25 The LORD has opened his armory / and has brought forth the weapons of his indignation, / for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts / in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the utmost border. /
Open her store-houses. /
Cast her up like heaps and destroy her utterly. / Let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bulls. /
Let them go down to the slaughter. / Woe to them! For their day has come, / the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon / declares in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, /
the vengeance of his temple.

29 "Call together the archers against Babylon. /
All you who bend the bow, /
encamp against it on every side. /
Let none thereof escape. /
Recompense her according to her work. /
According to all that she has done, do to her, / for she has been proud against the LORD, / against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore, her young men shall fall in the streets / and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day," /
says the LORD.

31 "Behold, I am against you, O most proud," / says the Lord GOD of hosts, /
"for your day has come, / the time that I will visit you.

32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, / and no one shall raise him up. /
And I will kindle a fire in his cities, / and it shall devour all around him."

33 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"The children of Israel and the children of Judah / were oppressed together. /
And all who took them captives held them fast. /
They refused to let them go.

34 Their Redeemer is strong. /
The LORD of hosts is his name. /
He will thoroughly plead their cause / so that he may give rest to the land / and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans," /
says the LORD, /
"and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, / upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the liars, / and they shall be foolish. /
A sword is upon her mighty men, / and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, upon their chariots, / and upon all the mingled people / who are in the midst of her, / and they shall become like women. /
A sword is upon her treasures, / and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is upon her waters, / and they shall be dried up. /
For it is the land of engraved images, / and they are mad upon their idols.

39 Therefore, the wild beasts of the desert and the wolves shall dwell there, / and the owls shall dwell therein. /
And it shall be no longer inhabited forever, /
neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah / and the neighboring cities," /
says the LORD, /
"so shall no man abide there, /
neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, / and a great nation, and many kings / shall be raised up from the borders of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance. /
They are cruel and will not show mercy. /
Their voice shall roar like the sea / and they shall ride upon horses, / each put in array, like a man to the battle, / against you, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon has heard their report / and his hands became feeble. / Anguish took hold of him, / and pangs like those of a woman in travail.

44 "Behold, he shall come up like a lion / from the swelling of the Jordan / to the habitation of the strong, / but I will make them suddenly run away from her. /
And who is a chosen man whom I may appoint over her? /
For who is like me? /
And who will appoint me the time? /
And who is that shepherd who will stand before me?"

45 Therefore, hear the counsel of the LORD / that he has taken against Babylon, / and also his purposes that he has purposed / against the land of the Chaldeans. /
Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out. /
Surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, / and the cry is heard among the nations.

Chapter 51

The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel, 1-58. Jeremiah delivers the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into the Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon, 59-64.

1 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will raise up a destroying wind against Babylon / and against those who dwell in the midst of those who rise against me,

2 And I will send fanners to Babylon / who shall fan her / and shall empty her land. /
For in the day of trouble /
they shall be against her on all sides.

3 Against him who bends, let the archer bend his bow, / and against him who lifts himself up in his coat of mail. /
And do not spare her young men. /
Utterly destroy all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, / and those who are thrust through in her streets."

5 For Israel has not been forsaken / nor Judah by his God, by the LORD of hosts, / though their land was filled with sin / against the Holy One of Israel.

6 Flee from the midst of Babylon / and deliver every man his soul. /
Do not be cut off in her iniquity, / for this is the time of the LORD’S vengeance. /
He will render to her a recompense.

7 Babylon has been a golden cup in the LORD’S hand, / who made all the earth drunken. /
The nations have drank her wine; / therefore, the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed. / Howl for her. /
Take balm for her pain. /
It may be that she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed. /
Forsake her, and let us each go into his own country, / for her judgment reaches to heaven / and is lifted even to the skies.

10 The LORD has brought forth our righteousness. / Come, and let us declare in Zion / the work of the LORD our God.

11 Make the arrows bright. / Gather the shields. /
The LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, / for his purpose is against Babylon to destroy it, / because it is the vengeance of the LORD, /
the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon. / Make the watch strong. /
Set up the watchmen. /
Prepare the ambushes. /
For the LORD has both devised and done / that which he spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O you who dwell upon many waters, / abundant in treasures, / your end has come, / and the measure of your covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself, saying,

"Surely I will fill you with men, / as with licking-locusts, / and they shall raise a shout against you."

15 He has made the earth by his power. /
He has established the world by his wisdom / and has stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he utters his voice, /
there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, /
and he causes the vapors to ascend /
from the ends of the earth. /
He makes lightnings with rain /
and brings forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge. /
Every founder is confounded by the engraved image, /
for his molten image is falsehood, /
and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors. /
In the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The portion of Jacob is not like them, /
for he is the former of all things, /
and Israel is the rod of his inheritance. /
The LORD of hosts is his name.

20 "You are my battle-ax and weapons of war. /
For with you I will break in pieces the nations, / with you I will destroy kingdoms,

21 With you I will break in pieces / the horse and his rider, /
with you I will break in pieces /
the chariot and its rider,

22 With you I will break in pieces / man and woman, /
with you I will break in pieces / old and young, /
with you I will break in pieces /
the young man and the virgin,

23 With you I will break in pieces / the shepherd and his flock, /
with you I will break in pieces /
the farmer and his yoke of oxen, / and with you I will break in pieces / captains and rulers.

24 And I will render to Babylon / and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea / all their evil that they have done / in Zion in your sight," /
says the LORD.

25 "Behold, I am against you, / O destroying mountain," /
says the LORD, /
"which destroys all the earth. /
And I will stretch out my hand upon you, / roll you down from the rocks, / and make you a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take from you a stone for a corner / nor a stone for foundations, / but you shall be desolate forever," /
says the LORD.

27 Set up a standard in the land. /
Blow the trumpet among the nations. /
Prepare the nations against her. / Call together against her / the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz. / Appoint a captain against her. / Cause the horses to come up / like the rough licking-locusts.

28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of Media, / her captains, and all her rulers, / and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow, / for every purpose of the LORD / shall be performed against Babylon / to make the land of Babylon /
a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight. /
They have remained in their holds. /
Their might has failed. /
They became like women. /
They have burned her dwelling-places. /
Her bars are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another, / and one messenger to meet another, / to show the king of Babylon / that his city is taken at one end.

32 The passages are stopped, / the reeds they have burned with fire, / and the men of war are terrified.

33 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor /
at the time when it is trodden. /
Yet a little while and the time of her harvest shall come."

34 "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me. /
He has crushed me. /
He has made me an empty vessel. /
He has swallowed me up like a sea-monster. /
He has filled his belly with my delicacies. /
He has cast me out.

35 May the violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon," / the inhabitant of Zion shall say. /
"May my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea," /
Jerusalem shall say.

36 Therefore, thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will plead your cause / and take vengeance for you, / and I will dry up her sea / and make her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, / a dwelling-place for jackals, / an astonishment, and a hissing, /
without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions. /
They shall yell like lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, / and I will make them drunken / so that they may rejoice / and sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake," /
says the LORD.

40 "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, / like rams with male goats.

41 How Sheshach is taken! /
And how the praise of the whole earth is surprised! /
How Babylon has become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The sea has come up upon Babylon. /
She is covered with the multitude of its waves.

43 Her cities are a desolation, / a dry land, and a wilderness, /
a land in which no man dwells, / neither does any son of man pass by it.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, / and I will bring forth out of his mouth / that which he has swallowed. /
And the nations shall not flow together anymore to him. /
Even the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, depart from the midst of her, / and each of you deliver his soul / from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And lest your heart should faint and you should fear / because of the rumor that shall be heard in the land, /
a rumor shall both come one year, / and after that in another year a rumor shall come, / of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come / that I will do judgment upon the engraved images of Babylon. /
And her whole land shall be confounded, / and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the heaven and the earth and all that is in them / shall sing for Babylon, / for the destroyers shall come to her / from the north," /
says the LORD.

49 As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, /
so at Babylon the slain of all the earth shall fall.

50 You who have escaped the sword, / go away, do not stand still. / Remember the LORD afar off / and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 We are confounded because we have heard reproach. / Shame has covered our faces, / for strangers have come / into the sanctuaries of the LORD’S house.

52 "Therefore, behold, the days come," /
says the LORD, /
"that I will do judgment upon her engraved images. /
And through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, / and though she should fortify the height of her strength, / yet from me destroyers shall come to her," /
says the LORD.

54 A sound of a cry comes from Babylon, / and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans,

55 Because the LORD has laid waste Babylon / and destroyed out of her the great voice. /
When her waves roar like great waters, /
a noise of their voice is uttered.

56 For the destroyer has come upon her, / even upon Babylon. /
Her mighty men are taken, / and every one of their bows is broken, / for the LORD God of recompenses shall surely requite.

57 "And I will make drunk her princes, her wise men, /
her captains, her rulers, and her mighty men. /
And they shall sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake," / says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, / and her high gates shall be burned with fire. /
The people shall labor in vain, / and the nations for the fire, / and they shall be weary."

59 This is the word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince. 60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. 61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, see that you read all these words, 62 And then say, 'O LORD, you have spoken against this place to cut it off so that no one shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate forever.' 63 And it shall be when you have made an end of reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates. 64 And then you shall say, 'Thus Babylon shall sink and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her, and they shall be weary.'"

[Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.]

Chapter 52

Zedekiah rebels, 1-3. Jerusalem is besieged and taken, 4-7. Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out, 8-11. Nebuzar-adan burns and plunders the city, 12-23. He carries away the captives, 24-27. The number of Jews carried captive, 28-30. Evil-merodach advances Jehoiachin, 31-34.

1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. 4 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came—he and all his army—against Jerusalem. They encamped against it and built forts against it on every side. 5 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. 6 And in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city so that there was no bread for the people of the land. 7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled and went forth from the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were by the city on all sides), and they went by the way of the plain. 8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him. 9 Then they took the king and carried him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. 10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. He also slew all the princes of Judah in Riblah. 11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah. And the king of Babylon bound him in chains, carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem 13 And burned the house of the LORD and the king’s house. All the houses of Jerusalem, even all the houses of the great men, he burned with fire. 14 And all of the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem on every side. 15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poor of the people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. 16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land for vine-dressers and for farmers.

17 Also, the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke and carried all their brass to Babylon. 18 And the cauldrons, the shovels, the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered, they took away. 19 And the basins, the fire-pans, the bowls, the cauldrons, the candlesticks, the spoons, and the cups—the gold from that which was made of gold, and the silver from that which was made of silver—the captain of the guard took away. 20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD, the brass of all these vessels was without weight. 21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a fillet of twelve cubits encompassed it, and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. 22 And a capital of brass was upon it, and the height of one capital was five cubits, with net-work and pomegranates upon the capitals around, all of brass. The second pillar and the pomegranates were like these. 23 And there were ninety-six pomegranates on a side, and all the pomegranates upon the net-work were one hundred on all sides.

24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door. 25 He also took a eunuch out of the city who had the charge of the men of war, seven men of those who were near the king’s person who were found in the city, the principal scribe of the host who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city. 26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 27 And the king of Babylon smote them and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand and twenty-three Jews; 29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons; 30 In the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred and forty-five persons. All the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 And it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison. 32 He spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. 33 And he changed his prison garments and continually ate bread before him all the days of his life. 34 And for his food there was a continual diet given to him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

The Lamentations of Jeremiah

Lamentations | Θρῆνοι | הכיא

Chapter 1

The miseries of Jerusalem and of the Jews pathetically lamented, with confessions of their sins, 1-11. The attention and compassion of beholders demanded to this unprecedented case, 12-17. The justice of God acknowledged and his mercy supplicated, with prayers against insulting foes, 18-22.

[ALEPH - א]

1 How the city sits solitary / that was full of people! /
How she has become like a widow! /
She who was great among the nations / and princess among the provinces, /
how she has become tributary!

[BET - ב]

2 She weeps bitterly in the night, / and her tears are on her cheeks. /
Among all her lovers /
she has no one to comfort her. /
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her. /
They have become her enemies.

[GIMEL - ג]

3 Judah has gone into captivity because of affliction / and because of great servitude. /
She dwells among the heathen. /
She finds no rest. /
All her persecutors overtook her / in the midst of distress.

[DALET - ד]

4 The ways of Zion mourn, / because no one comes to the solemn feasts. /
All her gates are desolate. /
Her priests sigh. /
Her virgins are afflicted. /
She is in bitterness.

[HE - ה]

5 Her adversaries are the chief. / Her enemies prosper, / for the LORD has afflicted her / for the multitude of her transgressions. /
Her children have gone into captivity /
before the enemy.

[VAV - ו]

6 And from the daughter of Zion / all her beauty has departed. /
Her princes have become like bucks / that find no pasture, / and they have gone without strength / before the pursuer.

[ZAYIN - ז]

7 Jerusalem remembers / in the days of her affliction and of her miseries / all her pleasant things /
that she had in the days of old. / When her people fell into the hand of the enemy, /
no one helped her. /
The adversaries saw her / and mocked at her desolations.

[HET - ח]

8 Jerusalem has grievously sinned; / therefore, she has become unclean. /
All who honored her despise her / because they have seen her nakedness. / Indeed, she sighs / and turns backward.

[TET - ט]

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts. /
She does not remember her last end; /
therefore, she has been wonderfully abased. /
She had no comforter. /
O LORD, behold my affliction, / for the enemy has magnified himself.

[YOD - י]

10 The adversary has spread out his hand / upon all her pleasant things, / for she has seen that the heathen / entered into her sanctuary, / whom you commanded / that they should not enter into your congregation.

[KAF - כ]

11 All her people sigh. /
They seek bread. /
They have given their pleasant things for food / to relieve the soul. /
See, O LORD, and consider, / for I have become vile.

[LAMED - ל]

12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? / Behold, and see /
if there is any sorrow like my sorrow / which has fallen upon me, / with which the LORD has afflicted me / in the day of his fierce anger.

[MEM - מ]

13 From above he has sent fire into my bones, / and it prevails against them. /
He has spread a net for my feet. /
He has turned me back. /
He has made me desolate /
and faint all the day.

[NUN - נ]

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand. /
They are knit together / and come up upon my neck. /
He has made my strength to fall. /
The Lord has delivered me into their hands, / from whom I am not able to rise.

[SAMEKH - ס]

15 The Lord has trodden under foot / all my mighty men in the midst of me. /
He has called an assembly against me / to crush my young men. /
The Lord has trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, /
as in a wine-press.

[AYIN - ע]

16 For these things I weep. /
My eye, my eye runs down with water / because the comforter who should relieve my soul /
is far from me. /
My children are desolate / because the enemy prevailed.

[PE - פ]

17 Zion spreads forth her hands, / and there is no one to comfort her. /
The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob / that his adversaries should be around him. / Jerusalem has becaome / an unclean thing among them.

[TSADI - צ]

18 The LORD is righteous, / for I have rebelled against his commandment. / Hear, I pray you, all people, / and behold my sorrow. /
My virgins and my young men /
have gone into captivity.

[QOF - ק]

19 I called for my lovers, / but they deceived me. /
My priests and my elders / resigned their breath in the city / while they sought their food / to relieve their souls.

[RESH - ר]

20 Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress. /
My heart is troubled. /
My heart is turned within me, /
for I have grievously rebelled. / Abroad the sword bereaves, / at home it is as death.

[SHIN - ש]

21 They have heard that I sigh. /
There is no one to comfort me. /
All my enemies have heard of my trouble. /
They are glad that you have done it. /
You will bring the day that you have called, / and they shall be like me.

[TAV - ת]

22 Let all their wickedness come before you, / and do to them /
as you have done to me /
for all my transgressions. /
For my sighs are many / and my heart is faint.

Chapter 2

Jeremiah laments the misery of Jerusalem, 1-19. He addresses God for this, 20-22.

[ALEPH - א]

1 How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion / with a cloud in his anger, / and cast down from heaven to the earth /
the beauty of Israel, / and not remembered his footstool / in the day of his anger!

[BET - ב]

2 The Lord has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob / and has not pitied. /
He has thrown down in his wrath /
the strongholds of the daughter of Judah. /
He has brought them down to the ground. /
He has polluted the kingdom and its princes.

[GIMEL - ג]

3 He has cut off in his fierce anger / all the horn of Israel. /
He has drawn back his right hand / from before the enemy, / and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, / which devours on every side.

[DALET - ד]

4 He has bent his bow like an enemy. /
He stood with his right hand like an adversary / and slew all who were pleasant to the eye /
in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion. /
He poured out his fury like fire.

[HE - ה]

5 The Lord was like an enemy. /
He has swallowed up Israel. /
He has swallowed up all her palaces. /
He has destroyed his strongholds / and has increased in the daughter of Judah / mourning and lamentation.

[VAV - ו]

6 And he has violently taken away his tabernacle / as if it were of a garden. /
He has destroyed his places of the assembly. /
The LORD has caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths / to be forgotten in Zion, / and in the indignation of his anger has despised / the king and the priest.

[ZAYIN - ז]

7 The Lord has cast off his altar. /
He has abhorred his sanctuary. /
He has given up into the hand of the enemy /
the walls of her palaces. /
They have made a noise in the house of the LORD /
as in the day of a solemn feast.

[HET - ח]

8 The LORD has purposed to destroy / the wall of the daughter of Zion. /
He has stretched out a line. /
He has not withdrawn his hand from destroying. / Therefore, he made the rampart and the wall to lament. /
They languished together.

[TET - ט]

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground. /
He has destroyed and broken her bars. /
Her king and her princes are among the Gentiles. /
The law is no more. /
Her prophets also find / no vision from the LORD.

[YOD - י]

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion / sit upon the ground and keep silence. /
They have cast up dust upon their heads. /
They have girded themselves with sackcloth. /
The virgins of Jerusalem hang down / their heads to the ground.

[KAF - כ]

11 My eyes fail with tears. /
My heart is troubled. /
My liver is poured upon the earth /
for the destruction of the daughter of my people, / because the children and the infants swoon /
in the streets of the city.

[LAMED - ל]

12 They say to their mothers, /
"Where is grain and wine?" /
when they swooned like the wounded /
in the streets of the city, / when their soul was poured out / into their mothers' bosom.

[MEM - מ]

13 What thing shall I take to witness for you? /
What thing shall I compare to you, /
O daughter of Jerusalem? /
What shall I equal to you so that I may comfort you, /
O virgin daughter of Zion? /
For your breach is great like the sea. /
Who can heal you?

[NUN - נ]

14 Your prophets have seen / vain and foolish things for you. /
And they have not revealed your iniquity / to turn away your captivity, / but have seen for you false burdens / and causes of banishment.

[SAMEKH - ס]

15 All who pass by clap / their hands at you. /
They hiss and wag their head / at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, /
"Is this the city that men call /
The Perfection of Beauty, /
The Joy of the Whole Earth?"

[AYIN - ע]

16 All your enemies have opened / their mouth against you. /
They hiss and gnash the teeth. /
They say, "We have swallowed her up. / Certainly this is the day that we looked for. /
We have found it. We have seen it."

[PE - פ]

17 The LORD has done that which he had devised. /
He has fulfilled his word /
that he had commanded in the days of old. /
He has thrown down and has not pitied. /
He has caused your enemy to rejoice over you. /
He has set up the horn of your adversaries.

[TSADI - צ]

18 Their heart cried to the Lord, /
"O wall of the daughter of Zion, / let tears run down like a river / day and night. /
Give yourself no rest. /
Do not let the apple of your eye cease.

[QOF - ק]

19 Arise, cry out in the night. /
In the beginning of the watches / pour out your heart like water / before the face of the Lord. / Lift up your hands toward him / for the life of your young children, / who faint for hunger / at the head of every street."

[RESH - ר]

20 Behold, O LORD, and consider / to whom you have done this. / Shall the women eat their fruit, /
the children which they nursed? / Shall the priest and the prophet be slain /
in the sanctuary of the Lord?

[SHIN - ש]

21 The young and the old lie / on the ground in the streets. /
My virgins and my young men /
have fallen by the sword. /
You have slain them in the day of your anger. /
You have killed and not pitied.

[TAV - ת]

22 You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly / my terrors on every side. / And in the day of the LORD’S anger / no one escaped or remained. / Those whom I have swaddled and brought up, /
my enemy has consumed.

Chapter 3

The prophet bewails his own calamities, 1-21. By the mercies of God he nourishes his hope, 22-36. He acknowledges God's justice, 37-54. He prays for deliverance, 55-63, and vengeance on his enemies, 64-66.

[ALEPH - א]

1 I am the man who has seen affliction /
by the rod of his wrath.

2 He has led me and brought me into darkness, /
but not into light.

3 Surely against me he is turned. /
He turns his hand against me all the day.

[BET - ב]

4 My flesh and my skin he has made old. /
He has broken my bones.

5 He has built against me and compassed me / with gall and labor.

6 He has set me in dark places, / like those who are dead of old.

[GIMEL - ג]

7 He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out. /
He has made my chain heavy.

8 Also, when I cry and shout, /
he shuts out my prayer.

9 He has enclosed my ways with hewn stone. /
He has made my paths crooked.

[DALET - ד]

10 He was to me like a bear lying in wait / and like a lion in secret places.

11 He has turned aside my ways and pulled me in pieces. /
He has made me desolate.

12 He has bent his bow / and set me as a mark for the arrow.

[HE - ה]

13 He has caused the arrows of his quiver / to enter into my kidneys.

14 I was a derision to all my people / and their song all the day.

15 He has filled me with bitterness. /
He has made me drunken with wormwood.

[VAV - ו]

16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones. /
He has covered me with ashes.

17 And you have cast my soul far off from peace. /
I forgot prosperity.

18 And I said, "My strength / and my hope has perished from the LORD."

[ZAYIN - ז]

19 Remember my affliction and my misery, /
the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul has them still in remembrance / and is humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind; / therefore, I have hope.

[HET - ח]

22 It is because of the LORD’S mercies that we are not consumed, / because his compassions do not fail.

23 They are new every morning. /
Your faithfulness is great.

24 "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, /
"therefore, I will hope in him."

[TET - ט]

25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him, / to the soul who seeks him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait / for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man /
that he should bear the yoke in his youth.

[YOD - י]

28 He sits alone and keeps silence / because he has borne it upon him.

29 He puts his mouth in the dust, /
if there may be hope.

30 He gives his cheek to him who smites him. /
He is filled full with reproach.

[KAF - כ]

31 For the Lord will not / cast off forever.

32 But though he causes grief, yet he will have compassion / according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he does not afflict willingly / nor grieve the children of men.

[LAMED - ל]

34 To crush under his feet /
all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man / before the face of the most High,

36 To subvert a man in his cause, /
the Lord does not approve.

[MEM - מ]

37 Who is he who speaks and it comes to pass /
when the Lord does not command it?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High, / does evil and good not proceed?

39 Why does a living man complain, /
a man for the punishment of his sins?

[NUN - נ]

40 Let us search and try our ways / and turn back to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands / to God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed and have rebelled. /
You have not pardoned.

[SAMEKH - ס]

43 You have covered with anger and persecuted us. /
You have slain. You have not pitied.

44 You have covered yourself with a cloud /
so that our prayer should not pass through.

45 You have made us as the offscouring and refuse /
in the midst of the people.

[AYIN - ע]

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths / against us.

47 Fear and a snare have come upon us, / desolation and destruction.

48 My eye runs down with rivers of water /
for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

[PE - פ]

49 My eye trickles down and does not cease / without any intermission

50 Until the LORD looks down / and beholds from heaven.

51 My eye affects my heart / because of all the daughters of my city.

[TSADI - צ]

52 My enemies chased me fiercely, / like a bird without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon / and cast a stone upon me.

54 Waters flowed over my head. /
Then I said, "I am cut off."

[QOF - ק]

55 I called upon your name, O LORD, / out of the low dungeon.

56 You have heard my voice. Do not hide your ear / at my breathing, at my cry.

57 You drew near in the day that I called upon you. /
You said, "Do not fear."

[RESH - ר]

58 O Lord, you have pleaded the causes of my soul. /
You have redeemed my life.

59 O LORD, you have seen my wrong. /
Judge my cause.

60 You have seen all their vengeance / and all their imaginations against me.

[SHIN - ש]

61 You have heard their reproach, O LORD, /
and all their imaginations against me,

62 The lips of those who rose up against me /
and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their sitting down and their rising up. /
I am their music.

[TAV - ת]

64 Render to them a recompense, O LORD, /
according to the work of their hands.

65 Give them sorrow of heart, / your curse to them.

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger / from under the heavens of the LORD.

Chapter 4

Zion bewails her pitiful estate, 1-12. She confesses her sins, 13-20. Edom is threatened and Zion comforted, 21, 22.

[ALEPH - א]

1 How the gold has become dim! /
How the most fine gold has changed! /
The stones of the sanctuary are poured out /
at the head of every street.

[BET -]

2 The precious sons of Zion, / comparable to fine gold, / how they are esteemed as earthen pitchers, /
the work of the hands of the potter!

[GIMEL - ג]

3 Even the jackals draw out the breast / to nurse their young ones. /
The daughter of my people has become cruel, / like the ostriches in the wilderness.

[DALET - ד]

4 The tongue of the nursing child cleaves / to the roof of his mouth for thirst. /
The young children ask for bread, / and no man breaks it for them.

[HE - ה]

5 Those who fed delicately / are desolate in the streets. /
Those who were brought up in scarlet / embrace dunghills.

[VAV - ו]

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater / than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, / which was overthrown as in a moment, / and no hands stayed on her.

[ZAYIN - ז]

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow. /
They were whiter than milk. /
They were more ruddy in body than rubies. /
Their polishing was like sapphire.

[HET - ח]

8 Their visage is blacker than a coal. /
They are not known in the streets. /
Their skin cleaves to their bones. /
It is withered. It has become like a stick.

[TET - ט]

9 Those who are slain with the sword are better / than those who are slain with hunger, / for these pine away, stricken through / for lack of the fruits of the field.

[YOD - י]

10 The hands of the pitiful women / have boiled their own children. /
They were their food /
in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

[KAF - כ]

11 The LORD has accomplished his fury. /
He has poured out his fierce anger / and has kindled a fire in Zion, / and it has devoured her foundations.

[LAMED - ל]

12 The kings of the earth / and all the inhabitants of the world would not have believed / that the adversary and the enemy would have entered / into the gates of Jerusalem.

[MEM - מ]

13 It is for the sins of her prophets / and the iniquities of her priests, / who have shed the blood of the just / in the midst of her.

[NUN - נ]

14 They have wandered like blind men in the streets. /
They have polluted themselves with blood / so that men could not / touch their garments.

[SAMEKH - ס]

15 They cried to them, "Depart. It is unclean. / Depart, depart. Do not touch." /
When they fled away and wandered, / they said among the heathen, /
"They shall no longer sojourn there."

[AYIN - ע]

16 The anger of the LORD has divided them. /
He will no longer regard them. /
They did not respect the persons of the priests. /
They did not favor the elders.

[PE - פ]

17 As for us, our eyes still fail, / looking in vain for our help. /
In our watching we have watched / for a nation that could not save us.

[TSADI - צ]

18 They hunt our steps /
so that we cannot go in our streets. /
Our end is near. Our days are fulfilled, / for our end has come.

[QOF - ק]

19 Our persecutors are swifter / than the eagles of heaven. /
They pursued us upon the mountains. /
They laid wait for us in the wilderness.

[RESH - ר]

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, / was taken in their pits, / of whom we said, "Under his shadow / we shall live among the heathen."

[SHIN - ש]

21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, / who dwells in the land of Uz. /
The cup shall also pass through to you. /
You shall be drunken and shall make yourself naked.

[TAV - ת]

22 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion. /
He will no longer carry you away into captivity. /
He will visit your iniquity, O daughter of Edom. /
He will disclose your sins.

Chapter 5

A humble prayer, presenting to the Lord their great misery, 1-15, confessing their sins, 16-18, and imploring deliverance, 19-22.

1 Remember, O LORD, what has come upon us. /
Consider and behold our reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, /
our houses to foreigners.

3 We are orphans and fatherless. /
Our mothers are like widows.

4 We have drank our water for money. /
Our wood is sold to us.

5 Our necks are under persecution. /
We labor and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians / and to the Assyrians to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers have sinned and are no more, / and we have borne their iniquities.

8 Servants have ruled over us. /
There is no one who delivers us out of their hand.

9 We procured our bread with the peril of our lives, / because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our skin was black like an oven / because of the terrible famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zion / and the virgins in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes were hanged by their hand. /
The faces of elders were not honored.

13 They took the young men to grind, / and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, /
the young men from their music.

15 The joy of our heart has ceased. /
Our dance has turned into mourning.

16 The crown has fallen from our head. /
Woe to us, for we have sinned!

17 For this our heart is faint, /
for these things our eyes are dim,

18 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate. /
The foxes walk upon it.

19 You, O LORD, remain forever. /
Your throne is from generation to generation.

20 Why do you forget us forever / and forsake us for such a long time?

21 Turn us to you, O LORD, and we shall be turned. / Renew our days as of old.

22 But you have utterly rejected us. /
You are very angry against us.

The Word of the Lord to Ezekiel

Ezekiel | Ἰεζεκιήλ | לאקזחי

Chapter 1

The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Kebar, 1-3. His vision of four cherubim, 4-14; of the four wheels, 15-25; and of the glory of God, 26-28.

1 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Kebar, that the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God. 2 On the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, 3 The word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Kebar River, and the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 And I looked, and behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire enfolding itself, and a brightness was around it, and from the midst of it something like the color of amber, from the midst of the fire. 5 Also from the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: They had the likeness of a man, 6 And each had four faces and each had four wings. 7 And their feet were straight feet and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot. And they sparkled like the color of burnished brass. 8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides. And the four of them had their faces and their wings. 9 Their wings were joined to one another. They did not turn when they went. They each went straight forward. 10 As for the likeness of their faces, the four of them had the face of a man and the face of a lion on the right side. And the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side. The four of them also had the face of an eagle. 11 Thus were their faces. Their wings were stretched upward. Two wings of each were joined to one another and two covered their bodies. 12 And they each went straight forward. Where the spirit was to go, they went, and they did not turn when they went. 13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire and like the appearance of lamps. It went up and down among the living creatures. And the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. 14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I beheld the living creatures, there appeared one wheel upon the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. 16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like the color of a beryl. And the four of them had one likeness. And their appearance and their work was like a wheel in the middle of a wheel. 17 When they went, they went upon their four sides, and they did not return when they went. 18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful, and their rings were full of eyes around the four of them. 19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them. And when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. 20 Wherever the spirit was to go, they went, their spirit going there. And the wheels were lifted up over against them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. 21 When those went, these went. And when those stood, these stood. And when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of a firmament, like the gleam of awesome crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. 23 And under the firmament their wings were straight, one toward the other. Each had two which covered on this side, and each had two which covered on that side of their bodies. 24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a sound of tumult like the noise of a host. When they stood, they let down their wings. 25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads when they stood and had let down their wings.

26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, like the appearance of a sapphire stone. And upon the likeness of the throne was a likeness with the appearance of a man above upon it. 27 And I saw something like the color of amber, like the appearance of fire around within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward. And from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw something like the appearance of fire, and it had brightness on all sides. 28 Like the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

Ezekiel’s commission, 1-5. His instruction, 6-8. The scroll of his heavy prophecy, 9, 10.

1 And he said to me, "Son of man, stand upon your feet, and I will speak to you." 2 And the Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me and set me upon my feet, and I heard him who spoke to me. 3 And he said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me, even to this very day, 4 For they are impudent children and obstinate in heart. I send you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' 5 And they, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them. 6 And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, even though briers and thorns are with you and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. 7 And you shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear, for they are most rebellious.

8 "But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat that which I give you." 9 And when I looked, behold, a hand was sent to me, and behold, a scroll of a book was in it, 10 And he spread it before me. And it was written inside and outside. And there was written in it lamentations, mourning, and woe.

Chapter 3

Ezekiel eats the scroll, 1-3. God encourages him, 4-14. God shows him the rule of prophecy, 15-21. God shuts and opens the prophet’s mouth, 22-27.

1 Moreover, he said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel." 2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that scroll. 3

And he said to me, "Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you." Then I ate it. And it was in my mouth like honey for sweetness.

4 And he said to me, "Son of man, depart, go to the house of Israel and speak with my words to them. 5 For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel, 6 Nor to many people of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. 7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you because they will not listen to me, for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted. 8 Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces and your forehead strong against their foreheads. 9 I have made your forehead like an adamant, harder than flint. Do not fear them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house." 10 Moreover, he said to me, "Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart and hear with your ears. 11 And depart, go to those who are in captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' whether they will hear or whether they will forbear."

12 Then the Spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, "Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place." 13 I also heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and the noise of a great rushing. 14 So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit, but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. 15 Then I came to those who were in captivity at Tel-abib, who dwelt by the river of Kebar, and I sat where they sat and remained there astonished among them for seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore, hear the word from my mouth and give them warning from me. 18 When I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you do not give him warning nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way to save his life, the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. 19 Yet if you warn the wicked and he does not turn from his wickedness nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul. 20 Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die. Because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered, but his blood I will require at your hand. 21 Nevertheless, if you warn the righteous man that the righteous are not to sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he was warned. You have also delivered your soul."

22 And the hand of the LORD was there upon me, and he said to me, "Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you." 23 Then I arose and went forth into the plain, and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I saw by the river of Kebar. And I fell on my face. 24 Then the Spirit entered into me, set me upon my feet, and spoke with me and said to me, "Go, shut yourself within your house. 25 But you, O son of man, behold, they shall put ropes upon you and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them. 26 And I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth so that you shall be mute and shall not be to them a reprover, for they are a rebellious house. 27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' He who hears, let him hear, and he who forbears, let him forbear, for they are a rebellious house."

Chapter 4

Under the type of a siege is shown the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity, 1-8. By the provision of the siege is shown the hardness of the famine, 9-17.

1 "You also, son of man, take a tile and lay it before you, and portray the city upon it, even Jerusalem. 2 And lay siege against it, build a fort against it, cast a siege-mound against it, set the camp against it, and set battering rams against it on every side. 3 Moreover, take an iron pan and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city. And set your face against it so that it shall be besieged, and then lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 "Lie upon your left side and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days that you lie upon it you shall bear their iniquity. 5 For I have laid upon you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days. Thus you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. 6 And when you have accomplished them, lie again on your right side, and you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah for forty days. I have appointed you each day for a year. 7 Therefore, you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it. 8 And behold, I will put ropes upon you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to another until you have ended the days of your siege.

9 "Also take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, put them in one vessel, and make yourself bread from them. According to the number of the days that you shall lie upon your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat it. 10 And your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day. From time to time you shall eat it. 11 You shall also drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you shall drink. 12 And you shall eat it as you would barley cakes, and you shall bake it with human excrement in their sight." 13 And the LORD said, "Even thus the children of Israel shall eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, where I will drive them." 14 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, my soul has not been polluted. For from my youth even until now I have not eaten that which dies of itself or is torn in pieces, neither has abominable flesh come into my mouth." 15 Then he said to me, "Behold, I have given you cow’s dung for man’s dung, and you shall prepare your bread over that." 16 Moreover, he said to me, "Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem. And they shall eat bread by weight and with care, and they shall drink water by measure and with astonishment, 17 So that they may lack bread and water. And they will be astonished with one another and consume away for their iniquity."

Chapter 5

Under the type of hair, 1-4, is shown the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion, 5-11; by famine, sword, and dispersion, 12-17.

1 "And you, son of man, take a sharp knife, take a barber’s razor, and cause it to pass upon your head and upon your beard. Then take balances to weigh and divide the hair. 2 You shall burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city when the days of the siege are fulfilled. And you shall take a third part and smite around it with a knife. And a third part you shall scatter in the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. 3 You shall also take from them a few in number and bind them in your skirts. 4 Then take from them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire and burn them in the fire, from which a fire shall come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'This is Jerusalem. I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are around her. 6 And she has changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations and my statutes more than the countries that are around her, for they have refused my judgments and my statutes. They have not walked in them.' 7 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you multiplied more than the nations that are around you and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are around you,' 8 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I, even I, am against you and will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. 9 And I will do in you that which I have not done, and the like to which I will not do anymore, because of all your abominations. 10 Therefore, the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of you and the sons shall eat their fathers. And I will execute judgments in you and scatter the whole remnant of you into all the winds. 11 Therefore, as I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you. My eye shall not spare, neither will I have any pity. 12 A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine they shall be consumed in the midst of you. And a third part shall fall by the sword around you. And I will scatter a third part into all the winds and draw out a sword after them.

13 'Thus my anger shall be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them and I will be comforted. And they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it in my zeal when I have accomplished my fury in them. 14 Moreover, I will make you waste and a reproach among the nations that are around you in the sight of all who pass by. 15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you when I execute judgments in you in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken it. 16 When I send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction and which I will send to destroy you, I will increase the famine upon you and will break your staff of bread. 17 Thus I will send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave you. Pestilence and blood shall pass through you, and I will bring the sword upon you. I, the LORD, have spoken it.'"

Chapter 6

The judgment of Israel for their idolatry, 1-7. A remnant shall be blessed, 8-10. The faithful are exhorted to lament their abominations and calamities, 11-14.

1 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them 3 And say, 'You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys: "Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. 4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken. And I will cast down your slain men before your idols. 5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols. And I will scatter your bones around your altars. 6 In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste and the high places shall be desolate, so that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, your idols may be broken and cease, your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. 7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

8 "Yet I will leave a remnant so that you may have some who shall escape the sword among the nations when you are scattered through the countries. 9 And those of you who escape shall remember me among the nations where they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their apostate heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes which go astray after their idols. And they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. 10 And they shall know that I am the LORD and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them."'

11 "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'Smite with your hand, stomp with your foot, and say, "Alas," because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel. For they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. 12 He who is far off shall die by the pestilence. And he who is near shall fall by the sword. And he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine. Thus I will accomplish my fury upon them. 13 Then you shall know that I am the LORD when their slain men are among their idols all around their altars, upon every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they offered sweet savor to all their idols. 14 Thus I will stretch out my hand upon them and make the land desolate, even more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations. And they shall know that I am the LORD.'"

Chapter 7

1 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Also, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel: 'An end, the end has come upon the four corners of the land. 3 Now the end has come upon you, and I will send my anger upon you. I will judge you according to your ways and recompense upon you all your abominations. 4 And my eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity. But I will recompense your ways upon you, and your abominations shall be in the midst of you. And you shall know that I am the LORD.'

5 "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'An evil, a single evil, behold, has come. 6 An end has come. The end has come. It watches for you. Behold, it has come. 7 The morning has come upon you, O you who dwell in the land. The time has come. The day of trouble is near, and not of joyful shouting upon the mountains. 8 Now I will shortly pour out my fury upon you and accomplish my anger upon you. And I will judge you according to your ways and will recompense you for all your abominations. 9 And my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity. I will recompense you according to your ways and your abominations that are in the midst of you. And you shall know that I am the LORD who smites.

10 'Behold the day, behold, it has come. The morning has gone forth. The rod has blossomed, pride has budded. 11 Violence has risen into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain—none of their multitude nor of their wealth. There shall be no wailing for them. 12 The time has come. The day draws near. Do not let the buyer rejoice nor the seller mourn, for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. 13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they are still alive, for the vision is concerning the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return, neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 'They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready, but no one goes to the battle, for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. 15 The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine inside. He who is in the field shall die with the sword, and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. 16 But those of them who escape shall escape and be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, each for his iniquity. 17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. 18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, horror shall cover them, shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads. 19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing. Their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD. They shall not satisfy their souls nor fill their bowels because it is the stumbling-block of their iniquity.

20 'As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty, but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein; therefore, I have set it far from them. 21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for plunder and to the wicked of the earth for loot, and they shall pollute it. 22 My face I will also turn from them, and they shall pollute my secret place, for the robbers shall enter into it and defile it.

23 'Make a chain, for the land is full of bloody crimes and the city is full of violence. 24 Therefore, I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses. I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease, and their holy places shall be defiled. 25 Destruction comes. They shall seek peace, but there shall be none. 26 Mischief shall come upon mischief and rumor shall be upon rumor. Then they shall seek a vision of the prophet, but the law shall perish from the priest and counsel from the elders. 27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled. I will do to them after their way, and according to their judgments I will judge them. And they shall know that I am the LORD.'"

Chapter 8

Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, 1-4, is shown the image of jealousy, 5, 6; the chambers of imagery, 7-12; the mourners for Tammuz, 13-15; the worshipers toward the sun, 16. God’s wrath for their idolatry, 17, 18.

1 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me. 2 Then I beheld, and behold a likeness that had the appearance of fire. From the appearance of his loins even downward was like fire, and from his loins even upward was like the appearance of brightness, like the color of amber. 3 And he put forth the form of a hand and took me by a lock of my head. And the Spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looks toward the north, where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which provokes to jealousy. 4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now toward the north." So I lifted up my eyes toward the north, and behold, northward at the gate of the altar, in the entry, was this image of jealousy. 6 He said furthermore to me, "Son of man, do you see what they do, even the great abominations that the house of Israel commits here, so that I should withdraw from my sanctuary? Yet again, you shall see even greater abominations."

7 And he brought me to the door of the court. And when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. 8 Then he said to me, "Son of man, now dig in the wall." And when I had dug in the wall, behold a door. 9 And he said to me, "Go in and behold the wicked abominations that they do here." 10 So I went in and saw, and behold, every form of creeping animals and abominable beasts and all the idols of the house of Israel were portrayed around upon the wall. 11 And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, each with his censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up. 12 Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, each in the chambers of his imagery? For they say, 'The LORD does not see us. The LORD has forsaken the earth.'" 13 He also said to me, "Yet again, you shall see greater abominations that they do."

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD’S house which was toward the north, and behold, women weeping for Tammuz sat there. 15 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Yet again, you shall see greater abominations than these."

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD’S house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, and they worshiped the sun toward the east. 17 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence and have returned to provoke me to anger. And behold, they put the branch to their nose. 18 Therefore, I will also deal in fury. My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity. And though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them."

Chapter 9

A vision, whereby is shown the preservation of some, 1-4; and the destruction of the rest, 5-7. God cannot be entreated for them, 8-11.

1 He also cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand." 2 And behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lies toward the north, and each with a slaughter-weapon in his hand. And one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer’s inkhorn by his side. And they went in and stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub on which he was to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen who had the writer's inkhorn by his side, 4 And the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men who sigh and who cry for all the abominations that are done in the midst of it." 5 And to the others he said in my hearing, "Go after him through the city and smite. Do not let your eye spare, neither have pity. 6 Utterly slay old and young, virgins, little children, and women, but do not come near any man upon whom the mark is. And begin at my sanctuary." Then they began at the elderly men who were before the house. 7 And he said to them, "Defile the house and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth." And they went forth and slew in the city. 8 And it came to pass while they were slaying them, that I was left alone, and I fell upon my face and cried and said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will you destroy all the remnant of Israel in your pouring out of your fury upon Jerusalem?"

9 Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great. The land is full of blood and the city is full of perverseness. For they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the earth, and the LORD does not see.' 10 And therefore, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head."

11 And behold, the man clothed with linen who had the inkhorn by his side reported the matter, saying, "I have done as you have commanded me."

Chapter 10

The vision of the coals of fire to be scattered over the city, 1-7. The vision of the cherubim, 8-22.

1 Then I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubim there appeared over them something like a sapphire stone, in appearance as the likeness of a throne. 2 And he spoke to the man clothed with linen and said, "Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill your hand with coals of fire from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And he entered in my sight.

3 Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court. 4 Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub and stood over the threshold of the house. And the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD'S glory. 5 And the sound of the cherubim's wings was heard even to the outer court, like the voice of the Almighty God when he speaks.

6 And it came to pass when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, "Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubim," that he went in and stood beside the wheels. 7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, took some of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed with linen, who took it and went out. 8 And there appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold, the four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub and another wheel by another cherub. And the appearance of the wheels was like the color of a beryl stone. 10 And as for their appearances, the four of them had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. 11 When they went, they went upon their four sides. They did not turn as they went. But to the place where the head looked, they followed it. They did not turn as they went. 12 And their whole body, their backs, their hands, their wings, and the wheels were full of eyes on every side, even the wheels that the four of them had. 13 As for the wheels, it was cried to them in my hearing, "O wheel." 14 And each had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face was the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubim were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Kebar. 16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went by them. And when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also did not turn from beside them. 17 When they stood, these stood, and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also, for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house and stood over the cherubim. 19 And the cherubim lifted up their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels were beside them. And each stood at the door of the east-gate of the LORD’S house, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Kebar, and I knew that they were the cherubim. 21 Each had four faces and each four wings, and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. 22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Kebar, their appearances and themselves. They each went straight forward.

Chapter 11

The presumption of the princes, 1-3. Their sin and judgment, 4-12. Ezekiel crying aloud, God shows him his purpose in saving a remnant, 13-20; and punishing the wicked, 21. The glory of God leaves the city, 22, 23. Ezekiel is returned to the captivity, 24, 25.

1 Moreover, the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east-gate of the LORD’S house, which looks eastward. And behold, at the door of the gate were twenty-five men, among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. 2 Then he said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise mischief and give wicked counsel in this city, 3 Who say, 'It is not near. Let us build houses. This city is the cauldron, and we are the flesh.' 4 Therefore, prophesy against them. Prophesy, O son of man."

5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me and said to me, "Speak, 'Thus says the LORD: "Thus you have said, O house of Israel, for I know the things that come into your mind—every one of them. 6 You have multiplied your slain in this city and have filled its streets with the slain." 7 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the cauldron, but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it. 8 You have feared the sword, and I will bring a sword upon you," says the Lord GOD. 9 "And I will bring you out of the midst of it, deliver you into the hands of strangers, and execute judgments among you. 10 You shall fall by the sword. I will judge you in the border of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD. 11 This city shall not be your cauldron, neither shall you be the flesh in the midst of it. But I will judge you in the border of Israel. 12 And you shall know that I am the LORD, for you have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen who are around you."'"

13 And it came to pass when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down upon my face and cried with a loud voice and said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

14 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 15 "Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly are those to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Retire far from the LORD. This land is given to us in possession.' 16 Therefore, say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come."' 17 Therefore, say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will even gather you from the people and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel."' 18 And they shall come there and take away all its detestable things and all its abominations. 19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will take the stony heart out of their flesh and give them a heart of flesh 20 So that they may walk in my statutes and keep my ordinances and do them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. 21 But as for those whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads," says the Lord GOD.

22 Then the cherubim raised their wings with the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 23 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. 24 Afterward, the Spirit took me up and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to those who are in captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. 25 Then I spoke to those who are in captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me.

Under the type of Ezekiel’s exile, 1-7, is shown the captivity of Zedekiah, 8-16. Ezekiel’s trembling shows the Jews' desolation, 17-20. The Jews' presumptuous proverb is reproved, 21-25. The speediness of the vision, 26-28.

1 The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house. They have eyes to see but do not see, and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house. 3 Therefore, son of man, prepare stuff for exile and move by day in their sight. And you shall move from your place to another place in their sight. It may be that they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. 4 Then you shall bring forth your stuff for exile by day in their sight. And you shall go forth at evening in their sight like those who go forth into captivity. 5 Dig through the wall in their sight and carry out thereby. 6 In their sight you shall bear it upon your shoulders and carry it forth in the twilight. You shall cover your face so that you may not see the ground, for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel."

7 And so I did as I was commanded. I brought forth my stuff for captivity by day, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought it forth in the twilight and bore it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, has the house of Israel, the rebellious house, not said to you, 'What are you doing?' 10 Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are among them."' 11 Say, 'I am your sign. As I have done, so it shall be done to them. They shall go into exile, into captivity.' 12 And the prince who is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight and shall go forth. They shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby. He shall cover his face so that he may not see the ground with his eyes. 13 My net I will also spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare. And I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans, yet he shall not see it, though he shall die there. 14 And I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him and all his bands, and I will draw out the sword after them. 15 And they shall know that I am the LORD when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them in the countries. 16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence so that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen where they come. And they shall know that I am the LORD."

17 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, eat your bread with quaking and drink your water with trembling and with solicitude. 19 And say to the people of the land, 'Thus says the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem and of the land of Israel: "They shall eat their bread with solicitude and drink their water with astonishment, for her land will be desolate from all that is therein because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. 20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate. And you shall know that I am the LORD."'"

21 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 22 "Son of man, what is that proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails'? 23 Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no longer use it as a proverb in Israel." But say to them, "The days are at hand, as well as the effect of every vision. 24 For there shall no longer be any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. 25 For I am the LORD. I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass. It shall no longer be prolonged, for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word and perform it," says the Lord GOD.'"

26 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 27 "Son of man, behold, those of the house of Israel say, 'The vision that he sees is for many days to come, and he prophesies of the times that are distant.' 28 Therefore, say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "None of my words shall be further deferred, but the word which I have spoken shall be done,"'" says the Lord GOD.

The reproof of lying prophets, 1-9, and their untempered mortar, 10-16. Of prophetesses and their cushions, 17-23.

1 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own hearts, 'Hear the word of the LORD. 3 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! 4 O Israel, your prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. 5 You have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. 6 They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, 'The LORD says,' and the LORD has not sent them, and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word. 7 Have you not seen a vain vision, and have you not spoken a lying divination when you say, 'The LORD says it,' even though I have not spoken?"'"

8 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you have spoken vanity and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you," says the Lord GOD. 9 "And my hand shall be upon the prophets who see vanity and who divine lies. They shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. 10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, 'Peace,' and there was no peace, and one built up a wall, and behold, others daubed it with untempered mortar, 11 Tell those who daub it with untempered mortar that it shall fall. There shall be an overflowing shower, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall, and a stormy wind shall rend it. 12 Behold, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, 'Where is the daubing with which you have daubed it?'" 13 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury, and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger and great hailstones in my fury to consume it. 14 Thus I will break down the wall that you have daubed with untempered mortar and bring it down to the ground so that its foundation shall be made bare. It shall fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. And you shall know that I am the LORD. 15 Thus I will accomplish my wrath upon the wall and upon those who have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say to you, 'The wall is no more, neither are those who daubed it, 16 Namely, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem and who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace,' says the Lord GOD.

17 "Likewise, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own heart, and prophesy against them 18 And say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the women who sew cushions to all armpits and make veils upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, but save the souls alive who come to you? 19 You profane me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread. You slay the souls who should not die and save the souls alive who should not live by your lying to my people who hear your lies."'"

20 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against your cushions with which you hunt the souls there to make them fly. I will tear them from your arms and let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. 21 Your veils I will also tear and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall no longer be in your hand to be hunted. And you shall know that I am the LORD. 22 Because with lies you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad, and strengthened the hands of the wicked so that he should not return from his wicked way and be saved alive, 23 Therefore you shall see no more vanity nor divine divinations, for I will deliver my people out of your hand. And you shall know that I am the LORD."

God answers idolaters according to their own heart, 1-5. They are exhorted to repent of their sins and reform their lives, or else it is at their peril to inquire of God, 6-11. God's irrevocable sentence of famine, 12-14; of noisome beasts, 15, 16; of the sword, 17, 18; and of pestilence, 19-21. A remnant shall be reserved for example of others, 22, 23.

1 Then some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. 2 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart and put the stumbling-block of their iniquity before their face. Should I be inquired of at all by them? 4 Therefore, speak to them and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Every man of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart and puts the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face and comes to the prophet, I, the LORD, will answer him who comes according to the multitude of his idols, 5 So that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols."'

6 "Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Repent, turn yourselves from your idols, and turn away your faces from all your abominations. 7 For when anyone from the house of Israel or from the strangers who sojourn in Israel who separates himself from me, sets up his idols in his heart, puts the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to a prophet to inquire of him concerning me, I, the LORD, will answer him by myself. 8 And I will set my face against that man, make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

9 "And if the prophet is deceived when he has spoken a thing, I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet. And I will stretch out my hand upon him and destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. 10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity. The punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him who seeks him, 11 So that the house of Israel may no longer go astray from me, neither be polluted anymore with all their transgressions, but that they may be my people and I may be their God,"' says the Lord GOD."

12 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 13 "Son of man, when the land sins against me by trespassing grievously, I will stretch out my hand upon it, break the staff of the bread thereof, send famine upon it, and cut off man and beast from it. 14 Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver their own souls only by their righteousness," says the Lord GOD. 15 "If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they lay it waste and it becomes desolate so that no man may pass through because of the beasts, 16 Though these three men were in it, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters. Only they shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate. 17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land and say, 'Sword, go through the land,' so that I cut off man and beast from it, 18 Though these three men were in it, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters. But only they shall be delivered themselves. 19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land and pour out my fury upon it in blood to cut off man and beast from it, 20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "they shall deliver neither son nor daughter. They shall deliver only their own souls by their righteousness."

21 For thus says the Lord GOD: "How much more when I send my four severe judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, the famine, the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off man and beast from it! 22 Yet behold, therein shall be left a remnant who shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters. Behold, they shall come forth to you, and you shall see their way and their doings. And you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. 23 And they shall comfort you when you see their ways and their doings. And you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it," says the Lord GOD.

By the unfitness of the vine branch for any work, 1-5, is shown the rejection of Jerusalem, 6-8.

1 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, what is the vine-tree more than any tree, the branch which is among the trees of the forest? 3 Shall wood be taken from it to do any work? Or will men take a pin from it to hang any vessel upon it? 4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel. The fire devours both its ends, and the midst of it is burned. Is it profitable for any work? 5 Behold, when it was whole, it was fit for no work. How much less then shall it be fit for any work when the fire has devoured it and it is burned? 6 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: 'As the vine-tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 7 And I will set my face against them. They shall go out from one fire and another fire shall devour them. And you shall know that I am the LORD when I set my face against them. 8 And I will make the land desolate because they have committed a trespass,'" says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 16

Under the similitude of a wretched infant is shown the natural state of Jerusalem, 1-5. God’s extraordinary love toward her, 6-14. Her monstrous lewdness, 15-34. Her grievous judgment, 35-43. Her sin, equal to her mother’s and exceeding that of her sisters, Sodom and Samaria, calls for judgments, 44-59. Mercy is promised to her in the end, 60-63.

1 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations 3 And say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: "Your birth and your nativity is of the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. 4 And as for your nativity, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to supple you. You were not salted at all nor swaddled at all. 5 No eye pitied you to do any of these to you, to have compassion upon you. But you were cast out in the open field because you were loathed on the day that you were born.

6 "And when I passed by you and saw you polluted in your own blood, I said to you when you were in your blood, 'Live.' I even said to you when you were in your blood, 'Live.' 7 I have caused you to multiply like the bud of the field, and you have increased and become great and have come to excellent ornaments. Your breasts are fashioned and your hair is grown, whereas you were naked and bare.

8 "Now when I passed by you and looked upon you, behold, your time was the time of love. And I spread my skirt over you and covered your nakedness. I even swore to you and entered into a covenant with you," says the Lord GOD, "and you became mine. 9 Then I washed you with water. I even thoroughly washed away your blood from you and anointed you with oil. 10 I also clothed you with embroidered work, shod you with badgers' skin, girded you with fine linen, and I covered you with silk. 11 I also decked you with ornaments. I put bracelets upon your hands and a chain on your neck. 12 And I put a jewel on your forehead, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head. 13 Thus you were decked with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered work. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly beautiful and you prospered into a kingdom. 14 And your renown went forth among the heathen for your beauty, for it was perfect through my splendor which I had put upon you," says the Lord GOD.

15 "But you trusted in your own beauty, played the harlot because of your renown, and poured out your fornications on everyone who passed by—it became his. 16 And you took some of your garments, decked your high places with diverse colors, and played the harlot upon them. Such things shall not come, neither shall it be so. 17 You have also taken your fair jewels from my gold and from my silver, which I had given you, and have made for yourself images of men and committed lewdness with them. 18 And you have taken your embroidered garments and covered them, and you have set my oil and my incense before them. 19 Also, my provisions which I gave you—fine flour, oil, and honey, with which I fed you—you have even set before them for a sweet savor. And thus it was," says the Lord GOD. 20 "Moreover, you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and these you have sacrificed to them to be devoured. Was your lewdness a small matter 21 That you have slain my children and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them? 22 And in all your abominations and your deeds of lewdness you have not remembered the days of your youth when you were naked and bare and polluted in your blood.

23 "And it came to pass after all your wickedness ('Woe, woe to you!' says the Lord GOD), 24 That you have also built for yourself an eminent place and have made yourself a high place in every street. 25 You have built your high place at every head of the way, made your beauty to be abhorred, prostituted yourself to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your lewd deeds. 26 You have also committed fornication with the Egyptians your neighbors, great of flesh, and have multiplied your lewd deeds to provoke me to anger. 27 And behold, I have stretched out my hand over you and have diminished your ordinary food and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. 28 You have played the harlot also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable. Indeed, you have played the harlot with them, and yet could not be satisfied. 29 You have moreover multiplied your fornication in the land of Canaan to Chaldea, and yet with this you were not satisfied."'"

30 "How weak is your heart," says the Lord GOD, "seeing you do all these things, the work of an imperious lewd woman, 31 In that you build your eminent place in the head of every way and make your high place in every street. But you have not been like a harlot, in that you scorn payment. 32 You are a wife who commits adultery, who takes strangers instead of her husband! 33 They give gifts to all lewd women, but you give your gifts to all your lovers and hire them so that they may come to you on every side for your lewdness. 34 And the contrary is in you from other women in your unlawful commerce, whereas no one follows you to commit lewdness. And in that you give a reward, and no reward is given to you, therefore you are contrary."

35 Therefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD. 36 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because your filthiness was poured out and your nakedness exposed through your carnal connection with your lovers, with all the idols of your abominations, and by the blood of your children, which you gave to them, 37 Behold therefore, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those whom you have loved, with all those whom you have hated. I will even gather them on every side against you and will uncover your nakedness to them so that they may see all your nakedness. 38 And I will judge you as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged. And I will give you blood in fury and jealousy. 39 And I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your eminent place and break down your high places. They shall also strip you of your clothes, take your fair jewels, and leave you naked and bare. 40 They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones and thrust you through with their swords. 41 And they shall burn your houses with fire and execute judgments upon you in the sight of many women. And I will cause you to cease from playing the harlot, and you shall also give no payment anymore. 42 Thus I will make my fury toward you to rest and my jealousy shall depart from you. I will be quiet and will no longer be angry. 43 Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have provoked me in all these things, behold therefore, I also will recompense your way upon your head," says the Lord GOD, "and you shall not commit this lewdness above all your abominations.

44 "Behold, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, 'As is the mother, so is her daughter.' 45 You are your mother’s daughter, who loathes her husband and her children, and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite. 46 And your elder sister is Samaria—she and her daughters who dwell at your left hand. And your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom with her daughters. 47 Yet you have not walked after their ways nor done according to their abominations. But as if that were a very little thing, you were corrupted more than they were in all your ways. 48 As I live," says the Lord GOD, "Sodom your sister has not done—she nor her daughters—as you and your daughters have done. 49 Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. 50 And they were haughty and committed abomination before me; therefore, I took them away as I saw good. 51 Samaria has not committed half of your sins, but you have multiplied your abominations more than they have and have justified your sisters in all your abominations which you have done. 52 You also, who have judged your sisters, bear your own shame for your sins that you have committed which are more abominable than theirs. They are more righteous than you. Indeed, be also confounded and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.

53 "When I bring back their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, I will bring back the captivity of your captives in the midst of them, 54 So that you may bear your own shame and be confounded in all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. 55 When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters return to their former state, then you and your daughters shall return to your former state. 56

For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, 57 Before your wickedness was disclosed, like at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria and all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you on every side. 58 You have borne your lewdness and your abominations," says the LORD. 59 For thus says the Lord GOD: "I will even deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 "Nevertheless, I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. 61 Then you shall remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, your elder and your younger. And I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. 62 And I will establish my covenant with you. And you shall know that I am the LORD, 63 So that you may remember and be confounded and never open your mouth anymore because of your shame, when I am pacified toward you for all that you have done," says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 17

Under the parable of two eagles and a vine, 1-10, is shown God's judgment upon Jerusalem for revolting from Babylon to Egypt, 11-21. God promises to plant the cedar of the Gospel, 22-24.

1 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, put forth a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel 3 And say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers which had diverse colors, came to Lebanon and took the highest branch of the cedar. 4 He cropped off the top of its young twigs and carried it into a land of traders. He set it in a city of merchants. 5 He also took some of the seed of the land and planted it in a fruitful field. He placed it by great waters and set it like a willow tree. 6 And it grew and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him and its roots were under him. So it became a vine and brought forth branches and shot forth sprigs.

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12 "Now say to the rebellious house, 'Do you not know what these things mean?' Tell them, 'Behold, the king of Babylon has come to Jerusalem and has taken its king and its princes and led them with him to Babylon, 13 And has taken someone from the king's offspring and made a covenant with him, bringing him under an oath. He has also taken the mighty of the land, 14 So that the kingdom might be base and not lift itself up, but keep his covenant so that it might stand. 15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt so that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he prosper? Shall he escape who does such things? Or shall he break the covenant and be delivered? 16 As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. 17 Pharaoh, with his mighty army and great company, shall not help him in the war when they cast up siege-mounds and build forts to cut off many lives. 18 Seeing that he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when behold, he had given his hand and has done all these things, he shall not escape.'" 19 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely my oath that he has despised and my covenant that he has broken, even that I will recompense upon his own head. 20 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare. And I will bring him to Babylon and plead with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. 21 And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward all winds. And you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it."

22 Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will also take from the highest branch of the high cedar and will set it. I will crop off from the top of its young twigs a tender one and plant it upon a high and eminent mountain. 23 On the mountain of the height of Israel I will plant it. And it shall bring forth boughs, bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. And under it all birds of every wing shall dwell. In the shade of its branches they shall dwell. 24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish. I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it."

Chapter 18

God defends his justice, 1-30; and exhorts to repentance, 31, 32.

1 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 2 "What do you mean when you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying,

> 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
> and the children’s teeth are set on edge'?

3 As I live," says the Lord GOD, "you shall not have occasion anymore to use this proverb in Israel. 4 Behold, all souls are mine. As the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine. The soul who sins, he shall die.

5 "But if a man is just and does that which is lawful and right, 6 Has not eaten upon the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor’s wife, neither has come near to a polluted woman, 7 Has not oppressed any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has stripped no one by violence, has given his bread to the hungry, has covered the naked with a garment, 8 Has not given forth upon interest, neither has taken any increase, has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true judgment between man and man, 9 Has walked in my statutes and has kept my judgments to deal truly, he is just and he shall surely live," says the Lord GOD.

10 "If he begets a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, who does the like of any one of these things, 11 Who does not do any of those duties, but even has eaten upon the mountains, defiled his neighbor’s wife, 12 Has oppressed the poor and needy, has stripped by violence, has not restored the pledge, has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, 13 Has given forth upon interest, and has taken increase, shall he then live? He shall not live. He has done all these abominations. He shall surely die. His blood shall be upon him.

14 "Now behold, if he begets a son, who sees all his father’s sins which he has done, and considers, and does not do such things, 15 Who has not eaten upon the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor’s wife, 16 Neither has oppressed any, has not withheld the pledge, neither has stripped by violence, but has given his bread to the hungry, has covered the naked with a garment, 17 Who has taken off his hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my judgments, and has walked in my statutes, he shall not die for the iniquity of his father. He shall surely live. 18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, stripped his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 "Yet you say, 'Why? Does the son not bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done that which is lawful and right, has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. 20 The soul who sins, he shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 "But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he has committed and keep all my statutes and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live. He shall not die. 22 All his transgressions that he has committed, they shall not be mentioned to him. In his righteousness that he has done he shall live. 23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die," says the Lord GOD, "and not that he should return from his ways and live?

24 "But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? All his righteousness that he has done shall not be mentioned. In his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he shall die. 25 Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not equal.' Hear now, O house of Israel. Is my way not equal? Are your ways not unequal? 26 When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and dies in them, for his iniquity that he has done he shall die. 27 Again, when a wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. 28 Because he considers and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live. He shall not die. 29 Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not equal.' O house of Israel, are my ways not equal? Are your ways not unequal?

30 "Therefore, I will judge you, O house of Israel, each according to his ways," says the Lord GOD. "Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions so that iniquity is not your ruin. 31 Cast away from you all your transgressions by which you have transgressed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why will you die, O house of Israel? 32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies," says the Lord GOD. "Therefore, turn, and live."

Chapter 19

A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the parable of a lion's whelps taken in a pit, 1-9; and for Jerusalem, under the parable of a wasted vine, 10-14.

1 "Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel 2 And say,

'What is your mother? A lioness. /
She lay down among lions. /
She nourished her whelps /
among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps. /
It became a young lion /
and it learned to catch prey. /
It devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him. /
He was taken in their pit, /
and they brought him with chains / to the land of Egypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had waited / and her hope was lost, /
she took another of her whelps / and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions. /
He became a young lion /
and learned to catch prey. /
He devoured men.

7 And he knew their desolate palaces, / and he laid waste their cities. /
And the land and its fullness was desolate /
by the noise of his roaring.

8 Then the nations set against him / on every side from the provinces / and spread their net over him. /
He was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in a cage with hooks / and brought him to the king of Babylon. /
They brought him into holds, / so that his voice should no longer be heard / upon the mountains of Israel.

10 Your mother is like a vine in your blood / planted by the waters. /
She was fruitful and full of branches /
by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong branches / for the scepters of those who bore rule, / and her stature was exalted / among the thick branches, / and she appeared in her height / with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, / she was cast down to the ground, / and the east wind dried up her fruit. /
Her strong rods were broken and withered. /
The fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in the wilderness /
in a dry and thirsty ground.

14 And fire has gone out of the rod of her branches. /
It has devoured her fruit, /
so that she has no strong rod / to be a scepter to rule.'"

[This is a lamentation and shall be for a lamentation.]

Chapter 20

God refuses to be consulted by the elders of Israel, 1-3. He tells the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 4-9, in the wilderness, 10-26, and in the land, 27-32. He promises to gather them by the Gospel, 33-44. Under the name of a forest he shows the destruction of Jerusalem, 45-49.

1 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD and sat before me. 2 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Have you come to inquire of me? As I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will not be inquired of by you."' 4 Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers, 5 And say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the day when I chose Israel and lifted up my hand to the offspring of the house of Jacob and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up my hand to them, saying, 'I am the LORD your God,' 6 In the day that I lifted up my hand to them, to bring them forth from the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands, 7 I said to them, 'Every one of you cast away the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.' 8 But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me. They did not each cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my fury upon them to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. 9 But I wrought for my name’s sake so that it should not be profaned before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them in bringing them forth from the land of Egypt. 10 Therefore, I caused them to go forth from the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. 11 And I gave them my statutes and showed them my judgments, which if a man does, he shall even live in them. 12 Moreover, I also gave them my sabbaths to be a sign between me and them, so that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them. 13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not walk in my statutes and they despised my judgments, which if a man does, he shall even live in them, and they greatly profaned my sabbaths. Then I said that I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness to consume them. 14 But I wrought for my name’s sake so that it should not be profaned before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out. 15 Yet I also lifted up my hand to them in the wilderness so that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands, 16 Because they despised my judgments and did not walk in my statutes, but profaned my sabbaths, for their heart went after their idols. 17 Nevertheless, my eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 "But I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments nor defile yourselves with their idols. 19 I am the LORD your God. Walk in my statutes, keep my judgments, and do them. 20 Hallow my sabbaths, and they shall be a sign between me and you so that you may know that I am the LORD your God.' 21 But the children rebelled against me. They did not walk in my statutes or keep my judgments to do them, which if a man does, he shall even live in them. They profaned my sabbaths. Then I said that I would pour out my fury upon them to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. 22 Nevertheless, I withdrew my hand and wrought for my name’s sake so that it should not be profaned in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth. 23 I lifted up my hand to them also in the wilderness so that I would scatter them among the heathen and disperse them through the countries. 24 For they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes and had profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. 25 Therefore, I also gave them statutes that were not good and judgments by which they should not live. 26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused all the first-born to pass through the fire, so that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD."'

27 "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. 28 For when I had brought them into the land, for which I lifted up my hand to give it to them, they saw every high hill and all the thick trees, and they offered their sacrifices there and they presented the provocation of their offering there. They also made their sweet savor there and poured out their drink-offerings there. 29 Then I said to them, 'What is the high place to which you go?' And its name is called Bamah to this day."' 30 Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Are you polluted after the manner of your fathers? And do you commit lewd deeds after their abominations? 31 For when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, you pollute yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will not be inquired of by you. 32 And that which comes into your mind shall not be at all when you say, 'We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.'

33 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely with a mighty hand, with an out-stretched arm, and with fury poured out, I will rule over you. 34 And I will bring you out from the people and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered with a mighty hand, with an out-stretched arm, and with fury poured out. 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there I will plead with you face to face. 36 As I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will plead with you," says the Lord GOD. 37 "And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. 38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels and those who transgress against me. I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

39 "As for you, O house of Israel," thus says the Lord GOD: "Go, each of you serve his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me. But profane my holy name no longer with your gifts and with your idols. 40 For on my holy mountain, on the mountain of the height of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "there all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, shall serve me. There I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the first fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. 41 I will accept you with your sweet savor when I bring you out from the people and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered. And I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. 42 And you shall know that I am the LORD when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I lifted up my hand to give it to your fathers. 43 And there you shall remember your ways and all your doings in which you have been defiled. And you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. 44 And you shall know that I am the LORD when I have wrought with you for my name’s sake and not according to your wicked ways nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel," says the Lord GOD.'"

45 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 46 "Son of man, set your face toward the south. Prophesy toward the south and prophesy against the forest of the south field, 47 And say to the forest of the south, 'Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree and every dry tree in you. The flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein. 48 And all flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it. It shall not be quenched."'" 49 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! They say of me, 'Does he not speak parables?'"

Chapter 21

Ezekiel prophesies against Jerusalem with a sign of sighing, 1-7. The sharp and bright sword, 8-17; against Jerusalem, 18-24; against the kingdom, 25-27; and against the Ammonites, 28-32.

1 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem. Prophesy toward the holy places and prophesy against the land of Israel, 3 And say to the land of Israel, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I am against you, and I will draw forth my sword out of its sheath and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore my sword shall go forth from its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north 5 So that all flesh may know that I, the LORD, have drawn my sword out of its sheath. It shall not return anymore."' 6 Sigh therefore, son of man, with the breaking of your loins. And with bitterness sigh before their eyes. 7 And it shall be when they say to you, 'Why do you sigh?' that you shall answer, 'For the tidings, because it comes. And every heart shall melt, all hands shall be feeble, every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be as weak as water. Behold, it comes and shall be brought to pass,' says the Lord GOD."

8 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD:' Say,

> 'A sword, a sword is sharpened / > and also furbished.
>
> 10 It is sharpened to make a grievous slaughter. /
> It is furbished so that it may glitter.'

Should we then make mirth? The rod of my son despises every tree. 11 And he has given it to be furbished so that it may be handled. The sword is sharpened and it is furbished to give it into the hand of the slayer. 12 Cry and howl, son of man, for it shall be upon my people. It shall be upon all the princes of Israel. Terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people. Smite therefore upon your thigh. 13 For there is a trial. And what if the sword despises even the rod? It shall be no more," says the Lord GOD.

14 "You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite your hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time—the sword of the slain. It is the sword of the great men who are slain which enters into their private chambers. 15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates so that their hearts may faint and their ruins are multiplied. Ah! It is made bright. It is sharpened for the slaughter. 16 Go one way or another, either on the right hand or on the left, wherever your face is set. 17 I will also smite my hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest. I, the LORD, have said it."

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 19 "Also, son of man, appoint two ways that the sword of the king of Babylon may come. Both ways shall come forth from one land. And choose a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city. 20 Appoint a way that the sword may come to Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. 21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows, he consulted with images, and he examined the liver. 22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a siege-mound, and to build a fort. 23 And it shall be to them like a false divination in the sight of those who have sworn oaths, but he will call to remembrance their iniquity so that they may be taken.

24 "Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are disclosed, so that in all your doings your sins appear—because you have come to remembrance—you shall be taken with the hand. 25 And you, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come when iniquity has an end,' 26 Thus says the Lord GOD: 'Remove the diadem and take off the crown.

This shall not be the same. Exalt him who is low and abase him who is high. 27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it, and it shall be no more until he comes whose right it is. And I will give it to him.'

28 "And you, son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites and concerning their reproach,' even say, 'The sword, the sword is drawn. For the slaughter it is furbished to consume because of the glittering— 29 While they see vanity for you, while they divine a lie for you—to bring you upon the necks of the wicked who are slain, whose day has come when their iniquity has an end. 30 Shall I cause it to return into its sheath? I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land of your nativity. 31 And I will pour out my indignation upon you. I will blow against you in the fire of my wrath and deliver you into the hand of brutish men who are skillful to destroy. 32 You shall be for fuel to the fire. Your blood shall be in the midst of the land. You shall no longer be remembered. For I, the LORD, have spoken it.'"

Chapter 22

A catalog of sins in Jerusalem, and the dispersion of the Jews in consequence, 1-16. God will burn them as dross in his furnace, 17-22. The general corruption of prophets, priests, princes, and people, 23-31.

1 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Now, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Indeed, you shall show her all her abominations. 3 Then say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "The city sheds blood in the midst of it so that her time may come, and makes idols against herself to defile herself. 4 You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, have defiled yourself by your idols which you have made, have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years; therefore, I have made you a reproach to the heathen and a mocking to all countries. 5 Those who are near and those who are far from you shall mock you, who are infamous and much troubled.

6 "Behold, the princes of Israel each used his power to shed blood in you. 7 In you they have set light by father and mother. In the midst of you they have dealt by oppression with the stranger. In you they have oppressed the fatherless and the widow. 8 You have despised my holy things and have profaned my sabbaths. 9 In you are men who carry tales to shed blood. And in you they eat upon the mountains. In the midst of you they commit lewdness. 10 In you they have uncovered their fathers' nakedness. In you they have humbled her who was set apart for pollution. 11 And one has committed abomination with his neighbor’s wife, another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law, and another in you has humbled his sister, his father’s daughter. 12 In you they have taken gifts to shed blood. You have taken interest and increase and you have greedily gained from your neighbors by extortion, and you have forgotten me," says the Lord GOD.

13 "And behold, I have smitten my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. 14 Can your heart endure or can your hands be strong in the days that I shall deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken it and will do it. 15 And I will scatter you among the heathen and disperse you in the countries, and I will consume your filthiness out of you. 16 And you shall be profaned in yourself in the sight of the heathen, and you shall know that I am the LORD."'"

17 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. All of them are brass, tin, iron, and lead in the midst of the furnace. They are even the dross of silver. 19 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. 20 As they gather silver, brass, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of the furnace to blow the fire upon it to melt it, so I will gather you in my anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there and melt you. 21 Indeed, I will gather you and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in the midst of it. 22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so you shall be melted in the midst of it. And you shall know that I, the LORD, have poured out my fury upon you.'"

23 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, say to her, 'You are the land that is not cleansed nor rained upon in the day of indignation.' 25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst of her, like a roaring lion ravening the prey. They have devoured souls. They have taken the treasure and precious things. They have made her many widows in the midst of her. 26 Her priests have violated my law and have profaned my holy things. They have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shown difference between the unclean and the clean. They have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. 27 Her princes in the midst of her are like wolves ravening the prey, shedding blood, and destroying souls to get dishonest gain. 28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity and divining lies for them, saying, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' when the LORD has not spoken. 29 The people of the land have used oppression, exercised robbery, and have oppressed the poor and needy. They have even oppressed the stranger wrongfully. 30 And I sought for a man among them who should make up the hedge and stand in the gap before me for the land so that I should not destroy it, but I found no one. 31 Therefore, I have poured out my indignation upon them. I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath. Their own way I have recompensed upon their heads," says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 23

The lewdness of Aholah and Aholibah, 1-21. Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers, 22-35. The prophet reproves the adulteries of them both, 36-44; and shows their judgments, 45-49.

1 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother, 3 And they committed lewd deeds in Egypt. They committed lewd deeds in their youth. Their breasts were pressed there, and they were first corrupted there. 4 And their names were Aholah the elder and Aholibah her sister. And they were mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names: Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem is Aholibah.

5 "And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine, and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors. 6 They were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses. 7 Thus she committed her lewd deeds with them, with all those who were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted. With all their idols she defiled herself. 8 She did not leave her lewd deeds brought from Egypt. For in her youth they lay with her, and they first corrupted her and poured their impurities upon her. 9 Therefore, I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted. 10 These uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters and slew her with the sword. And she became famous among women, for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 "And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she was, and in her prostitutions more than her sister in her prostitutions. 12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbors, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men. 13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they both took one way. 14 So she increased her prostitutions, for when she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, 15 Girded with girdles upon their loins and dyed turbans upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity, 16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes she doted upon them and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. 17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their lewdness. And when she was polluted with them, her mind was alienated from them. 18 Thus she disclosed her lewd deeds and exposed her nakedness. Then my mind was alienated from her, as my mind was alienated from her sister. 19 Yet she multiplied her prostitutions in calling to remembrance the days of her youth in which she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt, 20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys and whose issue is like the issue of horses. 21 Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness of your youth by being corrupted by the Egyptians in your youth.

22 "Therefore, O Aholibah, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your mind is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: 23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa, and all the Assyrians with them—all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses. 24 And they shall come against you with chariots, wagons, wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against you buckler, shield, and helmet on every side. And I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. 25 And I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal furiously with you. They shall take away your nose and your ears, and your remnant shall fall by the sword. They shall take your sons and your daughters, and your remnant shall be devoured by the fire. 26 They shall also strip you of your clothes and take away your fair jewels. 27 Thus I will make your lewdness to cease from you, and your adultery brought from the land of Egypt, so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them nor remember Egypt anymore.' 28 For thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of those whom you hate, into the hand of those from whom your mind is alienated. 29 And they shall treat you with hatred, take away all your labor, and leave you naked and bare. And the nakedness of your prostitutions shall be disclosed, both your lewdness and your prostitutions. 30 I will do these things to you because you have gone astray after the heathen and because you are polluted with their idols. 31 You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore, I will give her cup into your hand.' 32 "Thus says the Lord GOD:

> 'You shall drink from your sister’s cup deep and large. /
> You shall be treated with scorn and had in derision. /
> It contains much.

33 You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, / with the cup of astonishment and desolation, / with the cup of your sister Samaria.

34 You shall even drink it and empty it to the dregs, / and you shall break its pieces / and pluck off your own breasts. /
For I have spoken it,' says the Lord GOD. 35 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have forgotten me and cast me behind your back, therefore also bear your lewdness and your prostitutions.'"

36 The LORD said moreover to me, "Son of man, will you judge Aholah and Aholibah? Even declare to them their abominations. 37 For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols. They have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. 38 Moreover, they have done this to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day and have profaned my sabbaths. 39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it. Behold, thus they have done in the midst of my house.

40 "And furthermore, you have even sent for men to come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came. For them you washed yourself, painted your eyes, decked yourself with ornaments, 41 And sat upon a stately bed and a table prepared before it, upon which you have set my incense and my oil. 42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her. And with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, who put bracelets upon their hands and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 "Then I said to her who was old in adulteries, 'Will they now commit lewd deeds with her, and she with them?' 44 Yet they went in to her, as they go in to a woman who plays the harlot. Thus they went in to Aholah and to Aholibah, the lewd women. 45 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses and after the manner of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and blood is on their hands.

46 "For thus says the Lord GOD: 'I will bring up a company upon them and will give them to trembling and plundering. 47 And the company shall stone them with stones and dispatch them with their swords. They shall slay their sons and their daughters and burn their houses with fire. 48 Thus I will cause lewdness to cease out of the land so that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. 49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols. And you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.'"

Chapter 24

Under the parable of a boiling pot, 1-5, is shown the irrevocable destruction of Jerusalem, 6-14. By the sign of Ezekiel not mourning for the death of his wife, 15-18, is shown the calamity of the Jews to be beyond all sorrow, 19-27.

1 Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, write for yourself the name of the day, even of this very day. The king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this very day. 3
And utter a parable to the rebellious house and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Set on a pot, set it on, / and also pour water into it.

4 Gather its pieces into it, / even every good piece, /
the thigh and the shoulder. /
Fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, / and also burn the bones under it. / Make it boil well, / and let them boil its bones in it."

6 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD:

"Woe to the bloody city, / to the pot whose scum is therein, / and whose scum has not gone out of it! /
Bring it out piece by piece. /
Let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her. /
She set it upon the top of a rock. /
She did not pour it upon the ground / to cover it with dust.

8 In order to cause fury to come up and to take vengeance, /
I have set her blood upon the top of a rock /
so that it should not be covered."

9 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD:

"Woe to the bloody city! /
I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, / consume the flesh, / spice it well, /
and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon its coals / so that its brass may be hot and may burn, / and that its filthiness may be melted in it /
so that its scum may be consumed.

12 She has wearied herself with lies, / and her great scum did not go forth out of her. /
Her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In your filthiness is lewdness. / Because I have purged you, / and you were not purged, /
you shall not be purged from your filthiness anymore / until I have caused my fury to rest upon you.

14 "I, the LORD, have spoken it. /
It shall come to pass and I will do it. /
I will not go back, neither will I spare, / neither will I repent. /
According to your ways and according to your doings, /
they shall judge you,"

says the Lord GOD.'"

15 Also, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 16 "Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke. Yet you shall not mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. 17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the turban of your head upon you, put your shoes upon your feet, do not cover your lips, and do not eat the bread of men." 18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died. And I did in the morning as I was commanded. 19 And the people said to me, "Will you not tell us what these things are to us that you are doing?" 20 Then I answered them, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 'Speak to the house of Israel, "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellence of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities. And your sons and your daughters whom you have left shall fall by the sword. 22 And you shall do as I have done. You shall not cover your lips nor eat the bread of men. 23 And your turbans shall be upon your heads and your shoes upon your feet. You shall not mourn nor weep, but you shall pine away for your iniquities and mourn toward one another. 24 Thus Ezekiel is a sign to you. According to all that he has done you shall do. And when this comes, you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.'"

25 'Also, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That he who escapes in that day shall come to you to cause you to hear it with your ears? 27 In that day your mouth shall be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak and no longer be mute. And you shall be a sign to them. And they shall know that I am the LORD.'"

Chapter 25

God’s vengeance, for their insolence against the Jews, upon the Ammonites, 1-7; upon Moab and Seir, 8-11; upon Edom, 12-14; and upon the Philistines, 15-17.

1 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them 3 And say to the Ammonites, 'Hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you said, 'Aha,' against my sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity, 4 Therefore behold, I will deliver you to the men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in you and make their dwellings in you. They shall eat your fruit and they shall drink your milk. 5 And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels and the Ammonites a couching-place for flocks. And you shall know that I am the LORD." 6 For thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you have clapped your hands and stomped your feet and rejoiced in heart with all your contempt against the land of Israel, 7 Therefore behold, I will stretch out my hand upon you and will deliver you as plunder to the heathen. I will cut you off from the people and will cause you to perish out of the countries. I will destroy you. And you shall know that I am the LORD."

8 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because Moab and Seir say, 'Behold, the house of Judah is like all the heathen,' 9 Therefore behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers—Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim—the glory of the country. 10 To the men of the east I will give them in possession, along with the Ammonites, so that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. 11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab. And they shall know that I am the LORD."

12 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance and has greatly offended and revenged himself upon them," 13 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "I will also stretch out my hand upon Edom and will cut off man and beast from it. And I will make it desolate. From Teman even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword. 14 And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel. And they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my fury, and they shall know my vengeance," says the Lord GOD.

15 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart to destroy it for the old hatred," 16 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. 17 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes. And they shall know that I am the LORD when I lay my vengeance upon them."'"

Chapter 26

Tyre, for insulting against Jerusalem, is threatened with destruction, 1-6. The power of Nebuchadnezzar against her, 7-14. The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall, 15-21.

1 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, 'Aha! She who was the gates of the people is broken. She has turned to me. I shall be replenished. Now she is laid waste,' 3 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. 4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her and make her like the top of a rock. 5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea. For I have spoken it,' says the Lord GOD, 'and it shall become plunder to the nations. 6 And her daughters who are in the field shall be slain by the sword. And they shall know that I am the LORD.'"

7 For thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, upon Tyre I will bring Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north with horses, with chariots, with horsemen, companies, and many people. 8 He shall slay your daughters in the field with the sword. And he shall make a fort against you, cast a siege-mound against you, and lift up the buckler against you. 9 And he shall set battering rams of war against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. 10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you. Your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, of the wheels, and of the chariots when he enters into your gates as men enter into a city in which a breach is made. 11 With the hooves of his horses he shall tread down all your streets. He shall slay your people by the sword, and your strong garrisons shall go down to the ground. 12 And they shall make loot of your riches and make plunder of your merchandise. And they shall break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses. And they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the water. 13 And I will cause the noise of your songs to cease, and the sound of your harps shall no longer be heard. 14 And I will make you like the top of a rock. You shall be a place to spread nets upon. You shall be built no more. For I, the LORD, have spoken it," says the Lord GOD.

15 Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: "Shall the coastlands not shake at the sound of your fall when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you? 16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, lay away their robes, and take off their embroidered garments. They shall clothe themselves with trembling. They shall sit upon the ground and shall tremble at every moment and be astonished at you. 17 And they shall take up a lamentation for you, and say to you,

'How you are destroyed, /
O renowned city / inhabited by sea-faring men— / she who was strong in the sea, / along with her inhabitants, / who cause their terror to be / on all who dwelt there!

18 Now the coastlands shall tremble / in the day of your fall. /
Even the coastlands that are by the sea / shall be disturbed at your departure.'"

19 For thus says the Lord GOD: "When I make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep upon you and great waters shall cover you, 20 Then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit, with the people of old time. I will set you in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, so that you are not inhabited, but I shall set glory in the land of the living. 21 I will make you a terror, and you shall be no more. Though you shall be sought for, yet you shall never be found again," says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 27

The riches and commerce of Tyre, 1-25. The great and irrecoverable fall thereof, 26-36.

1 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 2 "Now, son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyre 3 And say to Tyre, who is situated at the entry of the sea, who is a merchant of the people for many coastlands, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"O Tyre, you have said, /
'I am of perfect beauty.'

4 Your borders are in the midst of the seas. /
Your builders have perfected your beauty.

5 They have made all your ship-boards / of fir-trees of Senir. /
They have taken cedars from Lebanon / to make masts for you.

6 Of the oaks of Bashan / they have made your oars. /
The company of the Ashurites / have made your benches of ivory, / brought out of the coastlands of Chittim.

7 Fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt / was that which you spread forth / to be your sail. /
Blue and purple from the coastlands of Elishah / was that which covered you.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad / were your mariners. /
Your wise men, O Tyre, who were in you, / were your pilots.

9 The ancients of Gebal and its wise men / were in you as your caulkers. /
All the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you / to occupy your merchandise.

10 "They of Persia, of Lud, and of Phut were in your army, your military men. They hung the shield and helmet in you. They set forth your splendor. 11 The men of Arvad with your army were upon your walls on all sides, and the Gammadims were in your towers. They hung their shields upon your walls on every side. They have made your beauty perfect.

12 "Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches. With silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in your fairs. 13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your merchants. They traded in the persons of men and vessels of brass in your market. 14 They of the house of Togarmah traded in your fairs with horses, horsemen, and mules. 15 The men of Dedan were your merchants. Many coastlands were the merchandise of your hand. They brought you horns of ivory and ebony in exchange. 16 Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of your making. They occupied in your fairs with emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and agate. 17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your merchants. They traded in your market in wheat of Minnith, Pannag, honey, oil, and balm. 18 Damascus was your merchant in the multitude of the wares of your making, for the multitude of all riches, in the wine of Helbon and white wool. 19 Dan and also Javan going to and fro occupied in your fairs. Bright iron, cassia, and calamus were in your market. 20 Dedan was your merchant in precious clothes for chariots. 21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with you in lambs, rams, and goats. In these they were your merchants. 22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were your merchants. They occupied in your fairs with chief of all spices, with all precious stones and gold. 23 Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad were your merchants. 24 These were your merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, embroidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise.

25 "The ships of Tarshish sang of you in your market. /
And you were replenished and made very glorious /
in the midst of the seas.

26 Your rowers have brought you / into great waters. /
The east wind has broken you /
in the midst of the seas.

27 Your riches, your fairs, your merchandise, / your mariners, your pilots, / your caulkers, the occupiers of your merchandise, / and all your military men, who are in you / and in all your company which is in the midst of you, / shall fall into the midst of the seas /
in the day of your ruin.

28 The suburbs shall shake / at the sound of the cry of your pilots.

29 And all who handle the oar, / the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea / shall come down from their ships. /
They shall stand upon the land.

30 They shall cause their voice to be heard against you / and shall cry bitterly. /
They shall cast up dust upon their heads. /
They shall wallow themselves in the ashes.

31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for you / and gird themselves with sackcloth. /
They shall weep for you / with bitterness of heart / and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing / they shall take up a lamentation for you / and lament over you, saying, /
'What city is like Tyre, / like the destroyed one / in the midst of the sea?

33 When your wares went forth out of the seas, /
you filled many people. /
You enriched the kings of the earth /
with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise.

34 In the time when you are broken by the seas / in the depths of the waters, / your merchandise and all your company / in the midst of you shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the coastlands / shall be astonished at you, /
and their kings shall be terribly afraid. /
They shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people / shall hiss at you. /
You shall be a terror, /
and shall be no more forever.'"'"

Chapter 28

God’s judgment upon the prince of Tyre for his sacrilegious pride, 1-10. A lamentation for his great glory corrupted by sin, 11-19. The judgment of Zidon, 20-23. The restoration of Israel, 24-26.

1 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because your heart is lifted up, /
you have said, 'I am a god. /
I sit in the seat of God, /
in the midst of the seas,' /
yet you are a man and not God, /
though you set your heart as the heart of God.

3 Behold, you are wiser than Daniel. /
There is no secret that they can hide from you.

4 With your wisdom and with your understanding / you have gained riches for yourself / and have gained gold and silver / into your treasures.

5 By your great wisdom and by your traffic / you have increased your riches, / and your heart is lifted up because of your riches."

6 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because you have set your heart /
as the heart of God,

7 Therefore behold, I will bring strangers upon you, / the terrible of the nations. /
And they shall draw their swords / against the beauty of your wisdom, / and they shall defile your brightness.

8 They shall bring you down to the pit, / and you shall die the deaths of those who are slain /
in the midst of the seas.

9 Will you still say before him who slays you, /
'I am God'? /
But you shall be a man and no god /
in the hand of him who slays you.

10 You shall die the deaths of the uncircumcised / by the hand of strangers. /
For I have spoken it,"

says the Lord GOD.'"

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12 "Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyre and say to him, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"You seal up the sum, / full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

13 You have been in Eden the garden of God. / Every precious stone was your covering: / the sardius, topaz, the diamond, /
the beryl, the onyx, the jasper, /
the sapphire, the emerald, the carbuncle, and gold. /
The workmanship of your tambourines and of your pipes / was prepared in you in the day that you were created.

14 You are the anointed cherub who covers, / and I have set you so. /
You were upon the holy mountain of God. /
You have walked up and down /
in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 You were perfect in your ways / from the day that you were created, / until iniquity was found in you.

16 By the multitude of your merchandise / they have filled the midst of you with violence, / and you have sinned; / therefore, I will cast you as profane / out of the mountain of God. /
And I will destroy you, O covering cherub, / from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty. /
You have corrupted your wisdom /
by reason of your brightness. /
I will cast you to the ground, /
I will lay you before kings, /
so that they may behold you.

18 You have defiled your sanctuaries / by the multitude of your iniquities, /
by the iniquity of your traffic; / therefore, I will bring forth a fire from the midst of you. /
It shall devour you, / and I will bring you to ashes upon the earth /
in the sight of all those who behold you.

19 All those who know you among the people / shall be astonished at you. /
You shall be a terror, /
and shall be no more forever."'"

20 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, set your face against Zidon and prophesy against it 22 And say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, I am against you, O Zidon, / and I will be glorified in the midst of you. /
And they shall know that I am the LORD /
when I have executed judgments in her / and have been sanctified in her.

23 For I will send into her pestilence, / and blood into her streets, / and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her /
by the sword upon her on every side. /
And they shall know that I am the LORD.

24 And there shall no more be for the house of Israel a pricking brier or any grieving thorn from all who are around them who despised them. And they shall know that I am the Lord GOD."

25 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "When I have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered and have been sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, they shall dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob. 26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses and plant vineyards. They shall even dwell with confidence when I have executed judgments upon all those around them who despise them. And they shall know that I am the LORD their God."'"

Chapter 29

The judgment of Pharaoh for his treachery to Israel, 1-7. The desolation of Egypt, 8-12. The restoration thereof after forty years, 13-16. Egypt shall be Nebuchadnezzar's reward, 17-20. Israel shall be restored, 21.

1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. 3 Speak, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, I am against you, / Pharaoh king of Egypt, /
the great dragon that lies / in the midst of his rivers, / which has said, 'My river is my own, / and I have made it for myself.'

4 But I will put hooks in your jaws, / and I will cause the fish of your rivers / to stick to your scales. /
And I will bring you out / of the midst of your rivers, / and all the fish of your rivers / shall stick to your scales.

5 And I will leave you thrown into the wilderness— / you and all the fish of your rivers. /
You shall fall upon the open fields. /
You shall not be brought together nor gathered. /
I have given you as food / to the beasts of the field / and to the birds of heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt / shall know that I am the LORD, / because they have been a staff of reed / to the house of Israel.

7 When they took hold of you by your hand, / you broke and rent all their shoulders. /
And when they leaned upon you, / you broke and made all their loins to be at a stand."

8 'Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will bring a sword upon you and cut off man and beast out of you. 9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste. And they shall know that I am the LORD. Because he has said, 'The river is mine, and I have made it,' 10 Therefore behold, I am against you and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even to the border of Cush. 11 No foot of man shall pass through it, no foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited for forty years. 12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate for forty years. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries."

13 'Yet thus says the Lord GOD: "At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the people where they were scattered. 14 And I will bring back the captivity of Egypt and cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation, and they shall be a base kingdom there. 15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms. It shall not exalt itself anymore above the nations, for I will diminish them so that they shall no longer rule over the nations. 16 And it shall no longer be the confidence of the house of Israel, which brings their iniquity to remembrance when they look after them. But they shall know that I am the Lord GOD."'"

17 And it came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre. Every head was made bald and every shoulder was peeled. Yet neither he nor his army got wages from Tyre for the service that he had served against it." 19 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take her multitude, take her loot, and take her plunder, and it shall be the wages for his army. 20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor with which he served against it, because they wrought for me," says the Lord GOD.

21 "In that day I will cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in the midst of them. And they shall know that I am the LORD."

Chapter 30

The desolation of Egypt and her helpers, 1-19. The arm of Babylon shall be strengthened to break the arm of Egypt, 20-26.

1 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Howl, 'Alas the day!'

3 For the day is near, / even the day of the LORD is near, / a cloudy day. /
It shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt / and great pain shall be in Cush / when the slain fall in Egypt / and they take away her multitude / and her foundations are broken down.

5 Cush, Libya, Lydia, / all the mingled people, /
Kub, and the men of the land that is in league / shall fall with them by the sword."

6 'Thus says the LORD:

"They also who uphold Egypt shall fall, / and the pride of her power shall come down. /
From the tower of Syene / they shall fall in it by the sword,"

says the Lord GOD.

7 "And they shall be desolate / in the midst of the countries that are desolate, / and her cities shall be / in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the LORD / when I have set a fire in Egypt /
and when all her helpers are destroyed.

9 In that day messengers shall go forth from me in ships / to make the careless Cushites afraid, / and great pain shall come upon them, / as in the day of Egypt, / for behold, it comes."

10 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease /
by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, / shall be brought to destroy the land. /
And they shall draw their swords against Egypt / and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers dry, / and sell the land into the hand of the wicked. /
And I will make the land desolate, / and all that is in it, by the hand of strangers. /
I, the LORD, have spoken it."

13 Thus says the Lord GOD:

"I will also destroy the idols, / and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph. / And there shall no longer be / a prince of the land of Egypt. /
And I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, / set fire in Zoan, / and execute judgments in No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, / the strength of Egypt, / and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set fire in Egypt. /
Sin shall have great pain, /
No shall be rent apart, / and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth / shall fall by the sword. /
And these cities shall go into captivity.

18 And at Tehaphnehes the day shall be darkened / when I break the yokes of Egypt there. /
And the pomp of her strength shall cease in her. /
As for her, a cloud shall cover her, / and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus I will execute judgments in Egypt. /
And they shall know that I am the LORD."'"

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and behold, it shall not be bound up to be healed nor a bandage put to it to bind it to make it strong to hold the sword. 22 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt and will break his arms, both the strong and that which was broken, and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. 23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries. 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put my sword in his hand, but I will break Pharaoh’s arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. 25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down. And they shall know that I am the LORD when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out upon the land of Egypt. 26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the countries. And they shall know that I am the LORD.'"

Chapter 31

A relation to Pharaoh, 1, 2, of the glory of Assyria, 3-9, and the fall thereof for pride, 10-17. The similar destruction of Egypt, 18.

1 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude,

'Whom are you like in your greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon / with fair branches and with a shady cover / and of a high stature. /
And his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, / the deep set him up on high. / Her rivers ran around his planting-place / and she sent out her little rivers / to all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore, his height was exalted / above all the trees of the field. /
And his boughs were multiplied / and his branches became long / because of the multitude of waters /
when he shot forth.

6 All the birds of heaven made / their nests in his boughs, / and under his branches / all the beasts of the field / brought forth their young, / and under his shade /
all great nations dwelt.

7 Thus he was fair in his greatness, / in the length of his branches, / for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him. /
The fir-trees were not like his boughs, /
and the plane-trees were not like his branches. /
No tree in the garden of God /
was like him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair / by the multitude of his branches / so that all the trees of Eden / that were in the garden of God envied him.

10 'Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you have lifted up yourself in height, and he has shot up his top among the thick boughs and his heart is lifted up in his height, 11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen. He shall surely deal with him. I have driven him out because of his wickedness. 12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off and have left him. Upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches have fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land. And all the people of the earth have gone down from his shadow and have left him. 13 Upon his ruin all the birds of the heaven shall remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches, 14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters shall exalt themselves for their height, nor shoot up their top among the thick boughs, nor their trees stand up in their height, even all that drink water. For they are all delivered to death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with those who go down to the pit."

15 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning. I covered the deep for him and restrained its floods, and the great waters were stayed. And I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. 16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall when I cast him down to the grave with those who descend into the pit. And all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth. 17 They also went down into the grave with him to those who are slain with the sword, even those who were his arm, who dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 "To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the nether parts of the earth. You shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,"' says the Lord GOD."

Chapter 32

A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt, 1-10. The sword of Babylon shall destroy it, 11-16. It shall be brought down to hell, among all the uncircumcised nations, 17-32.

1 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him,

> 'You are like a young lion of the nations / > and you are like a dragon in the seas. /
> And you came forth with your rivers / > and disturbed the waters with your feet / > and rendered their rivers foul.'"

3 Thus says the Lord GOD:

> "I will therefore spread out my net over you / > with a company of many people, / > and they shall bring you up in my net.

4 Then I will leave you upon the land / and will cast you forth upon the open field. /
And I will cause all the birds of the heaven / to remain upon you /
and will fill the beasts of the whole earth with you.

5 And I will lay your flesh upon the mountains / and fill the valleys with your height.

6 I will also water with your blood / the land in which you swim, /
even to the mountains. /
And the rivers shall be full of you.

7 And when I extinguish you, /
I will cover the heaven /
and make the stars thereof dark. /
I will cover the sun with a cloud / and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven /
I will make dark over you, / and set darkness upon your land,"

says the Lord GOD.

9 "I will also vex the hearts of many people when I bring your destruction among the nations into the countries which you have not known. 10 Indeed, I will make many people amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you when I brandish my sword before them. And they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall."

11 For thus says the Lord GOD:

"The sword of the king of Babylon / shall come upon you.

12 By the swords of the mighty /
I will cause your multitude to fall, /
the terrible of the nations, all of them. /
And they shall lay the pomp of Egypt to waste, / and all its multitude shall be destroyed.

13 I will also destroy all its beasts / from beside the great waters, / neither shall the foot of man disturb them anymore, / nor the hooves of beasts disturb them.

14 Then I will make their waters deep / and cause their rivers to run like oil,"

says the Lord GOD.

15 "When I make the land of Egypt desolate / and the country is destitute of that of which it was full, / when I smite all those who dwell in it, /
they shall know that I am the LORD.

16 "This is the lamentation with which they shall lament her. /
The daughters of the nations shall lament her. /
They shall lament for her, / even for Egypt and for all her multitude,"

says the Lord GOD.

17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt and cast them down, even her and the daughters of the famous nations, to the nether parts of the earth with those who go down into the pit.

19 'Whom do you pass in beauty? /
Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised.'

20 "They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword. She is delivered to the sword. Draw her and all her multitudes. 21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of the grave with those who help him, 'They have gone down. They lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

22 "Asshur is there and all her company. His graves are around him. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, 23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.

24 "There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living. Yet they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. 25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude. Her graves are around him. All of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword. Though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. He is put in the midst of those who are slain.

26 "There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude. Her graves are around him. All of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living. 27 And they shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen among the uncircumcised, who have gone down to the grave with their weapons of war. And they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. 28 Indeed, you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised and shall lie with those who are slain with the sword.

29 "There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, who with their might are laid by those who were slain by the sword. They shall lie with the uncircumcised and with those who go down to the pit.

30 "There are the princes of the north—all of them and all the Zidonians—who have gone down with the slain. With their terror they are ashamed of their might, and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

31 "Pharaoh shall see them and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword," says the Lord GOD. 32 "For I have caused my terror in the land of the living. And he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with those who are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude," says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 33

According to the duty of a watchman in warning the people, 1-6, Ezekiel is admonished of his duty, 7-9. God shows the justice of his ways toward the penitent and toward revolters, 10-16. He maintains his justice, 17-20. Upon the news of the taking of Jerusalem he prophesies the desolation of the land, 21-29. God’s judgment upon the mockers of the prophets, 30-33.

1 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, speak to the children of your people and say to them, 'When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man from their borders and set him for their watchman, 3 If when he sees the sword come upon the land, he shall blow the trumpet and warn the people. 4 Then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does not take warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. 5 He heard the sound of the trumpet and did not take warning. His blood shall be upon him. But he who takes warning shall deliver his soul. 6 But if the watchman sees the sword come and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, if the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman’s hand.'

7 "So you, O son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore, you shall hear the word from my mouth and give them warning from me. 8 When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you shall surely die,' if you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. 9 Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, if he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

10 "Therefore, O son of man, speak to the house of Israel, 'In this manner you speak, saying, "If our transgressions and our sins are upon us and we pine away in them, how should we then live?"' 11 Say to them, 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked should turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways. For why will you die, O house of Israel?' 12 Therefore, son of man, say to the children of your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression. As for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall by it in the day that he turns from his wickedness, neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sins.' 13 When I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, if he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered, but for his iniquity that he has committed, he shall die for it. 14 Again, when I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' if he turns from his sin and does that which is lawful and right, 15 If the wicked restores the pledge, gives back that which he had robbed, and walks in the statutes of life without committing iniquity, he shall surely live and not die. 16 None of his sins that he has committed shall be mentioned to him. He has done that which is lawful and right. He shall surely live.

17 "Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not equal.' But as for them, their way is not equal. 18 When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, for that he shall even die. 19 But if the wicked turns from his wickedness and does that which is lawful and right, for that he shall live. 20 Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not equal.' O house of Israel, I will judge each of you after his ways."

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, that someone who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city is smitten." 22 Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening before he who had escaped came, and he had opened my mouth before he came to me in the morning. And my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.

23 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, those who inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, 'Abraham was one, and he inherited the land, but we are many. The land is given to us for an inheritance.' 25 Therefore, say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "You eat with the blood, lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood. And shall you possess the land? 26 You stand upon your sword, you work abomination, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife. And shall you possess the land?"' 27 Say thus to them: 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely those who are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him who is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and those who are in the forts and in the caves shall die by the pestilence. 28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease, and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate so that no one shall pass through. 29 Then they shall know that I am the LORD when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed."'

A reproof of the shepherds, 1-6. God’s judgment against them, 7-10. His providence over his flock, 11-19. The kingdom of Christ, 20-31.

1 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should the shepherds not feed the flocks? 3 You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, and you kill those that are fed, but you do not feed the flock. 4 The diseased you have not strengthened, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost, but with force and with cruelty you have ruled them. 5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd. And they became food to all the beasts of the field when they were scattered. 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains and upon every high hill. My flock was even scattered upon all the face of the earth, and no one searched or sought for them."'"

7 Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. 8 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely because my flock became a prey and my flock became food to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed my flock, 9 Therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. 10 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require my flock at their hand and cause them to cease from feeding the flock. The shepherds shall not feed themselves anymore, for I will deliver my flock from their mouth so that they may not be food for them."'"

11 For thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I, even I, will both search for my sheep and seek them out. 12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered, so I will seek out my sheep and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. 13 And I will bring them out from the people and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and their fold shall be upon the high mountains of Israel. There they shall lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture they shall feed upon the mountains of Israel. 15 I will feed my flock and I will cause them to lie down," says the Lord GOD. 16 "I will seek that which was lost and bring back that which was driven away, and I will bind up that which was broken and strengthen that which was sick. But I will destroy the fat and the strong. I will feed them with judgment.

17 "And as for you, O my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, between the rams and the male goats. 18 Does it seem a small thing to you to have eaten up the good pasture? Must you tread down with your feet the remnant of your pastures? You have drank from the deep waters. Must you foul the remainder with your feet? 19 And as for my flock, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.'"

20 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: "Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and between the lean sheep. 21 Because you have thrust with side and with shoulder and pushed all the diseased with your horns until you have scattered them abroad, 22 Therefore I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be a prey. And I will judge between sheep and sheep.

23 "And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David. He shall feed them and be their shepherd. 24 And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them. I, the LORD, have spoken it.

25 "And I will make with them a covenant of peace and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land. And they shall dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. 26 And I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing, and I will cause the shower to come down in its season. There shall be showers of blessing. 27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land. And they shall know that I am the LORD when I have broken the bars of their yoke and delivered them out of the hand of those who subjected them to service. 28 And they shall no longer be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them, but they shall dwell safely, and no one shall make them afraid. 29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall no longer be consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen anymore. 30 Thus they shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people," says the Lord GOD. 31 "And you my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God," says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 35

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel, and insulting over their distress, 1-15.

1 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against mount Seir and prophesy against it, 3 And say to it, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, O mount Seir, I am against you, / and I will stretch out my hand against you / and make you most desolate.

4 I will lay your cities waste, / and you shall be desolate. /
And you shall know that I am the LORD.

5 "Because you have had a perpetual hatred and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end, 6 Therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, even blood shall pursue you. 7 Thus I will make mount Seir most desolate and cut off from it him who passes over and him who returns. 8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men. In your hills, in your valleys, and in all your rivers, they shall fall who are slain with the sword. 9 I will make you perpetual desolations, and your cities shall not return. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

10 "Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it,' whereas the LORD was there, 11 Therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will even do according to your anger and according to your envy which you have used out of your hatred against them, and I will make myself known among them when I have judged you. 12 And you shall know that I am the LORD and that I have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are laid desolate. They are given to us to consume.' 13 Thus with your mouth you have boasted against me and have multiplied your words against me. I have heard them." 14 Thus says the Lord GOD: "When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. 15 As you rejoiced at the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You shall be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it. And they shall know that I am the LORD."'"

The land of Israel is comforted, both by destruction of the heathen, who spitefully used it, 1-7, and by the blessings of God promised to it, 8-15. Israel was rejected for their sin, 16-20, and God will glorify himself in a promise of pardon, 21-24. The blessings of Christ's kingdom, 25-38.

1 "Also, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, 'You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. 2 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because the enemy had said against you, 'Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession,'"' 3 Therefore prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they have made you desolate and swallowed you up on every side, so that you might be a possession to the rest of the heathen, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers and are an infamy of the people"— 4 Therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, to the hills, to the rivers, to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the remnant of the heathen who are around— 5 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely in the fire of my jealousy I have spoken against the remnant of the heathen and against all Edom, who have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey."' 6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because you have borne the shame of the heathen." 7 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "I have lifted up my hand. Surely the heathen who are around you, they shall bear their shame. 8 But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to my people of Israel, for they are at hand to come. 9 For behold, I am for you and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. 10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it. And the cities shall be inhabited and the wastes shall be built. 11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast, and they shall increase and bring fruit. And I will settle you after your old states and will do better to you than at your beginnings. And you shall know that I am the LORD. 12 I will even cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel. And they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance. And you shall no more from now on bereave them of men."

13 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they say to you, 'You devour men and have bereaved your nations,' 14 Therefore you shall no longer devour men, neither bereave your nations anymore," says the Lord GOD. 15 "I will not cause men to hear in you the shame of the heathen anymore, neither shall you bear the reproach of the people anymore, neither shall you cause your nations to fall anymore," says the Lord GOD.'"

16 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings. Their way was before me like the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. 18 Therefore, I poured my fury upon them because of the blood that they had shed upon the land and because of their idols with which they had polluted it. 19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries. According to their way and according to their doings I judged them. 20 And when they entered among the heathen where they went, they profaned my holy name when they said to them, 'These are the people of the LORD and have gone forth out of his land.' 21 But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen where they went.

22 "Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I do not do this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for my holy name’s sake, which you have profaned among the heathen where you went. 23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which you have profaned in the midst of them. And the heathen shall know that I am the LORD," says the Lord GOD, "when I have been sanctified in you before their eyes. 24 For I will take you from among the heathen, gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land. 25 Then I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean. From all your filthiness and from all your idols, I will cleanse you. 26 A new heart I will also give you, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. 27 And I will put my Spirit within you and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my judgments, and do them. 28 And you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. And you shall be my people, and I will be your God. 29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses. And I will call for the grain and increase it, and lay no famine upon you. 30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field, so that you shall no longer receive reproach of famine among the heathen. 31 Then you shall remember your own evil ways and your doings that were not good, and shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. 32 It is not for your sakes that I do this," says the Lord GOD. "May that be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel."

33 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the day that I have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be built. 34 And the desolate land shall be tilled instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who passed by. 35 And they shall say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden, and the waste, desolate, and ruined cities have become fortified and are inhabited.' 36 Then the heathen who are left around you shall know that I, the LORD, build the ruined places and plant that which was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it."

37 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will once again be inquired of by the house of Israel and do this for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. 38 As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so the waste cities shall be filled with flocks of men. And they shall know that I am the LORD."'"

Chapter 37

By the resurrection of dry bones, 1-10, the dead hope of Israel is revived, 11-14. By the uniting of two sticks, 15-17, is shown the incorporation of Israel into Judah, 18-20. The promises of Christ’s kingdom, 21-28.

1 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he carried me out in the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones. 2 And he caused me to pass by them around, and behold, there were very many in the open valley, and behold, they were very dry. 3 And he said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" And I answered, "O Lord GOD, you know." 4 Again he said to me, "Prophesy upon these bones and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. 5 Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: "Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. 6 And I will lay sinews upon you, bring up flesh upon you, cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live. And you shall know that I am the LORD."'"

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. 8 And when I looked, behold, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them and the skin covered them above, but there was no breath in them. 9 Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain so that they may live."'" 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood up upon their feet—an exceedingly great army.

11 Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried and our hope is lost. We are completely cut off.' 12 Therefore, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, O my people, I will open your graves and cause you to come out of your graves and bring you into the land of Israel. 13 And you shall know that I am the LORD when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you out of your graves. 14 And I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it," says the LORD.'"

15 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 16 "Moreover, son of man, take one stick and write upon it, 'For Judah and for the children of Israel his companions.' Then take another stick and write upon it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions.' 17 And join them to one another into one stick, and they shall become one in your hand. 18 And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, 'Will you not show us what you mean by these?' 19 Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph—which is in the hand of Ephraim—and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and I will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah. And I will make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand."' 20 And the sticks on which you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. 21 And say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen where they have gone and gather them on every side and bring them into their own land. 22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel, and one king shall be king to them all. And they shall no longer be two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms anymore at all, 23 Neither shall they defile themselves anymore with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions. But I will save them out of all their dwelling-places in which they have sinned and cleanse them. So they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

24 "And David my servant shall be king over them, and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall also walk in my judgments and observe my statutes and do them. 25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers have dwelt, and they shall dwell in it—even they, their children, and their children's children forever. And my servant David shall be their prince forever. 26 Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them. It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them and multiply them and set my sanctuary in the midst of them forevermore. 27 My tabernacle shall also be with them. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 28 And the heathen shall know that I, the LORD, sanctify Israel when my sanctuary is in the midst of them forever."'"

Chapter 38

The army, 1-7, and malice of Gog, 8-13. God's judgment against him, 14-23.

1 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him 3 And say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. 4 And I will turn you back and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth with all your army—horses and horsemen all clothed with all sorts of armor, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords; 5 Persia, Cush, and Phut with them, all of them with shield and helmet; 6 Gomer and all his bands, the house of Togarmah of the north quarters and all his bands, and many people with you.

7 "Be prepared, and prepare yourself—you and all your company who are assembled to you—and be a guard to them. 8 After many days you shall be visited. In the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have always been waste. But it is brought forth out of the nations and they shall all dwell in safety. 9 You shall ascend and come like a storm. You shall be like a cloud to cover the land—you and all your bands, and many people with you."

10 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "It shall also come to pass, that at the same time things shall come into your mind, and you shall think an evil thought. 11 And you shall say, 'I will go up to the land of unwalled villages. I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls and having neither bars nor gates'— 12 To take loot and to take plunder, to turn your hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited and upon the people who are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land. 13 Sheba, Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all its young lions, shall say to you, 'Have you come to take loot? Have you gathered your company to take plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?'"'

14 "Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In that day when my people of Israel dwell safely, shall you not know it? 15 And you shall come from your place out of the north parts—you and many people with you, all of them riding upon horses, a great company and a mighty army. 16 And you shall come against my people of Israel like a cloud to cover the land. It shall be in the latter days, and I will bring you against my land so that the heathen may know me when I have been sanctified in you, O Gog, before their eyes."

17 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Are you he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days many years that I would bring you against them? 18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog comes against the land of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "that my fury shall come up in my face. 19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath I have said that surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel 20 So that the fish of the sea, the birds of the heaven, the beasts of the field, all creeping animals that creep upon the earth, and all the men who are upon the face of the earth shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be overturned, the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. 21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains," says the Lord GOD. "Every man's sword shall be against his brother. 22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood, and I will rain upon him, upon his bands, and upon the many people who are with him, an overflowing rain, with great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. 23 Thus I will magnify myself and sanctify myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. And they shall know that I am the LORD."'"

God's judgment upon Gog, 1-7. Israel's victory, 8-10. Gog's burial in Hamon-gog, 11-16. The feast of the birds, 17-20. Israel having been plagued for their sins, 21-24, shall be gathered again with eternal favor, 25-29.

1 "Therefore, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. 2 And I will turn you back, lead you on, and cause you to come from the north parts, and I will bring you upon the mountains of Israel. 3 And I will strike your bow out of your left hand and cause your arrows to fall from your right hand. 4 You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel—you and all your bands, and the people who are with you. I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. 5 You shall fall upon the open field. For I have spoken it," says the Lord GOD. 6 "And I will send a fire on Magog and among those who dwell carelessly in the coastlands. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 "Thus I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will not let them profane my holy name anymore. And the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. 8 Behold, it comes, and it shall be done," says the Lord GOD. "This is the day of which I have spoken.

9 "And those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth and set on fire and burn the weapons: the shields, the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, the hand-staffs, and the spears. And they shall burn them with fire for seven years 10 So that they take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests, for they shall burn the weapons with fire. And they shall lay waste those who wasted them and rob those who robbed them," says the Lord GOD.

11 "And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give to Gog a place of graves there in Israel: the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea. And it shall stop the noses of the passengers. And there they shall bury Gog and all his multitude. And they shall call it The Valley of Hamon-gog. 12 And for seven months the house of Israel shall be burying them so that they may cleanse the land. 13 Even all the people of the land shall bury them. And it shall be to them a renown in the day that I have been glorified," says the Lord GOD. 14 "And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those who remain upon the face of the earth to cleanse it. After the end of seven months they shall search. 15 And as passengers pass through the land, when any sees a man’s bone, then he shall set up a sign by it until the buriers have buried it in The Valley of Hamon-gog. 16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus they shall cleanse the land."'

17 "And, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: 'Say to every feathered bird and to every beast of the field, "Assemble yourselves, and come. Gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, so that you may eat flesh and drink blood. 18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty and drink the blood of the princes of the earth—of rams, of lambs, of goats, and of bulls, all of them fattened beasts of Bashan. 19 And you shall eat fat until you are full and drink blood until you are drunken at my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. 20 Thus you shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war," says the Lord GOD.

21 "And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed and my hand that I have laid upon them. 22 Thus the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day forward. 23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity. Because they trespassed against me, therefore I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword. 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I have dealt with them and hid my face from them."'"

25 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "Now I will bring back the captivity of Jacob and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for my holy name. 26 And they shall bear their shame and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me when they dwell safely in their land and no one makes them afraid, 27 When I have brought them back from the people, gathered them out of the lands of their enemies, and am sanctified through them in the sight of many nations. 28 Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God who caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen. But I have gathered them to their own land and have left none of them there anymore. 29 I will not hide my face anymore from them, for I have poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel," says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 40

The time, manner, and end of the vision of the city and temple, 1-5. The description of the east gate of the outer court, 6-19; of the north gate, 20-23; of the south gate, 24-26; of the south gate of the inner court, 27-31; of the east gate, 32-34; and of the north gate, 35-38. Eight tables, 39-43. The chambers, 44-47. The porch of the house, 48, 49.

1 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was smitten, on that same day the hand of the LORD was upon me and brought me there. 2 In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel and set me upon a very high mountain, on which was something like the frame of a city on the south. 3 And he brought me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax and a measuring reed in his hand, and he stood in the gate. 4 And the man said to me, "Son of man, behold with your eyes and hear with your ears, and set your heart upon all that I shall show you, for you are brought here so that I might show them to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel."

5 And behold, there was a wall on the outside of the house around, and in the man’s hand was a measuring reed of six cubits long, of which each [cubit] was a cubit and a hand-breadth. So he measured the breadth of the building, one reed, and the height, one reed. 6 Then he came to the gate which looks toward the east and ascended its stairs. And he measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad. 7 And every little chamber was one reed long and one reed broad. And between the little chambers were five cubits. And the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed. 8 He also measured the porch of the gate within, one reed. 9 Then he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits, and its posts, two cubits, and the porch of the gate was inward. 10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side and three on that side. The three of them were of one measure. And the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. 11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits, and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. 12 Also, the space before the little chambers was one cubit on this side and the space was one cubit on that side. And the little chambers were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side. 13 He then measured the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another. The breadth was twenty-five cubits, door against door. 14 He also made posts of sixty cubits, even to the post of the court around the gate. 15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance to the face of the porch of the inner gate was fifty cubits. 16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers and to their posts within the gate around, and likewise to the arches. And windows were around inward. And upon each post were palm-trees.

17 Then he brought me into the outward court, and behold, there were chambers and a pavement made for the court around. Thirty chambers were upon the pavement. 18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement. 19 Then he measured the breadth from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 And he measured the length and the breadth of the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north. 21 And its little chambers were three on this side and three on that side. And its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate. Its length was fifty cubits and its breadth twenty-five cubits. 22 And their windows, their arches, and their palm-trees were after the measure of the gate that looks toward the east. And they went up to it by seven steps, and its arches were before them. 23 And there was a gate in the inner court over against the gate toward the north, just like the one toward the east. And he measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits.

24 After that, he brought me toward the south, and behold, a gate toward the south. And he measured its posts and its arches according to these measures. 25 And there were windows in it and in its arches around, like the other windows. The length was fifty cubits and the breadth twenty-five cubits. 26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them. And it had palm-trees, one on this side and another on that side, upon its posts. 27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south. And he measured from gate to gate toward the south one hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. And he measured the south gate according to these measures, 29 And also its little chambers, its posts, and its arches according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in its arches around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits broad. 30 And the arches around were twenty-five cubits long and five cubits broad. 31 And its arches were toward the outer court. And palm-trees were upon its posts. And the ascent to it had eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east. And he measured the gate according to these measures, 33 And also its little chambers, its posts, and its arches according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in its arches around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits broad. 34 And its arches were toward the outward court. And palm-trees were upon its posts on this side and on that side. And the ascent to it had eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate and measured it according to these measures, 36 And also its little chambers, its posts, its arches, and the windows to it around. The length was fifty cubits and the breadth twenty-five cubits. 37 And its posts were toward the outer court. And palm-trees were upon its posts on this side and on that side. And the ascent to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and its entries were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt-offering. 39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, upon which to slay the burnt-offering, the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering. 40 And at the side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables, and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables. 41 Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side by the side of the gate—eight tables upon which they slew their sacrifices. 42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high, upon which they also laid the instruments with which they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice. 43 And within were hooks, each a hand-breadth long, fastened around. And upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And outside the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court. One was at the side of the north gate and its prospect was toward the south, the other at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. 45 And he said to me, "This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house. 46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, who come near to the LORD to minister to him." 47 So he measured the court, one hundred cubits long and one hundred cubits broad, square, and also the altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the house and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side. And the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. 49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits and the breadth eleven cubits. And he brought me by the steps by which they went up to it. And there were pillars by the posts, one on this side and another on that side.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple, 1-26.

1 Afterward, he brought me to the temple and measured the posts, six cubits broad on one side and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle. 2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits. And the sides of the door were five cubits on one side and five cubits on the other side. And he measured its length, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits. 3 Then he went inward and measured the post of the door, two cubits, and the door, six cubits, and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. 4 So he measured its length, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple. And he said to me, "This is the holy of holies."

5 Afterward, he measured the wall of the house, six cubits, and the breadth of every side-chamber, four cubits, around the house on every side. 6 And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order, and there were ledges on the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers around, so that they might be supported, but not attached to the wall of the house. 7 And the side-chambers broadened, winding around upward, for the winding around of the house conveyed upward around the house. Therefore, the breadth of the house continued upward, and thus one ascends from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middle. 8 I also saw the height of the house around. The foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. 9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber outside, was five cubits. And that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that were inside. 10 And between the chambers was the width of twenty cubits around the house on every side. 11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north and another door toward the south. And the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits around.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad. And the wall of the building was five cubits thick around, and its length ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, one hundred cubits long, and the separate place and the building with its walls, one hundred cubits long, 14 And the breadth of the face of the house and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it and its galleries on one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits. The inner temple and the porches of the court, 16 The door posts and the narrow windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the door, were ceiled with wood around, and from the ground up to the windows (and the windows were covered), 17 To the space above the door, even to the inner house and on the outside, and by all the wall around inside and outside, by measure. 18 And it was made with cherubim and palm-trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub. And every cherub had two faces, 19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm-tree on one side and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side. It was made through all the house around. 20 From the ground to above the door, cherubim and palm-trees were made, as well as on the wall of the temple.

21 As for the temple, the door-posts were squared. And as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance thereof was like the appearance of the temple. 22 The altar of wood was three cubits high and its length two cubits, and its corners, its length, and its walls were of wood. And he said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD." 23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. 24 And the doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves: two leaves for one door and two leaves for the other door. 25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm-trees, as were made upon the walls. And there were thick planks upon the face of the porch outside. 26 And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, the side-chambers of the house, and the thick planks.

The chambers for the priests, 1-12. The use thereof, 13, 14. The measures of the outward court, 15-20.

1 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north. And he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place and which was before the building toward the north. 2 Before the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. 3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. 4 And before the chambers was a passage of ten cubits breadth inward, and its length was a hunderd cubits, and their doors toward the north. 5 Now the upper chambers were shorter because the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. 6 For they were in three stories, but did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore, the building was kept back more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. 7 And the wall that was outside over against the chambers, toward the outer court on the forepart of the chambers, its length was fifty cubits. 8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits. And behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits. 9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place and over against the building. 11 And the passage before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long and as broad as the others. And all their exits were both according to their fashions and according to their doors. 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the passage, even the passage directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

shall eat the most holy things. There they shall lay the most holy things, the food-offering, the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering, for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter therein, they shall not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister, for they are holy, and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people."

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east and measured it all around. 16 He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around. 17 He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. 18 He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. 19 He turned around to the west side and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. 20 He measured it by the four sides. It had a wall around, five hundred reeds long and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

The returning of the glory of God into the temple, 1-6. The sin of Israel hindered God's presence, 7-9. The prophet exhorts them to repentance and observation of the law of the house, 10-12. The measures, 13-17, and the ordinances of the altar, 18-27.

1 Afterward, he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east, 2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. And his voice was like a noise of many waters. And the earth shined with his glory. 3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city. And the visions were like the vision that I saw by the Kebar River. And I fell upon my face. 4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. 5 So the Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner court, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking to me out of the house, and the man stood by me. 7 And he said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name—neither they nor their kings—by their lewd deeds nor by the carcasses of their kings in their high places. 8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed; therefore, I have consumed them in my anger. 9 Now let them put away their lewd deeds and the carcasses of their kings far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them forever.

10 "Son of man, show the house to the house of Israel so that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. And let them measure the pattern. 11 And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, show them the form of the house, its fashion, its exits, its entrances, all its forms, all its ordinances, all its forms, and all its laws, and write it in their sight so that they may keep its whole form and all its ordinances and do them. 12 This is the law of the house. Upon the top of the mountain, its whole limit around shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 "And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a hand-breadth): The bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and its border by its edge around shall be a span. And this shall be the higher place of the altar. 14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit, and from the lower ledge even to the upper ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. 15 Thus the altar shall be four cubits. And from the altar and upward shall be four horns. 16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in its four sides. 17 And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in its four sides, the border around it shall be half a cubit, and its bottom shall be a cubit all around. And its stairs shall look toward the east."

18 And he said to me, "Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: 'These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they make it, to offer burnt-offerings upon it and to sprinkle blood upon it. 19 And you shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the offspring of Zadok, who approach to me to minister to me,' says the Lord GOD, 'a young bull for a sin-offering. 20 And you shall take some of his blood and put it on its four horns, on the four corners of the ledge, and upon the border around. Thus you shall cleanse and purge it. 21 You shall also take the bull of the sin-offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house outside the sanctuary.

22 'And on the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin-offering. And they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. 23 When you have made an end of cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish and a ram out of the flock without blemish. 24 And you shall offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them for a burnt-offering to the LORD. 25 Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering. They shall also prepare a young bull and a ram out of the flock without blemish. 26 Seven days they shall purge the altar and purify it. Thus they shall consecrate themselves. 27 And when these days have expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings and your peace-offerings upon the altar. Then I will accept you,' says the Lord GOD."

Chapter 44

The east gate assigned only to the prince, 1-3. The priests reproved for polluting the sanctuary, 4-8. Idolaters incapable of the priest's office, 9-14. The sons of Zadok are accepted thereto, 15, 16. Ordinances for the priests, 17-31.

1 Then he brought me back by the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looks toward the east, and it was shut. 2 Then the LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it. Because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. 3 It is for the prince. The prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD. He shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate and shall go out by the way of the same."

4 Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house. And I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD, and I fell upon my face. 5 And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, mark well and behold with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws, and mark well the entrance of the house with every going forth of the sanctuary. 6 And you shall say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "O house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, 7 In that you have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh to be in my sanctuary to pollute it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood. And they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations. 8 And you have not kept the charge of my holy things, but you have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves."

9 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "No stranger uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh shall enter into my sanctuary, not even a stranger who is among the children of Israel. 10 And the Levites who have gone away far from me when Israel went astray, and who went astray from me after their idols, they shall even bear their iniquity. 11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house and ministering to the house. They shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. 12 Because they ministered to them before their idols and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have lifted up my hand against them," says the Lord GOD, "and they shall bear their iniquity. 13 And they shall not come near to me to do the office of a priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things in the holy of holies, but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. 14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house for all its service and for all that shall be done therein.

15 "But the priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me, and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood," says the Lord GOD. 16 "They shall enter into my sanctuary and they shall come near to my table to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge. 17 And it shall come to pass when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, that they shall be clothed with linen garments. No wool shall come upon them while they minister in the gates of the inner court and within. 18 They shall have linen caps upon their heads and linen breeches upon their loins. They shall not gird themselves with anything that causes sweat. 19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall take off their garments in which they ministered, lay them in the holy chambers, and put on other garments so that they do not sanctify the people with their garments. 20 They shall not shave their heads nor allow their locks to grow long. They shall only poll their heads. 21 No priest shall drink wine when they enter into the inner court. 22 They shall not take for their wives a widow nor her who is put away, but they shall take virgins of the offspring of the house of Israel or a widow who had a priest before. 23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. 24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment and judge it according to my judgments. And they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my assemblies and hallow my sabbaths. 25 And they shall not come near to a dead person to defile themselves. But for father, for mother, for son, for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. 26 And after he is cleansed, they shall number for him seven days. 27 And on the day that he goes into the sanctuary to the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin-offering," says the Lord GOD.

28 "And it shall be to them for an inheritance. I am their inheritance. And you shall give them no possession in Israel. I am their possession. 29 They shall eat the food-offering, the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering. Every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs. 30 And the first of all the first-fruits of all things and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest’s. You shall also give to the priest the first of your dough so that he may cause the blessing to rest in your house. 31 The priests shall not eat anything that is dead of itself or torn, whether bird or beast."'"

Chapter 45

The portion of land for the sanctuary, 1-5; for the city, 6; and for the prince, 7, 8. Ordinances for the prince, 9-25.

1 "'"Moreover, when you divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an oblation to the LORD, a holy portion of the land. The length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all its borders on every side. 2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square around, and fifty cubits around for its suburbs. 3 And of this measure you shall measure the length of twenty-five thousand and the breadth of ten thousand. And in it shall be the sanctuary and the holy of holies. 4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who shall come near to minister to the LORD. And it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. 5 And the twenty-five thousand of length and the ten thousand of breadth shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, as a possession for themselves for twenty chambers.

6 "And you shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad and twenty-five thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion. It shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 "And a portion shall be for the prince on one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward and from the east side eastward. And the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. 8 In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel. And my princes shall no longer oppress my people. And the rest of the land they shall give to the house of Israel according to their tribes."

9 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel. Remove violence and plunder and execute judgment and justice. Take away your exactions from my people," says the Lord GOD.

10 "You shall have just balances, a just ephah, and a just bath. 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, so that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer and the ephah the tenth part of a homer. Its measure shall be after the homer. 12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 "This is the oblation that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of wheat, and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of barley; 14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, you shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is a homer of ten baths (for ten baths are a homer); 15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel, for a food-offering, for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for them," says the Lord GOD. 16 "All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel. 17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt-offerings, food-offerings, and drink-offerings in the feasts, in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin-offering, the food-offering, the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings to make reconciliation for the house of Israel."

18 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary. 19 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin-offering and put it upon the posts of the house, upon the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 And thus you shall do the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs and for him who is simple. Thus you shall reconcile the house.

21 "In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the passover, a feast of seven days. Unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22 And upon that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin-offering. 23 And on the seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt-offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days and a kid of the goats daily for a sin-offering. 24 And he shall prepare a food-offering of an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil for an ephah. 25 In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, he shall do the same in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, according to the food-offering, and according to the oil."'"

Chapter 46

Ordinance for the prince in his worship, 1-8; and for the people, 9-15. An order for the prince's inheritance, 16-18. The courts for boiling and baking, 19-24.

1 "'Thus says the Lord GOD: "The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut on the six working days, but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. 2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate outside and shall stand by the post of the gate. And the priest shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go forth, but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. 3 Likewise, the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and on the new moons. 4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer to the LORD on the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish. 5 And the food-offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the food-offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 6 And on the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, six lambs, and a ram. They shall be without blemish. 7 And he shall prepare a food-offering, an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall be able, along with a hin of oil to an ephah. 8 And when the prince enters, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate and he shall go forth by the way of it. 9 But when the people of the land come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he who enters in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate, and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate. He shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go forth over against it. 10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, he shall go in, and when they go forth, he shall go forth.

11 "And in the feasts and in the solemnities the food-offering shall be an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, along with a hin of oil to an ephah. 12 Now when the prince prepares a voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offerings voluntarily to the LORD, the gate that looks toward the east shall be opened for him, and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he did on the sabbath-day. Then he shall go forth, and the gate shall be shut after his going forth.

13 "You shall daily prepare a burnt-offering to the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish. You shall prepare it every morning. 14 And you shall prepare a food-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah and the third part of a hin of oil to temper with the fine flour, a food-offering continually by a perpetual ordinance to the LORD. 15 Thus they shall prepare the lamb, the food-offering, and the oil every morning for a continual burnt-offering."

16 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons, its inheritance shall be to his sons. It shall be their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he gives a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his until the year of liberty. Afterward, it shall return to the prince. But his inheritance shall be to his sons for them. 18 Moreover, the prince shall not take from the people’s inheritance by oppression to thrust them out of their possession, but he shall give his sons' inheritance out of his own possession so that my people are not scattered each from his possession."'"

21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court, and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. 22 In the four corners of the court there were enclosed courts, each forty cubits long and thirty broad. These four corners were of one measure. 23 And there was a wall around in them, around the four of them, and it was made with boiling places under the rows around. 24 Then he said to me, "These are the places of those who boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people."

Chapter 47

The vision of the holy waters, 1-5. The virtue of them, 6-12. The borders of the land, 13-21. The division of it by lot, 22, 23.

1 Afterward, he brought me back to the door of the house, and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward, for the front of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar. 2 Then he brought me out of the way of the gate northward and led me around by the way outside to the outer gate that looks eastward, and behold, waters ran out on the right side.

3 And when the man who had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured one thousand cubits and brought me through the waters. The waters were to the ankles. 4 Again he measured one thousand and brought me through the waters. The waters were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through. The waters were to the loins. 5 Afterward, he measured one thousand and it was a river that I could not pass over, for the waters had risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over. 6 And he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me and caused me to return to the bank of the river. 7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on one side and on the other. 8 Then he said to me, "These waters issue out toward the east country, go down into the desert, and go into the sea. When [the waters] are brought forth into the sea, the waters become fresh. 9 And it shall come to pass, that wherever the rivers come, every living creature that swarms shall live. And there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come there, for they shall be healed, and everything shall live where the river comes. 10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishermen shall stand upon it from En-gedi even to En-eglaim. They shall be a place to spread forth nets. Their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the Great Sea, very numerous. 11 But its miry places and its marshes shall not be healed. They shall be given to salt. 12 And by the river upon its bank, on this side and on that side, all trees for food shall grow, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall their fruit be consumed. They shall bring forth new fruit according to their months, because their waters issued out of the sanctuary. And their fruit shall be for food and their leaf for medicine."

13 Thus says the Lord GOD: "This shall be the border by which you shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions. 14 And you shall inherit it, one as well as another, for I lifted up my hand to give it to your fathers. And this land shall fall to you for inheritance.

15 "And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side: from the Great Sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad; 16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. 17 And the border from the sea shall be Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 "And the east side you shall measure from Hauran, from Damascus, from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by the Jordan, from the border to the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 "And the south side southward shall run from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the Great Sea. And this is the south side southward.

20 "The west side shall also be the Great Sea, from the border as far as over against Hamath. This is the west side.

21 "Thus you shall divide this land to yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. 22 And it shall come to pass, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to yourselves and to the strangers who sojourn among you who shall beget children among you. And they shall be to you as natives in the country among the children of Israel. They shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. 23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourns, there you shall give him his inheritance," says the Lord GOD.

Chapter 48

The portions of the twelve tribes, 1-7, 23-29; of the sanctuary, 8-14; of the city and suburbs, 15-20; and of the prince, 21, 22. The dimensions and gates of the city, 30-35.

1 "Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the border of the way of Hethlon as one goes to Hamath, as far as Hazar-enan on the border of Damascus northward to the limit of Hamath, for these are his sides east and west, a portion for Dan. 2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Asher. 3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, a portion for Naphtali. 4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Manasseh. 5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Ephraim. 6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, a portion for Reuben. 7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Judah.

8 "And by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer of twenty-five thousand reeds in breadth and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side to the west side. And the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it. 9 The oblation that you shall offer to the LORD shall be of twenty-five thousand in length and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 "And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, toward the west ten thousand in breadth, toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length. And the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst of it. 11 It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok who have kept my charge, who did not go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. 12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be to them a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites. 13 And over against the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length and ten thousand in breadth. All the length shall be twenty-five thousand and the breadth ten thousand. 14 And they shall not sell or exchange any of it nor alienate the first-fruits of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.

15 "And the five thousand that is left in the breadth over against the twenty-five thousand shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs, and the city shall be in the midst of it. 16 And these shall be its measures: the north side four thousand and five hundred, the south side four thousand and five hundred, on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. 17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, toward the south two hundred and fifty, toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. 18 And the remainder in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward and ten thousand westward. And it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion, and its increase shall be for food to those who serve the city. 19 And those who serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel. 20 All the oblation shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand. You shall offer the holy oblation along with the possession of the city as a square.

21 "And the remainder on one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city shall be for the prince. Over against the twenty-five thousand of the oblation toward the east border and westward over against the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, over against the portions, shall be for the prince. And it shall be the holy oblation, and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst of it. 22 Moreover, from the possession of the Levites and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince’s, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 "As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion. 24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon shall have a portion. 25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar a portion. 26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun a portion. 27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad a portion. 28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of strife in Kadesh and to the river toward the Great Sea. 29 This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions," says the Lord GOD.

30 "And these are the exits of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures. 31 And the gates of the city shall be named after the tribes of Israel. The three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. 32 And on the east side four thousand and five hundred, with three gates: the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. 33 And on the south side four thousand and five hundred measures, with three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. 34 And on the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. 35 The circuit was eighteen thousand measures. And the name of the city from that day shall be, 'The LORD is There.'"

The Story of Daniel

Daniel | Δανιήλ | לאינד

Chapter 1

Jehoiakim's captivity, 1, 2. Ashpenaz takes Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 3-7. Refusing the king's portion, they prosper with pulse and water, 8-16. Their proficiency in wisdom, 17-21.

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. 2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god. And he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

3 And the king told Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs that he should bring some of the children of Israel, even some of the royal family and of the princes, 4 Children in whom there was no blemish, but of good appearance, skillful in all wisdom, intelligent in knowledge, understanding science, and those who had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the writing and the language of the Chaldeans. 5 And the king appointed them a daily provision from the king's food and from the wine which he drank, thus nourishing them for three years, so that at the end thereof they might stand before the king. 6 Now among these were some of the children of Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah— 7 To whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names. For he gave to Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, Shadrach; and to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abed-nego.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's food nor with the wine which he drank; therefore, he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9 Now God had brought Daniel into favor and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. 10 And the prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king who has appointed your provision and your drink. For why should he see your faces more meager than the children who are of your sort? Then you will make me endanger my head to the king." 11 Then Daniel said to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 "Prove your servants, I implore you, for ten days. And let them give us pulse to eat and water to drink. 13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before you, along with the countenances of the children who eat of the portion of the king's provision. And as you see, deal with your servants."

14 So he consented to them in this matter and proved them for ten days. 15 And at the end of ten days, their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children who ate the portion of the king's provision. 16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their food and the wine that they should drink and gave them pulse.

17 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom. And Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 And the king spoke with them. And among them all there was found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore, they stood before the king. 20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding wherein the king questioned them, he found them ten times superior to all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm. 21 And Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

Chapter 2

Nebuchadnezzar, forgetting his dream, requires the Chaldeans make it known, by promises and threatenings, 1-9. They, acknowledging their inability, are judged to die, 10-13. Daniel, obtaining some respite, reveals the dream, 14-18. He blesses God, 19-23. He, staying the decree, is brought to the king, 24-30. The dream, 31-35. The interpretation, 36-45. Daniel's advancement, 46-49.

1 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, and his spirit was troubled and his sleep broke from him. 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, the astrologers, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to declare to the king his dream. So they came and stood before the king. 3 And the king said to them, "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream."

4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Syriac, "O king, live forever. Tell your servants the dream and we will reveal the interpretation." 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The thing has gone from me. If you will not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces and your houses shall be made a dunghill. 6 But if you make known the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts, rewards, and great honor. Therefore, tell me the dream and its interpretation." 7 They answered again and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will reveal its interpretation." 8 The king answered and said, "I know of certainty that you would gain the time because you see the thing has gone from me. 9 But if you will not make known to me the dream, there is but one decree for you, for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time is changed. Therefore, tell me the dream and I shall know that you can tell me its interpretation." 10 The Chaldeans answered before the king and said, "There is not a man upon the earth who can disclose the king's matter, for there is no king, lord, nor ruler who has asked such things of any magician, astrologer, or Chaldean. 11 And it is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can reveal it before the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and he commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain. And they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon. 15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree so hasty from the king?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. 16 Then Daniel went in and desired of the king that he would give him time so that he might reveal to the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, 18 That they would desire mercies from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision, and Daniel blessed the God of heaven. 20 Daniel answered and said, > "Blessed be the name of God /

> forever and ever, / > for wisdom and might are his.
>
> 21 And he changes the times and the seasons. /
> He removes kings and sets up kings. /
> He gives wisdom to the wise / > and knowledge to those who know understanding.
>
> 22 He reveals the deep and secret things. /
> He knows what is in the darkness, /
> and the light dwells with him.
>
> 23 I thank you and praise you, / > O God of my fathers, /
> for you have given me wisdom and might. /
> And now you have made known to me what we desired of you, / > for you have now made known to us the king’s matter."

24 Therefore, Daniel went into Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said this to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will declare to the king the interpretation."

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste and said this to him: "I have found a man among the captives of Judah who will make known to the king the interpretation." 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen and its interpretation?" 27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king and said, "The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, and the soothsayers cannot reveal to the king. 28 But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets and makes known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream and the visions of your head upon your bed are these. 29 As for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind upon your bed about what should come to pass hereafter, and he who reveals secrets makes known to you what shall come to pass. 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living man, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

31 "You, O king, saw, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before you, and its form was awesome. 32 The head of this image was of fine gold, his chest and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. 34 As you were looking, a stone was cut out without hands, and it smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay and broke them to pieces. 35 Then the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold were broken to pieces together and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors, and the wind carried them away so that no place was found for them. And the stone that smote the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

36 "This is the dream, and we will tell its interpretation before the king. 37 You, O king, are a king of kings, for the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, strength, and glory. 38 And wherever the children of men dwell, or the beasts of the field, or the birds of the heaven, he has given into your hand and has made you ruler over them all. You are this head of gold.

39 "And after you another kingdom inferior to you shall arise, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 "And the fourth kingdom shall be as strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things. And as iron that breaks all these, it shall break in pieces and bruise. 41 And just as you saw that the feet and toes were part of potter’s clay and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided, but there shall be in it some of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with the miry clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly broken. 43 And just as you saw iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the descendants of men, but they shall not cleave to one another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 "And in the days of these kings, the God of heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed. And the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. 45 Because you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter. And the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

46 Then king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odors to him. 47 The king answered to Daniel and said, "Of a truth it is that your God is a God of gods, a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you could reveal this secret." 48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego over the affairs of the province of Babylon, but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

Chapter 3

Nebuchadnezzar dedicates a golden image in Dura, 1-7. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego are accused of not worshiping the image, 8-12. They, being threatened, make a good confession, 13-18. They are cast into the furnace, 19-23, from which God delivers them, 24-27. Nebuchadnezzar, seeing the miracle, blesses God and advances them, 28-30.

1 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold whose height was sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to convene the princes, the governors, the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then the princes, the governors, the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces were assembled to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up, and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4 Then a herald cried aloud, "To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, 5 That at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you shall fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up. 6 And whoever shall not fall down and worship shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace." 7 Therefore, at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Therefore, at that time some Chaldeans came near and accused the Jews. 9 They spoke and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever. 10 You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the horn, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image. 11 And whoever shall not fall down and worship, he shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12 There are some Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. These men, O king, have not regarded you. They do not serve your gods nor worship the golden image which you have set up."

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said to them, "Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do you not serve my gods nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, to fall down and worship the image which I have made, very well. But if you do not worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And who is that God who shall deliver you out of my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17 If it is so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18 But if not, may it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods nor worship the golden image which you have set up."

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Therefore, he spoke and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was accustomed to be heated. 20 And he commanded the most mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their pants, their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. 22 Therefore, because the king’s commandment was urgent and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, rose up in haste, and spoke and said to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "True, O king." 25 He answered and said, "Behold, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt. And the form of the fourth is like the son of God." 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace and spoke and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, servants of the most high God, come forth and come here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego came forth from the midst of the fire. 27 And the princes, governors, captains, and the king’s counselors assembled and saw that the fire had no power over the bodies of these men. The hair of their head was not singed, neither were their coats changed, nor had the smell of fire passed upon them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants who trusted in him. And they have changed the king’s word and yielded their bodies so that they might not serve nor worship any god except their own God. 29 Therefore, I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language which speaks anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces and their houses shall be made a dunghill, because there is no other god who can deliver after this sort." 30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego in the province of Babylon.

Chapter 4

Nebuchadnezzar confesses God’s kingdom, 1-3, makes relation of his dreams, which the magicians could not interpret, 4-7. Daniel hears the dream, 8-18. He interprets it, 19-27. The dream fulfilled, 28-37.

1 Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all people, nations, and languages who dwell in all the earth: "May peace be multiplied to you. 2 I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high God has wrought toward me.

> 3 "How great his signs are! /
> And how mighty his wonders are! / > His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, / > and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 "I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house and flourishing in my palace. 5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. 6 Therefore, I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me so that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. 7 Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in, and I told the dream before them, but they did not make known to me its interpretation. 8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name is Belteshazzar according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods, and before him I told the dream, saying, 9 'O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen and its interpretation. 10 Thus were the visions of my head in my bed:

> I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, / > and its height was great.
>
> 11 The tree grew and was strong, / > and its height reached to heaven /
> and its sight to the end of all the earth.
>
> 12 Its leaves were fair and its fruit abundant, / > and in it was food for all. /
> The beasts of the field had shade under it, / > the birds of heaven dwelt among its boughs, / > and all flesh was fed from it.

13 'I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from heaven. 14 He cried aloud and said this:

> "Hew down the tree and cut off its branches. /
> Shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit. /
> Let the beasts escape from under it / > and the birds from its branches.
>
> 15 But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, / > even with a band of iron and brass, /
> in the tender grass of the field. /
> Let it be wet with the dew of heaven, / > and let its portion be with the beasts / > in the grass of the earth.
>
> 16 Let his heart be changed from man’s / > and let a beast’s heart be given to him, / > and let seven times pass over him.
>
> 17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, / > and the demand by the word of the holy ones, / > to the intent that the living may know / > that the most High rules in the kingdom of men / > and gives it to whomever he wishes / > and sets up the basest of men over it."

18 'This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, O Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.'

be to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies. 20 The tree that you saw, which grew and was strong, whose height reached to the heaven and its sight to all the earth, 21 Whose leaves were fair, its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the birds of heaven had their habitation— 22 It is you, O king, who have grown and become strong, for your greatness has grown and reaches to heaven, and your dominion to the end of the earth. 23 And the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, saying, "Hew the tree down and destroy it, yet leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field. Let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let its portion be with the beasts of the field until seven times shall pass over him." 24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High which has come upon my lord the king: 25 They shall drive you from men and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. They shall cause you to eat grass like oxen and they shall wet you with the dew of heaven. And seven times shall pass over you until you know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men and gives it to whomever he wishes. 26 And as it was commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots, your kingdom shall be sure to you, after you know that the heavens rule. 27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor, if it may be a lengthening of your tranquility.'

28 "All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar. 29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. 30 The king spoke and said, 'Is this not great Babylon which I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power and for the honor of my majesty?' 31 While the word was in the king’s mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, 'O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken, "The kingdom has departed from you. 32 And they shall drive you from men and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. They shall cause you to eat grass like oxen. And seven times shall pass over you until you know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men and gives it to whomever he wishes."' 33 The same hour, the thing was fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from men and ate grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven until his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

34 "And at the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven and my understanding returned to me. And I blessed the most High and I praised and honored him who lives forever,

> For his dominion is an everlasting dominion, / > and his kingdom is from generation to generation.
>
> 35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing. /
> And he does according to his will in the army of heaven / > and among the inhabitants of the earth. /
> And no one can stay his hand / > or say to him, 'What are you doing?'

36 "At the same time my reason returned to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my honor and brightness returned to me. My counselors and my lords sought me. I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me. 37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are truth and his ways are judgment. And he is able to abase those who walk in pride."

Chapter 5

Belshazzar's impious feast, 1-4. A hand-writing unknown to the magicians, troubles the king, 5-9. At the commendation of the queen, Daniel is brought, 10-16. He, reproving the king of pride and idolatry, 17-24, reads and interprets the writing, 25-29. The monarchy is transferred to the Medes, 30, 31.

1 Belshazzar the king made a great feast for one thousand of his lords and drank wine before the thousand. 2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem, so that the king, his princes, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them. 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem, and the king, his princes, his wives, and his concubines drank from them. 4 They drank wine and praised the gods of gold, of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the same hour, fingers of a man's hand came forth and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace. And the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. 6 Then the king's countenance was changed and his thoughts troubled him, and the joints of his loins were loosened and his knees smote one against another. 7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and declares to me its interpretation shall be clothed with scarlet, have a chain of gold around his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom." 8 Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing nor make known to the king its interpretation. 9 Then the king Belshazzar was greatly troubled and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonished.

10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house. And the queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever. Do not let your thoughts trouble you or your countenance be changed. 11 There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. And in the days of your father, light, understanding, and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him, whom the king Nebuchadnezzar your father—your father the king—made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers, 12 Because an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, the interpreting of dreams, the declaring of riddles, and dissolving of doubts were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will reveal the interpretation."

13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. And the king spoke and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judea? 14 I have even heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light, understanding, and excellent wisdom is found in you. 15 And now the wise men and the astrologers have been brought in before me so that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not reveal the interpretation of the thing. 16 And I have heard of you, that you can make interpretations and dissolve doubts. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with scarlet and have a chain of gold around your neck, and you shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; however, I will read the writing to the king and make known to him the interpretation. 18 O king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom, majesty, glory, and honor. 19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whom he wished he slew, whom he wished he kept alive, whom he wished he set up, and whom he wished he put down. 20 But when his heart was lifted up and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. 21 And he was driven from the sons of men and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven until he knew that the most high God rules in the kingdom of men and that he appoints over it whomever he will. 22 And you his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, 23 But you have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you, your lords, your wives, and your concubines have drank wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver, gold, brass, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, nor hear, nor know. And the God in whose hand is your breath and all your ways, you have not glorified. 24 Then the part of the hand was sent from him and this writing was written.

25 "And this is the writing that was written: 'MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.' 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: 'MENE': God has numbered your kingdom and finished it; 27 'TEKEL': you have been weighed in the balances and found lacking; 28 'PERES': your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

29 Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 In that night Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans was slain. 31 And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Chapter 6

Daniel is made chief of the presidents, 1-3. They, conspiring against him, obtain an idolatrous decree, 4-9. Daniel, accused of the breach thereof, is cast into the lions' den, 10-17. Daniel is saved, 18-23; his adversaries devoured, 24; and God magnified by a decree, 25-28.

1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty princes who should be over the whole kingdom, 2 And over these three presidents, of whom Daniel was first, so that the princes might give accounts to them and that the king should have no loss. 3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him, and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. 4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom, but they could find no occasion nor fault because he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. 5 Then these men said, "We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

6 Then these presidents and princes went together to the king and said this to him: "King Darius, live forever. 7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, the princes, the counselors, and the captains have consulted together to establish a royal statute and to make a firm decree, that whoever asks a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing so that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter." 9 Therefore, king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house, and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, prayed, and gave thanks before his God as he did before. 11 Then these men assembled and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. 12 Then they came near and spoke before the king concerning the king’s decree, "Have you not signed a decree, that every man who asks a petition of any god or man within thirty days, except of you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered and said, "The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter." 13 Then they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, does not regard you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was much displeased with himself and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him. And he labored until the setting of the sun to deliver him. 15 Then these men went together to the king and said to the king, "Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed."

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you." 17 And a stone was brought and laid upon the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords so that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel. 18 Then the king went to his palace and passed the night fasting, neither were instruments of music brought before him. And his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning and went in haste to the den of lions. 20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice to Daniel, and the king spoke and said to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?" 21 Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever. 22 My God has sent his angel and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me, because before him innocence was found in me. And also before you, O king, I have done no hurt." 23 Then the king was exceedingly glad for him and commanded that they should take Daniel out of the den. So Daniel was taken out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him because he believed in his God. 24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel and cast them into the den of lions—them, their children, and their wives—and the lions had the mastery of them and broke all their bones in pieces before they came to the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote to all people, nations, and languages who dwell in all the earth: "May peace be multiplied to you. 26 I make a decree, that in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel,

For he is the living God / and steadfast forever. /
His kingdom is one /
which shall not be destroyed, /
and his dominion shall be even to the end.

27 He delivers and rescues, / and he works signs and wonders / in heaven and on earth, / who has delivered Daniel / from the power of the lions."

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Chapter 7

Daniel’s vision of the four beasts, 1-8, and of God’s kingdom, 9-14. The interpretation thereof, 15-28.

1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. 2 Daniel spoke and said, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven strove upon the great sea. 3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, different from one another. 4 The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings. I beheld until its wings were plucked and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand upon its feet like a man, and a man’s heart was given to it. 5 And behold another beast, a second, like a bear, and it raised itself on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth, and they said this to it: 'Arise, devour much flesh.' 6 After this I beheld, and behold another, like a leopard, which had upon its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it. 7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong, and it had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces and trampled the remainder with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. 8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before which there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man and a mouth speaking great things.

9 "I beheld until the thrones were cast down / and the Ancient of days sat, / whose garment was as white as snow / and the hair of his head like pure wool. /
His throne was fiery flames / and its wheels were burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued / and came forth from before him. / Millions ministered to him, / and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. /
The judgment was set / and the books were opened.

11 "I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke. I beheld even until the beast was slain and his body destroyed and given to the burning flame. 12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 "I saw in the night visions, / and behold, one like the son of man / came with the clouds of heaven / and came to the Ancient of days, / and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given to him dominion, / glory, and a kingdom, /
so that all people, nations, and languages / should serve him. /
His dominion is an everlasting dominion / which shall not pass away, / and his kingdom is one /
which shall not be destroyed.

15 "I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. 16 I came near to one of those who stood by and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me and made me know the interpretation of the things: 17 'These great beasts, which are four, are four kings which shall arise out of the earth. 18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.'

19 "Then I wished to know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, whose teeth were of iron and his nails of brass, which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the remainder with his feet, 20 And of the ten horns that were on his head, and of the other which came up and before which three fell, even of the horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. 21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints and prevailed against them 22 Until the Ancient of days came and judgment was given to the saints of the most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 "This is what he said: 'The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be different from all kingdoms and shall devour the whole earth, tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings who shall arise. And another shall rise after them, and he shall be different from the first and shall subdue three kings. 25 And he shall speak great words against the most High and wear out the saints of the most High and think to change times and laws. And they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. 26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion to consume and to destroy it to the end. 27 And the kingdom, the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.'

28 "Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my cogitations greatly troubled me and my countenance changed in me, but I kept the matter in my heart."

Chapter 8

Daniel's vision of the ram and goat, 1-12. The two thousand three hundred days of the suspension of the daily sacrifice, 13, 14. Gabriel comforts Daniel, and interprets the vision, 15-27.

1 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. 2 And I saw in a vision, and it came to pass when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam. And I saw in a vision that I was by the Ulai River. 3 Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns. And the two horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram goring westward, northward, and southward, so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand, but he did according to his will and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth without touching the ground. And the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran to him in the fury of his power. 7 And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him and smote the ram and broke his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled upon him. And there was no one who could deliver the ram out of his hand. 8 Therefore, the male goat became very great, and when he was strong, the great horn was broken, and in its stead, four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which became exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. 10 And it grew great, even to the host of heaven, and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground and trampled upon them. 11 It even magnified itself to the prince of the host, and by it the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. 12 And a host was given to it against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground and did its pleasure and prospered. 13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said to that certain saint who spoke, "How long shall the vision be concerning the daily sacrifice and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" 14 And he said to me, "Until two thousand and three hundred days. Then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."

15 And it came to pass when I, even I, Daniel, had seen the vision and sought the meaning, that behold, there stood before me one having the appearance of a man. 16 And I heard a man’s voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called and said, "Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision." 17 So he came near where I stood. And when he came, I was afraid and fell upon my face, but he said to me, "Understand, O son of man, the vision shall be for the time of the end."

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground, but he touched me and set me upright. 19 And he said, "Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the last end of the indignation, for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 "The ram which you saw having two horns, these are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 "And the rough goat is the king of Grecia. And the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22 Now that which is broken, where four stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 "And in the latter time of their kingdom, / when the transgressors have come to the full, / a king of fierce countenance / and who understands riddles / shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, / but not by his own power. /
He shall destroy wonderfully / and shall prosper and do his pleasure. /
He shall destroy the mighty / and the holy people.

25 And through his understanding /
he shall also cause deceit to prosper in his hand. /
He shall magnify himself in his heart, / and by peace shall destroy many. /
He shall also stand up against the Prince of princes, /
but he shall be broken, though not by human hands.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning / which was told is true. /
Therefore, shut up the vision, / for it shall be for many days to come."

27 And I, Daniel, fainted and was sick for days. Afterward, I rose and did the king’s business. And I was astonished at the vision, but no one understood it.

Chapter 9

Daniel, considering the time of the captivity, 1, 2, makes confession of sins, 3-15, and prays for the restoration of Jerusalem, 16-19. Gabriel informs him of the seventy weeks, 20-27.

1 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the offspring of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood by books the number of the years, concerning which the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. 3 And I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes. 4 And I prayed to the LORD my God and made my confession and said, "O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to those who love him and to those who keep his commandments, 5 We have sinned, have committed iniquity, have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from your precepts and from your judgments, 6 Neither have we listened to your servants the prophets who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 "O Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us, disgrace, as at this day, to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. 8 O Lord, to us belongs disgrace, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. 9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him, 10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws which he set before us by his servants the prophets. 11 And all Israel has transgressed your law, even by departing, and they have not obeyed your voice; therefore, the curse is poured upon us, along with the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. 12 And he has confirmed his words which he spoke against us and against our judges who judged us by bringing upon us a great evil. For under the whole heaven it has not been done as it has been done upon Jerusalem. 13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come upon us, yet we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God so that we might turn from our iniquities and understand your truth. 14 Therefore, the LORD has watched over the evil and brought it upon us, for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he does, but we have not obeyed his voice.

15 "And now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and have obtained yourself renown, as at this day, we have sinned, we have done wickedly. 16 O Lord, according to all your righteousness, I implore you, let your anger and your fury be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain. Because for our sins and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us. 17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer and supplications of your servant and cause your face to shine upon your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord’s sake. 18 O my God, incline your ear and hear. Open your eyes and behold our desolations and the city which is called by your name. For we do not present our supplications before you for our righteousnesses, but for your great mercies. 19 O Lord, hear. O Lord, forgive. O Lord, listen and do. Do not defer, O my God, for your own sake. For your city and your people are called by your name."

20 And while I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God, 21 Even while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. 22 And he informed me and talked with me and said, "O Daniel, I have now come forth to give you skill and understanding. 23 At the beginning of your supplications the commandment came forth, and I have come to show you, for you are greatly beloved. Therefore, understand the matter and consider the vision.

24 "Seventy weeks are determined upon your people and upon your holy city to finish the transgression, to make an end of sins, to make reconciliation for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the holy of holies. 25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Messiah, the Prince, shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. It shall be built again with a plaza and a moat, even in troubled times. 26 And after sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for himself. And the people of the prince who come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. And its end shall be with a flood, and to the end of the war desolations are determined. 27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week. And in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease. And on the wing of abominations, he shall come to make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that which is determined shall be poured upon the desolate."

Chapter 10

Daniel, having humbled himself, sees a vision, 1-9. Being troubled with fear, he is comforted by the angel, 10-21.

1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar, and the thing was true, but the appointed time was long. And he understood the thing and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three full weeks. 3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither flesh nor wine entered my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4 And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is the Hiddekel, 5 I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz. 6 His body was also like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like lamps of fire, his arms and his feet like the appearance of polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. 7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision. The men who were with me did not see the vision, but a great quaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves. 8 Therefore, I was left alone and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me, for my vigor was changed into corruption and I retained no strength. 9 Yet I heard the voice of his words. And when I heard the voice of his words, I was in a deep sleep on my face with my face toward the ground.

10 And behold, a hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. 11 And he said to me, "O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. 12 Then he said to me, "Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to chasten yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words. 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me for twenty-one days. But behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, and I remained there with the kings of Persia. 14 Now I have come to make you understand what shall befall your people in the latter days, for the vision pertains to those days."

15 And when he had spoken such words to me, I set my face toward the ground and I became mute. 16 And behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me, "O my lord, because of the vision, my sorrows have turned upon me, and I have retained no strength. 17 For how can this servant of my lord talk with my lord? For as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me."

18 Then the one like the appearance of a man came back and touched me and strengthened me 19 And said, "O man greatly beloved, do not fear. Peace be with you. Be strong. Indeed, be strong." And when he had spoken to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me." 20 Then he said, "Do you know for what cause I come to you? And now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. And when I have gone forth, behold, the prince of Grecia shall come. 21 But I will show you that which is noted in the scripture of truth. And there is no one who strengthens himself with me against these except Michael your prince."

Chapter 11

The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia, 1-4. Leagues and conflicts between the kings of the south and of the north, 5-29. The invasion and tyranny of the Romans, 30-45.

1 "And I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him. 2 And now I will show you the truth. Behold, three more kings shall arise in Persia. And a fourth shall be far richer than all of them, and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia. 3 And a mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion and do according to his will. 4 And when he stands up, his kingdom shall be broken and divided toward the four winds of heaven, and not to his posterity nor according to his dominion which he ruled, for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 "And the king of the south shall be strong, but one of his princes, he shall be strong above him and have dominion. His dominion shall be a great dominion. 6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together, for the king’s daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement. But she shall not retain the power of the arm, neither shall he nor his arm stand, but she shall be given up, along with those who brought her, he who begot her, and he who strengthened her in these times. 7 But out of a branch of her roots one shall stand up in his estate, who shall come with an army, enter into the fortress of the king of the north, deal against them, and prevail. 8 And he shall also carry captive into Egypt their gods, with their princes and their precious vessels of silver and of gold, and he shall continue more years than the king of the north. 9 And the king of the south shall come into his kingdom and shall return into his own land.

10 "But his sons shall be stirred up and shall assemble a multitude of great forces. And one shall certainly come, overflow, and pass through. Then he shall return and be stirred up, even to his fortress. 11 And the king of the south shall be moved with wrath and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north. And he shall set forth a great multitude, but the multitude shall be given into his hand. 12 And when he has taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up, and he shall cast down many ten thousands, but he shall not be strengthened by it. 13 For the king of the north shall return and set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after some years with a great army and with many supplies.

14 "And in those times many shall stand up against the king of the south. The robbers of your people shall also exalt themselves to establish the vision, but they shall fall. 15 And the king of the north shall come, cast up a siege-mound, and take the most fortified cities. And the arms of the south shall not withstand, nor his chosen people, nor shall there be any strength to withstand. 16 But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and no one shall stand before him. And he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed. 17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him. He shall do so. And he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her, but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him. 18 After this, he shall turn his face to the coastlands and shall take many, but a prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease, and without his own reproach, he shall cause it to turn upon him. 19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land, but he shall stumble and fall and not be found.

20 "Then a raiser of taxes shall stand up in his estate in the glory of the kingdom, but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger nor in battle. 21 And in his estate a vile person shall stand up, to whom they shall not give the honor of the kingdom, but he shall come in peaceably and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. 22 And with the arms of a flood they shall be overflowed from before him and shall be broken, as well as the prince of the covenant. 23 And after the league is made with him, he shall work deceitfully, for he shall come up and shall become strong with a small people. 24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province, and he shall do what neither his fathers nor his fathers' fathers have done. He shall scatter among them the plunder, loot, and riches, and he shall devise his plans against the strongholds, even for a time. 25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army. And the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army, but he shall not stand, for they shall devise plans against him. 26 And those who feed from the portion of his provisions shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow. And many shall fall down slain. 27 And both these kings' hearts shall be set to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table, but it shall not prosper, for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. 28 Then he shall return into his land with great riches, and his heart shall be against the holy covenant. And he shall take action and return to his own land.

29 "At the time appointed he shall return and come toward the south, but it shall not be as the former or as the latter. 30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him; therefore, he shall be grieved, return, and have indignation against the holy covenant. He shall do so. And he shall even return and have regard for those who forsake the holy covenant. 31 And forces shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that makes desolate. 32 And those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt by flatteries, but the people who know their God shall be strong and take action. 33 And those who understand among the people shall instruct many, yet they shall fall by the sword, by flame, by captivity, and by plunder for many days. 34 Now when they fall, they shall be assisted with a little help, but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. 35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, in order to try them, to purge them, and to make them white, even to the time of the end, because it is still for a time appointed.

36 "And the king shall do according to his will. He shall exalt himself and magnify himself above every god and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods. He shall prosper until the indignation is accomplished, for that which is determined shall be done. 37 He shall not regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god, for he shall magnify himself above all. 38 But in his estate he shall honor the God of forces. And a god whom his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold, silver, precious stones, and pleasant things. 39 He shall do so in the strongest fortresses with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory. And he shall cause them to rule over many and shall divide the land for gain.

40 "And at the time of the end the king of the south shall war against him. And the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind with chariots, with horsemen, and with many ships, and he shall enter into the countries and shall overflow and pass over. 41 He shall also enter into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown, but these shall escape out of his hand: Edom, Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. 42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. 43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver and over all the precious things of Egypt. The Libyans and the Cushites shall be at his steps. 44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; therefore, he shall go forth with great fury to destroy and to utterly sweep many away. 45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, and no one shall help him."

Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles, 1-4. Daniel is informed of the times, 5-13.

1 "And at that time Michael shall stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time. And at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. 2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. 3 And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament, and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. 4 But you, O Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book, even to the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased."

5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, there stood another two: one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. 6 And someone said to the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river, "How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?" 7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven and swore by him who lives forever, that it shall be for a time, times, and a half of a time. And when he has made an end of dispersing the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. 8 And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, "O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?" 9 And he said, "Go your way Daniel. For the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. 10 Many shall be purified, made white, and tried, but the wicked shall do wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand. 11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away and the abomination that makes desolate is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred and ninety days. 12 Blessed is he who waits and comes to the one thousand three hundred and thirty-five days. 13 But go your way until the end. For you shall rest and stand in your lot at the end of the days."

The Word of the Lord to Hosea

Hosea | Ὡσηέ | עשוה

Chapter 1

Hosea, to show God's judgment for spiritual lewdness, takes Gomer, 1-3, and has by her Jezreel, 4, 5; Lo-ruhamah, 6, 7; and Lo-ammi, 8, 9. The restoration of Judah and Israel under one head, 10, 11.

1 [The word of the LORD that came to Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.]

2 [The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea.] And the LORD said to Hosea, "Go take for yourself a wife addicted to lewdness and children of lewdness, for the land has committed great lewdness, departing from the LORD." 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, who conceived and bore him a son. 4 And the LORD said to him, "Call his name Jezreel, for yet a little while and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

6 And she conceived again and bore a daughter. And God said to him, "Call her name Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have mercy upon the house of Israel, but I will utterly take them away. 7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah and will save them by the LORD their God. I will not save them by bow, by sword, by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen."

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. 9 Then God said, "Call his name Lo-ammi, for you are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 "Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered. And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there it shall be said to them, 'You are the sons of the living God.'

11 Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be assembled and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up from the land, for the day of Jezreel shall be great."

Chapter 2

The idolatry of the people, 1-5. God's judgments against them, 6-13. His promises of reconciliation with them, 14-23.

1 "Say to your brothers, 'Ammi,' / and to your sisters, 'Ruhamah.'

2 Plead with your mother. / Plead, for she is not my wife, / neither am I her husband. /
Let her therefore put away her prostitutions out of her sight / and her adulteries from between her breasts,

3 Lest I strip her naked, / set her as in the day that she was born, / make her like a wilderness, / and set her like a dry land / and kill her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children, / for they are the children of lewdness.

5 For their mother has played the harlot. /
She who conceived them has done shamefully. /
For she said, 'I will go after my lovers / who give me my bread and my water, / my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'

6 Therefore, behold, /
I will hedge up your way with thorns / and make a wall /
so that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, / but she shall not overtake them, / and she shall seek them, / but shall not find them. /
Then she shall say, /
'I will go and return to my first husband, / for then it was better with me than now.'

8 For she did not know that I gave her / grain, wine, and oil / and multiplied her silver and gold, / which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore, I will return / and take away my grain in its time / and my wine in its season, / and I will recover my wool and my flax / given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now I will disclose her lewdness / in the sight of her lovers, / and no one shall deliver her out of my hand.

11 I will also cause to cease all her mirth, / her feast days, her new moons, her sabbaths, / and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig-trees, / of which she has said, 'These are my rewards / that my lovers have given me.' /
And I will make them a forest, / and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, / in which she burned incense to them / and decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, / and she went after her lovers / and forgot me," says the LORD.

14 "Therefore, behold, I will allure her, / bring her into the wilderness, / and speak comfortably to her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from there, / and the valley of Achor /
for a door of hope. / And she shall sing there, / as in the days of her youth / and as in the day when she came / from the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day," says the LORD, /
"that you shall call me Ishi, / and shall no longer call me Baali.

17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, / and they shall no longer be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day I will make a covenant for them / with the beasts of the field, /
with the birds of heaven, / and with the creeping animals of the ground. /
And I will break the bow, the sword, / and the battle out of the earth, / and will make them to lie down in safety.

19 And I will betroth you to me forever. /
I will even betroth you to me in righteousness, /
in judgment, in loving-kindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness. /
And you shall know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, / that I will hear," says the LORD, /
"I will hear the heavens, /

and they shall hear the earth,

22 And the earth shall hear the grain, /
the wine, and the oil, / and they shall hear Jezreel.

23 And I will sow her for myself in the earth. /
And I will have mercy upon No Mercy, / and I will say to Not My People, 'You are my people.' /
And they shall say, 'You are my God.'"

Chapter 3

Another type of the spiritual lewdness of Israel, 1-3. The punishment of it, 4. Their reformation, 5.

1 Then the LORD said to me, "Go back, love a woman beloved by her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love flagons of wine." 2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and for a homer and a half of barley. 3 And I said to her, "You shall wait for me many days. You shall not play the harlot and you shall not be with another man. I will also be so to you." 4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, without a prince, without a sacrifice, without an image, without an ephod, and without teraphim. 5 Afterward, the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. And they shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

Chapter 4

The prophet shows their numerous sins and the judgments consequent upon them, 1-19.

1 Hear the word of the LORD, children of Israel, / for the LORD has a controversy / with the inhabitants of the land, / because there is no truth, nor mercy, / nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 "Swearing, lying, murdering, stealing, / and committing adultery— /
they break out, and blood touches blood.

3 Therefore, the land shall mourn, / and everyone who dwells in it shall languish, /
with the beasts of the field /
and with the birds of heaven. /
Even the fish of the sea shall also be taken away.

4 Yet let no man contend / nor reprove another, / for your people are as those / who contend with the priest.

5 Therefore, you shall fall in the day, / and the prophet also shall fall with you in the night, / and I will destroy your mother.

6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. /
Because you have rejected knowledge, /
I will also reject you /
from being a priest to me. /
Seeing you have forgotten the law of your God, /
I will also forget your children.

7 As they were increased, / so they sinned against me; / therefore, I will change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people / and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And it shall be, as the people, so shall be the priest. /
And I will punish them for their ways / and reward them for their doings.

10 For they shall eat and not have enough. /
They shall be guilty of lewdness and shall not increase, / because they have ceased to take heed to the LORD.

11 Lewdness, wine, and new wine / take away the heart.

12 My people ask counsel from their wooden idols, / and their staff declares to them, / for the spirit of lewdness has caused them to err, / and they have gone astray from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains / and burn incense upon the hills, / under oaks, poplars, and elms, / because their shade is agreeable. / Therefore, your daughters shall be guilty of lewdness, / and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters / when they are guilty of lewdness, / nor your spouses /
when they commit adultery, /
for they themselves are separated with prostitutes / and they sacrifice with harlots. /

Therefore, the people who do not understand shall fall.

15 Though you, Israel, play the harlot, / yet do not let Judah offend, / and do not come to Gilgal, / neither go up to Beth-aven, / nor swear, 'The LORD lives.'

16 For Israel slides back like a backsliding heifer. /
Now the LORD will feed them / like a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols. /
Leave him alone.

18 Their drink is sour. /
They have been guilty of lewd deeds continually. /
Her rulers have thoroughly loved shame.

19 The wind has bound her up in her wings, / and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices."

Chapter 5

The scope of this chapter, likewise, is to show the sins of Israel and Judah and to denounce the judgments of God against them, 1-15.

1 "Hear this, O priests, / and listen, house of Israel, / and give ear, O house of the king, / for judgment is toward you / because you have been a snare on Mizpah / and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, / though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, / and Israel is not hid from me. /
For now, O Ephraim, you are guilty of lewdness, / and Israel is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings / to turn to their God, / for the spirit of lewdness is in the midst of them / and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel testifies to his face; / therefore, Israel and Ephraim / shall fall in their iniquity. / Judah shall also fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds / to seek the LORD, but they shall not find him. /
He has withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD, / for they have begotten strange children. /
Now a month shall devour them / with their portions.

8 Blow the horn in Gibeah / and the trumpet in Ramah. / Cry aloud at Beth-aven, /
'Behind you, O Benjamin.'

9 Ephraim shall be desolate / in the day of rebuke. /
Among the tribes of Israel /
I have made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah / were like those who move the landmark; / therefore, I will pour out my wrath / upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment / because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore, I will be to Ephraim like a moth / and to the house of Judah like rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness / and Judah saw his wound, / Ephraim went to the Assyrian / and sent to king Jareb. /
Yet he could not heal you / nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, / and like a young lion to the house of Judah. /
I, even I, will tear and go away. /
I will take away, and no one shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place / until they acknowledge their offense and seek my face. /
In their affliction they will seek me early."

Chapter 6

Their resolution to return to God, 1-3. The instability of many of them, 4, 5. God's covenant with them, and their violation of it, 6-11.

1 "Come, and let us return to the LORD. /
For he has torn and he will heal us. /
He has smitten and he will bind us up.

2 After two days he will revive us. /
On the third day he will raise us up, / and we shall live in his sight.

3 Let us know, let us follow on to know the LORD. /
His going forth is pas sure as the morning, / and he will come to us like the rain, / like the latter and former rain to the earth."

4 "O Ephraim, what shall I do to you? /
O Judah, what shall I do to you? /
For your goodness is like the morning cloud, / and like the early dew it goes away.

5 Therefore, I have hewn them by the prophets. /
I have slain them by the words of my mouth. /
And your judgments are like the light that goes forth.

6 For I desired mercy and not sacrifice, / and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they, like Adam, have transgressed the covenant. /
There they have dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity / and is polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, / so the company of priests / murder in the way by consent, / for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen a horrible thing / in the house of Israel: / there is the prostitution of Ephraim, /
and Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he has set a harvest for you, / when I returned the captivity of my people."

Chapter 7

A reproof of manifold sins, 1-10. God's wrath against them for their hypocrisy, 11-16.

1 "When I would have healed Israel, / then the iniquity of Ephraim / and the wickedness of Samaria was disclosed, / for they commit falsehood. /
And the thief comes in, / and the troop of robbers raids outside.

2 And they do not consider in their hearts / that I remember all their wickedness. /
Now their own doings have beset them around. /
They are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, / and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, / like an oven heated by the baker / who ceases to stir the fire / from the kneading of the dough / until it is leavened.

5 In the day of our king /
the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine. /
He stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven / while they lie in wait. /
Their baker sleeps all the night. /
In the morning it burns like a flaming fire.

7 They are all as hot as an oven / and have devoured their judges. /
All their kings have fallen. /
There is no one among them who calls to me.

8 Ephraim, he has mixed himself among the people. /
Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, / and he does not know it. / Even gray hairs are here and there upon him, /
yet he does not know.

10 And the pride of Israel testifies to his face. /
And they do not return to the LORD their God / nor seek him for all this.

11 Ephraim is also like a silly dove without heart. /
They call to Egypt. They go to Assyria.

12 When they go, I will spread my net upon them. /
I will bring them down like the birds of the heaven. /

I will chastise them, /
as their congregation has heard.

13 Woe to them! For they have fled from me. / Destruction to them! /
For they have transgressed against me. /
Though I have redeemed them, /
yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried to me with their heart / when they howled upon their beds. /
They assemble themselves for grain and wine / and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, / yet they devise mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High. /
They are like a deceitful bow. /
Their princes shall fall by the sword / for the rage of their tongue. /
This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt."

Chapter 8

Destruction is threatened both to Israel and Judah for their impiety and idolatry, 1-14.

1 "Set the trumpet to your mouth. /
He shall come like an eagle / against the house of the LORD, / because they have transgressed my covenant / and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry to me, /
'My God, we know you.'

3 Israel has cast off the thing that is good. /
The enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, / but not by me. /
They have made princes, / and I did not know it. /
From their silver and their gold / they have made for themselves idols /
so that they may be cut off.

5 Your calf, O Samaria, has cast you off. /
My anger is kindled against them. /
How long will it be before they attain to innocence?

6 For it was also from Israel. /
The workman made it; / therefore, it is not God. /
But the calf of Samaria / shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind / and they shall reap the whirlwind. /
It has no stalk. /
The bud shall yield no meal. /
If it yields, /
the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up. /
Now they shall be among the Gentiles / like a vessel in which there is no pleasure.

9 For they have gone up to Assyria, / a wild donkey alone by himself. /
Ephraim has hired lovers.

10 Even though they have hired among the nations, / now I will gather them, / and they shall sorrow a little / for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim has made many altars to sin, / altars shall be for him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, /
but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of my offerings and eat it, / but the LORD does not accept them. /
Now he will remember their iniquity /
and visit their sins. /
They shall return to Egypt.

14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker / and builds temples, / and Judah has multiplied fortified cities. /
But I will send a fire upon his cities, / and it shall devour the palaces thereof."

Chapter 9

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins, 1-17.

1 Do not rejoice, O Israel, for joy, as other people, / for you have apostatized from your God. /
You have loved a reward upon every grain-floor.

2 The floor and the wine-press shall not feed them, / and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LORD’S land, / but Ephraim shall return to Egypt / and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, / neither shall they be pleasing to him. /
Their sacrifices shall be to them /
like the bread of mourners. /
All who eat it shall be polluted, / for their bread for their soul / shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will you do in the solemn day / and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For behold, they have gone away because of destruction. / Egypt shall gather them up. /
Memphis shall bury them. /
The pleasant places for their silver, / nettles shall possess them. /
Thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation have come. /
The days of recompense have come. /
Israel shall know it. /
The prophet is a fool /
and the spiritual man is mad / because of the multitude of your iniquity / and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God, / but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways / and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, / as in the days of Gibeah; /
therefore, he will remember their iniquity. /
He will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness. /
I saw your fathers /
as the first-fruits on the fig-tree in her first season. /
But they went to Baal-peor / and separated themselves to that shame, / and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird / from the birth, from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, / yet I will bereave them /
so that there shall not be a man left. / Indeed, woe also to them /
when I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyre, / is planted in a pleasant place. / But Ephraim shall bring forth his children / to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD—what will you give? / Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 "All their wickedness is in Gilgal, / for there I hated them. /
For the wickedness of their doings /
I will drive them out of my house. /
I will love them no more. /
All their princes are revolters.

16 Ephraim is smitten. /
Their root is dried up. /
They shall bear no fruit. /
Even though they bring forth, /
yet I will slay even the beloved fruit of their womb."

17 My God will cast them away / because they did not listen to him. /
And they shall be wanderers among the nations.

Chapter 10

Israel is reproved and threatened for their impiety and idolatry, and exhorted to repentance, 1-15.

1 Israel is an empty vine / that brings forth fruit to himself. /
According to the multitude of his fruit /
he has multiplied the altars. /
According to the goodness of his land / they have made ornate images.

2 Their heart is divided. /
Now they shall be found faulty. /
He shall break down their altars. /
He shall destroy their images.

3 For now they shall say, /
"We have no king /
because we did not fear the LORD. /

What then should a king do to us?"

4 They have spoken words, / swearing falsely in making a covenant. / Thus judgment springs up like hemlock / in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear / because of the calves of Beth-aven. /
For its people shall mourn over it, / and its priests shall tremble for it, for its glory, / because it has departed from it.

6 It shall also be carried to Assyria / for a present to king Jareb. / Ephraim shall receive shame, / and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off / like the foam upon the water.

8 Also the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, / shall be destroyed. /
The thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars, / and they shall say to the mountains, "Cover us," / and to the hills, "Fall on us."

9 "O Israel, you have sinned since the days of Gibeah. /
There they stood. /
The battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity / did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them. /
And the people shall be gathered against them /
when they bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is like a heifer that is taught / and loves to tread out the grain. /
But I passed over upon her fair neck. /
I will make Ephraim to ride. Judah shall plow, / and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness. / Reap in mercy. /
Break up your fallow ground. /
For it is time to seek the LORD / until he comes and rains righteousness upon you.

13 You have plowed wickedness. /
You have reaped iniquity. /
You have eaten the fruit of lies. / Because you have trusted in your way, /

in the multitude of your mighty men,

14 Therefore a tumult shall arise among your people, / and all your fortresses shall be plundered, / as Shalman plundered Beth-arbel in the day of battle. /
The mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 Beth-el shall do so to you / because of your great wickedness. /
In a morning the king of Israel shall be utterly cut off."

and called my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them. /
They sacrificed to Baalim / and burned incense to engraved images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to go, / taking them by their arms, /
but they did not know that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, / with ropes of love. /
And I was to them as those / who take off the yoke from their jaws, / and I bent down to them and fed them.

5 He shall not return into the land of Egypt, / but the Assyrian shall be his king / because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, / consume his branches, and devour them / because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me. / Though they called to the most High, / no one at all would exalt him.

8 How shall I give you up, Ephraim? / How shall I deliver you, Israel? /
How shall I make you as Admah? /

How shall I set you as Zeboim? /
My heart is turned within me. /
My repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of my anger. /
I will not return to destroy Ephraim, / for I am God and not man, / the Holy One in the midst of you, / and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD. /
He shall roar like a lion. /
When he roars, /
the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble like a bird out of Egypt / and like a dove out of the land of Assyria. / And I will place them in their houses," /
says the LORD.

12 Ephraim encompasses me with lies, / and the house of Israel with deceit, / but Judah still rules with God / and is faithful with the saints.

Keep mercy and judgment / and wait on your God continually.

7 He is a merchant. /
The balances of deceit are in his hand. /
He loves to oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, "Yet I have become rich. /
I have found substance for myself. /
In all my labors they shall find / no iniquity in me that is sin."

9 "And I am the LORD your God /
from the land of Egypt. /
I will yet make you to dwell in tabernacles, /
as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets / and I have multiplied visions. /
I used similitudes by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? /
Surely they are vanity. /
They sacrifice bulls in Gilgal. / Even their altars are like heaps / in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria. / And Israel served to get a wife, / and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, / and by a prophet he was preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly; / therefore, he will leave his blood upon him, / and his Lord will return his reproach to him."

Chapter 13

Ephraim’s glory vanishes, 1-3. God’s anger, 4-8. God’s mercy, 9-14. The judgment of Samaria, 15, 16.

1 "When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling. /
He exalted himself in Israel. /
But when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, / and have made for themselves molten images of their silver / and idols according to their own understanding, / all of it the work of craftsmen. /
They say of them, /
'Let the men who sacrifice kiss the calves.'

3 Therefore, they shall be like the morning cloud / and like the early dew that passes away, / like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind from the floor / and like the smoke from the smoke-chamber.

4 Yet I am the LORD your God /
from the land of Egypt, /
and you shall know no God but me, / for there is no savior besides me.

5 I knew you in the wilderness, /
in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so they were filled. /
They were filled and their heart was exalted; / therefore, they have forgotten me.

7 Therefore, I will be to them like a lion. /
Like a leopard by the way I will observe them.

8 I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her whelps / and will rend the enclosure of their heart. /
And there I will devour them like a lion. /
The wild beast shall tear them.

9 O Israel, you have destroyed yourself, /
but your help is in me.

10 I will be your king. /
Where is any other who may save you in all your cities, / and your judges of whom you said, /
'Give me a king and princes'?

11 I gave you a king in my anger /
and took him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up. /
His sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him. /
He is an unwise son, / for he should not stay long / in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave. /

I will redeem them from death. /
O death, I will be your plagues. /
O grave, I will be your destruction. /
Repentance shall be hid from my eyes.

15 Though he is fruitful among his brothers, / an east wind shall come, / the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, / and his spring shall become dry / and his fountain shall be dried up. /
He shall pillage the treasure of all precious vessels.

16 Samaria shall become desolate, / for she has rebelled against her God. /
They shall fall by the sword. /
Their infants shall be dashed in pieces, / and their women with child shall be ripped up."

Chapter 14

An exhortation to repentance, 1-3. A promise of God's blessing, 4-9.

1 O Israel, return to the LORD your God, / for you have fallen by your iniquity.

2 Take with you words / and turn to the LORD. / Say to him, "Take away all iniquity / and receive us graciously, / and we will render to you /
the calves of our lips.

3 Ashur shall not save us. /
We will not ride upon horses. /
We will no more say to the work of our hands, /
'You are our gods.' /
For in you the fatherless finds mercy."

4 "I will heal their backsliding / and I will love them freely, / for my anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be like the dew to Israel. /
He shall grow like the lily / and cast forth his roots like Lebanon.

6 His branches shall spread. / His beauty shall be like the olive-tree / and his smell like Lebanon.

7 Those who dwell under his shadow shall return. /
They shall revive like the grain /
and grow like the vine. /
Its scent shall be like the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, /
'What have I to do anymore with idols?' /
I have heard him and observed him. /
I am like a green fir-tree. /
Your fruit is found from me."

9 Who is wise, that he shall understand these things? /
Who is prudent, that he shall know them? /
For the ways of the LORD are right, / and the just shall walk in them, / but the transgressors shall fall in them.

The Word of the Lord to Joel

Joel | Ἰωήλ | לאוי

Chapter 1

Joel, declaring various judgments of God, exhorts to observe them, 1-7, and to mourn, 8-13. He prescribes a solemn fast to deprecate those judgments, 14-20.

1 [The word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.]

2 Hear this, you old men, / and give ear, all you inhabitants of the land. /
Has this been in your days, /
or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell your children about it, / and let your children tell their children, / and their children another generation.

4 That which the cutting-locust has left / the swarming-locust has eaten, / that which the swarming-locust has left / the licking-locust has eaten, / and that which the licking-locust has left / the ravaging-locust has eaten.

5 Awake, you drunkards, and weep. / Howl, all you drinkers of wine, / because of the new wine, / for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation has come up upon my land, / strong and without number, / whose teeth are the teeth of a lion / and he has the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He has laid my vine waste / and barked my fig-tree. /
He has made it thoroughly bare and cast it away. /
Its branches are made white.

8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth / for the husband of her youth.

9 The food-offering and the drink-offering are cut off / from the house of the LORD. /
The priests, the LORD’S ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted / and the land mourns, / for the grain is wasted. /

The new wine is dried up. /
The oil languishes.

11 Be ashamed, O farmers. / Howl, O vine-dressers, / for the wheat and for the barley, / because the harvest of the field has perished.

12 The vine is dried up / and the fig-tree languishes. /
The pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree, and the apple-tree, / even all the trees of the field are withered, / because joy has withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves and lament, you priests. /
Howl, you ministers of the altar. / Come, lie all night in sackcloth, / you ministers of my God, / for the food-offering and the drink-offering are withheld / from the house of your God.

14 Sanctify a fast, / call a solemn assembly, / gather the elders / and all the inhabitants of the land / into the house of the LORD your God, / and cry to the LORD.

15 Alas for the day! /
For the day of the LORD is at hand, / and as a destruction from the Almighty it shall come.

16 Is the food not cut off / before our eyes, / and joy and gladness / from the house of our God?

17 The seed has perished under their clods, / the granaries are laid desolate, / and the barns are broken down, / for the grain has withered.

18 How the beasts groan! /
The herds of livestock are perplexed / because they have no pasture. /
Even the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, I will cry to you, / for the fire has devoured / the pastures of the wilderness, / and the flame has burned /

all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field also cry to you, / for the rivers of waters are dried up, / and the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Chapter 2

He shows to Zion the terribleness of God's judgment, 1-11. He exhorts to repentance, 12-14; prescribes a fast, 15-17; promises a blessing thereon, 18-20. He comforts Zion with present, 21-27, and future blessings, 28-32.

1 Blow the trumpet in Zion / and sound an alarm on my holy mountain. /
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, / for the day of the LORD comes. /
It is near at hand,

2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, /
a day of clouds and of thick darkness. /
As the morning spreading upon the mountains, /
so there is a great and strong people. /
There has never been the like, / neither shall there be any more after it, / even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devours before them, / and behind them a flame burns. /
The land is like the garden of Eden before them, / and behind them a desolate wilderness, / and nothing shall escape them.

4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses. /
And as horsemen, so they shall run.

5 Like the noise of chariots / on the tops of mountains they shall leap, / like the noise of a flame of fire / that devours the stubble, / like a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained. /
All faces shall gather blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men. /
They shall climb the wall like men of war. /
They shall each march on his ways / and shall not break their ranks,

8 Neither shall one thrust another. /
They shall each walk in his path. /
And when they fall upon the sword, /
they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city. /
They shall run upon the wall. /
They shall climb upon the houses. /
They shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them. /
The heavens shall tremble. /
The sun and the moon shall be dark, /
and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

11 And the LORD will utter his voice before his army, / for his camp is very great, / and he is strong who executes his word. /
For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible. /
Who can endure it?

12 "Yet even now," says the LORD, /
"turn to me with all your heart, / with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning."

13 And rend your heart and not your garments, / and turn to the LORD your God, / for he is gracious and merciful, / slow to anger, and of great kindness, / and repents of the evil.

14 Who knows if he will return and repent / and leave a blessing behind him, / even a food-offering and a drink-offering / to the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion. Sanctify a fast. /
Call a solemn assembly.

16 Gather the people. / Sanctify the congregation. /
Assemble the elders. / Gather the children / and those who nurse from the breasts. /
Let the bridegroom go forth from his room / and the bride out of her chamber.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, / weep between the porch and the altar, / and let them say, "Spare your people, O LORD, / and do not give your heritage to reproach /

so that the heathen should rule over them. /
Why should they say among the people, /
'Where is their God?'"

18 Then the LORD will be jealous for his land / and pity his people.

19 And the LORD will answer and say to his people, /
"Behold, I will send you grain, wine, and oil, / and you shall be satisfied with it, / and I will no longer make you / a reproach among the heathen.

20 But I will remove far from you the northern army / and drive him into a land barren and desolate / with his face toward the east sea / and his back parts toward the utmost sea, / and his odious scent shall come up / and his ill savor shall come up, / because he has worked proudly."

21 Do not fear, O land. Be glad and rejoice, / for the LORD will do great things.

22 Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field, / for the pastures of the wilderness spring, / the tree bears its fruit, / and the fig-tree and the vine yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, children of Zion, / and rejoice in the LORD your God, / for he has given you the former rain moderately. /
He will cause to come down for you the rain, /
the former rain and the latter rain, in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, / and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 "And I will restore to you the years / that the swarming-locust, / the licking-locust, the ravaging-locust, / and the cutting-locust consumed— / my great army which I sent among you.

26 And you shall eat in plenty, be satisfied, / and praise the name of the LORD your God, / who has dealt wondrously with you. /
And my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel / and that I am the LORD your God, and no one else. /
And my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass afterward, / that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, /
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, / your old men shall dream dreams, / your young men shall see visions.

29 And also upon the men-servants / and upon the women-servants /
in those days I will pour out my Spirit.

30 And I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth: / blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness / and the moon into blood /
before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

32 And it shall come to pass, /
that whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be delivered. / For on mount Zion and in Jerusalem /
there shall be deliverance, /
as the LORD has said, / and in the remnant whom the LORD calls."

Chapter 3

God's judgments against the enemies of his people, 1-8. God will be known in his judgment, 9-17. His blessing upon the church, 18-21.

1 "For behold, in those days and in that time, /
when I bring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations / and bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat. /
I will plead with them there / for my people and for my heritage Israel, / whom they have scattered among the nations. /
They have divided my land,

3 And have cast lots for my people, / and have given a boy for a harlot / and sold a girl for wine so that they might drink.

4 "And what do you even have to do with me, O Tyre, Zidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Will you render me a recompense? And if you recompense me, swiftly and speedily I will return your recompense upon your own head, 5 Because you have taken my silver and my gold and have carried my finest treasures into your temples. 6 You have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the Grecians so that you might remove them far from their border. 7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place where you have sold them and will return your recompense upon your own head. 8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off. For the LORD has spoken it."

9 Proclaim this among the Gentiles: / "Prepare for war. /
Wake up the mighty men. /
Let all the men of war draw near. /
Let them come up.

10 Beat your plow-shares into swords / and your pruning-hooks into spears. /
Let the weak say, 'I am strong.'

11 Assemble yourselves and come, all you heathen, / and gather yourselves together around." / Cause your mighty ones to come down there, O LORD.

12 "Let the heathen be awakened and come up / to the valley of Jehoshaphat, / for there I will sit to judge / all the heathen on every side.

13 Put in the sickle, / for the harvest is ripe. / Come, tread, /
for the press is full. /
The vats overflow, / for their wickedness is great."

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision, / for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, /
and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD will also roar out of Zion / and utter his voice from Jerusalem, /
and the heavens and the earth shall shake. /
But the LORD will be the hope of his people / and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 "And you shall know that I am the LORD your God / dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain. /
Then Jerusalem shall be holy, / and no strangers shall pass through her anymore.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, / that the mountains shall drop down new wine, /
the hills shall flow with milk, / and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, / and a fountain shall come forth from the house of the LORD / and shall water the valley of Shittim.

19 Egypt shall be a desolation / and Edom a desolate wilderness / because of the violence against the children of Judah, / because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall dwell forever, / and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed. /
For the LORD dwells in Zion."

[Tanach reading: go to Amos]

The Words of Amos

Amos | Ἀμώς | סומע

Chapter 1

The time when Amos prophesied, 1, 2. He shows God’s judgment upon Syria, 3-5, upon the Philistines, 6-8, upon Tyre, 9, 10, upon Edom, 11, 12, upon Ammon, 13-15.

1 [The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.]

2 And he said,

"The LORD will roar from Zion / and utter his voice from Jerusalem, / and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, / and the top of Carmel shall wither."

3 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, /
I will not turn away its punishment, /
because they have threshed Gilead / with threshing instruments of iron.

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael / which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will also break the bar of Damascus / and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven / and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden. /
And the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir,"

says the LORD.

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, /
I will not turn away its punishment, /
because they carried away captive the whole captivity / to deliver them up to Edom.

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza / which shall devour its palaces.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod / and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon, / and I will turn my hand against Ekron. /
And the remnant of the Philistines shall perish,"

says the Lord GOD.

9 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, /
I will not turn away its punishment, /
because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom / and did not remember the brotherly covenant.

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre / which shall devour its palaces."

11 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, /
I will not turn away its punishment, / because he pursued his brother with the sword / and cast off all pity, / and his anger tore perpetually / and he kept his wrath forever.

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman / which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah."

13 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, /
I will not turn away their punishment, / because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead / so that they might enlarge their border.

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, / and it shall devour its palaces, / with shouting in the day of battle, / with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

15 And their king shall go into captivity— /
he and his princes together,"

says the LORD.

Chapter 2

God’s judgments upon Moab, 1-3, upon Judah, 4, 5, and upon Israel, 6-8. God accuses them of ingratitude, 9-16.

1 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, /
I will not turn away his punishment, / because he burned the bones / of the king of Edom into lime.

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, / and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth. /
And Moab shall die with tumult, / with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst of it / and will slay all its princes with him,"

says the LORD.

4 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, /
I will not turn away their punishment, /
because they have despised the law of the LORD /
and have not kept his commandments. /
And their lies caused them to err, / after which their fathers have walked.

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, / and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, /
I will not turn away their punishment, /
because they sold the righteous for silver / and the poor for a pair of shoes.

7 They pant after the dust of the earth / on the head of the poor / and turn aside the way of the meek. /
And a man and his father / will go in to the same woman / to profane my holy name.

8 And they lay themselves down / upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar / and they drink the wine of the condemned / in the house of their god.

9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, / whose height was like the height of the cedars / and he was strong as the oaks, / yet I destroyed his fruit from above / and his roots from beneath.

10 Also, I brought you from the land of Egypt / and led you for forty years through the wilderness / to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up some of your sons for prophets / and some of your young men for Nazarites. /
Is it not even so, O children of Israel?"

says the LORD.

12 "But you gave the Nazarites wine to drink / and commanded the prophets, saying, 'Do not prophesy.'

13 Behold, I will press you in your place /
as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore, the flight shall perish from the swift / and the strong shall not strengthen his force, / neither shall the mighty deliver himself;

15 Neither shall he stand who handles the bow, / and he who is swift of foot shall not deliver himself; / neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself.

16 And he who is courageous among the mighty / shall flee away naked in that day,"

says the LORD.

Chapter 3

The necessity of God’s judgment against Israel, 1-8. The publication of it, with the causes thereof, 9-15.

1 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which he brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 "I have only known you of all the families of the earth; /
therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities."

3 Can two walk together /
unless they have agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest /
when he has no prey? /
Will a young lion cry out of his den /
if he has taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a trap upon the earth / where no snare is for him? / Shall one take up a trap from the earth / and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city / and the people not be afraid? / Shall there be evil in a city / and the LORD has not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing / unless he reveals his secret / to his servants the prophets.

8 The lion has roared. /
Who will not fear? /
The Lord GOD has spoken. /
Who can but prophesy?

9 Publish in the palaces at Ashdod / and in the palaces in the land of Egypt / and say, "Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, / and behold the great tumults in it / and the oppressed in the midst of it."

10 "For they do not know to do right,"

says the LORD,

"who store up violence and robbery / in their palaces."

11 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD:

"There shall even be an adversary around the land, / and he shall bring down your strength from you, / and your palaces shall be plundered."

12 Thus says the LORD:

"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion /
two legs or a piece of an ear, /
so the children of Israel shall be rescued / who dwell in Samaria / on the corner of a bed / and in Damascus on a couch.

13 Hear, and testify in the house of Jacob," says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts.

14 "For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, /
I will also visit the altars of Beth-el. /
And the horns of the altar shall be cut off /
and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter-house / together with the summer-house, / the houses of ivory shall perish, / and the great houses shall have an end,"

says the LORD.

Chapter 4

He reproves Israel for oppression, 1-3, for idolatry, 4-5, and for their refusal to be returned and reformed, 6-13.

1 Hear this word, you heifers of Bashan, / who are in the mountain of Samaria, / who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, / who say to their masters, "Bring, and let us drink."

2 The Lord GOD has sworn by his holiness:

"Behold, the days shall come upon you / that he will take you away with hooks / and your posterity with fish-hooks,

3 And you shall go out at the breaches, / every cow at that which is before her, / and you shall cast them into the palace,"

says the LORD.

4 "Come to Beth-el and transgress. /
At Gilgal multiply transgression. /
Bring your sacrifices every morning / and your tithes after three years.

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven /
and proclaim and publish the voluntary-offerings. /
For this pleases you, O children of Israel,"

says the Lord GOD.

6 "And I also have given you / cleanness of teeth in all your cities / and lack of bread in all your places, / yet you have not returned to me,"

says the LORD.

7 "And also I have withheld the rain from you /
when there were still three months until the harvest. /
And I caused it to rain upon one city / and did not cause it to rain upon another city. /
One piece was rained upon, / and the piece on which it did not rain withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered to one city to drink water, / but they were not satisfied. / Yet you have not returned to me,"

says the LORD.

9 "I have smitten you with blight and mildew. /
When your gardens, your vineyards, / your fig-trees, and your olive-trees increased, / the cutting-locust devoured them. / Yet you have not returned to me,"

says the LORD.

10 "I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt. /
I have slain your young men with the sword / and have taken away your horses. /
I have made the ill savor of your camps / to come up to your nostrils. /
Yet you have not returned to me,"

says the LORD.

11 "I have overthrown some of you, /
as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, /
and you were like a fire-brand / plucked out of the burning. / Yet you have not returned to me,"

says the LORD.

12 "Therefore, thus I will do to you, O Israel. / And because I will do this to you, / prepare to meet your God, O Israel.

13 For behold, he who forms the mountains, / creates the wind, / declares to man what is his thought, / makes the morning darkness, / and treads upon the high places of the earth, /
Yahweh, the God of hosts, is his name."

Chapter 5

A lamentation for Israel, 1-3. An exhortation to repentance, 4-20. God rejects their hypocritical service, 21-27.

1 Hear this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 "The virgin of Israel has fallen. /
She shall no longer rise. /
She is forsaken upon her land. /
There is no one to raise her up."

3 For thus says the Lord GOD:

"The city that went out by a thousand / shall leave a hundred, / and that which went forth by a hundred / shall leave ten to the house of Israel."

4 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:

"Seek me and you shall live.

5 But do not seek Beth-el / nor enter into Gilgal, / and do not pass to Beer-sheba, / for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity / and Beth-el shall come to nothing.

6 Seek the LORD and you shall live, / lest he break out like fire / in the house of Joseph / and devour it /
and there be no one to quench it in Beth-el.

7 You who turn judgment to wormwood / and leave off righteousness on the earth,

8 Seek him who makes the seven stars and Orion, / turns the shadow of death into the morning, / makes the day dark with night, / who calls for the waters of the sea, /
and pours them out upon the face of the earth. /
YAHWEH is his name.

9 He causes destruction to flash upon the strong, / so that the destruction shall come against the fortress.

10 They hate him who rebukes in the gate / and they abhor him who speaks uprightly.

11 Because your treading is upon the poor / and you take burdens of wheat from him, / therefore you have built houses of hewn stone, /
but you shall not dwell in them. /
And you have planted pleasant vineyards, /
but you shall not drink their wine.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions / and your mighty sins. /
They afflict the just, they take a bribe, / and they turn aside the poor in the gate.

13 Therefore, the prudent shall keep silence in that time, / for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good and not evil, /
so that you may live. /
Then the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, /
as you have spoken.

15 Hate the evil and love the good, / and establish judgment in the gate. /
It may be that the LORD God of hosts / will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph."

16 Therefore, Yahweh, the God of hosts, the Lord, says this:

"Wailing shall be in all streets, / and they shall say in all the highways, 'Alas! Alas!' /
And they shall call the farmer to mourning / and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards there shall be wailing, / for I will pass through you,"

says the LORD.

18 "Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD! /
To what end is it for you? /
The day of the LORD is darkness and not light,

19 As if a man fled from a lion / and a bear met him, / or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall /
and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall the day of the LORD / not be darkness rather than light, / even very dark and no brightness in it?

21 I hate, I despise your feast days / and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though you offer me burnt-offerings / and your food-offerings, /
I will not accept them, / neither will I regard / the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take away from me the noise of your songs, / for I will not hear the melody of your harps.

24 But let judgment run down like waters /
and righteousness like a mighty stream.

25 "Have you offered to me sacrifices and offerings / in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But you have borne Sikkuth your king / and Chiun, your images, the star of your god, / which you made for yourselves.

27 Therefore, I will cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus," says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

Chapter 6

The wantonness of Israel, 1-6, shall be plagued with desolation, 7-11; and their refusal to reform shall end in affliction, 12-14.

1 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion / and are secure on the mountain of Samaria, / who are named chief of the nations, / to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass to Calneh and see, / and from there go to Hamath the great. /
Then go down to Gath of the Philistines. /
Are they better than these kingdoms? /
Or is their border greater than your border?

3 You put the evil day far away / and cause the seat of violence to come near.

4 You lie upon beds of ivory / and stretch yourselves upon their couches, / and eat lambs from the flock / and calves from the midst of the stall.

5 You chant to the sound of the harp / and invent for yourselves instruments of music, like David.

6 You drink wine in bowls / and anoint yourselves with the chief ointments, / but you are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

7 Therefore, now they shall go captive with the first who go captive, / and the revelry of those who stretched themselves out shall end.

8 "The Lord GOD has sworn by himself,"

says the LORD the God of hosts,

"I abhor the excellence of Jacob / and hate his palaces; / therefore, I will deliver up the city / with all its abundance.

9 "And it shall come to pass if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die. 10 And when a man’s uncle takes him up, even he who burns him, to bring the bones out of the house, and shall say to him who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there anyone still with you?' And he shall say, 'No.' Then he shall say, 'Hold your tongue, for we must not make mention of the name of the LORD.' 11 For behold, the LORD commands, and he will smite the great house to ruins and the little house to pieces.

12 "Shall horses run upon the rock? /
Will one plow there with oxen? /
For you have turned judgment into gall / and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock,

13 You who rejoice in a thing of nothing, / who say, 'Have we not taken horns for ourselves /
by our own strength?'

14 But behold, I will raise up against you a nation, /
O house of Israel,"

says the LORD the God of hosts,

"and they shall afflict you / from the entrance of Hamath / to the river of the wilderness."

Chapter 7

The judgments of the swarm of locusts, 1-3, and of the fire are diverted by the prayer of Amos, 4-6. By the wall of a plumb-line is signified the rejection of Israel, 7-9. Amaziah makes an accusation against Amos, 10-13. Amos shows his calling, 14, 15; and Amaziah’s judgment, 16, 17.

1 Thus the Lord GOD has shown to me, and behold, he formed a swarm of locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth, and behold, it was the latter growth after the king’s mowings. 2 And it came to pass when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, that I said,

"O Lord GOD, forgive, I implore you. /
By whom shall Jacob arise? /
For he is small."

3 The LORD repented concerning this. "It shall not be," says the LORD.

4 Thus the Lord GOD has shown to me, and behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep and ate up a part. 5 Then I said,

"O Lord GOD, cease, I implore you. /
By whom shall Jacob arise? /
For he is small."

6 The LORD repented concerning this. "This also shall not be," says the Lord GOD.

7 Thus he showed me, and behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line with a plumb-line in his hand. 8 And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"
And I said, "A plumb-line." Then the Lord said,

"Behold, I will set a plumb-line /
in the midst of my people Israel. /
I will not again pass by them anymore.

9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate / and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste. /
And I will rise against the house of Jeroboam / with the sword."

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For thus Amos says: 'Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.'" 12 Also Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go flee away into the land of Judah, eat bread there, and prophesy there. 13 But do not prophesy again anymore at Beth-el, for it is the king’s chapel and it is the king’s court."

14 Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet’s son, but I was a herdsman and a gatherer of sycamore fruit. 15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' 16 Now therefore, hear the word of the LORD. You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel and do not drop your word against the house of Isaac.' 17 Therefore, thus says the LORD:

'Your wife shall be a harlot in the city, / and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword. / Your land shall be divided by line, / and you shall die in a polluted land. /
And Israel shall surely go from his land into captivity.'"

Chapter 8

By a basket of summer fruit is shown the approach of Israel’s end, 1-3. Oppression is reproved, 4-10. A famine of the word of God threatened, 11-14.

1 Thus the Lord GOD has shown to me, and behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2 And he said, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me,

"The end has come upon my people of Israel. /
I will not again pass by them anymore.

3 And the songs of the temple / shall be howlings in that day,"

says the Lord GOD.

"There shall be many dead bodies in every place. /
They shall cast them forth with silence.

4 Hear this, O you who swallow up the needy, /
even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, 'When will the new moon be gone / so that we may sell grain, / and the sabbath /
so that we may set forth wheat, / making the ephah small / and the shekel great, / and falsifying the balances by deceit,

6 So that we may buy the poor for silver / and the needy for a pair of shoes, /
and even sell the refuse of the wheat?'"

7 The LORD has sworn by the excellence of Jacob, /
"Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall the land not tremble for this, / and everyone mourn who dwells in it? /
It shall rise up wholly like a flood, / and it shall be cast out and drowned /
as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day,"

says the Lord GOD,

"that I will cause the sun to go down at noon /
and I will darken the earth in the clear day,

10 I will turn your feasts into mourning / and all your songs into lamentation, /
I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins / and baldness upon every head, / and I will make it like the mourning of an only son / and its end like a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come,"

says the Lord GOD,

"that I will send a famine in the land, / not a famine of bread nor a thirst for water, /
but of hearing the words of the LORD.

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea / and from the north even to the east, / they shall run to and fro / to seek the word of the LORD /
and shall not find it.

13 In that day the fair virgins / and young men shall faint for thirst.

14 Those who swear by the sin of Samaria / and say, 'Your god, O Dan, lives,' / and, 'The manner of Beer-sheba lives,' / even they shall fall and never rise again."

Chapter 9

The certainty of the desolation, 1-10. The restoring of the tabernacle of David, 11-15.

1 I saw the Lord standing upon the altar, and he said, /
"Smite the lintel of the door /
so that the posts may shake. /
Cut them in the head, all of them. /
I will slay the last of them with the sword. /
He who flees shall not get away, / and he who escapes shall not be delivered.

2 Though they dig into the place of the dead, / from there my hand shall take them. / Though they climb up to heaven, / from there I will bring them down.

3 Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, /
I will search and take them out from there. / Though they are hid from my sight /
in the bottom of the sea, / from there I will command the serpent, / and he shall bite them.

4 Though they go into captivity before their enemies, / from there I will command the sword, / and it shall slay them. /
And I will set my eyes upon them / for evil and not for good."

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts / is he who touches the land, and it shall melt, / and all who dwell in it shall mourn. /
And it shall rise up wholly like a flood, / and shall be drowned as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he who builds his upper chambers in the heaven / and has founded his vault on the earth, /
he who calls for the waters of the sea /
and pours them out upon the face of the earth— /
Yahweh is his name.

7 "Are you not like children of the Cushites to me, / O children of Israel?"

says the LORD.

"Have I not brought up Israel from the land of Egypt, / the Philistines from Caphtor, / and the Assyrians from Kir?

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD / are upon the sinful kingdom, / and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth, / except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,"

says the LORD.

9 "For behold, I will command, / and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations / as grain is sifted in a sieve, /
yet the least grain shall not fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, / who say, 'The evil shall not overtake nor fall upon us.'

11 In that day I will raise up / the tabernacle of David that has fallen / and close up its breaches. /
And I will raise up its ruins /
and build it as in the days of old,

12 So that they may possess the remnant of Edom / and of all the heathen who are called by my name," says the LORD who does this.

13 "Behold, the days come,"

says the LORD,

"that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, / and the treader of grapes / shall overtake him who sows seed. /
And the mountains shall drop sweet wine, / and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring back the captivity of my people of Israel, / and they shall build the waste cities and inhabit them. /
And they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine. /
They shall also make gardens and eat their fruit.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, / and they shall no longer be pulled up / out of their land which I have given them," says the LORD your God.

The Vision of Obadiah

Obadiah | Ὀβδιοὺ | הידבוע

Chapter 1

The destruction of Edom, 1, 2, for their pride, 3-9, and for their wrong to Jacob, 10-16. The salvation and victory of Jacob, 17-21.

1 [The vision of Obadiah.] Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom—we have heard a rumor from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, saying, "Arise, and let us rise up against her in battle"—

2 "Behold, I have made you small among the heathen. /
You are greatly despised.

3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, / you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, / whose habitation is high, / who says in his heart, /
'Who shall bring me down to the ground?'

4 Though you exalt yourself like the eagle / and though you set your nest among the stars, / from there I will bring you down,"

says the LORD.

5 "If thieves came to you, if robbers by night / (O how you are cut off!), / would they not have stolen until they had enough? /
If the grape-gatherers came to you, / would they not leave some grapes?

6 How the things of Esau are searched out! /
How his hidden things are sought!

7 All the men of your confederacy / have brought you even to the border. /
The men who were at peace with you / have deceived you and prevailed against you. /
Those who eat your bread /
have laid a wound under you. /
There is no understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day,"

says the LORD,

"even destroy the wise men out of Edom / and understanding out of the mountain of Esau?

9 And your mighty men, O Teman, / shall be dismayed, / to the end that everyone of the mountain of Esau /
may be cut off by slaughter.

10 "For your violence against your brother Jacob, / shame shall cover you, / and you shall be cut off forever.

11 In the day that you stood on the other side, / in the day that the strangers carried away his forces captive / and foreigners entered into his gates / and cast lots upon Jerusalem, /
even you were like one of them.

12 But do not look in the day of your brother, / in the day that he became a stranger, / neither rejoice over the children of Judah / in the day of their destruction, / neither speak proudly /
in the day of distress.

13 Do not enter into the gate of my people /
in the day of their calamity. /
Yes, you—do not look upon their affliction /
in the day of their calamity, / neither lay hands on their substance /
in the day of their calamity.

14 Do not stand in the cross-way / to cut off those of his who escaped, / neither deliver up those of his who remain /
in the day of distress.

15 "For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen. /
As you have done, so it shall be done to you. /
Your reward shall return upon your own head.

16 For as you have drank upon my holy mountain, / so all the heathen shall drink continually. / Indeed, they shall drink and they shall swallow down, / and they shall be as though they had never existed.

17 But upon mount Zion there shall be deliverance / and there shall be holiness. /
And the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, / the house of Joseph a flame, / and the house of Esau for stubble, / and they shall kindle in them and devour them. /
And there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau."

For the LORD has spoken it.

19 And those of the south shall possess the mountain of Esau, / and those of the plain, the Philistines. / And they shall possess the fields of Ephraim / and the fields of Samaria. / And Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel / shall possess that of the Canaanites, even to Zarephath. /
And the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, / shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And saviors shall come upon mount Zion / to judge the mountain of Esau, / and the kingdom shall be the LORD’S.

[Tanach reading: go to Jonah]

The Story of Jonah

Jonah | Ἰωνᾶς | הנוי

Chapter 1

Jonah, sent to Nineveh, flees to Tarshish, 1-3. He is exposed by a tempest, 4-10; thrown into the sea, 11-16; and swallowed by a fish, 17.

1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it, for their wickedness has come up before me." 3 But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD and went down to Joppa, and he found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid its fare and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was in danger of being broken. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and every man cried to his god and cast the wares that were in the ship into the sea to lighten it of them. But Jonah had gone down into the sides of the ship, and he lay and was fast asleep. 6 So the ship-master came to him and said to him, "What do you mean, O sleeper? Arise, call upon your God. It may be that God will think upon us so that we do not perish."

7 And they each said to his fellow, "Come, and let us cast lots so that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. 8 Then they said to him, "Tell us, we pray you, for whose cause this evil is upon us. What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?" 9 And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear Yahweh, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."

10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid and said to him, "Why have you done this?" For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. 11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you so that the sea may be calm for us?" For the sea wrought and was tempestuous. 12 And he said to them, "Take me and cast me into the sea so that the sea shall be calm for you, for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you." 13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to bring it to the land, but they could not, for the sea wrought and was tempestuous against them. 14 Therefore, they cried to the LORD and said, "We implore you, O LORD, we implore you, do not let us perish for this man’s life and do not lay upon us innocent blood. For you, O LORD, have done as it pleased you."

15 So they took Jonah and cast him into the sea. And the sea ceased from her raging. 16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly and offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

17 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Chapter 2

The prayer of Jonah, 1-9. He is delivered out of the belly of the fish, 10.

1 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God out of the fish’s belly 2 And said,

"I cried by reason of my affliction / to the LORD, and he heard me. /
Out of the belly of hell I cried, /
and you heard my voice.

3 For you had cast me into the deep, / in the midst of the seas, /
and the floods encompassed me. /
All your billows and your waves / passed over me.

4 Then I said, 'I am cast / out of your sight, / yet I will look again /
toward your holy temple.'

5 The waters encompassed me, / even to the soul. /
The depth enclosed me on every side. /
The weeds were wrapped around my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains. /
The earth with her bars was around me forever. /
Yet you have brought up my life from corruption, /
O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me /
I remembered the LORD. /
And my prayer came to you /
into your holy temple.

8 Those who observe lying vanities / forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice to you / with the voice of thanksgiving. /
I will pay that which I have vowed. / Salvation is of the LORD."

10 And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

Chapter 3

Jonah, sent again, preaches to the Ninevites, 1-4. Upon their repentance, 5-9, God repents, 10.

1 And the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the preaching that I bid you." 3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city of three days' journey. 4 And Jonah began to enter into the city for a day’s journey and he cried and said, "Forty more days and Nineveh shall be overthrown."

5 So the people of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest even to the least of them. 6 For word came to the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, took off his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, "Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything. Do not let them feed nor drink water. 8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth and cry mightily to God. Indeed, let them each turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in their hands. 9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent and turn away from his fierce anger so that we do not perish?"

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. And God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do to them, and he did not do it.

Chapter 4

1 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly and he was very angry. 2 And he prayed to the LORD and said, "I pray you, O LORD, was this not my saying when I was still in my country? Therefore, I fled before to Tarshish. For I knew that you are a gracious God, merciful, slow to anger, of great kindness, and repenting of the evil. 3 Now therefore, O LORD, take, I implore you, my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live." 4 Then the LORD said, "Do you do well to be angry?"

5 So Jonah went out of the city, sat on the east side of the city, made himself a booth there, and sat under it in the shade until he might see what would become of the city. 6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd and made it to come up over Jonah so that it might be a shade over his head to deliver him from his grief. Thus Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the gourd. 7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd so that it withered. 8 And it came to pass when the sun rose, that God prepared a vehement east wind. And the sun beat upon the head of Jonah so that he fainted and wished in himself to die and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

9 And God said to Jonah, "Do you do well to be angry because of the gourd?" And he said, "I do well to be angry, even to death." 10 Then the LORD said, "You have had pity on the gourd, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow, which came up in a night and perished in a night. 11 And should I not spare Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred and twenty thousand persons who cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand—and also a large number of livestock"

The Word of the Lord to Micah

Micah | Μιχαίας | מיכה

Chapter 1

The time when Micah prophesied, 1. He shows the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry, 2-9. He exhorts to mourning, 10-16.

1 [The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.]

2 Hear, all you people. /
Listen, O earth and all who are therein. /
Let the Lord GOD be witness against you, / the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For behold, the LORD comes forth from his place, / and will come down and tread / upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be melted under him, / and the valleys shall be split, / like wax before the fire, / like the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 "All this is for the transgression of Jacob / and for the sins of the house of Israel. /
What is the transgression of Jacob? /
Is it not Samaria? /
And what are the high places of Judah? /
Are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore, I will make Samaria like a heap of the field, / like plantings of a vineyard. /
And I will pour down her stones into the valley / and lay her foundations bare.

7 And all her engraved images shall be beaten to pieces, / all her wages shall be burned with the fire, / and all her idols I will lay desolate, / for she gathered it from the payment of a harlot, / and they shall return to the payment of a harlot."

8 Therefore, I will wail and howl. /
I will go stripped and naked. /
I will make a wailing like the jackals / and a mourning like the owls.

9 For her wound is incurable, / and it has come to Judah. /

He has come to the gate of my people, /
even to Jerusalem.

10 Do not declare it at Gath. /
Do not weep at all. /
In the house of Aphrah roll yourself in the dust.

11 Pass on, you inhabitant of Saphir, / having your shame exposed. /
The inhabitant of Zaanan did not come forth / in the mourning of Beth-ezel. /
He shall receive from you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth / waited anxiously for good, / but evil came down from the LORD / to the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O inhabitant of Lachish, / bind the chariot to the swift beast. /
She is the beginning of the sin / to the daughter of Zion, / for the transgressions of Israel / were found in you.

14 Therefore, you shall give presents / to Moresheth-gath. /
The houses of Achzib shall be a lie / to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet I will bring an heir to you, /
O inhabitant of Mareshah. /
The glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.

16 Make yourself bald and shave yourself / for the children of your delight. / Enlarge your baldness like the eagle, / for they have gone into captivity from you.

Chapter 2

Against oppression, 1-3. A lamentation, 4-6. A reproof of injustice and idolatry, 7-11. A promise of restoring Jacob, 12, 13.

1 Woe to those who devise iniquity / and work evil upon their beds! /
When the morning is light, they practice it, / because it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they covet fields and take them by violence, / and also houses, and take them away. / Thus they oppress a man and his house, /

even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore, thus says the LORD: /
"Behold, against this family I devise an evil, / from which you shall not remove your necks, / neither shall you go haughtily, for this time is evil.

4 In that day one shall take up a parable against you / and lament with a grievous lamentation and say, /
'We are utterly wasted. /
He has changed the portion of my people. /
How he has removed it from me! /
To the rebellious he has divided our fields.'

5 Therefore, you shall have no one / who shall cast the line by lot / in the congregation of the LORD.

6 'Do not prophesy,' they say to those who prophesy. /
They shall not prophesy to them. /
Reproaches shall not depart.

7 Shall it be said, O house of Jacob, / 'Is the Spirit of the LORD shortened? /
Are these his doings?' /
Do my words not do good / to him who walks uprightly?

8 Even of late my people have risen up / like an enemy. /
You pull off the robe with the garment / from those who pass by securely / like men averse to war.

9 The women of my people you have cast out / from their pleasant houses. /
From their children /
you have taken away my glory forever.

10 Arise, and depart, for this is not your rest. /
Because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, / even with a grievous destruction.

11 If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies, saying, /
'I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink,' /
he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of you. /
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel. /
I will put them together like the sheep of Bozrah, /

like the flock in the midst of their fold. /
They shall make great noise /
by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker has come up before them. /
They have broken up and have passed through the gate /
and gone out by it. /
And their king shall pass before them, / and the LORD at their head."

Chapter 3

The cruelty of the princes, 1-4. The falsehood of the prophets, 5-7. The ill-grounded security of them both, 8-12.

1 And I said, /
"Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob / and you princes of the house of Israel. /
Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 You hate the good and love the evil. /
You pluck off their skin from them /
and their flesh from off their bones.

3 You also eat the flesh of my people / and flay their skin from off them. /
You break their bones / and chop them in pieces / like that which is for the pot, / like flesh within the cauldron.

4 Then you shall cry to the LORD, / but he will not hear you. /
He will even hide his face from you at that time, /
as you have been ill behaved in your doings."

5 Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets / who deceive my people, / who bite with their teeth / and cry, "Peace," / and he who puts nothing into their mouths, /
they even prepare war against him:

6 "Therefore, night shall be for you /
so that you shall not have a vision. /
And it shall be dark for you /
so that you shall not divine. /
And the sun shall go down over the prophets, / and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then the seers shall be ashamed / and the diviners confounded. / Indeed, they shall all cover their lips, / for there is no answer from God."

8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, / and of judgment and of might, / to declare to Jacob his transgression / and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, you heads of the house of Jacob / and princes of the house of Israel, / who abhor judgment and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zion with blood / and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 Her heads judge for bribes, / her priests teach for payment, / and her prophets divine for money. /
Yet they will lean upon the LORD and say, /
"Is the LORD not among us? /
No evil can come upon us."

12 Therefore, Zion for your sake / shall be plowed like a field, / Jerusalem shall become heaps, /
and the mountain of the house /
like the high places of the forest.

Chapter 4

The glory, 1, 2, and the peace of Christ's kingdom, 5. The restoration, 6-10, and victory of the church, 11-13.

1 But in the last days it shall come to pass, / that the mountain of the house of the LORD /
shall be established on the top of the mountains, / and it shall be exalted above the hills, / and people shall flow to it.

2 And many nations shall come and say, /
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD / and to the house of the God of Jacob, / and he will teach us of his ways, /
and we will walk in his paths." /
For the law shall go forth from Zion /
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 And he shall judge among many people / and rebuke strong nations afar off. /
And they shall beat their swords into plow-shares /

and their spears into pruning-hooks. / Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, /
neither shall they learn war anymore.

4 But they shall each sit under his vine / and under his fig-tree, /
and no one shall make them afraid. /
For the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken it.

5 For all people will each walk in the name of his god, / and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God /
forever and ever.

6 "In that day," says the LORD, /
"I will assemble her who is lame. /
I will gather her who is driven out / and her whom I have afflicted.

7 I will make her who was lame a remnant / and her who was cast far off a strong nation. /
And the LORD will reign over them on mount Zion /
from now on, even forever."

8 And you, O tower of the flock, / the stronghold of the daughter of Zion, /
it shall come to you, / even the former dominion shall come, / the kingdom to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why do you cry aloud? /
Is there no king in you? /
Has your counselor perished? /
For pangs have taken you like a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, /
like a woman in travail. /
For now you shall go forth from the city / and you shall dwell in the field, / and you shall go even to Babylon. /
There you shall be delivered. /
There the LORD shall redeem you /
from the hand of your enemies.

11 Now also many nations are gathered against you, / who say, "Let her be defiled, / and let our eye look upon Zion."

12 But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD, / neither do they understand his counsel, / for he has gathered them like sheaves to the threshing-floor.

13 "Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion, / for I will make your horn iron / and I will make your hooves brass. /

And you shall beat many people in pieces. /
And I will consecrate their gain to YAHWEH / and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth."

Chapter 5

The birth of Christ, 1-3. His kingdom, 4-7. His conquest, 8-15.

1 Now gather yourself in troops, /
O daughter of troops. /
He has laid siege against us. /
They shall smite the judge of Israel /
with a rod upon the cheek.

2 "But you, Beth-lehem Ephratah, / though you are little among the thousands of Judah, / yet out of you he shall come forth to me / who is to be ruler in Israel, / whose goings forth have been from of old, / from everlasting."

3 Therefore, he will give them up / until the time that she who travails has brought forth. /
Then the remnant of his brothers shall return / to the children of Israel.

4 And he will stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, / in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. / And they shall abide, for now he will be great /
to the ends of the earth.

5 And this one will be peace. /
When the Assyrian comes into our land / and treads in our palaces, / we shall raise against him seven shepherds / and eight principal men.

6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword / and the land of Nimrod in its entrances. / Thus he will deliver us from the Assyrian / when he comes into our land / and treads within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob / shall be in the midst of many people / like a dew from the LORD, / like the showers upon the grass, / which do not wait for man, / nor delay for the sons of men.

8 And the remnant of Jacob / shall be among the Gentiles / in the midst of many people / like a lion among the beasts of the forest, / like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, / who, if he goes through, / both treads down and tears in pieces, / and no one can deliver.

9 Your hand shall be lifted up upon your adversaries, / and all your enemies shall be cut off.

10 "And it shall come to pass in that day," says the LORD, /
"that I will cut off your horses out of the midst of you / and destroy your chariots.

11 And I will cut off the cities of your land / and throw down all your strongholds.

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of your hand, / and you shall have no more soothsayers.

13 Your engraved images I will also cut off, / and your standing images out of the midst of you, / and you shall no longer worship the work of your hands.

14 And I will pluck up your groves out of the midst of you. /
Thus I will destroy your cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury / upon the heathen who have not heard."

Chapter 6

God’s controversy for ingratitude, 1-5; for ignorance, 6-9, for injustice, 10-15; and for idolatry, 16.

1 Hear now what the LORD says. /
"Arise, contend before the mountains / and let the hills hear your voice.

2 Hear, O mountains, the LORD’S controversy, / and you strong foundations of the earth, / for the LORD has a controversy with his people / and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, what have I done to you? /
And how have I wearied you? /

Testify against me.

4 For I brought you out of the land of Egypt / and redeemed you from the house of servants, / and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now / what Balak king of Moab consulted, / and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him, / [and what I did] from Shittim to Gilgal, / so that you may know the righteousness of the LORD."

6 How shall I come before the LORD / and bow myself before the high God? / Shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, / with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams / or with tens of thousands of rivers of oil? / Shall I give my first-born for my transgression, /
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He has shown you, O man, what is good. / And what does the LORD require of you, / but to do justly, to love mercy, / and to walk humbly with your God?

9 The LORD’S voice cries to the city— / and wisdom shall fear your name, /
"Hear the rod and who has appointed it.

10 Are there still the treasures of wickedness / in the house of the ungodly, / and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances / and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence / and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, / and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore, I have also made you to grieve in smiting you. /
I have made you desolate because of your sins.

14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied, / and your emptiness shall be in the midst of you. / And you shall take hold, / but shall not preserve. /
And that which you preserve /
I will give up to the sword.

15 You shall sow, but you shall not reap. /
You shall tread the olives, /
but you shall not anoint yourself with oil. /
You shall make sweet wine, /
but shall not drink wine.

16 For the statutes of Omri / and all the works of the house of Ahab are kept, / and you walk in their counsels. / Therefore, I will make you a desolation / and the inhabitants thereof a hissing, / and you shall bear the reproach of my people."

Chapter 7

The church, bewailing her small number, 1, 2, and the general corruption, 3, 4, puts her confidence not in man, but in God, 5-7. She triumphs over her enemies, 8-13. She prays to God, 14. God comforts her by promises of confusion to her enemies, 15-17, and by his mercies, 18-20.

1 Woe is me! /
For I have become like the gathering of the summer fruits, / like the grape-gleanings of the vintage. /
There is no cluster to eat. /
My soul desired the first ripe fruit.

2 The godly man has perished from the earth, / and there is no one upright among men. /
They all lie in wait for blood. /
They each hunt his brother with a net.

3 Their hands are upon that which is evil to do it thoroughly. /
The prince and also the judge ask for a reward. /
And the great man, he utters the evil desire of his soul. /
Thus they weave it together.

4 The best of them is like a brier. /
The most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge. /
The day of your watchmen and your visitation comes. /
Now shall be their perplexity.

5 Do not trust in a friend. /
Do not put confidence in a guide. /
Keep the doors of your mouth /
from her who lies in your bosom.

6 For the son dishonors the father, / the daughter rises up against her mother, /
the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. /
A man’s enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore, I will look to the LORD. /
I will wait for the God of my salvation. /
My God will hear me.

8 Do not rejoice against me, O my enemy. /
When I fall, I shall arise. /
When I sit in darkness, /
the LORD will be a light to me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, / because I have sinned against him, / until he pleads my cause / and executes judgment for me. /
He will bring me forth to the light, / and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she who is my enemy shall see it, / and shame shall cover her who said to me, /
"Where is the LORD your God?" /
My eyes shall behold her. /
Now she shall be trodden down / like the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that your walls are to be built, / in that day the decree shall be far removed.

12 In that day they shall also come even to you / from Assyria and from the fortified cities / and from the fortress even to the river, / from sea to sea /
and from mountain to mountain.

13 But the land shall be desolate / because of those who dwell in it, /
for the fruit of their doings.

14 Feed your people with your rod, / the flock of your heritage, / who dwell solitarily in the forest, /
in the midst of Carmel. / Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, /
as in the days of old.

15 "According to the days of your departure /
from the land of Egypt /
I will show to them marvelous things."

16 The nations shall see and be confounded / at all their might. /
They shall lay their hand upon their mouth. /
Their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent. /
They shall move out of their holes / like worms of the earth. /
They shall be afraid of the LORD our God /
and shall fear because of you.

18 Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity / and passes by the transgression / of the remnant of his heritage? /
He does not retain his anger forever /
because he delights in mercy.

19 He will return. He will have compassion upon us. /
He will tread our iniquities under foot. /
And you will cast all their sins / into the depths of the sea.

20 You will give truth to Jacob / and mercy to Abraham, / which you have sworn to our fathers / from the days of old.

[Tanach reading: go to Nahum]

The Vision of Nahum

Nahum | Ναούμ | נחום

Chapter 1

The majesty of God in goodness to his people and severity against his enemies, 1-15.

1 [The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.]

2 God is jealous, and the LORD avenges. /
The LORD avenges and has indignation. /
The LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries / and he reserves wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is slow to anger and great in power, / and will not at all acquit the wicked. /
The LORD has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, / and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, / and dries up all the rivers. / Bashan and Carmel languish, / and the flower of Lebanon languishes.

5 The mountains quake at him / and the hills melt. /
The earth is upheaved at his presence, / even the world and all who dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? /
And who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? /
His fury is poured out like fire, / and the rocks are broken apart by him.

7 The LORD is good, / a stronghold in the day of trouble. /
And he knows those who trust in him.

8 But with an over-running flood / he will make an utter end of the place thereof, / and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do you devise against the LORD? /
He will make an utter end. /
Affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they are tangled together like thorns / and while they are drunken like drunkards, / they shall be devoured like fully dried stubble.

11 There is one gone out of you / who devises evil against the LORD. /
He is a wicked counselor.

12 Thus says the LORD: /
"Though they are quiet and likewise many, / yet thus they shall be cut down, / and he shall pass away. /
Though I have afflicted you, /
I will no longer afflict you.

13 For now I will break his yoke from off you / and will tear off your bonds."

14 And the LORD has given a commandment concerning you, / that no more of your name be sown. /
"Out of the house of your gods I will cut off /
the engraved image and the molten image. /
I will make your grave, for you are vile."

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him /
who brings good tidings, who publishes peace! /
O Judah, keep your solemn feasts / and perform your vows, / for the wicked shall no longer pass through you. /
He is utterly cut off.

Chapter 2

The fearful and victorious armies of God against Nineveh, 1-13.

1 He who dashes in pieces / has come up before your face. / Guard the fortress, / watch the way, make your loins strong, / and fortify your power mightily.

2 For the LORD restores the excellence of Jacob / like the excellence of Israel. /
For the emptiers have emptied them out / and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red. /
The valiant men are in scarlet. /
The chariots shall be with flaming torches / in the day of his preparation, / and the fir-trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets. /
They shall jostle one against another in the broad ways. /
They shall seem like torches / and they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his nobles. /
They shall stumble in their walk. /
They shall make haste to the wall thereof, / and the defense shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, / and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away. /
Her women-servants shall moan /
as with the voice of doves, / beating upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water. /
Yet they shall flee away. /
"Stand, stand," they shall cry, /
but no one shall look back.

9 Take the plunder of silver and take the plunder of gold. /
There is no end to the supply. /
There is glory from all the desirable vessels.

10 She is empty, void, and waste. /
And the heart melts, the knees smite together, / much pain is in all loins, / and all of their faces gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions / and the feeding-place of the young lions, / where the lion, the lioness, / and the lion’s whelp walked / and no one made them afraid?

12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his whelps / and strangled for his lionesses. / And he filled his caves with prey / and his dens with flesh.

13 "Behold, I am against you," says the LORD of hosts, / "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, / and the sword shall devour your young lions. /
And I will cut off your prey from the earth, / and the voice of your messengers / shall be heard no more."

Chapter 3

The miserable ruin of Nineveh, 1-19.

1 Woe to the bloody city! /
It is all full of lies and robberies. /
The prey does not depart.

2 The noise of a whip / and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, / of the prancing horses, / and of the bounding chariots!

3 The horseman mounting, /
the flashing sword, and the glittering spear! /
There is a multitude of slain / and a great number of carcasses, / and there is no end to their corpses. /
They stumble upon their corpses,

4 All because of the multitude of the lewd deeds / of the well-favored harlot, /
the mistress of witchcrafts, / who sells nations through her lewd deeds / and families through her witchcrafts.

5 "Behold, I am against you," /
says the LORD of hosts, /
"and I will lift your skirts over your face / and show the nations your nakedness / and the kingdoms your shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon / you and make you vile. /
I will make you a spectacle.

7 And it shall come to pass, / that all those who look upon you / shall flee from you / and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! /
Who will bemoan her?' /
From where shall I seek comforters for you?"

8 Are you better than No-Amon / that was situated among the rivers, / that had the waters around it, / whose rampart was the sea / and her wall was from the sea?

9 Cush and Egypt were her strength, / and it was infinite. / Put and Lubim were your helpers.

10 Yet she was carried away. /
She went into captivity. /

Her young children also were dashed in pieces /
at the head of all the streets. /
And they cast lots for her honorable men, / and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 You also shall be drunken. /
You shall be hid. /
You also shall seek strength / because of the enemy.

12 All your strongholds shall be like fig-trees / with the first ripe figs. /
If they are shaken, /
they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, your people in the midst of you are women. /
The gates of your land /
shall be set wide open to your enemies. /
The fire shall devour your bars.

14 Draw waters for the siege. /
Fortify your strongholds. /
Go into clay and tread the mortar. /
Make the brick-kiln strong.

15 The fire shall devour you there. /
The sword shall cut you off. /
It shall eat you up like the licking-locust. /
Make yourself many as the licking-locust. /
Make yourself many as the swarming-locust.

16 You have multiplied your merchants / above the stars of heaven. /
The licking-locust strips and flies away.

17 Your crowned ones are like the swarming-locusts, / and your captains like the swarms of locusts, / which settle in the hedges on the cold day. /
But when the sun arises they flee away, /
and the place where they are is unknown.

18 Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria. /
Your nobles shall dwell in the dust. /
Your people are scattered upon the mountains / and no man gathers them.

19 There is no healing of your breach. /
Your wound is grievous. /
All who hear your fame /
shall clap the hands over you. / For upon whom has your wickedness / not passed continually?

[Tanach reading: go to Habakkuk]

The Word of the Lord to Habakkuk

Habakkuk | Ἀμβακούμ | קוקבח

Chapter 1

To Habakkuk, indignant at the iniquity of the land, 1-4, is shown the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans, 5-11. He complains that vengeance should be executed by those who are far worse, 12-17.

1 [The burden which Habakkuk the prophet saw.]

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry / and you will not hear? /
I even cry out to you of violence, /
and you will not save!

3 Why do you show me iniquity / and cause me to behold grievance? /
For devastation and violence are before me. /
And there is strife, and contention rises up.

4 Therefore, the law is slackened, / and judgment never goes forth. /
For the wicked encompasses the righteous; / therefore, perverted justice proceeds.

5 "Behold among the heathen and regard. / Wonder and be astonished. /
For I will work a work in your days / which you will not believe though it is told to you.

6 For behold, I raise up the Chaldeans, / that bitter and hasty nation, / which shall march through the breadth of the land / to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful. / Their judgment and their dignity / shall proceed from themselves.

8 Their horses are also swifter than the leopards / and are more fierce than the evening wolves. /
And their horsemen shall spread themselves / and their horsemen shall come from far. /
They shall fly like the eagle that hastens to devour.

9 They shall all come for violence. /
Their faces shall swallow up the east wind, / and they shall gather the captivity like the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, / and the princes shall be a scorn to them. /
They shall deride every stronghold, / for they shall heap dust and take it.

11 Then his mind shall change / and he shall pass over and offend, / imputing his power to his god."

12 Are you not from everlasting, /
O LORD my God, my Holy One? /
We shall not die. /
O LORD, you have ordained them for judgment. /
And O mighty God, /
you have established them for correction.

13 You are of purer eyes than to behold evil, / and cannot look at iniquity. /
Why do you look upon those who deal treacherously, / and keep silence when the wicked devours / the man who is more righteous than he is?

14 You make men like the fish of the sea, /
like the creeping animals that have no ruler over them.

15 They take up all of them with the hook, / they catch them in their net / and gather them in their dragnet; / therefore, they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore, they sacrifice to their net / and burn incense to their dragnet, / because by them their portion is fat / and their food plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net / and not spare continually to slay the nations?

Chapter 2

To Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shown that he must wait by faith, 1-4. The judgment upon the Chaldean for insatiableness, 5-8, for covetousness, 9-11, for cruelty, 12-14, for drunkenness, 15-17, and for idolatry, 18-20.

1 I will stand upon my watch-post / and seat myself upon the tower. /
I will watch to see what he will say to me, / and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me and said, /
"Write the vision and make it plain upon tablets /
so that he may run who reads it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, /
but at the end it shall speak, and it will not lie. / Though it may linger, wait for it, / because it will surely come. It will not delay.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him, / but the just shall live by his faith.

5 And also, because he transgresses by wine, / he is a proud man and does not rest. /
He enlarges his desire like hell, / and is like death and cannot be satisfied. /
He gathers to himself all nations / and collects to himself all people.

6 Shall all these not take up a parable against him / and a taunting proverb against him / and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his / and to him who lades himself with thick clay! How long?'

7 Shall they not rise suddenly who bite you, / and awake who disturb you, / and you shall be plunder for them?

8 Because you have laid waste many nations, / all the remnant of the people shall lay you waste /
because of men’s blood /
and for the violence done to the land, /
to the city, and to all who dwell therein.

9 Woe to him who covets an evil gain for his house / to set his nest on high / to be delivered from the power of evil!

10 You have devised shame to your house / by cutting off many people /
and have sinned against your soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, / and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Woe to him who builds a town with blood / and establishes a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not from the LORD of hosts / that the people labor in the fire / and the people weary themselves for vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled / with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD /
as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, / pouring out your bottle to him, / and also making him drunk, /
so that you may look at their nakedness!

16 You are filled with shame and not glory. /
You shall also drink / and let your uncircumcision be uncovered. /
The cup of the LORD’S right hand / shall be turned to you, / and shameful vomiting shall be on your glory.

17 For the violence done to Lebanon / shall overwhelm you, / and the destruction of the beasts / shall make you afraid, /
because of men’s blood /
and for the violence done to the land, /
to the city, and to all who dwell therein.

18 What profit is the engraved image / when its maker has engraved it— / the molten image and a teacher of lies— / that the maker trusts in what he has formed, / making mute idols?

19 Woe to him who says to wood, 'Awake,' / and to a mute stone, 'Arise.' /
It shall teach! /
Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver / and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his holy temple. /
Let all the earth keep silence before him."

Chapter 3

Habakkuk, in his prayer, trembles at God’s majesty, 1-16. The confidence of his faith, 17-19.

1 [A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.]

2 O LORD, I have heard your speech and was afraid. /

O LORD, revive your work in the midst of the years. /
In the midst of the years make it known. /
In wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Teman, / and the Holy One from mount Paran. /
[Selah.]
His glory covered the heavens, / and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was like the light. /
He had rays coming out of his hand, / and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, / and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood and measured the earth. /
He beheld and drove apart the nations. /
The everlasting mountains were scattered / and the perpetual hills bowed. /
His ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction. /
And the curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

8 Was the LORD displeased with the rivers? /
Was your anger against the rivers? /
Was your wrath against the sea / that you rode upon your horses / and your chariots of salvation?

9 Your bow was made quite ready, / according to the oaths of the tribes, even your word. /
[Selah.]
You cleaved the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw you and they trembled. /
The overflowing of the water passed by. /
The deep uttered his voice / and lifted up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation. /
At the light of your arrows they went, / and at the shining of your glittering spear.

12 You marched through the land in indignation. /
You threshed the heathen in anger.

13 You went forth for the salvation of your people, / even for salvation with your anointed. /
You wounded the head of the house of the wicked /

by uncovering the foundation to the neck. /
[Selah.]

14 You struck through with his staffs /
the head of his villages. /
They came out like a whirlwind to scatter me, / rejoicing as if to devour the poor secretly.

15 You walked through the sea with your horses, / through the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled. /
My lips quivered at the voice. / Rottenness entered into my bones, / and I trembled in myself. /
I will rest in the day of trouble, / when he comes up to the people /
that he invades with his troops.

17 Though the fig-tree does not blossom / and no fruit is on the vines, / though the labor of the olive fails / and the fields yield no food, / though the flock is cut off from the fold /
and there is no herd in the stalls,

18 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD. /
I will be joyful in the God of my salvation.

19 The LORD God is my strength, / and he will make my feet like those of a doe / and make me to walk upon my high places.

The Word of the Lord to Zephaniah

Zephaniah | Σοφονίας | הינפצ

Chapter 1

The time when Zephaniah prophesied, 1. God’s severe judgments against Judah, 2-18.

1 [The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.]

2 "I will utterly consume all things / from off the land,"

says the LORD.

3 "I will consume man and beast. /
I will consume the birds of the heaven, /
the fish of the sea, /
and the stumbling-blocks with the wicked. /
And I will cut off man from off the land,"

says the LORD.

4 "I will also stretch out my hand upon Judah / and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. /
And I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, / and the name of the Chemarims with the priests,

5 And those who worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops, / and those who worship and who swear by the LORD, /
and who swear by Malcham,

6 And those who have turned back from the LORD, / and those who have not sought the LORD / nor inquired of him."

7 Hold your peace at the presence of the Lord GOD, /
for the day of the LORD is at hand. /
For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice. /
He has consecrated his guests.

8 "And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD’S sacrifice, / that I will punish the princes, the king’s children, / and all those who are clothed with foreign apparel.

9 In the same day I will also punish / all those who leap on the threshold, / who fill their masters' houses / with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day,"

says the LORD,

"that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish-gate, /
a howling from the second quarter, / and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, you inhabitants of Maktesh, / for all the merchant people are cut down. /
All those who bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, / that I will search Jerusalem with candles / and punish the men who are settled on their dregs, / who say in their heart, /
'The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.'

13 Therefore, their goods shall become plunder / and their houses a desolation. /
They shall also build houses, but not inhabit them. /
They shall plant vineyards, but not drink their wine."

14 The great day of the LORD is near, / it is near and hastens greatly, / even the voice of the day of the LORD. /
The mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, / a day of trouble and distress, /
a day of wasting and desolation, /
a day of darkness and gloominess, /
a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 And a day of the trumpet and alarm / against the fortified cities / and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men / so that they shall walk like blind men, /
because they have sinned against the LORD. /
And their blood shall be poured out like dust / and their flesh like dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold / shall be able to deliver them / in the day of the LORD’S wrath. /
But the whole land shall be devoured /
by the fire of his jealousy, / for he will make even a sudden end / of all those who dwell in the land.

Chapter 2

An exhortation to repentance, 1-3. The judgment of the Philistines, 4-7, of Moab and Ammon, 8-11, of Ethiopia, 12, and of Assyria, 13-15.

1 Assemble yourselves, yes, assemble, /
O nation not desired,

2 Before the decree brings forth, / before the day passes like chaff, / before the fierce anger of the LORD comes upon you, / before the day of the LORD’S anger comes upon you.

3 Seek the LORD, all you meek of the earth, / who have performed his judgment. /
Seek righteousness. Seek meekness. /
It may be that you will be hid / in the day of the LORD’S anger.

4 For Gaza shall be forsaken / and Ashkelon a desolation. /
They shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day / and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coasts, / the nation of the Cherethites! /
The word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, / the land of the Philistines: /
"I will even destroy you /
so that there shall be no inhabitant."

6 And the sea coast shall be pastures, / with cottages for shepherds / and folds for flocks.

7 And the coasts shall be / for the remnant of the house of Judah. /
They shall feed upon them. /
In the houses of Ashkelon / they shall lie down in the evening, / for the LORD their God will visit them / and turn away their captivity.

8 "I have heard the reproach of Moab / and the revilings of the children of Ammon /
by which they have reproached my people / and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore, as I live,"

says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,

"surely Moab shall be like Sodom / and the children of Ammon like Gomorrah, / even a place possessed by nettles and salt-pits / and a perpetual desolation. /
The remnant of my people shall lay them waste / and the remainder of my people shall possess them."

10 They shall have this for their pride, / because they have reproached and magnified themselves / against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible to them, /
for he will famish all the gods of the earth. /
And men shall worship him, each from his place, / even all the coastlands of the heathen.

12 "You Cushites also, / you shall be slain by my sword."

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north / and destroy Assyria, / and will make Nineveh a desolation / and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, / all the beasts of the nations. /
Both the cormorant and the bittern / shall lodge in its upper lintels. /
Their voice shall sing in the windows. /
Desolation shall be in the thresholds, / for he shall uncover the cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city / that dwelt in security, / that said in her heart, /
"I am, and there is no one besides me." /
How she has become a desolation, /
a place for beasts to lie down in! / Everyone who passes by her / shall hiss and wag his hand.

Chapter 3

A sharp reproof of Jerusalem for various sins, 1-7. An exhortation to wait for the restoration of Israel, 8-13, and to rejoice for their salvation by God, 14-20.

1 Woe to her who is filthy and polluted, / to the oppressing city!

2 She did not obey the voice. /
She did not receive correction. /
She did not trust in the LORD. /
She did not draw near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions. /
Her judges are evening wolves. /
They do not gnaw the bones until the next day.

4 Her prophets are unstable and treacherous persons. /
Her priests have polluted what is holy. /
They have done violence to the law.

5 The just LORD is in the midst of her. /
He will not do iniquity. /
Every morning he brings his judgment to light. /
He does not fail. /
But the unjust knows no shame.

6 "I have cut off the nations. /
Their towers are desolate. /
I made their streets waste /
so that no one passes by. / Their cities are destroyed /
so that there is no man, /
so that there is no inhabitant.

7 I said, 'Surely you will fear me and receive instruction. /
And her dwelling place shall not be destroyed / on account of everything in which I have visited her.' /
But they rose early and corrupted all their doings.

8 Therefore, wait for me,"

says the LORD,

"until the day that I rise up to the prey. /
For my determination is to gather the nations / so that I may assemble the kingdoms / to pour upon them my indignation, / even all my fierce anger, / for all the earth shall be devoured / with the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then I will restore to the people / a pure language / so that they may all call upon the name of the LORD /
to serve him with one consent.

10 From beyond the rivers of Cush my suppliants, / even the daughter of my dispersed, / shall bring my offering.

11 In that day you shall not be ashamed for all your doings / in which you have transgressed against me. /
For then I will take away out of the midst of you / those who rejoice in your pride, / and you shall no longer be haughty / because of my holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of you / an afflicted and poor people, / and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity / nor speak lies, / neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, / for they shall feed and lie down, /
and no one shall make them afraid."

14 Sing, O daughter of Zion. Shout, O Israel. /
Be glad and rejoice with all the heart, /
O daughter of Jerusalem.

15 The LORD has taken away your judgments. /
He has cast out your enemy. /
The King of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of you. /
You shall not see evil anymore.

16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, /
"Do not fear, O Zion. /
Do not let your hands be slack.

17 The LORD your God in the midst of you is mighty. /
He will save. /
He will rejoice over you with joy. /
He will rest in his love. /
He will joy over you with singing.

18 I will gather those among you / who are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, / to whom its reproach was a burden.

19 Behold, at that time /
I will deal with all who afflict you. /
And I will save her who is lame / and gather her who was driven out. /
And I will get them praise and fame /
in every land where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time I will bring you back, / even in the time that I gather you. / For I will make you a name and a praise / among all people of the earth / when I turn back your captivity before your eyes,"

says the LORD.

[Tanach reading: go to Haggai]

The Word of the Lord to Haggai

Haggai | Ἀγγαῖος | חגי

Chapter 1

The time when Haggai prophesied, 1. He reproves the people for neglecting the building of the house, 2-6. He incites them to the building, 7-11. He encourages them to set about the work, and on their doing so, promises that God will be with them, 12-15.

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying, 2 "Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying, 'This people says, "The time has not come, the time that the LORD’S house should be built."'" 3 Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 4 "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your ceiled houses and this house lie waste?" 5 Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: "Consider your ways. 6 You have sown much and bring in little. You eat, but you do not have enough. You drink, but you are not filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but there is no one warm. And he who earns wages, earns wages to put it into a bag with holes."

7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. Then I will take pleasure in it and I will be glorified," says the LORD. 9 "You looked for much, and behold, it came to little. And when you brought it home, I blew upon it. Why?" says the LORD of hosts. "Because of my house that lies waste, and each of you runs to his own house. 10 Therefore, for your sake the heavens withhold the dew and the earth withholds her fruit. 11 And I called for a drought upon the land, upon the mountains, upon the grain, upon the new wine, upon the oil, upon that which the ground brings forth, upon men, upon livestock, and upon all the labor of the hands."

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people feared before the LORD. 13 Then Haggai the LORD’S messenger spoke the LORD’S message to the people, saying, "'I am with you,' says the LORD." 14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came and performed work in the house of the LORD of hosts their God 15 On the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Chapter 2

He encourages the people to the work, by promise of greater glory to the second temple than was in the first, 1-9. In the type of holy things and unclean he shows their sins hindered the work, 10-19. God’s promise to Zerubbabel, 20-23.

1 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying, 2 "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, 3 'Who is left among you who saw this house in her first glory? And how do you see it now? Is it not in your eyes as nothing in comparison? 4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel,' says the LORD. 'Be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says the LORD. 'Work, for I am with you,' says the LORD of hosts. 5 'According to the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so my Spirit remains among you. Do not fear.' 6 For thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land. 7 And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come. And I will fill this house with glory,' says the LORD of hosts. 8 'The silver is mine and the gold is mine,' says the LORD of hosts. 9 'The glory of this latter house shall be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts. 'And in this place I will give peace,' says the LORD of hosts."

10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Ask the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 "If someone bears holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt touches bread, pottage, wine, oil, or any food, shall it be holy?"'" And the priests answered and said, "No." 13 Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean by a dead body touches any of these, shall it be unclean?" And the priests answered and said, "It shall be unclean." 14 Then Haggai answered and said, "'So is this people and so is this nation before me,' says the LORD, 'and so is every work of their hands. And that which they offer there is unclean. 15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day onward, before stone was laid upon stone in the temple of the LORD. 16 Since those days were, when someone came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When someone came to the press-vat to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were only twenty. 17 I smote you with blight, with mildew, and with hail in all the labors of your hands, yet you did not turn to me,' says the LORD. 18 'Consider now from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD'S temple was laid, consider it. 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? Indeed, the vine, the fig-tree, the pomegranate, and the olive-tree have not brought forth. From this day I will bless you.'"

20 And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, 21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. 22 I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen. I will overthrow the chariots and those who ride in them, and the horses and their riders shall come down, each by the sword of his brother. 23 In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'I will take you, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says the LORD, 'and will make you like a signet, for I have chosen you,' says the LORD of hosts."

The Word of the Lord to Zechariah

Zechariah | Ζαχαρίας | הירכז

Chapter 1

Zechariah exhorts to repentance, 1-6. The vision of the horses, 7-11. At the prayer of the angel comfortable promises are made to Jerusalem, 12-17. The vision of the four horns and the four craftsmen, 18-21.

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo, saying, 2 "The LORD has been greatly displeased with your fathers. 3 Therefore, say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Turn to me," says the LORD of hosts, "and I will turn to you," says the LORD of hosts. 4 "Do not be as your fathers, to whom the former prophets have cried, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Turn now from your evil ways and from your evil doings."' But they did not hear nor listen to me," says the LORD. 5 "Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6 But my words and my statutes which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? And they returned and said, 'As the LORD of hosts thought to do to us, according to our ways and according to our doings, so he has dealt with us.'"'"

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo, saying, 8 "I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the bottom, and behind him there were red, speckled, and white horses. 9 Then I said, 'O my lord, what are these?'" And the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are." 10 And the man who stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, "These are those whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro through the earth." 11 And they answered the angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle-trees and said, "We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sits still and is at rest."

12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, "O LORD of hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?" 13 And the LORD answered the angel who talked with me with good words and comforting words. 14 So the angel who spoke with me said to me, "Cry, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. 15 And I am very greatly displeased with the heathen who are at ease. For I was only a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction." 16 Therefore, thus says the LORD: "I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies. My house shall be built in it," says the LORD of hosts, "and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem."' 17 Cry again, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "My cities through prosperity shall again be spread abroad, and the LORD shall again comfort Zion and shall again choose Jerusalem."'"

18 Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold four horns. 19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" And he answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." 20 And the LORD showed me four craftsmen. 21 Then I said, "What are these coming to do?" And he spoke, saying, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah so that no man lifted up his head, but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the Gentiles which lifted their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it."

Chapter 2

God, in the care of Jerusalem, sends to measure it, 1-5. The redemption of Zion, 6-9. The promise of God's presence, 10-13.

1 I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 Then I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what its breadth is and what its length is." 3 And behold, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him 4 And said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. 5 For I,' says the LORD, 'will be to her a wall of fire on every side and will be the glory in the midst of her.'"

6 "Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north," says the LORD, "for I have spread you abroad like the four winds of the heaven," says the LORD. 7 "Deliver yourself, O Zion, who dwell with the daughter of Babylon." 8 For thus says the LORD of hosts: "After the glory he has sent me to the nations which wasted you, for he who touches you, touches the apple of his eye. 9 For behold, I will shake my hand upon them and they shall be plunder to their servants. And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me. 10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion. For behold, I come and I will dwell in the midst of you," says the LORD. 11 "And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day and shall be my people. And I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. 12 And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land and shall choose Jerusalem again.

13 "Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD, for he is raised up out of his holy habitation."

Chapter 3

Under the type of Joshua, the high priest, receiving clean garments, 1-5, and a covenant of promise, 6, 7, Christ the Branch and Corner Stone is promised, 8-10.

1 And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. 2 And the LORD said to Satan, "I, the LORD, rebuke you, O Satan. Even I, the LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you. Is this not a brand plucked out of the fire?" 3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments and stood before the angel. 4 And he answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And he said to him, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you and I will clothe you with costly clothing." 5 And I said, "Let them set a fair miter upon his head." So they set a fair miter upon his head and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD testified to Joshua, saying, 7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'If you will walk in my ways and if you will keep my charge, then you shall also judge my house and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you places to walk among these who stand by.

8 'Hear now, O Joshua the high priest—you and your fellows who sit before you—for they are men wondered at. For behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH. 9 For behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua, upon one stone shall be seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave an engraving on it,' says the LORD of hosts, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. 10 In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'each of you shall call his neighbor under the vine and under the fig-tree.'"

Chapter 4

By the golden candlestick is foreshown the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation, 1-10; by the two olive trees the two anointed ones, 11-14.

1 And the angel who talked with me came back and waked me, like a man who is wakened out of his sleep, 2 And said to me, "What do you see?" And I said, "I have looked, and behold, a candlestick, all of gold with a bowl on top of it, its seven lamps, and seven pipes to the seven lamps which were on top of it. 3 And there are two olive-trees by it: one upon the right side of the bowl and the other upon the left side." 4 So I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?" 5 Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord." 6 Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says the LORD of hosts. 7 'Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain. And he shall bring forth its head-stone with shoutings, crying, "Grace, grace to it."'"

8 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it. And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. 10 For who has despised the day of small things? For they shall rejoice and see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth."

11 Then I answered and said to him, "What are these two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon its left side?" 12 And I answered again and said to him, "What are these two olive branches, which through the two golden pipes, empty the golden oil out of themselves?" 13 And he answered me and said, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord." 14 Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

Chapter 5

By the flying scroll is shown the curse of thieves and swearers, 1-4; and by a woman pressed in an ephah the final judgment of wickedness, 5-11.

1 Then I turned, lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, a flying scroll. 2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" And I answered, "I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits and its breadth ten cubits." 3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes forth over the face of the whole earth. For everyone who steals shall be cut off according to this side, and everyone who swears shall be cut off according to that side. 4 I will bring it forth," says the LORD of hosts, "and it shall enter into the house of the thief and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name. And it shall remain in the midst of his house and shall consume it with its timber and its stones."

5 Then the angel who talked with me went forth and said to me, "Now lift up your eyes and see what this is that goes forth." 6 And I said, "What is it?" And he said, "This is an ephah that goes forth." He said moreover, "This is their resemblance through all the earth. 7 And behold, there was a talent of lead lifted up. And this is a woman who sits in the midst of the ephah." 8 And he said, "This is wickedness." And he cast it into the midst of the ephah, and he cast the weight of lead upon its mouth. 9 Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings, for they had wings like the wings of a stork. And they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. 10 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "To where do these bear the ephah?" 11 And he said to me, "To build a house in the land of Shinar for it. And it shall be established and set there upon her own base."

Chapter 6

The vision of the four chariots, 1-8. By the crowns of Joshua are shown the temple and kingdom of Christ the Branch, 9-15.

1 And I turned, lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of brass. 2 In the first chariot there were red horses, in the second chariot black horses, 3 In the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot grizzled and bay horses. 4 Then I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?" 5 And the angel answered and said to me, "These are the four spirits of the heavens which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. 6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country, the white go forth after them, the grizzled go forth toward the south country." 7 And the bay went forth and sought to go so that they might walk to and fro through the earth. And he said, "Go from here, walk to and fro through the earth." So they walked to and fro through the earth. 8 Then he cried out to me and spoke to me, saying, "Behold, these which go toward the north country have quieted my Spirit in the north country."

9 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 10 "Take from those who are in captivity, even from Heldai, from Tobijah, and from Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon, and come the same day and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah.

11 "And you shall take silver and gold and make crowns and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest. 12 And speak to him, saying, 'Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying, "Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH, and he shall grow up out of his place and he shall build the temple of the LORD. 13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD, and he shall bear the glory and shall sit and rule upon his throne. And he shall be a priest upon his throne. And the counsel of peace shall be between them both. 14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, to Tobijah, to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. 15 And those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."'"

Chapter 7

The captives inquire concerning the set fasts, 1-3. Zechariah reproves the hypocrisy of their fasting, 4-7. Sin is the cause of their captivity, 8-14.

1 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu, 2 When those of Beth-el had sent Sherezer, Regem-melech, and their men to pray before the LORD 3 And to speak to the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?" 4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 5 "Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests, saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did you at all fast to me, even to me? 6 And when you ate and when you drank, did you not eat for yourselves and drink for yourselves? 7 Should you not hear the words which the LORD has cried by the former prophets when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, along with her cities around her, and when men inhabited the south and the plain?'"

8 And the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying, 9 "Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying, 'Execute true judgment and show mercy and compassions each to his brother. 10 And do not oppress the widow, the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor, and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.' 11 But they refused to listen and withdrew the shoulder and stopped their ears so that they should not hear. 12 They even made their hearts like an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts has sent in his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore, a great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. 13 Therefore, it has come to pass, that as he cried and they would not hear, so they cried and I would not hear," says the LORD of hosts. 14 "But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they did not know. Thus the land was desolate after them so that no man passed through nor returned, for they laid the pleasant land desolate."

Chapter 8

The restoration of Jerusalem, 1-8. They are encouraged to build the temple by God’s favor to them, 9-15. Good works are required of them, 16, 17. Joy and enlargement are promised, 18-23.

1 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great fury.' 3 Thus says the LORD: 'I have returned to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And Jerusalem shall be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the Holy Mountain.' 4 Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Old men and old women shall again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for abundance of age. 5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.' 6 Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?' says the LORD of hosts. 7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Behold, I will save my people from the east country and from the west country, 8 And I will bring them and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.'

9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets who were in the day when the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, so that the temple might be built. 10 For before these days there was no hire for man nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in because of the enemy, for I sent forth all men each against his neighbor. 11 But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days,' says the LORD of hosts. 12 'For the seed shall be prosperous, the vine shall give her fruit, the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. 13 And it shall come to pass, that as you were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not fear. Let your hands be strong.'

14 "For thus says the LORD of hosts: 'As I thought to punish you when your fathers provoked me to wrath,' says the LORD of hosts, 'and I did not repent, 15 So again I have thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear. 16 These are the things that you shall do: each of you speak the truth to his neighbor, execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, 17 Let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath, for all these are things that I hate,' says the LORD."

18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 19 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'The fast of the fourth month, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth shall be joy, gladness, and cheerful feasts to the house of Judah; therefore, love the truth and peace.'

20 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'It shall come to pass, that people shall yet come, the inhabitants of many cities. 21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, "Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD and to seek the LORD of hosts. I will also go." 22 And many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem and to pray before the LORD.' 23 Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men out of all languages of the nations shall take hold, shall even take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, "We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you."'"

Chapter 9

God defends his church, 1-8. Zion is exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ and his peaceable kingdom, 9-11. God's promises of victory and defense, 12-17.

1 [A burden.]

The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach, / and Damascus shall be its resting place / (for the eyes of man and of all the tribes of Israel / shall be toward the LORD),

2 And also Hamath, which borders by it, / and Tyre and Zidon, because they are very wise.

3 And Tyre built herself a stronghold / and amassed silver like the dust /
and fine gold like the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her / and he will smite her power in the sea, / and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it and fear. /
Gaza shall also see it and be very sorrowful, / as will Ekron, for her expectation shall be ashamed. /
And the king shall perish from Gaza, / and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a foreigner shall dwell in Ashdod, / and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth / and his abominations from between his teeth. /
But he who remains, even he, shall be for our God, / and he shall be like a governor in Judah, / and Ekron shall be like a Jebusite.

8 And I will encamp around my house because of the army, / because of him who passes by, / and because of him who returns. /
And no oppressor shall pass through them anymore. /
For now I have seen with my eyes.

9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion. /
Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem. /
Behold, your King comes to you. /
He is just and having salvation, / lowly and riding upon a donkey, /
even upon a colt, the foal of a donkey.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim / and the horse from Jerusalem, / and the battle-bow shall be cut off. /
And he shall speak peace to the heathen. /
And his dominion shall be from sea to sea, /
and from the river to the ends of the earth.

11 As for you also, by the blood of your covenant /
I have sent forth your prisoners out of the pit /
in which there is no water.

12 Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope. /
Even today I declare that I will render double to you,

13 When I have bent Judah for me, / filled the bow with Ephraim, / and raised up your sons, O Zion, / against your sons, O Greece, / and made you like the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, / and his arrow shall go forth like the lightning. /
And the Lord GOD will blow the trumpet / and will go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts will defend them. /
They shall devour and subdue with sling-stones. /
They shall drink and make a noise as through wine. /
They shall be filled like bowls /
and like the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God will save them in that day / as the flock of his people, / for they shall be like the stones of a crown, / lifted up like an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great his goodness is / and how great his beauty is! / Grain shall make the young men cheerful, / and new wine the virgins.

Chapter 10

God is to be sought, and not idols, 1, 2. As he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them, 3-12.

1 Ask the LORD for rain / in the time of the latter rain. /
The LORD will make bright clouds / and give them showers of rain, / and to everyone grass in the field.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, / and the diviners have seen a lie. /
They have told false dreams. /
They comfort in vain. /
Therefore, they went their way like a flock. /
They were troubled because there was no shepherd.

3 "My anger was kindled against the shepherds, / and I punished the goats, / for the LORD of hosts has visited his flock, / the house of Judah, /
and has made them like his majestic horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, / out of him the nail, / out of him the battle-bow, / out of him every oppressor together.

5 And they shall be like mighty men / who tread down their enemies /
in the mire of the streets in the battle. /
And they shall fight because the LORD is with them. /
And the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 I will strengthen the house of Judah. /
I will save the house of Joseph. /
I will bring them back to place them, / for I have mercy upon them. /
And they shall be as though I had not cast them off, / for I am the LORD their God and will hear them.

7 And those of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, / and their heart shall rejoice as through wine. /
Even their children shall see it and be glad. /
Their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will hiss for them and gather them, / for I have redeemed them. /
And they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And I will sow them among the people, / and they shall remember me in remote countries. /
And they shall live with their children and turn back.

10 I will bring them back also out of the land of Egypt / and gather them out of Assyria. /
And I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, / and there shall not be enough space for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction / and shall smite the waves in the sea, / and all the deeps of the river shall dry up. /
And the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, / and the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD, / and they shall walk up and down in his name,"

says the LORD.

The destruction of Jerusalem, 1, 2. The elect being cared for, the rest are rejected, 3-9. The staffs of Beauty and Union broken by the rejection of Christ, 10-14. The type and curse of a foolish shepherd, 15-17.

1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, /
so that the fire may devour your cedars.

2 Howl, fir-tree, for the cedar has fallen, / because the mighty are laid waste. / Howl, O oaks of Bashan, / for the fortified forest has come down.

3 There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds, / for their glory is destroyed; /
a voice of the roaring of young lions, / for the pride of the Jordan is laid waste.

4 Thus says the LORD my God: "Feed the flock of the slaughter, 5 Whose possessors slay them and do not hold themselves guilty. And those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich.' And their own shepherds do not pity them. 6 For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD, "but behold, I will deliver the men each into his neighbor’s hand and into the hand of his king. And they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took for myself two staffs: one I called Beauty and the other I called Union. And I fed the flock. 8 I also cut off three shepherds in one month. My soul was impatient with them, and their soul also abhorred me. 9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die. And that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off. And let the rest eat the flesh of each other." 10 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it apart so that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. 11 And it was broken in that day. And so the poor of the flock who waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. 12 And I said to them, "If you think good, give me my price, and if not, forbear." So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. 13 And the LORD said to me, "Cast it to the potter, the substantial price at which I was prized by them." And I took the thirty pieces of silver and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD. 14 Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, so that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the instruments of a foolish shepherd. 16 For behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land who shall not visit those who are cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which stands still, but he shall eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooves in pieces.

> 17 "Woe to the idle shepherd / > who leaves the flock! /
> The sword shall be upon his arm /
> and upon his right eye. /
> His arm shall be wholly dried up, / > and his right eye shall be utterly darkened."

Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself, 1, 2, and a burdensome stone to her adversaries, 3-5. The victorious restoring of Judah, 6-9. The repentance of Jerusalem, 10-14.

1 [The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel.] Thus says the LORD who stretches forth the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him:

2 "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the people around, and it shall also be upon Judah in the siege against Jerusalem. 3 And in that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people. All who burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth are assembled against it. 4 In that day," says the LORD, "I will smite every horse with astonishment and his rider with madness. And I will open my eyes upon the house of Judah and will smite every horse of the people with blindness. 5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.'

10 "And I will pour upon the house of David and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and of supplications. And they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him as one mourns for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him as one who is in bitterness for his first-born. 11 In that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. 12 And the land shall mourn, every family separately: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves; 13 The family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and their wives by themselves; 14 All the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves."

2 "And it shall come to pass in that day," says the LORD of hosts, "that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land and they shall no longer be remembered. And I will also remove the prophets and the unclean spirit from the land. 3 And it shall come to pass, that if anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who begot him shall say to him, 'You shall not live, for you speak lies in the name of the LORD.' And his father and his mother who begot him shall thrust him through when he prophesies. 4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall each be ashamed of his vision when he has prophesied, and they shall not wear a rough garment to deceive, 5 But he shall say, 'I am no prophet. I am a tiller of the ground, for I have been made a servant from my youth.' 6 And someone shall say to him, 'What are these wounds between your hands?' Then he shall answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

> and against the man who is my fellow,"

says the LORD of hosts.

> "Smite the shepherd and the sheep shall be scattered. /

>
> 8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land,"

says the LORD,

but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, / and I will refine them as silver is refined / and try them as gold is tried. /

I will say, 'They are my people,' /

The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed, 1, 2. The coming of Christ and the graces of his kingdom, 3-11. The plague of Jerusalem's enemies, 12-15. The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 16-19 and there shall be universal holiness among them, 20, 21.

1 Behold, the day of the LORD comes, and your plunder shall be divided in the midst of you. 2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken, the houses plundered, and the women ravished. Half of the city shall go forth into captivity, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. 3 Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. 4 And his feet will stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east. And the Mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst of it toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley. Half of the mountain shall move toward the north and half of it toward the south. 5 And you shall flee to the valley of the mountains, for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal. Indeed, you shall flee as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. And the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with you.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, the bright ones shall withdraw themselves. 7 But it shall be one day which is known to the LORD, neither day nor night, but it shall come to pass, that at evening it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem: half of them toward the eastern sea and half of them toward the western sea. In summer and in winter it shall be.

9 And the LORD will be king over all the earth. In that day there will be one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem. And it shall be lifted up and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel to the king's wine-presses. 11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall no longer be utter destruction. And Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will smite all the people who have fought against Jerusalem: their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. 13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them, and they shall each lay hold upon the hand of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbor. 14 And Judah shall also fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the heathen around shall be collected: gold, silver, and apparel in great abundance. 15 And so the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, of the donkey, and of all the beasts that will be in these tents, shall be as this plague.

16 And it shall come to pass, that everyone who is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. 17 And it shall be, that whoever will not come up of all the families of the earth to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there shall be no rain upon them. 18 And if the family of Egypt shall not go up and shall not come, they shall have no rain. There the plague shall be, with which the LORD will smite the heathen who do not come up to keep the feast of tabernacles. 19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all nations that do not come up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses, "HOLINESS TO THE LORD," and the pots in the LORD’S house shall be like the bowls before the altar. 21 Even every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness to the LORD of hosts. And all those who sacrifice shall come and take some of them and boil in them. And in that day the Canaanite shall no longer be in the house of the LORD of hosts.

Chapter 1

The great and free favor which God had manifested to the Israelites, 1-5. Their irreligiousness and profaneness, 6-14.

1 [The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.]

2 "I have loved you," says the LORD. Yet you say, "In what have you loved us?" "Was Esau not Jacob’s brother?" says the LORD. "Yet I loved Jacob, 3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the jackals of the wilderness." 4 Whereas Edom says, "We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places," thus says the LORD of hosts: "They shall build, but I will throw down, and they shall call them, 'The Border of Wickedness,' and, 'The People Against Whom the LORD Has Indignation Forever.'" 5 And your eyes shall see, and you shall say, "The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel."

6 "'A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear?' says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name." And you say, "In what have we despised your name?" 7 "You offer polluted bread upon my altar." But you say, "In what have we polluted you?" In that you say, "The table of the LORD is contemptible." 8 "And if you offer the blind for sacrifice, 'It is not evil!' And if you offer the lame and sick, 'It is not evil!' Offer it now to your governor. Will he be pleased with you or accept your person?" says the LORD of hosts. 9 "And now, I pray you, implore God that he will be gracious to us. This has been by your means. Will he regard your person?" says the LORD of hosts. 10 "Oh that there were one of you who would shut the doors so that you would not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says the LORD of hosts, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. 11 For from the rising of the sun even to the setting of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles and in every place incense shall be offered to my name, even a pure offering, for my name shall be great among the heathen," says the LORD of hosts. 12 "But you have profaned it, in that you say, 'The table of the LORD is polluted, and its fruit, even his provision, is contemptible.' 13 You also said, 'Behold, what a weariness it is!' And you have snuffed at it," says the LORD of hosts, "and you brought that which was torn, the lame, and the sick. Thus you brought an offering. Should I accept this from your hand?" says the LORD. 14 "But cursed is the deceiver who has in his flock a male, and vows and sacrifices to the Lord a corrupt thing. For I am a great King," says the LORD of hosts, "and my name is dreadful among the heathen."

Chapter 2

He sharply reproves the priests for neglecting their covenant, 1-9; and the people for marrying strange wives, 10-12; and for putting away their former ones, 13-16; and for infidelity, 17.

1 "And now, O priests, this commandment is for you. 2 If you will not hear and if you will not lay it to heart to give glory to my name," says the LORD of hosts, "I will even send a curse upon you and I will curse your blessings. I have even cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. 3 Behold, I will rebuke your offspring and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts, and you shall be taken away with it. 4 And you shall know that I have sent this commandment to you, so that my covenant might be with Levi," says the LORD of hosts. 5 "My covenant was with him of life and peace. And I gave them to him so that he would fear me. And he feared me and stood in awe of my name. 6 The law of truth was in his mouth and iniquity was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and equity and turned many away from iniquity. 7 For the priest’s lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. 8 But you have departed out of the way. You have caused many to stumble at the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says the LORD of hosts. 9 "Therefore, I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as you have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law."

10 Have we not all one father? Has one God not created us? Why do we each deal treacherously against his brother by profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem, for Judah has profaned the holiness of the LORD whom he loved and has married the daughter of a strange god. 12 The LORD will cut off the man who does this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to the LORD of hosts.

13 And this you have done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, because he does not regard the offering anymore or receive it with good will at your hand. 14 Yet you say, "Why?" Because the LORD has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously. Yet she is your companion and the wife of your covenant. 15 And did he not make them one, having in him the remnant of the Spirit? And why one? So that he might seek a godly offspring. Therefore, take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. 16 "For I hate putting away," says the LORD, the God of Israel, "and the one who covers violence with his garment," says the LORD of hosts. "Therefore, take heed to your spirit so that you do not deal treacherously."

17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, "In what have we wearied him?" When you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them," or, "Where is the God of judgment?"

Chapter 3

Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ, 1-6. Of the rebellion, 7, sacrilege, 8-12, and infidelity of the people, 13-15. The promise of blessing to those who fear God, 16-18.

1 "Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom you delight in. Behold, he will come," says the LORD of hosts. 2 But who may endure the day of his coming? And who shall stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner’s fire and like fuller’s soap. 3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi and purge them like gold and silver so that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness. 4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old and as in former years.

5 "And I will come near to you for judgment and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against false swearers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who turn aside the stranger from his right and do not fear me," says the LORD of hosts. 6 "For I am the LORD and I do not change; therefore, you sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 "Even from the days of your fathers you have gone away from my ordinances and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts. "But you said, 'In what shall we return?'

8 "Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed me. But you say, 'In what have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. 9 You are cursed with a curse, for you have robbed me—even this whole nation. 10 Bring all the tithes into the store-house, so that there may be food in my house, and prove me now with this," says the LORD of hosts, "if I will not open to you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing so that there shall not be room enough to receive it. 11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground, neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field," says the LORD of hosts. 12 "And all nations shall call you blessed, for you shall be a delightful land," says the LORD of hosts.

13 "Your words have been stout against me," says the LORD. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken so much against you?' 14 You have said, 'It is vain to serve God. And what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? 15 And now we call the proud happy. Even those who work wickedness are built up. Even those who test God are delivered.'"

16 Then those who feared the LORD spoke often to one another. And the LORD listened and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for those who feared the LORD and who esteemed his name. 17 "And they shall be mine," says the LORD of hosts, "even my own peculiar treasure, in the day that I prepare. And I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him." 18 Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve him.

Chapter 4

God’s judgment on the wicked, 1; and his blessing on the good, 2, 3. He exhorts to the study of the law, 4; and tells of Elijah’s coming and office, 5, 6.

1 "For behold, the day comes that shall burn like an oven, and all the proud and all who do wickedly shall be stubble. And the day that comes shall burn them up," says the LORD of hosts, "so that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. 2 But to you who fear my name, the Sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in his wings, and you shall go forth and grow up like calves of the stall. 3 And you shall tread down the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day which I am preparing," says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Remember the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

5 "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. 6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse."

The Gospel According to Matthew

Matthew | Κατὰ Ματθαῖον

Chapter 1

The genealogy of Christ from Abraham, to David, to Joseph showing him to be the King of the Jews, 1-17. He is miraculously conceived through the Holy Spirit by the virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph, 18. The angel satisfies the doubts of Joseph and declares the names and office of Christ; Jesus is born, 19-25.

1 [The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.]

2 Abraham begot Isaac, Isaac begot Jacob, Jacob begot Judah and his brothers, 3 Judah begot Pharez and Zarah by Tamar, Pharez begot Hezron, Hezron begot Ram, 4 Ram begot Amminadab, Amminadab begot Nahshon, Nahshon begot Salmon, 5 Salmon begot Boaz by Rahab, Boaz begot Obed by Ruth, Obed begot Jesse, 6 Jesse begot David the king, David the king begot Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah, 7 Solomon begot Rehoboam, Rehoboam begot Abijah, Abijah begot Asa, 8 Asa begot Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat begot Joram, Joram begot Uzziah, 9 Uzziah begot Jotham, Jotham begot Ahaz, Ahaz begot Hezekiah, 10 Hezekiah begot Manasseh, Manasseh begot Amon, Amon begot Josiah, 11 And Josiah begot Jechoniah and his brothers about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechoniah begot Shealtiel, Shealtiel begot Zerubbabel, 13 Zerubbabel begot Abiud, Abiud begot Eliakim, Eliakim begot Azor, 14 Azor begot Zadok, Zadok begot Achim, Achim begot Eliud, 15 Eliud begot Eleazar, Eleazar begot Matthan, Matthan begot Jacob, 16 And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations, and from the carrying away into Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations.

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was in this manner: When his mother, Mary, was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child by the Holy Spirit. 19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man and not willing to make her a public example, purposed to put her away privately. 20 But while he thought on these things, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take for yourself Mary as your wife. For that which is conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. 21 And she shall bring forth a son, and you shall call his name JESUS, for he shall save his people from their sins." 22 Now all this was done so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken from the Lord by the prophet, saying,

> 23 "Behold, the virgin shall be with child and shall bring forth a son, > and they shall call his name Immanuel," which being interpreted is, "God with us." 24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him and took for himself his wife 25 And did not know her until she had brought forth her first-born son. And he called his name JESUS.

Chapter 2

The wise men from the east inquire about Christ, 1, 2; at which Herod is alarmed, 3-8. They are directed by a star to Bethlehem, worship him, and offer their presents, 9-12. Joseph flees into Egypt with Jesus and Mary, 13-15. Herod slays the children, 16-19; Herod dies, 20-22. Christ is brought to Nazareth in Galilee, 23.

1 Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men came from the east to Jerusalem, 2 Saying, "Where is he who is born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the east and have come to worship him." 3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 And when he had assembled all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where Christ should be born. 5 And they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet:

> 6 'And you Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, / > are not the least among the princes of Judah, / > for out of you a Governor shall come, / > who shall rule my people Israel.'"

7 Then Herod, when he had privately called the wise men, learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the young child. And when you have found him, report back to me so that I too may come and worship him." 9 When they had heard the king, they departed. And behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them until it came and stood over where the young child was. 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. 11 And when they had come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, fell down, and worshiped him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. 12 And being warned by God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appears to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise, take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt. Stay there until I bring you word, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him."

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night and departed into Egypt, 15 And was there until the death of Herod, so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken from the Lord by the prophet, saying,

> "Out of Egypt I have called my son."

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent forth and slew all the children who were in Bethlehem and in all its borders, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had ascertained from the wise men. 17 Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

> 18 "In Ramah there was a voice heard, / > lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, /
> Rachel weeping for her children, /
> and would not be comforted, because they are no more."

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appears in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, "Arise, and take the young child and his mother and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child’s life are dead." 21 And he arose and took the young child and his mother and came into the land of Israel. 22 But when he heard that Archelaus reigned in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee. 23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

Chapter 3

John preaches; his office, life, and baptism, 1-6. He reproves the Pharisees, 7-12, and baptizes Christ in the Jordan, 13-17.

1 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea 2 And saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." 3 For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying,

> "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, /
> 'Prepare the way of the Lord. /
> Make his paths straight.'"

4 And the same John had his clothing of camel’s hair and a leather girdle around his loins. And his food was locusts and wild honey. 5 Then Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him 6 And were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said to them, "O generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Therefore, bring forth fruits worthy of repentance. 9 And do not think to say within yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father.' For I say to you, that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. 10 And now the ax is also laid to the root of the trees; therefore, every tree which does not bring forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire.

11 "I indeed baptize you with water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I am, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear. He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. 12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his floor and gather his wheat into the granary, but he will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire."

13 Then Jesus comes from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, "I have need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?" 15 And Jesus answering said to him, "Allow it to be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up immediately out of the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him. 17 And behold, a voice came from heaven, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Chapter 4

Christ, fasting forty days, is tempted by the devil and ministered to by angels, 1-11. He dwells in Capernaum, 12-16; begins to preach, 17; calls Peter and Andrew, 18-20, James and John, 21, 22; teaches and heals all the diseased, 23-25.

1 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward hungry. 3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, "If you are the son of God, command that these stones be made bread." 4 But he answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.'"

5 Then the devil takes him up into the holy city, sets him on a pinnacle of the temple, 6 And says to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down, for it is written,

> 'He shall give his angels charge concerning you. /
> And in their hands they shall uphold you, / > lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone.'"

7 Jesus said to him, "It is written again, 'You shall not test the Lord your God.'"

8 Again, the devil takes him up upon an exceedingly high mountain, shows him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, 9 And says to him, "All these things I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." 10 Then Jesus says to him, "Be gone, Satan, for it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.'" 11 Then the devil leaves him, and behold, angels came and ministered to him.

12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee. 13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 So that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, / toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, /
Galilee of the Gentiles—

16 The people who sat in darkness / saw great light. /
And to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, / light has arisen."

17 From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

18 And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. 19 And he says to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." 20 And they immediately left their nets and followed him. 21 And going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in a boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. 22 And they immediately left the boat and their father and followed him.

23 And Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame spread throughout all Syria. And they brought to him all sick people who were taken with various diseases and torments, those who were possessed with demons, those who were lunatic, and those who were paralyzed, and he healed them. 25 And great multitudes of people followed him from Galilee, from Decapolis, from Jerusalem, from Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 5

Christ's sermon on the mount, 1, 2. Those who are blessed, 3-12; the salt of the earth, 13; the light of the world, 14-16. He came to fulfill the law, 17-20. What it is to murder, 21-26; to commit adultery, 27-32; to swear, 33-37. He exhorts to not be revengeful, 38-42; to love our enemies, 43-47; and to labor after perfection, 48.

1 And seeing the multitudes, he ascended a mountain. And when he was seated, his disciples came to him. 2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peace-makers, for they shall be called children of God.

10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 "Blessed are you when men revile you, persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake. 12 Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for your reward in heaven is great. For thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

13 "You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt has lost its savor, with what shall it be salted? It is thereafter good for nothing, but to be cast out and to be trodden under foot by men.

14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. 15 Men do not light a candle and put it under a basket, but on a candlestick. Then it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light thus shine before men so that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

17 "Do not think that I have come to destroy the law or the prophets. I have not come to destroy, but to fulfill. 18 For truly I say to you, that until heaven and earth pass away, neither one jot nor one tittle shall in any way pass from the law until all is fulfilled. 19 Whoever therefore breaks one of these least commandments and teaches men to do so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 "For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 "You have heard that it was said to them of old time, 'You shall not murder,' and whoever murders shall be in danger of the judgment. 22 But I say to you, that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be in danger of the council. And whoever says, 'You fool,' shall be in danger of hell-fire. 23 Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar and there remember that your brother has anything against you, 24 Leave your gift there before the altar and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. 25 Agree with your adversary quickly while you are in the way with him, lest at any time the adversary deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison. 26 Truly, I say to you, you shall by no means come out from there until you have paid the uttermost quadrans.

27 "You have heard that it was said to them of old time, 'You shall not commit adultery.' 28 But I say to you, that whoever looks at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart. 29 And if your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you. For it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish than for your whole body to be cast into hell. 30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you. For it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish than for your whole body to be cast into hell.

31 "It has been said, 'Whoever puts away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement.' 32 But I say to you, that whoever puts away his wife, except for the cause of lewdness, causes her to commit adultery. And whoever marries her who is divorced, commits adultery.

33 "Again, you have heard that it has been said to them of old time, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord your oaths.' 34 But I say to you, do not swear at all, neither by heaven, for it is God's throne, 35 Nor by the earth, for it is his footstool, neither by Jerusalem, for it is 'the city of the great King,' 36 Neither shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 But let your communication be, 'Yes, yes,' or, 'No, no.' For whatever is more than these comes from the evil one.

38 "You have heard that it has been said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.' 39 But I say to you, that you do not resist him who is evil. But whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. 40 And if any man wants to sue you and take away your coat, let him have your cloak also. 41 And whoever constrains you to go one mile, go with him two. 42 Give to him who asks you, and from him who would borrow from you, do not turn away.

43 "You have heard that it has been said, '"You shall love your neighbor," and hate your enemy.' 44 But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who despitefully use you and persecute you, 45 So that you may be the children of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do the tax collectors not even do the same? 47 And if you salute your brothers only, what do you do more than others? Do the tax collectors not even do so? 48 Therefore, be perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect."

Chapter 6

Christ continues his sermon on the mount, exhorting not to be careful for worldly things, 1-32, but to seek God's kingdom, 33, 34.

1 "Take heed that you do not practice your righteousness before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise, you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

2 "Therefore, when you do your acts of charity, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets so that they may have glory from men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward. 3 But when you do acts of charity, do not let your left hand know what your right hand does, 4 So that your acts of charity may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

5 "And when you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites are. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets so that they may be seen by men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward. 6 But you, when you pray, enter into your inner room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

7 "But when you pray, do not use vain repetitions as the heathen do, for they think that they shall be heard for their excessive speaking. 8 Therefore, do not be like them, for your Father knows what things you need before you ask him. 9 "Therefore, pray after this manner:

'Our Father who is in heaven, /
may your name be hallowed.

10 May your kingdom come. /
May your will be done /
on earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, /
as we forgive our debtors.

13 And do not lead us into temptation, /
but deliver us from evil. /
For yours is the kingdom, the power, / and the glory forever. Amen.'

14 "For, if you forgive men for their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 But if you do not forgive men for their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 "Moreover, when you fast, do not be of a sad countenance like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so that they may appear to men to fast. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward. 17 But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face 18 So that you may not appear to men to fast, but to your Father, who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

19 "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust corrupt and where thieves break through and steal. 20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust corrupt and where thieves do not break through nor steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will also be.

22 "The light of the body is the eye. Therefore, if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. Therefore, if the light that is in you is darkness, how great that darkness is!

24 "No man can serve two masters, for either he will hate one and love the other, or else he will hold to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

25 "Therefore, I say to you, do not be anxious for your life—what you shall eat or what you shall drink; nor yet for your body—what you shall put on. Is the life not more than food and the body than clothing? 26 Behold the birds of the air: they do not sow, neither do they reap nor gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much better than they are? 27 Which of you by anxious care can add one cubit to his stature? 28 And why are you anxious for clothing? Consider the lilies of the field and how they grow: they do not toil, neither do they spin, 29 And yet I say to you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 Therefore, if God likewise clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is cast into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? 31 Therefore, do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or, 'What shall we drink?' or, 'With what shall we be clothed?' 32 For after all these things the Gentiles seek, and your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

34 "Therefore, do not be anxious for the next day, for the next day will be solicitous for the things of itself. Sufficient for each day is its own evil."

Chapter 7

Christ, continuing his sermon on the mount, reproves rash judgment, etc., 1-27. Christ ends his sermon, and the people are astonished, 28, 29.

1 "Do not judge so that you may not be judged. 2 For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged. And the measure which you give shall be measured back to you. 3 And why do you behold the mote that is in your brother’s eye, but do not consider the beam that is in your own eye? 4 Or how will you say to your brother, 'Let me pull the mote out of your eye,' and behold, a beam is in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first cast the beam out of your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to cast the mote out of your brother’s eye.

6 "Do not give that which is holy to dogs, neither cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet and turn again and rend you.

7 "Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and the door shall be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks, receives, and he who seeks, finds, and to him who knocks, the door shall be opened. 9 Or what man is there of you, who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone, 10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? 11 If you then being evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him?

12 "Therefore, in all things whatever you wish that men should do to you, do even so to them, for this is the law and the prophets.

13 "Enter in at the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. 14 But the gate is narrow and the way is confined which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

15 "Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 You shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorns or figs from thistles? 17 Likewise, every good tree brings forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire. 20 Therefore, you shall know them by their fruits.

21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in your name, and in your name cast out demons, and in your name done many wonderful works?' 23 And then I will profess to them, 'I never knew you. "Depart from me, you who work iniquity."'

24 "Therefore, whoever hears these sayings of mine and does them, I will compare him to a wise man who built his house upon a rock. 25 And the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, and it did not fall, for it was founded upon a rock. 26 And everyone who hears these sayings of mine and does not do them shall be compared to a foolish man who built his house upon the sand. 27 And the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, and it fell, and its fall was great."

28 And it came to pass when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at his doctrine, 29 For he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.

[v.23]: Psalm 6:8.[LXX] (paraphrased)

Chapter 8

Christ cleanses the leper, 1-4; heals the centurion's servant, 5-13, Peter's mother-in-law, 14, 15, and many other diseased, 16, 17; shows how he is to be followed, 18-22; stills the tempest on the sea, 23-27; drives the demons out of two possessed men, 28-30; and allows them to go into the swine, 31-34.

1 When he had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. 2 And behold, a leper came and worshiped him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean." 3 And Jesus put forth his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4 And Jesus says to him, "See that you tell no man, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded for a testimony to them."

5 And when Jesus had entered into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, imploring him 6 And saying, "Lord, my servant lies at home paralyzed, grievously tormented." 7 And Jesus says to him, "I will come and heal him." 8 The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof. But speak the word only, and my servant will be healed. 9 For I am a man under authority and have soldiers under me. And I say to this man, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." 10 When Jesus heard it, he marveled and said to those who followed, "Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith as this, not even in Israel. 11 And I say to you, that many shall come from the east and the west and shall sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. 12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 13 And Jesus said to the centurion, "Depart, and as you have believed, so it shall be done to you." And his servant was healed in the same hour.

14 And when Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying and sick with a fever. 15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she arose and ministered to them. 16 When the evening had come, they brought to him many who were possessed with demons. And he cast out the spirits with his word and healed all who were sick 17 So that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses."

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes around him, he gave commandment to depart to the other side. 19 And a certain scribe came and said to him, "Master, I will follow you wherever you go." 20 And Jesus says to him, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head." 21 And another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father." 22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead."

23 And when he had entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. 24 And behold, there arose a great tempest on the sea so that the boat was covered with the waves. But he was asleep. 25 And his disciples came to him and awoke him, saying, "Lord, save us. We perish." 26 And he says to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then he arose, rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. 27 But the men marveled, saying, "What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

28 And when he had come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, two men possessed with demons met him, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce so that no man might pass by that way. 29 And behold, they cried out, saying, "What have we to do with you, Jesus, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" 30 And there was a good way off from them a herd of many swine feeding. 31 So the demons implored him, saying, "If you expel us, allow us to go away into the herd of swine." 32 And he said to them, "Go." And when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine. And behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea and perished in the waters. 33 And those who kept them fled, went into the city, and told everything, including what had befallen to the men possessed with demons. 34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they implored him that he would depart out of their borders.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.17]: Isaiah 53:4.

Chapter 9

Christ cures someone of paralysis, 1-8; calls Matthew from the receipt of custom, 9; eats with tax collectors and sinners, 10-13; defends his disciples for not fasting, 14-19; cures the bloody issue, 20-22; raises from death Jairus' daughter, 23-26; gives sight to two blind men, 27-31; heals a mute man possessed with a demon, 32-35; and has compassion on the multitude, 36-38.

1 And he entered into a boat, passed over, and came into his own city. 2 And behold, they brought to him a paralyzed man lying on a bed. And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, be of good cheer. Your sins are forgiven." 3 And behold, some of the scribes said within themselves, "This man blasphemes." 4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? 5 For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Arise, and walk'? 6 But so that you may know that the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins"—then he says to the paralytic—"Arise, take up your bed, and go to your house." 7 And he arose and departed to his house. 8 But when the multitude saw it, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such power to men.

9 And as Jesus was passing from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the receipt of custom. And he says to him, "Follow me." And he arose and followed him.

10 And it came to pass as Jesus sat at the table in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, "Why does your Master eat with tax collectors and sinners?" 12 But when Jesus heard that, he said to them, "Those who are in health do not need a physician, but those who are sick do. 13 But go and learn what this means: 'I will have mercy and not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

14 Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?" 15 And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken from them, and then they will fast. 16 No man puts a patch of new cloth to an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up, takes from the garment, and the rent is made worse. 17 Men do not put new wine into old bottles, or else the bottles break, the wine runs out, and the bottles perish. But they put new wine into new bottles and both are preserved."

18 While he was speaking these things to them, behold, a certain ruler came and worshiped him, saying, "My daughter is even now dead. But come and lay your hand upon her and she will live." 19 And Jesus arose and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 (And behold, a woman who was diseased with an issue of blood for twelve years came behind him and touched the hem of his garment. 21 For she said within herself, "If I only touch his garment, I shall be whole." 22 But Jesus turned himself around, and when he saw her, he said, "Daughter, be of good comfort. Your faith has made you whole." And the woman was made whole from that hour.)

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler’s house and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said to them, "Give place, for the girl is not dead, but sleeps." And they derided him. 25 But when the people were put forth, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose. 26 And the fame of this went abroad into all that land.

27 And when Jesus departed from there, two blind men followed him, crying and saying, "Son of David, have mercy on us." 28 And when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him. And Jesus says to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord." 29 Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith, it shall be done to you." 30 Then their eyes were opened, and Jesus strictly charged them, saying, "See that no man knows it." 31 But they, when they had departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a mute man possessed with a demon. 33 And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, "Nothing has ever been seen like this in Israel." 34 But the Pharisees said, "He casts out demons through the prince of the demons."

35 And Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them because they fainted and were scattered abroad like sheep having no shepherd. 37 Then he says to his disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. 38 Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth laborers into his harvest."

Old Testament Quotes

[v.13]: Hosea 6:6.

Chapter 10

Christ sends out his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do miracles, 1-4; giving them their charge, teaches them, 5-15; comforts them against persecutions, 16-39; and promises a blessing to those who receive them, 40-42.

1 And when he had called his twelve disciples to him, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; 3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alpheus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus; 4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth and commanded them, saying, "Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter into any city of the Samaritans. 6 But rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And as you go, proclaim, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' 8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, and cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. 9 Provide neither gold, silver, nor brass in your purses, 10 Nor bag for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor a staff, for the workman is worthy of his food. 11 And into whatever city or town you enter, inquire who in it is worthy and abide there until you go from there. 12 And when you come into a house, salute it. 13 And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And whoever does not receive you or hear your words, when you depart from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. 15 Truly, I say to you, it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that city.

16 "Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves; therefore, be as wise as serpents and as innocent as doves. 17 But beware of men, for they will deliver you to the councils and they will scourge you in their synagogues. 18 And you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. 19 But when they deliver you up, do not be anxious of how or what you shall speak, for it shall be given to you in that same hour what you shall speak. 20 For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

21 "And brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father the child. And the children will rise up against their parents and cause them to be put to death. 22 And you will be hated by all men for my name's sake. But he who endures to the end shall be saved.

23 "But when they persecute you in this city, flee into another. For truly I say to you, you shall not have gone over the cities of Israel until the Son of man has come.

24 "The disciple is not above his teacher, nor the servant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he should be like his teacher, and the servant like his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more those of his household?

26 "Do not fear them therefore, for there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, or hidden that shall not be known. 27 What I tell you in darkness, speak in the light. And what you hear in the ear, publish it upon the house-tops. 28 And do not fear those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. But rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. 29 Are two sparrows not sold for an assarion? And not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father. 30 But every hair on your head has been numbered. 31 Do not fear therefore. You are of more value than many sparrows.

32 "Whoever therefore confesses me before men, I will also confess him before my Father who is in heaven. 33 But whoever denies me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in heaven.

34 "Do not think that I have come to send peace on earth. I did not come to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I have come to 'set a man at variance against his father, the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.' 36 And 'a man's foes will be those of his own household.'

37 "He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me. And he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. 39 He who finds his life shall lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake shall find it.

40 "He who receives you, receives me, and he who receives me, receives him who sent me. 41 He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward, and he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And whoever gives a drink to one of these little ones, merely a cup of cold water, in the name of a disciple, truly, I say to you, he shall in no way lose his reward."

Chapter 11

John sends his disciples to Christ, 1-6. Christ's testimony concerning John, 7-15. The perverse judgment of the people, 16-19. Christ upbraids Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum, 20-24; and praising his Father's wisdom in revealing the Gospel to the simple. 25-27, he calls to him all such as feel the burden of their sins, 28-30.

1 And it came to pass when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, that he departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples 3 And said to him, "Are you he who should come, or do we look for another?" 4 Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and report to John those things which you hear and see: 5 'The blind receive their sight,' 'the lame walk,' the lepers are cleansed, 'the deaf hear,' the dead are raised, and 'the poor have the gospel preached to them.' 6 And blessed is he to whom I shall not be the cause of his falling into sin."

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? 8 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. 9 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. 10 "For this is he concerning whom it is written,

> 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face /
> who shall prepare your way before you.'

11 "Truly, I say to you, among those who are born of women, there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist, yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he is. 12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 And if you will receive it, this is Elijah who was to come. 15 He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

16 "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the markets and calling to their fellows 17 And saying,

> 'We have piped to you, /
> and you have not danced. /
> We have mourned to you, /
> and you have not lamented.'

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' 19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.' But wisdom is justified by her children."

20 Then he began to reproach the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done because they did not repent. 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I say to you, it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. 23 And you, Capernaum, which are exalted to heaven, shall be brought down to hell. For if the mighty works which have been done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. 24 But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment than for you."

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hid these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babies. 26 Indeed, Father, for thus it seemed good in your sight. 27 All things are delivered to me by my Father. And no man knows the Son except the Father, neither does any man know the Father except the Son and he to whomever the Son will reveal him.

28 "Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me. For I am meek and lowly in heart, 'and you shall find rest for your souls.' 30 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Chapter 12

Christ reproves the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the breach of the sabbath, 1, 2, by scripture, 3-8, by reason, 9-12, and by a miracle, 13-21. He heals a possessed man who was blind and mute, 22, 23; disproves the absurd charge of casting out demons by Beelzebub, 25-30; shows that blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall never be forgiven, 31, 32. The tree is known by its fruit, 33-35. Account shall be made of idle words, 36, 37. He rebukes the unfaithful who seek after a sign, 38-45, and shows who is his brother, sister, and mother, 46-50.

1 At that time Jesus went through the grain-fields on the sabbath, and his disciples were hungry and began to pluck the heads of grain and to eat. 2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, "Behold, your disciples do that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath." 3 But he said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he and those who were with him were hungry, 4 How he entered into the house of God and ate the show-bread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests? 5 Or have you not read in the law, that on the sabbath the priests in the temple profane the sabbath and are blameless? 6 But I say to you, that in this place is one greater than the temple. 7 But if you had known what this means, 'I will have mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless. 8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath."

9 And when he had departed from there, he went into their synagogue. 10 And behold, there was a man who had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath?" so that they might accuse him. 11 And he said to them, "What man is there among you who has a sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the sabbath, will not lay hold upon it and lift it out? 12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Therefore, it is lawful to do good on the sabbath days." 13 Then he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored to a sound state like the other. 14 Then the Pharisees went out and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from there. And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all. 16 And he charged them that they should not make him known 17 So that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

> 18 "Behold, my servant, whom I have chosen, /
> my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased. /
> I will put my Spirit upon him, /
> and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles.
>
> 19 He shall not contend nor cry, /
> neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.
>
> 20 A bruised reed he shall not break / > and smoking flax he shall not quench / > until he sends forth judgment to victory.
> 21 And in his name the Gentiles shall trust."

22 Then someone was brought to him possessed with a demon, blind and mute, and he healed him so that the blind and mute both spoke and saw. 23 And all the people were amazed and said, "Is this not the son of David?" 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This man does not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub the prince of the demons."

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand. 26 And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then shall his kingdom stand? 27 And if I, by Beelzebub, cast out demons, by whom do your children expel them? Therefore, they shall be your judges. 28 But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. 29 Or else, how can one enter into a strong man’s house and seize his goods unless he first binds the strong man? Then he will plunder his house.

30 "He who is not with me, is against me, and he who does not gather with me, scatters abroad.

31 "Therefore, I say to you, for all manner of sin and blasphemy men shall be forgiven, but for the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit men shall not be forgiven. 32 And whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven, neither in this world nor in the world to come.

33 "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree corrupt and its fruit corrupt, for the tree is known by its fruit. 34 O generation of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, brings forth good things, and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, brings forth evil things. 36 But I say to you, that for every idle word that men speak, they shall give account on the day of judgment. 37 For by your words you shall be justified, and by your words you shall be condemned."

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Master, we wish to see a sign from you." 39 But he answered and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, and there shall no sign be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. 40 For as 'Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish,' so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation and condemn it because they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here. 42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it because she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, one greater than Solomon is here.

43 "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he walks through dry places, seeking rest, and he finds none. 44 Then he says, 'I will return into my house from where I came out.' And when he has come, he finds it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then he goes and takes with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. And the last state of that man is worse than the first. Thus it shall also be to this wicked generation."

46 While he was yet speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside desiring to speak with him. 47 Then someone said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside desiring to speak with you." 48 But he answered and said to him who told him, "Who is my mother? And who are my brothers?" 49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples and said, "Behold my mother and my brothers! 50 For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, sister, and mother."

Chapter 13

The parable of the sower and the seed, 1-17; the exposition of it, 18-23. The parable of the tares, 24-30; of the mustard seed, 31, 32; of the leaven, 33-35; exposition of the parable of the tares, 36-43. The parable of the hidden treasure, 44; of the pearl, 45, 46; of the dragnet cast into the sea, 47-52. Christ is despised by his own countrymen, 53-58.

1 The same day, Jesus went out of the house and sat by the sea side. 2 And great multitudes were gathered to him so that he went into a boat and sat down, and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spoke many things to them in parables, saying, "Behold, a sower went forth to sow. 4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the wayside, and the birds came and devoured them. 5 Some fell upon stony places where they did not have much earth. And immediately they sprung up because they had no deepness of earth. 6 And when the sun had risen, they were scorched, and because they did not have root, they withered. 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprung up and choked them. 8 But others fell upon good ground and brought forth fruit, some one hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, some thirty-fold. 9 He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

10 And the disciples came and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" 11 He answered and said to them, "Because it is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 For whoever has, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance, but whoever does not have, from him even that which he has shall be taken away. 13 Therefore, I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, neither do they understand. 14 And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says,

> 'By hearing you shall hear and shall not understand, / > and seeing you shall see and shall not perceive.
>
> 15 For this people's heart has become callous, / > their ears are dull of hearing, /
> and their eyes they have closed, / > or else perhaps they should see with their eyes, / > hear with their ears, /
> and should understand with their heart / > and should be converted, / > and I should heal them.'

16 "But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. 17 For truly I say to you, that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see the things which you see and have not seen them, and to hear the things which you hear and have not heard them.

18 "Hear, therefore, the parable of the sower. 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and snatches away that which was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the wayside. 20 But he who received the seed upon stony places, the same is he who hears the word and immediately with joy receives it, 21 Yet he does not have root in himself, but endures for a while. For when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he is offended. 22 He also who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. 23 But he who receives seed into the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who also bears fruit and brings forth, some one hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty."

24 Another parable he proposed to them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field, 25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and departed. 26 But when the blade had sprung up and brought forth fruit, the tares also appeared. 27 So the servants of the householder came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?' 28 He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Do you wish then that we go and gather them?' 29 But he said, 'No, lest while you gather the tares, you also root up the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest. And in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, "Gather first the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn."'"

31 Another parable he proposed to them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and sowed in his field, 32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds, but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs and becomes a tree so that the 'birds of the air come and lodge on its branches.'"

33 He spoke another parable to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until the whole was leavened."

34 All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables. And without a parable he did not speak to them 35 So that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

> "I will open my mouth in parables. /
> I will utter things which have been kept secret / > from the foundation of the world."

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, "Declare to us the parable of the tares of the field." 37 He answered and said to them, "He who sows the good seed is the Son of man. 38 The field is the world. The good seed are the children of the kingdom, but the tares are the children of the wicked one. 39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age. The reapers are the angels. 40 Therefore, as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it shall be in the end of this age. 41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend and those who do iniquity 42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire. There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then 'the righteous shall shine as the sun' in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

44 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hid in a field, which, when a man has found, he hides, and for joy thereof goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea and gathered some of every kind, 48 Which, when it was full, they drew to the shore, sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast away the bad. 49 That is how it will be at the end of the age. The angels shall come forth and sever the wicked from among the just 50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire. There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

51 Jesus says to them, "Have you understood all these things?" They say to him, "Yes, Lord." 52 Then he said to them, "Therefore, every scribe who has been made a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a householder who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old."

53 And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these parables, that he departed from there. 54 And when he had come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue in such a way that they were astonished and said, "From where does this man get this wisdom and these mighty works? 55 Is this not the carpenter's son? Is his mother not called Mary, and his brothers, James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? 56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Then from where does this man get all these things?" 57 And they were offended by him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house." 58 And he did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Chapter 14

Herod's opinion of Christ, 1, 2. Why John the Baptist was beheaded, 3-12. Jesus departs to a desolate place, 13, 14, where he feeds five thousand men with five loaves and two fish, 15-21. He walks on the sea to his disciples, 22-33; and landing at Gennesaret, heals the sick by the touch of the hem of his garment, 34-36.

1 At that time Herod the Tetrarch heard about the fame of Jesus, 2 And he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist. He has risen from the dead, and therefore, mighty works show themselves forth in him."

3 For Herod had laid hold of John, bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. 4 For John had said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod, 7 Upon which he promised with an oath to give her whatever she would ask. 8 And she, being before instructed by her mother, said, "Give me here the head of John the Baptist in a dish." 9 And the king was sorry. Nevertheless, for the sake of the oath and of those who sat with him at the table, he commanded it to be given to her. 10 And he sent and beheaded John in the prison. 11 And his head was brought in a dish and given to the girl. Then she brought it to her mother. 12 And his disciples came, took up the body, buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 When Jesus heard of it, he departed from there in a boat to a desolate place by himself. And when the people had heard of it, they followed him on foot out of the cities. 14 And Jesus went forth and saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, "This is a desolate place and the time is now past. Send the multitude away so that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food." 16 But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to depart. You give them something to eat." 17 And they say to him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish." 18 He said, "Bring them here to me." 19 Then he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass. And he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, broke, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. 20 And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained. 21 And those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 And immediately Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a boat and to go before him to the other side while he sent the multitudes away. 23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he ascended a mountain separately to pray. And when the evening had come, he was there alone. 24 But the boat was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves, for the wind was contrary. 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea. 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a spirit," and they cried out for fear. 27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Be of good cheer. It is I. Do not be afraid."

28 And Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it is you, bid me to come to you on the water." 29 And he said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. 30 But when he saw the boisterous wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, "Lord, save me." 31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, caught him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" 32 And when they had come into the boat, the wind ceased. 33 Then those who were in the boat came and worshiped him, saying, "In truth you are the son of God."

34 And when they had gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all the surrounding country and brought to him all who were diseased 36 And implored him that they might only touch the hem of his garment. And as many as touched it were restored to health.

Chapter 15

Christ reproves the scribes and Pharisees for transgressing God's commandments through their own traditions, 1-9; teaches how that which goes into the mouth does not defile a man, 10-20. He heals the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 21-28, and other great multitudes, 29-31; and with seven loaves and a few little fish feeds four thousand men, apart from women and children, 32-39.

1 Then scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, 2 "Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread." 3 But he answered and said to them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? 4 For God commanded, saying, 'Honor your father and mother,' and, 'He who curses father or mother, let him die the death.' 5 But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or his mother, "Whatever you might be profited by me is an offering to God," 6 He shall not honor his father or his mother.' Thus you have made the commandment of God of no effect by your tradition. 7 You hypocrites, Isaiah well prophesied of you, saying,

> 8 'This people draws near to me with their mouth / > and honors me with their lips, /
> but their heart is far from me.

9 But they worship me in vain,
teaching the commandments of men for doctrines.'"

10 And he called the multitude and said to them, "Hear and understand. 11 That which goes into the mouth does not defile a man, but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."

12 Then his disciples came and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying?" 13 But he answered and said, "Every plant which my heavenly Father has not planted shall be uprooted. 14 Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into the ditch."

15 Then Peter answered and said to him, "Declare to us this parable." 16 And Jesus said, "Are you also still without understanding? 17 Do you not yet understand that whatever enters in at the mouth goes into the belly and is cast out into the latrine? 18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and they defile the man. 19 For out of the heart evil thoughts proceed: murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, and blasphemies. 20 These are the things which defile a man. But to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

21 Then Jesus went from there and departed into the territories of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same territories and cried to him, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, son of David. My daughter is grievously afflicted with a demon." 23 But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and implored him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries after us." 24 But he answered and said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." 25 Then she came and worshiped him, saying, "Lord, help me." 26 But he answered and said, "It is not proper to take the children’s bread and to cast it to dogs." 27 And she said, "Truth, Lord, yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master’s table." 28 Then Jesus answered and said to her, "O woman, your faith is great. It shall be to you even as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

29 And Jesus departed from there, came near to the sea of Galilee, and ascended a mountain and sat down there. 30 And great multitudes came to him, having with them those who were lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet, and he healed them. 31 Therefore, the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion on the multitude because they have continued with me now for three days and have nothing to eat. I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way." 33 And his disciples say to him, "Where should we get so much bread in the wilderness as to satisfy so great a multitude?" 34 And Jesus says to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish." 35 And he commanded the multitude to sit on the ground. 36 And he took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks, broke them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. 37 And they all ate and were filled. And they took up seven baskets full of the fragments that were left. 38 And those who had eaten were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And he sent the multitude away and took a boat and came into the borders of Magdala.

Chapter 16

The Pharisees require a sign, 1-4. Jesus warns his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees, 5-12. The people's opinion of Christ, 13-15, and Peter's confession of him, 16-20. Jesus foretells his death, 21, 22; reproves Peter for dissuading him from it, 23; and admonishes those who will follow him to bear the cross, 24-28.

1 The Pharisees and the Sadducees came, and tempting him, desired him that he would show them a sign from heaven. 2 He answered and said to them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,' 3 And in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and lowering.' O hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky, but can you not discern the signs of the times? 4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah." And he left them and departed.

5 And when his disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. 6 Then Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees." 7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have taken no bread." 8 When Jesus perceived this, he said to them, "O you of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves that you have brought no bread? 9 Do you not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up, 10 Neither the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up? 11 How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread, but that you should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?" 12 Then they understood that he did not caution them against the leaven of bread, but against the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 When Jesus came into the borders of Cesarea Phillippi, he asked his disciples, saying, "Who do men say that I, the Son of man, am?" 14 And they said, "Some say that you are John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15 He says to them, "But who do you say that I am?" 16 And Simon Peter answered and said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." 17 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Barjonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed it to you, but my Father who is in heaven. 18 And I also say to you, that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. 19 And I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." 20 Then he charged his disciples that they should tell no man that he is Jesus the Christ.

21 From that time forth Jesus began to tell his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, be killed, and be raised again the third day. 22 Then Peter took him and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord. This shall not be done to you." 23 But he turned and said to Peter,

"Get behind me, Satan. You are an offense to me, for you do not savor the things that are of God, but those that are of men."

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For whoever will save his life shall lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. 26 For what is a man profited if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? 27 For the Son of man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will 'reward every man according to his works.'

28 "Truly I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death until they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom."

Chapter 17

The transfiguration of Christ, 1-13. He heals the lunatic, 14-21, foretells his own passion, 22, 23, and pays tribute, 24-27.

1 And after six days, Jesus takes Peter, James, and John his brother, and brings them upon a high mountain separately. 2 And he was transfigured before them. His face shone as the sun, and his clothing was white as the light. 3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them talking with him. 4 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, let us make here three tabernacles: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear him." 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face and were in great fear. 7 And Jesus came and touched them and said, "Arise, and do not be afraid." 8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, except Jesus only.

9 And as they were descending the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, "Tell the vision to no man until the Son of man is raised again from the dead." 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" 11 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Elijah truly will come first and restore all things. 12 But I say to you, that Elijah has come already, and they did not know him, but have done to him whatever they pleased. Likewise, the Son of man will also suffer by them." 13 Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them concerning John the Baptist.

14 And when they had come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him and saying, 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is lunatic and grievously distressed. He often falls into the fire and often into the water. 16 And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him." 17 Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to me." 18 And Jesus rebuked the demon, and he departed out of him. And the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus separately and said, "Why could we not cast him out?" 20 And Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For truly I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, you shall say to this mountain, 'Move from here to yonder place,' and it shall move. And nothing shall be impossible to you. 21 However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting."

22 And while they stayed in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of man will be betrayed into the hands of men, 23 And they will kill him. And on the third day he will be raised again." And they were exceedingly grieved.

24 And when they had come to Capernaum, those who received tribute-money came to Peter and said, "Does your Master not pay tribute?" 25 He says, "Yes." And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? From their own children or from strangers?" 26 Peter says to him, "From strangers." Jesus says to him, "Then the children are free. 27 However, lest we should offend them, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take the fish that first comes up. And when you have opened his mouth, you shall find a piece of money. Take that, and give it to them for me and you."

Chapter 18

Christ warns his disciples to be humble and harmless, 1-6, to avoid offenses, 7-9, and not to despise the little ones, 10-14; teaches how we are to deal with our brothers when they offend us, 15-20, and how often to forgive them, 21, 22; which he sets forth by a parable of the king who took account of his servants, 23-31, and punished him who showed no mercy to his fellow, 32-35.

1 At the same time, the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" 2 And Jesus called a little child to him and set him in the midst of them 3 And said, "Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 Whoever therefore humbles himself like this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me. 6 But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him that a millstone were hanged around his neck and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 "Woe to the world because of offenses! For it is necessary that offenses come. But woe to that man by whom the offense comes!

8 "Therefore, if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut them off and cast them from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or maimed than to have two hands or two feet and be cast into everlasting fire. 9 And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye than to have two eyes and be cast into hell-fire.

10 "Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I say to you, that in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven. 11 For the Son of man has come to save that which was lost.

12 "What do you think? If a man has one hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine, go to the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray? 13 And if he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine which did not go astray. 14 Likewise, it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

15 "Moreover, if your brother trespasses against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother. 16 But if he will not hear you, then take with you one or two more so that 'in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.' 17 And if he neglects to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he neglects to hear the church, let him be to you as a heathen and a tax collector. 18 Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 "Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it shall be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. 20 For where two or three are assembled in my name, there I am in the midst of them."

21 Then Peter came to him and said, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Until seven times?" 22 Jesus says to him, "I do not say to you until seven times, but until seventy times seven.

23 "Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is compared to a certain king who wanted to take account of his servants. 24 And when he began to settle accounts, someone was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. 25 But because he did not have ability to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, along with his wife, children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26 The servant therefore fell down and worshiped him, saying, 'Lord, have patience with me and I will pay you everything.' 27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave his debt. 28 But the same servant went out, found one of his fellow-servants who owed him one hundred denarii, laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe.' 29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet and implored him, saying, 'Have patience with me and I will pay you everything.' 30 And he would not, but went and cast him into prison until he should pay the debt. 31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry and came and told their lord all that was done. 32 Then his lord, having called him, said to him, 'O you wicked servant, I forgave you of all that debt because you desired me. 33 Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow-servant, even as I had pity on you?' 34 And his lord was angry and delivered him to the tormentors until he should pay everything that was due to him. 35 So my heavenly Father shall do likewise to you, if each of you from your hearts do not forgive his brother for his trespasses."

[v.16]: Deuteronomy 19:15.

Chapter 19

Christ heals the sick, 1, 2; answers the Pharisees concerning divorce, 3-9; shows when marriage is necessary, 10-12; receives little children, 13-15; instructs the young man how to attain eternal life, 16-19; and how to be perfect, 20-22; tells his disciples how hard it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God, 23-26; and promises reward to those who forsake anything to follow him, 27-30.

1 And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these sayings, that he departed from Galilee and came into the borders of Judea, beyond the Jordan. 2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 The Pharisees also came to him, tempting him and saying to him, "Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for any cause?" 4 And he answered and said to them, "Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning 'made them male and female,' 5 And said, 'For this cause a man shall leave father and mother and shall cleave to his wife, and the two of them shall be one flesh'? 6 Therefore, they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, do not let man tear apart." 7 They say to him, "Why then did Moses command to 'give a writing of divorcement and to put her away'?" 8 He says to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to put away your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. 9 And I say to you, that whoever puts away his wife, except for lewdness, and marries another, commits adultery. And whoever marries her who is put away, commits adultery."

10 His disciples say to him, "If that is the case of the man with his wife, it is not good to marry." 11 But he said to them, "All men cannot receive this saying, except those to whom it is given. 12 For there are some eunuchs who were thus born from their mother's womb, there are some eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it."

13 Then little children were brought to him so that he might put his hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus said, "Allow little children, and do not forbid them to come to me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." 15 And he laid his hands on them and departed from there.

16 And behold, someone came and said to him, "Good Master, what good thing shall I do so that I may have eternal life?" 17 And he said to him, "Why do you call me good? There is no one good but one: God. But if you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments." 18 He says to him, "Which?" Jesus said, "'You shall not murder,' 'You shall not commit adultery,' 'You shall not steal,' 'You shall not bear false witness,' 19 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" 20 The young man says to him, "All these things I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack?" 21 Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be perfect, go and sell what you have, give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven. Then come and follow me." 22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I say to you, that a rich man shall enter into the kingdom of heaven with difficulty. 24 And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." 25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, "Who then can be saved?" 26 But Jesus beheld them and said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

27 Then Peter answered and said to him, "Behold, we have forsaken all and followed you. What therefore shall we have?" 28 And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man sits on the throne of his glory, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And everyone who has forsaken houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, wife, children, or lands for my name's sake shall receive one hundred-fold and shall inherit everlasting life. 30 But many who are first shall be last, and the last shall be first."

Chapter 20

Christ, by the similitude of the laborers in the vineyard, shows that God is debtor to no man, 1-16; foretells his passion, 17-19; by answering the mother of Zebedee's children, teaches his disciples to be lowly, 20-28; and gives two blind men their sight, 29-34.

1 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the market-place 4 And said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right, I will give you.' And they departed. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour and did likewise. 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle and says to them, 'Why do you stand here all day idle?' 7 They say to him, 'Because no man has hired us.' He says to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right, that you shall receive.'

8 "So when evening had come, the lord of the vineyard says to his steward, 'Call the laborers and give them their hire, beginning from the last to the first.' 9 And when those who were hired about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius. 10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should receive more, and they likewise each received a denarius. 11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the master of the house, 12 Saying, 'These last have worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and heat of the day.' 13 But he answered one of them and said, 'Friend, I do you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? 14 Take that which is yours and depart. I will give to this last, even as to you. 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own? Is your eye evil because I am good?' 16 So the last shall be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen."

17 And Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples separately in the way and said to them, 18 "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they will condemn him to death 19 And will deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, scourge, and crucify him. And on the third day he will rise again."

20 Then the mother of Zebedee's children came to him with her sons, worshiping him and desiring a certain thing of him. 21 And he said to her, "What do you wish?" She says to him, "Grant that these two sons of mine may sit, one on your right hand and the other on your left, in your kingdom." 22 But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They say to him, "We are able." 23 And he says to them, "You shall drink indeed of my cup and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with, but to sit on my right hand and on my left is not mine to give, but it shall be given to those for whom it is prepared by my Father."

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brothers. 25 But Jesus called them to him and said, "You know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and those who are great exercise authority upon them. 26 But it shall not be so among you. But whoever wishes to be great among you, let him be your minister, 27 And whoever wishes to be chief among you, let him be your servant, 28 Even as the Son of man did not come to be ministered to, but to minister and to give his life a ransom for many."

29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. 30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the wayside, when they heard that Jesus passed by, they cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, son of David." 31 And the multitude rebuked them that they should hold their peace, but they cried the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, son of David." 32 And Jesus stood still and called them and said, "What do you wish that I shall do to you?" 33 They say to him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened." 34 So Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

Chapter 21

Christ rides into Jerusalem upon a donkey, 1-11; drives the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 12-16; curses the fig-tree, 17-22; puts to silence the priests and elders, 17-27, and rebukes them by the similitude of the two sons, 28-32, and the farmers who slew those who were sent to them, 33-46.

1 And when they drew near to Jerusalem and had come to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, 2 Saying to them, "Go into the village over against you, and immediately you shall find a donkey tied and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. 3 And if any man says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them." 4 All this was done so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

> 5 "Tell the daughter of Zion, /
> 'Behold, your King comes to you, /
> meek and sitting upon a donkey, /
> even a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"

6 And the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them. 7 They brought the donkey and the colt and put their clothes on them, and they set him thereon. 8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way. Others cut down branches from the trees and spread them in the way. 9 And the multitudes, who went before and who followed, cried, saying,

"Hosanna to the son of David. /
'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.' /
Hosanna in the highest."

10 And when he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?"
11 And the multitude said, "This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee."

12 And Jesus went into the temple of God and cast out all those who sold and bought in the temple. He overthrew the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold doves. 13 And he said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' but you have made it 'a den of thieves.'"

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. 15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did and the children crying in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the son of David," they were greatly displeased 16 And said to him, "Do you hear what these say?" And Jesus says to them, "Yes. Have you never read, 'Out of the mouth of babies and infants / you have perfected praise'?"

17 And he left them and went out of the city into Bethany and lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he was returning into the city, he was hungry. 19 And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it and found nothing on it, but leaves only, and said to it, "Let no fruit grow on you from now on forever." And immediately the fig-tree withered.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How has the fig-tree withered so soon?" 21 Jesus answered and said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also, if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and cast into the sea,' it shall be done. 22 And all things whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive."

23 And when he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching and said, "By what authority do you do these things, and who gave you this authority?" 24 And Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?" And they reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26 But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the people, for all hold John as a prophet." 27 And they answered Jesus and said, "We cannot tell." And he said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

28 "But what do you think? A certain man had two sons. And he came to the first and said, 'Son, go, work today in my vineyard.' 29 He answered and said, 'I will not.' But afterward, he repented and went. 30 And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' and did not go. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They say to him, "The first." Jesus says to them, "Truly I say to you, that the tax collectors and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the harlots believed him. And you, when you had seen it, did not repent afterward to believe him.

33 "Hear another parable. There was a certain householder who planted a vineyard, hedged it around, dug a wine-press in it, built a tower, and lent it out to farmers and went into a remote country. 34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the farmers so that they might receive its fruits. 35 And the farmers took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. 36 Again he sent other servants, more in number than the first, and they did to them in like manner. 37 But last of all he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will reverence my son.' 38 But when the farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and let us seize his inheritance.' 39 And they caught him, cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. 40 Therefore, when the Lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?" 41 They say to him, "He will miserably destroy those wicked men and will lease out his vineyard to other farmers, who will render him the fruits in their seasons."

42 Jesus says to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,

> 'The stone which the builders rejected,
> the same has become the head of the corner.
> This is the Lord's doing > and it is marvelous in our eyes'?

43 "Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing forth its fruits. 44 And whoever falls on this stone shall be broken, but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder."

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke of them. 46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

Chapter 22

The parable of the marriage of the king's son, 1-8. The vocation of the Gentiles, 9-11. The punishment of him who wanted the wedding garment, 12-14. Tribute ought to be paid to Caesar, 15-22. Christ disproves the Sadducees for the resurrection, 23-33; answers the lawyer, which is the first and great commandment, 34-40; and puzzles the Pharisees with a question about the Messiah, 41-46.

1 And Jesus answered and spoke to them again by parables and said, 2 "The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who made a marriage for his son, 3 And sent his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding, but they would not come. 4 Again, he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and my fattened calves are killed and all things are ready. Come to the marriage."' 5 But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise. 6 And the remnant took his servants, treated them spitefully, and slew them. 7 But when the king heard of it, he was angry and he sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. 8 Then he says to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. 9 Therefore, go into the highways, and as many as you shall find, invite to the marriage.' 10 So those servants went out into the highways and collected all whom they found, both bad and good. And the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 "And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who did not have a wedding-garment, 12 And he says to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here, not having a wedding-garment?' And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot and take him away and cast him into outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' 14 For many are called, but few are chosen."

15 Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might trap him in his words. 16 And they sent their disciples out to him along with the Herodians, saying, "Master, we know that you are true and teach the way of God in truth, neither do you care for any man, for you do not regard the person of men. 17 Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not?" 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites? 19 Show me the tribute-money." And they brought a denarius to him. 20 And he says to them, "Whose image and superscription is this?" 21 They say to him, "Caesar's." Then he says to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." 22 When they had heard these words, they marveled. Then they left him and departed.

23 The same day the Sadducees came to him, who say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, "Master, Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up children for his brother.' 25 Now there were with us seven brothers. The first, when he had married a wife, died, and having no children, left his wife to his brother; 26 Likewise, the second also, and the third, to the seventh. 27 And last of all the woman also died. 28 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? For they all had her."

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "You err, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. 31 But as concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living." 33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were assembled around him. 35 Then one of them who was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him and saying, 36 "Master, which is the great commandment in the law?" 37 Jesus said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 All the law and the prophets hang on these two commandments."

41 While the Pharisees were assembled, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, "What do you think of Christ? Whose son is he?" They say to him, "The son of David." 43 He says to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

> 44 'The LORD said to my Lord, /
> "Sit on my right hand /
> until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet"'?

45 "If David then calls him Lord, how is he his son?" 46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither did any man dare from that day forth to ask him any more questions.

Chapter 23

Christ admonishes the people to follow the good doctrine, not the evil examples, of the scribes and Pharisees, 1-4. His disciples must be aware of their ambition, 5-12. He denounces eight woes against their hypocrisy and blindness, 13-33, and prophesies of the destruction of Jerusalem, 34-39.

1 Then Jesus spoke to the multitude and to his disciples, 2 Saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses’s seat. 3 Therefore, all that they bid you to observe, observe and do it, but do not do according to their works, for they say and do not do. 4 For they bind heavy burdens that are grievous to be borne and lay them on men’s shoulders, but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. 5 But they do all their works to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments. 6 They love the uppermost rooms at feasts, the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 Greetings in the markets, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.' 8 But do not be called Rabbi, for One is your Teacher, even Christ, and all of you are brothers. 9 And call no man your father upon the earth, for One is your Father who is in heaven. 10 Do not be called masters, for One is your Master, even Christ. 11 But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant. 12 Whoever exalts himself shall be abased, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted.

13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men. For you neither go in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering to go in. 14 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses and for a pretense make long prayer; therefore, you shall receive the greater condemnation.

15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, you make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 "Woe to you, you blind guides who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.' 17 You fools and blind men. For which is greater, the gold or the temple that sanctifies the gold? 18 And you also say, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.' 19 You fools and blind men. For which is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift? 20 Whoever therefore swears by the altar, swears by it and by all things upon it. 21 And whoever swears by the temple, swears by it and by him who dwells in it. 22 And he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by him who sits upon it.

23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you pay tithe of mint, anise, and cumin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law: judgment, mercy, and faith. These you ought to have done, and not to leave the others undone. 24 You blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel.

25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you make the outside of the cup and of the platter clean, but inside they are full of extortion and excess. 26 You blind Pharisee, first cleanse that which is inside the cup and platter so that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you are like whitened sepulchers, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but are within full of dead men’s bones and of all uncleanness. 28 Thus you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but within you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and garnish the sepulchers of the righteous 30 And say, 'If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.' 31 Therefore, you are witnesses to yourselves that you are the children of those who murdered the prophets. 32 Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. 33 You serpents, you generation of vipers, how can you escape the condemnation of hell?

34 "Therefore, behold, I send to you prophets, wise men, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute them from city to city, 35 So that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you slew between the temple and the altar. 36 Truly I say to you, all these things shall come upon this generation.

37 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to you, how often would I have gathered your children, even as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you would not! 38 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. 39 For I say to you, that you shall not see me from now on until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Old Testament Quotes

[v.39]: Psalm 118:26.[LXX]

Chapter 24

Christ foretells the destruction of the temple, 1, 2; what and how great calamities shall be before it, 3-28; the signs of his coming to judgment, 29-35. And because that day and hour are unknown, 36-41, we ought to watch like good servants, expecting every moment our Master's coming, 42-51.

1 And Jesus went out and departed from the temple. And his disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. 2 And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down."

3 And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

4 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Take heed that no man deceives you. 5 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am Christ,' and will deceive many. 6 And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled. For all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in diverse places. 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 "Then they will deliver you up to be afflicted and will kill you. And you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. 10 And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. 11 And many false prophets will rise and will deceive many. 12 And because iniquity will abound, the love of many will become cold. 13 But he who endures to the end, the same shall be saved. 14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a testimony to all nations. And then the end shall come.

15 "Therefore, when you see 'the abomination of desolation' spoken of by Daniel the prophet stand in the holy place (whoever reads, let him understand), 16 Let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 17 Let him who is on the house-top not come down to take anything out of his house, 18 Neither let him who is in the field return back to take his clothes. 19 And woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse infants in those days! 20 But pray that your flight may not be in the winter, neither on the sabbath. 21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world to this time, nor will there ever be. 22 And unless those days should be shortened, no flesh would be saved, but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. 23 Then if any man says to you, 'Behold, here is Christ,' or, 'There,' do not believe it. 24 For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders in such a way that, if it were possible, they would deceive the very elect. 25 Behold, I have told you before. 26 Therefore, if they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the desert,' do not go forth, or, 'Behold, he is in the secret chambers,' do not believe it. 27 For as the lightning comes out of the east and shines even to the west, so shall the coming of the Son of man also be. 28 For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be collected.

29 "Immediately after the tribulation of those days 'the sun shall be darkened and the moon shall not give her light, the stars shall fall' from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. 30 And then the sign of the Son of man shall appear in heaven. And then all the tribes of the earth shall mourn, and they shall see 'the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven' with power and great glory. 31 And he will send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, 'from one end of heaven to the other.'

32 "Now learn a parable of the fig-tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 33 So likewise you, when you see all these things know that it is near, even at the doors. 34 Truly I say to you, this generation shall not pass until all these things are fulfilled. 35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 "But of that day and hour no man knows, not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only. 37 But as the days of Noah were, so will the coming of the Son of man also be. 38 For as in the days that were before the flood—they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, 39 And did not know until the flood came and took them all away—so also will be the coming of the Son of man. 40 Then two will be in the field: one shall be taken and the other left. 41 Two women will be grinding at the mill: one shall be taken and the other left.

42 "Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord comes. 43 But know this, that if the master of the house knew in what watch the thief would come, he would watch and would not allow his house to be broken into. 44 Therefore, you also be ready. For the Son of man comes in such an hour as you do not think.

45 "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has made ruler over his household to give them food in due season? 46 Blessed is that servant whom his lord finds doing so when he comes. 47 Truly I say to you, that he will make him ruler over all his goods. 48 But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' 49 And begins to beat his fellow-servants and to eat and drink with the drunken, 50 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he does not look for him and in an hour that he is not aware of 51 And will cut him apart and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Chapter 25

The parable of the ten virgins, 1-13, and of the talents, 14-30. Also the description of the last judgment, 31-46.

1 "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be compared to ten virgins who took their lamps and went forth to meet the bridegroom. 2 And five of them were wise and five were foolish. 3 Those who were foolish took their lamps, but took no oil with them. 4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5 While the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept. 6 And at midnight there was a cry made, 'Behold, the bridegroom comes. Go out to meet him.' 7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps have gone out.' 9 But the wise answered, saying, 'Not so, lest there not be enough for us and you. But rather go to those who sell and buy some for yourselves.' 10 And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came. And those who were ready went in with him to the marriage. Then the door was shut. 11 Afterward, the other virgins also came, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' 12 But he answered and said, 'Truly I say to you, I do not know you.' 13 Therefore, watch, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of man comes.

14 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling into a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. 15 And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability. Then he immediately took his journey. 16 Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with the same and gained another five talents. 17 And likewise, he who had received two, he also gained another two. 18 But he who had received one went and dug in the earth and hid his lord’s money.

19 "After a long time, the lord of those servants comes and settles accounts with them. 20 And he who had received five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents. Behold, I have gained besides them five more talents.' 21 His lord said to him, 'Well done you good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

22 "He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents. Behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.' 23 His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

24 "Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered. 25 I was afraid and went and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, there you have what is yours.'

26 "His lord answered and said to him, 'You wicked and slothful servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered. 27 You ought therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received my own with interest. 28 Therefore, take the talent from him and give it to him who has ten talents.

29 'For to everyone who has shall be given, and he shall have abundance. But from him who does not have, even that which he has shall be taken away. 30 And cast the unprofitable servant into outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

31 "When the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, he will sit upon the throne of his glory. 32 And before him all nations shall be gathered, and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. 33 And he will set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 "Then the King will say to those on his right hand, 'Come, you blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35 For I was hungry and you gave me food. I was thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you took me in. 36 I was naked and you clothed me. I was sick and you visited me. I was in prison and you came to me.' 37 Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? 38 When did we see you as a stranger and take you in, or naked and clothe you? 39 Or when did we see you sick or in prison and come to you?' 40 And the King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, since you have done it to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you have done it to me.'

41 "Then he will also say to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels. 42 For I was hungry and you gave me no food. I was thirsty and you gave me no drink. 43 I was a stranger and you did not take me in. I was naked and you did not clothe me. I was sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' 44 Then they will also answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, thirsty, a stranger, naked, sick, or in prison and did not minister to you?' 45 Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly I say to you, since you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' 46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Chapter 26

Christ foretells his own death, 1, 2. The rulers conspire against him, 3-5. The woman anoints his feet, 6-13. Judas bargains to betray him, 14-16. Christ eats the passover, 17-25; institutes his holy supper, 26-29; foretells the desertion of his disciples and Peter's denial, 30-35; prays in the garden, 36-46; and being betrayed by a kiss, 47-56, is carried to Caiaphas, 57-68, and denied by Peter, 69-75.

3 Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, 4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtlety and kill him. 5 But they said, "Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar among the people."

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 A woman having an alabaster vial of very precious ointment came to him and poured it on his head as he sat at the table. 8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, "To what purpose is this waste? 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much and given to the poor." 10 When Jesus understood it, he said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has wrought a good work upon me. 11 For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. 12 For in that she has poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. 13 Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, this, which this woman has done, shall also be told there for a memorial of her."

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests 15 And said, "What will you give me if I deliver him to you?" And they weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 Now on the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you wish that we prepare for you to eat the passover?" 18 And he said, "Go into the city to such a man and say to him, 'The Master says, "My time is at hand. I will keep the passover at your house with my disciples."'" 19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the evening had come, he sat down with the twelve. 21 And as they were eating, he said, "Truly I say to you, that one of you will betray me." 22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to him, "Lord, is it I?" 23 And he answered and said, "He who dips his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. 24 The Son of man goes, as it is written concerning him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born." 25 Then Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, "Master, is it I?" He said to him, "You have said."

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat. This is my body." 27 And he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. 29 But I say to you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. 31 Then Jesus says to them, "All of you shall be offended because of me this night, for it is written, 'I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.' 32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee." 33 Peter answered and said to him, "Though all men shall be offended because of you, yet I will never be offended." 34 Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, that this night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." 35 Peter said to him, "Though I should die with you, yet I will not deny you." All the disciples also said likewise.

36 Then Jesus comes with them to a place called Gethsemane and says to the disciples, "Sit here while I go yonder and pray." 37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. 38 Then he says to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Remain here and watch with me."

39 And he went a little further, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "O my Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me. Nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will." 40 And he comes to the disciples and finds them asleep. And he says to Peter, "What, could you not watch with me one hour? 41 Watch and pray so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

42 He went away again the second time and prayed, saying, "O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me unless I drink it, may your will be done." 43 And he came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy. 44 And he left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. 45 Then he comes to his disciples and says to them, "Sleep on now and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Rise, let us be going. Behold, he is at hand who betrays me."

47 And while he was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staffs from the chief priests and elders of the people. 48 Now he who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, he is the one. Seize him." 49 And immediately he came to Jesus and said, "Hail Master," and kissed him. 50 And Jesus said to him, "Friend, why have you come?" Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took him.

51 And behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest and smote off his ear. 52 Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place. For all those who take the sword shall perish by the sword. 53 Do you think that I cannot now pray to my Father and he will presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? 54 But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled which say it must be so?"

55 In that same hour, Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out as against a thief with swords and staffs to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple and you laid no hold upon me. 56 But all this was done so that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples forsook him and fled.

57 And those who had laid hold upon Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest where the scribes and the elders were assembled. 58 But Peter followed him at a distance to the high priest's palace, went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests and elders and all the council sought false testimony against Jesus to put him to death, 60 But found none. And though many false witnesses came, yet they found none. At last, two false witnesses came 61 And said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.'" 62 And the high priest arose and said to him, "Do you answer nothing? What is it which these testify against you?" 63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said to him, "I adjure you by the living God that you tell us whether you are the Christ the Son of God." 64 Jesus says to him, "You have said. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power and 'coming in the clouds of heaven.'"

65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy. What further need do we have of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. 66 What do you think?" They answered and said, "He is guilty of death."

67 Then they spit in his face and buffeted him. And others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, "Prophesy to us, Christ. Who is he who smote you?"

69 Now Peter sat outside in the palace. And a woman-servant came to him, saying, "You were also with Jesus of Galilee." 70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you say." 71 And when he had gone out into the porch, another woman-servant saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was also with Jesus of Nazareth." 72 And again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man." 73 And after a while those who stood by came to him and said to Peter, "Surely you are also one of them, for your speech betrays you." 74 Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, "I do not know the man." And immediately the cock crowed. 75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who said to him, "Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.31]: Zechariah 13:7. [v.64]: Daniel 7:13.

Chapter 27

Christ is delivered bound to Pilate, 1, 2. Judas hangs himself, 3-18. Pilate, admonished by his wife, 19, and being urged by the multitude, washes his hands and releases Barabbas, 20-26. Christ is mocked and crowned with thorns, 27-32; crucified, 33-38; reviled, 39-49; dies, and is buried, 50-61; his sepulcher is sealed and watched, 62-66.

1 When the morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. 2 And when they had bound him, they led him away and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, who had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented and brought the thirty pieces of silver back to the chief priests and elders, 4 Saying, "I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood." And they said, "What is that to us? See to that yourself." 5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, departed, and went and hanged himself. 6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury because it is the price of blood." 7 And they took counsel and bought with them the potter’s field to bury strangers in. 8 Therefore, that field has been called, The Field of Blood, to this day. 9 Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "'And they took the thirty pieces of silver,' 'the price of him who was valued,' whom they of the children of Israel valued, 10 And gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord appointed me."

11 And Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And Jesus said to him, "You say." 12 And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. 13 Then Pilate says to him, "Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?" 14 And he answered him not a word; therefore, the governor marveled greatly.

15 Now at that feast, the governor was accustomed to release to the people a prisoner whom they wished. 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 Therefore, when they were assembled, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you wish that I release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18 (For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.)

19 When he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that just man, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him." 20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. 21 The governor answered and said to them, "Which of the two do you wish that I release to you?" They said, "Barabbas." 22 Pilate says to them, "What shall I do then with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all say to him, "Let him be crucified." 23 And the governor said, "Why? What evil has he done?" But they cried out the more, saying, "Let him be crucified."

24 When Pilate saw that he could not prevail at all, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this just person. See to it yourselves." 25 Then all the people answered and said, "His blood is on us and on our children." 26 Then he released Barabbas to them. And when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall and gathered the whole band of soldiers to him. 28 And they stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him. 29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head and a reed in his right hand. And they bowed the knee before him and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30 And they spit upon him and took the reed and struck him on the head. 31 And after they had mocked him, they took the robe off of him, put his own clothing on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. They constrained him to bear his cross.

33 And when they had come to a place called Golgotha (that is to say, The Place of a Skull), 34 They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall. And when he had tasted it, he would not drink.

35 And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments by casting lots so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, "They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture they cast lots." 36 And sitting down, they watched him there. 37 And they set up over his head his accusation written, "THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

38 Then there were two thieves crucified with him: one on the right hand and another on the left. 39 And those who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads 40 And saying, "You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross." 41 Likewise, the chief priests also mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 "He saved others. He cannot save himself. If he is King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. 43 'He trusted in God. Let him deliver him now if he will have him,' for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" 44 The thieves who were also crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" (That is to say, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?") 47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, "This man calls for Elijah." 48 And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink. 49 The rest said, "Forbear. Let us see whether Elijah will come to save him." 50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, expired. 51 And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. And the earth shook and the rocks were split. 52 And the graves were opened and many bodies of saints who slept, arose, 53 Came out of the graves after his resurrection, went into the holy city, and appeared to many. 54 Now when the centurion and those who were with him watching Jesus saw the earthquake and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, "Truly this was the Son of God."

55 And many women were there (beholding at a distance) who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him, 56 Among whom was Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee’s children.

57 When the evening had come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was a disciple of Jesus. 58 He went to Pilate and petitioned for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. 59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 Laid it in his own new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock, rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulcher, and departed. 61 And there was Mary Magdalene and the other Mary sitting over against the sepulcher.

62 Now on the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together to Pilate, 63 Saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive, 'After three days I will rise again.' 64 Therefore, command that the sepulcher be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' Thus the last error will be worse than the first." 65 Pilate said to them, "You have a watch. Go, make it as secure as you can." 66 So they went, and having sealed the stone, made the sepulcher secure with a watch.

Chapter 28

Christ's resurrection is declared by an angel to the women, 1-8. He himself appears to them, 9, 10. The chief priests give the soldiers money to say that he was stolen out of his sepulcher, 11-15. Christ appears to his disciples, 16, 17, and sends them to baptize and teach all nations, 18-20.

1 Now after the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the sepulcher. 2 And behold, there was a great earthquake, for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. 3 His countenance was like lightning and his clothing white as snow. 4 And for fear of him the keepers trembled and became as dead men. 5 And the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not fear, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. 6 He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. 7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into Galilee. There you shall see him.' Behold, I have told you."

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulcher with fear and great joy and ran to bring word to his disciples. 9 And as they were going to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "All hail." And they came, held him by the feet, and worshiped him. 10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go into Galilee, and there they shall see me."

11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city and showed to the chief priests all the things that had been done. 12 And when they were assembled with the elders and had taken counsel, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13 Saying, "Say that his disciples came by night and stole him away while we slept. 14 And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and secure you." 15 So they took the money and did as they were instructed. And this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee to a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they worshiped him, but some doubted. 18 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All power is given to me in heaven and upon earth. 19 Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, 20 Teaching them to observe all things whatever I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

> "Prepare the way of the Lord. /
> Make his paths straight."'"

4 John was baptizing in the wilderness and preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. 5 And all the land of Judea and those of Jerusalem went out there to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. 6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather girdle around his loins, and he ate locusts and wild honey. 7 And he preached, saying, "There comes after me one mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. 8 I indeed have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth to Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. 10 And immediately coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him. 11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, "You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

12 And immediately the Spirit drives him into the wilderness. 13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan. He was with the wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.

14 Now after John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, "The time is fulfilled and the kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe the gospel."

16 Now as he was walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. 17 And Jesus said to them, "Come after me and I will make you become fishers of men." 18 And immediately they forsook their nets and followed him. 19 And when he had gone a little farther from there, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. 20 And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and went after him.

21 And they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the sabbath he entered into the synagogue and taught. 22 And they were astonished at his doctrine, for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes. 23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 Saying, "Leave us alone. What have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God." 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Hold your peace and come out of him." 26 And when the unclean spirit had convulsed him and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. 27 And they were all amazed; therefore, they questioned among themselves, saying, "What thing is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." 28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region around Galilee.

29 And immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. 30 But the mother of Simon's wife lay sick with a fever, and immediately they tell him about her. 31 And he came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. And immediately the fever left her, and she ministered to them.

32 And at evening when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were diseased and those who were possessed with demons. 33 And all the city was gathered at the door. 34 And he healed many who were sick with various diseases and cast out many demons. And he did not allow the demons to speak because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising a great while before day, he went out and departed into a solitary place and prayed there. 36 And Simon and those who were with him followed after him. 37 And when they had found him, they said to him, "All men seek for you." 38 And he said to them, "Let us go into the next towns so that I may preach there also, for I have come for this purpose." 39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee and cast out demons.

40 And there came a leper to him, imploring him, and kneeling down to him and saying to him, "If you are willing, you can make me clean." 41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand and touched him, and says to him, "I am willing. Be clean." 42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him and he was cleansed. 43 And he strictly charged him and immediately sent him away, 44 And says to him, "See that you say nothing to any man. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." 45 But he went out and began to publish it much and to blaze abroad the matter; therefore, Jesus could no longer openly enter into the city, but was outside in desolate places. And they came to him from every quarter.

[v.2]: Malachi 3:1. [v.3]: Isaiah 40:3.[LXX]

Chapter 2

Christ, followed by multitudes, 1, 2, heals someone of paralysis, 3-12; calls Matthew from the receipt of custom, 13, 14; eats with tax collectors and sinners, 15-17; excuses his disciples for not fasting, 18-22; and for plucking the heads of grain on the sabbath-day, 23-28.

1 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days, and it was understood that he was in the house. 2 And immediately many were assembled so that there was no room to receive them, not even at the door. And he preached the word to them. 3 And they come to him, bringing someone paralyzed who was carried by four men. 4 And when they could not come near to him by reason of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was. And when they had broken it up, they let down the bed on which the paralytic lay. 5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven." 6 But there were some of the scribes sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, 7 "Why does this man thus speak blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God only?" 8 And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they thus reasoned within themselves, he said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Arise, take up your bed, and walk'? 10 But so that you may know that the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins"—he says to the paralytic— 11 "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go into your house." 12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all. Therefore, they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw it in this fashion."

13 And he went forth again by the sea-side, and all the multitude resorted to him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus, sitting at the receipt of custom, and said to him, "Follow me." And he arose and followed him.

15 And it came to pass, that as Jesus sat at the table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners also sat together with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many and they followed him. 16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eating with tax collectors and sinners, they said to his disciples, "How is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?" 17 When Jesus heard it, he says to them, "Those who are in health have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting, and they come, and say to him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?" 19 And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. 20 But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then they will fast in those days.

21 "No man also sews a patch of new cloth on an old garment, or else the new piece that filled it up takes away from the old and the rent is made worse. 22 And no man puts new wine into old bottles, or else the new wine bursts the bottles, and the wine is spilled and the bottles will be marred. But new wine must be put into new bottles."

was hungry—he and those who were with him— 26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest and ate the show-bread, which it is not lawful to eat, except for the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?" 27 And he said to them, "The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath. 28 Therefore, the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath."

Christ heals the withered hand, 1-9, and many other infirmities, 10; rebukes the unclean spirit, 11, 12; chooses his twelve apostles, 13-21; convinces the blasphemy of casting out demons by Beelzebub, 22-30; and shows who are his brother, sister, and mother, 31-35.

1 And he entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had a withered hand. 2 And they watched him to see whether he would heal him on the sabbath so that they might accuse him. 3 And he says to the man who had the withered hand, "Stand forth." 4 And he says to them, "Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they held their peace. 5 And when he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he says to the man, "Stretch forth your hand." And he stretched it out and his hand was restored whole as the other. 6 And the Pharisees went forth and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea, 8 From Jerusalem, from Idumea, from beyond the Jordan, and those around Tyre and Sidon. A great multitude came to him when they had heard what great things he did. 9 And he told his disciples that a small boat should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him, 10 For he had healed many; therefore, as many as had diseases pressed upon him to touch him. 11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him and cried, saying, "You are the Son of God." 12 And he strictly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 And he goes up upon a mountain and calls to him whom he wished, and they came to him. 14 And he ordained twelve so that they should be with him and that he might send them forth to preach, 15 To have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out demons: 16 Simon he surnamed Peter, 17 James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, Sons of Thunder), 18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alpheus, Thaddeus, Simon the Canaanite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. They went into a house.

20 And the multitude comes together again so that they could not so much as eat bread. 21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold upon him, for they said, "He is beside himself." 22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem, said, "He has Beelzebub, and by the prince of the demons he casts out demons." 23 And he called them to him and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? 24 And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. 26 And if Satan rises up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. 27 No man can enter into a strong man’s house and seize his goods unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

28 "Truly I say to you, the sons of men shall be forgiven of all sins and any blasphemies with which they shall blaspheme. 29 But he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal condemnation"— 30 Because they said, "He has an unclean spirit."

31 Then his brothers and his mother came there, and standing outside they sent to him, calling him. 32 And the multitude sat around him, and they said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers outside seek for you." 33 And he answered them, saying, "Who is my mother, or my brothers?" 34 And he looked around at those who sat around him, and said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! 35 For whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, my sister, and mother."

Chapter 4

The parable of the sower, 1-13, and the meaning thereof, 14-20. We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others, 21-25. The parable of the seed growing secretly, 26-29; and of the mustard seed, 30-34. Christ stills the tempest on the sea, 35-41.

1 And he began again to teach by the sea-side. And there was gathered to him a great multitude so that he entered into a boat and sat on the sea, while the whole multitude was by the sea on the land. 2 And he taught them many things by parables and said to them in his doctrine, 3 "Listen. Behold, a sower went out to sow. 4 And it came to pass as he sowed, some fell by the wayside and the birds of the air came and devoured it. 5 And some fell on stony ground where it did not have much earth. And immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth. 6 But when the sun had risen, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away. 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. 8 And others fell on good ground and yielded fruit that sprang up, increased, and brought forth, some thirty-, some sixty-, and some one hundred-fold." 9 And he said to them, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

10 And when he was alone, those who were around him, with the twelve, asked him about the parable. 11 And he said to them, "To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, all these things are done in parables, 12 So that > 'seeing they may see and not perceive, / > and hearing they may hear and not understand, / > lest at any time they should be converted / > and their sins should be forgiven.'"

13 And he said to them, "Do you not know this parable? And how then will you know all parables? 14 The sower sows the word. 15 And these are those by the wayside where the word is sown, but when they have heard, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts. 16 And likewise, these are those who are sown on stony ground, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness, 17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure only for a time. Afterward, when affliction or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they relapse. 18 And these are those who are sown among thorns: those who hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 And these are those who are sown on good ground: those who hear the word, receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-, some sixty-, and some one hundred-fold."

21 And he said to them, "Is a candle brought to be put under a basket, or under a bed, and not to be set on a candlestick? 22 For there is nothing hid which shall not be manifested, neither has anything been kept secret, but that it should come abroad. 23 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear." 24 And he said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With the measure which you give, it shall be measured to you. And to you who hear, more shall be given. 25 For he who has, to him shall be given, and he who does not have, even that which he has shall be taken from him."

26 And he said, "The kingdom of God is as if a man should cast seed into the ground. 27 And he sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed springs and grows up, though he does not know how. 28 For the earth brings forth fruit by itself: first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head. 29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he puts in the sickle because the harvest has come."

30 And he said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God? Or with what comparison shall we compare it? 31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth. 32 But when it is sown, it grows up, becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out great branches so that the 'birds of the air may lodge under its shade.'"

33 And with many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. 34 But without a parable he did not speak to them. And when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when the evening had come, he says to them, "Let us pass over to the other side." 36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the boat. And there were also with him other small boats. 37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat so that it was now full. 38 And he was in the back part of the boat asleep on a pillow. And they wake him, and say to him, "Master, do you not care that we perish?" 39 And he arose, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace, be still," and the wind ceased and there was a great calm. 40 And he said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?" 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

Old Testament Quotes

[v.12]: Isaiah 6:10.[LXX] [v.32]: Ezekiel 17:23.

Chapter 5

Christ delivering the man possessed with the legion of demons, 1-12, they enter into the swine, 13-21. He is entreated by Jairus to go and heal his daughter, 22-24. He heals the woman of the bloody issue, 25-34, and raises from death Jairus' daughter, 35-43.

1 And they came over to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. 2

And when he had come out of the boat, immediately out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit met him there, 3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs. And no man could bind him, not even with chains, 4 For he had often been bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked apart by him and the fetters broken in pieces. No man could tame him. 5 And always, night and day, he was on the mountains and in the tombs crying and cutting himself with stones. 6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshiped him, 7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, that you do not torment me." 8 (For he said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit.") 9 And he asked him, "What is your name?" And he answered, saying, "My name is Legion, for we are many." 10 And he implored him much that he would not send them away out of the country. 11 Now there was a great herd of swine feeding near the mountains. 12 And all the demons implored him, saying, "Send us into the swine so that we may enter into them." 13 And immediately Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out and entered into the swine, and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea (they were about two thousand) and were choked in the sea.

14 And those who fed the swine fled and told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done. 15 And they come to Jesus and see him who was possessed with the demon and had the legion sitting there clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid. 16 And those who saw it told them how it befell him who was possessed with the demon, and also concerning the swine. 17 And they began to beg him to depart out of their borders. 18 And when he had come into the boat, he who had been possessed with the demon begged him that he might be with him. 19 Yet Jesus did not allow him, but says to him, "Go home to your friends and tell them how the Lord has done great things for you and has had compassion on you." 20 And he departed and began to publish in Decapolis what great things Jesus had done for him. And all men wondered.

21 And when Jesus had passed over again in a boat to the other side, many people gathered to him. And he was near the sea. 22 And behold, there comes one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, 23 And implored him greatly, saying, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. I pray you, come and lay your hands on her so that she may be healed, and she will live." 24 And Jesus went with him, and many people followed him and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years, 26 Had suffered many things from many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not relieved, but rather grew worse, 27 When she had heard of Jesus, she came in the crowd behind and touched his garment. 28 For she said, "If I only touch his clothes, I shall be whole." 29 And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up and she felt in her body that she was healed of that infirmity. 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that power had gone out of him, turned himself around in the throng, and said, "Who touched my clothes?" 31 And his disciples said to him, "You see the multitude thronging you and you say, 'Who touched me?'" 32 And he looked around to see her who had done this thing. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him and told him all the truth. 34 And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you whole. Go in peace and be healed of your infirmity."

35 While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house some who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why do you trouble the Master any further?" 36

As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he says to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid, only believe." 37 And he allowed no man to follow him, except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. 38 And he comes to the house of the ruler of the synagogue and sees the tumult and those who wept and wailed greatly. 39 And when he had come in, he says to them, "Why do you make this tumult and weep? The girl is not dead, but sleeps." 40 And they derided him. But when he had put them all out, he takes the father and the mother of the girl and those who were with him and enters in where the girl was lying. 41 And he took the girl by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cumi," (which is, being interpreted, "Girl, I say to you, arise"). 42 And immediately the girl arose and walked. She was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. 43 And he charged them strictly that no man should know it, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

Chapter 6

Christ is despised by his countrymen, 1-6. He gives the twelve power over unclean spirits, 7-13. Various opinions of Christ, 14, 15. John the Baptist is imprisoned, beheaded, and buried, 16-29. The apostles return from preaching, 30-33. The miracle of five loaves and two fish, 34-44. Christ walks on the sea, 45-52; and heals all who touch him, 53-56.

1 And he went out from there and came into his own country, and his disciples followed him. 2 And when the sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue. And many who heard him were astonished, saying, "From where did this man get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to him that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? 3 Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon? And are his sisters not here with us?" And they were offended at him. 4 But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, among his own kindred, and in his own house." 5 And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick persons and healed them. 6 And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went around the villages teaching.

7 And he calls the twelve to him and began to send them forth by two and two and gave them power over unclean spirits. 8 And he commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only—no bag, no bread, no money in their purse— 9 But to be shod with sandals and not put on two coats. 10 And he said to them, "In whatever place you enter into a house, abide there until you depart from that place. 11 And whoever does not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Truly I say to you, it shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that city." 12 And they went out and preached that men should repent. 13 And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.

14 And king Herod heard about him (for his name was spread abroad), and he said, "John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and therefore, mighty works show themselves forth in him." 15 Others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, or like one of the prophets." 16 But when Herod heard of him, he said, "It is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead."

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, for he had married her. 18 For John had said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." 19 Therefore, Herodias had a quarrel against him and would have killed him, but she could not, 20 For Herod feared John and kept him safe, knowing that he was a just and holy man. And when he heard him, he was very perplexed, yet he heard him gladly. 21 And when a convenient day had come, Herod, on his birthday, made a supper for his lords, high captains, and chief men of Galilee. 22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those who sat with him. And the king said to the girl, "Ask of me whatever you wish and I will give it to you." 23 And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask of me, I will give it to you, up to half of my kingdom." 24 And she went forth and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist." 25 And she came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, saying, "I wish that you would give me at once the head of John the Baptist in a dish." 26 And the king was exceedingly sorry. Yet for his oath's sake and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not reject her. 27 And immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a dish and gave it to the girl. And the girl gave it to her mother. 29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apostles assembled themselves to Jesus and told him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. 31 And he said to them, "Come separately into a desolate place and rest a while." For there were many coming and going and they did not even have opportunity to eat. 32 And they departed into a desolate place in a boat privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him. And they ran there together on foot out of all cities and went ahead of them. 34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw many people and was moved with compassion toward them because they were as sheep not having a shepherd. And he began to teach them many things. 35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came to him, and said, "This is a desolate place and now the time is far passed. 36 Send them away so that they may go into the country around and into the villages and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat." 37 He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they say to him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give it to them to eat?" 38 He says to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see." And when they knew, they say, "Five, and two fish." 39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass. 40 And they sat down in ranks by hundreds and by fifties. 41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them. He also divided the two fish among them all. 42 And they all ate and were satisfied. 43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments and of the fish. 44 And those who ate of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 And immediately he constrained his disciples to get into the boat and to go to the other side ahead of him to Bethsaida while he sent the people away. 46 And when he had dismissed them, he departed to a mountain to pray.

47 And when evening had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea and he alone on the land. 48 And he saw them toiling in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them. And about the fourth watch of the night he comes to them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. 49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit and cried out. 50 (For they all saw him and were troubled.) And immediately he talked with them, and says to them, "Be of good cheer. It is I. Do not be afraid." 51 Then he went up to them into the boat, and the wind ceased. And they were greatly amazed in themselves beyond measure and wondered. 52 For they did not consider the miracle of the loaves, but their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret and drew to the shore. 54 And when they had come out of the boat, immediately they knew him, 55 And ran throughout that whole region and began to carry around in beds those who were sick where they heard he was. 56 And wherever he entered, into villages, cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets and implored him that they might touch at least the fringe of his garment. And as many as touched him were healed.

Chapter 7

The Pharisees find fault with the disciples for eating with unwashed hands, 1-7. They break the commandment of God by the traditions of men, 8-13. Nothing from outside a man can defile him, 14-23. He heals the Syrophenician woman's daughter of an unclean spirit, 24-30; and someone who was deaf and stammered in his speech, 31-37.

1 Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes who came from Jerusalem came together to him. 2 And when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled (that is to say with unwashed) hands, they found fault. 3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands often, holding the tradition of the elders. 4 And when they come from the market, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, pots, brazen vessels, and tables. 5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?" 6 He answered and said to them, "Isaiah has prophesied well concerning you hypocrites, as it is written,

> 'This people honors me with their lips, / > but their heart is far from me.
>
> 7 But in vain they worship me, /
> teaching the commandments of men for doctrines.'

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men, such as the washing of pots and cups. And you do many other similar things."

9 And he said to them, "You full well reject the commandment of God in order to keep your own tradition, 10 For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever curses father or mother, let him die the death.' 11 But you say, 'If a man says to his father or mother, "Whatever you might be profited by me is Corban," (that is to say, a gift to God) he shall be free.' 12 And you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother, 13 Making the word of God of no effect through your traditions, which you have delivered. And you do many similar things."

14 And when he had called all the people to him, he said to them, "Listen to me, each of you, and understand. 15 There is nothing from outside a man, that entering into him can defile him; however, it is the things which come out of him that defile the man. 16 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear."

17 And when he had entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. 18 And he says to them, "Are you so void of understanding also? Do you not perceive, that whatever thing from outside enters into the man, it cannot defile him, 19 Because it does not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and goes out into the latrine, purging all kinds of food?" 20 And he said, "That which comes out of the man, that defiles the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts: adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. 23 All these evil things come from within and defile the man."

24 And from there he arose and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house and wished to have no man know it, but he could not be hid. 25 But a certain woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard of him and came and fell at his feet 26 (The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation), and she implored him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter. 27 But Jesus said to her, "Let the children first be satisfied, for it is not proper to take the children's bread and to cast it to the dogs." 28 And she answered and said to him, "Yes, Lord, yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs." 29 And he said to her, "For this saying, depart. The demon has gone out of your daughter." 30 And when she had come to her house, she found the demon had gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again, departing from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. 32 And they bring to him someone who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they implore him to put his hand upon him. 33 And he took him aside from the multitude and put his fingers into his ears, and having spit he touched his tongue. 34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed and says to him, "Effatha," (that is, "Be opened"). 35 And immediately his ears were opened, the string of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke plainly. 36 And he charged them that they should tell no man. But the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it, 37 And were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Chapter 8

Christ feeds the people miraculously, 1-9; refuses to give a sign to the Pharisees, 10-13; admonishes his disciples to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the leaven of Herod, 14-21; gives a blind man his sight, 22-26; acknowledges that he is the Christ who should suffer and rise again, 27-33; and exhorts to patience in persecution for the profession of the gospel, 34-38.

1 In those days when the multitude was very great and had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples and says to them, 2 "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days and have nothing to eat. 3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way, for some of them came from a distance." 4 And his disciples answered him, "From where can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?" 5 And he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven." 6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to set before them, and they set them before the people. 7 They also had a few small fish. And he blessed them, and commanded these also to be set before them. 8 So they ate and were satisfied. And they took up seven baskets of the fragments that were left. 9 And those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he dismissed them. 10 And immediately he entered into a boat with his disciples and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth and began to question with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, testing him. 12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and says, "Why does this generation seek for a sign? Truly I say to you, there shall no sign be given to this generation." 13 And having left them, and having entered into the boat again, he departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither did they have in the boat with them more than one loaf. 15 And he charged them saying, "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the leaven of Herod." 16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread." 17 And when Jesus knew it, he says to them, "Why do you discuss that you have no bread? Do you still not perceive or understand? Is your heart still hardened? 18 Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember, 19 When I divided the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?" They say to him, "Twelve." 20 "And when I divided the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?" And they said, "Seven." 21 And he said to them, "How is it that you do not understand?"

22 And he comes to Bethsaida, and they bring a blind man to him and implored him to touch him. 23 And he took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when he had spit on his eyes and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw anything. 24 And he looked up, and said, "I see men as trees walking." 25 After that, he put his hands again upon his eyes and made him look up. Then he was restored and saw every man clearly. 26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, "Neither go into the town, nor tell it to anyone in the town."

27 And Jesus went out, along with his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi. And on the way he asked his disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?" 28 And they answered, "'John the Baptist.' But some say, 'Elijah,' and others, 'One of the prophets.'" 29 And he says to them, "But who do you say that I am?" And Peter answers and says to him, "You are the Christ." 30 And he charged them that they should tell no man about him.

31 And he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 And he spoke that saying openly. And Peter took him and began to rebuke him. 33 But when he had turned around and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind me, Satan. For you do not savor the things that are of God, but the things that are of men."

34 And when he had called the people to him with his disciples also, he said to them, "Whoever will come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. 35 For whoever will save his life shall lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. 36 For what shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? 37 Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? 38 Whoever therefore is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man will also be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Chapter 9

Jesus is transfigured, 2-10. He instructs his disciples concerning the coming of Elijah, 11-13; casts out a deaf and mute spirit, 14-29; foretells his death and resurrection, 30-32; exhorts his disciples to humility, 33-37; bidding them not to prohibit those who are not against them, nor to give offense to any of the faithful, 38-50.

1 And he said to them, "Truly I say to you that there are some of those who stand here who shall not taste death until they have seen the kingdom of God come with power."

2 And after six days, Jesus takes with him Peter, James, and John, and leads them up upon a high mountain separately by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, 3 And his clothing became shining, exceedingly white as snow, so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. 4 And Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tabernacles: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 6 For he did not know what to say, for they were greatly terrified. 7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them. And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Hear him." 8 And suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no one with them anymore, except Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen until the Son of man was risen from the dead. 10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning with one another what the rising from the dead should mean. 11 And they asked him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" 12 And he answered and told them, "Elijah truly comes first and restores all things. How is it written concerning the Son of man that he must suffer many things and be set at nothing? 13 But I say to you, that Elijah has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they pleased, as it is written concerning him."

14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude around them and the scribes questioning with them. 15 And immediately, when they beheld him, all the people were greatly amazed and ran to him and saluted him. 16 And he asked the scribes, "What are you questioning with them?" 17 And someone from the multitude answered and said, "Master, I have brought to you my son who has a mute spirit. 18 And wherever he takes him, he convulses him, and he foams and gnashes with his teeth and pines away. And I spoke to your disciples so that they should cast him out, and they could not." 19 He answered him, and says, "O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me." 20 And they brought him to him. And when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming. 21 And he asked his father, "How long has it been since this came to him?" And he said, "From a child. 22 And it has often cast him into the fire and into the waters to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us." 23 Jesus said to him, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes." 24 And immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief." 25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying to him, "You mute and deaf spirit, I charge you, come out of him and enter into him no more." 26 And the spirit cried, shook him severely, and came out of him. And he was as one dead, so that many said, "He is dead." 27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. 28 And when he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast him out?" 29 And he said to them, "This kind can come forth by nothing, except by prayer and fasting."

30 And they departed from there and passed through Galilee, and he did not wish that any man should know it. 31 For he taught his disciples and said to them, "The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men and they will kill him, and after he is killed, he will rise on the third day." 32 But they did not understand that saying and were afraid to ask him.

33 And he came to Capernaum. And being in the house, he asked them, "What was it that you disputed among yourselves on the way?" 34 But they held their peace, for on the way they had disputed among themselves who should be the greatest. 35 And he sat down and called the twelve and says to them, "If any man desires to be first, the same shall be last of all and servant of all." 36 And he took a child and set him in the midst of them, and when he had taken him in his arms, he said to them, 37 "Whoever receives one of such children in my name receives me, and whoever receives me does not receive me, but him who sent me."

38 And John answered him, saying, "Master, we saw someone who does not follow us casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him because he does not follow us." 39 But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him. For there is no man who does a miracle in my name who can lightly speak evil of me. 40 For he who is not against us is on our part. 41 For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you belong to Christ, truly I say to you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 "And whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to fall into sin, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged around his neck and he were cast into the sea. 43 And if your hand causes you to fall into sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed than with two hands to go into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched, 44 'Where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.' 45 And if your foot causes you to fall into sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter lame into life than with two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched, 46 'Where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.' 47 And if your eye causes you to fall into sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be cast into hell-fire, 48 'Where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.'

49 "For everyone shall be salted with fire and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. 50

Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves and have peace with one another."

Chapter 10

Christ disputes with the Pharisees concerning divorce, 1-12 blesses the children who are brought to him, 13-16; resolves a rich man how he may inherit eternal life, 17-22; tells his disciples about the danger of riches, 23-27; promises rewards to those who forsake anything for the gospel, 28-31; foretells his death and resurrection, 32-34; bids the two ambitious appealers to think rather of suffering with him, 35-45; and restores to Bartimeus his sight, 46-52.

1 And he arose from there and comes into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. And the people resort to him again, and, as he was accustomed, he taught them again.

2 And the Pharisees came to him to test him, and asked him, "Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife?" 3 And he answered and said to them, "What did Moses command you?" 4 And they said, "Moses 'allowed a man to write a bill of divorcement and to put her away.'" 5 And Jesus answered and said to them, "For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. 6 But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' 7 'For this cause a man leaves his father and mother and cleaves to his wife, 8 And the two of them become one flesh,' so then they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore, what God has joined together, do not let man separate."

13 And they brought young children to him so that he might touch them, and his disciples rebuked those who brought them. 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to me and do not forbid them, for of such is the kingdom of God. 15 Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter it." 16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 And when he had gone forth into the way, someone came running, kneeled to him, and asked him, "Good Master, what shall I do so that I may inherit eternal life?" 18 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good, but one: God. 19 You know the commandments, 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Do not defraud,' and, 'Honor your father and mother.'" 20 And he answered and said to him, "Master, all these I have observed from my youth." 21 Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him and said to him, "You lack one thing: go and sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven. Then come, take up the cross, and follow me." 22 And he was sad at that saying and went away grieved, for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked around and says to his disciples, "How hardly those who have riches shall enter into the kingdom of God!" 24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answers again, and says to them, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." 26 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying among themselves, "Who then can be saved?" 27 And Jesus looking upon them, says, "With men it is impossible, but not with God. For with God all things are possible."

28 Then Peter began to say to him, "Behold, we have left all and have followed you." 29 Jesus answered and said, "Truly I say to you, there is no man who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, mother, wife, children, or lands for my sake and the gospel's, 30 Who shall not receive one hundred-fold now in this time—houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and lands, along with persecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life. 31 But many who are first shall be last, and the last first."

32 And they were on the way going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus went before them. And they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraid. And again he took the twelve and began to tell them what things should happen to him, 33 Saying, "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and will deliver him to the Gentiles, 34 And they will mock him, scourge him, spit upon him, and kill him. But on the third day he will rise again."

35 And James and John the sons of Zebedee come to him, saying, "Master, we wish that you should do for us whatever we desire." 36 And he said to them, "What do you wish that I should do for you?" 37 They said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit, one on your right hand and the other on your left hand in your glory." 38 But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you ask. Can you drink of the cup that I drink of and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" 39 And they said to him, "We can." And Jesus said to them, "You shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of, and with the baptism that I am baptized with you shall be baptized. 40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give. It shall be given to them for whom it is prepared."

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John. 42 But Jesus called them, and says to them, "You know that those who are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and their great ones exercise authority upon them. 43 But it shall not be so among you. But whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your minister, 44 And whoever of you wishes to be the chief shall be servant of all. 45 For even the Son of man did not come to be ministered to, but to minister and to give his life as a ransom for many."

46 And they came to Jericho. And as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway-side begging. 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me." 48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace, but he cried the more a great deal: "Son of David, have mercy on me." 49 And Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called. And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good comfort. Rise. He calls you." 50 And casting away his garment, he rose and came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus answered and said to him, "What do you wish that I should do to you?" The blind man said to him, "Lord, that I may receive my sight." 52 And Jesus said to him, "Go, your faith has made you whole." And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the way.

Chapter 11

Christ rides with triumph into Jerusalem, 1-11; curses the fruitless fig-tree, 12-14; purges the temple, 15-19; exhorts his disciples to steadfastness of faith and to forgive their enemies, 20-26; and defends the lawfulness of his actions by the witness of John, who was a man sent by God, 27-33.

1 And when they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sends forth two of his disciples, 2 And says to them, "Go into the village over against you. And as soon as you have entered into it, you shall find a colt tied, on which never a man sat. Untie him and bring him. 3 And if any man says to you, 'Why do you do this?' say that the Lord has need of him, and immediately he will send him here." 4 And they went and found the colt tied by the door outside in a place where two ways met, and they untied him. 5 And some of those who stood there, said to them, "What are you doing untying the colt?" 6 And they said to them even as Jesus had commanded, and they let them go. 7 And they brought the colt to Jesus and cast their garments on him, and he sat upon him. 8 And many spread their garments in the way, and others cut down branches off trees and spread them in the way. 9 And those who went before and those who followed cried, saying,

> "'Hosanna! /
> Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'
>
> 10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David / > that comes in the name of the Lord. /
> Hosanna in the highest."

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem and into the temple. And when he had looked around at all things, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

12 And on the next day, when they had come from Bethany, he was hungry, 13 And seeing a fig-tree afar off having leaves, he came, if perhaps he might find anything on it. And when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for the time of figs had not yet come. 14 And Jesus answered and said to it, "Let no man eat fruit from you hereafter forever." And his disciples heard it.

15 And they came to Jerusalem. And Jesus went into the temple and began to cast out those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold doves, 16 And would not allow any man to carry any vessel through the temple. 17 And he taught, saying to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called by all nations the house of prayer'? But you have made it 'a den of thieves.'" 18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it and sought how they might destroy him, for they feared him, because all the people were astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when evening had come, he went out of the city.

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots. 21 And Peter calling to remembrance, says to him, "Master, behold, the fig-tree which you cursed has withered." 22 And Jesus answering, says to them, "Have faith in God. 23 For truly I say to you, that whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that the things which he says shall come to pass, he shall have whatever he says. 24 Therefore, I say to you, whatever things you desire when you pray, believe that you receive them and you shall have them. 25 And when you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father who is in heaven may also forgive you of your trespasses. 26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses."

27 And they come again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders, 28 And say to him, "By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority to do these things?" 29 And Jesus answered and said to them, "I will also ask of you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me." 31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32 But if we say, 'From men'—" They feared the people, for all men counted John that he was a prophet indeed. 33 And they answered and said to Jesus, "We cannot tell." And Jesus answering says to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

Chapter 12

In a parable of the vineyard lent out to wicked farmers, Christ foretells the reprobation of the Jews and the calling of the Gentiles, 1-12. He avoids the snare of the Pharisees and Herodians about paying tribute to Caesar, 13-17; convicts the Sadducees of error, who denied the resurrection, 18-27; resolves the scribe who questioned of the first commandment, 28-34; refutes the opinion that the scribes held of Christ, 35-37; bidding the people to beware of their ambition and hypocrisy, 38-40; and commends the poor widow above all for her two mites, 41-44.

1 And he began to speak to them in parables. "A certain man planted a vineyard, set a hedge around it, dug a place for the wine-vat, built a tower, lent it out to farmers, and went into a far country. 2 And at the season, he sent to the farmers a servant so that he might receive from the farmers some of the fruit of the vineyard. 3 And they caught him, beat him, and sent him away empty. 4 And again, he sent to them another servant, and at him they cast stones and wounded him in the head and sent him away shamefully handled. 5 And again he sent another, and they killed him, and many others, beating some and killing some. 6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him last to them, saying, 'They will reverence my son.' 7 But those farmers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 And they took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. 9 What therefore will the Lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers and will give the vineyard to others. 10 And have you not read this Scripture:

> 'The stone which the builders rejected
> has become the head of the corner.
>
> 11 This was the Lord's doing
> and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"

12 And they sought to lay hold upon him, but feared the people, for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them. And they left him and departed.

13 And they sent to him some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to catch him in his words. 14 And when they had come, they say to him, "Master, we know that you are true and care for no man, for you do not regard the person of men, but teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give?" But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius so that I may see it." 16 And they brought it, and he says to them, "Whose image and superscription is this?" And they said to him, "Caesar's." 17 And Jesus answering, said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they wondered at him.

18 Then the Sadducees came to him, who say there is no resurrection, and they asked him, saying, 19 "Master, Moses wrote to us, 'If a man's brother dies and leaves his wife and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise children for his brother.' 20 Now there were seven brothers: the first took a wife, and dying left no children; 21 And the second took her and died, neither did he leave any children; and the third likewise; 22 And the seven had her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection therefore, when they rise, whose wife shall she be of them? For the seven had her for a wife." 24 And Jesus answering, said to them, "Do you not therefore err because you do not know the Scriptures, neither the power of God? 25 For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels who are in heaven. 26 And concerning the dead, that they rise, have you not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? 27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. You therefore greatly err."

28 And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, "Which is the first commandment of all?" 29 And Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is, 'Hear, O Israel. The Lord our God is one Lord. 30 And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment. 31 And the second is like it, namely this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." 32 And the scribe said to him, "Right, Master, you have said the truth, for there 'is one God,' 'and there is no other but he.' 33 And to love him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices." 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no man after that dared to question him.

35 And while he taught in the temple, Jesus answered and said, "How is it that the scribes say that Christ is the son of David? 36 For David himself said by the Holy Spirit,

> 'The LORD said to my Lord, /
> "Sit on my right hand /
> until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet."'

37 Therefore, David himself calls him Lord, and how is he then his son?" And the common people heard him gladly.

38 And he said to them in his doctrine, "Beware of the scribes who love to go in long clothing, love salutations in the market-places, 39 The chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts, 40 Who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These shall receive greater condemnation."

41 And Jesus sat over against the treasury and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury. And many who were rich cast in much. 42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a quadrans. 43 And he called his disciples and says to them, "Truly I say to you, that this poor widow has cast in more than all those who have cast into the treasury. 44 For they all cast in of their abundance, but she of her lack cast in all that she had, even all her living."

Chapter 13

Christ foretells the destruction of the temple, 1-8; the persecutions for the gospel, 9; that the gospel must be preached to all nations, 10-13; that great calamities shall happen to the Jews, 14-23; and the manner of his coming to judgment, 24-31; the hour of which being known to no one, every man is to watch and pray so that we are not found unprovided when he comes to each one particularly by death, 32-37.

1 And as he was going out of the temple, one of his disciples says to him, "Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!" 2 And Jesus answering said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down."

3 And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, 4 "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign when all these things are fulfilled?" 5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, "Take heed lest any man deceive you. 6 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am Christ,' and will deceive many. 7 And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled, for such things must come. But the end is not yet. 8 For nation will rise against nation, kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in diverse places, and there will be famines and troubles. These are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 "But take heed to yourselves. For they will deliver you up to councils, and in the synagogues you will be beaten, and you will be brought before rulers and kings for my sake for a testimony against them. 10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations. 11 But when they lead you and deliver you up, do not be anxious beforehand of what you shall speak, neither premeditate. But whatever is given to you in that hour, speak it, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12 Now the brother will betray the brother to death, and the father the son. And children will rise up against their parents and will cause them to be put to death. 13 And you will be hated by all men for my name's sake. But he who endures to the end, the same shall be saved.

14 "But when you see 'the abomination of desolation' spoken of by Daniel the prophet standing where it ought not (let him who reads understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 15 And he who is on the house-top must not go down into the house, neither enter it, to take anything out of his house. 16 And he who is in the field must not turn back again to take up his garment. 17 But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse infants in those days. 18 And pray that your flight is not in the winter. 19 For in those days there shall be affliction such as has not been from the beginning of the creation which God created to this time, neither shall there be. 20 And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved. But for the elect's sake, whom he has chosen, he has shortened the days. 21 And then, if any man says to you, 'Behold, here is Christ,' or, 'Behold, he is there,' do not believe him. 22 For false Christs and false prophets will rise and will show signs and wonders to lead astray, if it were possible, even the elect. 23 But take heed. Behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 "But in those days, after that tribulation, 'the sun shall be darkened, the moon shall not give her light, 25 The stars of heaven shall fall,' and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. 26 And then they shall see 'the Son of man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory. 27 And then he will send his angels and will assemble his elect from the four winds, 'from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.'

28 "Now learn a parable of the fig-tree: when its branch is yet tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 29 Thus you, in a like manner, when you see these things come to pass, know that it is near, even at the doors. 30 Truly I say to you, that this generation shall not pass until all these things are done. 31 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. 32 But of that day and that hour no man knows, not even the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 "Take heed, watch and pray, for you do not know when the time is. 34 For the Son of man is like a man taking a long journey, who left his house and gave authority to his servants, each to his work, and commanded the gatekeeper to watch. 35 Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house comes—at evening, at midnight, at the cock-crowing, or in the morning— 36 Lest coming suddenly, he should find you sleeping. 37 And what I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch.'"

Chapter 14

A conspiracy against Christ, 1, 2. Precious ointment is poured on his head by a woman, 3-9. Judas sells his Master for money, 10, 11. Christ himself foretells how he shall be betrayed by one of his disciples, 12-21; after the passover is prepared and eaten, institutes his last supper, 22-25; declares beforehand the flight of all his disciples and Peter's denial, 26-42. Judas betrays him with a kiss, 43-45. He is apprehended in the garden, 46-52; falsely accused and impiously condemned by the Jews' council, 53-64; shamefully abused by them, 65; and three times denied by Peter, 66-72.

1 After two days was the feast of the passover and of unleavened bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft and put him to death. 2
But they said, "Not on the feast-day, lest there should be an uproar of the people."

3 And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, there came a woman having an alabaster vial of ointment of spikenard, very precious, and she broke the vial and poured it on his head. 4 And there were some who had indignation within themselves, and said, "Why was this waste of the ointment made? 5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor." And they murmured against her. 6 And Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has wrought a good work on me. 7 For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish, you may do them good. But you do not always have me. 8 She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint my body for the burial. 9 Truly
I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the whole world, this also that she has done shall be spoken of for a memorial to her."

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray him to them.
11 And when they heard it, they were glad and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said to him, "Where do you wish that we go and prepare so that you may eat the passover?" 13 And he sends two of his disciples, and says to them, "Go into the city, and there a man shall meet you bearing a pitcher of water. Follow him. 14 And wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, 'The Master says, "Where is the guest-chamber where I may eat the passover with my disciples?"' 15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared. Make ready for us there." 16 And his disciples went and came into the city and found it as he had said to them. And they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening, he comes with the twelve. 18 And as they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, one of you who eats with me will betray me." 19 And they began to be sorrowful and to say to him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?" 20 And he answered and said to them, "It is one of the twelve who dips with me in the dish. 21 The Son of man indeed goes, as it is written concerning him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had never been born."

22 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body." 23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it. 24 And he said to them, "This is my blood of the new testament which is shed for many. 25 Truly I say to you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until the day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. 27 And Jesus says to them, "All of you will be offended because of me this night, for it is written, 'I will "smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered."' 28 But after I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee." 29 But Peter said to him, "Even though all shall be offended, yet I will not." 30 And Jesus says to him, "Truly I say to you, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." 31 But he spoke the more vehemently, "If I should die with you, I will not deny you in any way." They all also said likewise.

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane. And he says to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray." 33 And he takes with him Peter, James, and John and began to be greatly amazed and to be very heavy, 34 And says to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful to death. Remain here and watch." 35 And he went forward a little, fell on the ground, and prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. 36 And he said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Take away this cup from me. Nevertheless, not what I will, but what you will." 37 And he comes and finds them sleeping, and says to Peter, "Simon, do you sleep? Could you not watch one hour? 38 Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak." 39 And again he went away, prayed, and spoke the same words. 40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again (for their eyes were heavy), neither did they know what to answer him. 41 And he comes the third time, and says to them, "Sleep on now and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Rise, let us go. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."

43 And immediately while he was yet speaking, Judas comes, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staffs from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. 44 And he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, he is the one. Take him and lead him away safely." 45 And as soon as he had come, he goes immediately to him, and says, "Master, master," and kissed him. 46 And they laid their hands on him and took him. 47 And one of those who stood by drew a sword, smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. 48 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and with staffs to take me? 49 I was with you daily in the temple teaching, and you did not take me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled." 50 And they all forsook him and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast around his naked body, and the young men laid hold upon him. 52 And he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.

53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest. And with him all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes were assembled. 54 And Peter followed him at a distance, even into the palace of the high priest, and he sat with the servants and warmed himself at the fire. 55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for testimony against Jesus to put him to death, and found none. 56 For many bore false testimony against him, but their testimony did not agree together. 57 And some rose up and bore false testimony against him, saying, 58 "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.'" 59 But neither in this way did their testimony agree together. 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, saying, "Do you answer nothing? What is it which these testify against you?" 61 But he held his peace and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said to him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?" 62 And Jesus said, "I am. And you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power and 'coming in the clouds of heaven.'" 63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and says, "What need do we have of any further witnesses? 64 You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?" And they all condemned him to be guilty of death. 65 And some began to spit on him, to cover his face, to buffet him, and to say to him, "Prophesy." And the servants struck him with the palms of their hands.

66 And as Peter was below in the palace, there comes one of the women-servants of the high priest. 67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "And you were also with Jesus of Nazareth." 68 But he denied, saying, "I do not know, neither do I understand what you say." And he went out into the porch and the cock crowed. 69 And a woman-servant saw him again and began to say to those who stood by, "This is one of them." 70 And he denied it again. And a little after, those who stood by said again to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech agrees thereto." 71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, "I do not know this man of whom you speak." 72 And the second time the cock crowed. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said to him: "Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." And when he thought thereon, he wept.

[v.27]: Zechariah 13:7. [v.62]: Daniel 7:13.

Chapter 15

Jesus brought bound and accused before Pilate, 1-5. Upon the clamor of the common people, the murderer Barabbas is released and Jesus delivered up to be crucified, 6-15. He is crowned with thorns, spit on, and mocked, 16-20; faints in bearing his cross, 21-26; hangs between two thieves, 27, 28; suffers the triumphing reproaches of the Jews, 29-38; but is confessed by the centurion to be the Son of God, 39-41; and is honorably buried by Joseph, 42-47.

1 And immediately in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders, scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. 2 And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he, answering, said to him, "You say it." 3 And the chief priests accused him of many things, but he answered nothing. 4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, "Do you answer nothing? Behold how many things they testify against you." 5 But Jesus still answered nothing; therefore, Pilate marveled.

6 Now at that feast he released to them one prisoner whom they desired. 7 And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound with those who had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. 8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had always done for them. 9 But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you wish that I release to you the King of the Jews?" 10 (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.) 11 But the chief priests moved the people that he should rather release Barabbas to them. 12 And Pilate answered and said again to them, "What do you wish then that I do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?" 13 And they cried out again, "Crucify him." 14 Then Pilate said to them, "Why? What evil has he done?" And they cried out the more exceedingly, "Crucify him." 15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas to them, and having scourged Jesus, delivered him to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall called Praetorium, and they called together the whole band. 17 And they clothed him with purple, platted a crown of thorns, put it around his head, 18 And began to salute him: "Hail, King of the Jews!" 19 And they struck him on the head with a reed, spit upon him, and bowing their knees, worshiped him. 20 And when they had mocked him, they took the purple from off of him, put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they constrained someone who was passing by, Simon of Cyrene (the father of Alexander and Rufus), who was coming from the country, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him to the place Golgotha (which is, being interpreted, The Place of a Skull). 23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh, but he did not receive it. 24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. 25 And it was the third hour and they crucified him. 26 And the superscription of his accusation was written above, "THE KING OF THE JEWS."

27 And with him they crucified two thieves: one on his right hand and the other on his left. 28 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which says, "And he was numbered with the transgressors." 29 And those who passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ah, you who destroy the temple and build it in three days, 30 Save yourself and come down from the cross." 31 Likewise, the chief priests, also mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, "He saved others, but he cannot save himself. 32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross so that we may see and believe." And those who were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" (which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?") 35 And some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he calls Elijah." 36 And someone ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Wait. Let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down." 37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice and expired. 38 And the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. 39 And when the centurion who stood over against him saw that he thus cried out and expired, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God."

40 There were also women looking on at a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James the younger and Joseph), Salome 41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him and ministered to him), and many other women who came with him to Jerusalem.

42 And now, when the evening had come, because it was the preparation (that is, the day before the sabbath), 43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable counselor, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came and went in boldly to Pilate and petitioned for the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marveled that he was already dead. And calling the centurion, he asked him whether he had already been dead. 45 And when he knew it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. 46 And he bought fine linen, took him down, wrapped him in the linen, laid him in a sepulcher which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the sepulcher. 47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph beheld where he was laid.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.28]: Isaiah 53:12. [v.34]: Psalm 22:1.

Chapter 16

An angel declares the resurrection of Christ to three women, 1-8. Christ himself appears to Mary Magdalene, 9-11; to two going into the country, 12, 13; then to the apostles, 14; whom he sends forth to preach the gospel, 15-18; and ascends into heaven, 19, 20.

1 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James), and Salome had bought sweet spices so that they might come and anoint him. 2 And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came to the sepulcher at the rising of the sun. 3 And they said among themselves, "Who shall roll away the stone from the door of the sepulcher for us?" 4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away—for it was very large. 5 And entering into the sepulcher, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment, and they were frightened. 6 And he says to them, "Do not be frightened. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold the place where they laid him. 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you into Galilee. There you shall see him, as he said to you.'" 8 And they went out quickly and fled from the sepulcher, for they trembled and were amazed. They did not say anything to any man, for they were afraid.

9 Now when Jesus had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons. 10 And she went and told those who had been with him as they mourned and wept. 11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, did not believe.

12 After that, he appeared in another form to two of them as they were walking and going into the country. 13 And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe them.

14 Afterward, he appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table and rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart because they did not believe those who had seen him after he was risen. 15 And he said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. 16 He who believes and is baptized shall be saved, but he who does not believe shall be condemned. 17 And these signs shall follow those who believe: in my name they shall cast out demons, they shall speak in new languages, 18 They shall take up serpents, if they drink any deadly thing it shall not hurt them, and they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover."

19 So then after the Lord had spoken to them, he was received up into heaven and sat on the right hand of God. 20 And they went forth and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

The Gospel According to Luke

Luke | Κατὰ Λουκᾶν

Chapter 1

The preface of Luke to his whole gospel, 1-4. The conception of John the Baptist, 5-25; and of Christ, 26-38. The prophecy of Elizabeth and of Mary concerning Christ, 39-56. The nativity and circumcision of John, 57-66. The prophecy of Zechariah, both of Christ, 67-75, and of John, 76-80.

1 Because many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us, 2 Even as they delivered them to us, who, from the beginning, were eye-witnesses and ministers of the word, 3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus, 4 So that you may know the certainty of those things in which you have been instructed.

5 There was in the days of Herod the king of Judea a certain priest named Zechariah, of the course of Abia. And his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6 And they were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. 7 And they had no child because Elizabeth was barren and they were both far advanced in years.

8 And it came to pass, that, while he executed the priest’s office before God in the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of the priest’s office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. 10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the time of incense. 11 And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And when Zechariah saw him, he was troubled and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said to him, "Do not fear, Zechariah, for your prayer is heard. Your wife Elizabeth shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. 14 And you shall have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoice at his birth, 15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord. He shall drink neither wine nor strong drink, and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother’s womb. 16 And many of the children of Israel he shall turn to the Lord their God. 17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah to 'turn the hearts of the fathers to the children' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

18 And Zechariah said to the angel, "By what shall I know this? For I am an old man and my wife is far advanced in years." 19 And the angel, answering, said to him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to show you these glad tidings. 20 And behold, you shall be mute and not able to speak until the day that these things are performed because you do not believe my words which shall be fulfilled in their season."

21 And the people waited for Zechariah and marveled that he delayed so long in the temple. 22 And when he came out, he could not speak to them. And they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he beckoned to them and remained speechless. 23 And it came to pass as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, that he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived and secluded herself for five months, saying, 25 "Thus the Lord has dealt with me in the days in which he looked at me to take away my reproach among men."

26 And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. 28 And the angel came to her and said, "Hail, you who are highly favored. The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women." 29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying and considered what kind of salutation this might be. 30 And the angel said to her, "Do not fear, Mary, for you have found favor with God. 31 And behold, you shall conceive in your womb and bring forth a son, and you shall call his name JESUS. 32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Highest, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David. 33 And he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." 34 Then Mary said to the angel, "How shall this be, seeing I do not know a man?" 35 And the angel answered and said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore also, the holy one being born shall be called the Son of God. 36 And behold, your cousin Elizabeth, she has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. 37 For with God nothing will be impossible." 38 And Mary said, "Behold the servant of the Lord, may it be done to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days and went into the hill-country with haste to a city of Judah, 40 And she entered into the house of Zechariah and saluted Elizabeth. 41 And it came to pass when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, that the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. 42 And she spoke with a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. 43 And how has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 For behold, as soon as the voice of your salutation sounded in my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy. 45 And blessed is she who believed that there will be a performance of those things which were told to her from the Lord."

46 And Mary said,

> "My soul magnifies the Lord,
>
> 47 And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior,
>
> 48 For he has regarded the low estate of his servant. /
> For behold, from now on all generations / > will call me blessed.
>
> 49 For he who is mighty has done to me great things, / > and his name is holy.
>
> 50 'And his mercy is on those who fear him, /
> from generation to generation.'

51 He has shown strength with his arm. /
He has scattered the proud /
in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He has put down the mighty from their seats / and exalted those of low degree.

53 'He has filled the hungry with good things,' / and the rich he has sent away empty.

54 He has sustained his servant Israel, /
in remembrance of his mercy,

55 As he spoke to our fathers, / to Abraham and his offspring forever."

56 And Mary stayed with her for about three months and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elizabeth’s full time came that she should deliver, and she brought forth a son. 58 And her neighbors and her cousins heard that the Lord had shown great mercy upon her, and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child, and they called him Zechariah, after the name of his father. 60 And his mother answered and said, "Not so, but he shall be called John." 61 And they said to her, "There is no one of your kindred who is called by this name." 62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. 63 And he asked for a writing-tablet and wrote, saying, "His name is John." And they all wondered. 64 And his mouth was opened immediately and his tongue loosened, and he spoke and praised God. 65 And fear came on all who dwelt around them, and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judea. 66 And all those who had heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What manner of child this will be!" And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying,

68 "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, /
for he has visited and redeemed his people.

69 He has raised up a horn of salvation for us, / in the house of his servant David,

70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets, / who have been since the world began,

71 That we should be 'saved from our enemies /
and from the hand of all who hate us,'

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers / and to remember his holy covenant,

73 The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant to us, that we, / being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, / might serve him without fear

75 In holiness and righteousness before him /
all the days of our life.

76 And you, child, shall be called / the prophet of the Highest, / for you shall 'go before the face of the Lord / to prepare his ways,'

77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people /
by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God, /
by which the day-spring from on high has visited us

79 To 'give light to those who sit in darkness / and in the shadow of death,' / to guide our feet into the way of peace."

80 And the child grew and became strong in spirit and was in the wilderness until the day of his showing to Israel.

Chapter 2

Augustus taxes all the Roman empire, 1-5. The nativity of Christ, 6, 7 An angel relates it to the shepherds, and many sing praises to God for it, 8-14. The shepherds glorify God, 15-20. Christ is circumcised, 21. Mary purified, 22-24. Simeon and Anna prophesy of Christ, 25-38, who increases in wisdom, 39, 40, questions in the temple with the teachers, 41-50, and is obedient to his parents, 51, 52.

1 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. 2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) 3 And all went to be taxed, each into his own city. 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem (because he was of the house and lineage of David), 5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. 6 And it came to pass while they were there, that the days were accomplished that she should deliver. 7 And she brought forth her first-born son, wrapped him in swaddling-clothes, and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them in the guest-chamber.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. 9 And behold, the angel of the Lord came upon them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were in great fear. 10 And the angel said to them, "Do not fear, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be for all people. 11 For there is born to you this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. 12 And this shall be a sign for you: you shall find the baby wrapped in swaddling-clothes and lying in a manger." 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

> 14 "Glory to God in the highest, / > and on earth peace, good will toward men."

15 And it came to pass when the angels had departed from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go even to Bethlehem and see this thing which has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us." 16 And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger. 17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told to them concerning this child. 18 And all those who heard it wondered at those things which were told to them by the shepherds. 19 But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told to them.

21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, who was thus named by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord 23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who is the first-born of his mother shall be called holy to the Lord") 24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord: "A pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons."

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel. And the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26 And it was revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Christ. 27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, 28 He took him up in his arms and blessed God and said,

> 29 "Lord, now let your servant depart in peace, /
> according to your word.
>
> 30 For my eyes have seen your salvation,
>
> 31 Which you have prepared / > before the face of all people,
>
> 32 'A light to enlighten the Gentiles,' / > and the glory of your people Israel."

33 And Joseph and his mother marveled at those things which were spoken concerning him. 34 And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel, and for a sign which shall be spoken against 35 (And a sword shall pierce through your own soul also), so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

36 And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37 And she was a widow of about eighty-four years. She did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. 38 And she, coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise to the Lord and spoke about him to all those who looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee to their own city of Nazareth. 40 And the child grew and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom. And the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. 43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, and Joseph and his mother did not know about it. 44 But they, supposing him to be in the company, went a day’s journey, and they sought him among their relatives and acquaintances. 45 And when they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem seeking him. 46 And it came to pass after three days, that they found him in the temple sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them and asking them questions. 47 And all who heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. 48 And when they saw him, they were amazed. And his mother said to him, "Son, why have you thus dealt with us? Behold, your father and I have sought you sorrowing." 49 And he said to them, "How is it that you sought me? Did you not know that I must be about my Father’s business?" 50 And they did not understand the saying which he spoke to them. 51 And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subject to them. But his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man.

Chapter 3

The preaching and baptism of John, 1-14; his testimony of Christ, 15-18; Herod imprisons John, 19, 20; Christ, baptized, receives testimony from heaven, 21, 22. The age and genealogy of Christ showing him to be the Son of God and Son of man, 23-38.

1 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanius the tetrarch of Abilene, 2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness. 3 And he came into all the country around the Jordan preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins, 4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way of the Lord.
Make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled,
every mountain and hill shall be brought low,
the crooked shall be made straight,
and the rough ways shall be made smooth,

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.'"

7 Then he said to the multitude who came forth to be baptized by him, "O generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father.' For I say to you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham. 9 And now also the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore which does not bring forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire."

10 And the people asked him, saying, "What shall we do then?" 11 He answers and says to them, "He who has two coats, let him impart to him who has none, and he who has provisions, let him do likewise." 12 Then tax collectors also came to be baptized and said to him, "Master, what shall we do?" 13 And he said to them, "Exact no more than that which is appointed you." 14 And the soldiers likewise asked him, saying, "And what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages."

15 And as the people were in expectation and all men mused in their hearts concerning John, whether he was the Christ or not, 16 John answered, saying to them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but one mightier than I comes, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. 17 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his floor and gather the wheat into his granary, but he will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18 And many other things in his exhortation he preached to the people. 19 But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut John up in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass as Jesus had also been baptized and was praying, that the heaven was opened, 22 And the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, "You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased."

23 And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, who was the son of Heli, 24 Who was the son of Matthat, who was the son of Levi, who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Janna, who was the son of Joseph, 25 Who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Amos, who was the son of Nahum, who was the son of Esli, who was the son of Naggai, 26 Who was the son of

The temptation and fasting of Christ, 1-13. He begins to preach, 14, 15. The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words, but being offended, seek to kill him, 16-32. He cures someone possessed with a demon, 33-37, Peter's mother-in-law, 38, 39, and various other sick persons, 40. The demons acknowledge Christ and are reproved for it, 41. He preaches through the cities of Galilee, 42-44.

1 And Jesus being full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, 2 Being forty days tempted by the devil. And in those days he ate nothing, and when they had ended, he was afterward hungry. 3 And the devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread." 4 And Jesus answered him, saying, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.'"

5 And the devil taking him up upon a high mountain showed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6 And the devil said to him, "All this power I will give you, and the glory of them, for that is delivered to me, and to whomever I wish, I give it. 7 If you therefore will worship me, all shall be yours." 8 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Get behind me, Satan, for it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.'"

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem and set him on a pinnacle of the temple and said to him, "If you are the son of God, cast yourself down from here, 10 For it is written,

'"He will give his angels charge over you, to keep you."

11 And

"in their hands they will bear you up,
lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone."'"

12 And Jesus, answering, said to him, "It is said, 'You shall not test the Lord your God.'"

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee. And there went out a fame of him through all the surrounding region. 15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath and stood up to read. 17 And there was delivered to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor.
He has sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives,
and recovering of sight to the blind,
to set at liberty those who are bruised,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord."

20 And he closed the book, gave it back to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all those who were in the synagogue were fastened on him. 21 And he began to say to them, "This day this Scripture is fulfilled in your ears." 22 And all bore him testimony and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, "Is this not Joseph’s son?" 23 And he said to them, "You will surely say to me this proverb, 'Physician, heal yourself. Whatever we have heard done in Capernaum, do here in your country also.'" 24 And he said, "Truly I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own country. 25 But I tell you in truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah when the heaven was shut three years and six months when great famine was throughout all the land. 26 But Elijah was sent to none of them except to Zarephath, a city of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. 27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and not one of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian." 28 And all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath. 29 And they rose up, thrust him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built so that they might cast him down headlong. 30 But he, passing through the midst of them, went away.

31 And he came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath-days. 32 And they were astonished at his doctrine, for his word was with power. 33 And in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, "Leave us alone. What have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God." 35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Hold your peace and come out of him." And when the demon had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him and did not hurt him. 36 And they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word this is! For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out." 37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the surrounding country.

38 And he arose out of the synagogue and entered into Simon's house. And the mother of Simon's wife was taken with a violent fever, and they implored him for her. 39 And he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and ministered to them.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him. And he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them. 41
And demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are Christ the Son of God." And rebuking them, he did not allow them to speak, for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desolate place. And the people sought him, came to him, and wanted to keep him so that he would not depart from them. 43 And he said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also, for that is why I am sent."

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

Chapter 5

Christ teaches the people out of Peter's ship, 1-3; in a miraculous taking of fish, shows how he will make him and his partners fishers of men, 4-11; cleanses the leper, 12-15; prays in the wilderness, 16; heals someone of paralysis, 17-26; calls Matthew the tax collector, 27, 28; eats with sinners, as being the physician of souls, 29-32; foretells the fastings and afflictions of the apostles after his ascension, 33-35; and illustrates the matter by the parable of old bottles and worn garments, 36-39.

1 And it came to pass as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, that he stood by the lake of Gennesaret 2 And saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. 3 And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people out of the boat. 4 Now when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." 5 And Simon, answering, said to him, "Master, we have toiled all the night and have taken nothing. Nevertheless, at your word I will let down the net." 6 And when they had done this, they enclosed a great multitude of fish and their net broke. 7 And they beckoned to their partners who were in the other boat that they should come and help them. And they came and filled both boats so that they began to sink. 8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." 9 For he was astonished, along with all who were with him, at the catch of the fish which they had taken, 10 And so were James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not fear. From now on you shall catch men." 11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed him.

12 And it came to pass when he was in a certain city, that behold, a man full of leprosy, who, seeing Jesus, fell on his face and implored him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean." 13 And he put forth his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately the leprosy departed from him. 14 And he charged him, "Tell no man. But go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing according as Moses commanded for a testimony to them." 15 But so much the more a fame of him went abroad, and great multitudes came together to hear and to be healed by him of their infirmities. 16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal [the sick]. 18 And behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed. And they sought means to bring him in and to lay him before him. 19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top and let him down through the tiling with his bed into the midst before Jesus. 20 And when he saw their faith, he said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven." 21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?" 22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he, answering, said to them, "What do you reason in your hearts? 23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? 24 But so that you may know that the Son of man has power upon earth to forgive sins"—he said to the paralytic—"I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go into your house." 25 And immediately he arose before them, took up that on which he lay, and departed to his own house glorifying God. 26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

27 And after these things, he went forth and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the receipt of custom. And he said to him, "Follow me." 28 And he left everything, arose, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house, and there was a great company of tax collectors and of others who sat down with them. 30 But the scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" 31 And Jesus, answering, said to them, "Those who are well do not need a physician, but those who are sick do. 32 I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

33 And they said to him, "Why do the disciples of John fast often and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?" 34 And he said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then they will fast in those days." 36 And he also spoke a parable to them: "No man puts a patch of a new garment upon an old, or else the new makes a rent and the piece that was taken out of the new does not agree with the old. 37 And no man puts new wine into old bottles, or else the new wine will burst the bottles and be spilled, and the bottles will perish. 38 But new wine must be put into new bottles, and both are preserved. 39 No man also having drank old wine immediately desires new, because he says, 'The old is better.'"

Chapter 6

Christ reproves the Pharisees, 1-11; chooses apostles, 12-16; heals the diseased, 17-19; preaches to his disciples before the people, 20-49.

1 And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through grain-fields, and his disciples plucked the heads of grain and ate, rubbing them in their hands. 2 And some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath-days?" 3 And Jesus, answering them, said, "Have you not read so much as this, what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him, 4 How he went into the house of God, took and ate the show-bread, and also gave to those who were with him, which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?" 5 And he said to them, "The Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath."

6 And it also came to pass on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught. And there was a man whose right hand was withered. 7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him to see whether he would heal on the sabbath so that they might find an accusation against him. 8 But he knew their thoughts and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Rise and stand forth in the midst." And he arose and stood forth. 9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one thing: is it lawful on the sabbath-days to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?" 10 And looking around at them all, he said to the man, "Stretch forth your hand." And he did so and his hand was restored whole as the other. 11 And they were filled with madness and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out to a mountain to pray and continued all night in prayer to God. 13 And when it was day, he called his disciples to him, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named Apostles: 14 Simon (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alpheus, Simon called Zelotes, 16 Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot (who also was the traitor).

17 And he came down with them and stood in the plain, with the company of his disciples and a great multitude of people out of all Judea, Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases, 18 And also those who were afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were healed. 19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him, for power went out of him and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes to his disciples and said, "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. 21 Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh. 22 Blessed are you when men hate you and when they separate you from their company, reproach you, and cast out your name as evil on account of the Son of man. 23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven. For their fathers did likewise to the prophets. 24 But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your consolation. 25 Woe to you who are full! For you shall hunger. Woe to you who laugh now! For you shall mourn and weep. 26 Woe to you, when all men speak well of you! For thus their fathers did to the false prophets.

27 "But I say to you who hear, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 Bless those who curse you, and pray for those who despitefully use you. 29 And to him who smites you on one cheek, offer the other also. And to him who takes away your cloak, do not forbid to take your coat also. 30 Give to every man who asks of you, and of him who takes away your goods, do not ask for them back. 31 And as you wish that men should do to you, do also to them likewise. 32 For if you love those who love you, what thanks do you have? For sinners also love those who love them. 33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks do you have? For sinners even do the same. 34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks do you have? For sinners also lend to sinners to receive as much in return. 35 But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing back, and your reward shall be great, and you shall be the children of the Highest, for he is kind to the unthankful and to the evil. 36 Therefore, be merciful, as your Father is also merciful.

37 "Do not judge, and you shall not be judged. Do not condemn, and you shall not be condemned. Forgive, and you shall be forgiven. 38 Give, and it shall be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, men shall give into your bosom. For with the same measure that you give to others, it shall be measured back to you."

39 And he spoke a parable to them: "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch? 40 The disciple is not above his master, but everyone who is perfect shall be as his master. 41 And why do you behold the mote that is in your brother’s eye, but not perceive the beam that is in your own eye? 42 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not behold the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to pull out the mote that is in your brother’s eye. 43 For a good tree does not bring forth corrupt fruit, neither does a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. 44 For every tree is known by its own fruit. For men do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. 45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which is good, and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth that which is evil. For from the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

46 "And why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do the things which I say? 47 Whoever comes to me, hears my sayings, and does them, I will show you to whom he is like. 48 He is like a man who built a house and dug deep and laid the foundation on a rock, and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house and could not shake it, for it was founded upon a rock. 49 But he who hears and does not do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream beat vehemently and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

Chapter 7

Christ finds a greater faith in the centurion, a Gentile, than in any of the Jews, 1-9; heals his servant, being absent, 10; raises from death the widow's son at Nain, 11-17; answers John's messengers with the declaration of his miracles, 18-23; testifies to the people what opinion he held of John, 24-30; gives reproof to the Jews, with neither the manners of John nor of Jesus, of who could be won, 31-35; and allowing his feet to be washed and anointed by a woman who was a sinner, he shows how he is a friend to sinners, to forgive them of their sins upon their repentance, 36-50.

1 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die. 3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent the elders of the Jews to him imploring him that he would come and heal his servant. 4 And when they came to Jesus, they implored him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this, 5 For he loves our nation and has built us a synagogue." 6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof; 7 Therefore, neither did I think myself worthy to come to you. But say in a word and my servant shall be healed. 8 For I also am a man set under authority and have under me soldiers. And I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." 9 When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him and turned himself around and said to the people who followed him, "I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel." 10 And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well who had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, along with many people. 12 Now when he came near to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and many people of the city were with her. 13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." 14 And he came and touched the bier. And those who bore him stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." 15 And he who was dead sat up and began to speak, and he delivered him to his mother. 16 And there came a fear on all and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us," and, "God has visited his people." 17 And this rumor of him went forth throughout all Judea and throughout all the neighboring region.

18 And the disciples of John informed him of all these things. 19 And John, calling two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you he who should come, or do we look for another?" 20 When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you he who should come, or do we look for another?'" 21 And in that same hour he cured many of infirmities, diseases, and evil spirits, and to many who were blind he gave sight. 22 Then Jesus, answering, said to them, "Go, and tell John what things you have seen and heard: 'the blind see,' 'the lame walk,' lepers are cleansed, 'the deaf hear,' the dead are raised, and 'the gospel is preached to the poor.' 23 And blessed is he to whom I shall not be a stumbling-block."

24 And when the messengers of John had departed, he began to speak to the people concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? 25 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously appareled and live delicately are in kings' courts. 26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. 27 "This is he concerning whom it is written,

> 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, /
> who shall prepare your way before you.'

28 "For I say to you, among those who are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist. But he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." 29 And all the people and the tax collectors who heard him justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. 30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves by not being baptized by him.

31 And the Lord said, "To what then shall I compare the men of this generation? And to what are they like? 32 They are like children sitting in the market-place and calling to one another and saying,

> 'We have piped to you /
> and you have not danced. /
> We have mourned to you /
> and you have not wept.'

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34 The Son of man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, a drunkard, and a friend of tax collectors and sinners.' 35 But wisdom is justified by all her children."

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee’s house and sat down at the table. 37 And behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster vial of ointment. 38 And she stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears. Then she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he spoke within himself, saying, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is who touches him, for she is a sinner."

40 And Jesus, answering, said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he says, "Master, speak." 41 "There was a certain creditor who had two debtors: one owed five hundred denarii and the other fifty. 42 And when they had nothing to pay, he freely forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?" 43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave most." And he said to him, "You have rightly judged." 44 And he turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has washed my feet with tears and wiped them with the hair of her head. 45 You gave me no kiss, but this woman, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet. 46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but this woman has anointed my feet with ointment. 47 Therefore, I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little." 48 And he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." 49 And those who sat at the table with him began to say within themselves, "Who is this who forgives sins also?" 50 And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Chapter 8

Women minister to Christ from their substance, 1-3. Christ, after he had preached from place to place, attended by his apostles, propounds the parable of the sower, 4-15, and of the candle, 16-18; declares who are his mother and brothers, 19-21; rebukes the winds, 22-25; casts the legion of demons out of the man into the herd of swine, 26-36; is rejected by the Gadarenes, 37-42; heals the woman of her bloody issue, 43-48; and raises from death Jairus's daughter, 49-56.

1 And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village preaching and showing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with him, 2 Along with some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary called Magdalene (out of whom went seven demons), 3 Joanna (the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward), Susanna, and many others who ministered to him from their possessions.

4 And when many people were collected and had come to him out of every city, he spoke by a parable: 5 "A sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and it was trodden down and the birds of the air devoured it. 6 And some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it had sprung up, it withered because it lacked moisture. 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. 8 And others fell on good ground, sprang up, and bore fruit one hundred-fold." And when he had said these things, he cried, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, "What does this parable mean?" 10 And he said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to others in parables so that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.'

11 "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. 12 Those by the wayside are those who hear, and then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. 13 Those on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy. But these have no root, who for a while believe and in time of temptation fall away. 14 And that which fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go forth and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life and bring no fruit to perfection. 15 But those on the good ground are those, who, in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 "No man, when he has lit a candle, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a candlestick so that those who enter in may see the light. 17 For nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest, neither anything hid that shall not be known and come abroad. 18 Take heed therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him shall be given, and whoever does not have, from him shall be taken even that which he seems to have."

19 Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but could not come near to him because of the crowd. 20 And it was told to him by some who said, "Your mother and your brothers stand outside desiring to see you." 21 And he answered and said to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."

22 Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." And they launched forth. 23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep. And there came down a storm of wind on the lake, and they were filled with water and were in jeopardy. 24 And they came to him and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we perish." Then he arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. Then they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 And he said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they, being afraid, wondered, saying to one another, "What manner of man is this? For he commands even the winds and water, and they obey him."

26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. 27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man who had demons for a long time and wore no clothes, neither stayed in any house, but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of God most high? I implore you to not torment me." 29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For often it had caught him, and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters, and he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.) 30 And Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered into him. 31 And they implored him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 Now there was a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain. And they implored him that he would allow them to enter into them. And he allowed them. 33 Then the demons went out of the man and entered into the swine. And the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake and were choked.

34 When those who fed them saw what was done, they fled and went and told it in the city and in the country. 35 Then they went out to see what was done. And they came to Jesus and found the man out of whom the demons had departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid. 36 Those who saw it also told them by what means he who was possessed by the demons was healed. 37 Then the whole multitude of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes implored him to depart from them, for they were taken with great fear. And he went into the boat and returned. 38 Now the man out of whom the demons had departed implored him that he might be with him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your own house and show what great things God has done to you." And he went away and published throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done to him.

40 And it came to pass when Jesus had returned, that the people gladly received him, for they were all waiting for him. 41 And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at the feet of Jesus and implored him that he would come into his house. 42 For he had only one daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay dying. But as he was going, the people thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed by any, 44 Came behind him and touched the border of his garment, and immediately her issue of blood stopped. 45 And Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When all denied, Peter, and those who were with him, said, "Master, the multitude throngs you and presses you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'" 46 And Jesus said, "Somebody has touched me, for I perceive that power has gone out of me." 47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared to him before all the people for what cause she had touched him and how she was healed immediately. 48 And he said to her, "Daughter, be of good comfort. Your faith has made you whole. Go in peace."

49 While he was still speaking, there comes someone from the house of the ruler of the synagogue, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Master." 50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, "Do not fear. Only believe, and she shall be healed." 51 And when he came into the house, he allowed no man to go in except Peter, James, John, and the father and the mother of the girl. 52 And all wept and bewailed her, but he said, "Do not weep. She is not dead, but sleeps." 53 And they derided him, knowing that she was dead. 54 And he put them all out and took her by the hand and called, saying, "Girl, arise." 55 And her spirit came back, and she arose immediately. Then he commanded them to give her food. 56 And her parents were astonished, but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

[v.10]: Isaiah 6:9.

Chapter 9

Christ sends his apostles to work miracles and to preach, 1-6. Herod desires to see Christ, 7-9. The apostles return, 10, 11. Christ feeds five thousand, 12-17; inquires what opinion the world had of him; foretells his passion, 18-22; proposes to all the pattern of his patience, 23-27. The transfiguration, 28-36. He heals the lunatic, 37-42; again forewarns his disciples of his passion, 43-45; commends humility, 46-50; bids them to show mildness toward all without desire of revenge, 51-56. Some would follow him, but upon conditions, 57-62.

1 Then he called his twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases. 2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. 3 And he said to them, "Take nothing for your journey, neither staffs, nor bag, neither bread, neither money, neither have two coats apiece. 4 And into whatever house you enter, abide there, and from there depart. 5 And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them." 6 And they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him. And he was perplexed because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, 8 And by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the ancient prophets had risen again. 9 And Herod said, "I have beheaded John, but who is this of whom I hear such things?" And he desired to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they had returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them and went aside privately into a desolate place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. 11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him. And he received them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God and healed those who had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to decline, the twelve came and said to him, "Send the multitude away so that they may go into the towns and country around and lodge and get food, for we are here in a desolate place." 13 But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy provisions for all this people." 14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Make them sit down by fifties in a company." 15 And they did so and made them all sit down. 16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17 And they ate and were all satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets of fragments that remained.

18 And it came to pass as he was alone praying, that his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, "Who do the people say that I am?" 19 They, answering, said, "'John the Baptist,' but some say, 'Elijah,' and others say, 'One of the ancient prophets has risen again.'" 20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter, answering, said, "Christ of God." 21 And he strictly charged them and commanded them to tell no man that thing, 22 Saying, "The Son of man must suffer many things, be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, be put to death, and be raised on the third day."

23 And he said to them all, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow me. 24 For whoever will save his life shall lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. 25 For what is a man profited if he gains the whole world and loses himself or is cast away? 26 For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, the Son of man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his own glory, and in that of his Father and of the holy angels. 27 But I tell you in truth, there are some standing here who shall not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

28 And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, that he took Peter, John, and James and went up upon a mountain to pray. 29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his clothing was white and glistening. 30 And behold, two men talked with him who were Moses and Elijah, 31 Who appeared in glory and spoke about his departure which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 But Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, and when they were awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. 33 And it came to pass as they departed from him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tabernacles: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he said. 34 While he was thus speaking, there came a cloud and overshadowed them, and they feared as they entered into the cloud. 35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Hear him." 36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 And it came to pass on the next day, when they had come down from the hill, that many people met him. 38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, "Master, I implore you to look upon my son, for he is my only child. 39 And behold, a spirit takes him and he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and bruising him, it hardly departs from him. 40 And I implored your disciples to cast him out, but they could not." 41 And Jesus, answering, said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." 42 And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the child, and delivered him back to his father. 43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they were all wondering at all things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, 44 "Let these sayings sink down into your ears. For the Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men." 45 But they did not understand this saying, and it was hid from them so that they did not perceive it. And they feared to ask him concerning that saying.

46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. 47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child and set him by him. 48 And he said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all, the same shall be great."

49 And John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we tried to stop him because he does not follow with us." 50 And Jesus said to him, "Do not forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us."

51 And it came to pass when the time had come that he should be received up, that he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem 52 And sent messengers before his face. And they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him. 53 And they did not receive him because he was apparently going to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, "Lord, do you wish that we command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, even as Elijah did?" 55 But he turned and rebuked them and said, "You do not know of what manner of spirit you are. 56 For the Son of man has not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them." And they went to another village.

57 And it came to pass as they were going in the way, that a certain man said to him, "Lord, I will follow you wherever you go." 58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head." 59 And he said to another, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father." 60 Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their dead, but go and preach the kingdom of God." 61 And another also said, "Lord, I will follow you, but first let me go bid farewell to those who are at my house." 62 And Jesus said to him, "No man having put his hand to the plow and looking back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Chapter 10

Christ sends out at once seventy disciples to work miracles and to preach, 1-12; pronounces a woe against certain cities, 13-16. The seventy return with joy; he shows them wherein to rejoice, and thanks his Father for his grace, 17-22; magnifies the happy estate of his church, 23, 24; teaches the lawyer how to attain eternal life and to take everyone for his neighbor who needs his mercy, 25-37; reproves Martha and commends Mary her sister, 38-42.

1 After these things, the Lord appointed another seventy also and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place where he himself would come. 2 Therefore, he said to them, "The harvest is truly great, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest that he would send forth laborers into his harvest. 3 Go. Behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. 4 Carry neither purse, nor sack, nor shoes, and salute no man along the way. 5 And into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' 6 And if the son of peace is there, your peace shall rest upon it, but if not, it shall turn back to you. 7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give, for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Do not go from house to house. 8 And into whatever city you enter and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you. 9 Heal the sick who are therein and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' 10 But into whatever city you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets of the same and say, 11 'Even the very dust of your city which cleaves on us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless, be sure of this, that the kingdom of God has come near to you.' 12 But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable on that day for Sodom than for that city.

13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which have been done in you, they would have a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. 15 And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, shall be thrust down to hell.

16 "He who hears you hears me, and he who despises you despises me, and he who despises me despises him who sent me."

17 And the seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us through your name." 18 And he said to them, "I beheld Satan fall as lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I give to you power to tread on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy. And nothing shall by any means hurt you. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hid these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babies. Indeed, Father, for thus it seemed good in your sight. 22 All things are delivered to me by my Father. And no man knows who the Son is, but the Father, and who the Father is, but the Son and he to whom the Son will reveal him."

23 And he turned himself to his disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see. 24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things which you see and have not seen them, and to hear the things which you hear and have not heard them."

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" 27 And answering, he said, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,' and 'your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 And he said to him, "You have answered rightly. Do this, and you shall live." 29 But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30 And Jesus, answering, said, "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among robbers who stripped him of his clothing, wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 And by chance a certain priest came down that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 And likewise, a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked at him and passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had compassion on him 34 And went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine. Then he set him on his own beast, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 And on the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii and gave them to the host and said to him, 'Take care of him. And whatever more you spend, when I come back I will repay you.' 36 Which now of these three do you think was neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?" 37 And he said, "He who showed mercy to him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

38 Now it came to pass as they were going, that he entered into a certain village. And a certain woman, named Martha, received him into her house. 39 And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet and heard his word. 40 But Martha was encumbered with much serving and came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Bid her therefore to help me." 41 And Jesus answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things. 42 But one thing is needful, and Mary has chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her."

Old Testament Quotes

[v.27]: Deuteronomy 6:5; Leviticus 19:18.[LXX]

Chapter 11

Christ teaches to pray, and that instantly, 1-10; assuring us that God will give all good things to those who ask him, 11-13. He, casting out a mute demon, rebukes the blasphemous Pharisees, 14-26; and shows who are blessed, 27, 28; preaches to the people, 29-36; and reproves the outward show of holiness in the Pharisees, scribes, and lawyers, 37-54.

1 And it came to pass as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray as John also taught his disciples." 2 And he said to them, "When you pray, say,

> 'Our Father who is in heaven, /
> may your name be hallowed. /
> May your kingdom come. /
> May your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
>
> 3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us of our sins,
for we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.
And do not lead us into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.'"

5 And he said to them, "Which of you has a friend and goes to him at midnight and says to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, 6 For a friend of mine in his journey has come to me and I have nothing to set before him,' 7 And he from within answers and says, 'Do not trouble me. The door is now shut and my children are with me in bed. I cannot rise and give to you'? 8 I say to you, even though he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give to him as many as he needs.

9 "And I say to you, ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and the door shall be opened to you. 10 For everyone who asks, receives, and he who seeks, finds, and to him who knocks, the door shall be opened. 11 If a son asks for bread from any of you who is a father, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he instead of a fish give him a serpent? 12 Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? 13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

14 And he was casting out a demon, and it was mute. And it came to pass when the demon had gone out, that the mute spoke, and the people wondered. 15 But some of them said, "He casts out demons through Beelzebub, the chief of the demons." 16 And others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven. 17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falls. 18 If Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons through Beelzebub. 19 And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges. 20 But if I cast out demons with the finger of God, no doubt the kingdom of God has come upon you. 21 When a strong armed man keeps his palace, his goods are in peace. 22 But when someone stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted and divides his plunder. 23 He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.

24 "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he walks through dry places seeking rest, and finding none, he says, 'I will return to my house where I came out.' 25 And when he comes, he finds it swept and garnished. 26 Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. Then the last state of that man is worse than the first."

27 And it came to pass as he was speaking these things, that a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts which nourished you." 28 But he said, "Yes, but rather blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it."

29 And when the people were assembled in crowds, he began to say, "This is an evil generation. They seek a sign, and there shall no sign be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. 30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of man shall be to this generation. 31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them. For she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation and shall condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, someone greater than Jonah is here.

33 "No man when he has lit a candle puts it in a secret place, neither under a basket, but on a candlestick, so that those who come in may see the light. 34 The light of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is single, your whole body is also full of light, but when your eye is evil, your body is also full of darkness. 35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in you is not darkness. 36 If your whole body therefore is full of light, having no dark part, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle gives you light."

37 And as he was speaking, a certain Pharisee implored him to dine with him. And he went in and sat down to eat. 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed before dinner. 39 And the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and the platter clean, but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. 40 You fools. Did he who made that which is outside not make that which is inside also? 41 But rather give those things which you have on the inside as alms, and behold, all things are clean to you.

42 "But woe to you, Pharisees! For you tithe mint, rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God. These you ought to have done, and not to leave the others undone. 43 Woe to you, Pharisees! For you love the uppermost seats in the synagogues and greetings in the markets. 44 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are as graves which are unseen, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them."

45 Then one of the lawyers answered and said to him, "Master, saying this, you reproach us also." 46 And he said, "Woe to you also, you lawyers, for you load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. 47 Woe to you! For you build the sepulchers of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 Truly you bear testimony that you allow the deeds of your fathers. For they indeed killed them, and you build their sepulchers. 49 Therefore, the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will slay and persecute, 50 So that the blood of all the prophets which has been shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, 51 From the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the temple.' Truly I say to you, it shall be required of this generation. 52 Woe to you, lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You have not entered in yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering in."

53 And as he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently and to solicit him to speak of many things, 54 Lying in wait for him and seeking to catch something from his mouth so that they might accuse him.

Chapter 12

Christ preaches to his apostles to avoid hypocrisy and fearfulness in publishing his doctrine, 1-12; warns the people to beware of covetousness by the parable of the rich man who set up greater barns, 13-21. We must not be over careful of earthly things, 22-30, but seek the kingdom of God, 31, 32; give alms, 33, 34; be ready at a knock to open to our Lord whenever he comes, 35-40. Christ's ministers are to see to their charge, 41-48, and look for persecution, 49-53. The people must take this time of grace, 54-56; because it is a fearful thing to die without reconciliation, 57-59.

1 In the mean time, when there was gathered an innumerable multitude of people so that they trod upon one another, he began to say to his disciples first of all, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, neither hid that shall not be known. 3 Therefore, whatever you have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light, and that which you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

4 "And I say to you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear. Fear him, who, after he has killed, has power to cast into hell. Indeed, I say to you, fear him. 6 Are five sparrows not sold for two assarions? Yet not one of them is forgotten before God. 7 But even every hair of your head has been numbered. Do not fear therefore. You are of more value than many sparrows.

8 "And I say to you, whoever confesses me before men, the Son of man will also confess him before the angels of God. 9 But he who denies me before men shall be denied before the angels of God. 10 And whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, he shall be forgiven, but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, he shall not be forgiven. 11 And when they bring you to the synagogues and before magistrates and powers, do not be solicitous how or what thing you shall answer or what you shall say.
12 For the Holy Spirit will teach you in the same hour what you ought to say."

13 And someone from the company said to him, "Master, speak to my brother so that he divides the inheritance with me." 14 And he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?" 15 And he said to them, "Take heed, and beware of covetousness, for a man's life does not consist in the abundance of the things which he possesses." 16
And he spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully. 17 And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, for I do not have room to deposit my fruits?' 18 And he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater ones, and there I will deposit all my fruits and my goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have abundance of goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, and be merry."' 20 But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your soul shall be required of you. Then whose shall those things be which you have provided?' 21 Thus is he who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

22 And he said to his disciples, "Therefore, I say to you, do not be anxious for your life—what you shall eat; neither for the body—what you shall put on. 23 The life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, which neither have store-house nor barn, and God feeds them. How much more are you better than the birds? 25 And which of you by solicitude can add to his stature one cubit? 26 If you then are not able to do that thing which is least, why are you anxious for the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow: they do not toil, they do not spin, and yet I say to you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28 If then God thus clothes the grass, which is today in the field and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith? 29 And do not seek what you shall eat or what you shall drink, neither be of doubtful mind. 30 For all these things the nations of the world seek after. And your Father knows that you have need of these things. 31 But rather seek the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you. 32 Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 "Sell what you have and give alms. Provide yourselves bags which do not become old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth corrupts. 34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will also be.

35 "Let your loins be girt and your lights burning, 36 And you yourselves be like men who wait for their lord when he returns from the wedding, so that when he comes and knocks, they may open to him immediately. 37 Blessed are those servants whom the lord finds watching when he comes. Truly I say to you, that he will gird himself, make them to sit down to eat, and will come forth and serve them. 38 And if he comes in the second or in the third watch and finds them in this manner, blessed are those servants.

39 "And know this, that if the master of the house knew at what hour the thief would come, he would watch and not allow his house to be broken through. 40 Therefore, be ready also, for the Son of man comes at an hour when you do not think."

41 Then Peter said to him, "Lord, do you speak this parable to us, or even to all?" 42 And the Lord said, "Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord makes ruler over his household to give them their portion of provisions in due season? 43 Blessed is that servant whom his lord finds doing so when he comes. 44 In truth I say to you, that he will make him ruler over all that he has. 45 But if that servant says in his heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' and begins to beat the men-servants and women-servants and to eat, drink, and to be drunken, 46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he does not look for him and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him apart and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. 47 And that servant who knew his lord’s will and did not prepare himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. 48 But he who did not know and committed things worthy of stripes shall be beaten with few stripes. For to whomever much is given, much shall be required of him, and to whom men have committed much, they will ask the more from him.

49 "I have come to send fire on the earth, and how I wish that it had already been kindled! 50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how I am distressed until it is accomplished! 51 Do you suppose that I have come to give peace on earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. 52 For from now on there will be five in one house divided: three against two and two against three. 53 The father will be divided against the son and the son against the father, the mother against the daughter and the daughter against the mother, the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

54 And he also said to the people, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'There comes a shower,' and it is so. 55 And when you perceive the south wind blowing, you say, 'There will be heat,' and it comes to pass. 56 You hypocrites. You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it that you do not discern this time?

57 "And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? 58 When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, as you are on the way, give diligence so that you may be delivered from him, lest he draw you before the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer cast you into prison. 59 I tell you, you shall not depart from there until you have paid the very last mite."

Chapter 13

Christ preaches repentance upon the punishment of the Galileans and others, 1-5. The fruitless fig-tree may not stand, 6-9. He heals the crooked woman, 10-17; shows the powerful working of the word in the hearts of his chosen by the parable of the grain of mustard seed and of leaven, 18-21; exhorts to enter in at the strait gate, 22-30; and reproves Herod and Jerusalem, 31-35.

1 There were present at that season some who told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. 2 And Jesus, answering, said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans because they suffered such things? 3 I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you shall all likewise perish. 4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were sinners above all men who dwelt in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you shall all likewise perish."

6 He also spoke this parable: "A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruit on it, and found none. 7 Then he said to the dresser of his vineyard, 'Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree and find none. Cut it down. Why does it encumber the ground?' 8 And he, answering, said to him, 'Lord, leave it alone this year also until I dig around it and fertilize it. 9 And if it bears fruit, fine. But if not, then after that you shall cut it down.'"

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. 11 And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years and was bowed together and could in no way raise herself. 12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him and said to her, "Woman, you are set free from your infirmity." 13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight and glorified God. 14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, and said to the people, "There are six days in which men ought to work; therefore, come and be healed on those days and not on the sabbath." 15 The Lord then answered him and said, "You hypocrite. Does each one of you on the sabbath not untie his ox or his donkey from the stall and lead him away to watering? 16 And ought this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound these eighteen years, not be released from this bond on the Sabbath?" 17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed. And all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then he said, "To what is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it? 19

It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and cast into his garden, and it grew and became a great tree and the 'birds of the air lodged in its branches.'"

20 And again he said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until the whole was leavened."

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem. 23 Then someone said to him, "Lord, are there few who are saved?" And he said to them, 24 "Strive to enter in at the narrow gate. For I say to you, many will seek to enter in and shall not be able. 25 When once the master of the house has risen and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us,' he will answer and say to you, 'I do not know where you are from.' 26 Then you will begin to say, 'We have eaten and drank in your presence, and you have taught in our streets.' 27 But he will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from. "Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity."' 28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves excluded. 29 And they will come from the east, from the west, from the north, and from the south and will sit down in the kingdom of God. 30 And behold, there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last."

31 The same day there came some of the Pharisees, saying to him, "Go out and depart from here, for Herod will kill you." 32 And he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and I do cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I shall be perfected. 33 Nevertheless, I must walk today and tomorrow and the day following, for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.' 34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to you! How often I would have gathered your children as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not! 35 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. And truly I say to you, you shall not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Christ heals the dropsy on the sabbath, 1-6; teaches humility, 7-11; to make a feast for the poor, 12-14; under the parable of the great supper, shows how worldly minded men who despise the word of God shall be shut out of heaven, 15-24. Those who will be his disciples, bearing their cross, must make their accounts beforehand, lest with shame they revolt from him afterward, 25-33; and become altogether unprofitable, like salt that has lost its savor, 34, 35.

1 And it came to pass as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath, that they watched him. 2 And behold, there was a certain man before him who had the dropsy. 3 And Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath?" 4 And they held their peace. And he took him, healed him, and let him go. 5 And he answered them, saying, "Which of you having a donkey or an ox fall into a pit would not immediately pull him out on the sabbath?" 6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 And he put forth a parable to those who were invited, when he marked how they chose out the chief places, saying to them, 8 "When you are invited by any man to a wedding, do not sit down in the highest place, lest a more honorable man than you is invited by him, 9 And he who invited you and him comes and says to you, 'Give this man place,' and you begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10 But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then you shall have honor in the presence of those who sit at the table with you. 11 For whoever exalts himself shall be abased, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted."

12 Then he also said to him who invited him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, do not call your friends, your brothers, your kinsmen, nor your rich neighbors, lest they also invite you again and a recompense be made to you. 13 But when you make a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind, 14 And you shall be blessed, for they cannot recompense you. For you shall be recompensed at the resurrection of the just."

15 And when one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who eats bread in the kingdom of God."

16 Then he said to him, "A certain man made a great supper, invited many, 17 And sent his servant at supper-time to say to those who were invited, 'Come, for all things are now ready.' 18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of ground and I must go and see it. I pray you to have me excused.' 19 And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen and I go to prove them. I pray you to have me excused.' 20 And another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore, I cannot come.' 21 So that servant came and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind.' 22 And the servant said, 'Lord, it is done as you have commanded, and yet there is room.' 23 And the lord said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in so that my house may be filled. 24 For I say to you, that none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper.'"

25 And great multitudes went with him. And he turned and said to them, 26 "If any man comes to me and does not hate his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, and even his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. 27 And whoever does not bear his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you intending to build a tower does not sit down first and count the cost to see if he has enough to finish it? 29 Or else, after he has laid the foundation and is not able to finish it, all who behold it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' 31 Or what king going to make war against another king does not sit down first and consult whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sends an embassy and desires conditions of peace. 33 So likewise, whoever he is of you who does not forsake all that he has, he cannot be my disciple.

34 "Salt is good. But if the salt has lost its savor, with what shall it be seasoned? 35 It is neither fit for the land nor for the dunghill, but men cast it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Chapter 15

The parable of the lost sheep, 1-7; of the piece of silver, 8-10; of the prodigal son, 11-32.

1 Then all the tax collectors and sinners drew near to him to hear him. 2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them."

3 And he spoke this parable to them, saying, 4 "What man of you having one hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after that which is lost until he finds it? 5 And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.' 7 I say to you, that likewise, more joy shall be in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance.

11 And he said, "A certain man had two sons. 12 And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.' And he divided his living to them. 13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered everything together, took his journey into a far country, and wasted his substance there with riotous living. 14 And when he had spent everything, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in need. 15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16 And he would willingly have filled his belly with the husks that the swine ate, and no man gave to him. 17 And when he came to himself, he said, 'How many hired servants of my father have bread enough to spare, and I am perishing with hunger! 18 I will arise and go to my father and say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you 19 And am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants."' 20 And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him, had compassion, ran and fell on his neck, and kissed him. 21 And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight and am no longer worthy to be called your son.' 22 But the father said to his servants, 'Bring forth the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet. 23 And bring the fattened calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry. 24 For this son of mine was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.' And they began to be merry.

25 "Now his elder son was in the field, and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. 27 And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him in health.' 28 And he was angry and would not go in. Therefore, his father came out and entreated him. 29 And he, answering, said to his father, 'Behold, these many years I have served you and I have never transgressed your commandment, and yet you never gave me a kid so that I might make merry with my friends. 30 But as soon as this son of yours had come, who has devoured your living with harlots, you have killed the fattened calf for him.' 31 And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me and all that I have is yours. 32 It was proper that we should make merry and be glad. For this brother of yours was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.'"

Chapter 16

1 And he also said to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and an accusation was made to him that this man had wasted his goods. 2 And he called him and said to him, 'How is it that I hear this of you? Give an account of your stewardship, for you may no longer be steward.' 3 Then the steward said within himself, 'What shall I do? For my lord takes from me the stewardship. I cannot dig. I am ashamed to beg. 4 I have resolved what to do so that when I am removed from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.' 5 So he called each of his lord’s debtors. And he said to the first, 'How much do you owe to my lord?' 6 And he said, 'One hundred measures of oil.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write fifty.' 7 Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' And he said, 'One hundred measures of wheat.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill and write eighty.' 8 And the lord commended the unjust steward because he had done wisely. For the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. 9 And I say to you, make for yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness so that when you fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 "He who is faithful in that which is least is also faithful in much, and he who is unjust in the least is also unjust in much. 11 If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 And if you have not been faithful in that which is another man’s, who will give you that which is your own? 13 No servant can serve two masters. For either he will hate one and love the other, or else he will hold to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."

14 And the Pharisees, who were covetous, also heard all these things, and they derided him. 15 And he said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.

16 "The law and the prophets were until John. Since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presses into it. 17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 "Whoever puts away his wife and marries another commits adultery, and whoever marries her who is put away from her husband commits adultery.

19 "There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day. 20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus who was laid at his gate, full of sores 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table. Moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died and was carried by angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. 23 And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and sees Abraham afar off with Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And he cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus so that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.' 25 But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus, in like manner, evil things. But now he is comforted, and you are tormented. 26 And besides all this, between us and you a great gulf has been fixed, so that those who would pass from here to you cannot, neither can they pass to us who would come from there.' 27 Then he said, 'I pray you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house, 28 For I have five brothers, so that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.' 29 Abraham says to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them hear them.' 30 And he said, 'No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' 31 And he said to him, 'If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.'"

Chapter 17

Christ teaches to avoid occasions of offense, 1, 2; and to forgive one another, 3, 4. The power of faith, 5, 6. How we are bound to God and not he to us, 7-10. Christ heals ten lepers, 11-21. Of the kingdom of God and the coming of the Son of man, 22-37.

1 Then he said to the disciples, "It is impossible for the causes of sin to not come. But woe to him by whom they come! 2 It would be better for him that a millstone were hanged around his neck and he were cast into the sea than that he should cause one of these little ones to fall into sin. 3 Take heed to yourselves. If your brother trespasses against you, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him. 4 And if he trespasses against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turns back to you, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

5 And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." 6 And the Lord said, "If you had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, you might say to this sycamine-tree, 'Be plucked up by the root and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

7 "But which of you having a servant plowing or feeding sheep will say to him immediately when he has come from the field, 'Go and sit down to eat'? 8 Would he not rather say to him, 'Make ready with which I may have supper, gird yourself, and serve me until I have eaten and drank, and afterward, you shall eat and drink'? 9 Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded of him? I suppose not. 10 So likewise you, when you have done all the things which are commanded of you, say, 'We are unprofitable servants. We have done that which was our duty to do.'"

11 And it came to pass as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. 12 And as he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him there, who stood at a distance. 13 And they lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." 14 And when he saw them, he said to them, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And it came to pass as they were going, that they were cleansed. 15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God. 16 And he fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks. And he was a Samaritan. 17 And Jesus, answering, said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18 There was no one found returning to give glory to God except this stranger." 19 And he said to him, "Arise, depart. Your faith has made you whole."

20 And when he was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation, 21 Neither will they say, 'Behold here!' or, 'Behold there!' For behold, the kingdom of God is within you."

22 And he said to his disciples, "The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and you shall not see it. 23 And they will say to you, 'See here,' or, 'See there.' Do not go after them or follow them. 24 For as the lightning that lightens from one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so the Son of man shall also be in his day. 25 But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. 26 And as it was in the days of Noah, so it shall also be in the days of the Son of man: 27 They ate, they drank, they married wives, and they were given in marriage until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise also, as it was in the days of Lot—they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, and they built, 29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all— 30 Even thus it shall be on the day when the Son of man is revealed. 31 On that day, he who is upon the house-top, with his goods in the house, must not come down to take them away. And he who is in the field, likewise must not return back. 32 Remember Lot's wife. 33 Whoever seeks to save his life shall lose it, and whoever loses his life shall preserve it. 34 I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed: one will be taken and the other will be left. 35 Two women will be grinding together: one will be taken and the other left. 36 Two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left." 37 And they answered and said to him, "Where Lord?" And he said to them, "Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be collected."

Of the importunate widow, 1-8. Of the Pharisee and the tax collector, 9-14. Of children brought to Christ, 15-17. A ruler would follow Christ, but is hindered by his riches, 18-27. The reward of those who leave all for his sake, 28-30. He foretells his death, 31-34; and restores to a blind man his sight, 35-43.

1 And he spoke a parable to them to this end, that men ought always to pray and not to faint, 2 Saying, "There was a judge in a city who did not fear God or regard man. 3 And there was a widow in that city, and she came to him, saying, 'Avenge me of my adversary.' 4 And he would not for a while. But afterward, he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God or regard man, 5 Yet because this widow troubles me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.'" 6 And the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge says. 7 And will God not avenge his own elect who cry day and night to him, though he bears long with them? 8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

9 And he spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised others: 10 "Two men went up into the temple to pray: one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: 'God, I thank you that I am not as other men are: extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. 12 I fast twice in the week. I give tithes of all that I possess.' 13 And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes to heaven, but smote upon his chest, saying, 'God be merciful to me a sinner.' 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself shall be abased, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted."

15 And they also brought infants to him so that he might touch them. But when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them to him and said, "Allow little children to come to me and do not forbid them, for of such is the kingdom of God. 17 Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no way enter into it."

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" 19 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one: God. 20 You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Honor your father and your mother.'" 21 And he said, "All these I have kept from my youth." 22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said to him, "Yet you lack one thing: sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." 23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful, for he was very rich. 24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, "How hardly those who have riches will enter into the kingdom of God! 25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." 26 And those who heard it, said, "Who then can be saved?" 27 Then he said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

28 Then Peter said, "Behold, we have left all and followed you." 29 And he said to them, "Truly I say to you, there is no man who has left house, parents, brothers, wife, or children for the sake of the kingdom of God 30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life."

31 Then he took the twelve and said to them, "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. 32 For he will be delivered to the Gentiles, mocked, spitefully treated, and spit upon. 33 And they will scourge him and put him to death, and on the third day he will rise again." 34 But they understood none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, neither did they know the things which were spoken.

35 And it came to pass as he had come near to Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the wayside begging. 36 And hearing the multitude passing by, he asked what it meant. 37 And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. 38 And he cried, saying, "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me." 39 And those who went before rebuked him so that he would hold his peace. But he cried so much the more: "Son of David, have mercy on me." 40 And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought to him. And when he had come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, "What do you wish that I shall do to you?" And he said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight." 42 And Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has saved you." 43 And immediately he received his sight and followed him, glorifying God. And when they saw it, all the people gave praise to God.

Chapter 19

Of Zaccheus a tax collector, 1-10. The ten pieces of money, 11-27. Christ rides into Jerusalem with triumph, 28-40; weeps over it, 41-44; drives the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 45, 46; teaching daily in it. The rulers seek to destroy him, but fear the people, 47, 48.

1 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. 2 And behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, who was the chief among the tax collectors, and he was rich. 3 And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was little of stature. 4 And he ran ahead and climbed up upon a sycamore-tree to see him, for he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him and said to him, "Zaccheus, make haste and come down, for today I must abide at your house." 6 And he made haste, came down, and received him joyfully. 7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying that he had gone to be guest with a man who is a sinner. 8 And Zaccheus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him four-fold." 9 And Jesus said to him, "This day salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spoke a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem and because they thought that the kingdom of God would immediately appear. 12 He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return. 13 And he called his ten servants, delivered to them ten minas, and said to them, 'Occupy until I come.' 14 But his citizens hated him and sent a message after him, saying, 'We will not have this man to reign over us.' 15 And it came to pass when he had returned, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants to be called to him, to whom he had given the money, so that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. 16 Then the first came, saying, 'Lord, your mina has gained ten minas.' 17 And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant.
Because you have been faithful in a very little, you have authority over ten cities.' 18
And the second came, saying, 'Lord, your mina has gained five minas.' 19 And he said likewise to him, 'You are to be over five cities.' 20 And another came, saying, 'Lord, behold, here is your mina, which I have kept laid up in a handkerchief, 21 For I feared you because you are an austere man. You take up what you did not lay down and reap what you did not sow.' 22 And he says to him, 'Out of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked servant. You knew me to be an austere man, taking up what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow. 23 Why then did you not put my money into the bank? And I, having come, might have collected it with interest.' 24 And he said to those who stood by, 'Take from him the mina and give it to him who has ten minas.' 25 And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten minas.' 26 'For I say to you, that to everyone who has shall be given, and from him who does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him. 27 But these enemies of mine who did not wish that I should reign over them, bring them here and slay them before me.'"

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went ahead, ascending toward Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass when he had come near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mountain called the Mount of Olives, that he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, "Go into the village over against you, in which at your entering you will find a colt tied on which no man has ever sat. Untie him and bring him here. 31 And if any man asks you, 'Why do you untie him?' you shall say thus to him: 'Because the Lord has need of him.'" 32 And those who were sent, went and found even as he had said to them. 33 And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why do you untie the colt?" 34 And they said, "The Lord has need of him." 35 Then they brought him to Jesus, cast their garments upon the colt, and set Jesus upon him. 36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way. 37 And when he had come near, even now at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, 38 Saying,

> "'Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.' / > Peace in heaven and glory in the highest."

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said to him, "Master, rebuke your disciples." 40 And he answered and said to them, "I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out."

41 And when he had come near, he beheld the city and wept over it, 42 Saying, "If you, even you, had only known in this day the things which belong to your peace! But now they are hid from your eyes. 43 For the days shall come upon you, that your enemies shall build a barricade around you, encompass you, keep you in on every side, 44 And shall level you and your children within you to the ground. And they shall not leave in you one stone upon another because you did not know the time of your visitation."

45 And he went into the temple and began to cast out those who sold in it and those who bought, 46 Saying to them, "It is written, 'My house is the house of prayer,' but you have made it 'a den of thieves.'"

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests, the scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do, for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

Chapter 20

Christ avouches his authority by a question of John's baptism, 1-8. The parable of the vineyard, 9-18. Of giving tribute to Caesar, 19-26. He convinces the Sadducees, who denied the resurrection, 27-40. How Christ is the Son of David, 41-44. He warns his disciples to beware of the scribes, 45-47.

"I will also ask you one thing. Answer me. 4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men?" 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 6 But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet." 7 And they answered that they could not tell where it was from. 8 And Jesus said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

9 Then he began to speak to the people this parable: "A certain man planted a vineyard, leased it to farmers, and went into a far country for a long time. 10 And at the season he sent a servant to the farmers so that they should give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him and sent him away empty. 11 And again he sent another servant, and they beat him also, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12 And again he sent the third, and they wounded him also and cast him out. 13 Then the lord of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be when they see him they will reverence him.' 14 But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him so that the inheritance may be ours.' 15 So they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and destroy these farmers and give the vineyard to others." And when they heard it, they said, "May that never be." 17 And he beheld them and said, "What is this then that is written:

> 'The stone which the builders rejected,
> the same has become the head of the corner'?

18 Whoever falls upon that stone shall be broken, but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder."

19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him, and they feared the people, for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them. 20 And they watched him and sent forth spies who should feign themselves to be just men so that they might take hold of his words in order that they might deliver him to the power and authority of the governor. 21 And they asked him, saying, "Master, we know that you say and teach rightly, neither do you accept the person of any, but teach the way of God truly. 22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar or not?" 23 But he perceived their craftiness and said to them, "Why do you test me? 24 Show me a denarius. Whose image and superscription does it have?" They answered and said, "Caesar's." 25 And he said to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and to God the things which are God's." 26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people. And they marveled at his answer and held their peace.

27 Then some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is any resurrection, came to him and they asked him, 28 Saying, "Master, Moses wrote to us that 'if any man's brother should die, having a wife, and he should die without children, that his brother should take his wife and raise up children for his brother.' 29 There were therefore seven brothers: the first took a wife and died without children; 30 the second took her for a wife, and he died childless; 31 Then the third took her; and in like manner the seven all died and they left no children. 32 Last of all the woman also died. 33 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife will the woman be? For seven had her for a wife."

34 And Jesus, answering, said to them, "The children of this world marry and are given in marriage, 35 But those who are accounted worthy to obtain that world and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, 36 Neither can they die anymore, because they are equal to the angels and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed it at the bush when he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' 38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living, for all live to him." 39 Then some of the scribes, answering, said, "Master, you have well said." 40 And after that, they dared not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said to them, "How do they say that Christ is David's son? 42 And David himself says in the book of Psalms,

> 'The LORD said to my Lord,
> "Sit on my right hand,
>
> 43 Until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet."'

44 David therefore calls him Lord. How is he then his son?"

45 Then in the audience of all the people, he said to his disciples, 46 "Beware of the scribes who desire to walk in long robes, love greetings in the markets, the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts, 47 Who devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers. The same shall receive greater condemnation."

Chapter 21

Christ commends the poor widow, 1-4. He foretells the destruction of the temple and of the city of Jerusalem, 5-24; the signs also which shall be before the last day, 25-33. He exhorts them to be watchful, 34-38.

1 And he looked up and saw rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. 2 And he also saw a certain poor widow casting in there two mites. 3 And he said, "Of a truth I say to you, that this poor widow has cast in more than all of them. 4 For all these cast in the offerings of God out of their abundance, but she out of her penury has cast in all the living that she had."

5 And as some spoke of the temple, that it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts, he said, 6 "As for these things which you behold, the days will come in which there shall not be left one stone upon another that will not be thrown down."

7 And they asked him, saying, "Master, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?" 8 And he said, "Take heed that you do not be deceived. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am Christ,' and, 'The time draws near.' Therefore, do not go after them. 9 But when you hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified. For these things must first come to pass, but the end will not come immediately."

10 Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom.
11 Great earthquakes, famines, and pestilences will be in various places. And there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

12 "But before all these, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake. 13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony. 14 Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand what you shall answer. 15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay or resist. 16 And you will be betrayed by parents, brothers, kinsmen, and friends, and some of you they will cause to be put to death. 17 And you will be hated by all men for my name's sake. 18
But there shall not a hair of your head perish. 19 In your patience you possess your souls.

20 "And when you see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that its desolation is near. 21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are in the midst of it depart from it, and do not let those who are in the countries enter into
it. 22 For these are the days of vengeance so that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23 But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there shall be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people. 24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword and shall be led away captive into all nations.
And Jerusalem shall be trodden down by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

25 "And there shall be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth distress of nations in perplexity because of the roaring of the sea and the waves.
26 Men's hearts will fail them for fear and for apprehension of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. 27 And then they shall see 'the Son of man coming in a cloud' with power and great glory. 28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up and lift up your heads, for your redemption draws near."

29 And he spoke to them a parable: "Behold the fig-tree and all the trees. 30 As soon as they shoot forth, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near at hand. 31
So likewise, when you see these things come to pass, you know that the kingdom of God is near at hand. 32 Truly I say to you, this generation shall not pass away until all is fulfilled. 33 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

34 "And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts are overcharged with surfeiting, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day come upon you unexpectedly. 35 For it shall come like a snare on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth. 36 Therefore, be watchful all the time, praying that you may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass and to stand before the Son of man."

37 In the day-time he was teaching in the temple, but at night he went out and stayed on the mountain that is called the Mount of Olives. 38 And all the people came to him early in the morning to hear him in the temple.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.27]: Daniel 7:13.

Chapter 22

The Jews conspire against Christ, 1, 2. Satan prepares Judas to betray him, 3-6. The apostles prepare the passover, 7-18. Christ institutes his holy supper, 19, 20; covertly foretells of the traitor, 21-23; dissuades the rest of his apostles from ambition, 24-30; assures Peter his faith should not fail, 31-33; and yet he should deny him three times, 34-38. He prays on the mount and sweats blood, 32-46; is betrayed with a kiss, 47-49; he heals Malchus' ear, 50-53; he is three times denied by Peter, 54-62; shamefully abused, 63-65; and confesses himself to be the Son of God, 66-71.

1 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew near, which is called the Passover. 2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him, for they feared the people.

3 Then Satan entered into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. 4 And he went and discussed with the chief priests and captains how he might betray him to them. 5 And they were glad and covenanted to give him money. 6 And he promised and sought opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of the multitude.

7 Then the day of unleavened bread came when the passover must be killed. 8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare for us the passover so that we may eat." 9 And they said to him, "Where do you wish that we prepare?" 10 And he said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man bearing a pitcher of water shall meet you there. Follow him into the house where he enters. 11 And you shall say to the master of the house, 'The Master says to you, "Where is the guest-chamber where I may eat the passover with my disciples?"' 12 And he will show you a large upper room furnished. Make ready there." 13 And they went and found it as he had said to them, and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour had come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. 15 And he said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer. 16 For I say to you, I will no longer eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." 17 And he took the cup, gave thanks, and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves. 18 For I say to you, I will not drink from the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes." 19 And he took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." 20 Likewise, he took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new testament in my blood which is shed for you. 21 But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. 22 And truly the Son of man goes as it was determined. But woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!" 23 And they began to inquire among themselves which of them it was who should do this thing.

24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. 25 And he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. 26 But you shall not be this way. But he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who is chief, as he who serves. 27 For which is greater, he who sits at the table or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? But I am among you as he who serves.

28 "You are those who have continued with me in my temptations. 29 And I appoint to you a kingdom, as my Father has appointed to me, 30 So that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

31 And the Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has desired to have you so that he may sift you as wheat. 32 But I have prayed for you, that your faith may not fail. When you are converted, strengthen your brothers." 33 And he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both into prison and to death." 34 And he said, "I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow this day before you deny three times that you know me."

35 And he said to them, "When I sent you without purse, sack, and shoes, did you lack anything?" And they said, "Nothing." 36 Then he said to them, "But now he who has a purse, let him take it, and likewise his sack. And he who has no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one. 37 For I say to you, that this which is written must still be accomplished in me: 'And he was reckoned among the transgressors.' For the things concerning me have an end." 38 And they said, "Lord, behold, here are two swords." And he said to them, "It is enough."

39 And he came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives, and his disciples also followed him. 40 And when he was at the place, he said to them, "Pray so that you do not enter into temptation." 41 And he withdrew from them about a stone's cast, knelt down, and prayed, 42 Saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours be done." 43 And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him. 44 And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly. And his sweat was like great drops of blood falling to the ground. 45 And when he arose from prayer and had come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray, lest you enter into temptation."

47 And while he was still speaking, behold a multitude, and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them and drew near to Jesus to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you betray the Son of man with a kiss?" 49 When those who were around him saw what would follow, they said to him, "Lord, shall we smite with the sword?" 50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. 51 And Jesus answered and said, "Allow me to do this." And he touched his ear and healed him. 52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to him, "Have you come out as against a thief with swords and staffs? 53 When I was daily with you in the temple, you stretched forth no hands against me. But this is your hour and the power of darkness."

54 Then they took him, led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed at a distance. 55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall and had sat down together, Peter sat down among them. 56 But a certain woman-servant beheld him as he sat by the fire and earnestly looked upon him and said, "This man was also with him." 57 And he denied him, saying, "Woman, I do not know him." 58 And after a little while, another saw him and said, "You are also one of them." And Peter said, "Man, I am not." 59 And about an hour later, another confidently affirmed, saying, "In truth this man was also with him, for he is a Galilean." 60 And Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you say." And immediately, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed. 61 And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." 62 And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

63 And the men who held Jesus mocked him and smote him. 64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, saying, "Prophesy. Who is he who smote you?" 65 And many other things they blasphemously spoke against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, the chief priests, and the scribes came together and led him into their council, 67 Saying, "Are you the Christ? Tell us." And he said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe. 68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me or let me go. 69 Hereafter, the Son of man will sit on the right hand of the power of God." 70 Then they all said, "Are you then the Son of God?" And he said to them, "You say that I am." 71 And they said, "What need do we have of any further testimony? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth."

Old Testament Quotes

[v.37]: Isaiah 53:12.

Chapter 23

Jesus is accused before Pilate and sent to Herod, 1-7. Herod mocks him, 8-11. Herod and Pilate are made friends, 12. Barabbas is desired by the people and is released by Pilate, and Jesus is given to be crucified, 13-25. He tells the women who lament him of the destruction of Jerusalem, 26-33; prays for his enemies, 34-38. Two evildoers are crucified with him, 39-45. His death, 46-49. His burial, 50-56.

1 And the whole multitude of them arose and led him to Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting the nation and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying, that he himself is Christ a king." 3 And Pilate asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him and said, "You say it." 4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and to the people, "I find no fault in this man." 5 And they were the more fierce, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place."

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. 7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged to Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad. For he had been for a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard many things of him and he hoped to see some miracle done by him. 9 Then he questioned with him in many words, but he answered him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him. 11 And Herod with his troops set him at nothing, mocked him, arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him back to Pilate. 12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together, for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, 14 Said to them, "You have brought this man to me as one who perverts the people, and behold, having examined him before you, I have found no fault in this man, touching those things of which you accuse him, 15 Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us, and behold, nothing worthy of death is done to him. 16 I will therefore chastise him and release him." 17 (For of necessity he must release someone to them at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, "Away with this man. Release Barabbas to us." 19 (He was cast into prison for a certain sedition made in the city and for murder.) 20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spoke again to them. 21 But they cried, saying, "Crucify, crucify him." 22 And he said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has he done? I have found no cause of death in him. I will therefore chastise him and let him go." 23 And they were urgent with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed. 24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required. 25 And he released to them him who had been cast into prison for sedition and murder, whom they had desired, but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one, Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross so that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, including women who also bewailed and lamented him. 28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. 29 For behold, the days are coming in which they shall say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never nourished infants.' 30 Then 'they shall begin to say to the mountains, "Fall on us," and to the hills, "Cover us."' 31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what will be done in the dry?"

32 And two others, who were malefactors, were led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they had come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left. 34 Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do." And they parted his clothing and cast lots. 35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also derided him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself if he is Christ the chosen of God." 36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar 37 And saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself." 38 And also a superscription was written over him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew, "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

39 And one of the malefactors who were hanged railed on him, saying, "If you are Christ, save yourself and us." 40 But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, seeing you are in the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds. But this man has done nothing amiss." 42 And he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom." 43 And Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, this day you shall be with me in paradise."

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. 45 And the sun was darkened and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. 46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, "Father, 'into your hands I commend my spirit.'" And having said this, he expired. 47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man." 48 And all the people who came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their chests and returned. 49 And all his acquaintances and the women who followed him from Galilee stood afar off beholding these things.

50 And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counselor, a good and just man 51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them) from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who also himself waited for the kingdom of God. 52 This man went to Pilate and petitioned for the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulcher that was hewn in stone, in which no man was ever laid before. 54

And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on. 55 And the women who came with him from Galilee followed and beheld the sepulcher and how his body was laid. 56 And they returned and prepared spices and ointments. And they rested on the sabbath according to the commandment.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.30]: Hosea 10:8. [v.46]: Psalm 31:5.[LXX]

Chapter 24

Christ's resurrection is declared by two angels to the women who come to the sepulcher, 1-8. These report it to others, 9-12. Christ himself appears to the two disciples who went to Emmaus, 13-35. Afterward, he appears to the apostles and reproves their unbelief, 36-46; gives them a charge, 47, 48; promises the Holy Spirit, 49; and so ascends into heaven, 50-53.

1 Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the sepulcher bringing the spices which they had prepared, and there were others with them. 2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulcher. 3 And they entered in and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 And it came to pass as they were much perplexed at this, that behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. 5 And as they were afraid and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he spoke to you when he was still in Galilee, 7 Saying, 'The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.'" 8 Then they remembered his words, 9 And having returned from the sepulcher, they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and other women who were with them who told these things to the apostles. 11 Their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they did not believe them. 12 Then Peter arose and ran to the sepulcher, and stooping down, he beheld the linen cloths laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which had come to pass.

13 And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about sixty furlongs. 14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened. 15 And it came to pass while they talked together and reasoned, that Jesus himself drew near and went with them. 16 But their eyes were held so that they should not know him. 17 And he said to them, "What manner of communications are these that you have with one another as you walk?" And they stood still, looking sad." 18 And one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said to him, "Are you only a stranger in Jerusalem and have not known the things which have come to pass there in these days?" 19 And he said to them, "What things?" And they said to him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death and crucified him. 21 But we trusted that it had been he who would have redeemed Israel. And besides all this, today is the third day since these things were done. 22 And even some women of our company made us astonished. They arrived early at the sepulcher, 23 And when they did not find his body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. 24 And some of them who were with us went to the sepulcher and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see him." 25 Then he said to them, "O fools and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did Christ not have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?" 27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew near to the village where they were going, and he acted as though he would go further. 29 But they constrained him, saying, "Abide with us, for it is toward evening and the day is far spent." And he went in to stay with them. 30 And it came to pass as he sat at the table with them, that he took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them. 31 And their eyes were opened and they knew him, and he vanished out of their sight. 32 And they said to one another, "Did our hearts not burn within us while he talked with us by the way and while he opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 And they rose the same hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven assembled and those who were with them, 34 Saying, "The Lord has risen indeed and has appeared to Simon." 35 And they told the things that were done in the way and how he was made known to them in breaking of bread.

36 And as they were thus speaking, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them and says to them, "Peace be to you." 37 But they were terrified and frightened and supposed that they had seen a spirit. 38 And he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do thoughts arise in your hearts? 39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." 40 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 And while they still did not believe because of joy and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here for food?" 42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish and a honey-comb. 43 And he took it and ate it before them.

44 And he said to them, "These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written concerning me in the law of Moses, in the prophets, and in the psalms." 45 Then he opened their understanding so that they might understand the Scriptures. 46 And he said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, 47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48 And you are witnesses of these things. 49 And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high."

50 And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands and blessed them. 51 And it came to pass while he was blessing them, that he parted from them and was carried up into heaven. 52 And they, having worshiped him, returned to Jerusalem with great joy 53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

The Gospel According to John

John | Κατὰ Ἰωάνην

Chapter 1

The divinity, humanity, office, and incarnation of Jesus Christ, 1-14. The testimony of John, 15-38. The calling of Andrew, Peter, etc., 39-51.

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made by him, and without him nothing was made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shines in darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God whose name was John. 7 The same came for a witness to bear testimony of the Light so that all men through him might believe. 8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear testimony of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lights every man who comes into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own did not receive him. 12 But as many as received him, to them he gave power to become the sons of God, even to those who believe in his name, 13 Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth. 15 John testified concerning him and cried, saying, "This was he of whom I spoke, 'He who comes after me is preferred before me, for he was before me.'" 16 And of his fullness we have all received, and grace for grace. 17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. 18 No man has seen God at any time. The only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.

19 And this is the testimony of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" 20 And he confessed and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ." 21 And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" And he says, "I am not." "Are you that prophet?" And he answered, "No." 22 Then they said to him, "Who are you? For we must give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say of yourself?" 23 He said,

> "I am 'the voice of one crying in the wilderness, /
> "Make straight the way of the Lord,"'

as the prophet Isaiah said."

24 And those who were sent were from the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him and said to him, "Why do you baptize then if you are not that Christ, nor Elijah, nor that prophet?" 26 John answered them, saying, "I baptize with water, but there stands one among you whom you do not know. 27 It is he, who, coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoes' latchet I am not worthy to unloose." 28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond the Jordan where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John sees Jesus coming to him and says, "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. 30 This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.' 31 And I did not know him. But so that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore I have come baptizing with water." 32 And John bore testimony, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it stayed upon him. 33 And I did not know him. But he who sent me to baptize with water, the same said to me, 'Upon whom you shall see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' 34 And I saw and bore testimony that this is the Son of God."

35 Again the next day, John stood, along with two of his disciples, 36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he says, "Behold the Lamb of God!" 37 And the two disciples heard him speak and they followed Jesus. 38 Then Jesus turned and saw them following and says to them, "What do you seek?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which is to say, being interpreted, Master—"where do you dwell?" 39 He says to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he dwelt and stayed with him that day, for it was about the tenth hour. 40 One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He first finds his own brother Simon and says to him, "We have found the Messiah," (which is, being interpreted, the Christ). 42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas," (which is, by interpretation, a stone).

43 The day following, Jesus wished to go forth into Galilee. And he finds Philip and says to him, "Follow me." 44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip finds Nathanael and says to him, "We have found him described by Moses in the law and by the prophets, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." 46 And Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip says to him, "Come and see." 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and about him he says, "Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom there is no guile!" 48 Nathanael says to him, "Where do you know me from?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig-tree, I saw you." 49 Nathanael answered and said to him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God. You are the King of Israel." 50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig-tree,' do you believe? You shall see greater things than these." 51 And he says to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, hereafter you shall see heaven open 'and the angels of God ascending and descending' upon the Son of man."

Old Testament Quotes

[v.23]: Isaiah 40:3 (paraphrased). [v.23]: Genesis 28:12.

Chapter 2

Christ turns water into wine, 1-11; departs into Capernaum, 12, and to Jerusalem, 13, where he purges the temple of buyers and sellers, 14-17. He foretells his death and resurrection, 18-22. Many believe because of his miracles, but he will not trust himself with them, 23-25.

1 And on the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. 2 And both Jesus and his disciples were called to the marriage. 3 And when they lacked wine, the mother of Jesus says to him, "They have no wine." 4 Jesus says to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with me and you? My hour has not yet come." 5 His mother says to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it." 6 And six water-pots of stone were set there, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures apiece. 7 Jesus says to them, "Fill the water-pots with water." And they filled them to the brim. 8 And he says to them, "Draw out now and take it to the master of the feast." And they took it. 9 When the master of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine and did not know where it was from (but the servants who drew the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom 10 And says to him, "Every man at the beginning presents good wine, and when men have well drank, then that which is worse. But you have kept the good wine until now." 11 This beginning of miracles Jesus performed in Cana of Galilee and manifested his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

12 After this he went down to Capernaum—he, his mother, his brothers, and his disciples—and they continued there not many days.

13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 And he found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting. 15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overthrew the tables. 16 And he said to those who sold doves, "Take these things from here. Do not make my Father’s house a house of merchandise." 17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, "The zeal of your house has eaten me up." 18 Then the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign do you show to us, seeing that you do these things?" 19 Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." 20 Then the Jews said, "Forty-six years this temple was in building, and will you rear it up in three days?" 21 But he spoke about the temple of his body. 22 When therefore he had risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this to them. And they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, on the feast day, many believed in his name when they saw the miracles which he performed. 24 But Jesus did not commit himself to them, for he knew all men 25 And did not need that any should testify concerning man, for he knew what was in man.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.17]: Psalm 69:9.[LXX]

Chapter 3

Christ teaches Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration, 1-13, of faith in his death, 14, 15, the great love of God toward the world, 16, 17, and the condemnation for unbelief, 18-21. Jesus baptizes in Judea, 22. The baptism, witness, and doctrine of John concerning Christ, 23-36.

1 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. 2 The same came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that you do unless God is with him." 3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus says to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb and be born?" 5 Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a man is born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You [all] must be born again.' 8 The wind blows where it wishes. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. Thus is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

9 Nicodemus answered and said to him, "How can these things be?" 10 Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you a teacher of Israel and do not know these things? 11 Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak what we know and testify what we have seen, and you do not receive our testimony. 12 If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 And no man has ascended to heaven except he who came down from heaven, even the Son of man who is in heaven. 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up, 15 So that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 "For this is how God loved the world: he gave his only-begotten Son, so that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. 17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him may be saved. 18 He who believes in him is not condemned, but he who does not believe is condemned already because he has not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the condemnation: that light has come into the world, and men have loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. 20 For everyone who does evil hates the light, neither comes to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. 21 But he who does truth comes to the light so that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God."

22 After these things Jesus and his disciples came into the land of Judea, and there he remained with them and baptized. 23 And John also was baptizing in Enon near Salim because there was much water there. And they came and were baptized. 24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. 26 And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you bore testimony, behold, the same baptizes, and all men come to him." 27 John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing unless it is given to him from heaven. 28 You yourselves bear me testimony that I said I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him. 29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom, but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This joy of mine therefore is fulfilled. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 "He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. 32 And what he has seen and heard, he testifies, and no man receives his testimony. 33 He who has received his testimony has set to his seal that God is true. 34 For he whom God has sent, speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure to him. 35 The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand. 36 He who believes in the Son has everlasting life, and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

Chapter 4

Christ talks with a woman of Samaria and reveals himself to her, 1-26. His disciples marvel, 27-30. He declares to them his zeal for God's glory, 31-38. Many Samaritans believe in him, 39-42. He departs into Galilee and heals the ruler's son who lay sick at Capernaum, 43-54.

1 Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John 2 (Though Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples), 3 He left Judea and departed again into Galilee. 4 And he must go through Samaria. 5 Then he comes to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat down on the well. And it was about the sixth hour.

7 There comes a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus says to her, "Give me a drink." 8 (For his disciples had gone to the city to buy provisions.) 9 Then the woman of Samaria says to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, being a woman of Samaria? For the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans." 10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." 11 The woman says to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. From where then do you get that living water? 12 Are you greater than our father Jacob who gave us the well and drank from it himself, with his children and his livestock?" 13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks this water shall thirst again, 14 But whoever drinks the water that I give him shall never thirst. The water that I give him shall be a well of water in him springing up into everlasting life."

15 The woman says to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I may not thirst, neither come here to draw." 16 Jesus says to her, "Go, call your husband and come here." 17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You have rightly said, 'I have no husband,' 18 For you have had five husbands, and he whom you now have is not your husband. In that you have spoken truth." 19 The woman says to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship." 21 Jesus says to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes when you shall neither on this mountain nor at Jerusalem worship the Father. 22 You worship what you do not know. We know what we worship, for salvation is from the Jews. 23 But the hour comes, and is now, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth, for the Father seeks such to worship him. 24 God is a Spirit. And those who worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth." 25 The woman says to him, "I know that Messiah comes" (who is called Christ). "When he has come, he will tell us all things." 26 Jesus says to her, "I, who speak to you, am he."

27 And upon this, his disciples came and marveled that he talked with the woman. Yet no man said, "What do you seek?" or, "Why do you talk with her?" 28 The woman then left her water-pot, went into the city, and says to the men, 29 "Come, see a man who has told me all things that I ever did. Is this not the Christ?" 30 Then they went out of the city and came to him.

31 In the meantime, his disciples asked him, saying, "Master, eat." 32 But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know of." 33 Therefore, the disciples said to one another, "Has any man brought him anything to eat?" 34 Jesus says to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work. 35 Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest. 36 And he who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit to eternal life, so that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. 37 And herein that saying is true: 'One sows and another reaps.' 38 I sent you to reap that on which you bestowed no labor. Other men labored, and you have entered into their labors."

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in him because of the saying of the woman, who testified, "He told me all that I ever did." 40 So when the Samaritans had come to him, they implored him that he would stay with them. And he stayed there two days. 41 And many more believed because of his own word. 42 And they said to the woman, "Now we believe, and not because of what you said, for we have heard him ourselves and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."

43 Now after two days he departed from there and went into Galilee. 44 For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45 Then when he had come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee where he made the water into wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to him and implored him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. 48 Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will not believe." 49 The nobleman says to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50 Jesus says to him, "Go. Your son lives." And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to him and departed. 51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, "Your son lives." 52 Then he asked them the hour when he began to get better, and they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him." 53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." And he himself believed, along with his whole house. 54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus performed when he had come from Judea into Galilee.

Chapter 5

Jesus, on the sabbath day, cures him who was diseased thirty-eight years, 1-9. The Jews therefore make a trivial objection and persecute Jesus for it, 10-16. He answers for himself and reproves them, showing who he is by the testimony of his Father, 17-30, of John, 31-35, of his works, 36-38, and of the Scriptures, 39-47.

1 After this, there was a feast of the Jews. And Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is a pool in Jerusalem by the sheep market, which is called in the Hebrew language, Bethesda, having five porches. 3 In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, and withered, waiting for the moving of the water. 4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool and agitated the water. Then whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was cured of whatever disease he had. 5 And a certain man was there who had an infirmity for thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he says to him, "Do you wish to be healed?" 7 The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is agitated. But while I am coming, another steps down before me." 8 Jesus says to him, "Rise, take up your bed, and walk." 9 And immediately the man was healed and he took up his bed and walked. Now on the same day was the sabbath. 10 The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, "It is the sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your bed." 11 He answered them, "He who healed me, the same said to me, 'Take up your bed and walk.'" 12 Then they asked him, "What man is this who said to you, 'Take up your bed and walk'?" 13 And he who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. 14 Afterward, Jesus finds him in the temple and said to him, "Behold, you are cured. Sin no more, lest a worse thing come to you." 15 The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. 16 And therefore, the Jews persecuted Jesus and sought to slay him because he had done these things on the sabbath. 17 But Jesus answered them, "My Father works until now, and I also work."

18 Therefore, the Jews sought the more to kill him because he not only had broken the sabbath, but also said that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing by himself, but what he sees the Father do. For whatever things he does, these also the Son does likewise. 20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all things that he himself does. And he will show him greater works than these so that you may marvel. 21 For as the Father raises the dead and revives them, even so the Son revives whom he wishes. 22 For the Father judges no man, but has committed all judgment to the Son 23 So that all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who has sent him.

24 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes in him who sent me has everlasting life and shall not come into condemnation, but has passed from death to life.

25 "Truly, truly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and is now, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God. And those who hear shall live. 26 For as the Father has life in himself, so he has given to the Son to have life in himself, 27 And has given him authority to execute judgment because he is the Son of man. 28 Do not marvel at this. For the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves shall hear his voice 29 And shall come forth—those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of condemnation.

30 "I can of my own self do nothing. As I hear, I judge. And my judgment is just, because I do not seek my own will, but the will of the Father who has sent me.

31 "If I testify concerning myself, my testimony is not true. 32 There is another who testifies concerning me, and I know that the testimony which he bears concerning me is true.

33 "You sent to John and he testified to the truth. 34 But I do not receive testimony from man. But these things I say so that you may be saved. 35 He was a burning and shining light, and you were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 "But I have greater testimony than that of John. For the works which the Father has given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear testimony concerning me that the Father has sent me.

37 "And the Father himself who has sent me has borne testimony concerning me. You have neither heard his voice at any time nor seen his shape. 38 And you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe him whom he has sent.

39 "You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life, and they are those which testify of me. 40 And you will not come to me so that you may have life. 41 I do not receive honor from men. 42 But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you. 43 I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. 44 How can you believe, who receive honor from one another and do not seek the honor that comes from God only? 45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, in whom you trust. 46 For had you believed Moses, you would have believed me, for he wrote concerning me. 47 But if you do not believe his writings, how shall you believe my words?"

Chapter 6

Christ feeds five thousand men with five loaves and two fish, 1-14. Thereupon the people would have made him king, 15; but withdrawing himself, he walks on the sea to his disciples, 16-25; reproves the people flocking after him and all the fleshly hearers of his word, 26-31; declares himself to be the bread of life to believers, 32-65. Many disciples depart from him, 66, 67. Peter confesses him, 68, 69. Judas is a devil, 70, 71.

1 After these things, Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. 2 And a great multitude followed him because they saw his miracles which he performed on those who were diseased. 3 And Jesus went upon a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. 4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was near. 5 When Jesus then lifted up his eyes and saw a great company come to him, he says to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread so that these may eat?" 6 (And he said this to prove him, for he himself knew what he would do.) 7 Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, so that each of them may receive a little." 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, says to him, 9 "There is a boy here who has five barley-loaves and two small fish, but what are they among so many?" 10 And Jesus said, "Make the men sit down." (Now there was much grass in the place.) So the men sat down in number about five thousand. 11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down, and likewise with the fish, as much as they wished. 12 When they were satisfied, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments that remain so that nothing may be lost." 13 Therefore, they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves which remained over and above by those who had eaten. 14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus performed, said, "This is truly that prophet who should come into the world."

15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force to make him a king, he departed again to a mountain by himself alone.

16 And when evening had now come, his disciples went down to the sea, 17 Entered into a boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. It was now dark and Jesus had not come to them. 18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. 19 So when they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat, and they were afraid. 20 But he says to them, "It is I. Do not be afraid." 21 Then they willingly received him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

26 Jesus answered them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw the miracles, but because you ate the loaves and were satisfied. 27 Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for that food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of man will give to you, for God the Father has sealed him." 28 Then they said to him, "What shall we do so that we may work the works of God?" 29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God: that you believe in him whom he has sent." 30 They said therefore to him, "What sign do you show then so that we may see and believe you? What do you work? 31 Our fathers ate manna in the desert. As it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" 32 Then Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses did not give you that bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33 For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." 34 Then they said to him, "Lord, always give us this bread."

35 And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me shall never hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst. 36 But I said to you, that you also have seen me and do not believe. 37 All whom the Father gives me shall come to me, and he who comes to me, I will in no way reject. 38 For I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. 39 And this is the Father’s will who has sent me: that of all which he has given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. 40 And this is the will of him who sent me: that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have everlasting life. And I will raise him up at the last day."

41 The Jews then murmured at him because he said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven." 42 And they said, "Is this not Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that he says, 'I came down from heaven'?" 43 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, "Do not murmur among yourselves. 44 No man can come to me unless the Father who has sent me draws him. And I will raise him up at the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall be all taught from God.' Every man therefore who has heard and has learned from the Father comes to me. 46 Not that any man has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father. 47 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in me has everlasting life. 48 I am that bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness and are dead. 50 This is the bread which comes down from heaven so that a man may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If any man eats of this bread, he shall live forever. And the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

52 The Jews therefore contended among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" 53 Then Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life. And I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. 56 He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood dwells in me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father has sent me, and I live by the Father, so he who eats me, even he shall live by me. 58 This is that bread which came down from heaven—not as your fathers ate manna and are dead. He who eats of this bread shall live forever."

60 Therefore, when they had heard this, many of his disciples said, "This is a hard saying. Who can hear it?" 61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said to them, "Does this offend you? 62 What if you see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? 63 It is the Spirit that revives. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you, they are spirit and they are life. 64 But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe and who he was who would betray him. 65 And he said, "Therefore, I said to you, that no man can come to me unless it were given to him by my Father."

66 From that time many of his disciples went back and no longer walked with him. 67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, "Will you also go away?" 68 Then Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. 69 And we believe and are sure that you are that Christ, the Son of the living God." 70 Jesus answered them, "Have I not chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?" 71 He spoke about Judas Iscariot the son of Simon. For it was he who was to betray him, being one of the twelve.

[v.31]: Psalm 78:24. [v.45]: Isaiah 54:13.

Chapter 7

Jesus reproves the ambition and boldness of his kinsmen, 1-9; goes up from Galilee to the feast of tabernacles, 10-13; teaches in the temple, 14-39. Various opinions of him among the people, 40-44. The Pharisees are angry that their officers did not take him, and they chide with Nicodemus for taking his part, 45-53.

1 After these things, Jesus walked in Galilee, for he would not walk in Judea because the Jews sought to kill him. 2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. 3 His brothers therefore said to him, "Depart from here and go into Judea so that your disciples may also see the works that you do. 4 For there is no man who does anything in secret, and he himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world." 5 (For neither did his brothers believe in him.) 6 Then Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. 7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify concerning it that its works are evil. 8 Go up to this feast. I do not yet go to this feast, for my time has not yet fully come." 9 When he had said these words to them, he still stayed in Galilee.

10 But when his brothers had gone up, then he also went to the feast, not openly, but as in secret. 11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast and said, "Where is he?" 12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him. For some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "No, but he deceives the people." 13 Yet, no man spoke openly about him for fear of the Jews.

14 Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. 15 And the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never learned?" 16 Jesus answered them and said, "My doctrine is not mine, but his who sent me. 17 If any man will do his will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, whether it is from God or whether I speak from myself. 18 He who speaks from himself, seeks his own glory, but he who seeks his glory who sent him, the same is true and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 Did Moses not give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?" 20 The people answered and said, "You have a demon. Who seeks to kill you?" 21 Jesus answered and said to them, "I have done one work and you all marvel. 22 Moses therefore gave to you circumcision (not because it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you on the sabbath circumcise a man. 23 If a man on the sabbath receives circumcision so that the law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry at me because I have restored a man to sound health on the sabbath? 24 Do not judge according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

25 Then some of them of Jerusalem said, "Is this not he whom they seek to kill? 26 But behold, he speaks boldly and they say nothing to him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ? 27 But we know this man, where he is from; whereas when Christ comes, no man knows where he is from." 28 Then Jesus cried in the temple as he taught, saying, "You both know me and you know where I am from. And I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you do not know. 29 But I know him because I am from him and he has sent me." 30 Then they sought to take him. But no man laid hands on him because his hour had not yet come. 31 And many of the people believed in him and said, "When Christ comes, will he do more miracles than these which this man has done?"

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him. And the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him. 33 Then Jesus said to them, "Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go to him who sent me. 34 You will seek me and will not find me. And where I am, there you cannot come." 35 Then the Jews said among themselves, "Where will he go that we shall not find him? Will he go to the dispersed among the Gentiles and teach the Gentiles? 36 What manner of saying is this that he said, 'You will seek me and will not find me,' and, 'Where I am, there you cannot come'?"

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, "If any man thirsts, let him come to me and drink. 38 He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." 39 (But he said this about the Spirit, which those who believe in him would receive, for the Holy Spirit had not yet been given because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, "In truth this is the Prophet." 41 Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Will Christ come out of Galilee? 42 Has the Scripture not said that Christ comes from the offspring of David and out of the town of Bethlehem where David was?" 43 So there was a division among the people because of him. 44 And some of them would have taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why have you not brought him?" 46 The officers answered, "Never a man spoke like this man." 47 Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived? 48 Have any of the rulers or any of the Pharisees believed in him? 49 But these people who do not know the law are cursed." 50 Nicodemus (he who came to Jesus by night, being one of them) says to them, 51 "Does our law judge any man before it hears him and knows what he does?" 52 They answered and said to him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and look. For out of Galilee no prophet arises." 53 And every man went to his own house.

Christ delivers the woman taken in adultery, 1-11. He declares himself the light of the world and justifies his doctrine, 12-30; promises freedom to those who believe, 31, 32; answers the Jews who boasted of Abraham, 33-47; answers their reviling by showing his authority and dignity, 48-58; and conveys himself from their cruelty, 59.

1 Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple. And all the people came to him, and he sat down and taught them. 3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought a woman to him taken in adultery. And when they had set her in the midst, 4 They say to him, "Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now in the law, Moses commanded us that such should be stoned, but what do you say?" 6 They said this, testing him, so that they might have reason to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with his finger as though he did not hear them. 7 So when they continued asking him, he raised himself and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone at her." 8 And again he stooped down and wrote on the ground. 9 And those who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even to the last. And Jesus was left alone with the woman standing in the midst. 10 When Jesus had raised himself and saw no one except the woman, he said to her, "Woman, where are your accusers? Has no man condemned you?" 11 She said, "No man, Lord." And Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and sin no more."

12 Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." 13 The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You testify concerning yourself. Your testimony is not true." 14 Jesus answered and said to them, "Though I testify concerning myself, yet my testimony is true. For I know where I came from and where I go, but you cannot tell where I come from and where I go. 15 You judge after the flesh. I judge no man. 16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me. 17 It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true. 18 I am one who testifies concerning myself, and the Father who sent me testifies concerning me." 19 Then they said to him, "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You neither know me nor my Father. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also." 20 Jesus spoke these words in the treasury as he taught in the temple. And no man laid hands on him, for his hour had not yet come.

21 Then Jesus again said to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you cannot come." 22 Then the Jews said, "Will he kill himself, because he says, 'Where I go, you cannot come'?" 23 And he said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. 24 Therefore, I said to you, that you will die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I am he, you will die in your sins." 25 Then they said to him, "Who are you?" And Jesus says to them, "Even the same that I said to you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to say and to judge of you. But he who sent me is true, and I speak to the world those things which I have heard from him." 27 They did not understand that he spoke to them concerning the Father. 28 Then Jesus said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of man, then you shall know that I am he and that I do nothing of myself. But as my Father has taught me, I speak these things. 29 And he who sent me is with me. The Father has not left me alone, for I always do those things that please him." 30 As he spoke these words, many believed in him.

31 Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are my disciples indeed. 32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." 33 They answered him, "We are Abraham’s offspring and were never in bondage to any man. How do you say, 'You shall be made free'?"

34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is the servant of sin. 35 And the servant does not abide in the house forever, but the Son abides forever. 36 If the Son therefore makes you free, you shall be free indeed. 37 I know that you are Abraham’s offspring, but you seek to kill me because my word has no place in you. 38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father, and you do that which you have seen with your father."

39 They answered and said to him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus says to them, "If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I have heard from God. Abraham did not do this. 41 You do the deeds of your father." Then they said to him, "We are not born of fornication. We have one Father: God." 42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me. For I proceeded forth and came from God, neither did I come of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why do you not understand my speech? It is because you cannot hear my word. 44 You are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not abide in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own, for he is a liar and the father of lies. 45 And because I tell you the truth, you do not believe me. 46 Which of you convicts me of sin? And if I speak the truth, why do you not believe me? 47 He who is of God hears God’s words. For this cause you do not hear them, because you are not of God."

48 Then the Jews answered and said to him, "Do we not say rightly that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?" 49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon. But I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. 50 And I do not seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. 51 Truly, truly, I say to you, if a man keeps my saying, he shall never see death." 52 Then the Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham is dead, and the prophets also, and you say, 'If a man keeps my saying, he shall never taste death.' 53 Are you greater than our father Abraham who is dead? And the prophets are also dead. Whom do you make yourself out to be?" 54 Jesus answered, "If I honor myself, my honor is nothing. It is my Father who honors me, of whom you say that he is your God. 55 Yet you have not known him, but I know him. And if I say, 'I do not know him,' I would be a liar like you. But I know him and keep his saying. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it and was glad." 57 Then the Jews said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and you have seen Abraham?" 58 Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, 'I AM.'" 59 Then they took up stones to cast at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and thus passed by.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.58]: Exodus 3:14.

Chapter 9

The man who was born blind has his sight restored, 1-7. He is brought to the Pharisees, 8-12. They are offended by it and excommunicate him, 13-34; but he is received by Jesus and confesses him, 35-38. Who they are whom Christ enlightens, 39-41.

1 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man who was blind from his birth. 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, "Master, who sinned, this man or his parents, so that he was born blind?" 3 Jesus answered, "Neither has this man sinned nor his parents, but this is so that the works of God should be made manifest in him. 4 I must work the works of him who sent me while it is day. The night comes when no man can work. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." 6 When he had thus spoken, he spit on the ground, made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay 7 And said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam," (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went therefore and washed and came seeing. 8 Therefore, the neighbors and those who before had seen that he was blind said, "Is this not he who sat and begged?" 9 Some said, "This is he." Others said, "He is like him." But he said, "I am he." 10 Therefore, they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?" 11 He answered and said, "A man who is called Jesus made clay, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.' And I went and washed and I received sight." 12 Then they said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know."

13 They brought him who before was blind to the Pharisees. 14 And it was the sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. 15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put clay upon my eyes, I washed, and now I see." 16 Therefore, some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God because he does not keep the sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such miracles?" And there was a division among them. 17 They say to the blind man again, "What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight. 19 And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" 20 His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. 21 But by what means he now sees, we do not know, or who has opened his eyes, we do not know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself." 22 His parents spoke these words because they feared the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed that if any man confessed that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore, his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

24 Then again they called the man who was blind and said to him, "Give God the praise. We know that this man is a sinner." 25 He answered and said, "Whether he is a sinner, I do not know. One thing I know, that though I was blind, now I see." 26 Then they said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" 27 He answered them, "I have told you already and you did not hear. Why would you hear it again? Will you also be his disciples?" 28 Then they reviled him and said, "You are his disciple, but we are the disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God spoke to Moses. As for this man, we do not know where he is from." 30 The man answered and said to them, "Why, herein is a marvelous thing, that you do not know where he is from, and yet he has opened my eyes. 31 Now we know that God does not hear sinners. But if any man is a worshiper of God and does his will, he hears him. 32 Since the world began it has not been heard that any man opened the eyes of one who was born blind. 33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." 34 They answered and said to him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out. And when he had found him, he said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of God?" 36 He answered and said, "Who is he, Lord, so that I may believe in him?" 37 And Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him and it is he who talks with you." 38 And he said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped him. 39 And Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world so that those who do not see may see, and that those who do see may be made blind." 40 And some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these words and said to him, "Are we also blind?" 41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, 'We see.' Therefore, your sin remains."

Christ is the door and the good shepherd, 1-18. Various opinions about him, 19-22. He proves by his works that he is Christ the Son of God, 23-30; escapes the Jews, 31-38; and goes again beyond the Jordan where many believe in him, 39-42.

1 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. 2 But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the gatekeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice. And he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4 And when he puts forth his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. 5 And a stranger they will not follow, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." 6 Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what things those were which he spoke to them.

7 Then Jesus said to them again, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. 8 All who ever came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. 9 I am the door. If any man enters through me, he shall be saved and shall go in and out and find pasture. 10 The thief does not come but to steal, to kill, and to destroy. I have come so that they may have life and have it more abundantly.

11 "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep. 12 But he who is a hireling and not the shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf catches them and scatters the sheep. 13 The hireling flees because he is a hireling and does not care for the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, 15 Even as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 And I have other sheep which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they shall hear my voice. And there shall be one fold and one shepherd. 17 Therefore, my Father loves me because I lay down my life so that I may take it back. 18 No man takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down and I have power to take it back. This commandment I have received from my Father."

19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews because of these sayings. 20 And many of them said, "He has a demon and is insane. Why do you hear him?" 21 Others said, "These are not the words of him who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

22 And it was the feast of the dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter. 23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon’s porch. 24 Then the Jews came around him and said to him, "How long do you make us to doubt? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly." 25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you did not believe. The works that I did in my Father’s name, they testify concerning me. 26 But you do not believe because you are not among my sheep, as I said to you. 27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them. They follow me, 28 And I give eternal life to them. They shall never perish, and no one shall pluck them out of my hand. 29 My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand. 30 I and my Father are one."

31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?" 33 The Jews answered him, saying, "For a good work we do not stone you, but for blasphemy, because you, being a man, make yourself God." 34 Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, "You are gods"'? 35 If he called them gods to whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be broken, 36 Do you say of him whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? 37 If I do not do the works of my Father, do not believe me. 38 But if I do, though you do not believe me, believe the works so that you may know and believe that the Father is in me and I in him." 39 Therefore, they sought again to take him, but he escaped from their hand.

40 And he went again beyond the Jordan into the place where John at first baptized, and he stayed there. 41 And many resorted to him and said, "John performed no miracle, but all things that John spoke about this man were true." 42 And many believed in him there.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.34]: Psalm 82:6.[LXX]

Chapter 11

Christ raises Lazarus, who was buried four days, 1-44. Many Jews believe, 45, 46. The high priests and Pharisees gather a council against Christ, 47, 48. Caiaphas prophesies, 49-53. Jesus hides himself, 54. At the passover they inquire about him and lay wait for him, 55-57.

1 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, from Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. 2 (It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) 3 Therefore, his sisters sent to him, saying, "Lord, behold, he whom you love is sick." 4 When Jesus heard that, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it." 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When therefore he had heard that he was sick, he remained for two days in the same place where he was. 7
Then after that, he says to his disciples, "Let us go into Judea again." 8 His disciples say to him, "Master, the Jews of late sought to stone you, and you go there again?" 9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walks in the day, he does not stumble because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles because there is no light in him." 11 He said these things, and after that, he says to them, "Our friend Lazarus sleeps, but I go so that I may awake him out of sleep."
12 Then his disciples said, "Lord, if he sleeps he will do well." 13 Now Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that he had spoken of taking rest in sleep. 14 Then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let us go to him." 16 Then Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow-disciples, "Let us also go so that we may die with him."

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave for four days already.
18 (Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs distant.) 19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary to comfort them concerning their brother. 20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him, but Mary sat in the house. 21 Then Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22 But I know that even now, whatever you will ask of God, God will give it to you." 23 Jesus says to her, "Your brother shall rise again." 24 Martha says to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." 25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, even if he were dead, he shall live. 26 And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" 27
She says to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who comes into the world."

28 And when she had said this, she went and called Mary her sister secretly, saying,
"The Master has come and calls for you." 29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to him.

30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. 31 Then the Jews who were with her in the house and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose hastily and went out, followed her, saying, "She goes to the grave to weep there." 32 Then when Mary had come where Jesus was and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." 33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit and was troubled 34 And said, "Where have you laid him?" They say to him, "Lord, come and see." 35 Jesus wept. 36 Then the Jews said, "Behold how he loved him!" 37 And some of them said, "Could this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, not have kept this man from dying?"

38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, comes to the grave. It was a cave and a stone lay upon it. 39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, says to him, "Lord, by this time he smells, for he has been dead for four days." 40 Jesus says to her, "Did I not say to you, that if you would believe, you should see the glory of God?" 41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 And I knew that you hear me always. But because of the people who stand by, I said it, so that they may believe that you have sent me." 43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth." 44 And he who was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes, and his face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus says to them, "Unbind him and let him go."

45 Then many of the Jews, who came to Mary and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed in him. 46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees convened a council and said, "What do we do? For this man performs many miracles. 48 If we leave him alone like this, all men will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation." 49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said to them, "You know nothing at all. 50 Nor do you consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people and that the whole nation not perish." 51 And he did not speak this of his own accord, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation, 52 And not for that nation only, but also that he should assemble in one the children of God who were scattered abroad. 53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went from there to a country near the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and stayed there with his disciples.

55 And the Jews' passover was near at hand. And many went out of the country to Jerusalem before the passover to purify themselves. 56 Then they sought for Jesus and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that he will not come to the feast?" 57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should report it so that they might take him.

Chapter 12

Jesus excuses Mary anointing his feet, 1-8. The people flock to see Lazarus, 9. The chief priests consult to kill him, 10, 11. Christ rides into Jerusalem, 12-19. Greeks desire to see Jesus, 20-22. He foretells his death, 23-36. The Jews are generally blinded, 37-41; yet many chief rulers believe, but do not confess him, 42, 43; therefore Jesus calls earnestly for confession of faith, 44-50.

1 Then Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. 2 There they made him a supper, and Martha served. And Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. 3 Then Mary took a pound of very costly ointment of spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. 4 Then one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, who was to betray him, says, 5 "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" 6 He said this, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief. And having the money-box, he took away what was put in it. 7 Then Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial. 8 For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

9 Many people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there. And they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but so that they might also see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests consulted that they might also put Lazarus to death, 11 Because by reason of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

12 On the next day, many people who had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm-trees and went forth to meet him and cried,

> "'Hosanna! /
> Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,' /
> even the King of Israel."

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young donkey, sat thereon, as it is written, > 15 "Do not fear, daughter of Zion. / > Behold, your King comes, / > sitting on a donkey’s colt."

16 These things his disciples did not understand at the first, but when Jesus was glorified, they remembered that these things were written concerning him and that they had done these things to him. 17 Therefore, the people who were with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave and raised him from the dead bore testimony. 18 For this cause the people also met him, for they heard that he had done this miracle. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "Do you perceive how you prevail nothing? Behold, the world has gone after him."

20 And there were some Greeks among them who came to worship at the feast. 21 The same came therefore to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." 22 Philip comes and tells Andrew, and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. 23 And Jesus answered them, saying, "The hour has come that the Son of man should be glorified. 24 Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it abides alone. But if it dies, it brings forth much fruit. 25 He who loves his life shall lose it, and he who hates his life in this world shall keep it to life eternal. 26 If any man serves me, let him follow me, and where I am, there my servant shall also be. If any man serves me, my Father will honor him.

27 "Now 'my soul is troubled,' and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour. But for this cause I came to this hour. 28 Father, glorify your name." Then there came a voice from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again." 29 Therefore, the people who stood by and heard it said that it thundered. Others said, "An angel spoke to him." 30 Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come because of me, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world shall be cast out. 32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to me." 33 (He said this signifying what death he should die.) 34 The people answered him, "We have heard out of the law that Christ abides forever. How do you say, 'The Son of man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of man?" 35 Then Jesus said to them, "Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness come upon you. For he who walks in darkness does not know where he goes. 36 While you have light, believe in the light so that you may be the children of light." Jesus spoke these things, departed, and concealed himself from them. 37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they did not believe in him 38 So that the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke,

> "Lord, who has believed our report? /
> And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

39 Therefore, they could not believe, because Isaiah said again,

> 40 "He has blinded their eyes / > and hardened their heart / > so that they should not see with their eyes, / > nor understand with their heart, / > and be converted, and I should heal them."

41 Isaiah said these things when he saw his glory and spoke about him. 42 Nevertheless, also among the chief rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue. 43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 Jesus cried and said, "He who believes in me does not believe in me, but in him who sent me. 45 And he who sees me, sees him who sent me. 46 I have come as a light into the world so that whoever believes in me should not abide in darkness. 47 And if any man hears my words and does not believe, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 He who rejects me and does not receive my words has one who judges him. The word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. 49 For I have not spoken from myself. But the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say and what I should speak. 50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting. Whatever I speak therefore, even as the Father said to me, so I speak."

Chapter 13

Jesus washes the disciples' feet and exhorts them to humility and charity, 1-17. He foretells and reveals to John by a token that Judas should betray him, 18-30; commands them to love one another, 31-35; and forewarns Peter of his denial, 36-38.

1 Now before the feast of the passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come that he should depart out of this world to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. 2 And during supper (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, to betray him), 3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands and that he had come from God and was going to God, 4 Rises from supper, laid aside his garments, took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded. 6 Then he comes to Simon Peter, and Peter says to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?" 7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I do you do not now know, but you shall know hereafter." 8 Peter says to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with me." 9 Simon Peter says to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head." 10 Jesus says to him, "He who is washed has no need except to wash his feet, but is wholly clean. And you are clean, but not all." 11 For he knew who would betray him; therefore, he said, "You are not all clean."

12 So after he had washed their feet, had taken his garments, and had sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? 13 You call me Master and Lord, and you speak rightly, for I am so. 14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. 15 For I have given you an example that you should do as I have done to you. 16 Truly, truly, I say to you, the servant is not greater than his lord, neither he who is sent greater than he who sent him. 17 If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them. 18 I do not speak of you all. I know whom I have chosen, but this is so that the Scripture may be fulfilled: 'He who eats bread with me, has lifted up his heel against me.' 19 Now I tell you before it comes, so that when it has come to pass, you may believe that I am he. 20 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me."

21 When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in spirit and testified and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that one of you will betray me." 22 Then the disciples looked at one another, doubting of whom he spoke. 23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him to ask who it should be of whom he spoke. 25 Then lying on Jesus' chest, he says to him, "Lord, who is it?" 26 Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it." And when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. 27 And after the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly." 28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spoke this to him. 29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the money-box, that Jesus had told him to buy those things that they had need of for the feast, or that he should give something to the poor. 30 Then having received the piece of bread, he went out immediately. And it was night.

31 Therefore, when he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of man is glorified, and God is glorified in him. 32 If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and will glorify him immediately. 33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I go, you cannot come,' so now I say to you. 34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. As I have loved you, you also should love one another. 35 By this all men shall know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

36 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where do you go?" Jesus answered him, "Where I go, you cannot follow me now, but you shall follow me afterward." 37 Peter said to him, "Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for your sake." 38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for my sake? Truly, truly, I say to you, the cock will not crow until you have denied me three times."

Chapter 14

Christ comforts his disciples with the hope of heaven, 1-4; professes himself the way, the truth, and the life, and one with the Father, 5-12; assures their prayers to be effectual, 13, 14; requires obedience, 15; promises the Comforter, 16-26; and leaves his peace with them, 27-31.

1 "Do not let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me. 2 In my Father’s house there are many places to reside. If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and receive you to myself, so that where I am, you may be there also. 4 And where I go you know, and the way you know." 5 Thomas says to him, "Lord, we do not know where you go, and how can we know the way?" 6 Jesus says to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No man comes to the Father, but by me. 7 If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. And from now on you know him and have seen him."

8 Philip says to him, "Lord, show us the Father and it will be sufficient for us." 9 Jesus says to him, "Have I been with you such a long time and yet you have not known me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How then do you say, 'Show us the Father'? 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father in me? The words that I speak to you, I do not speak from myself. But the Father who dwells in me, he does the works. 11 Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me, or else believe me for the very works' sake. 12 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in me, the works that I do he shall do also, and he shall do greater works than these, because I go to my Father. 13 And whatever you ask in my name, I will do it so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask anything in my name, I will do it.

15 "If you love me, keep my commandments. 16 And I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Comforter so that he may abide with you forever, 17 Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive because it does not see him or know him. But you know him because he dwells with you and will be in you.

18 "I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you. 19 Yet a little while and the world no longer sees me, but you see me. Because I live, you shall live also. 20 At that day you shall know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. 21 He who has my commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves me. And he who loves me shall be loved by my Father, and I will love him and will manifest myself to him." 22 Judas, not Iscariot, says to him, "Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us and not to the world?" 23 Jesus answered and said to him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my words.
And my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.
24 He who does not love me does not keep my sayings. And the word which you hear is not mine, but that of the Father who sent me.

25 "These things I have spoken to you, being still present with you. 26 But the Comforter, who is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you. 27 Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives.
Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. 28 You have heard that I said to you, 'I go away and come back to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice because I said, 'I go to the Father,' for my Father is greater than I am. 29 And now I have told you before it comes to pass, so that when it has come to pass, you may believe. 30 Hereafter, I will not talk much with you, for the prince of this world comes and has nothing in me. 31 But so that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here."

Chapter 15

The union of Christ and his members shown under the parable of a vine, 1-17. The hatred of the world, 18-25. The office of the Holy Spirit, 26, 27.

1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. 2 Every branch in me that does not bear fruit, he takes away. And every branch that bears fruit, he cleans it so that it may bring forth more fruit. 3 Now you are clean through the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it abides in the vine, no more can you, unless you abide in me. 5 I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, the same brings forth much fruit, for without me you can do nothing. 6 If a man does not abide in me, he is cast forth like a branch and is withered, and men gather them, cast them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you abide in me and my words abide in you, you may ask what you wish and it shall be done to you. 8 In this my Father is glorified, so that you might bear much fruit and become my disciples. 9 As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you.
Continue in my love. 10 If you keep my commandments, you shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. 11 These things I have spoken to you so that my joy may remain in you and that your joy may be full.

12 "This is my commandment: that you love one another as I have loved you. 13 No man has greater love than this: that a man lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are my friends if you do whatever I command you. 15 From now on I do not call you servants, because the servant does not know what his lord does. But I have called you friends, because all things that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.
16 You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you and ordained you that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain, so that whatever you ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you. 17 These things I command you so that you love one another.

18 "If the world hates you, you know that it hated me before it hated you. 19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. 20 Remember the word that I said to you: 'The servant is not greater than his lord.' If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. 21 But all these things they will do to you for my name's sake, because they do not know him who sent me. 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin. But now they have no cloak for their sin. 23 He who hates me, hates my Father also. 24 If I had not done among them the works which no other man has done, they would not have had sin. But now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. 25 But this comes to pass so that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law: 'They hated me without a cause.'

26 "But when the Comforter has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, he will testify concerning me. 27 And you shall also bear testimony because you have been with me from the beginning."

Chapter 16

Christ comforts his disciples by the promise of the Holy Spirit and his ascension, 1-22; assures their prayers made in his name to be acceptable, 23-32. Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction, 33.

1 "These things I have spoken to you so that you should not be offended. 2 They shall put you out of the synagogues. Indeed, the time comes, that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God. 3 And these things they will do to you because they have not known the Father or me. 4 But these things I have told you so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. And these things I did not say to you at the beginning because I was with you.

5 "But now I go to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' 6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. 7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth. It is expedient for you that I depart. For if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you. But if I depart, I will send him to you. 8 And when he has come, he will reprove the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment: 9 Of sin, because they do not believe in me; 10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father and you will no longer see me; 11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

12 "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. 13 But when the Spirit of truth has come, he will guide you into all the truth. For he will not speak from himself, but whatever he hears, that he will speak. And he will declare to you the things that are to come. 14 He will glorify me, for he will receive from what is mine and will declare it to you. 15 All things that the Father has are mine; therefore, I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

16 "A little while, and you shall not see me. And again a little while, and you shall see me because I go to the Father." 17 Then some of his disciples said among themselves, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little while, and you shall not see me. And again a little while, and you shall see me,' and, 'Because I go to the Father'?" 18 They said therefore, "What is this that he says, 'A little while'? We cannot tell what he says." 19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him and said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves of that which I said, 'A little while, and you shall not see me. And again a little while, and you shall see me'? 20 Truly, truly, I say to you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. And you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. 21 A woman when she is in travail has sorrow because her hour has come. But as soon as she delivers the child, she no longer remembers the anguish because of her joy that a man is born into the world. 22 Now, therefore, you also have sorrow. But I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and no man takes your joy from you.

23 "And in that day you will ask me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name, he will give it to you. 24 Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask and you shall receive so that your joy may be full.

25 "These things I have spoken to you in proverbs, but the time comes when I shall no longer speak to you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly concerning the Father. 26 At that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will pray to the Father for you, 27 For the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. 28 I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father."

29 His disciples said to him, "Behold, now you speak plainly and speak no proverb. 30 Now we are sure that you know all things and do not need that any man should ask you. By this we believe that you came from God." 31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe? 32 Behold, the hour comes and has even now come, that you shall each be scattered to his own and shall leave me alone. And yet I am not alone because the Father is with me. 33 These things I have spoken to you so that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But be of good cheer. I have overcome the world."

Chapter 17

Christ prays to his Father, 1-26.

1 Jesus spoke these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, "Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so that your Son may glorify you, 2 Since you have given him power over all flesh, so that he may give eternal life to as many as you have given him. 3 And this is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. 4 I have glorified you on the earth. I have finished the work which you gave me to do. 5 And now, O Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world was.

6 "I have manifested your name to the men whom you gave to me out of the world.

They were yours and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. 7 Now they have known that everything you have given me comes from you. 8 For I have given to them the words which you gave me, and they have received them and have known surely that I came from you. And they have believed that you sent me. 9 I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom you have given to me, for they are yours. 10 And all mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. 11 And now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to you. Holy Father, keep, through your own name, those whom you have given to me so that they may be one as we are. 12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you gave to me I have kept, and not one of them is lost but the son of perdition, so that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 "And now I come to you, and these things I speak in the world so that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. 14 I have given to them your word. And the world has hated them because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15 I do not pray that you should take them out of the world, but that you should keep them from the evil. 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them through your truth. Your word is truth. 18 As you have sent me into the world, even so I have also sent them into the world. 19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself so that they also may be sanctified through the truth.

20 "I do not pray for these alone, but for those also who shall believe in me through their word, 21 So that they all may be one, as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, and that they also may be one in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

22 "And the glory which you gave to me I have given to them so that they may be one, even as we are one. 23 I am in them and you are in me so that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them as you have loved me. 24 Father, I wish that they also whom you have given to me be with me where I am so that they may behold my glory which you have given to me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world.

25 "O righteous Father, the world has not known you. But I have known you, and these have known that you have sent me. 26 And I have declared to them your name, and will declare it, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Chapter 18

Judas betrays Jesus, 1-5. The officers fall to the ground, 6-9. Peter smites off Malchus' ear, 10, 11. Jesus is taken and led to Annas and Caiaphas, 12-14. Peter's denial, 15-18. Jesus examined before Caiaphas, 19-24. Peter's second and third denial, 25-27. Jesus arraigned before Pilate, 28-35. His kingdom, 36-39. The Jews prefer Barabbas, 40.

1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kedron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. 2 And Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place, for Jesus often resorted there with his disciples. 3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, comes there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that were coming upon him, went forth and said to them, "Whom do you seek?" 5 They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus says to them, "I am he." And Judas also, who betrayed him, stood with them. 6 Then as soon as he had said to them, "I am he," they went backward and fell to the ground. 7 Then he asked them again, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth." 8 Jesus answered, "I have told you that I am he. If therefore you seek me, let these go away," 9 So that the saying might be fulfilled which he spoke: "Of those whom you gave to me, I have lost not one." 10 Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and smote the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. 11 Then Jesus said to Peter, "Put up your sword into the sheath. The cup which my Father has given me, shall I not drink it?"

12 Then the band, the captain, and officers of the Jews took Jesus, bound him, 13 And led him away to Annas first (for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year). 14 Now Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he entered with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. 16 But Peter stood at the door outside. Then that other disciple who was known to the high priest went out and spoke to her who kept the door and brought in Peter. 17 Then the woman-servant who kept the door says to Peter, "Are you not also one of this man's disciples?" He says, "I am not." 18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals (for it was cold), and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus concerning his disciples and concerning his doctrine. 20 Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple where the Jews always resort, and in secret I have said nothing. 21 Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard me what I have said to them. Behold, they know what I have said." 22 And when he had said this, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like that?" 23 Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, bear testimony of the evil. But if rightly, why do you smite me?" 24 (Now Annas had sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.)

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore to him, "Are you not also one of his disciples?" He denied it and said, "I am not." 26 One of the servants of the high priest (being the kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off) says, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?" 27 Peter then denied again, and immediately the cock crowed.

28 Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the hall of judgment. And it was early, and they themselves did not go into the judgment-hall so that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. 29 Pilate then went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" 30 They answered and said to him, "If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up to you." 31 Then Pilate said to them, "Take him and judge him according to your law." The Jews therefore said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put any man to death," 32 So that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment-hall again and called Jesus and said to him,

"Are you the King of the Jews?" 34 Jesus answered him, "Do you say this thing from yourself, or did others tell it to you concerning me?" 35 Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered you to me. What have you done?" 36 Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight so that I might not be delivered to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here." 37 Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a King then?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a King. To this end I was born, and for this cause I came into the world, so that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice." 38 Pilate says to him, "What is truth?" And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews and says to them, "I find in him no fault. 39 But you have a custom that I should release someone to you at the passover. Do you therefore wish that I release to you the King of the Jews?" 40 Then they all cried again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas." (Now Barabbas was a robber.)

Chapter 19

Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns, and beaten, 1-3. Pilate is desirous to release him, but being overcome with the outrage of the Jews, he delivers him to be crucified, 4-22. They cast lots for his garments, 23, 24. He commends his mother to John, 25-27. He dies, 28-30. His side is pierced, 31-37. He is buried by Joseph and Nicodemus, 38-42.

1 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus and scourged him. 2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they put a purple robe on him. 3 And they said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they smote him with their hands. 4 Pilate therefore went forth again and says to them, "Behold, I bring him forth to you so that you may know that I find no fault in him." 5 Then Jesus came forth wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate says to them, "Behold the man!" 6 Therefore, when the chief priests and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify him. Crucify him." Pilate says to them, "Take him and crucify him, for I find no fault in him." 7 The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by our law he ought to die because he made himself the Son of God."

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid. 9 And he went again into the judgment-hall and says to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Then Pilate says to him, "Do you not speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to crucify you and power to release you?" 11 Jesus answered, "You could have no power against me unless it were given to you from above. Therefore, he who delivered me to you has the greater sin." 12 And from thereafter, Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend. Whoever makes himself a king, speaks against Caesar."

13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth and sat down on the judgment-seat in a place that is called The Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 And it was the preparation of the passover and about the sixth hour. And he says to the Jews, "Behold your King!" 15 But they cried out, "Away with him. Away with him. Crucify him." Pilate says to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

16 So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. And they took Jesus and led him away.

17 And he, bearing his cross, went forth into a place called The Place of a Skull (which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha). 18 There they crucified him, and two others with him, one on each side and Jesus in the midst. 19 And Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was, "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS." 20 Many of the Jews then read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. 21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'He said, "I am King of the Jews."'" 22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part, and also his coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 Therefore, they said among themselves, "Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it shall be," so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says,

> "They parted my clothing among them, > and for my vesture they cast lots."

Therefore the soldiers did these things. 25 Now standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing by, he says to his mother, "Woman, behold your son!" 27 Then he says to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.

28 After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, says, "I thirst." 29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar. And they filled a sponge with vinegar, put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished," and he bowed his head and expired.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, so that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath (for that sabbath was a high day), implored Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. 32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with him. 33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. 34 But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 And he who saw it, testified—and his testimony is true, and he knows that he speaks truth—so that you may believe. 36 For these things were done so that the Scripture should be fulfilled: "A bone of him shall not be broken." 37 And again another Scripture says, "They shall look at him whom they pierced."

38 And after this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) petitioned Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him leave. He therefore came and took the body of Jesus. 39 And Nicodemus (who at the first came to Jesus by night) also came and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about one hundred pounds in weight. 40 Then they took the body of Jesus and wound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the manner of the Jews for burial. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulcher in which no man had ever yet laid. 42 Therefore, because of the Jews' preparation-day and because the sepulcher was near at hand, they laid Jesus there.

Mary comes to the sepulcher, 1, 2; so do Peter and John, ignorant of the resurrection, 3-10. Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene, 11-18, and to his disciples, 19-23. The incredulity and confession of Thomas, 24-29. These written signs are sufficient for salvation, 30, 31.

1 On the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene comes to the sepulcher early, when it was still dark, and sees the stone taken away from the sepulcher. 2 Then she runs and comes to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved and says to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulcher and we do not know where they have laid him." 3 Therefore, Peter and that other disciple went forth and came to the sepulcher. 4 And they both ran together, but the other disciple outran Peter and came to the sepulcher first. 5 And he, stooping down, saw the linen cloths lying, yet he did not go in. 6 Then Simon Peter comes following him and went into the sepulcher and sees the linen cloths lying. 7 And the cloth that was around his head was not lying with the linen cloths, but wrapped together in a place by itself. 8 Then that other disciple who came first to the sepulcher also went in, and he saw and believed. 9 For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. 10 Then the disciples went away back to their own home.

11 But Mary stood outside at the sepulcher weeping. And as she wept, she stooped down to look into the sepulcher 12 And sees two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say to her, "Woman, why do you weep?" She says to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord and I do not know where they have laid him." 14 And when she had said this, she turned herself around and saw Jesus standing, and did not know that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus says to her, "Woman, why do you weep? Whom do you seek?" She, supposing him to be the gardener, says to him, "Sir, if you have carried him from here, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." 16 Jesus says to her, "Mary." She turned herself and says to him, "Rabboni," (which is to say, Master). 17 Jesus says to her, "Do not touch me, for I have not yet ascended to my Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I ascend to my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.'" 18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord and that he had spoken these things to her.

19 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst and says to them, "Peace be to you." 20 And when he had said this, he showed his hands and his side to them. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. 21 Then Jesus said to them again, "Peace be to you. As my Father has sent me, even so I send you." 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them and says to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven, and if you retain the sins of anyone, they are retained."

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails and put my finger into the print of the nails and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe."

26 And after eight days again his disciples were inside, and Thomas with them. Then Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst and said, "Peace be to you." 27 Then he says to Thomas, "Reach here with your finger, and behold my hands. And reach here with your hand and thrust it into my side. And do not be faithless, but believing." 28 And Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God." 29 Jesus says to him, "Thomas, because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

30 And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples which are not written in this book. 31 But these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life through his name.

Chapter 21

Christ, appearing again to his disciples, is made known to them by the great multitude of fish caught in the net, 1-11. He dines with them, 12-14; earnestly commands Peter to feed his lambs and sheep, 15-17; foretells him of his death, 18-21; rebukes his curiosity concerning John, 22, 23. The conclusion, 24, 25.

1 After these things, Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias, and in this manner he showed himself:

2 Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. 3 Simon Peter says to them, "I am going fishing." They say to him, "We also will go with you." They went forth and entered into a boat immediately. And that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning had already come, Jesus stood on the shore. But the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. 5 Then Jesus says to them, "Children, do you have any food?" They answered him, "No." 6 And he said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat and you shall find some." They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fish. 7 Therefore, that disciple whom Jesus loved says to Peter, "It is the Lord." Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt on his fisher’s coat (for he was unclad) and cast himself into the sea. 8 And the other disciples came in a little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fish.

9 Then as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there with fish laid upon them and also bread. 10 Jesus says to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught." 11 Simon Peter went up and drew the net to land full of great fish—one hundred and fifty-three. And even though there were so many, yet the net was not broken.

12 Jesus says to them, "Come and dine." And none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus then comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and likewise the fish. 14 This is now the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples after he had risen from the dead.

15 So when they had dined, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?" He says to him, "Yes, Lord. You know that I love you." He says to him, "Feed my lambs." 16 He says to him again the second time, "Simon son of Jonah, do you love me?" He says to him, "Yes, Lord. You know that I love you." He says to him, "Feed my sheep." 17 He says to him the third time, "Simon son of Jonah, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know all things. You know that I love you." Jesus says to him, "Feed my sheep. 18 Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you girt yourself and walked where you wished, but when you are old, you shall stretch forth your hands and another shall gird you and carry you where you do not wish." 19 He spoke this signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he says to him, "Follow me."

20 Then Peter, turning around, sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following (who also leaned on his chest at supper and said, "Lord, who is he who betrays you?"). 21 Peter, seeing him, says to Jesus, "Lord, and what shall this man do?" 22 Jesus says to him, "If I wish that he remains until I come, what is that to you? Follow me." 23 Then this saying went abroad among the brothers, that this disciple should not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he shall not die, but, "If I wish that he remains until I come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple who testifies about these things and wrote these things. And we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which, if they should all be written, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. Amen.

The Acts of the Apostles

Acts | Πράξεις Ἀποστόλων

Chapter 1

Christ, preparing his apostles for the beholding of his ascension, gathers them together on mount Olivet, commands them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Spirit, promises after a few days to send him, and ascends into heaven in their sight, 1-9. After his ascension they are warned by two angels to depart and to set their minds upon his second coming, 10, 11. They accordingly return, and, giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias to be apostle in place of Judas, 12-26.

1 The former treatise I have made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach 2 Until the day in which he was taken up after he had given commandments through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen, 3 To whom also he showed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen by them forty days and speaking about the things pertaining to the kingdom of God, 4 And being assembled with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, he says, "You have heard from me. 5 For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

6 When they therefore had come together, they asked him, saying, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" 7 And he said to them, "It is not for you to know the times or the seasons which the Father has put in his own power. 8 But you shall receive power after the Holy Spirit has come upon you. And you shall be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea, in Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth."

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. 10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel, 11 Who also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up to heaven? This same Jesus who has been taken from you into heaven shall come in the same manner as you have seen him go into heaven."

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day’s journey. 13 And when they had arrived, they went into the upper room where they were staying, namely, Peter, James, John, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alpheus, Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. 14 All of these continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

15 And in those days, Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said (the number of the names together were about one hundred and twenty), 16 "Men, brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit by the mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who was a guide to those who took Jesus. 17 For he was numbered with us and had obtained part of this ministry." 18 (Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and falling headlong, he burst apart in the midst and all his bowels gushed out. 19 And it was known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem, so that in their proper language that field is called, Aceldama, that is to say, The Field of Blood.) 20 "For it is written in the book of Psalms,

> 'Let his habitation be desolate, > and let no man dwell in it,'

and,

> 'Let another take his office.'

21 "Therefore, from these men who accompanied us the whole time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us— 22 Beginning from the baptism of John to that same day that he was taken up from us—one of these must be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection." 23 And they appointed two: Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. 24 And they prayed, and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which of these two you have chosen 25 So that he may take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell in order to go to his own place." 26 And they gave forth their lots, and the lot fell upon Matthias and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.20]: Psalm 69:25, 109:8.[LXX]

Chapter 2

The apostles, filled with the Holy Spirit and speaking various languages, are admired by some and derided by others, 1-13; whom Peter disproves, 14-36; he baptizes a great number who were converted, 37-40; who afterward devoutly and charitably fellowship together; the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing his church, 41-47.

1 And when the day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared to them tongues like fire that separated and sat upon each of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were Jews dwelling at Jerusalem, devout men, from every nation under heaven. 6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together and were confounded because every man heard them speak in his own language. 7 And they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Behold, are all these who speak not Galileans? 8 And how do we hear every man in our own language to which we were born? 9 Parthians, Medes, Elamites, the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judea, Cappadocia, in Pontus, Asia, 10 Phrygia, Pamphylia, in Egypt, in the parts of Libya around Cyrene, strangers of Rome, both Jews and Proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians—we hear them speak in our languages the wonderful works of God." 12 And they were all amazed and in doubt, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" 13 Others mocking, said,

"These men are full of new wine."

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and said to them, "Men of Judea and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, may this be known to you, and listen to my words. 15 For these are not drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel:

> 17 'And it shall come to pass in the last days,' says God, /
> 'I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh, /
> and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, /
> your young men shall see visions, / > and your old men shall dream dreams.
>
> 18 And on my men-servants and on my women-servants /
> I will, in those days, pour out of my Spirit, / > and they shall prophesy.
>
> 19 And I will show wonders in heaven above / > and signs on the earth beneath: / > blood, fire, and vapor of smoke.
>
> 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness / > and the moon into blood /
> before that great and notable day of the Lord comes.
>
> 21 And it shall come to pass, that whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

22 "Men of Israel, hear these words. Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved by God among you by miracles, wonders, and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as you yourselves also know, 23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain, 24 Whom God has raised up, having released him from the pains of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. 25 "For David speaks concerning him,

> 'I saw the Lord always before my face, / > for he is on my right hand so that I should not be moved.
>
> 26 Therefore, my heart rejoiced and my tongue was glad. /
> Moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope.
>
> 27 For you will not leave my soul in hell, /
> neither will you allow your Holy One to see corruption.
>
> 28 You have made known to me the ways of life. /
> You will make me full of joy with your countenance.'

29 "Men, brothers, let me freely speak to you concerning the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried and his sepulcher is with us to this day. 30 Therefore, being a prophet and knowing that God had sworn to him with an oath that from the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne, 31 He, seeing this before, spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither did his flesh see corruption. 32 God has raised up this Jesus, of which we all are witnesses. 33 Therefore, being by the right hand of God exalted and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this which you now see and hear. 34 "For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he says himself,

> 'The LORD said to my Lord,
> "Sit on my right hand,
>
> 35 Until I make your foes your footstool for your feet."'

36 "Therefore, let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made that same Jesus, whom you have crucified, both Lord and Christ."

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart and said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, "Men, brothers, what shall we do?" 38 Then Peter said to them, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is to you, to your children, and to all who are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." 40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted, saying, "Save yourselves from this perverse generation." 41 Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. And the same day there were added to them about three thousand souls. 42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. 44 And all who believed were together and had all things common, 45 And sold their possessions and goods and parted them to all men, as every man had need. 46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple and breaking bread from house to house, ate their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added daily to the church those who were being saved.

Chapter 3

Peter, preaching to the people who came to see a lame man restored to his feet, 1-11, professes the cure not to have been wrought by his or John's own power or holiness, but by God and his son Jesus, and through faith in his name, 12. In addition, he reproves them for crucifying Jesus, 13-16; which they did through ignorance, and thereby fulfilled God's determinate counsel and the Scriptures, 17, 18. He exhorts them by repentance and faith to seek remission of their sins and salvation in the same Jesus, 19-26.

1 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. 2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful to ask for alms from those who entered into the temple. 3 Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked for alms. 4 And Peter fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, "Look at us." 5
And he gave heed to them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 Then Peter said, "I do not have silver and gold, but what I have, I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." 7 And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up. And immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. 8 And leaping up, he stood, walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God, 10 And they knew that it was he who sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.

11 And as the lame man who was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he answered to the people, "You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this?
Or why do you look so earnestly at us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? 13 The God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Son Jesus, whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. 14 But you denied the Holy and Just One and desired a murderer to be granted to you, 15 And killed the Prince of life whom God has raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. 16 And through faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Indeed, the faith which is by him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 "And now, brothers, I know that through ignorance you did it, as your rulers also did.
18 But those things which God before had shown by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he has thus fulfilled. 19 Therefore, repent and be converted so that your sins may be blotted out, and that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, 20 And that he may send Jesus Christ, who before was preached to you, 21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. 22 For Moses truly said to the fathers, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brothers. You shall hear him in all things, whatever he says to you. 23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul who will not hear that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people.' 24 And also all the prophets from Samuel, and those who follow, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold these days. 25 You are the children of the prophets and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your offspring all the kindreds of the earth shall be blessed.' 26 God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to you first to bless you in turning away each of you from his iniquities."

Chapter 4

The rulers of the Jews, offended by Peter's sermon, 1, 2, imprison him and John, 3, 4.

After examining Peter for boldly avouching the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus only we must be eternally saved, 5-12, they command him and John to preach no more in that name, adding also threatening, 13-22; whereupon the church flees to prayer, 23-30. And God, by moving the place where they were assembled, testifies that he heard their prayer; confirming the church with the gift of the Holy Spirit and with mutual love and charity, 31-37.

1 And as they were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them, 2 Being grieved that they taught the people and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. 4 But many of them who heard the word believed. And the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the next day, that their rulers, elders, and scribes, 6 And Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were assembled at Jerusalem. 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, "By what power, or by what name have you done this?" 8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel, 9 If we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the sick man, by what means he is made sound, 10 May it be known to you all and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him this man stands here before you sound. 11 This is 'the stone which was set at nothing by you builders, which has become the head of the corner.' 12 There is not salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to withdraw from the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, "What shall we do to these men? For that indeed a notable miracle has been done by them is manifest to all those who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. 17 But so that it may spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them that they speak from now on to no man in this name." 18 And they called them and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John answered and said to them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves. 20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." 21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people, for all men glorified God for that which was done. 22 For the man was more than forty years old on whom this miracle of healing was performed.

23 And being dismissed, they went to their own company and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. 24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, "'Lord, you are God, who made heaven, earth, the sea, and all that is in them,' 25 Who, by the mouth of your servant David, said,

> 'Why did the heathen rage,
> and the people plot vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, / and the rulers were assembled / against the Lord and against his Christ.'

27 "For in truth, against your holy child Jesus, whom you have anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were assembled, 28 To do whatever your hand and your counsel determined before to be done. 29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings and grant to your servants that with all boldness they may speak your word, 30 By stretching forth your hand to heal, and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of your holy child Jesus." 31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and of one soul, neither did any of them say that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. 33 And with great power the apostles gave testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. 34 Neither was there anyone among them who was in need, for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them and brought the money from the things that were sold 35 And laid it down at the apostles' feet. And distribution was made to every man according as he had need.

36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, The Son of Consolation), a Levite and from the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Chapter 5

Ananias and Sapphira his wife fell down dead for their hypocrisy at Peter's rebuke, 1-11. The rest of the apostles wrought many miracles, 12, 13; to the increase of the faith, 14-16. The apostles are again imprisoned, 17, 18; but delivered by an angel bidding them preach openly to all, 19, 20. But after their teaching accordingly in the temple, 21-28, and before the council, 29-32, they are in danger to be killed; but through the advice of Gamaliel, a great counselor among the Jews, they are kept alive and are only beaten, for which they glorify God, 33-41. They did not cease from daily preaching, 42.

1 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 Kept back part of the price (his wife also being aware of it), and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back part of the value of the land? 4 While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own power? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God." 5 And Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and expired. And great fear came on all those who heard these things. 6 And the young men arose, wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about three hours later when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. 8 And Peter answered to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much?" And she said, "Yes, for so much." 9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Behold the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door and shall carry you out." 10 Then she fell down immediately at his feet and expired. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. 11 And great fear came upon all the church and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were wrought among the people, and they were all with one accord in Solomon’s porch. 13 And of the rest, no man dared join himself to them, but the people magnified them. 14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. 15 They even brought forth the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and couches so that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. 16 There also came a multitude out of the cities around to Jerusalem bringing sick persons and those who were afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees) were filled with indignation, 18 Laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. 19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison-doors and brought them forth, and said, 20 "Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life." 21 And when they heard this, they entered into the temple at dawn and taught. But the high priest and those who were with him came and called the council together—all the senate of the children of Israel—and sent to the prison to have them brought. 22 But when the officers came and did not find them in the prison, they returned and reported, 23 Saying, "We truly found the prison shut with all safety and the keepers standing outside before the doors. But when we had opened, we found no man inside." 24 Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they were doubting concerning them and to what this would come. 25 Then someone came and told them, saying, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." 26 Then the captain went with the officers and brought them without violence, for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council, and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, "Did we not strictly command you that you should not teach in this name? And behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine and intend to bring this man’s blood upon us." 29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, "We ought to obey God rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you slew and hanged on a tree. 31 God has exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. 32 And we are his witnesses of these things, and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

33 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart and took counsel to slay them. 34 Then someone in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, had in reputation among all the people, stood up and commanded to put the apostles forth a little time. 35 And said to them, "Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do concerning these men. 36 For before these days, Theudas rose, boasting himself to be somebody, to whom a number of about four hundred men joined themselves. He was slain, and as many as obeyed him were all scattered and brought to nothing. 37 After this man, Judas of Galilee rose in the days of the taxing and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and even as many as obeyed him were all dispersed. 38 And now I say to you, refrain from these men and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is from men, it will come to nothing, 39 But if it is from God, you cannot overthrow it, lest perhaps you be found even to fight against God."

40 And they assented to him. And when they had called the apostles and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus and let them go. 41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. 42 And daily in the temple and in every house they did not cease to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

Chapter 6

The Hellenistic Jews are discontent that their widows were neglected in the daily ministration, and to address this, the apostles meet, 1, 2, recommend, 3, 4, and with the church's consent, ordain seven chosen men to the office of deaconship, 5, 6. The word of God prevails, 7. Stephen, full of faith and the Holy Spirit, disproving those with whom he disputed, is brought before the council and falsely accused of blasphemy against the law and the temple, 8-15.

1 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. 2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples, and said, "It is not fitting that we should leave the word of God and serve tables. 3 Therefore, brothers, select among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word." 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and also Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch. 6 They set these men before the apostles, and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly, and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and miracles among the people. 9 Then there arose some from the synagogue called the Libertines, along with Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and some of those from Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen. 10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. 11 Then they suborned men, who said, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God." 12 And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, caught him, brought him to the council, 13 And set up false witnesses, who said, "This man does not cease to speak blasphemous words against this holy place and the law. 14 For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." 15 And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

Chapter 7

Stephen, permitted to answer to the accusation of blasphemy, 1, shows that Abraham worshiped God rightly, and how God chose the fathers, 2-19, before Moses was born and before the tabernacle and temple were built, 20-36; that Moses himself witnessed of Christ, 37-43; and that all outward ceremonies were ordained, according to the heavenly pattern, to last only for a time, 44-50; reproving their rebellion and murdering of Christ, the Just One, whom the prophets foretold should come into the world, 51-53. Upon hearing that, they stone him to death, while he commends his soul to Jesus and humbly prays for them, 54-60.

1 Then the high priest said, "Are these things so?"

2 And he said, "Men, brothers, and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, 3 And said to him, 'Depart from your country and from your kindred and come into the land which I shall show you.' 4 Then he came from the land of the Chaldeans and dwelt in Haran. And from there, when his father was dead, he moved him into this land in which you now dwell. 5 And he gave him no inheritance in it, not even so much as to set his foot on. Yet he promised that 'he would give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring after him,' when he still had no child. 6 And God spoke in this way, that 'his offspring should sojourn in a foreign land, and that they should bring them into bondage and treat them ill four hundred years.' 7 'And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage I will judge,' said God. 'And after that they shall come forth "and serve me in this place."' 8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. Then Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot the twelve patriarchs.

9 "And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt. But God was with him 10 And delivered him from all his afflictions and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 "Now there came a famine over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, and our fathers found no sustenance. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. 13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph’s kindred was made known to Pharaoh. 14 Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob and all his kindred to him, seventy-five souls. 15 So Jacob went down into Egypt and died—he and our fathers. 16 They were carried over into Shechem and laid in the sepulcher that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem.

17 "But when the time of the promise drew near which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Until 'another king arose who did not know Joseph.' 19 The same dealt subtly with our kindred and ill-treated our fathers, making them cast out their young children so that they would not live. 20 At that time, Moses was born and was exceedingly fair and nourished in his father’s house for three months. 21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh’s daughter took him up and nourished him as her own son. 22 And Moses was taught in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was mighty in words and in deeds. 23 And when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him and avenged him who was oppressed and smote the Egyptian. 25 For he supposed his brothers to understand that God by his hand would deliver them, but they did not understand. 26 And the next day he showed himself to them as they were contending and would have constrained them to be at peace again, saying, 'Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you do wrong to one another?' 27 But he who did his neighbor wrong thrust him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Will you kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 Then 'Moses fled at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian,' where he begot two sons.

30 "And when forty years had expired, there 'appeared to him' in the wilderness of mount Sinai, 'an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.' 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. And as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came to him, 32 Saying, 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' Then Moses trembled and dared not behold. 33 Then the Lord said to him, 'Take off your shoes from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. 34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt and I have heard their groaning. And I have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you into Egypt.'

35 "This Moses, whom they refused, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' the same, God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 He brought them out after he had showed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years. 37 This is that Moses who said to the children of Israel, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You will hear him.' 38 This is he who was in the church in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him on the mount Sinai and with our fathers, who received the living oracles to give to us, 39 Whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, 40 Saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods to go before us. For as for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' 41 And they made a calf in those days, offered sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. 42 Then God turned and gave them up to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets,

> 'O house of Israel, have you offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices / > during forty years in the wilderness?
>
> 43 You even took up the tabernacle of Moloch / > and the star of your god Rephan, / > figures which you made to worship them. /
> I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'

44 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking to Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen, 45 Which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers until the days of David, 46 Who found favor before God and asked to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. 47 But Solomon built him a house. 48 Yet, the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, as says the prophet,

49 'Heaven is my throne, / and earth is my footstool. /
What house will you build for me?' says the Lord. /
'And what is the place of my rest?

50 Has my hand not made all these things?'

51 "You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. 52 Which of the prophets have your fathers not persecuted? And they have slain those who foretold the coming of the Just One, of whom you have now been the betrayers and murderers, 53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels and have not kept it."

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart and they gnashed at him with their teeth. 55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God." 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, stopped their ears, ran upon him with one accord, 58 Cast him out of the city, and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man’s feet, whose name was Saul. 59 And they stoned Stephen as he was calling upon God, and saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60 And he kneeled down and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, do not lay this sin to their charge." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Chapter 8

The disciples were dispersed because of a great persecution at Jerusalem, Saul’s persecution of the church, and a church is planted by Philip in Samaria, 1-8. Simon the sorcerer is baptized, along with many others, 9-13. Peter and John are sent there, who prayed for them and laid their hands on them, after which they received the Holy Spirit, 14-17. Simon offers money for the same power, is sharply reproved by Peter for his wickedness and hypocrisy, and admonished to repent, 18-24. The apostles return to Jerusalem, having preached the word, 25. Philip is sent by an angel to convert and baptize an Ethiopian eunuch 26-40.

1 And Saul was consenting to his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem, and they were all dispersed throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. 2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial and made great lamentation over him. 3 As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering into every house and hauling off men and women and committing them to prison.

4 Therefore, those who were dispersed went everywhere preaching the word. 5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria and preached Christ to them. 6 And the people with one accord gave heed to those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the miracles which he performed. 7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many who were possessed, and many who were paralyzed and who were lame were healed. 8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, who previously in the same city used sorcery and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was some great one, 10 To whom they all gave heed from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the great power of God." 11 And to him they had regard, because for a long time he had bewitched them with sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philip as he preached the things concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13 Then Simon himself believed also. And when he was baptized, he continued with Philip and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, 15 Who, when they had come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. 16 (For as yet he had fallen upon none of them. Only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) 17 Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. 18 And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, "Give me this power also so that on whomever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit." 20 But Peter said to him, "May your money perish with you because you have thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. 21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right in the sight of God. 22 Repent therefore of this wickedness of yours and pray to God, if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven. 23 For I perceive that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity." 24 Then Simon answered, and said, "Pray to the Lord for me that none of these things which you have spoken come upon me."

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south, to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza, which is desert." 27 And he arose and went, and behold, there was a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians who had the charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship 28 And was returning and sitting in his chariot reading Isaiah the prophet. 29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and join yourself to this chariot." 30 And Philip ran there to him and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you read?" 31 And he said, "How can I unless someone guides me?" And he entreated Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 The place of the Scripture which he read was this:

> "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter, / > and as a lamb before his shearer is mute, /
> so he did not open his mouth.

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away. /
And who shall declare his generation? /
For his life is taken from the earth."

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, "I pray you, of whom does the prophet speak this? Of himself, or of some other man?" 35 Then Philip opened his mouth and began at the same Scripture and preached to him Jesus. 36 And as they went along the way, they came to a certain water, and the eunuch said, "See, here is water. What hinders me from being baptized?" 37 And Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." 38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still. And they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. 39 And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away so that the eunuch no longer saw him. Then he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached in all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

Saul, going toward Damascus, is stricken down to the earth and led blind to Damascus, 1-9; is called to the apostleship, 10-17; and is baptized by Ananias, 18, 19. He preaches Christ boldly, 20-22. The Jews lay wait to kill him, 23-28; so do the Grecians, but he escapes both, 29, 30. The church having rest, Peter heals Eneas of paralysis, 31-35; and restores Tabitha to life, 36-43.

1 And Saul, still breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, 2 And desired from him letters to the synagogues in Damascus so that if he should find any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus, and suddenly there shined around him a light from heaven, 4 And he fell to the earth and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" 5 And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And the Lord said, "I am Jesus whom you persecute. It is hard for you to kick against the goads." 6 And he, trembling and astonished, said, "Lord, what do you wish for me to do?" And the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and it shall be told to you what you must do." 7 And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. 8 And Saul arose from the earth, but when his eyes were opened, he saw no man. So they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias, and the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Behold, I am here, Lord." 11 And the Lord said to him, "Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus. For behold, he prays 12 And has seen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in and putting his hand on him so that he might receive his sight." 13 Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem. 14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name." 15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen vessel for me to bear my name before the Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel. 16 For I will show him what great things he must suffer for my name's sake." 17 And Ananias went and entered into the house, and putting his hands on him, said, "Brother Saul, the Lord—even Jesus who appeared to you in the way as you came—has sent me so that you may receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he received sight immediately. Then he arose and was baptized. 19 And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then Saul was some days with the disciples who were at Damascus. 20 And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. 21 But all who heard him were amazed, and said, "Is this not he who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem and came here for that intent so that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?" 22 But Saul increased the more in strength and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

23 And after many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him. 24 But their lying in wait was known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. 25 Then the disciples took him by night and let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he essayed to join himself to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him and did not believe that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took him, brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. 29 And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the Grecians, but they were seeking to slay him. 30 And when the brothers knew, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then the churches had rest throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he also came down to the saints who dwelt at Lydda. 33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas who had been bedridden for eight years and was paralyzed. 34 And Peter said to him, "Eneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Arise, and make your bed." And he arose immediately. 35 And all who dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him and turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha (who by interpretation is called Dorcas). This woman was full of good works and acts of charity which she did. 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber. 38 And as Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent to him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. 39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber. And all the widows stood by him weeping and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them. 40 But Peter put them all forth, kneeled down, and prayed, and turning to the body, said, "Tabitha, arise." She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand and lifted her up. And when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it was known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. 43 And it came to pass, that he stayed many days in Joppa with one, Simon, a tanner.

Chapter 10

Cornelius, a devout man, being commanded by an angel, sends for Peter, 1-10, who by a vision is taught not to despise the Gentiles, 11-16; and is commanded by the Spirit to go with the messenger to Caesarea, 17-24. Cornelius discloses the occasion of his sending for him, 25-33. As he preaches Christ to Cornelius and his company, 34-43, the Holy Spirit falls on them and they are baptized, 44-48.

1 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called The Italian Band, 2 A devout man and one who feared God with all his house, who gave many alms to the people and always prayed to God. 3 About the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him and saying to him, "Cornelius." 4 And when he looked at him, he was afraid, and said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to Joppa and call for one, Simon, whose surname is Peter. 6 He lodges with one, Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea-side. He will tell you what you ought to do." 7 And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who waited on him continually. 8 And when he had declared all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 On the next day, as they were going on their journey and drew near to the city, Peter went up upon the house-top about the sixth hour to pray. 10 And he became very hungry and wished to eat, but while they made ready, he fell into a trance 11 And saw heaven opened and a certain vessel descending to him like a great sheet knit at the four corners being let down to the earth, 12 In which were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, wild beasts, creeping animals, and birds of the air. 13 And there came a voice to him, "Rise, Peter. Kill and eat." 14 But Peter said, "Not so, Lord, for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean." 15 And the voice spoke to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed, do not call unclean." 16 This was done three times, and the vessel was received back into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men who were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon’s house and were standing before the gate. 18 They called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, lodged there. 19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men seek you. 20 Arise therefore, go down, and go with them, doubting nothing, for I have sent them." 21 Then Peter went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius, and said, "Behold, I am he whom you seek. What is the cause for which you have come?" 22 And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a just man and one who fears God and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for you into his house and to hear words from you." 23 Then he called them in and lodged them. And on the next day, Peter went with them, and some brothers from Joppa accompanied him. 24 And on the next day, they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. 25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. 26 But Peter took him up, saying, "Stand up. I myself am also a man." 27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together. 28 And he said to them, "You know that it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to keep company or come to one of another nation. But God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean. 29 Therefore, I came to you without gainsaying as soon as I was sent for. I ask therefore for what intent you have sent for me."

30 And Cornelius said, "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard and your alms are remembered in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to Joppa and call here Simon, whose surname is Peter. He lodges in the house of one, Simon, a tanner, by the sea-side. When he comes, he will speak to you.' 33 Immediately therefore I sent for you, and you have done well that you have come. Now therefore, we are all here present before God to hear all things that are commanded you by God."

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, "In truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons. 35 But in every nation he who fears him and works righteousness is accepted with him. 36 The word which God sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), 37 You know that word which was published throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism which John preached, 38 That God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. 39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom they slew and hanged on a tree. 40 God raised him on the third day and showed him openly, 41 Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that it is he who was ordained by God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. 43 All the prophets give testimony to him, that through his name, whoever believes in him shall receive remission of sins."

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word. 45 And those of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out on the Gentiles also. 46 For they heard them speak in languages and magnify God. Then Peter answered, 47 "Can any man forbid water that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" 48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they requested him to stay some days.

Chapter 11

Peter, being accused of going to the Gentiles, 1-4, makes his defense, 5-17; which is accepted, 18. The gospel being spread into Phenice, Cyprus, and Antioch, Barnabas is sent to confirm them, 19-25. The disciples there are first called Christians, 26. They send relief to the brothers in Judea in time of famine, 27-30.

1 And the apostles and brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. 2 And when Peter had come to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 Saying, "You went to uncircumcised men and ate with them." 4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning and expounded it in order to them, saying, 5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain vessel descending, like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners, and it even came to me, 6 Upon which when I had fastened my eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, wild beasts, creeping animals, and birds of the air. 7 And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Arise, Peter. Slay and eat.' 8 But I said, 'Not so, Lord, for nothing common or unclean has at any time entered into my mouth.' 9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, 'What God has cleansed, do not call common.' 10 And this was done three times. And all were drawn up back into heaven. 11 And behold, immediately there were three men already standing at the house where I was, sent to me from Caesarea. 12 And the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover, these six brothers accompanied me, and we entered into the man’s house. 13 And he showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, 'Send men to Joppa and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter, 14 Who shall tell you words by which you and all your house shall be saved.' 15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. 16 Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' 17 If then God gave them the same gift as he did to us, who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, what was I that I could withstand God?" 18 When they heard these things, they held their peace and glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted repentance to life to the Gentiles."

19 Now those who were dispersed upon the persecution that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phenice, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but to the Jews only. 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. 22 Then tidings of these things came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. 23 When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad and exhorted them all that with purpose of heart they would cleave to the Lord. 24 For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And many people were added to the Lord. 25 Then Barnabas departed to Tarsus to seek Saul. 26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church and taught many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

27 And in these days, prophets from Jerusalem came to Antioch. 28 And one of them named Agabus stood up and signified by the Spirit that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. 29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brothers who dwelt in Judea, 30 Which they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Chapter 12

King Herod persecutes the Christians, kills James, and imprisons Peter, whom an angel delivers upon the prayers of the church, 1-19. Herod in his pride, taking to himself the honor due to God, is stricken by an angel and dies miserably, 20-23. After his death, the word of God prospers, 24. Saul and Barnabas return to Antioch, 25.

1 Now about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to afflict some of the church. 2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. 3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. Those were the days of unleavened bread. 4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him, intending after the passover to bring him forth to the people. 5 Peter therefore was kept in prison. But prayer was made without ceasing by the church to God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the door kept the prison. 7 And behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison, and he smote Peter on the side and raised him up, saying, "Arise quickly." And his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and put on your sandals." And he did so. And he says to him, "Put on your cloak and follow me." 9 And he went out and followed him, and did not know that it was true which was done by the angel, but thought he saw a vision. 10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, which opened to them of its own accord. And they went out and passed on through one street, and immediately the angel departed from him. 11 And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I know with certainty that the Lord has sent his angel and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews." 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John whose surname was Mark, where many were assembled and praying. 13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a woman-servant named Rhoda came to listen. 14 And when she knew Peter’s voice, she did not open the gate for gladness, but ran in and reported that Peter stood before the gate. 15 And they said to her, "You are insane." But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then they said, "It is his angel." 16 But Peter continued knocking. And when they had opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. 17 But he, beckoning to them with the hand to hold their peace, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go, show these things to James and to the brothers." And he departed and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. 19 And when Herod had sought for him and did not find him, he examined the keepers and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

20 And Herod was highly displeased with those of Tyre and Sidon. But they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus the king’s chamberlain their friend, desired peace, because their country was nourished by the king’s country. 21 And upon a set day, Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne and made an oration to them. 22 And the people gave a shout, saying, "It is the voice of a god and not of a man." 23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem when they had fulfilled their ministry and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Chapter 13

Paul and Barnabas are chosen to go to the Gentiles, 1-5. Of Sergius Paulus and Elymas the sorcerer, 6-12. Paul preaches at Antioch that Jesus is Christ, 13-41. The Gentiles believe, 42, 43; but the Jews gainsay and blaspheme, whereupon Paul and Barnabas turn to the Gentiles, of whom many believe, 44-49. The Jews raise a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, who go to Iconium, 50-52.

1 Now there were in the church that was at Antioch some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saul for me for the work to which I have called them." 3 And when they had fasted, prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, departed to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. 5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John for their minister. 6 And when they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Barjesus, 7 Who was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man, who called for Barnabas and Saul and desired to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. 9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul), filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him, 10 And said, "O full of all subtlety and all mischief, you child of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? 11 And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a season." And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company set sail from from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia. And John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem. 14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia and went into the synagogue on the sabbath and sat down. 15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Men, brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak." 16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, "Men of Israel and you who fear God, give audience. 17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm he brought them out of it. 18 And about the time of forty years he put up with their manners in the wilderness. 19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he divided their land to them by lot. 20 And after that, he gave judges to them, for about four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. 21 And afterward, they desired a king, and God gave Saul the son of Kish to them, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. 22 And when he had removed him, he raised up to them David to be their king, to whom also he gave testimony, and said, '"I have found David" the son of Jesse, "a man after my own heart" who shall fulfill all my will.' 23 Of this man’s offspring God has, according to his promise, raised up to Israel a Savior, Jesus. 24 Before his coming, John had first preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, 'Who do you think that I am? I am not he. But behold, there comes one after me whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to untie.'

26 "Men, brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and whoever among you fears God, to you the word of this salvation is sent. 27 For those who dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they did not know him, nor yet the words of the prophets which are read every sabbath, they have fulfilled them in condemning him. 28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet they desired of Pilate that he should be put to death. 29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning him, they took him down from the tree and laid him in a sepulcher. 30 But God raised him from the dead, 31 And he was seen many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. 32 And we declare to you the glad tidings, that the promise which was made to the fathers, 33 God has fulfilled the same to us their children in that he has raised up Jesus again, as it is also written in the second psalm,

> 'You are my Son. This day I have begotten you.'

34 And concerning that he raised him from the dead, now no longer to return to corruption, he said in this way:

> 'I will give you the sure mercies of David.'

35 Therefore, he also says in another psalm,

> 'You will not allow your Holy One to see corruption.'

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep and was laid with his fathers and saw corruption. 37 But he whom God raised again saw no corruption. 38 May it be known to you therefore, men, brothers, that through this man the forgiveness of sins is preached to you, 39 And by him all who believe are justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken in the prophets,

> 41 '"Behold, you despisers, wonder and perish, / > for I work a work in your days," / > a work "which you will in no way believe, / > though a man declares it to you."'"

42 And when the Jews had gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles implored that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. 43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And on the next sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God. 45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy and spoke against those things which were uttered by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. 46 Then Paul and Barnabas became bold, and said, "It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. But seeing you reject it and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. 47 For thus the Lord has commanded us, saying,

> 'I have set you"to be a light of the Gentiles
> so that you should bring salvation to the ends of the earth."'"

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord. And as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. 49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region. 50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women and the chief men of the city, raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their borders. 51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them and came to Iconium. 52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 14

Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium, 1-7. At Lystra Paul heals a cripple, whereupon they are reputed as gods, 8-18. Paul is stoned, 19, 20. They pass through various churches, confirming the disciples in faith and patience, 21-25. Returning to Antioch, they report what God had done with them, 26-28.

1 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in such a way that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. 2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and made their minds evil-affected against the brothers. 3 Therefore, they stayed a long time speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony to the word of his grace and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided. And part held with the Jews and part with the apostles. 5 And when there was an assault made both by the Gentiles and also by the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully and to stone them, 6 Being apprised of it, they fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the region in that vicinity. 7 And they preached the gospel there.

8 And there sat a certain man at Lystra lacking strength in his feet, being a cripple from his mother’s womb who had never walked. 9 The same heard Paul speak, who, steadfastly beholding him and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 10 Said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he leaped and walked. 11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men." 12 And they called Barnabas, "Zeus," and Paul, "Hermes," because he was the chief speaker. 13 Then the priest of Zeus who was before their city brought oxen and garlands to the gates and would have done sacrifice with the people, 14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they rent their clothes and ran in among the people, crying out, 15 And saying, "Sirs, why do you do these things? We are also men of like passions with you and preach to you that you should turn from these vanities to the living God, who 'made heaven, earth, the sea, and all things that are in them,' 16 Who in times past allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. 17 Nevertheless, he did not leave himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness." 18 And with these sayings they scarcely restrained the people from doing sacrifice to them.

19 And some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, who persuaded the people. And having stoned Paul, they drew him out of the city supposing him to be dead. 20 But as the disciples stood around him, he rose and came into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. 21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned again to Lystra, to Iconium, and to Antioch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, "We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God." 23 And when they had ordained elders for them in every church and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, in whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. 25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia. 26 And from there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. 27 And when they had come and had assembled the church, they rehearsed all that God had done with them and that he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. 28 And there they stayed a long time with the disciples.

[v.15]: Exodus 20:11.[LXX]

Chapter 15

Great dissensions arise concerning circumcision, 1-4. The apostles consult about it, 5-21, and send their determination by letters to the churches, 22-35. Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the brothers together, disagree and travel different ways, 36-41.

1 And some men who came down from Judea taught the brothers, and said, "Unless you are circumcised after the manner of Moses you cannot be saved." 2 Therefore, when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul, Barnabas, and some others of them should go to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. 3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. And they caused great joy to all the brothers. 4 And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and by the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them. 5 But there rose some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying that it was needful to circumcise them and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter. 7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose and said to them, "Men, brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. 8 And God, who knows the hearts, bore them witness, giving the Holy Spirit to them, even as he did to us, 9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. 10 Now therefore, why do you test God to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved even as they are."

12 Then all the multitude kept silence and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought by them among the Gentiles.

13 And after they held their peace, James answered, saying, "Men, brothers, listen to me. 14 Simon has declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles to take from among them a people for his name. 15 And the words of the prophets agree to this, as it is written,

> 16 '"After this I will return and will again build / > the tabernacle of David which has fallen down. /
> And I will again build its ruins and set it up,
>
> 17 So that the remnant of men and all the Gentiles / > upon whom my name is called may seek after the Lord," / > says the Lord who does all these things.'

18 Known to God are all his works from the beginning of the world. 19 Therefore, my judgment is that we do not trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God, 20 But that we write to them that they abstain from pollutions of idols, from lewdness, from things strangled, and from blood. 21 For Moses of old time has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath."

22 Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas, namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas and Silas, chief men among the brothers. 23 And they wrote letters by their hand after this manner: "The apostles, elders, and brothers send greeting to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. 24 Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, 'You must be circumcised and keep the law,' to whom we gave no such commandment, 25 It seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men who have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also tell you the same things by mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29 That you abstain from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from lewdness—which if you keep yourselves from you will do well. Farewell."

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch. And when they had convened the multitude, they delivered the epistle, 31 Which, when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation. 32 And Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words and confirmed them. 33 And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed in peace from the brothers to the apostles. 34 However, it pleased Silas to remain there still. 35 But Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And some days after, Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit our brothers in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord and see how they are." 37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark. 38 But Paul did not think it good to take with them him who departed from them in Pamphylia and did not go with them to the work. 39 And the contention was so sharp between them that they departed, separating one from the other. And so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus. 40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God. 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia confirming the churches.

Chapter 16

Paul, having circumcised Timothy, 1-6, and being called by the Spirit from one country to another, 7-13, converts Lydia, 14, 15, and casts out a spirit of divination, 16-18; for which cause he and Silas are whipped and imprisoned, 19-24. The prison doors are opened. 25-30. The jailer is converted, 31-34, and they are delivered, 35-40.

1 Then he came to Derbe and Lystra, and behold, a certain disciple was there named Timothy, the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was a Greek. 2 He was well reported of by the brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium. 3 Paul wished to have him go forth with him and took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those quarters, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep that were ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. 5 And so the churches were established in the faith and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia and were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia, 7 After they had come to Mysia, they essayed to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit did not allow them. 8 And they, passing by Mysia, came down to Troas. 9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia stood there and implored him, saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us." 10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

11 Therefore, setting sail from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis, 12 And from there to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia and a colony. And we were in that city staying some days. 13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was accustomed to be made, and we sat down and spoke to the women who resorted there.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira who worshiped God, heard us, whose heart the Lord opened so that she attended to the things which were spoken by Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, along with her household, she implored us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay there." And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass as we went to prayer, a certain woman-servant possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. 17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, "These men are the servants of the most high God, who show the way of salvation to us." 18 And she did this many days. But Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out the same hour.

19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas and drew them into the market-place to the rulers, 20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, "These men, being Jews, exceedingly trouble our city 21 And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans."

22 And the multitude rose together against them, and the magistrates rent off their clothes and commanded to beat them. 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely, 24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison and secured their feet in the stocks.

25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises to God, and the prisoners heard them. 26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake so that the foundations of the prison were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone’s bonds were loosened. 27 And the keeper of the prison, awaking out of his sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew out his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had fled. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here." 29 Then he called for a light, sprang in, and came trembling and fell down before Paul and Silas. 30 Then he brought them out, and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31 And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and you and your house shall be saved." 32 And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. 33 And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. Then he was baptized—he and all his household—without delay. 34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go." 36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul: "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Now therefore, depart and go in peace." 37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us openly and uncondemned—we being Romans—and have cast us into prison, and now they thrust us out privately? By no means. But let them come themselves and bring us out." 38 And the sergeants told these words to the magistrates, and they feared when they heard that they were Romans. 39 So they came and implored them. And having brought them out, they asked them to depart out of the city. 40 And they went out of the prison and entered into the house of Lydia. And when they had seen the brothers, they comforted them and departed.

Chapter 17

Paul preaches at Thessalonica, where some believe, 1-4, and others persecute him, 5-9. He is sent to Berea and preaches there, 10-12. Being persecuted by Jews from Thessalonica, 13-15, he comes to Athens, disputing with the Jews and preaching the living God, to them unknown, 16-31; whereby, though some mock, many are converted to Christ, 32-34.

1 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. 2 And Paul, as his manner was, went to them, and on three sabbaths reasoned with them out of the Scriptures, 3 Opening and alleging that it was needful that Christ should suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I preach to you, is Christ." 4 And some of them believed and consorted with Paul and Silas, along with a great multitude of the devout Greeks and many of the chief women. 5 But the Jews who did not believe, being moved with envy, took for themselves some vile fellows of the baser sort, and gathering a company, set all the city in an uproar. They assaulted the house of Jason and sought to bring them out to the people. 6 And when they did not find them, they drew Jason and some brothers to the rulers of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also, 7 Whom Jason has received, and they all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus." 8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city when they heard these things. 9 And when they had received a pledge from Jason and from the others, they let them go.

10 And the brothers immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night to Berea, who, coming there, went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica in that they received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so. 12 Therefore, many of them believed, along with a number of honorable women and men who were Greeks. 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the people. 14 And then immediately the brothers sent Paul away to go as far as to the sea, but Silas and Timothy stayed there still. 15 And those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens, and receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now, while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry. 17 Therefore, he disputed in the synagogue with the Jews and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with those who met with him. 18 Then some philosophers of the Epicureans and of the Stoics encountered him. And some said, "What will this babbler say?" and others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of strange gods," because he preached to them Jesus and the resurrection. 19 And they took him and brought him to Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak? 20 For you bring some strange things to our ears. We therefore wish to know what these things mean"— 21 For all the Athenians and strangers who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars-hill, and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are too superstitious. 23 For as I passed by and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription: 'TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.' Therefore, whom you ignorantly worship, I declare him to you. 24 God who made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands, 25 Neither is worshiped with men’s hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he gives to all life, breath, and all things, 26 And has made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth and has determined the times before appointed and the bounds of their habitation, 27 That they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might feel after him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. 28 For in him we live, move, and have our being, as some of your own poets have also said, 'For we are also his offspring.' 29 Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like gold, silver, or stone engraved by art and man's device. 30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, 31 Because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he has ordained, of which he has given assurance to all men in that he has raised him from the dead."

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, but others said, "We will hear you again concerning this matter." 33 So Paul departed from among them. 34 But some men adhered to him and believed, among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Chapter 18

Paul labors with his hands and preaches at Corinth to the Gentiles, 1-8. The Lord encourages him in a vision, 9-11. He is accused before Gallio the deputy, but is dismissed, 12-17. Afterward, passing from city to city, he strengthens the disciples, 18-23. Apollos, being more perfectly instructed by Aquila and Priscilla, preaches Christ with great efficacy, 24-28.

1 After these things, Paul departed from Athens and came to Corinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had lately come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome), and he came to them. 3 And because he was of the same occupation, he stayed with them and worked (for by their occupation they were tent-makers), 4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. 6 And when they opposed themselves and blasphemed, he shook his clothing and said to them, "May your blood be upon your own heads. I am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles." 7 And he departed from there and entered into the house of a certain man named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house joined close to the synagogue. 8 And Crispus the chief ruler of the synagogue believed in the Lord with all his house. And many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized. 9 Then the Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision: "Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not hold your peace. 10 For I am with you, and no man shall lay hands on you to hurt you, for I have many people in this city." 11 And he continued there one year and six months teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul and brought him to the judgment-seat, 13 Saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law." 14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrong, or heinous crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you. 15 But if it is a question of words and names and of your law, you look to it, for I will be no judge of such matters." 16 And he drove them from the judgment-seat. 17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 And Paul remained there for some time, and then took his leave of the brothers and sailed from there into Syria, and with him were Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchrea, for he had a vow. 19 And he came to Ephesus and left them there. But he himself entered into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. 20 When they desired him to stay for a longer time with them, he did not consent, 21 But bid them farewell, saying, "I must by all means keep this feast that comes in Jerusalem. But I will return to you, if God wills." And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. 25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and diligently taught the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. 26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him aside and expounded to him the way of God more perfectly. 27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brothers wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he helped them much who had believed through grace. 28 For he mightily convinced the Jews publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

Chapter 19

Some disciples receive the Holy Spirit after they are baptized in Jesus' name and Paul lays his hands on them, 1-7. The Jews blaspheme his doctrine, which is confirmed by miracles, 8-12. The Jewish exorcists, 13-15, are beaten by the devil, 16-18. Conjuring books are burnt, 19, 20. Demetrius, for love of gain, raises an uproar against Paul, 21-34; which is appeased by the town-clerk, 35-41.

1 And it came to pass, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper region, came to Ephesus, and finding some disciples, 2 He said to them, "Have you received the Holy Spirit since you believed?" And they said to him, "We have not so much as heard whether there is any Holy Spirit." 3 And he said to them, "Into what then were you baptized?" And they said, "Into John’s baptism." 4 Then Paul said, "John truly baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in him who should come after him, that is, in Christ Jesus." 5 When they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them and they spoke in languages and prophesied. 7 And they were about twelve men in all.

8 And he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. 9 But when some were hardened and did not believe, but spoke evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one, Tyrannus. 10 And this continued for two years so that all those who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus—both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul, 12 So that handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them. 13 Then some of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon themselves to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches." 14 And there were seven sons of one, Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, who did so. 15 And the evil spirit answered and said, "Jesus I know and Paul I know, but who are you?" 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overcame them, and prevailed against them so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus. And fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 And many who believed came, confessed, and showed their deeds. 19 Many of those who also practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them before all men. And they counted the price of them and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 So the word of God mightily grew and prevailed.

21 After these things had ended, Paul purposed in the Spirit to go to Jerusalem when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." 22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-smith who made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain to the craftsmen, 25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this craft we have our wealth. 26 Moreover, you see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods which are made with hands. 27 So not only is this craft of ours in danger to be set at nothing, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised and her magnificence destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships."

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, "Diana of the Ephesians is great." 29 And the whole city was filled with confusion. And having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul’s companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theater. 30 And when Paul wished to go in among the people, the disciples did not allow him. 31 And some of the chief of Asia who were his friends sent to him, desiring him that he would not venture himself into the theater. 32 Some therefore cried one thing and some another, for the assembly was confused, and the greater part did not know why they had come together. 33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand and wished to make his defense to the people. 34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice for about two hours cried out, "Diana of the Ephesians is great." 35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is a worshiper of the great goddess Diana and of the image which fell down from the sky? 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be contradicted, you ought to be quiet and to do nothing rashly. 37 For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. 38 Therefore, if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies. Let them accuse one another. 39 But if you inquire anything concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly. 40 For we are in danger of being called in question for this day’s uproar, since there is no cause by which we may give an account of this commotion." 41 And when he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Chapter 20

Paul goes to Macedonia, and from there to Troas, 1-6. He celebrates the Lord’s supper and preaches, 7, 8. Eutychus, having fallen down dead, is raised to life, 9-12. He continues his travels, 13-16; and at Miletus he calls the elders together, tells them what shall happen to him, 17-27, commits God’s flock to them, 28, warns them of false teachers, 29-31, commends them to God, 32-35, prays with them, and departs, 36-38.

1 And after the uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples to him, embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia. 2 And when he had gone over those parts and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece, 3 And stayed there three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. 4 And these accompanied him into Asia: Sopater from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia. 5 These had gone ahead and waited for us at Troas. 6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached to them (ready to depart on the next day) and continued his speech until midnight. 8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were assembled. 9 And a certain young man named Eutychus sat in a window, having fallen into a deep sleep. And as Paul discoursed longer still, he sunk down with sleep, fell from the third loft, and was taken up dead. 10 And Paul went down and fell on him, and embracing him, said, "Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him." 11 When he had come up again, had broken bread, and eaten, he discoursed a long while, even until break of day, and then departed. 12 And they brought the young man alive and were greatly comforted.

13 And we went before to a ship and sailed to Assos, intending to take in Paul there. For thus he had appointed, intending himself to go on foot. 14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in and came to Mitylene. 15 And we sailed from there and came the next day over against Chios. And the next day we arrived at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium. And the next day we came to Miletus. 16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus because he would not spend the time in Asia, for he hastened, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called the elders of the church. 18 And when they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, in what manner I was with you the whole time— 19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind and with many tears and temptations which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews, 20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable to you, but have shown you and have taught you publicly and from house to house, 21 Testifying both to the Jews and also to the Greeks repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. 22 And now behold, I go bound in the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there, 23 Except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. 24 But none of these things move me, neither do I count my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my course with joy and the ministry which I have received from the Lord Jesus to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 "And now behold, I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. 26 Therefore, I call you to witness this day that I am pure from the blood of all men. 27 For I have not shunned to declare to you all the counsel of God. 28 Take heed therefore to yourselves and to all the flock over which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to feed the church of God which he has purchased with his own blood. 29 For I know this, that after my departure, grievous wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. 30 Also from your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse things to draw away disciples after them. 31 Therefore, watch, and remember, that for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears. 32 And now, brothers, I commend you to God and to the word of his grace which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. 33 I have coveted no man’s silver, gold, or apparel. 34 And you yourselves know that these hands have ministered to my necessities and to those who were with me. 35 In all things I have shown you that in laboring this way you ought to support the weak and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

36 And when he had said this, he kneeled down and prayed with them all. 37 And they all wept bitterly, fell on Paul’s neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Chapter 21

Paul arrives at the house of Philip, whose daughters prophesy, 1-9. Agabus foretells what should happen to him at Jerusalem; he will not be dissuaded from going there, 10-16. He comes to Jerusalem, 17-26; where he is apprehended and in great danger, but by the chief captain is rescued, 27-36; and requests and is permitted to speak to the people, 37-40.

1 And it came to pass, that after we were separated from them and had launched, we came with a straight course to Coos, and the day following to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. 2 And finding a ship sailing over to Phenicia, we went aboard and set forth. 3 Now when we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed into Syria and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her burden. 4 And finding disciples, we stayed there seven days. And through the Spirit they said to Paul that he should not go up to Jerusalem. 5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and proceeded on our way. And they all conducted us with wives and children until we were out of the city. And we kneeled down on the shore and prayed. 6 And when we had taken our leave of one another, we went on board the ship and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, where we saluted the brothers and stayed with them one day. 8 And the next day, we who were of Paul’s company departed and came to Caesarea. And we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. 9 And the same man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. 10 And as we remained there many days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. 11 And when he had come to us, he took Paul’s girdle and bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'Thus the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this girdle and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'" 12 And when we heard these things, both we and those of that place implored him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." 14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "May the will of the Lord be done."

15 And after those days, we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. 16 Some of the disciples of Caesarea also went with us and brought with them Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. 18 And the day following Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. 19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. 20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord and said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe, and they are all zealous of the law. 21 And they are informed concerning you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. 22 What is it therefore? It is necessary for the multitude to come together, for they will hear that you have come. 23 Therefore, do what we say to you. We have four men who have a vow on them. 24 Take them, purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them so that they may shave their heads. And all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning you are nothing, but that you yourself also walk orderly and keep the law. 25 As concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, except only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from lewdness." 26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day he purified himself with them and entered into the temple, declaring the accomplishment of the days of purification until an offering should be offered for each of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews who were from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people and laid hands on him, 28 Crying out, "Men of Israel, help. This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, the law, and this place. And further, he has also brought Greeks into the temple and has polluted this holy place"— 29 For they had seen Trophimus, an Ephesian, with him before in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. 30 And all the city was moved and the people ran together. And they took Paul and drew him out of the temple. And immediately the doors were shut. 31 And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came to the chief captain of the band that all Jerusalem was in an uproar, 32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down to them. And when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. 33 Then the chief captain came near, took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains. Then he inquired who he was and what he had done. 34 And among the multitude some cried one thing, some another. And when he could not know the certainty because of the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle. 35 And when he came upon the stairs, it was so, that he was borne by the soldiers because of the violence of the people. 36 For the multitude of the people followed, crying, "Away with him."

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said to the chief captain, "May I speak to you?" He said, "Can you speak Greek? 38 Are you not that Egyptian, who, before these days, made an uproar and led out into the wilderness four thousand men who were murderers?" 39 But Paul said, "I am a Jew of Tarsus, a city of Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city, and I implore you to allow me to speak to the people." 40 And when he had given him license, Paul stood on the stairs and beckoned with the hand to the people. And when entire silence was made, he addressed them, speaking in the Hebrew language.

Chapter 22

Paul declares at large how he was converted to the faith, 1-16, and called to his apostleship, 17-21. At the very mentioning of the Gentiles the people cry out against him, 22, 23. He would have been scourged, 24; but claiming the privilege of a Roman, he escapes, 25-30.

1 "Men, brothers, and fathers, hear my defense which I now make to you"—

2 And when they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more silent. He says,

3 "I am truly a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, being zealous toward God as you all are this day. 4 And I persecuted this way even to death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women, 5 As also the high priest and all the estate of the elders can bear me testimony. From them I also received letters to the brothers and went to Damascus to bring those who were there bound to Jerusalem to be punished.

6 "And it came to pass, that as I was passing on my journey and had come near to Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light around me. 7 And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' 8 And I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.' 9 And those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they did not hear the voice of him who spoke to me. 10 And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Arise, go into Damascus, and there it shall be told to you concerning all things which are appointed for you to do.' 11 And when I could not see because of the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 "And one, Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews who dwelt there, 13 Came and stood by me and said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And the same hour I looked up at him. 14 And he said, 'The God of our fathers has chosen you so that you should know his will, see that Just One, and hear the voice of his mouth. 15 For you shall be his witness to all men of what you have seen and heard. 16 And now why do you wait? Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.'

17 "And it came to pass, that when I had come to Jerusalem again, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance 18 And saw him saying to me, 'Make haste, and depart quickly from Jerusalem, for they will not receive your testimony concerning me.' 19 And I said, 'Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you. 20 And when the blood of your martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by and consenting to his death and kept the clothing of those who slew him.' 21 And he said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you far from here to the Gentiles.'"

22 And they gave him audience to this word and then lifted up their voices, and said, "Away with such a man from the earth, for it is not fit that he should live." 23 And as they cried out, cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle and said that he should be examined by scourging so that he might know for what cause they cried like that against him. 25 And as they bound him with straps, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman and uncondemned?" 26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, "Take heed what you do, for this man is a Roman." 27 Then the chief captain came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said, "Yes." 28 And the chief captain answered, "With a great sum I obtained this freedom." And Paul said, "But I was born a citizen." 29 Then immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him. And the chief captain also was afraid after he knew that he was a Roman and because he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because he would have known the certainty of why he was accused by the Jews, he released him from his bonds and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear. Then he brought Paul down and set him before them.

Chapter 23

As Paul pleads his cause, 1, Ananias commands them to smite him, 2-6. Dissension among his accusers, 7-10. God encourages him, 11-13. The Jews' laying wait for Paul, 14-19, is declared to the chief captain, 20-26. He sends him to Felix the governor, 27-35.

1 And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, "Men, brothers, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." 2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him, "God shall smite you, you whited wall. And do you sit to judge me according to the law, and contrary to the law command me to be smitten?" 4 And those who stood by said, "Do you revile God’s high priest?" 5 Then Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he is the high priest. For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil about the ruler of your people.'"

6 But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question." 7 And when he had said this, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the multitude was divided. 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel nor spirit, but the Pharisees confess both. 9 And there arose a great cry. And the scribes who were from the Pharisees' part arose and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God." 10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing, lest Paul would have been pulled in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them and bring him into the castle.

11 And the following night, the Lord stood by him, and said, "Be of good cheer, Paul, for as you have testified concerning me in Jerusalem, so you must bear testimony also at Rome."

12 And when it was day, some of the Jews banded together and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. 13 And they were more than forty who had made this conspiracy. 14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. 15 Now therefore, you and the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down to you tomorrow as though you would inquire something more perfectly concerning him. And we, before he comes near, are ready to kill him."

16 And when the son of Paul's sister heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle and told Paul. 17 Then Paul called one of the centurions to him, and said, "Bring this young man to the chief captain, for he has a certain thing to tell him." 18 So he took him and brought him to the chief captain, and said, "Paul the prisoner called me to him and asked me to bring to you this young man who has something to say to you." 19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand and went with him aside privately, and asked him, "What is it that you have to tell me?" 20 And he said, "The Jews have agreed to desire of you that you would bring Paul down tomorrow into the council as though they would inquire somewhat more perfectly concerning him. 21 But do not yield to them, for there are of those who lie in wait for him more than forty men who have bound themselves with an oath that they will neither eat nor drink until they have killed him. And now they are ready, looking for a promise from you." 22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, "See that you tell no man that you have revealed these things to me."

23 And he called two centurions to him, saying, "Make ready two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea at the third hour of the night. 24 And provide for them beasts that they may set Paul on and bring him safe to Felix the governor." 25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 "Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix, sends greeting. 27 This man was taken by the Jews and would have been killed by them. But I came with a body of soldiers and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. 28 And when I would have known the cause for which they accused him, I brought him forth into their council, 29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds. 30 And when it was told to me that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent immediately to you and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before you what they had against him. Farewell."

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 On the next day, they left the horsemen to go with him and returned to the castle. 33 When they came to Caesarea and delivered the epistle to the governor, they also presented Paul before him. 34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia, 35 He said, "I will hear you when your accusers have also come." And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment-hall.

[v.5]: Exodus 22:28.[LXX]

Chapter 24

Paul, being accused by Tertullus the orator, 1-9, answers for his life and doctrine, 10-23. He preaches Christ to the governor and his wife, 24, 25. The governor hopes for a bribe, but in vain, 26. At last, going out of his office, he leaves Paul in prison, 27.

1 And after five days, Ananias the high priest came down with the elders and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who brought charges to the governor against Paul. 2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy great quietness and that very worthy deeds are done to this nation by your providence, 3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But so that I may not be further tedious to you, I pray you, that you, of your clemency, would hear us briefly, 5 For we have found this a pestilent man, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes, 6 Who also tried to profane the temple, whom we took and would have judged according to our law. 7 But the chief captain Lysias came, and with great violence took him out of our hands, 8 Commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him, you yourself may take knowledge of all these things of which we accuse him." 9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after the governor had beckoned to him to speak, answered, "Because I know that you have been for many years a judge to this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself, 11 So that you may understand that there have been no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. 12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man; neither exciting the people to sedition, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city; 13 Neither can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess to you: that after the way which they call heresy, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets, 15 And having hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. 16 And in this I exercise myself, to always have a conscience void of offense toward God and toward men. 17 Now after many years, I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, 18 Upon which some Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult, 19 Who ought to have been here before you and object if they had anything against me. 20 Or else, let these same here say if they have found any evil-doing in me while I stood before the council, 21 Unless it is for this one voice that I cried standing among them: 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.'"

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, "When Lysias the chief captain comes down, I will know the uttermost of your matter." 23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintances to minister or come to him.

24 And after some days, Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. 25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, "Depart for this time. When I have a convenient season, I will call for you." 26 He hoped also that money would have been given to him by Paul so that he might release him. Therefore, he sent for him more often and talked with him. 27 But after two years, Porcius Festus came as successor to Felix. And Felix, willing to show the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

Chapter 25

The Jews accuse Paul before Festus, 1-7. He answers for himself, 8-10, and appeals to Caesar, 11-13. Afterward, Festus opens his matter to King Agrippa, 14-22; and he is brought forth, 23, 24. Festus clears him of having done anything worthy of death, 25-27.

1 Now when Festus had come into the province, after three days he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. 2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews brought charges to him against Paul. And they implored him 3 And desired favor against him that he would summon him to Jerusalem. (They were lying in wait in the way to kill him.) 4 But Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart there shortly. 5 "Therefore," he said, "let those who among you are able go down with me and accuse this man, if there is any wickedness in him."

6 And when he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day, he sat on the judgment-seat and commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he had come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove. 8 Then he answered for himself, "Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar have I committed any offense." 9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, "Will you go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these things before me?" 10 Then Paul said, "I stand at Caesar’s tribunal where I ought to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews as you very well know. 11 For if I am an offender or have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is none of these things of which these accuse me, no man may deliver me to them. I appeal to Caesar." 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "Have you appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go."

13 And after some days, king Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to salute Festus. 14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul’s cause to the king, saying, "There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix, 15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought charges to me, desiring to have judgment against him, 16 To whom I answered, 'It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die before he who is accused has met the accusers face to face and has license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.' 17 Therefore, when they had come here, I made no delay. And on the next day, I sat on the judgment-seat and commanded the man to be brought forth, 18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed, 19 But had some questions against him of their own superstition and of one, Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters. 21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved to the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar." 22 Then

Agrippa said to Festus, "I also wish to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

23 So on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp and had entered into the place of hearing with the chief captains and principal men of the city. And at the command of Festus, Paul was brought forth. 24 And Festus said, "King Agrippa and all men who are here present with us, you see this man about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. 25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death and that he himself has appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him, 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore, I have brought him forth before you, and specially before you, O king Agrippa, so that after examination has been made, I may have something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and not also to signify the crimes laid against him."

Chapter 26

Paul, in the presence of Agrippa, declares his life from his childhood, 1-11; and how miraculously he was converted and called to his apostleship, 12-23. Festus charges him with being mad, to which he answers modestly, 24-27. Agrippa is almost persuaded to be a Christian, 28-30. The whole company pronounces him innocent, 31, 32.

1 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched forth the hand and answered for himself.

2 "I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before you concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, 3 Especially because I know you to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews. Therefore, I implore you to hear me patiently.

4 "My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know, 5 Who knew me from the beginning (if they would testify), that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, 7 To which promise our twelve tribes, assiduously serving God day and night, hope to come, for which hope’s sake, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. 8 Why is it judged incredible with you if God raises the dead?

9 "I truly thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth, 10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem. And many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests. And when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. 11 And I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled them to blaspheme, and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

12 "Upon which, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven surpassing the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. 14 And when we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.' 15 And I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said, 'I am Jesus whom you persecute. 16 But rise and stand upon your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to make you a minister and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things in which I will appear to you, 17 Delivering you from the people and from the Gentiles, to whom now I send you, 18 To open their eyes and to turn them from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith that is in me.'

19 "Upon which, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 But declared first to those of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and do works worthy of repentance. 21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple and tried to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained help from God, I continue to this day, testifying both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said should come: 23 That Christ should suffer, and that he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light to the people and to the Gentiles."

24 And as he was thus speaking for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are beside yourself. Excessive learning makes you insane." 25 But he said, "I am not insane, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. 26 For the king knows of these things, before whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him, for this thing was not done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe." 28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You almost persuade me to be a Christian." 29 And Paul said, "I wish to God that not only you, but also all who hear me this day, were both almost and altogether such as I am, except these bonds."

30 And when he had said this, the king rose, along with the governor, Bernice, and those who sat with them. 31 And when they had gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds." 32 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set at liberty if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Chapter 27

Paul, sailing toward Rome, 1-9, foretells about the danger of the voyage, 10, but is not believed, 11-13. They are tossed to and fro by the tempest, 14-40; and suffer shipwreck, 41-43; yet all come safe to land 44.

1 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. 2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us. 3 And the next day, we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously treated Paul and gave him liberty to go to his friends to refresh himself. 4 And when we had launched from there, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Mira, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy and he put us therein. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days and with difficulty had come over against Cnidus, the wind not allowing us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone, 8 And hardly passing it, came to a place which is called The Fair Havens, near to which was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, 10 And said to them, "Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." 11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship more than the things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the greater part advised to depart from there also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice and winter there, which is a haven of Crete looking toward the southwest and northwest.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they raised the anchor and sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after, there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. 15 And when the ship was caught and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive. 16 And running under the sheltered side of a small island which is called Clauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. 17 And when they hoisted it up, they used ropes to undergird the ship. Then, fearing that they would fall into the quicksands, they struck sail and were thus driven. 18 And as we labored exceedingly with the storm, on the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard. 19 And on the third day, we cast out the tackling of the ship with our own hands. 20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me and not set sail from Crete and gained this harm and loss. 22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer, for there shall be no loss of life among you, but of the ship. 23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am and whom I serve, 24 Saying, 'Do not fear, Paul. You must be brought before Caesar. And behold, God has given you all those who sail with you.' 25 Therefore, sirs, be of good cheer, for I believe God that it will be even as it was told to me. 26 But we must be cast upon a certain island."

27 When the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the sailors suspected that they drew near to some country. 28 They sounded and found it twenty fathoms. And when they had gone a little further, they sounded again and found it fifteen fathoms. 29 Then fearing, lest we should fall upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern and wished for the day. 30 And as the sailors were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea under color as though they would cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these abide in the ship, you cannot be saved." 32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat and let her fall off.

33 And as the day was about to come, Paul implored them all to take food, saying, "This day is the fourteenth day that you have waited and continued fasting, having taken nothing. 34 Therefore, I pray you to take some food, for this is for your health. For there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you." 35 And when he had said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all. And when he had broken it, he began to eat. 36 Then they were all of good cheer and they also took food. 37 In all, we were two hundred and seventy-six souls on the ship. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and cast the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they did not know the land. But they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into which they purposed, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. 40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves to the sea, loosened the rudder ropes, hoisted the mainsail to the wind, and made toward the shore. 41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground. And the forepart stuck firmly and remained immovable, but the back part was broken with the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out and escape. 43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose and commanded that those who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea and get to land, 44 And the rest, some on boards and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safely to land.

Chapter 28

Paul, after his shipwreck, is kindly entertained by the barbarians, 1-2. The viper on his hand does not hurt him, 3-6. He heals many diseases on the island, 7-10. They depart toward Rome, 11-16. He declares to the Jews the cause of his coming, 17-23. After his preaching, some were persuaded and some did not believe, 24-29. He preaches there two years, 30, 31.

1 And when they had escaped, they knew that the island was called Melita. 2 And the barbarous people showed us unusual kindness, for they kindled a fire and received each of us, because of the present rain and because of the cold. 3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out of the heat and fastened on his hand. 4 And when the barbarians saw the animal hang on his hand, they said among themselves, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, yet vengeance does not allow to live." 5 And he shook off the animal into the fire and felt no harm. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen or suddenly fallen down dead. But after they had waited a long time and saw nothing amiss happen to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

7 In the neighborhood of that place were lands of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and courteously lodged us for three days. 8 And it came to pass that the father of Publius lay sick with a fever and dysentery, to whom Paul entered in, prayed, laid his hands on him, and healed him. 9 So when this was done, others also who had diseases on the island came and were healed, 10 They also honored us with many honors, and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months, we departed in a ship from Alexandria that had wintered on the island, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. 12 And landing at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days. 13 And from there we made a circuit and came to Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew, and on the second day we came to Puteoli. 14 There we found brothers and were entreated to stay with them seven days. And so we came to Rome. 15 And from there when the brothers heard of us, they came to meet us as far as The Forum of Appii, and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to dwell by himself, with a soldier who kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called together the chief of the Jews. And when they were assembled, he said to them, "Men, brothers, though I have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, 18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go because there was no cause of death in me. 19 But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything to accuse my nation of. 20 For this cause therefore I have called for you to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain." 21 And they said to him, "We have neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor have any of the brothers who came reported or spoken any harm about you. 22 But we desire to hear from you, what you think. For as concerning this sect, we know that everywhere it is spoken against."

23 And when they had appointed him a day, many came to him into his lodging. He expounded to them from morning until evening, testifying about the kingdom of God and persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses and out of the prophets. 24 And some believed the things which were spoken and some did not believe. 25 And when they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word: "The Holy Spirit spoke well by Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, 26 Saying,

> 'Go to this people, and say, /
> "Hearing you shall hear and shall not understand, / > and seeing you shall see and not perceive.
>
> 27 For the heart of this people has become callous, / > their ears are dull of hearing, /
> and their eyes they have closed, / > lest they should see with their eyes, / > hear with their ears, / > understand with their heart, / > and be converted, /
> and I should heal them."'

28 "May it be known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear it." 29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house and received all who came to him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

Chapter 1

Paul commends his calling to the Romans, 1-8; and his desire to come to them, 9-15. What his gospel is, 16, 17. God is angry with sin, 18-20. What were the sins of the Gentiles, 21-32.

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated to the gospel of God, 2 Which he had promised before by his prophets in the holy Scriptures, 3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was born of the offspring of David according to the flesh, 4 And declared to be the Son of God with power according to the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection from the dead, 5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations for his name, 6 Among whom you are also the called of Jesus Christ.

7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 Making request (if by any means now at length I may have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come to you. 11 For I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established, 12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith of both you and me. 13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that I have often purposed to come to you (but have been until now hindered) so that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. 14 I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise. 15 So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. 17 For in this the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith, as it is written, "The just shall live by faith."

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness, 19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. 20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse. 21 For when they knew God, they did not glorify him as God, neither were thankful, but they became vain in their imaginations and their foolish hearts were darkened. 22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, birds, four-footed beasts, and creeping animals.

24 Therefore, God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts to dishonor their own bodies among themselves, 25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie and worshiped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

26 For this cause, God gave them up to vile affections. For even their women changed the natural use into that which is against nature. 27 And likewise also, the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men with men working that which is unseemly and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was proper.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind to do those things which are not fitting, 29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, 30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful; 32 Who, knowing the judgment of God, that those who commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in those who do them.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.17]: Habakkuk 2:4.

Chapter 2

No excuse for sin, 1-5. No escape from judgment, 6-13. Gentiles cannot, 14-16; nor Jews, 17-29.

1 Therefore, you are inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judge. For wherein you judge another, you condemn yourself, for you who judge do the same things. 2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who commit such things. 3 And do you think this, O man, who judges those who do such things and does the same, that you shall escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? 5 But because of your hardness and impenitent heart, you treasure up for yourself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God, 6 Who "will render to every man according to his deeds." 7 To those who, by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, honor, and immortality, he will give eternal life, 8 But to those who are contentious and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, he will give indignation and wrath. 9 There will be tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first and also of the Gentile, 10 But glory, honor, and peace to every man who works good, to the Jew first and also to the Gentile, 11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law— 13 For the hearers of the law are not just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified; 14 For when the Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these not having the law are a law to themselves, 15 In that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing testimony and their thoughts between one another accusing, or else excusing one another— 16 On the day when God judges the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

17 But if you are named a Jew and rest in the law and make your boast in God, 18 And know his will and approve the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19 And are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, 20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babies, who have the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law— 21 You therefore who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach a man should not steal, do you steal? 22 You who say a man should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you commit sacrilege? 23 You who make your boast in the law, through breaking the law, do you dishonor God? 24 For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," as it is written.

25 For circumcision truly profits if you keep the law, but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision is made uncircumcision. 26 Therefore, if the uncircumcision keeps the righteousness of the law, shall his uncircumcision not be counted for circumcision? 27 And shall uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, not judge you who by the letter and circumcision transgress the law? 28 For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh. 29 But he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the Spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not from men, but from God.

Chapter 3

The Jews' prerogative, 1, 2; which they have not lost, 3-8; however the law convinces them also of sin, 9-19; therefore no flesh is justified by the law, 20-27; but all, without difference, are justified by faith only, 28-30; and yet the law is not abolished, 31.

1 What advantage then does the Jew have? Or what profit is there of circumcision? 2 Much in every way. Chiefly, because to them the oracles of God were committed. 3 For what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? 4 By no means. Truly let God be true, but every man a liar, as it is written,

> "That you may be justified in your sayings > and may overcome when you are judged."

5 But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who takes vengeance? (I speak as a man.) 6 By no means. For then how shall God judge the world? 7 For if the truth of God has more abounded through my lie to his glory, why yet am I also judged as a sinner? 8 Why not rather say (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil so that good may come"? Their condemnation is just.

9 What then? Are we better than they are? No, in no way. For we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin, 10 As it is written,

"There is no one righteous, not even one.

11 There is no one who understands. /
There is no one who seeks God.

12 They have all gone out of the way. /
They have together become unprofitable. /
There is no one who does good, not even one."

13 "Their throat is an open sepulcher. /
With their tongues they have used deceit." /
"The poison of asps is under their lips,"

14 "Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."

15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways.

17 And the way of peace they have not known."

18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."

19 Now we know that whatever things the law says, it says to those who are under the law so that every mouth may be stopped and all the world may become guilty before God. 20 Therefore, by the deeds of the law, no flesh shall be justified in his sight, for by the law comes the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being testified by the law and the prophets, 22 Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ to all and upon all those who believe, for there is no difference. 23 For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God, 24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ, 25 Whom God has set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God, 26 To declare at this time his righteousness, so that he may be just and the justifier of him who believes in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith. 28 Therefore, we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. 29 Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, 30 Seeing that it is one God who will justify the circumcision by faith and the uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make the law void through faith? By no means. But we establish the law.

Chapter 4

Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness, 1-9; before he was circumcised, 10-12. By faith only he and his offspring received the promise, 13-15. Abraham is the father of all who believe, 16-23. Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness, 24, 25.

1 What shall we then say that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, has found? 2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to glory about, but not before God. 3 For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God and it was counted to him for righteousness." 4 Now to him who works, the reward is not reckoned of grace, but of debt. 5 But to him who does not work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. 6 Even as David also describes the blessedness of the man to whom God imputes righteousness without works, 7 Saying,

> "Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven > and whose sins are covered.
> 8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin."

9 Does this blessedness then come upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was "reckoned to Abraham for righteousness." 10 How then was it reckoned? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith, which he had while still uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are not circumcised, so that righteousness might be imputed to them also; 12 And the father of circumcision to those who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had while still uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world was not to Abraham or to his offspring through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of no effect, 15 Because the law works wrath, for where there is no law, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore, it is of faith so that it might be by grace, to the end the promise might be sure to all the offspring, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all 17 (As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations"), before him whom he believed, even God, who revives the dead and calls those things which are not as though they were, 18 Who, against hope, believed with hope that he should become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken: "Thus shall your offspring be." 19 And not having been weak in faith, he did not consider his own body now dead when he was about one hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb. 20 He did not stagger at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God, 21 And being fully persuaded that what he had promised he was also able to perform. 22 And therefore, it was "imputed to him for righteousness." 23 Now it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him, 24 But for us also, to whom it will be imputed, if we believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was delivered for our offenses and raised again for our justification.

Chapter 5

Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 1; and joy in our hope, 2-7; that since we were reconciled by his blood when we were enemies, 8, 9; we shall much more be saved, being reconciled, 10, 11. As sin and death came by Adam, 12-16; so much more righteousness and life by Jesus Christ, 17-19. Where sin abounded, grace abounded much more, 20, 21.

1 Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 Through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only this, but we glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation works patience; 4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope. 5 And hope does not make us ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who is given to us.

6 For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For one will scarcely die for a righteous man, though perhaps for a good man some would even dare to die. 8 But God commends his love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. 10 For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. 11 And not only this, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Therefore, as sin entered into the world by one man, and death by sin, so also death passed upon all men, for all have sinned. 13 For until the law, sin was in the world. But sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him who was to come.

15 But the free gift is not like the offense. For if through the offense of one many are dead, much more have the grace of God and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, abounded to many. 16 And the gift is not as through one who sinned. For the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offenses to justification. 17 For if by one man's offense death reigned by one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.

18 Therefore, as by the offense of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation, so also by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men to justification of life. 19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one many shall be made righteous. 20 Moreover, the law entered so that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace abounded much more, 21 So that as sin has reigned to death, even so might grace reign through righteousness to eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 6

We may not live in sin, 1; for we are dead to it, 2; as appears by our baptism, 3-11. Do not let sin reign anymore, 12-17; because we have yielded ourselves to the service of righteousness, 18-22; and for that, death is the wages of sin, 23.

1 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin so that grace may abound? 2 By no means. How shall we, who are dead to sin, live any longer therein? 3 Do you not know, that as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore, we are buried with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall also be in the likeness of his resurrection, 6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him so that the body of sin may be destroyed, so that from now on we should not serve sin. 7 For he who is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now if we are dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him, 9 Knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over him. 10 For in that he died, he died to sin once, but in that he lives, he lives to God. 11 Likewise, reckon yourselves also to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Do not let sin therefore reign in your mortal body so that you obey it in its lusts. 13 Neither yield your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but yield yourselves to God as those who are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law, but under grace? By no means. 16 Do you not know, that to the one you yield yourselves as slaves in obedience, you are slaves to the one you obey, whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? 17 But God be thanked, that though you were the slaves of sin, you have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine into which you were delivered. 18 Being then made free from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness. 19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh. For as you have yielded your members slaves to uncleanness and to iniquity to [work] iniquity, even so now yield your members slaves to righteousness, which leads to holiness.

20 For when you were the slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness. 21 What fruit did you have then in those things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. 22 But now being made free from sin and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit that leads to holiness, and the result is everlasting life. 23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 7

No law has power over a man longer than he lives, 1-3. But we are dead to the law, 4-6. Yet the law is not sin, 7-11; but holy, just, and good, 12-15; as Paul acknowledges, who is grieved because he cannot keep it, 16-25.

1 Do you not know, brothers (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man as long as he lives? 2 For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he lives. But if the husband is dead, she is released from the law of her husband. 3 So then, if while her husband lives she is married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress. But if her husband is dead, she is free from that law so that she is not an adulteress if she is married to another man.

4 Therefore, my brothers, you have also become dead to the law by the body of Christ so that you should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, so that we should bring forth fruit to God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit to death. 6 But now we are delivered from the law, having died to that by which we were held, so that we should serve in newness of spirit and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? By no means. No, I had not known sin, but by the law. For I would not have known lust if the law had not said, "You shall not covet." 8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead. 9 For I was alive without the law once. But when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. 10 And the commandment which was ordained to life I found to be to death. 11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me and by it slew me. 12 Therefore, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, just, and good.

13 Then was that which is good made death to me? By no means. But sin, so that it might be shown to be sin, wrought death in me by that which is good, so that sin, by the commandment, might become exceedingly sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. 15 For that which I do, I do not allow. For what I wish to do, I do not do. But what I hate, I do. 16 If then I do that which I do not wish to do, I consent to the law that it is good. 17 Now then it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells in me. 18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) no good thing dwells. For desire is present with me, but how to perform that which is good, I do not find. 19 For the good that I wish to do, I do not do. But the evil which I do not wish to do, I do. 20 Now if I do that which I do not wish to do, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells in me.

21 I find then a law, that when I wish to do good, evil is present with me. 22 For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man. 23 But I see another law in my members warring against the law of my mind and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. 24 O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death? 25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind, I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh, the law of sin.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.7]: Exodus 20:17.[LXX] See also, Deuteronomy 5:21.

Chapter 8

Those who are in Christ are free from condemnation, 1-4. What harm comes of the flesh, 5-12; and what good of the Spirit, 13-18. The glorious deliverance all things long for, 19-28, was beforehand decreed from God, 29-37. Nothing can sever us from his love, 38, 39.

1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh, 4 So that the righteousness of the law may be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 5 For those who are according to the flesh mind the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6 For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace, 7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. 8 So then those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if any man does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his. 10 And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also revive your mortal bodies by his Spirit who dwells in you.

12 Therefore, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. 13 For if you live according to the flesh, you shall die, but if you, through the Spirit, mortify the deeds of the body, you shall live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. 15 For you have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption by which we cry, "Abba, Father." 16 The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are the children of God, 17 And if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ—if we suffer with him, so that we may be glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. 19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waits for the manifestation of the sons of God. 20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who has subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. 23 And not only they, but ourselves also, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves waiting for the adoption, namely, the redemption of our body. 24 For we were saved in hope. But hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, then with patience we wait for it.

26 Likewise, the Spirit also helps our infirmities. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 And he who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because he makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to his purpose. 29 For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son so that he might be the first-born among many brothers. 30 Moreover, those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things? 33 Who will lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, or rather who is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, distress, persecution, famine, nakedness, peril, or sword? 36 As it is written,

> "For your sake we are killed all the day long.
> We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter."

37 But in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded that neither death, life, angels, principalities, powers, things present, things to come, 39 Height, depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Amen.

6 It is not as though the word of God has taken no effect. For they are not all Israel who are descendants from Israel, 7 Neither because they are the offspring of Abraham are they all children, but, "In Isaac your offspring shall be called." 8 That is, those who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. 9 For this is the word of promise: "At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son." 10 And not only this, but when Rebekah also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac 11 (For the children not yet being born, neither having done any good or evil, so that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls), 12 It was said to her, "The elder shall serve the younger." 13 As it is written, "Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? By no means. 15 For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion." 16 So then, it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy. 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "Even for this same purpose I have raised you up so that I might show my power in you and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth." 18 Therefore, he has mercy on whom he wills to have mercy, and whom he wills he hardens.

19 You will say then to me, "Why does he yet find fault? For who has resisted his will?" 20 But rather, O man, who are you who replies against God? Shall the thing formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me this way?" 21 Does the potter not have power over the clay of the same lump to make one vessel to honor and another to dishonor? 22 What if God, willing to show his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience the vessels of wrath fitted for destruction, 23 So that he might make known the riches of his glory for the vessels of mercy which he had before prepared for glory, 24 Even us whom he has called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles? 25 As he also says in Hosea,

> "I will call them, 'My people,' who were not my people, / > and her, 'Beloved,' who was not beloved."
>
> 26 "And it shall come to pass, /
> that in the place where it was said to them, /
> 'You are not my people,' / > there they shall be called, /
> 'The children of the living God.'"

27 Isaiah also cries concerning Israel:

> "Though the number of the children of Israel is as the sand of the sea, / > a remnant shall be saved.
> 28 For he will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, / > because the Lord will make a short work upon the earth."

29 And as Isaiah said before,

> "Unless the Lord of Sabaoth / > had left us offspring, /
> we would have become like Sodom, / > and we would have been made like Gomorrah."

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles who did not follow after righteousness have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith, 31 But Israel, who followed after the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness. 32 Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as if it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling-stone, 33 As it is written,

"Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling-stone and rock of offense, and whoever believes in him shall not be ashamed."

Chapter 10

The Scripture shows the difference between the righteousness of the law and that of faith, 1-10; and that all who believe, both Jew and Gentile, shall not be confounded, 11-17; and that the Gentiles shall receive the word and believe, 18. Israel was not ignorant of these things, 19-21.

1 Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved. 2 For I bear them testimony that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness and seeking to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

5 For Moses describes the righteousness which is by the law: "The man who does these things shall live by them." 6 But the righteousness which is by faith speaks in this way: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who shall ascend into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down), 7 Or, 'Who shall descend into the deep?' (that is, to bring Christ back from the dead)." 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, even in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the word of faith which we preach: 9 That if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you shall be saved. 10 For with the heart man believes to righteousness and with the mouth confession is made to salvation. 11 For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in him shall not be ashamed." 12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek. For the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon him, 13 For "whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? 15 And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace and bring glad tidings of good things!"

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?" 17 So then, faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, "Have they not heard?" Yes truly,

"their sound went into all the earth and their words to the ends of the world."

19 But I say, "Did Israel not know?" First, Moses says,

> "I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are no people, / > and by a foolish nation I will anger you."

20 But Isaiah is very bold, and says,

> "I was found by those who did not seek me. /
> I was made manifest to those who did not ask for me."

21 But to Israel he says,

> "All day long I have stretched forth my hands / > to a disobedient and gainsaying people."

Chapter 11

God has not cast off all Israel, 1-6. Some were elected, though the rest were hardened, 7-15. There is hope of their conversion, 16, 17. The Gentiles may not boast over them, 18-25; for there is a promise of their salvation, 26-32. God's judgments are unsearchable, 33-36.

1 I say then, has God cast away his people? By no means. For I also am an Israelite, of the offspring of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 "God has not cast away his people" which he foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he makes intercession to God against Israel? 3 "Lord, they have killed your prophets and dug down your altars. I am left alone. And they seek my life." 4 But what is the answer from God to him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal." 5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. 6 And if it is by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise, grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, then it is no longer grace; otherwise, work is no longer work.

7 What then? Israel has not obtained that which he seeks for, but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were blinded. 8 According as it is written,

> "God has given them the spirit of slumber," /
> "eyes so that they should not see / > and ears so that they should not hear to this day."

9 And David says,

"Let their table be made a snare, a trap,
a stumbling-block, and a recompense to them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened so that they may not see,
and bow down their back always."

11 I say then, have they stumbled so that they should fall? By no means. But rather through their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. 12 Now if their fall is the riches of the world and their diminishing is the riches of the Gentiles, how much more will their fullness be? 13 For I speak to you Gentiles. Since I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify my office, 14 If by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. 15 For if their rejection is the reconciling of the world, what shall their receiving be, but life from the dead? 16 For if the first fruit is holy, the lump is also holy, and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches are broken off, and you, being a wild olive-tree, are implanted among them, and with them partake of the root and fatness of the olive-tree, 18 Do not boast against the branches. But if you boast, [remember]: you do not bear the root, but the root bears you. 19 You will say then, "The branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in." 20 Right. Because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be high-minded, but fear. 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, take heed lest he also not spare you. 22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity, but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness. Otherwise, you also shall be cut off. 23 And they also, if they do not still abide in unbelief, shall be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature and were grafted in contrary to nature into a good olive-tree, how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree?

25 For I do not wish, brothers, that you should be ignorant of this mystery (lest you should be wise in your own conceits), that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. 26 And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written,

"The Deliverer will come out of Zion, and he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

27 And this is my covenant to them,"
"when I take away their sins."

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sake, but as concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sake. 29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. 30 For as you in times past have not believed God, but have now obtained mercy through their unbelief, 31 Even so these have also now not believed so that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy. 32 For God has enclosed them all in unbelief so that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments are and his ways past finding out!

34 For "who has known the mind of the Lord? /
Or who has been his counselor?"

35 Or "who has first given to him, / and it shall be recompensed to him again?"

36 For from him, by him, and to him are all things, to whom be glory forever. Amen.

Chapter 12

God's mercies must move us to please God, 1, 2. No man must think too well of himself, 3-5; but everyone attend on that calling wherein he is placed, 6-8. Love and many other duties are required of us, 9-18. Revenge is especially forbidden, 19-21.

1 I implore you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind so that you may prove what is that good, acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For through the grace given to me, I say to every man who is among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, according as God has dealt to every man the measure of faith. 4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members do not have the same office, 5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and each members of one another. 6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; 7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he who teaches, on teaching; 8 Or he who exhorts, on exhortation; he who gives, let him do it with simplicity; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil. Cleave to that which is good. 10 Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor preferring one another. 11 Do not be slothful in diligence. Be fervent in spirit, serving the Lord. 12 Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, continue steadfastly in prayer. 13 Contribute to the needs of the saints and pursue hospitality.

14 Bless those who persecute you. Bless, and do not curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those who weep. 16 Be of the same mind toward one another. Do not mind high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Do not be wise in your own conceits. 17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. 18 If it is possible, as much as lies in you, live peaceably with all men. 19 Dearly beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine and I will repay," says the Lord. 20 Therefore, "if your enemy hungers, feed him, and if he thirsts, give him drink, for in doing so you shall heap coals of fire on his head." 21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Chapter 13

Subjection and many other duties we owe to the magistrates, 1-7. Love is the fulfilling of the law, 8-10. Gluttony and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the Gospel, 11-14.

1 Let every soul be subject to the higher powers, for there is no power but from God. The powers that exist are ordained by God. 2 Whoever therefore resists the power, resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist shall receive for themselves condemnation. 3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Will you then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good and you shall have praise from the same, 4 For he is the minister of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain, for he is the minister of God, an avenger to execute wrath upon him who does evil. 5 Therefore, it is necessary for you to be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake. 6 For because of this you also pay tribute, for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. 7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

8 Owe no man anything, but to love one another, for he who loves another has fulfilled the law. 9 For this, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not bear false witness," "You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 10 Love works no ill to one's neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And this, knowing the time, that it is already time to awaken from sleep, for now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. 12 The night is far spent and the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness and let us put on the armor of light. 13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness, not in lewdness and wantonness, and not in strife and envying. 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ and do not make provision for the lusts of flesh.

Chapter 14

Men may not despise nor condemn one another for things indifferent, 1-12; but take heed that they give no offense in them, 13, 14; which the apostle proves unlawful by many reasons, 15-23.

1 Receive him who is weak in the faith, but not to doubtful disputations. 2 For one believes that he may eat all things, but another who is weak eats herbs. 3 Do not let him who eats despise him who does not eat, and do not let him who does not eat judge him who eats, for God has received him. 4 Who are you who judge another man's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he shall be held up, for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteems one day above another, but another esteems every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. 6 He who regards the day, regards it to the Lord, and he who does not regard the day, to the Lord he does not regard it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks, and he who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks. 7 For not one of us lives to himself, and no man dies to himself. 8 For whether we live, we live to the Lord, and whether we die, we die to the Lord. Whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end Christ both died, rose, and revived, so that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living.

10 But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you despise your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ. 11 For it is written,

> "'As I live,' says the Lord, 'every knee shall bow to me > and every tongue shall confess to God.'"

12 So then each of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us therefore not judge one another anymore. But rather judge this: that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. 14 I know and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus that there is nothing unclean by itself. But to him who esteems anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 But if your brother is grieved with your food, now you do not walk charitably. Do not destroy with your food him for whom Christ died. 16 Therefore, do not let your good be evil spoken of, 17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For he who in these things serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. 19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace and things with which one may edify another. 20 For the sake of food, do not destroy the work of God. All things indeed are pure, but it is evil for that man who eats with offense. 21 It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything by which your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is made weak. 22 Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who does not condemn himself in that thing which he allows. 23 And he who doubts is condemned if he eats because he does not eat from faith, for whatever is not from faith is sin.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.11]: Isaiah 45:23.[LXX (paraphrased—Isaiah 45:24)]

Chapter 15

The strong must bear with the weak, 1. We may not please ourselves, 2; for Christ did not do so, 3-6; but receive one another, as Christ did us all, 7; both Jews and Gentiles, 8-14; Paul excuses his writing, 15-27; and promises to see them, 28, 29; and requests their prayers, 30-33.

1 We then who are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak and not to please ourselves. 2 Let each of us please his neighbor for his good to edification. 3 For even Christ did not please himself, but, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me." 4 For whatever things were written formerly were written for our learning so that we, through patience and comfort of the Scriptures, might have hope. 5 Now may the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded toward one another according to Christ Jesus, 6 So that you may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Therefore, receive one another as Christ also received us to the glory of God. 8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God to confirm the promises made to the fathers, 9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy, as it is written,

> "For this cause I will confess to you among the Gentiles > and sing to your name."

10 And again he says,

> "Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people."

11 And again,

> "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles.
> Praise him, all you people."

12 And again Isaiah says,

> "There shall be a root of Jesse,
> and he who shall rise to reign over the Gentiles.
> In him the Gentiles shall trust."

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing so that you may abound in hope through the power of the Holy Spirit.

14 And I myself also am persuaded concerning you, my brothers, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. 15 Nevertheless, brothers, I have written the more boldly to you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me from God, 16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, so that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. 17 Therefore, I have cause for glorying through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ has not wrought by me to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and around to Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. 20 And so I have strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation, 21 But as it is written,

> "They to whom he was not spoken of shall see,
> and those who have not heard shall understand."

22 For which cause I also have been much hindered from coming to you. 23 But now having no more place in these parts and having a great desire these many years to come to you, 24 Whenever I take my journey into Spain I will come to you. For I trust to see you on my journey and to be brought on my way there by you, if first I may in some measure enjoy your company. 25 But now I go to Jerusalem to minister to the saints. 26 For it has pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor of the saints who are at Jerusalem. 27 It has pleased them truly, and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things. 28 When therefore I have performed this and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go by you into Spain. 29 And I am sure that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I implore you, brothers, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake and for the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, 31 So that I may be delivered from those in Judea who do not believe and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, 32 So that I may come to you with joy by the will of God and may be refreshed with you. 33 Now may the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

Paul desires the brothers to greet many, 1-16; and advises them to take heed of those who cause dissension and offenses, 17-20; and after various salutations ends with praise and thanks to God, 21-27.

1 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea, 2 That you receive her in the Lord, as it is worthy for saints, and that you assist her in whatever matter she may need from you, for she has been a helper of many and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus, 4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. 5 Likewise, greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epenetus, who is the first-fruits of Achaia to Christ. 6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labor on us. 7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my kinsmen and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who were also in Christ before me. 8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord. 9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. 10 Salute Apelles, approved in Christ. Salute those who are of Aristobulus' household. 11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord. 12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, who labored much in the Lord. 13 Salute Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. 14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brothers who are with them. 15 Salute Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, Olympas, and all the saints who are with them. 16 Salute one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I implore you, brothers, mark those who cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which you have learned, and avoid them. 18 For those who are such do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly, and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. 19 For your obedience has come abroad to all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf. But I wish you to be wise as to what is good, but innocent concerning evil. 20 And the God of peace will soon bruise Satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 Timothy my fellow worker, and Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater my kinsmen salute you.

22 I, Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 Gaius, my host and also of the whole church, salutes you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city salutes you, and also Quartus, a brother. 24 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now to him who is able to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret since the world began, 26 But now is made manifest, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith— 27 To the only wise God be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians

1st Corinthians | Προς Κορινθίοις Α'

Chapter 1

After his salutation and thanksgiving, 1-9, Paul exhorts them to unity, 10, 11, and reproves their dissensions, 12-17. God destroys the wisdom of the wise, 18-20, by the foolishness of preaching, 21-25; and does not call the wise, mighty, and noble, 26, 27, but the foolish, weak, and men of no account, 28-31.

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord—both theirs and ours:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf for the grace of God which is given to you by Jesus Christ, 5 That in everything you are enriched by him, in all utterance and in all knowledge, 6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, 7 So that you are not lacking in any gift, waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, 8 Who will also confirm you to the end so that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, by whom you were called to the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I implore you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 11 For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. 12 Now this I say, that each of you says, "I am of Paul," "I of Apollos," "I of Cephas," and, "I of Christ." 13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, 15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in my own name. 16 And I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Besides them, I do not know whether I baptized any other. 17 For Christ has not sent me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who perish. But to us who are saved, it is the power of God. 19 For it is written,

> "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise / > and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent."

20 Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? Has God not made the wisdom of this world foolish? 21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom did not know God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe. 22 For the Jews require a sign and the Greeks seek wisdom, 23 But we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling-block and to the Greeks foolishness, 24 But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25 For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For you see your calling, brothers, that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called. 27 But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty, 28 And God has chosen the base things of the world, the things which are despised, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are, 29 So that no flesh should glory in his presence. 30 But because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God—our righteousness, sanctification, and redemption— 31 So that, according as it is written, "He who glories, let him glory in the Lord."

Chapter 2

Paul declares that his preaching, though it is not with excellency of speech, or of human wisdom, yet consists in the power of God, 1-5; and so far excels the wisdom of this world and human sense that the natural man cannot understand it, 6-16.

1 And when I came to you, brothers, I did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God. 2 For I determined to not know anything among you, except Jesus Christ and him crucified. 3 And I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5 So that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 However, we do speak wisdom among those who are mature, but not the wisdom of this world nor of the princes of this world, which are coming to nothing. 7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages to our glory, 8 Which none of the princes of this age knew. For had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But as it is written,

> "'Eye has not seen, nor ear heard,' / > neither have entered into the heart of man, /
> 'the things which God has prepared for those who love him.'"

10 But God has revealed them to us by his Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. 11 For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of man which is in him? Even so, the things of God no man knows except the Spirit of God. 12 Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God so that we may know the things that are freely given to us by God, 13 Which things we also speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, neither can he know them because they are spiritually discerned. 15 But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is judged by no man. 16 "For who has known the mind of the Lord so that he may instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

Chapter 3

Milk is fit for children, 1, 2. Strife and division, arguments of a fleshly mind, 3-6. He who plants and he who waters are nothing, 7, 8. The ministers are God's fellow workers, 9, 10. Christ is the only foundation, 11-15. Men are the temples of God, which must be kept holy, 16-18. The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, 19-23.

1 And I, brothers, could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to carnal, even as to babies in Christ. 2 I have fed you with milk and not with solid food. For until now you were not able to bear it, neither yet now are you able, 3 Because you are still carnal. For whereas there is among you envying, strife, and divisions, are you not carnal and walk as men? 4 For while one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? 6 I have planted, Apollos watered, but God has given the increase. 7 So then, neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but God who gives the increase. 8 Now he who plants and he who waters are one, and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9 For we are laborers together with God. You are God's farming. You are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given to me, I have laid the foundation like a wise master-builder, and another builds upon it. But let every man take heed how he builds upon it. 11 For no man can lay any other foundation than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 Now if any man builds upon this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or stubble, 13 Every man's work will be made manifest. For the day will declare it because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will try every man's work, of what sort it is. 14 If any man's work abides which he has built upon it, he shall receive a reward. 15 If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved, but in the manner as by fire.

16 Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? 17 If any man defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him, for the temple of God is holy, which temple you are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seems to be wise in this world, let him become a fool so that he may be wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He takes the wise in their own craftiness," 20 And again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain." 21 Therefore, let no man glory in men. For all things are yours, 22 Whether Paul, Apollos, Cephas, the world, life, death, things present, or things to come. All are yours, 23 And you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

Judgments, human and Divine, respecting ministers, 1-5. Contrast between the inflated self sufficiency of the Corinthians and the earthly humiliation of the apostles, 6-13. The practical steps which Paul intends to take with reference to these party divisions, 14-21.

1 Let a man regard us in this way: as the ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Moreover, it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by man's judgment. Indeed, I do not judge my own self. 4 For I know nothing against myself, yet I am not hereby justified. But he who judges me is the Lord. 5 Therefore, judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts. And then every man shall have praise from God.

6 And these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes so that you may learn in us not to think of men above that which is written. This is so that none of you on account of one may be puffed up against another. 7 For who makes you to differ from another? And what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you received it, why do you glory as if you had not received it?

8 Now you are full. Now you are rich. You have reigned as kings without us. And I wish you reigned so that we also might reign with you. 9 For I think that God has set forth us, the apostles, last, like men appointed to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honorable, but we are despised. 11 Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place. 12 And we labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless. Being persecuted, we suffer it. 13 Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things to this day.

14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. 15 For though you have ten thousand school-masters in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers. For in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 16 Therefore, I implore you, be followers of me. 17 For this cause I have sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved son and faithful in the Lord, who will bring you into remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every church. 18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you. 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing, and will know, not the speech of those who are puffed up, but the power. 20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. 21 What do you wish? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and in the spirit of meekness?

Chapter 5

The incestuous person, 1-5, is cause rather of shame to them than of rejoicing, 6. The old leaven is to be purged out, 7-9. Heinous offenders are to be shamed and avoided, 10-13.

1 It is reported commonly that there is lewdness among you, and such lewdness as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. 2 And you are puffed up and have not rather mourned so that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I truly, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have already as though I were present judged concerning him who has thus done this deed. 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are assembled with my spirit and with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 Deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? 7 Therefore, cleanse out the old leaven so that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. 8 Therefore, let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I have written to you in this epistle not to associate with persons guilty of lewdness— 10 Yet not altogether with lewd persons of this world, or with the covetous, extortioners, or with idolaters, for then you would have to go out of the world. 11 But now I have written to you not to keep company with any man who is called a brother if he is a lewd person, covetous, an idolater, a railer, a drunkard, or an extortioner. Do not even eat with such a person. 12 For what have I to do to judge those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? 13 But those who are outside God judges. "Therefore, put away from among yourselves that wicked person."

Chapter 6

The Corinthians must not vex their brothers in going to law with them, 1-5; especially under unbelievers, 6-8. The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God, 9-14. Our bodies are the members of Christ and temples of the Holy Spirit; therefore, they must not be defiled, 15-20.

1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust and not before the saints? 2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3 Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more things that pertain to this life? 4 If then you have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church. 5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? Not even one who will be able to judge between his brothers? 6 But brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers.

7 Now therefore, there is utterly a fault among you because you go to law with one another. Why do you not rather take wrong? Why do you not rather allow yourselves to be defrauded? 8 But you do wrong and defraud, and that to your brothers.

9 Do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, idolaters, adulterers, effeminate, abusers of themselves with mankind, 10 Thieves, covetous, drunkards, revilers, nor extortioners shall inherit the kingdom of God. 11 And such were some of you. But you are washed, you are sanctified, you are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.

12 "All things are lawful to me," but all things are not expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of any. 13 "Foods for the belly and the belly for foods," but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for lewdness, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. 14 And God has both raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by his own power. 15 Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them the members of a harlot? By no means. 16 Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body? For he says, "The two shall be one flesh." 17 But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. 18 Flee lewdness. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits lewdness sins against his own body. 19 Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God, and you are not your own? 20 For you are bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.16]: Genesis 2:24.[LXX]

Chapter 7

Paul discusses marriage, 1-3; showing it to be a remedy against fornication, 4-9, and that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved, 10-19. Every man must be content with his vocation, 20-24. Virginity therefore to be embraced, 25-34; and for what respects we may either marry or abstain from marrying, 35-40.

1 Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me, it is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2 Nevertheless, to avoid lewdness, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband render to the wife due benevolence, and likewise also the wife to the husband. 4 The wife does not have power over her own body, but the husband does, and likewise also, the husband does not have power over his own body, but the wife does. 5 Do not deprive one another, except with consent for a time, so that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer. And come together again so that Satan may not tempt you for your incontinence. 6 But I speak this by permission and not as a commandment. 7 For I wish that all men were as I myself. But every man has his proper gift from God, one after this manner and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows that it is good for them if they remain even as I am. 9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry, for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And to the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, do not let the wife depart from her husband. 11 But if she departs, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband, and do not let the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest I speak, not the Lord, if any brother has a wife who does not believe and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. 13 And if a woman has a husband who does not believe and he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband. Otherwise, your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. 15 But if the unbelieving departs, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us to peace. 16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? Or how do you know, O man, whether you shall save your wife?

17 But as God has distributed to every man, as the Lord has called each one, so let him walk. And thus I ordain in all churches. 18 Is any man called being circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? Let him not become circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God, [that is something]. 20 Let every man continue in the same calling in which he was called.

21 Are you called being a servant? Do not care for it, but if you may be made free, use it rather. 22 For he who is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's free man. Likewise also, he who is called, being free, is Christ's servant. 23 You are bought with a price. Do not be the servants of men. 24 Brothers, let every man in the state in which he is called continue in it with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord. Yet I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be faithful. 26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man to be so. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife. 28 But if you marry, you have not sinned, and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless, such will have trouble in the flesh, but I spare you. 29 But I say this, brothers, the time is short, so that from now on, those who have wives may be as though they had none, 30 And those who weep as though they did not weep, and those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, and those who buy as though they did not possess, 31 And those who use this world as not abusing it. For the fashion of this world passes away.

32 But I wish to have you without anxious care. He who is unmarried is anxious for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord. 33 But he who is married is anxious for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. 34 There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman is anxious for the things of the Lord so that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit. But she who is married is anxious for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I speak for your own profit, not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is proper and so that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man thinks that he behaves himself improperly toward his virgin, if she has passed the flower of her age, and need so requires, let him do what he wishes. He does not sin. Let them marry. 37 Nevertheless, he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will and has thus decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, does well. 38 So then he who gives her in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband lives. But if her husband is dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she remains so, according to my judgment—and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

Chapter 8

To abstain from foods offered to idols, 1-7. We must not abuse our Christian liberty to the offense of our brothers, 8-10; but must bridle our knowledge with charity, 11-13.

1 Now as concerning things offered to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but charity edifies. 2 And if any man thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know. 3 But if any man loves God, the same is known by him.

4 Therefore, as concerning the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world and that there is no other God but one. 5 For though there are things that are called gods, whether in heaven or upon earth (as there are many gods and many lords), 6 Yet to us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we in him, and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 But that knowledge is not in every man. For some, with consciousness of the idol to this hour, eat it as a thing offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 But food does not commend us to God. For neither are we the better if we eat, neither are we the worse if we do not eat. 9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours should become a stumbling-block to those who are weak. 10 For if any man sees you, who have knowledge, eating in the idol's temple, will the conscience of him who is weak not be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols? 11 And through your knowledge, shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? 12 But when you thus sin against the brothers and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. 13 Therefore, if food makes my brother to fall into sin, I will eat no flesh while the world stands, lest I make my brother to fall into sin.

Chapter 9

Paul shows his liberty, 1-6; and that the minister ought to live by the Gospel, 7-14; yet that he has of his own accord abstained, 15-17, to be either chargeable to them, 18-21, or offensive to any, in matters indifferent, 22, 23. Our life is compared to a race, 24-27.

1 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? 2 If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you, for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

3 My answer to those who examine me is this: 4 Do we not have power to eat and to drink? 5 Do we not have the right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? 6 Or I only and Barnabas, do we not have the right to forbear working? 7 Who goes to warfare at any time at his own charges? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who feeds a flock and does not drink the milk of the flock?

8 Do I say these things as a man? Or does the law not say the same also? 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treads out the grain." Is it for the oxen that God cares, 10 Or does he say this altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt this is written, so that he who plows should plow in hope, and that he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope. 11 If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your carnal things? 12 If others are partakers of this power over you, are we not rather? Nevertheless, we have not used this power, but bear all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. 13 Do you not know that those who minister about holy things live from the things of the temple, and those who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? 14 Likewise also, the Lord has ordained that those who preach the gospel should live by the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things, neither have I written these things, so that it should be thus done to me. For it would be better for me to die than that any man should make my glorying void. 16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for necessity is laid upon me. And woe is to me if I do not preach the gospel! 17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward, but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed to me. 18 What is my reward then? Truly that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, so as not to abuse my power in the gospel.

19 For though I am free from all men, yet I have made myself servant to all so that I might gain the more. 20 And to the Jews I became as a Jew so that I might gain the Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, so that I might gain those who are under the law; 21 To those who are without law, as without law (not being without law to God, but under the law to Christ), so that I might gain those who are without law; 22 To the weak I became as weak so that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men so that I might by all means save some. 23 And this I do for the gospel's sake so that I may be partaker of it with you.

24 Do you not know, that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Likewise run so that you may obtain. 25 And every man who strives for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. 26 I therefore run in that way, not as uncertainly. I fight in that way, not as one who beats the air. 27 But I buffet my body and bring it into subjection, lest by any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.9]: Deuteronomy 25:4.[LXX]

Chapter 10

The sacraments of the Jews are types of ours, 1-6; and their punishments, 7-10, examples for us, 11-13. We must flee from idolatry, 14-20. We must not make the Lord's table the table of devils, 21-23; and in things indifferent we must have regard for our brothers, 24-33.

1 Moreover, brothers, I do not wish that you should be ignorant, that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, 2 And were all baptized to Moses in the cloud and in the sea, 3 And all ate the same spiritual food, 4 And all drank the same spiritual drink (for they drank of that spiritual Rock which followed them, and that Rock was Christ). 5 But with many of them God was not well pleased, "for they were overthrown in the wilderness."

6 Now these things were our examples so that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted, 7 Neither be idolaters as some of them were, as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play." 8 Neither let us commit lewdness as some of them committed, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day. 9 Let us not test Christ as some of them also tested and were destroyed by serpents. 10 Let us not murmur as some of them also murmured and were destroyed by the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened to them for examples. And they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come. 12 Therefore, let him who thinks he stands take heed, lest he fall. 13 There has no temptation taken you but such as is common to man. But God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape so that you may be able to bear it.

14 Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. 15 I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say. 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the fellowship of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the fellowship of the body of Christ? 17 For we, being many, are one bread and one body, for we are all partakers of that one bread. 18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are those who eat the sacrifices not partakers of the altar? 19 What then do I say? That the idol is anything, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything? 20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, "they sacrifice to demons and not to God," and I do not wish that you should have fellowship with demons. 21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the table of demons. 22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he is?

23 "All things are lawful for me," but all things are not expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but all things do not edify. 24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth. 25 Whatever is sold in the provision market, eat, asking no question for conscience' sake. 26 For "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness." 27 If any of those who do not believe invites you to a feast and you are disposed to go, whatever is set before you, eat, asking no question on account of conscience. 28 But if any man says to you, "This is offered in sacrifice to idols," do not eat for his sake who showed it and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness." 29 Conscience, I say, not your own, but of the other. For why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? 30 For if I by grace am a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 Whether therefore you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. 32 Give no offense, neither to the Jews, to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God, 33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, so that they may be saved.

Chapter 11

Paul reproves them, because in holy assemblies, 1-3, their men prayed with their heads covered, 4, 5, and women with their heads uncovered, 6-16; and because generally their meetings were not for the better, but for the worse, 17-20; as, namely, in profaning with their own feasts the Lord's supper, 21-24. Lastly, he calls them to the first institution thereof, 25-34.

1 Be followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things and keep the ordinances as I delivered them to you. 3 But I wish to have you know, that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or prophesying with his head covered dishonors his head. 5 But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, for that is even one and the same as if she were shaved. 6 For if the woman is not covered, let her also be shorn, but if it is a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. 7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For the man is not from the woman, but the woman from the man, 9 Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man. 10 For this cause, the woman ought to have [a token of] authority on her head, because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord. 12 For as the woman is from the man, even so is the man also by the woman, but all things from God. 13 Judge for yourselves. Is it proper that a woman should pray to God uncovered? 14 Does even nature itself not teach you, that if a man has long hair, it is a shame to him? 15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering. 16 But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare to you I do not praise you, that you do not come together for the better, but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when you come together in the church, I hear that there are divisions among you, and I partly believe it. 19 For there must also be sects among you so that those who are approved may be made manifest among you. 20 When therefore you come together in one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. 21 For in eating, each one takes before another his own supper. And one is hungry and another is drunken. 22 What? Do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and shame those who do not have? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

23 For I have received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread. 24 And when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me." 25 After the same manner, he also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new testament in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it in remembrance of me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you show the Lord's death until he comes.

27 Therefore, whoever eats this bread and drinks this cup of the Lord unworthily shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. 28 But let a man examine himself, and in this manner let him eat of that bread and drink of that cup. 29 For he who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks condemnation to himself, not discerning the Lord’s body. 30 For this cause, many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. 31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord so that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. 34 And if any man hungers, let him eat at home so that you do not come together to condemnation. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

Chapter 12

Spiritual gifts, 1-3, are diverse, 4-6, yet given to every man for profit, 7. And to that end are diversely bestowed, 8-11; so that by similar proportion, as the members of a natural body tend all to the mutual decency, 12-21, service, 22-25, and support of the same body, 26; we should also do for one another, to make up the body of Christ, 27-31.

1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I wish to not have you ignorant. 2 You know that you were Gentiles, carried away to these mute idols, even as you were led. 3 Therefore, I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed, and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who works all in all. 7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man for profit. 8 For by the Spirit the word of wisdom is given to one; to another, the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; 9 To another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; 10 To another, the working of miracles; to another, prophecy; to another, discerning of spirits; to another, diverse kinds of languages; to another, the interpretation of languages. 11 But the one and the same Spirit works all these, dividing to every man separately as he wills.

12 For as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ. 13 For by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether bond or free, and have all been made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot says, "Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? 16 And if the ear says, "Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now God has set each of the members in the body as it has pleased him. 19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be? 20 But now they are many members, but one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." 22 Contrarily, much rather those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary, 23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor. And our unpresentable parts have more abundant modesty, 24 But our presentable parts have no need. But God has tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacked, 25 So that there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. 26 And thus if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it, or, if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are the body of Christ and members in particular. 28 And God has set some in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, next miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and diversities of languages. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? 30 Do all have the gifts of healing? Do all speak in languages? Do all interpret? 31 But earnestly covet the best gifts. And yet I show to you a more excellent way.

Chapter 13

All gifts, 1, 2, however excellent, are worth nothing without charity, 3. The praises thereof, 4-12, and preferment before hope and faith, 13.

1 If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but do not have charity, I have become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. 2 And if I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so that I could remove mountains, but do not have charity, I am nothing. 3 And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor and if I give my body to be burned, but do not have charity, it profits me nothing.

4 Charity is patient and is kind. Charity does not envy. Charity does not vaunt itself, is not puffed up, 5 Does not behave itself unseemly, does not seek its own, is not easily provoked, thinks no evil, 6 Does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth, 7 Bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

8 Charity never fails. But if there are prophecies, they shall fail. If there are languages, they shall cease. If there is knowledge, it shall vanish away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part. 10 But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be done away. 11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, and I thought as a child. But when I became a man, I put away childish things. 12 For now we see through a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know even as I am also known. 13 But now faith, hope, and charity endure—these three. But the greatest of these is charity.

Chapter 14

Prophecy is commended, 1, and preferred before speaking with languages, 2-5, by a comparison drawn from musical instruments, 6-11. Both must be referred to edification, 12-21, as to their true and proper end, 22-25. The gifts of both languages and prophecy are directed in their use, 26-33. Women are forbidden to speak in the church, 34-40.

1 Follow after charity and desire spiritual gifts, but so much the more that you may prophesy. 2 For he who speaks in an unknown language does not speak to men, but to God, for no man understands him. Yet in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. 3 But he who prophesies speaks to men for edification, exhortation, and comfort. 4 He who speaks in an unknown language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. 5 I wish that you all spoke in languages, but more so that you prophesied. For greater is he who prophesies than he who speaks in languages, unless he interprets, so that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in languages, what shall I profit you unless I speak to you either by revelation, by knowledge, by prophesying, or by doctrine? 7 And even lifeless things giving sound, whether pipe or harp, unless they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? 8 For if the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for battle? 9 So likewise you, unless you utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? For you will speak into the air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and not one of them is without signification. 11 Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him who speaks a barbarian, and he who speaks will be a barbarian to me. 12 Even so you, because you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek so that you may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Therefore, let him who speaks in an unknown language pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in an unknown language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit and I will sing with the understanding also. 16 Or else, when you bless with the spirit, how shall he who occupies the room of the unlearned say, "Amen," at your giving of thanks, seeing he does not understand what you say? 17 For you truly give thanks well, but the other is not edified. 18 I thank my God that I speak in languages more than you all. 19 Yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, so that by my voice I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown language.

20 Brothers, do not be children in understanding. Yet in malice be children, but in understanding be mature. 21 In the law it is written, "With men of other languages and other lips I will speak to this people, and yet for all that they will not hear me," says the Lord. 22 Therefore, languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to those who do not believe; however, prophesying does not serve for those who do not believe, but for those who believe. 23 If therefore the whole church is assembled in one place and all speak in languages, and there come in those who are unlearned or unbelievers, will they not say that you are insane? 24 But if all prophesy, and someone who does not believe or someone unlearned comes in, he is convinced by all and he is judged by all. 25 And thus the secrets of his heart are made manifest, and so falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is in you in truth.

26 What is it then, brothers? When you are assembled, every one of you has a psalm, has a doctrine, has a language, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification. 27 If any man speaks in an unknown language, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let someone interpret. 28 But if there is no interpreter, let him be silent in the church and let him speak to himself and to God. 29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others judge. 30 If anything is revealed to another who sits by, let the first hold his peace. 31 For you may all prophesy one by one so that all may learn and all may be comforted. 32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. 33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your women be silent in the churches. For it is not permitted for them to speak, but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also says the law. 35 And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home, for it is a shame for women to speak in the church. 36 What? Did the word of God come out from you? Or did it come to you only?

37 If any man thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. 38 But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Therefore, brothers, covet to prophesy and do not forbid to speak in languages. 40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.21]: Isaiah 28:11-12.

Chapter 15

By Christ's resurrection, 1-11, Paul proves the necessity of our resurrection against all those who deny the resurrection of the body, 12-20. The fruit, 21-34, and the manner thereof, 35-50; and of the changing of those who shall be found alive at the last day, 51-58.

1 Moreover, brothers, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received and in which you stand, 2 By which you are also saved, if you keep in memory what I preached to you, unless you have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4 And that he was buried and that he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, 5 And that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. 6 After that, he was seen by more than five hundred brothers at once, of whom the greater part remain to this present, but some have fallen asleep. 7 After that, he was seen by James, then by all the apostles. 8 And last of all, he was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle because I persecuted the church of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain. But I labored more abundantly than all of them—yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Therefore, whether it was I or they, that is what we preach and that is what you believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he rose from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised. 14 And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is vain and your faith is also vain. 15 And indeed we are found false witnesses of God because we have testified concerning God that he raised up Christ, whom he did not raise, if in truth the dead do not rise. 16 For if the dead do not rise, then Christ has not been raised. 17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain. You are still in your sins. 18 Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now Christ has been raised from the dead and has become the first-fruits of those who slept. 21 For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall be made alive. 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits, afterward, those who are Christ's at his coming. 24 Then the end comes when he has delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father, when he has put down all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign until he has put all enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. 27 For "he has put all things under his feet." But when he says, "All things are put under him," it is manifest that he is excepted who put all things under him. 28 And when all things are subdued to him, then the Son himself shall also be subject to him who put all things under him so that God may be all in all.

29 Or else, what will those do who are baptized for the dead if the dead do not rise at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead? 30 And why do we stand in jeopardy every hour? 31 I affirm, by the rejoicing in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. 32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me? If the dead do not rise, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." 33 Do not be deceived. "Evil communications corrupt good manners." 34 Awake to righteousness and do not sin, for some do not have the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, "How are the dead raised? And with what body do they come?" 36 You fool, that which you sow is not vivified unless it dies. 37 And that which you sow, you do not sow that body that shall be, but bare grain—it may be of wheat or of some other grain. 38 But God gives it a body as it has pleased him, and to every seed its own body. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fish, and another of birds. 40 There are also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies, but the glory of the celestial is one and the glory of the terrestrial is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars, for one star differs from another star in glory.

42 Thus also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption. 43 It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. 44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written, "The first man, Adam, was made a living soul." The last Adam was made a vivifying spirit. 46 However, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural, and afterward, that which is spiritual. 47 The first man is from the earth, earthy. The second man is the Lord from heaven. 48 As is the earthy, such are those also who are earthy, and as is the heavenly, such are those also who are heavenly. 49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, neither does corruption inherit incorruption. 51 Behold, I show you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet shall sound, the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 So when this corruptible has put on incorruption and this mortal has put on immortality, the saying that is written shall be brought to pass:

"Death is swallowed up in victory."

55 "O death, where is your sting?
O grave, where is your victory?"

56 The sting of death is sin and the strength of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

Paul exhorts them to relieve the lack of the brothers at Jerusalem, 1-9. Commends Timothy, 10-12; and after friendly admonitions, 13-15, concludes his epistle with various salutations, 16-24.

1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, you are to do likewise. 2 Upon the first day of the week, let each of you lay by him in store as God has prospered him so that there are no collections when I come. 3 And when I come, whomever you approve by your letters, I will send them to bring your liberality to Jerusalem. 4 And if it is proper that I should also go, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia, for I am to pass through Macedonia. 6 And it may be that I shall abide and even winter with you so that you may bring me on my journey wherever I go. 7 For I do not wish to see you merely in passing, but I trust to remain a while with you, if the Lord permits. 8 But I shall remain at Ephesus until Pentecost, 9 For a great and effectual door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear, for he works the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11 Let no man therefore despise him. But conduct him forth in peace so that he may come to me, for I expect him with the brothers.

12 As concerning our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the brothers, but his will was not at all to come at this time. But he will come when he has convenient time.

13 Watch, stand firm in the faith, acquit yourselves like men, and be strong. 14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I implore you, brothers—you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints— 16 That you submit yourselves to such as these and to everyone who helps with us and labors. 17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, for that which was lacking on your part, they have supplied, 18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore, acknowledge those who are such.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, along with the church that is in their house. 20 All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand. 22 If any man does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema, Maran-atha. 23 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 24 May my love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Paul’s Second Letter to the Corinthians

2nd Corinthians | Προς Κορινθίοις Β'

Chapter 1

Paul salutes the Corinthians, 1, 2; he encourages them against troubles by the comforts and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, 3-7, so particularly in his late danger in Asia, 8-11. And calling both his own conscience and theirs to witness of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the gospel, 12-14, he excuses his not coming to them as proceeding not of lightness, but of his kindness toward them, 15-24.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2 May grace be to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all consolation, 4 Who comforts us in all our tribulation so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble by the consolation with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds by Christ. 6 And whether we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer, or whether we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 7 And our hope for you is steadfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so you shall also be of the consolation.

8 For we do not wish, brothers, to have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life. 9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves so that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, 10 Who delivered us from so great a death and will deliver, in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us, 11 You also helping together by prayer for us, so that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our manner of life in the world, and more abundantly toward you. 13 For we write no other things to you than what you read or acknowledge. And I trust you will acknowledge even to the end, 14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I purposed to come to you before so that you might have a second benefit, 16 And through you to pass into Macedonia, and then to come back to you from Macedonia, and then to be sent forward by you on my way to Judea. 17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use levity? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh so that with me there should be, "Yes, yes," and, "No, no"? 18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not "yes" and "no." 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "yes" and "no," but in him was "yes." 20 For however many are the promises of God, in him is the "Yes;" therefore also through him is the "Amen," to the glory of God by us. 21 Now he who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us is God, 22 Who has also sealed us and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you, I have not yet come to Corinth. 24 It is not that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy, for by faith you stand.

Chapter 2

Having shown the reason why he did not come to them, 1-5, Paul requires them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, 6-9, even as he also upon his true repentance had forgiven him, 10, 11; declaring in addition why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 12, 13, and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places, 14-17.

1 But I determined this with myself, that I would not come back to you in heaviness. 2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then who makes me glad but the same who is made sorry by me? 3 And I wrote this same to you, lest coming I should have sorrow from those by whom I ought to rejoice, having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly for you.

5 But if any has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but in part, so that I may not overcharge you all. 6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment which was inflicted by many, 7 So that on the other hand you ought rather to forgive him and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with excessive sorrow. 8 Therefore, I implore you that you would confirm your love toward him. 9 For to this end also I wrote so that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. 10 To whom you forgive anything, I forgive also. For what I have forgiven, if I forgave anything, I forgave it for your sakes in the presence of Christ, 11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us, for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ and a door was opened to me by the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit because I did not find Titus my brother. But taking my leave of them, I went from there into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be to God who always causes us to triumph in Christ and manifests the savor of his knowledge by us in every place. 15 For we are to God a sweet savor of Christ among those who are saved and among those who perish. 16 To one we are the savor of death to death and to the other the savor of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as the many, peddling the word of God. But in the sight of God we speak in Christ with sincerity, as from God.

Chapter 3

Lest their false teachers should charge him with vain glory, Paul shows the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry, 1-5. Whereupon entering a comparison between the ministers of the law and of the gospel, 6-11, he proves that his ministry is so far the more excellent, as the gospel of life and liberty is more glorious than the law of condemnation, 12-18.

1 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you. 2 You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men, 3 Because you are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone, but on fleshly tablets of the heart.

4 And such trust we have through Christ toward God, 5 Not that we are sufficient by ourselves to think anything as from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, 6 Who also has made us able ministers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

7 But if the ministration of death written and engraved on stones came with glory so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance—which glory was to be done away— 8 How shall the ministration of the Spirit not be even more glorious? 9 For if the ministration of condemnation was glory, much more does the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect because of the glory that excels it. 11 For if that which was done away was glorious, much more that which remains is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech, 13 And not as Moses who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished. 14 But their minds were blinded, for until this day, the same veil remains untaken away in the reading of the old testament—which veil is done away in Christ. 15 But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart. 16 Nevertheless, when it turns to the Lord, "the veil shall be taken away." 17 Now the Lord is that Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.16]: Exodus 34:34.[LXX (paraphrased)]

Chapter 4

Paul declares how he has used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel, 1-6, and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same led to the praise of God's power, 7-11, to the benefit of the church, 12-15, and to the apostle's own eternal glory, 16-18.

1 Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not faint, 2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 But if our gospel is hid, it is hid to those who are lost, 4 In whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine to them. 5 For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. 6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shined into our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels so that the excellence of the power may be from God and not from us. 8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; 9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; 10 Always carrying around in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus so that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our body. 11 For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake so that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death works in us, but life in you.

13 But having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, "I believed, and therefore, I have spoken," we also believe, and therefore speak, 14 Knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also by Jesus and will present us with you. 15 For all things are for your sakes so that the abundant grace, through the thanksgiving of many, may abound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we do not faint, but though our outward man perishes, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. 17 For our light affliction, which is only for a moment, works out for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, 18 Since we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.13]: Psalm 116:10.[LXX]

Chapter 5

That in his assured hope of immortal glory, 1-8, and in expectation of it, and of the general judgment, Paul labors to keep a good conscience, 9-11; not that he may herein boast of himself, 12, 13, but as one who, having received life from Christ, endeavors to live as a new creature to Christ only, 14-17, and by his ministry of reconciliation, to reconcile others also in Christ to God, 18-21.

1 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our house which is from heaven, 3 Because, being clothed, we shall not be found naked. 4 For we who are in this tabernacle groan, being burdened, not because we wish to be unclothed, but clothed, so that mortality might be swallowed up in life. 5 Now he who has wrought us for this same thing is God, who also has given to us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore, we are always confident knowing that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. 7 For we walk by faith, not by sight. 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. 9 Therefore also we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be accepted by him. 10 For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ so that each one may receive the things done in his body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest to God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. 12 For we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, so that you may have something to answer those who glory in appearance and not in heart. 13 For whether we are beside ourselves, it is to God, or whether we are sober, it is for your cause. 14 For the love of Christ constrains us because we thus judge: that if one died for all, then all were dead, 15 And that he died for all so that those who live should not from now on live to themselves, but to him who died for them and rose again.

16 Therefore, from now on we know no man according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now from now on we no longer know him this way. 17 Therefore, if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature. Old things have passed away. Behold, all things have become new. 18 And all things are from God, who has reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation, 19 Namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God implored you by us. We pray you on behalf of Christ: be reconciled to God. 21 For he has made him who knew no sin to be sin for us so that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Chapter 6

Paul has approved himself a faithful minister of Christ by his exhortations, 1, 2, and by integrity of life, 3, and by patiently enduring all kinds of affliction and disgrace for the gospel, 4-10. Of which he speaks the more boldly among them because his heart is open to them, 11-12, and he expects a similar affection from them again, 13; exhorting them to flee the society and pollutions of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God, 14-18.

1 And working together [with him], we entreat also that you do not receive the grace of God in vain. 2 (For he says,

> "I have heard you in a time accepted, / > and in the day of salvation I have helped you."

Behold, now is the accepted time. Behold, now is the day of salvation.) 3 We give no offense in anything so that the ministry is not blamed, 4 But in all things approve ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, 5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; 6 By pureness, by knowledge, by patience, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love unfeigned, 7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers and true; 9 As unknown and well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened and not killed; 10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing and possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our mouth is open to you, our heart is enlarged. 12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own inward affections. 13 Now for a recompense in the same (I speak as to my children), you also be enlarged.

14 Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? And what fellowship has light with darkness? 15 And what concord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has he who believes with an infidel? 16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God, as God has said, "'I will dwell in them' and walk in them. 'And I will be their God, and they shall be my people.'" 17 Therefore,

> "Come out from among them and be separate," says the Lord. /
> "'Do not touch the unclean thing,' / > and I will receive you.
>
> 18 And I will be a Father to you, / > and you shall be my sons and daughters," / > says the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

Paul proceeds in exhorting them to purity of life, 1; and to bear him similar affection as he does to them, 2. Whereof lest he might seem to doubt, he declares what comfort he took in his afflictions by the report which Titus gave of their godly sorrow, which his former epistle had wrought in them, 3-12; and of their loving-kindness and obedience toward Titus, answerable to his former boastings of them, 13-16.

1 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us. We have wronged no man. We have corrupted no man. We have defrauded no man. 3 I do not speak this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts to die and live with you. 4 My boldness of speech is great toward you. My glorying is great concerning you. I am filled with comfort. I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side: outside were fightings, inside were fears. 6 Nevertheless, God, who comforts those who are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus, 7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation with which he was comforted in you when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, and your fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoiced the more. 8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent. For I perceive that the same epistle has made you sorry, though it was only for a season. 9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed to repentance. For you were made sorry after a godly manner so that you might suffer loss in nothing by us. 10 For godly sorrow works repentance to salvation not to be repented of, but the sorrow of the world works death. 11 For behold this very thing, that you sorrowed after a godly manner, what it has wrought in you: what carefulness, what clearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what vehement desire, what zeal, and what avenging! In all things you have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter. 12 Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did not do it for his cause who had done the wrong, nor for his cause who suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you. 13 Therefore, we were comforted in your comfort. And exceedingly the more we rejoiced for the joy of Titus because his spirit was refreshed by you all. 14 For if I have boasted anything to him concerning you, I am not ashamed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth. 15 And his tender affection is more abundant toward you while he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

Chapter 8

Paul stirs them up to a liberal contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem by the example of the Macedonians, 1-6; by commendation of their former forwardness, 7, 8; by the example of Christ, 9-13; and by the spiritual profit that shall come back upon themselves thereby, 14, 15; commending to them the integrity and willingness of Titus, along with those other brothers, who upon his request, exhortation, and commendation, purposely came to them for this business, 16-24.

1 Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia, 2 That in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. 3 For I bear testimony that according to their ability and even beyond their ability, they were willing of themselves, 4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 5 And they did this, not as we hoped, but they first gave their own selves to the Lord and then to us by the will of God. 6 So we exhorted Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, as you abound in everything—in faith, utterance, knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love to us—see that you abound in this grace also. 8 I do not speak by commandment, but by means of the forwardness of others, proving the sincerity of your love also. 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor so that you, through his poverty, might be rich. 10 And in this I give my advice. For this is expedient for you, who have begun before a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. 11 Now therefore, finish the doing also, so that as there was a readiness to will, so may there be a performance also out of that which you have. 12 For if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man has and not according to what he does not have. 13 For I do not mean that other men should be eased and you burdened, 14 But that there may be equality. Your abundance at this time may be a supply for their need so that their abundance may also be a supply for your need. This is so that there may be equality, 15

As it is written, "He who had gathered much had nothing over, and he who had gathered little had no lack."

16 But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you. 17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward, he went to you of his own accord. 18 And we have sent with him the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches, 19 And not that only, but he was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord and to show our readiness. 20 We are avoiding this: that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us. 21 For we are providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often proved to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you. 23 If any ask about Titus, he is my partner and fellow-worker concerning you, or about our brothers, they are the messengers of the churches and the glory of Christ. 24 Therefore, show the proof of your love to them and before the churches and of our boasting on your behalf.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.15]: Exodus 16:18.[LXX]

Chapter 9

Paul yields the reason why, though he knew their forwardness, he sent Titus and his brothers beforehand, 1-5. And he proceeds in stirring them up to a bountiful alms, as being but a kind of sowing of seed, 6-9, which shall return a great increase to them, 10-12, and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgivings to God, 13-15.

1 For as concerning the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you. 2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast about you to those of Macedonia that Achaia has been ready since last year. And your zeal has incited very many. 3 Yet I have sent the brothers, lest our boasting about you should be in vain in this matter, so that, as I said, you may be ready, 4 Lest perhaps if those of Macedonia come with me and find you unprepared, we (to not speak of you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. 5 Therefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brothers that they would go on ahead to you and arrange beforehand your previously promised blessing, so that the same might be ready as a matter of blessing and not of extortion.

6 But I say this, that he who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully. 7 Let every man give according as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or by constraint, for "God loves a cheerful giver." 8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you so that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work, 9 As it is written,

> "He has dispersed. He has given to the poor. /
> His righteousness remains forever."

10 Now may he who supplies "seed to the sower and bread for food," supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase "the fruits of your righteousness," 11 Being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which through us causes thanksgiving to God. 12 For the administration of this service not only supplies the needs of the saints, but is also abundant by many thanksgivings to God. 13 Because of the proof of this ministration, they glorify God for your professed subjection to the gospel of Christ and for your liberal contribution to them and to all men, 14 While they themselves also, with prayer on your behalf, long after you because of the exceeding grace of God in you. 15 Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

Chapter 10

Against the false apostles, who disgraced the weakness of his person and bodily presence, Paul shows the spiritual might and authority with which he was armed against all adverse powers, 1-6; assuring them that at his coming he will be found as mighty in word as he is now in writing, being absent, 7-11; and refuses to justify himself or to act by such rules as the false teachers did, but according to the better rules he had fixed for himself, 12-18.

1 Now I, Paul, myself implore you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2 But I implore you that when I am present I may not be bold with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds, 5 Casting down imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 6 And we are ready to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do you look at things after the outward appearance? If any man trusts to himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this within himself again: that as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. 8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord has given us for edification and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed, 9 So that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. 10 "For his letters," they say, "are weighty and powerful, but his bodily presence is weak and his speech contemptible." 11 Let such a one think this: that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such we will also be in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not number or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. 13 But we will not boast of things beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God has distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you. 14 For we do not stretch ourselves beyond our measure, as though we did not reach to you. For we have come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ, 15 Not boasting of things beyond our measure, that is, of other men's labors, but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly, 16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things already prepared. 17 But "he who glories, let him glory in the Lord." 18 For it is not he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.17]: Jeremiah 9:24 (paraphrased).

Chapter 11

Out of his jealousy over the Corinthians, who seemed to make more account of the false apostles than of him, Paul enters into a forced commendation of himself, 1-4, of his equality with the chief apostles, 5, 6, of his preaching the gospel to them freely, and without any charge to them, 7-12; showing that he was not inferior to those deceitful workers in any legal prerogative, 13-22; and in the service of Christ, and in all kinds of sufferings for his ministry, far superior, 23-33.

1 I earnestly wish you could bear with me a little in my folly. Indeed, bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy. For I have espoused you to one husband so that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 4 For if he who comes preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit which you have not received, or another gospel which you have not accepted, you do well to put up with him. 5 For I suppose I was not at all inferior to the very greatest apostles. 6 Although I am rude in speech, yet I am not in knowledge. Indeed, we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offense in abasing myself so that you might be exalted because I have preached to you the gospel of God without reward? 8 I robbed other churches, taking wages from them to do you service. 9 And when I was present with you and was in need, I was chargeable to no man. For that which was lacking to me the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied. And in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself. 10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. 11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows.

12 But what I do, that I will do so that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion, so that in what they glory, they may be found even as we are. 13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. 14 And no wonder, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 15 Therefore, it is no great thing if his ministers are also transformed as the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, let no man think me a fool. If otherwise, yet as a fool receive me so that I may boast myself a little. 17 That which I speak, I do not speak it according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. 18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will also glory. 19 For you bear with fools gladly, seeing you yourselves are wise. 20 For you bear with it if a man brings you into bondage, if a man devours you, if a man takes from you, if a man exalts himself, if a man smites you on the face. 21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. But in whatever respect any is bold (I speak foolishly), I am bold also. 22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the offspring of Abraham? So am I. 23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more, with labors more abundant, with stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, and near death more often. 24 Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. 25 Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; 26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers; 27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. 28 Besides those things that are outside, there is that which comes upon me daily: the care of all the churches. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall into sin, and I do not burn?

30 If I must glory, I will glory in the things which concern my infirmities. 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie. 32 In Damascus, the governor under Aretas the king was guarding the city of the Damascenes, desiring to apprehend me. 33 And through a window in a basket I was let down by the wall and escaped his hands.

For commending of his apostleship, though he might glory about his wonderful revelations, 1-8, yet Paul rather chooses to glory in his infirmities, 9, 10; blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting, 11-13. He promises to come to them again; but yet altogether in the affection of a father, 14-19; although he fears he shall to his grief find many offenders and public disorders there, 20, 21.

1 It is doubtless not expedient for me to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I knew a man in Christ fourteen years ago (whether in the body I cannot tell, or whether out of the body I cannot tell—God knows), such a one was caught up to the third heaven. 3 And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell—God knows), 4 That he was caught up into paradise and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 5 About such a one I will glory, yet about myself I will not glory, except in my infirmities. 6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool, for I will say the truth. But now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he sees me to be or what he hears from me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. 8 For this thing I implored the Lord three times that it might depart from me. 9 And he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore, most gladly I will so much the more glory in my infirmities so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 Therefore, I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in hardships, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

11 I have become a fool in glorying. You have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you, for in no way am I inferior to the very greatest apostles, though I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, wonders, and mighty deeds. 13 For what is that in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me for this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you and I will not be burdensome to you, for I do not seek what is yours, but you. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you, though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved. 16 But be it so, I did not burden you. Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile. 17 Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you? 18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

19 Again, do you think that we excuse ourselves to you? We speak before God in Christ. And we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edification. 20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I wish, and that I shall be found by you such as you do not wish, lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, conceits, tumults, 21 And lest, when I come again, my God may humble me among you, and I shall bewail many who have sinned already and have not repented of the uncleanness, lewdness, and lasciviousness which they have committed.

Paul threatens severity and the power of his apostleship against obstinate sinners, 1-4. And, advising them to a trial of their faith, 5, 6, and to a reformation of their sins before his coming, 7-10, he concludes his epistle with a general exhortation and a prayer, 11-14.

1 This is the third time I am coming to you. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established." 2 I have told you before and tell you again, as when I was present the second time. So now being absent, I write to those who before have sinned and to all the rest, that, if I come again I will not spare, 3 Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, who is not weak toward you, but is mighty in you. 4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives by the power of God. For we are also weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith. Prove your own selves. Do you not know as to your own selves that Jesus Christ is in you unless you are reprobates? 6 But I trust that you will know that we are not reprobates. 7 Now I pray to God that you do no evil—not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we should be as reprobates. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. And this also we wish: even your perfection. 10 Therefore, I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord has given me to edification and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brothers, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. 12 Greet one another with a holy kiss. 13 All the saints salute you.

14 May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

Paul’s Letter to the Galatians

Galatians | Προς Γαλάταις

Chapter 1

Paul wonders that they have so soon left him and the gospel, 1-7; and accurses those who preach any other gospel than he did, 8-10. He learned the gospel not from men, but from God, 11-13; and shows what he was before his calling, 14-16; and what he did immediately after it, 17-24.

1 Paul, an apostle (not from men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised him from the dead), 2 And all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 Who gave himself for our sins so that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father, 5 To whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you into the grace of Christ to another gospel, 7 Which is not another. But there are some who trouble you and would pervert the gospel of Christ. 8 But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach any other gospel to you than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed. 9 As we said before, so I say now again: if any man preaches any other gospel to you than that which you have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I make known to you, brothers, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. 12 For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For you have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God and wasted it, 14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many of my equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother’s womb and called me by his grace, 16 To reveal his Son in me, so that I might preach him among the heathen, immediately I did not confer with flesh and blood, 17 Neither did I go to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went into Arabia and returned again to Damascus.

18 Then after three years, I went to Jerusalem to see Peter and stayed with him for fifteen days. 19 But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord’s brother. 20 Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I do not lie. 21 Afterward, I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, 22 And was unknown by face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ. 23 But they had only heard: "He who persecuted us in times past now preaches the faith which he once destroyed." 24 And they glorified God in me.

Chapter 2

Paul relates when he went up again to Jerusalem and for what purpose, 1, 2; and that Titus was not circumcised, 3-10; and that he resisted Peter and told him the reason, 11-13; why he and others, being Jews, do believe in Christ to be justified by faith and not by works, 14-19; and that they do not live in sin who are so justified, 20, 21.

1 Then after fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus with me also. 2 And I went by revelation and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means I might be running, or had run, in vain. 3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. 4 That was because of false brothers unexpectedly brought in, who came in privately to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus so that they might bring us into bondage, 5 To whom we gave place by subjection, not even for an hour, so that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. 6 But of these, who seemed to be something (whatever they were, it makes no matter to me—God accepts no man's person), for those who seemed to be something, in conference added nothing to me. 7 But on the contrary, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed to me as the gospel of the circumcision was to Peter 8 (For he who wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles), 9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave to Barnabas and me the right hands of fellowship so that we should go to the heathen and they to the circumcision. 10 Only they asked that we should remember the poor, the same which I was also eager to do.

11 But when Peter had come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face because he was to be blamed. 12 For before some came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles, but when they had come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. 13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him so that Barnabas was also carried away with their dissimulation. 14 But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live after the manner of Gentiles and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?

15 "We who are Jews by nature and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ so that we may be justified by the faith of Christ and not by the works of the law, for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified. 17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves are also found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? By no means. 18 For if I again build the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. 19 For I, through the law, am dead to the law so that I may live to God. 20 I am crucified with Christ, yet it is not I who live, but Christ lives in me. And the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. 21 I do not frustrate the grace of God. For if righteousness is attainable by the law, then Christ has died in vain."

Chapter 3

Paul asks what moved them to leave the faith and hang upon the law, 1-5. Those who believe are justified, 6-8, and blessed with Abraham, 9. And this he shows by many reasons, 10-29.

1 O foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth among you as crucified? 2 I only wish to learn this from you: did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now made perfect by the flesh? 4 Have you suffered so many things in vain—if it is indeed in vain? 5 He therefore who ministers to you the Spirit and works miracles among you, does he do this by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even so "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." 7 Know therefore, that those who are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. 8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you all nations shall be blessed." 9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse, for it is written, "Accursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them." 11 Now it is evident that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, for, "The just shall live by faith." 12 And the law is not of faith, but, "The man who does them shall live by them." 13 Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us, for it is written, "Accursed is everyone who hangs on a tree," 14 So that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brothers, I speak after the manner of men. Though it is only a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no man makes it void or adds to it. 16 Now the promises were made to Abraham and his offspring. He does not say, "And to offsprings," as of many, but as of one, "And to your offspring," which is Christ. 17 And I say this: that the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot invalidate the covenant that was confirmed before by God in Christ so that it should make the promise of no effect. 18 For if the inheritance is by the law, it is no longer by promise. But God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 What purpose then does the law serve? It was added because of transgressions until the offspring should come to whom the promise was made. And it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. 20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? By no means. For if there had been a law given which could give life, truly righteousness would have been by the law. 22 But the Scripture has enclosed all under sin so that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, shut up to the faith which should afterward be revealed. 24 Therefore, the law was our school-master to bring us to Christ so that we might be justified by faith. 25 But after faith has come, we are no longer under a school-master. 26 For you are all children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring and heirs according to the promise.

Chapter 4

We were under the law until Christ came, as the heir is under the guardian until he is of age, 1-4. But Christ freed us from the law, 5, 6; therefore we are servants no longer to it, 7-13. Paul remembers their good will to him and his to them, 14-21; and shows that we are the sons of Abraham by the free-woman, 22-31.

1 Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, differs nothing from a servant, though he is lord of all, 2 But is under guardians and governors until the time appointed by the father. 3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world. 4 But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, 5 To redeem those who were under the law so that we might receive the adoption of sons. 6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba, Father." 7 Therefore, you are no longer a servant, but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 However then, when you did not know God, you did service to them which by nature are not gods. 9 But now, after you have known God, or rather are known by God, how do you turn back to the weak and beggarly elements to which you desire again to be in bondage? 10 You observe days, months, times, and years. 11 I am afraid for you, lest I have bestowed upon you labor in vain.

12 Brothers, I implore you, be as I am, for I am as you are. You have not injured me at all. 13 You know that in infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel to you at the first. 14 And that which was a trial to you in my flesh you did not despise or reject, but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. 15 What then was the blessedness you spoke of? For I bear you testimony, that if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me. 16 Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth? 17 They zealously affect you, but not in a good way. They wish to exclude you so that you may be zealous for them. 18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you. 19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ is formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now and to change my voice, for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law? 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons: one by a woman-servant, the other by a free woman. 23 But he who was of the woman-servant was born according to the flesh, but he of the free woman was by promise. 24 These things are an allegory, for these are the two covenants. One is from the mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar. 25 For this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. 26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, and she is the mother of us all. 27 For it is written,

"Rejoice, you barren who do not bear. /
Break forth and cry, you who do not travail. /
For the desolate has many more children / than she who has a husband."

28 Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. 29 But as then he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the woman-servant and her son. For the son of the woman-servant shall not be heir with the son of the free woman."

31 So then, brothers, we are not children of the woman-servant, but of the free.

Chapter 5

Paul desires them to stand in their liberty, 1, 2, and not to observe circumcision, 3-12; but rather love, which is the sum of the law, 13-18. He reckons up the works of the flesh, 19-21, and the fruits of the Spirit, 22-24, and exhorts to walk in the Spirit, 25, 26.

1 Stand firm therefore in the liberty with which Christ has made us free, and do not be held again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I, Paul, say to you, that if you are circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 For I testify again to every man who is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4 Christ has become of no effect to you, you who would be justified by the law. You have fallen from grace. 5 For we, through the Spirit, wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. 6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith which works by love.

7 You were running well. Who hindered you that you should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion does not come from him who calls you. 9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump. 10 I have confidence in you through the Lord that you will not be otherwise minded. But he who troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he may be. 11 And I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why do I still suffer persecution? Then the offense of the cross has ceased. 12 I wish those who trouble you would cut themselves off.

13 For, brothers, you have been called to liberty. Only do not use liberty for an occasion for the flesh, but by love serve one another. 14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 15 But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you are not consumed by one another.

16 But I say, walk in the Spirit and you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. 17 For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit is against the flesh. And these are contrary to one another so that you cannot do the things that you wish. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, jealousy, wrath, strife, dissensions, heresies, 21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like these, of which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, and temperance. Against such there is no law. 24 And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. 26 Let us not be desirous of vain-glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.14]: Leviticus 19:18.[LXX]

Chapter 6

Paul moves them to deal mildly with a brother who has slipped, 1, and to bear one another's burden, 2-5; to be liberal to their teachers, 6-8, and not weary of well-doing, 9-11. He shows what they intend who preach circumcision, 12, 13. He glories in nothing, except in the cross of Christ, 14-18.

6 Let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. 7 Do not be deceived. God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows, that he shall also reap. 8 For he who sows to his flesh shall reap corruption from the flesh, but he who sows to the Spirit shall reap life everlasting from the Spirit. 9 And let us not be weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap if we do not faint. 10 As we therefore have opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

11 You see how large a letter I have written to you with my own hand. 12 As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised—only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. 13 For even they who are circumcised do not keep the law themselves, but desire to have you circumcised so that they may glory in your flesh. 14 But may it never be that I should glory, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me and I to the world. 15 For in Christ Jesus, neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. 16 And as many as walk according to this rule, may peace and mercy be upon them and upon the Israel of God.

17 From now on let no man trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brothers, may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Paul’s Letter to the Ephesians

Ephesians | Προς Ἐφεσίοις

Chapter 1

After the salutation, 1, 2, and thanksgiving for the Ephesians, 3, Paul discusses our election, 4, 5, and adoption by grace, 6-10; which is the true and proper fountain of man’s salvation, 11, 12. And because the height of this mystery cannot easily be attained to, 13-15, he prays that they may come to the full knowledge and possession thereof in Christ, 16-23.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ, 4 According as he has chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love, 5 Having predestined us to the adoption of children to himself by Jesus Christ according to the good pleasure of his will, 6 To the praise of the glory of his grace in which he has made us accepted in the beloved, 7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace, 8 In which he has abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 Having made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure which he has purposed in himself, 10 So that in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might collect in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth, even in him; 11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things after the counsel of his own will, 12 So that we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ; 13 In whom you also trusted after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also after you believed, you were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.

15 Therefore, I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and love toward all the saints, 16 Do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17 So that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him, 18 Having the eyes of your understanding being enlightened so that you may know what is the hope of his calling and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, 19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, 20 Which he wrought in Christ when he raised him from the dead and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 Far above all principality, power, might, dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. 22 And he put all things under his feet and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, 23 Which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

By comparing what we were by nature with what we are by grace, 1-9, Paul declares that we are made for good works and, being brought near by Christ, should not live as Gentiles and foreigners as in time past, but as citizens with the saints and the family of God, 10-22.

1 And he has revived you, who were dead in trespasses and sins, 2 In which in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience, 3 Among whom also we all had our manner of life in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. 4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, 5 Even when we were dead in sins, has made us alive together with Christ (by grace you are saved), 6 And has raised us up together and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7 So that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. 8 For by grace you are saved through faith, and that not of yourselves. It is the gift of God. 9 It is not by works, lest any man should boast. 10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Therefore, remember, that you, being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision (made in the flesh by hands), 12 At that time you were without Christ, being foreigners from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far off are made near by the blood of Christ. 14 For he is our peace, who has made both one and has broken down the middle wall of partition between us, 15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances, to make in himself one new man of the two, so making peace, 16 And that he might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having by it slain the enmity, 17 And came and preached "peace to you who were afar off and to those who were near." 18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father. 19 Now therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God, 20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone, 21 In whom all the building properly framed together grows to a holy temple in the Lord, 22 In whom you also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.17]: Isaiah 57:19.[LXX (paraphrased)]

Chapter 3

The hidden mystery that the Gentiles should be saved was made known to Paul by revelation, 1-7; and to him that grace was given so that he should preach it, 8-12. He desires that they not faint for his tribulation, 13; and prays that they may perceive the great love of Christ toward them, 14-21.

1 For this cause, I, Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, 2 If you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given to me on your account, 3 That by revelation he made the mystery known to me, as I wrote before in few words, 4 By which when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ, 5 Which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit, 6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, fellow-members of the body, and fellow-partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel, 7 Of which I was made a minister according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effectual working of his power. 8 To me, who am less than the least of all saints, this grace was given so that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, 9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world has been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ, 10 To the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in heavenly places, 11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord. 12 In him we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. 13 Therefore, I desire that you do not faint at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, 16 That he would grant you according to the riches of his glory to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man, 17 So that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, length, depth, and height, 19 And to know the love of Christ, which passes knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

20 Now to him who is able to do more abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21 To him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Chapter 4

Paul exhorts to unity, 1-6; and declares that God therefore gives various gifts to men, 7-10; so that his church might be edified, 11-15, and grow up in Christ, 16, 17. He calls them from the impurity of the Gentiles, 18-23; to put on the new man, 24; to cast off lying, 25-28; and corrupt communication, 29-32.

1 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, implore you that you walk worthy of the vocation by which you are called, 2 With all lowliness and meekness, with patience, forbearing one another in love, 3 Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 4 There is one body and one Spirit, even as you are called in one hope of your calling, 5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism, 6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, through all, and in you all.

7 But to each of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. 8 Therefore, he says,

> "When he ascended on high, / > he led captivity captive, / > and gave gifts to men."

9 Now that "he ascended," what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? 10 He who descended is the same also who ascended far above all heavens so that he might fill all things. 11 And he gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, 13 Until we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, 14 That we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried around by every wind of doctrine and by the trickery of men and cunning craftiness by which they lie in wait to deceive, 15 But, speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, who is the head, even Christ, 16 From whom the whole body properly joined together and united by that which every joint supplies, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, makes increase of the body to the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you from now on do not walk as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, 18 Having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them because of the blindness of their heart, 19 Who, being callous, have given themselves over to lasciviousness to work all uncleanness with greediness. 20 But you have not learned Christ in this way, 21 If indeed you have heard him and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus. 22 Concerning the former manner of life, [you were taught] to put off the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, 23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 And that you put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 Therefore, putting away lying, "each of you speak truth with his neighbor," for we are members of one another. 26 "Be angry, and do not sin." Do not let the sun go down upon your wrath, 27 Neither give place to the devil. 28 Let him who stole no longer steal, but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, so that he may have [something] to give to him who needs. 29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying so that it may minister grace to the hearers. 30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil-speaking be put away from you, along with all malice. 32 And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you.

[v.8]: Psalm 68:18.[LXX] (paraphrased) [v.25]: Zechariah 8:16.[LXX] [v.26]: Psalm 4:4.[LXX]

Chapter 5

After general exhortations to love, 1, 2; to flee fornication, 3; and all uncleanness, 4-6; not to converse with the wicked, 7-14; to walk carefully, 15-17; and to be filled with the Spirit, 18-21; Paul descends to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 22-24; and husbands ought to love their wives, 25-31, even as Christ does his church, 32, 33.

1 Be therefore followers of God, as dear children, 2 And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us and has given himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor.

3 But lewdness and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as is proper for saints, 4 Neither filthiness, foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate, but rather giving of thanks. 5 For this you know, that no lewd person, unclean person, or covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience. 7 Therefore, do not be partakers with them. 8 For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light 9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth), 10 Proving what is acceptable to the Lord. 11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. 12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. 13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light, for whatever is made manifest is light. 14 Therefore, he says,

> "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, / > and Christ will give you light."

15 See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17 Therefore, do not be unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. 18 And do not be drunk with wine, in which is excess, but be filled with the Spirit, 19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, 20 Giving thanks always for all things to God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21 Submitting yourselves to one another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church, and he is the Savior of the body. 24 Therefore, as the church is subject to Christ, so let wives be to their own husbands in everything.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church and gave himself for it 26 So that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, 27 And that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish. 28 Likewise, men also ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife, loves himself. 29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord the church. 30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. 31 "For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and shall be joined to his wife, and the two of them shall be one flesh." 32 This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church. 33 Nevertheless, let each of you in particular thus love his wife even as himself, and the wife see that she reverences her husband.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.31]: Genesis 2:24.[LXX]

Chapter 6

The duty of children toward their parents, 1-4; of servants toward their masters, 5-9. Our life is a warfare, not against flesh and blood, but against spiritual enemies, 10-12. The complete armor of a Christian, 13-17; and how it ought to be used, 18-20. Tychicus is commended, 21-24.

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 2 "Honor your father and mother"—which is the first commandment with promise— 3 "So that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth."

4 And fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the instruction and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ, 6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, 7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord and not to men, 8 Knowing that whatever good thing any man does, the same he will receive from the Lord, whether he is bond or free.

9 And masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatening, knowing that your Master also is in heaven, neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brothers, be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might. 11 Put on the whole armor of God so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. 13 Therefore, take up the whole armor of God so that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, having your "loins girded in truth," and having on the "breast-plate of righteousness," 15 And having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, with which you will be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the wicked. 17 And take the "helmet of salvation," and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, 18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit and watching for this purpose with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. 19 And pray on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me so that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds, so that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But so that you also may know my affairs and how I am doing, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make known to you all things, 22 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, so that you may know our affairs and that he may comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brothers and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24 May grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

Paul’s Letter to the Philippians

Philippians | Προς Φιλιππησίοις

Chapter 1

Paul testifies his thankfulness to God and his love toward the Philippians for the fruits of their faith and fellowship in his sufferings, 1-8; daily praying to him for their increase in grace, 9-11; he shows what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 12-20; and how ready he is to glorify Christ either by his life or death, 21-26; exhorting them to unity, 27; and to fortitude in persecution, 28-30.

1 Paul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, 4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, 5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now, 6 Being confident of this very thing, that he who has begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ, 7 Even as it is proper for me to think this of you all because I have you in my heart, for both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers of my grace. 8 For God is my witness, how greatly I long after you all in the tender affection of Jesus Christ. 9 And this I pray: that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment, 10 That you may approve things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense until the day of Christ, 11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

12 But I wish you to understand, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather for the furtherance of the gospel, 13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest throughout the whole praetorian guard and to all the rest, 14 And that many of the brothers in the Lord, becoming confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. 15 Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from good will. 16 The former preach Christ from contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds, 17 But the latter from love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the gospel. 18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached, and I therein rejoice. Indeed, I will rejoice. 19 For I know that "this will turn to my salvation" through your prayers and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 According to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also, Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ and to die is gain. 22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor. Yet what I shall choose I do not know. 23 For I am hard pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and to be with Christ, which is far better. 24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. 25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith, 26 So that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or else am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel, 28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries—which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that from God. 29 For to you it is given on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer for his sake, 30 Having the same conflict which you saw in me and now hear to be in me.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.19]: Job 13:16.[LXX]

Chapter 2

Paul exhorts them to unity and to all humbleness of mind by the example of Christ's humility and exaltation, 1-11; to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as lights to the wicked world, 12-15, and comforts to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God, 16-18. He hopes to send Timothy to them, and Epaphroditus also, 19-30.

1 If there is therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any inner affections and mercies, 2 Fulfill my joy, that you be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. 3 Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory. But in lowliness of mind, let each esteem the other better than themselves— 4 Each of you not looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. 5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, 6 Who, being in the form of God, did not deem equality with God as something to be grasped, 7 But emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being made in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross. 9 Therefore, God also has highly exalted him and given him a name which is above every name, 10 So that at the name of Jesus "every knee should bow," of things in heaven, things on earth, and things under the earth, 11 And that "every tongue should confess" that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, 13 For it is God who works in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings, 15 So that you may be blameless and innocent, the sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, 16 Holding forth the word of life, so that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain. 17 And if I am even offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. 18 For the same cause you also should be glad and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly to you so that I also may be of good comfort when I know your state. 20 For I have no man like-minded who will naturally care for your state. 21 For all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But you know the proof of him, that as a son with the father he has served with me in the gospel. 23 Therefore, I hope to send him presently, as soon as I see how it will go with me. 24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. 25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, companion in labor, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he who ministered to my needs. 26 For he longed after you all and was full of heaviness because you had heard that he was sick. 27 For indeed he was sick, near to death. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I sent him therefore the more speedily, so that when you see him again you may rejoice and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such in reputation, 30 Because for the work of Christ he was near to death, not regarding his life, to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.10]: Isaiah 45:23.[LXX] [v.11]: Isaiah 45:23.[LXX] (paraphrased)

Chapter 3

Paul warns them to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision, 1-3; showing that he has greater cause than they do to trust in the righteousness of the law, 4-6; but he renounces it all to gain Christ and his righteousness, 7-11; therein acknowledging his own imperfection, 12-14. He exhorts them to be thus minded, 15, 16; and to imitate him, 17, and to decline the ways of carnal Christians, 18-21.

1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs. Beware of evil-workers. Beware of the mutilation. 3 For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh, 4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has reason to trust in the flesh, I yet more: 5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; with respect to the law, a Pharisee; 6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; with respect to the righteousness which is by the law, found blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted as loss for Christ. 8 Indeed, I even count all things to be loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord. For him I have suffered the loss of all things and count them to be dung so that I may win Christ, 9 And be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith, 10 So that I may know him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable to his death, 11 If by any means I may attain to the resurrection of the dead.

12 It is not as though I had already attained, or were already perfect, but I pursue, if that I may obtain that for which Christ Jesus also obtained me. 13 Brothers, I do not count myself to have obtained, but this one thing I do: forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, 14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be thus minded. And if in anything you are otherwise minded, God will reveal even this to you. 16 Nevertheless, to what we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brothers, be followers together of me and mark those who thus walk, as you have us for an example. 18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ, 19 Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) 20 For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 Who will change our vile body so that it may be fashioned like his glorious body, according to the working by which he is able even to subdue all things to himself.

Chapter 4

From particular admonitions, 1-3, Paul proceeds to general exhortations, 4-9, showing how he rejoiced at their liberality toward him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his own lack as for the grace of God in them, 10-18. And so he concludes with prayer and salutations, 19-23.

1 Therefore, my brothers dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, likewise stand firm in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I exhort Euodias and exhort Syntyche that they be of the same mind in the Lord. 3 And I entreat you also, true companion, help those women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with my other fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord always. And again I say, rejoice. 5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. 6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is any praise, think on these things. 9 Do those things which you have learned, received, heard, and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last your concern for me has flourished again. You were indeed concerned for me, but you lacked opportunity. 11 It is not that I speak from being in need. For I have learned, in whatever state I am, to be content with that. 12 I know both how to be abased and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. 13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. 14 But you have done well that you shared in my affliction.

15 Now, Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church had fellowship with me concerning giving and receiving, but you only. 16 For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again for my needs. 17 It is not because I desire a gift, but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. 18 But I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God. 19 But my God will supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. 20 Now to God and our Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. 22 All the saints salute you, chiefly those who are of Caesar’s household.

23 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Paul's Letter to the Colossians

Colossians | Προς Κολοσσαείς

Chapter 1

After salutation, Paul thanks God for their faith, 1-6; confirms the doctrine of Epaphras, 7, 8; prays further for their increase in grace, 9-13; describes the true Christ, 14-20; encourages them to receive Jesus Christ, and commends his own ministry, 21-29.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ who are at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which you have to all the saints, 5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you have heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, 6 Which has come to you, as it is in all the world, and brings forth fruit, as it also does in you, since the day you heard of it and knew the grace of God in truth, 7 As you also learned from Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ, 8 Who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease praying for you and making request that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, 10 So that you may walk worthy of the Lord, pleasing him in every way, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God, 11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, to all endurance and patience with joyfulness, 12 Giving thanks to the Father, who has made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light.

13 He has delivered us from the power of darkness and has translated us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.

15 He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature. 16 For by him all things were created that are in heaven and that are upon earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, dominions, principalities, or powers. All things were created by him and for him. 17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, so that in all things he may have the pre-eminence. 19 For it pleased the Father that all fullness should dwell in him, 20 And through him to reconcile all things to himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross, whether they are things on earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, who were formerly alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now he has reconciled 22 In the body of his flesh through death to present you holy, blameless, and unreprovable in his sight, 23 If you continue in the faith grounded and settled and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you have heard and which has been preached to every creature which is under heaven, of which I, Paul, am made a minister.

24 I now rejoice in my sufferings for you and fill up that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church, 25 Of which I am made a minister according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you to fulfill the word of God, 26 Even the mystery which has been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints, 27 To whom God chose to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 28 We preach Him, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, so that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. 29 For this I also labor, striving according to his working which works in me mightily.

Chapter 2

Paul still exhorts them to be constant in Christ, 1-7; to beware of philosophy and vain traditions, 8-17; worshiping of angels, 18, 19; and legal ceremonies, which are ended in Christ, 20-23.

1 For I wish that you knew what great conflict I have for you and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, 2 That their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of understanding to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ, 3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. 4 And this I say, lest any man should deceive you with enticing words. 5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, 7 Rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man make a prey of you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. 9 For in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily. 10 And you are complete in him, who is the head of all principality and power. 11 In him you are also circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ, 12 Buried with him in baptism, in which you are also raised with him through the faith of the operation of God, who has raised him from the dead. 13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he has made alive together with him, having forgiven you of all trespasses, 14 Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. 15 And having disarmed the principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore judge you in food, in drink, in respect of a holy-day, of the new-moon, or of the sabbaths, 17 Which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ. 18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshiping of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 And not holding the head, from which all the body, being supplied and knit together by joints and ligaments, increases with the increase of God.

20 Therefore, if you are dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to ordinances 21 ("Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle," 22 Which are all to perish with use), according to the commandments and doctrines of men? 23 These things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship, humility, and neglecting of the body, but not in any honor to the satisfying of the flesh.

Chapter 3

Paul shows where we should seek Christ, 1-4. He exhorts to mortification, 5-9; to put off the old man and to put on Christ, 10, 11; exhorting to charity, humility, and other various duties, 12-25.

1 If you then are raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sits on the right hand of God. 2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. 3 For you are dead and your life is hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, who is our life, appears, you will also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth: lewdness, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry. 6 Because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience, 7 In which you also walked formerly when you lived in them. 8 But now you also put off all these:
anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, and filthy communication out of your mouth. 9 Do not lie to one another, seeing you have put off the old man with his deeds, 10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him who created him, 11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free. But Christ is all and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, hearts of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, patience, 13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man has a quarrel against any. Just as Christ forgave you, so also should you. 14 And above all these things, put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. 15
And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which you are also called in one body, and be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. 17 And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. 19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be bitter against them. 20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. 21 Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. 23 And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, 24 Knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance, for you serve the Lord Christ. 25 But he who does wrong will receive for the wrong which he has done. And there is no respect of persons.

Chapter 4

Paul exhorts them to be fervent in prayer, 1-4; to walk wisely toward those who have not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ, 5-9. He salutes them and wishes them all prosperity, 10-18.

1 Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

2 Continue in prayer and watch in the same with thanksgiving, 3 At the same time also praying for us, that God would open to us a door of utterance to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds, 4 So that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer every man.

7 All my state Tychicus shall declare to you, who is a beloved brother and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord, 8 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose so that you may know our state and that he may comfort your hearts, 9 And with him, Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you all things which are done here.

10 Aristarchus, my fellow-prisoner, salutes you, along with Marcus, nephew of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commandments—if he should come to you, receive him), 11 And Jesus, who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These are my only fellow-workers to the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort to me. 12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him testimony, that he has a great zeal for you and those who are in Laodicea and those in Hierapolis. 14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. 15 Salute the brothers who are in Laodicea and also Nymphas and the church that is in his house. 16 And when this epistle is read among you, see to it that it also be read in the church of the Laodiceans and that you likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. 17 And say to Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it."

18 The salutation by the hand of me, Paul. Remember my bonds. May grace be with you. Amen.

Paul’s First Letter to the Thessalonians

1st Thessalonians | Προς Θεσσαλονικείς Α'

Chapter 1

The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindful of them Paul was at all times in thanksgiving and prayer, 1-4; and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith and conversion to God, 5-10.

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, 3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of God and our Father, 4 Knowing, brothers beloved by God, your election. 5 For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance, as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. 6 And you became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction with joy from the Holy Spirit, 7 So that you were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia. 8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God is spread abroad so that we do not need to speak anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had to you and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, 10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus who delivered us from the wrath to come.

Chapter 2

In what manner the gospel was brought and preached to the Thessalonians and in what sort also they received it, 1-17. A reason is rendered both why Paul was so long absent from them and also why he was so desirous to see them, 18-20.

1 For you yourselves, brothers, know our entering in to you, that it was not in vain. 2 But even after we had suffered before and were shamefully treated at Phillippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God with much contention. 3 For our exhortation was not from deceit, nor from impurity, nor in guile, 4 But as we were allowed by God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, who tries our hearts. 5 For neither at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), 6 Nor from men did we seek glory, neither from you, nor yet from others, when we might have asserted authority as the apostles of Christ. 7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nursing mother cherishes her children. 8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because you were dear to us.

9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil, how, laboring night and day so that we would not be chargeable to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God. 10 You are witnesses, and God also, how holy, justly, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe, 11 As you know how we exhorted, comforted, and charged each of you, as a father does his children, 12 That you would walk worthy of God, who has called you into his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, because, when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you did not receive it as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually works also in you who believe. 14 For you, brothers, became followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus. For you also have suffered similar things from your own countrymen, even as they have from the Jews, 15 Who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets and have persecuted us. And they do not please God and are contrary to all men, 16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they may be saved—so as to always fill up the measure of their sins. But the wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brothers, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavored the more abundantly to see your face with great desire. 18 Therefore, we would have come to you, even I, Paul, once and again, but Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? 20 For you are our glory and joy.

Chapter 3

Paul testifies his great love to the Thessalonians, partly by sending Timothy to them to strengthen and comfort them; partly by rejoicing in their well doing, 1-9; and partly by praying for them and desiring a safe coming to them, 10-13.

1 Therefore, when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone, 2 And sent Timothy, our brother and minister of God and our fellow-laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and to comfort you concerning your faith, 3 So that no man should be moved by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are appointed to it. 4 For truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to pass, and you know. 5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter may have tempted you and our labor be in vain.

6 But now when Timothy came from you to us and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity and that you have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you, 7 Therefore, brothers, by your faith we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress. 8 For now we live, if you stand firm in the Lord. 9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God, 10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our way to you. 12 And may the Lord make you to increase and abound in love toward one another and toward all men, even as we do toward you, 13 To the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

Chapter 4

Paul exhorts them to go forward in all manner of godliness, 1-5; to live in holiness and justly, 6-8; to love one another, 9, 10; and quietly to follow their own business, 11, 12; and last of all, to sorrow moderately for the dead, 13-16. And to this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the resurrection and second coming of Christ to judgment, 17, 18.

1 Furthermore then, we implore you, brothers, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as you have received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, so you would abound more and more. 2 For you know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification: that you should abstain from lewdness; 4 That each of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor, 5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles who do not know God; 6 And that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter, because the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. 7 For God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness. 8 He therefore who despises, does not despise man, but God, who has also given to us his Holy Spirit.

9 But concerning brotherly love, you do not need that I write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. 10 And indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we implore you, brothers, that you increase more and more, 11 And that you make it your ambition to be quiet, to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you, 12 So that you may walk honestly toward those who are outside and that you may have need of nothing.

13 But I do not wish to have you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, so that you do not sorrow, even as others who have no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so those also who sleep in Jesus, God will bring with him. 15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain to the coming of the Lord shall not precede those who are asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ shall rise first. 17 Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. 18 Therefore, comfort one another with these words.

Chapter 5

Paul proceeds in the former description of Christ's coming to judgment, 1-15; and gives various precepts, 16-22; and then concludes the epistle, 23-28.

1 But of the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that I write to you. 2 For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord comes even as a thief in the night. 3 For when they say, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction comes upon them, as travail upon a woman with child, and they shall not escape. 4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness so that the day should overtake you as a thief. 5 You are all children of light and children of the day. We are not of the night, nor of darkness. 6

Therefore, let us not sleep as others do, but let us watch and be sober. 7 For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunken, are drunken in the night. 8 But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. 9 For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 Who died for us, so that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. 11 Therefore, comfort yourselves together and edify one another, even as you also do.

12 And we implore you, brothers, to regard those who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, 13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work’s sake. And be at peace among yourselves. 14 Now we exhort you, brothers, warn those who are disorderly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, and be patient toward all men. 15 See that no one renders evil for evil to any man, but always follow that which is good, both among yourselves and to all men. 16 Rejoice evermore. 17 Pray without ceasing. 18 In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 19 Do not quench the Spirit. 20 Do not despise prophesyings. 21 Prove all things. Hold firmly to that which is good. 22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And may the very God of peace sanctify you wholly. And may your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 Faithful is he who calls you, who also will do it.

25 Brothers, pray for us.

26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. 27 I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the holy brothers.

28 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Paul's Second Letter to the Thessalonians

2nd Thessalonians | Προς Θεσσαλονικείς Β'

Chapter 1

Paul certifies them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience, 1-10; and in addition uses various reasons for the comforting of them in persecution, of which the chief is taken from the righteous judgment of God, 11, 12.

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brothers, as it is proper, because your faith grows exceedingly and the charity of each one of you all toward one another abounds, 4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure. 5 This is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer, 6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to those who trouble you, 7 And rest to you who are troubled, and also to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, 8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on those who do not know God and who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 They shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord "and from the glory of his power," 10 When he comes to be glorified in his saints and to be admired by all those who believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day. 11 Therefore, we also pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness and the work of faith with power, 12 So that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you and you in him, according to the grace of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.9]: Isaiah 2:10, 19, 21.[All LXX]

Chapter 2

Paul urges them to continue steadfast in the truth received, 1, 2; shows that there shall be a departure from the faith, 3-8, and a revealing of Antichrist before the day of the Lord comes, 9-14; and thereupon repeats his former exhortation and prays for them, 15-17.

1 Now we implore you, brothers, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and by our gathering to him, 2 That you not be soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, by word, nor by letter as from us, saying that the day of Christ is at hand. 3 Let no man deceive you by any means. For that day shall not come unless the falling away comes first and that man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, 4 Who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped, so that he, as God, sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. 5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? 6 And now you know that which restrains him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. 7 For the mystery of iniquity is already working. Only he who now restrains will restrain until he is taken out of the way. 8 And then that Wicked One is revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the spirit of his mouth and will destroy with the brightness of his coming, 9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power, signs, and lying wonders, 10 And with all deceitfulness of unrighteousness in those who perish because they did not receive the love of the truth so that they might be saved. 11 And for this cause God will send them strong delusion so that they should believe a lie, 12 So that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brothers, beloved by the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth, 14 To which he called you by our gospel to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 Therefore, brothers, stand firm and hold the traditions which you have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God, even our Father, who has loved us and has given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.

Chapter 3

Paul craves their prayers for himself, 1, 2; testifies what confidence he has in them, 3, 4; makes request to God on their behalf, 5; gives them various precepts, especially to shun idleness and ill company, 6-15; and then concludes with prayer and salutation, 16-18.

1 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you, 2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men, for all men do not have faith. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and keep you from evil. 4 And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things which we command you. 5 And may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks disorderly and not after the tradition which he received from us. 7 For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us. For we did not behave ourselves disorderly among you, 8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nothing, but wrought with labor and toil night and day so that we might not be chargeable to any of you, 9 Not because we do not have power, but to make ourselves a pattern to you to follow us. 10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you: that if any would not work, neither should he eat. 11 For we hear that there are some who walk among you disorderly, not working at all, but are busy-bodies. 12 Now those who are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ that they work with quietness and eat their own bread. 13 But you, brothers, do not be weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man does not obey our word by this epistle, note that man and have no company with him so that he may be ashamed. 15 Yet do not count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. May the Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is the token in every epistle. Thus I write. 18 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Paul’s First Letter to Timothy

1st Timothy | Προς Τιμόθεον Α'

Chapter 1

Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given to him by Paul at his going to Macedonia, 1-4. Of the right use and end of the law, 5-10. Of Paul’s calling to be an apostle, 11-19; and Hymeneus and Alexander, 20.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Savior and Lord Jesus Christ, who is our hope,

2 To Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I implored you when I went into Macedonia, remain at Ephesus so that you might charge some that they teach no other doctrine, 4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions rather than godly edifying which is in faith. 5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned, 6 From which some, having swerved, have turned aside to vain jangling, 7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor concerning what they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good if a man uses it lawfully, 9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers, 10 For lewd persons, for those who defile themselves with mankind, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine, 11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord who has enabled me, because he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. 13 I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and injurious, but I obtained mercy because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 14 And the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation: that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. 16 However, for this cause I obtained mercy, so that in me as chief, Jesus Christ might show forth all his patience for an example to those who should hereafter believe in him to eternal life. 17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, God the only wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before to you, so that by them you may war a good warfare, 19 Holding faith and a good conscience, which some having thrust away, have made shipwreck concerning faith, 20 Of whom are Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I have delivered to Satan so that they may learn not to blaspheme.

Chapter 2

Paul gives direction to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reason why, 1-7. The duties of men and women respectively concerning public prayer, 8-10. Women are not permitted to teach, 11-14. And a promise given for their encouragement in child-bearing, 15.

1 I exhort therefore, that first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, 2 For kings, and for all who are in authority, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, 4 Who wishes all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, 6 Who gave himself a ransom for all—the testimony in its own due times, 7 For which I am ordained a preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, and do not lie), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I wish therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, [I wish] that women adorn themselves in decent apparel with modesty and sobriety, not with braided hair, gold, pearls, or costly array, 10 But (which is proper for women professing godliness) with good works. 11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. 12 But I do not allow a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. 13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve. 14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and fell into transgression. 15 But she will be saved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith, charity, and holiness, with sobriety.

Chapter 3

How overseers and deacons should be qualified, 1-13; and to what end Paul wrote to Timothy about these things, 14. Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed, 15, 16.

1 This is a true saying: if a man desires the office of an overseer, he desires a good work. 2 An overseer then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, apt to teach, 3 Not given to wine, not quarrelsome, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous, 4 One who rules his own house well, having his children in subjection with all gravity 5 (For if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?), 6 Not a novice, lest, being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover, he must have a good report with those who are outside, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise, the deacons must be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre, 9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And let these also first be proved. Then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. 11 Likewise, their wives must be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. 12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For those who have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree and great boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly. 15 But if I delay, [I write] so that you may know how you ought to behave yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great.

> God was manifest in the flesh, / > justified in the Spirit, / > seen by angels, / > preached to the Gentiles, / > believed in by the world, / > and received up into glory.

Chapter 4

Paul foretells that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith, 1-5. And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnishes him with various precepts belonging thereto, 6-16.

1 Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their conscience seared with a hot iron, 3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods, which God has created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be refused, if received with thanksgiving, 5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If you put the brothers in remembrance of these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished by the words of faith and of good doctrine, to which you have attained. 7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables and exercise yourself rather to godliness. 8 For bodily exercise profits little, but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come. 9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation. 10 For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.

11 Command and teach these things. 12 Let no man despise your youth, but be an example of the believers in word, in deportment, in charity, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. 13 Until I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine. 14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 15 Meditate upon these things. Give yourself wholly to them so that your profiting may appear to all. 16 Take heed to yourself and to your doctrine. Continue in them. For in doing this you will both save yourself and those who hear you.

Chapter 5

Rules to be observed in reproving, 1, 2. Of widows, 3-16. Of elders, 17-22. A precept for Timothy's health, 23. Some men's sins go before to judgment and some men's sins follow after, 24, 25.

1 Do not rebuke an elder, but entreat him as a father, and the younger men as brothers,
2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honor widows who are widows indeed. 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety at home and to requite their parents, for that is good and acceptable before God. 5 Now she who is a widow indeed and desolate trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. 6 But she who lives in pleasure is dead while she lives. 7 And these things give in charge, so that they may be blameless. 8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he has denied the faith and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let a woman be enrolled as a widow not under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, 10 Well reported of for good works, if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work. 11 But refuse the younger widows, for when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they will marry, 12 Having condemnation, because they have cast off their first faith. 13 And at the same time, they learn to be idle, wandering around from house to house, and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not. 14 I wish therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, and give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 15 For some are already turned aside after Satan. 16 If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and do not let the church be charged, so that it may relieve those who are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders who lead well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine. 18 For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox that treads out the grain," and, "The laborer is worthy of his hire." 19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder, except before two or three witnesses. 20 Rebuke those who sin in the sight of all so that others may also fear. 21 I charge you before God and the Lord Jesus Christ and the elect angels, that you observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Do not hastily lay hands on any man, neither be partaker of other men's sins. Keep yourself pure.

23 No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are evident, going before them to judgment, and for some men, they follow after. 25 Likewise also, the good works of some are evident, and those that are otherwise cannot be hid.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.18]: Deuteronomy 25:4.[LXX]

Chapter 6

Of the duty of servants, 1, 2. Not to have fellowship with newfangled teachers, 3-5. Godliness is great gain, 6-9; and love of money the root of all evil, 10. From what Timothy is to flee and what he is to follow, 11-16; and of what he is to admonish the rich, 17-19. He is to keep the purity of true doctrine and to avoid profane babblings, 20, 21.

1 Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor so that the name of God and his doctrine may not be blasphemed. 2 And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers, but rather do them service because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. Teach and exhort these things.

3 If any man teaches otherwise and does not consent to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the doctrine which is according to godliness, 4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, from which comes envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, 5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, supposing gain to be godliness. Withdraw yourself from such. 6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. 8 And having food and clothing, with these let us be content. 9 But those who wish to be rich fall into temptation, a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition. 10 For the love of money is the root of all evil, which, while some have coveted, they have erred from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But you, O man of God, flee from these things and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and meekness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of eternal life to which you are also called and have professed a good profession before many witnesses. 13 I give you charge in the sight of God, who makes all things alive, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified a good confession, 14 That you keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Which at the right time he will show who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords, 16 Who only has immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach, whom no man has seen, nor can see, to whom be honor and everlasting power. Amen.

17 Charge those who are rich in this world, that they not be high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy. 18 Charge them to do good and that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate, 19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, so that they may take hold of eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to your trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings and oppositions of what is falsely called knowledge, 21 Which some, professing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

Paul’s Second Letter to Timothy

2nd Timothy | Προς Τιμόθεον Β'

Chapter 1

Paul’s love for Timothy, and the unfeigned faith which was in Timothy himself, his mother, and grandmother, 1-5. He is exhorted to stir up the gift of God which was in him, 6, 7; to be steadfast and patient in persecution, 8-12; and to persist in the form and truth of that doctrine which he had learned from him, 13, 14. Phygellus and Hermogenes and such as those are noted, and Onesiphorus is highly commended, 15-18.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of you in my prayers night and day, 4 Greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, so that I may be filled with joy, 5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded that is in you also. 6 For this cause I put you in remembrance that you stir up the gift of God which is in you by the imposition of my hands. 7 For God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Do not be therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but be partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God. 9 He has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the world began, 10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 11 For this, I am appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. 12 For this cause, I also suffer these things. Nevertheless, I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him for that day. 13 Hold firm to the form of sound words, which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14 Keep that good thing which was committed to you by the Holy Spirit which dwells in us.

15 This you know, that all those who are in Asia are turned away from me, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. 16 May the Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my bonds. 17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently and found me. 18 May the Lord grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord in that day. And in all that he ministered to me at Ephesus, you know very well.

Chapter 2

Timothy is exhorted again to constancy and perseverance, and to do the duty of a faithful servant of the Lord in dividing the word rightly and avoiding profane and vain babblings, 1-16. Of Hymeneus and Philetus, 17, 18. The foundation of the Lord is sure, 19-21. He is taught of what to beware, what to follow after, and in what manner the servant of the Lord ought to behave himself, 22-26.

1 You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. 3 Therefore, endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 4 No man who wars entangles himself with the affairs of this life so that he may please him who has chosen him to be a soldier. 5 And if a man also strives for masteries, yet he is not crowned unless he strives lawfully. 6 The farmer who labors must be first partaker of the fruits. 7 Consider what I say, and may the Lord give you understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the offspring of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel. 9 For this I suffer trouble as an evil-doer, even to bonds, but the word of God is not bound. 10 Therefore, I endure all things for the sake of the elect so that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 11 This is a faithful saying:

> "For if we are dead with him, we shall also live with him.
>
> 12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him. /
> If we deny him, he will also deny us.
>
> 13 If we do not believe, yet he abides faithful. /
> He cannot deny himself."

14 Put others in remembrance of these things, charging them before the Lord that they do not contend about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. 15 Give diligence to show yourself approved to God, a workman who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 16 But shun profane and vain babblings, for they will increase to more ungodliness. 17 And their word will spread like gangrene, of whom are Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is past already, and they overthrow the faith of some. 19 Nevertheless, the foundation of God stands firm, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are his," and, "Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth. Some are for honor and some for dishonor. 21 If a man therefore will cleanse himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and profitable for the master's use, and prepared for every good work. 22 Flee also youthful lusts, but follow righteousness, faith, charity, and peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But avoid foolish and unlearned questions, knowing that they engender contentions. 24 And the servant of the Lord must not contend, but be gentle to all men, apt to teach, patient, 25 In meekness instructing those who oppose themselves, if God perhaps will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth, 26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.19]: Numbers 16:5.[LXX]

Chapter 3

Paul notifies Timothy of the times to come, 1-5; describes the enemies of the truth, 6-9; propounds to him his own example, 10-15; and commends the holy Scriptures, 16, 17.

1 Know this also, that in the last days perilous times will come. 2 For men will be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3 Without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, lacking self-control, fierce, despisers of those who are good, 4 Traitors, headstrong, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God, 5 Having a form of godliness, but denying its power. Turn away from such. 6 For of this sort are those who creep into houses and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with diverse lusts, 7 Ever learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. 8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth—men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith. 9 But they shall proceed no further, for their folly will be manifest to all men, as theirs also was.

10 But you have fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, patience, charity, endurance, 11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra. I endured such persecutions, and out of them all the Lord delivered me. 12 And indeed all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and seducers will become worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14 But continue in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, 15 And that from a child you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are able to make you wise to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 16 All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness, 17 So that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly furnished to all good works.

Chapter 4

Paul exhorts Timothy to do his duty with all care and diligence, 1-5; certifies him of the nearness of his death, 6-8; desires him to come speedily to him and to bring Mark with him and certain things which he wrote for, 9-13; warns him to beware of Alexander the smith, 14, 15; informs him what had happened to him at his first answering, 16-18; and soon after he concludes the letter, 19-22.

1 I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom, 2 Preach the word, be instant in season and out of season, reprove, rebuke, and exhort with all patience and doctrine. 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts they will multiply for themselves teachers, having itching ears, 4 And they will turn away their ears from the truth and will be turned to fables. 5 But watch in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, and make full proof of your ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. 7 I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith. 8 From now on, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me at that day, and not to me only, but to all those also who love his appearing.

9 Do your diligence to come to me shortly. 10 For Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and has departed to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. 11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with you, for he is profitable to me for the ministry. 12 And I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. 13 The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when you come, bring it with you, and also the books, but especially the parchments. 14 Alexander the copper-smith did me much evil—may the Lord reward him according to his works— 15 Of whom you also must be aware, for he has greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first defense no man stood with me, but all men forsook me. I pray to God that it may not be laid to their charge. 17 But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me so that by me the preaching might be fully known and that all the Gentiles might hear. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. 18 And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and will preserve me to his heavenly kingdom, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. 20 Erastus stayed at Corinth, but Trophimus I have left sick at Miletum. 21 Do your diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and also Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers.

22 May the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

Paul’s Letter to Titus

Titus | Προς Τίτον

Chapter 1

For what end Titus was left in Crete, 1-5. How those who are to be chosen ministers ought to be qualified, 6-10. The mouths of evil teachers to be stopped, 11; and what manner of men they are, 12-16.

1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God’s elect and the acknowledging of the truth which is according to godliness, 2 In hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began, 3 But has in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior,

4 To Titus, my own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

5 For this cause I left you in Crete: that you should set in order the things that are lacking and appoint elders in every city, as I had appointed you, 6 If anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or disorderly. 7 For an overseer must be blameless as the steward of God, not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, not quarrelsome, not given to filthy lucre, 8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate, 9 Holding firm to the faithful word as he has been taught, so that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convict the gainsayers.

10 For there are many disorderly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision. 11 Their mouths must be stopped, seeing that they subvert whole households, teaching things which they ought not for the sake of sordid gain. 12 One of their own, even a prophet of their own, said, "The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, idle gluttons." 13 This testimony is true; therefore, rebuke them sharply so that they may be sound in the faith, 14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn from the truth. 15 To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure, but even their mind and conscience is defiled. 16 They profess that they know God, but in works they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and worthless for every good work.

Chapter 2

Directions given to Titus both for his doctrine and life, 1-8. Of the duty of servants and in general of all Christians, 9-15.

1 But speak the things which are fitting for sound doctrine. 2 The aged men are to be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. 3 The aged women likewise are to be in behavior as is appropriate for holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things, 4 So that they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers of the home, good, obedient to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be blasphemed. 6 Likewise, exhort the young men to be sober-minded. 7 In all things show yourself a pattern of good works. In your doctrine show integrity, gravity, sincerity, 8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that he who is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say concerning you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient to their own masters and to please them well in all things, not talking back, 10 Not stealing, but showing all good fidelity, so that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

11 For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, 12 Teaching us, that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and piously in this present age, 13 Looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ, 14 Who gave himself for us so that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 Speak these things, and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise you.

Chapter 3

Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach and not teach, 1-9. He is to reject obstinate heretics, 10, 11. He appoints him time and place wherein he should come to him, 12-15.

1 Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready for every good work, 2 To speak evil of no man, to not be brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness to all men. 3 For we ourselves were also sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving diverse lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. 4 But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward man appeared— 5 Not by works of righteousness which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy—he saved us by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, 6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, 7 So that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I wish that you affirm constantly so that those who have believed in God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men. 9 But avoid foolish questions, genealogies, contentions, and strivings about the law, for they are unprofitable and vain. 10 Reject a man who is a heretic after the first and second admonition, 11 Knowing that he who is such is perverted and sins, being self-condemned.

12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. 13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently so that nothing may be lacking for them. 14 And let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses so that they may not be unfruitful.

15 All who are with me salute you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Paul’s Letter to Philemon

Philemon | Προς Φιλήμονα

Chapter 1

Paul rejoices to hear of the faith and love of Philemon, whom he desires to forgive his servant Onesimus and lovingly to receive him again, 1-25.

1 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our dearly beloved and fellow-laborer, 2 To our beloved Apphia, to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers, 5 Hearing of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all saints, 6 That the fellowship of your faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus. 7 For we have great joy and consolation in your love because the hearts of the saints are refreshed by you, brother.

8 Therefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to enjoin you to that which is appropriate, 9 Yet for love’s sake I rather implore you, being such a one as Paul the aged and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I implore you for my son Onesimus whom I have begotten in my bonds, 11 Who in time past was to you unprofitable, but now profitable to you and to me, 12 Whom I have sent back. Therefore, receive him (that is, my own heart), 13 Whom I wished to have retained with me, so that in your stead he might have ministered to me in the bonds of the gospel. 14 But without your consent I would do nothing so that your benefit would not be according to necessity, but willingly. 15 For perhaps he was therefore parted from you for a season so that you should receive him forever, 16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

17 If you account me therefore a partner, receive him as you would me. 18 If he has wronged you or owes you anything, put that on my account. 19 I, Paul, have written it with my own hand, I will repay it—although I do not say to you that you owe to me even your own self as well. 20 Indeed, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in your obedience I wrote to you, knowing that you will also do more than I say.

22 But at the same time prepare me also a lodging, for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given to you.

23 Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, salutes you, 24 As do Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Lucas, my fellow-laborers.

25 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

The Letter to the Hebrews

Hebrews | Προς Εβραίους

Chapter 1

Christ in these last times coming to us from the Father, 1-3, is preferred above the angels, both in person and office, 4-14.

1 God, who at many times and in diverse manners spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, 2 Has in these last days spoken to us by his Son, whom he has appointed heir of all things, by whom he also made the universe. 3 He is the brightness of his glory and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself made purification of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they have.

5 For to which of the angels did he at any time say,

> "You are my Son. /
> This day I have begotten you,"

and again,

> "I will be a Father to him, / > and he shall be a Son to me"?

6 And again, when he brings the first-begotten into the world, he says,

> "And let all the angels of God worship him."

7 And of the angels he says,

> "He makes his angels spirits, / > and his ministers a flame of fire."

8 But to the Son, he says,

> "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. /
> A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of your kingdom.
>
> 9 You have loved righteousness and hated iniquity; / > therefore, God, even your God, has anointed you / > with the oil of gladness above your fellows."

10 And,

"You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of your hands.

11 They shall perish, but you remain.
And they all shall become old as a garment does.

12 And as a vesture you will fold them up,
and they shall be changed.
But you are the same,
and your years shall not fail."

13 But to which of the angels did he at any time say,

"Sit on my right hand
until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet"?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who shall inherit salvation?

Chapter 2

We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, 1-4; and that because he condescended to take our nature upon him, 5-13; as it was necessary, 14-18.

1 Therefore, we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. 2 For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward, 3 How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? It was spoken at the first by the Lord and was confirmed to us by those who heard him, 4 God also bearing them testimony, both with signs and wonders, and with diverse miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will.

5 For to the angels he has not put in subjection the world to come, concerning which we speak. 6 But someone in a certain place testified, saying,

"What is man that you are mindful of him,
or the son of man that you visit him?

> 7 You made him a little lower than the angels. /
> You crowned him with glory and honor / > and set him over the works of your hands.
> 8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet."

For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not made subject to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him. 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor, so that he, by the grace of God, should taste death for every man.

10 For it was fitting for him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers, 12 Saying,

> "I will declare your name to my brothers. /
> In the midst of the church I will sing praise to you."

13 And again,

> "I will put my trust in him."

And again,

> "Behold, I and the children which God has given me."

14 Since then the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same so that through death he might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 And deliver those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For truly he does not give help to angels, but he gives help to the offspring of Abraham. 17 Therefore, in all things it behooved him to be made like his brothers so that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. 18 For in that he himself has suffered, being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Chapter 3

Christ is more worthy than Moses, 1-6; therefore if we do not believe in him, we shall be more worthy of punishment than hard-hearted Israel, 7-19.

1 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus, 2 Who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also Moses was "faithful in all his house." 3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, just as he who has built the house has more honor than the house. 4

For every house is built by some man, but he who built all things is God. 5 And Moses truly was "faithful in all his house" as a servant for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken. 6 But Christ is a son over his own house. We are his house, if we hold firmly to the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope steadfast to the end.

7 Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says,

> "Today if you will hear his voice,
>
> 8 Do not harden your hearts as in the provocation, / > as in the day of testing in the wilderness,
>
> 9 When your fathers tested me, proved me, / > and saw my works forty years.
>
> 10 Therefore, I was grieved with that generation, / > and said, 'They always err in their heart, / > and they have not known my ways.'
>
> 11 So I swore in my wrath, /
> 'They shall not enter into my rest.'"

12 Take heed, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God. 13 But exhort one another daily while it is called Today, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we are made partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end, 15 While it is said,

> "Today if you will hear his voice, /
> do not harden your hearts as in the provocation."

16 For who, when they had heard, provoked? Was it not all who came out of Egypt by Moses? 17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? Was it not with those who had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest, but to those who did not believe? 19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

Chapter 4

The Christian rest is attained by faith, 1-11. The power of God's word, 12, 13. By our high priest Jesus, the Son of God, 14, 15, we may and must go boldly to the throne of grace, 16.

1 Let us therefore fear while a promise of entering into his rest remains, lest any of you should seem to come short of it. 2 For the gospel was preached to us as well as to them.
But the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. 3 For we who have believed enter into rest, as he said,

> "As I have sworn in my wrath > that they shall not enter into my rest,"

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For he spoke in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: "And God rested the seventh day from all his works." 5 And in this place again,

> "They shall not enter into my rest."

6 Seeing therefore it remains that some must enter into it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of unbelief, 7 Again he limits a certain day, saying through David, "Today," after so long a time, as it is said,

> "Today, if you will hear his voice,
> do not harden your hearts."

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, then he would not afterward have spoken of another day. 9 There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. 10 For he who has entered into his rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as God did from his. 11 Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. 12
For the word of God is living, powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing apart of soul and spirit, of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 There is no creature that is not manifest in his sight. But all things are naked and opened to the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to our profession. 15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but who was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. 16 Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace so that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Chapter 5

The honor of our Savior's priesthood, 1-10. Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved, 11-14.

1 For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God so that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2 He can have compassion on the ignorant and on those who are out of the way, for he himself also is compassed with infirmity. 3 And by reason of this he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. 4 And no man takes this honor to himself, but he is called by God, as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ did not glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him,

> "You are my Son. /
> Today I have begotten you,"

6 As he also says in another place,

> "You are a priest forever /
> after the order of Melchizedek."

11 Concerning him, we have many things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing you have become dull of hearing. 12 For when by the time you ought to be teachers, you have need of someone to teach you again what are the first principles of the oracles of God, and have become those who have need of milk and not of strong food. 13 For everyone who partakes of milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. 14 But strong food belongs to those who are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Chapter 6

The author exhorts not to fall back from the faith, 1-10; but to be steadfast, 11, diligent, and patient to wait upon God, 12; because God is most sure in his promise, 13-20.

1 Therefore, leaving the first principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on to perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, 2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of the resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3 And this we will do, if God permits. 4 For it is impossible for those who have been once enlightened, have tasted the heavenly gift, have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 And have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, 6 If they fall away, to renew them again to repentance, seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God again and put him to an open shame. 7 For the ground which drinks in the rain that comes often upon it and brings forth herbs fit for them by whom it is dressed receives a blessing from God. 8 But that which bears thorns and briers is rejected and is near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, though we speak in this manner. 10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which you have shown toward his name, in that you have ministered to the saints and still minister. 11 And we desire each of you to show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end, 12 So that you do not become slothful, but followers of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself, 14 Saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you." 15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16 For men truly swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all contradiction. 17 In this, God, more abundantly willing to show to the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath, 18 So that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us. 19 This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters into that within the veil, 20 Where the forerunner has for us entered, even Jesus, made a high "priest forever after the order of Melchizedek."

[v.14]: Genesis 22:17.[LXX] [v.20]: Psalm 110:4.[LXX]

Chapter 7

Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchizedek, 1-10, and so far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order, 11-28.

1 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace, 3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, abides a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the plunder. 5 And truly those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brothers, though they come from the loins of Abraham. 6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. 7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed by the better. 8 And here men who die receive tithes, but there he receives them, of whom it is testified that he lives. 9 And as I may say, Levi also, who receives tithes, payed tithes through Abraham. 10 For he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchizedek and not be called after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change of the law also. 13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertains to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang from Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. 15 And it is yet far more evident if after the similitude of Melchizedek there arises another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. 17 For he testifies,

> "You are a priest forever /
> after the order of Melchizedek."

18 For there is truly a setting aside of the preceding commandment on account of its weakness and unprofitableness. 19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the introduction of a better hope did, by which we draw near to God. 20 And since he was not made priest without an oath 21 (For those priests were made without an oath, but this with an oath by him who said to him,

> "The Lord swore and will not repent, /
> 'You are a priest forever /
> after the order of Melchizedek'"),

22 By so much Jesus has become surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests because they were not allowed to continue by reason of death. 24 But this man, because he continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood; 25 Therefore, he is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God by him, seeing he always lives to make intercession for them.

26 For such a high priest was fitting for us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens, 27 Who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins and then for the people’s. For this he did once when he offered up himself. 28 For the law appoints men as high priests who have infirmity, but the word of the oath which was after the law appoints the Son who has been perfected forevermore.

Chapter 8

By the eternal priesthood of Christ the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished, 1-6; and the temporal covenant with the fathers is abolished by the eternal covenant of the Gospel, 7-13.

1 Now of the things which we have spoken, this is the sum: we have such a high priest who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, 2 A minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. 3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices; therefore, it is of necessity that this man should have something also to offer. 4 For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest, seeing there are priests who offer gifts according to the law, 5 Who serve to the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he says, "See that you make all things according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain." 6 But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he says,

> "'Behold, the days come,' says the Lord, /
> 'when I will make a new covenant / > with the house of Israel / > and with the house of Judah,
>
> 9 Not according to the covenant / > that I made with their fathers / > in the day when I took them by the hand / > to lead them out of the land of Egypt, / > for they did not continue in my covenant, / > and I did not regard them,' says the Lord.
>
> 10 'For this is the covenant / > that I will make with the house of Israel /
> after those days,' says the Lord. /
> 'I will put my laws into their mind / > and write them in their hearts. /
> And I will be to them a God, / > and they shall be to me a people.
>
> 11 And they shall not each teach his neighbor / > and each his brother, saying, "Know the Lord," / > for all shall know me, / > from the least to the greatest.
>
> 12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, / > and their sins and their iniquities /
> I will no longer remember.'"

13 In that he says, "A new covenant," he has made the first old. Now that which decays and grows old is ready to vanish away.

Chapter 9

The description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, 1-10; which are far inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ, 11-28.

1 Then truly the first covenant also had ordinances of divine service and an earthly sanctuary. 2 For there was a tabernacle made. In the first part was the candlestick, the table, and the show-bread, which is called the holy place. 3 And after the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the holy of holies, 4 Which had the golden censer and the ark of the covenant overlaid around with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant, 5 And over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy-seat, of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests always went into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. 7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the errors of the people. 8 The Holy Spirit is signifying this: that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest while the first tabernacle was still standing. 9 This was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices that could not make him who did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience, 10 Which stood only in foods and drinks, diverse washings, and carnal ordinances imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ, having come as a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. 13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean sanctify to the purifying of the flesh, 14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, so that, by means of death for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, those who are called may receive the promise of eternal inheritance. 16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. 17 For a testament is of force after men are dead; otherwise, it is of no strength at all while the testator lives. 18 Therefore, even the first testament was not dedicated without blood. 19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, 20 Saying, "This is the blood of the testament which God has commanded you." 21 And likewise, he sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry with blood. 22 And almost all things are by the law cleansed with blood. And without the shedding of blood there is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ has not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us, 25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place every year with blood of others. 26 For then he would have had to suffer often since the foundation of the world. But now once in the end of the age he has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. 27 And as it is appointed to men once to die and after this the judgment, 28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many, and to those who look for him, he will appear the second time without sin for salvation.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.20]: Exodus 24:8.[LXX] (paraphrased)

Chapter 10

The weakness of the law sacrifices, 1-9. The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered, 10-13, forever has taken away sins, 14-18. An exhortation to hold firmly to the faith with patience and thanksgiving, 19-39.

1 For the law, having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they offered year by year continually, make perfect those who draw near. 2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? For the worshipers, once cleansed, would no longer have had consciousness of sins. 3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. 4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Therefore, when he comes into the world, he says,

> "Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, /
> but you have prepared me a body.
>
> 6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin you have had no pleasure.
>
> 7 Then I said, 'Behold, I come /
> (in the volume of the book it is written concerning me) / > to do your will, O God.'"

8 Above, when he said, "'Sacrifice and offering' and 'burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin you did not desire, neither had pleasure in them'"—which are offered by the law— 9 Then he said, "Behold, I come to do your will, O God." He takes away the first so that he may establish the second, 10 By which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest stands daily ministering and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. 12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, "sat down on the right hand" of God, 13 From now on waiting "until his enemies are made his footstool for his feet." 14 For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are sanctified. 15 Of this the Holy Spirit is also a witness to us. For after that, he said,

16 "'This is the covenant / that I will make with them /
after those days,' says the Lord, /
'I will put my laws into their hearts, / and in their minds I will write them,

17 'And their sins and iniquities /
I will no longer remember.'"

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no longer any offering for sin.

19 Therefore, brothers, having boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 By a new and living way which he has dedicated for us through the veil, that is to say, his flesh, 21 And having a high priest over the house of God, 22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold firmly to the profession of our faith without wavering, for he is faithful who promised. 24 And let us consider one another to excite to love and to good works, 25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another, and so much the more, as you see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful apprehension of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. 28 He who despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses. 29 How much more severe a punishment do you suppose he shall be thought worthy of who has trodden under foot the Son of God, has counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has done an indignity to the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know him who has said, "Vengeance belongs to me. I will recompense," says the Lord. And again, "The Lord will judge his people." 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great fight of afflictions, 33 Partly while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and afflictions, and partly while you became companions of those who were thus used. 34 For you had compassion on me in my bonds and joyfully took the seizing of your goods, knowing in yourselves that you have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. 35 Therefore, do not cast away your confidence, which has great recompense of reward. 36 For you have need of patience so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise.

37 "For yet a little while, /
"and he who is coming will come and will not delay.

38 Now the just shall live by faith. /
But if any man draws back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him."

39 But we are not of those who draw back to perdition, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

Chapter 11

What faith is, 1-5. Without faith we cannot please God, 6. The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time, 7-40.

1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. 2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the universe was framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which appeared. 4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained testimony that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts. And by faith he, being dead, yet speaks. 5 By faith Enoch was translated so that he should not see death, "and was not found, because God had translated him." For before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. 6 But without faith it is impossible to please him. For he who comes to God must believe that he exists and that he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him. 7 By faith Noah, being warned by God of things not seen as yet and moved with fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his house, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should afterward receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out not knowing where he was going. 9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. 10 For he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God. 11 Through faith, Sarah herself also received strength to conceive offspring, and delivered a child when she was past age, since she judged him faithful who had promised. 12 Therefore, there sprang even from one—and him as good as dead—so many as the stars of the sky in multitude and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. 15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came, they might have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac. And he who had received the promises offered up his only-begotten son, 18 Of whom it was said, "In Isaac your offspring shall be called." 19 He accounted that God was able to raise him even from the dead, from where also he received him in a figure. 20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. 21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph "and worshiped while leaning upon the top of his staff." 22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents because they saw he was an exceedingly fair child, and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. 24 By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season, 26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, for he had respect to the recompense of the reward. 27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king, and he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. 28 Through faith he kept the passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the first-born should touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as if by dry land, which the Egyptians essaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encompassed seven days. 31 By faith the harlot Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, as she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, of Barak, of Samson, of Jephthah, of David, of Samuel, and of the prophets, 33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, and turned to flight the armies of the foreigners. 35 Women received their dead raised to life again. Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, so that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36 Others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings and also of bonds and imprisonment. 37 They were stoned. They were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with the sword. They wandered around in sheep-skins and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented 38 (Of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And all of these, having obtained a good report through faith, did not receive the promise— 40 God having provided something better for us—so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

Chapter 12

An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness, 1-21. A commendation of the new testament above the old, 22-29.

1 Therefore, seeing we also are encompassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily besets us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, 2 Looking to Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 Consider him who endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest you be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin. 5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to children:

> "My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord,
> nor faint when you are rebuked by him.
>
> 6 For whom the Lord loves he chastens, > and scourges every son whom he receives."

7 If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons. For what son is he whom the father does not chasten? 8 But if you are without chastisement, of which all are partakers, then you are illegitimate sons and not sons. 9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live? 10 For they truly for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure, but he for our profit, so that we might be partakers of his holiness. 11 Now no chastening for the present seems to be joyous, but grievous. Nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who are exercised by it.

12 Therefore, "lift up the weakened hands and the feeble knees," 13 And make straight paths for your feet so that what is lame may not be turned out of the way, but rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and also holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. 15 Look diligently, lest any man fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up, trouble you, and by it many be defiled; 16 Lest there be any fornicator or profane person like Esau, who sold his birth-right for one morsel of food. 17 For you know that afterward, when he wished to have inherited the blessing, he was rejected. For he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For you have not come to the mountain that might be touched and that burned with fire, nor to blackness, to darkness, to tempest, 19 To the sound of a trumpet, or the voice of words, which those who heard the voice entreated that the word should not be spoken to them anymore. 20 For they could not endure that which was commanded: "And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, 'it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart.'" 21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, "I exceedingly fear and tremble." 22 But you have come to mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, 23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born who are written in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24 To Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel.

25 See that you do not refuse him who speaks. For if those did not escape who refused him who spoke on earth, much more we shall not escape if we turn away from him who speaks from heaven. 26 His voice then shook the earth, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once more I do not shake the earth only, but also heaven." 27 And this word, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, so that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. 28 Therefore, receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear, 29 For "our God is a consuming fire."

Chapter 13

Various admonitions as to charity, 1-3; to honest life, 4; to avoid covetousness, 5, 6; to regard God's preachers, 7, 8; to take heed of strange doctrines, 9; to confess Christ, 10-15; to give alms, 16; to obey governors, 17; to pray for the apostles, 18, 19. The conclusion, 20-25.

1 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Do not be forgetful to show hospitality to strangers, for by this some have entertained angels unintentionally. 3 Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them, and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body. 4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled, but God will judge lewd persons and adulterers. 5 Let your manner of life be without covetousness, and be content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you, nor forsake you," 6 So that we may boldly say,

> "The Lord is my helper, / > and I will not fear / > what man shall do to me."

7 Remember your leaders, who spoke to you the word of God. Follow their faith, considering the end of their manner of life. 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. 9 Do not be carried away with diverse and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart is established with grace, not with foods, which have not profited those who have been occupied in them. 10 We have an altar, from which they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle. 11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp. 12 Therefore, Jesus also, so that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered outside the gate. 13 Let us go forth therefore to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach. 14 For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 Therefore, by him, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, "the fruit of our lips," giving thanks to his name. 16 But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey your leaders and submit yourselves, for they watch for your souls as those who must give account, so that they may do it with joy and not with grief, for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us, for we trust we have a good conscience, desiring to live honestly in all things. 19 But I implore you the rather to do this so that I may be restored to you more quickly.

20 Now may the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

22 And I implore you, brothers, bear with the word of exhortation, for I have written a letter to you in few words. 23 Know that our brother Timothy is set at liberty, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. 24 Salute all of your leaders and all the saints. Those of Italy salute you.

25 May grace be with you all. Amen.

The Letter from James

James | Ιακώβου

Chapter 1

We are to rejoice under the cross, 1-4; to ask patience of God, 5-12; and in our trials not to impute our weakness or sins to him, 13-18, but rather to listen to the word, meditate on it, and be doers of it, 19-25. Otherwise, men may only seem, but never be, truly religious, 26, 27.

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad: Greetings.

2 My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into diverse temptations, 3 Knowing that the trying of your faith works patience. 4 But let patience have her perfect work so that you may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives to all men liberally and without reproach, and it shall be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he who wavers is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. 7 For let that man not think that he shall receive anything from the Lord. 8 A man unsettled in his opinions is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted, 10 And the rich in that he is made low because he shall pass away as a flower of the grass. 11 For the sun arose with its burning heat and withered the grass. Its flower fell and the grace of its fashion perished. Likewise also, the rich man shall fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed is the man who endures temptation. For when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love him. 13 Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither does he tempt any man. 14 But every man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed. 15 Then when lust has conceived, it brings forth sin. And sin, when it is finished, brings forth death. 16 Do not err, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. 18 Of his own will he has begotten us with the word of truth so that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Therefore, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath, 20 For the wrath of man does not work the righteousness of God. 21 Therefore, lay apart all filthiness and overflow of wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 But be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. 23 For if any is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a mirror. 24 For he beholds himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what manner of man he was. 25 But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seems to be religious and does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man’s religion is vain. 27 Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich and despise the poor brothers, 1-12; rather we are to be loving and merciful, 13; and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 14-16; which is but a dead faith, 17, 18; the faith of devils, 19, 20; not of Abraham, 21-24; nor Rahab, 25, 26.

1 My brothers, do not have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. 2 For if a man comes into your assembly with a gold ring and in fine apparel, and also a poor man in vile clothing comes in, 3 And you have respect to him who wears the fine clothing and say to him, "Sit here in a good place," and say to the poor, "Stand there," or, "Sit here under my footstool," 4 Are you not then partial in yourselves and have become judges with evil thoughts? 5 Listen, my beloved brothers. Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him? 6 But you have despised the poor. Do rich men not oppress you and draw you before the judgment-seats? 7 Do they not blaspheme that worthy name by which you are called?

8 If you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. 9 But if you have respect to persons, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whoever keeps the whole law and yet offends in one point, he is guilty of all. 11 For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." Now if you commit no adultery, but you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. 12 Speak in such a manner and do in such a manner as those who are judged by the law of liberty. 13 For he shall have judgment without mercy who has shown no mercy. And mercy rejoices against judgment.

14 What does it profit, my brothers, if a man says he has faith and does not have works? Can faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, 16 And one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," and you do not give them those things which are needful to the body, what does it profit? 17 Likewise faith, if it does not have works, is dead, being alone.

18 Also a man may say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith without your works and I will show you my faith by my works. 19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. The demons also believe, and tremble. 20 But will you know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? 21 Was Abraham our father not justified by works when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? 22 Do you see how faith wrought with his works, and faith was made perfect by works? 23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness," and he was called the Friend of God. 24 You see then that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. 25 Likewise also, was Rahab the harlot not justified by works when she had received the messengers and had sent them out another way? 26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is also dead.

Chapter 3

We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others, 1-4; but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member, but a powerful instrument of much good and great harm, 5-12. Those who are truly wise are mild and peaceable without envying and strife, 13-18.

1 My brothers, do not become many teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. 2 For in many things we all offend. If any man does not offend in word, the same is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body. 3 Behold, we put bits in the mouths of horses so that they may obey us, and we direct their whole body. 4 Behold also the ships: though they are so great and are driven by fierce winds, yet they are directed with a very small helm, wherever the helmsman wills. 5 Likewise, the tongue is a little member and boasts great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindles! 6 And the tongue, that world of iniquity, is a fire. The tongue is set in our members as that which defiles the whole body and sets on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire from hell. 7 For every kind, both of beasts and of birds, both of creeping things and of animals in the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. 8 But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. 9 With this we bless God, even the Father, and with this we curse men, who are made after the similitude of God. 10 Out of the same mouth proceeds blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. 11 Does a fountain send forth at the same place sweet and bitter water? 12 Can the fig-tree, my brothers, bear olive-berries, or a vine, figs? In the same manner no fountain can yield both salt and fresh water.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? Let him show by a good deportment his works with meekness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, do not glory and do not lie against the truth. 15 This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demoniacal. 16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. 17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Chapter 4

We are to strive against covetousness, 1-3; intemperance, 4; pride, 5-10; and slander and rash judgment of others, 11, 12. We are not to be confident in the good success of worldly business, but rather always be mindful of the uncertainty of this life, and to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence, 13-17.

1 Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Do they not come from here, even from your lusts that war in your members? 2 You lust and do not have. You murder and desire to have and cannot obtain. You fight and war. You do not have because you do not ask. 3 You ask and do not receive because you ask with bad intent, so that you may spend it in your pleasures. 4 You adulterers and adulteresses, do you not know that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. 5 Do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The spirit which dwells in us earnestly desires to envy"? 6 But he gives more grace. Therefore, he says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." 7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9 Be afflicted, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to heaviness. 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord and he will lift you up.

11 Do not speak evil of one another, brothers. He who speaks evil of his brother and judges his brother speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. 12 Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you to judge another?

13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into this city and spend a year there, and trade and make gain." 14 You do not know what will be on the next day. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away. 15 Instead of that, you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that." 16 But now you rejoice in your boastings. All such rejoicing is evil. 17 Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.6]: Proverbs 3:34.

Chapter 5

Wicked rich men are to fear God's vengeance, 1-6. We ought to be patient in afflictions after the example of the prophets and Job, 7-11; to forbear swearing, 12; to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity, 13; to acknowledge mutually our many sins, to pray for one another, 14-18; and to restore a straying brother to the truth, 19, 20.

1 Come now, you rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. 2 Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and silver is cankered, and their rust shall be a testimony against you and shall eat your flesh like fire. You have amassed treasure for the last days. 4 Behold, the hire of the laborers who have reaped your fields, which is by you kept back by fraud, cries. And the cries of those who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. 5 You have lived luxuriously and in pleasure on the earth. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. 6 You have condemned and murdered the just, and he does not resist you.

7 Be patient, therefore, brothers, to the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient for it until it receives the early and the latter rain. 8 Be also patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord draws near. 9 Do not grudge against one another, brothers, lest you be condemned. Behold, the judge stands before the door. 10 My brothers, take the prophets who have spoken in the name of the Lord for an example of suffering affliction and of patience. 11 Behold, we count those happy who endure. You have heard of the patience of Job and have seen the outcome from the Lord, that the Lord is very compassionate and full of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath. But let your "Yes," be "Yes," and your "No," "No," lest you fall into condemnation.

13 Is anyone among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing psalms. 14 Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. 15 And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. 16 Confess your sins to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of the righteous man avails much. 17 Elijah was a man subject to similar passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. 18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth brought forth its fruit.

19 Brothers, if any one of you should err from the truth, and someone should convert him, 20 Let him know, that he who converts a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and will hide a multitude of sins.

[v.5]: Jeremiah 12:3.

The First Letter from Peter

1st Peter | Πέτρου Α'

Chapter 1

Peter blesses God for his manifold spiritual graces, 1-9; showing that salvation in Christ is an object of deepest interest to the prophets and to angels, 10-12; and exhorts them accordingly to a godly way of life, since they are now born anew by the word of God, 13-25.

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, to obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to his abundant mercy, has begotten us again to a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 To an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, 5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith to salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a season (if need be) you are in heaviness through manifold temptations, 7 So that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perishes, though tried with fire, might result in praise, honor, and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 8 Though you have not seen him, you love him, in whom, though now you do not see him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy that is unspeakable and full of glory, 9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come to you, 11 Searching for what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them signified when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glory that should follow. 12 To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us they ministered the things which are now reported to you by those who have preached the gospel to you through the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven—which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Therefore, gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ, 14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance. 15 But as he who has called you is holy, so you be holy in all manner of deportment, 16 Because it is written, "Be holy, for I am holy."

17 And if you call on the Father, who, without respect of persons, judges according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear, 18 For you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain course of life received by tradition from your fathers, 19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 20 He truly was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifested in these last times for you, 21 Who, by him, believe in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit to unfeigned love of the brothers, see that you love one another with a pure heart fervently, 23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God which lives and abides forever. 24 For,

> "all flesh is as grass, / > and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. /
> The grass withers and its flower falls away,
>
> 25 But the word of the Lord endures forever."

This is the word which was the gospel preached to you.

Chapter 2

Peter dissuades them from the breach of charity, 1-3; showing that Christ is the foundation upon which they are built, 4-10. He implores them also to abstain from fleshly lusts, 11, 12; to be obedient to magistrates, 13-17; and teaches servants how to obey their masters, 18, 19; patiently suffering for well doing after the example of Christ, 20-25.

1 Therefore, laying aside all malice, all guile, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil-speakings, 2 As new-born babies, desire the pure milk of the word so that you may grow thereby, 3 If indeed you have "tasted that the Lord is gracious."

4 And coming to him as to a living stone, disallowed indeed by men, but chosen by God, and precious, 5 You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 6 Therefore, it is also contained in the Scripture,

> "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner-stone, / > elect, precious. /
> And he who believes in him shall not be confounded."

7 To you therefore who believe, he is precious, but to those who are disobedient,

> "The stone which the builders disallowed, / > the same is made the head of the corner,"

8 And

> "a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense,"

even to those who stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which they were also appointed.

9 But you are "a chosen generation," "a royal priesthood, a holy nation," "a peculiar people, so that you should show forth the praises" of him who has called you out of darkness into his marvelous light, 10 Who, in time past, were not a people, but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I implore you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul, 12 Having your manner of life honest among the Gentiles, so that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God "on the day of visitation."

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as supreme, 14 Or to governors as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do well. 15 For this is the will of God: that with well-doing you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men, 16 Even as free men, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. 17 Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the unfair. 19 For this is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endures grief, suffering wrongfully. 20 For what glory is it if, when you are buffeted for your sins, you bear it patiently? But if you do good and suffer for it and you bear it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For even to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example so that you should follow his steps. 22 He committed no sin, "neither was guile found in his mouth." 23 He, when he was reviled, did not revile in return. When he suffered, he did not threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously. 24 He himself bore our sins in his own body on the tree so that we, being dead to sins, should live to righteousness. "By his stripes you were healed." 25 For you were as sheep going astray, but are now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Chapter 3

Peter teaches the duty of wives and husbands to each other, 1-7; exhorting all men to unity and love, 8-13; and to suffer persecution, 14-18. He declares also the benefits of Christ toward the old world, 19-22.

1 Likewise, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands so that if any do not obey the word, they may be won without a word by the deportment of the wives 2 While they behold your chaste manner of life coupled with fear. 3 Do not let your adorning be that which is outward—of braiding the hair, of wearing gold, or of putting on apparel— 4 But let it be the hidden person of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 5 For after this manner in former times the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands, 6 Even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. You are her daughters as long as you do well and are "not afraid of sudden fear."

7 Likewise, husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honor to the wife as to the weaker vessel and as being heirs together of the grace of life, so that your prayers are not hindered.

8 Finally, all of you be of one mind, compassionate, loving as brothers, tender-hearted, and courteous, 9 Not rendering evil for evil or railing for railing, but on the contrary, blessing, knowing that you are called to this, so that you should inherit a blessing. 10 For,

> "He who will love life / > and see good days, /
> let him restrain his tongue from evil, / > and his lips that they speak no guile.
>
> 11 Let him shun evil and do good. /
> Let him seek peace and pursue it.
>
> 12 The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, / > and his ears are open to their prayers. /
> The face of the Lord is against those who do evil."

13 And who is he who will harm you if you are followers of that which is good? 14 But if you suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are you. "And do not be afraid of their terror, neither be troubled," 15 But "sanctify the Lord" God in your hearts. Always be ready to give an answer to every man who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, but with meekness and fear. 16 Have a good conscience so that, whereas they speak evil of you as of evildoers, they may be ashamed who falsely accuse your good deportment in Christ. 17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, that you suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing. 18 For Christ also has once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, so that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit, 19 By which he also went and preached to the spirits in prison, 20 Who formerly were disobedient when the patience of God waited in the days of Noah while the ark was preparing, in which few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water. 21 Baptism, which corresponds to this, also now saves you (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22 Who has gone into heaven and is on the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers being made subject to him.

Chapter 4

Peter exhorts them to cease from sin by the example of Christ and the consideration of the general end that now approaches, 1-11; and comforts them against persecution, 12-19.

1 Therefore, since Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind. For he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, 2 So that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 3 For the past time is sufficient to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, having walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revelings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries, 4 In which they think it strange that you do not run with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you. 5 They shall give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6 For this cause the gospel was also preached to those who are dead so that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand; therefore, be sober and watch for the purpose of prayer. 8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves, for charity will cover a multitude of sins. 9 Be hospitable to one another without grudging. 10 As every man has received the gift, even so minister the same to one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 11 If any man speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God. If any man ministers, let him do it as of the ability which God gives so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you. 13 But rejoice, seeing you are partakers of Christ’s sufferings, so that when his glory is revealed you may also be glad with exceeding joy. 14 If you are reproached for the name of Christ, happy are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. On their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. 15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, as a thief, as an evildoer, or as a busy-body in other men’s matters. 16 Yet if any man suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter. 17 For the time has come that judgment must begin at the house of God. And if it first begins at us, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

> 18 "And if the righteous is scarcely saved, > where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?"

19 Therefore, let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls in well-doing to a faithful Creator.

[v.18]: Proverbs 11:31.[LXX]

Chapter 5

Peter exhorts the elders to feed their flocks, 1-4; the younger to obey, 5-7; and all to be sober, watchful, and constant in the faith, 8; and to resist the cruel adversary the devil, 9-14.

1 I exhort the elders who are among you as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: 2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight of it—not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but from a ready mind; 3 Neither as being lords over God’s heritage, but being examples to the flock. 4 And when the chief Shepherd appears, you shall receive a crown of glory that does not fade away. 5 Likewise, you younger ones, submit yourselves to the elder. Indeed, all of you be subject to one another and be clothed with humility, for "God resists the proud and gives grace to the humble."

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God so that he may exalt you in due time, 7 "Casting all your care upon him," for he cares for you. 8 Be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary the devil walks around like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour. 9 Resist him steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brothers who are in the world. 10 But the God of all grace who has called us to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, shall himself perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. 11 To him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus our faithful brother, as I account him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand. 13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, salutes you, and so does Mark my son. 14 Greet one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Second Letter from Peter

2nd Peter | Πέτρου Β'

Chapter 1

Confirming them in hope of the increase of God’s graces, 1-4, Peter exhorts them by faith and good works to make their calling sure, 5-11; of which he is careful to remind them, knowing that his death is at hand, 12-15; and warns them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God, by the eyewitness of the apostles beholding his majesty and by the testimony of the Father and the prophets, 16-21.

1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained an equally precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ: 2 May grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 According as his divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness through the knowledge of him who has called us to glory and virtue, 4 Through which exceedingly great and precious promises are given to us, so that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 5 And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue; to virtue, knowledge; 6 To knowledge, temperance; to temperance, patience; to patience, godliness; 7 To godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, charity. 8 For if these things are in you and abound, they make you to neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But he who lacks these things is blind and cannot see afar off and has forgotten that he was purified from his old sins. 10 Therefore, brothers, give more diligence to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you shall never fall. 11 For in this way an entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ shall be abundantly ministered to you.

12 Therefore, I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though you know them and are established in the present truth. 13 Indeed, I think it proper, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance, 14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this tabernacle of mine, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me. 15 Moreover, I will endeavor that you may be able, after my departure, to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty. 17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory when the voice came to him from the excellent glory: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." 18 And we heard this voice which came from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy, to which you do well that you take heed, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the day-star arises in your hearts, 20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation. 21 For prophecy did not come in old time by the will of man. But holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 2

Peter foretells them about false teachers, showing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers, 1-6; from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom, 7-9; and more fully describes the manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers, whereby they may be the better known and avoided, 10-22.

1 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you who will privately bring in condemnable heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many will follow their pernicious ways, by reason of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed. 3 And through covetousness they will with feigned words exploit you, whose judgment from long ago does not linger and their condemnation does not slumber.

4 For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness to be reserved to judgment, 5 And did not spare the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing the flood upon the world of the ungodly, 6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those who afterward should live ungodly lives, 7 And delivered just Lot, grieved with the habitual lewdness of the wicked 8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, grieved his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds), 9 Then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust for the day of judgment to be punished, 10 But chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise government. They are presumptuous and self-willed. They are not afraid to speak evil of glorious [ones], 11 Whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring railing accusation against them before the Lord. 12 But these, as natural brute beasts made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they do not understand. They shall utterly perish in their own corruption, 13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. They are spots and blemishes, reveling in their own deceptions while they feast with you, 14 Having eyes full of adultery that cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable souls. They have a heart exercised with covetous practices. They are cursed children. 15 They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness, 16 But was rebuked for his iniquity—the mute donkey speaking with man’s voice hindered the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever. 18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those who had quite escaped from those who live in error. 19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption. For by whom a man is overcome, by the same he is brought into bondage. 20 For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. 21 For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than after they have known it to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. 22 But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog has turned to his own vomit again," and, "The sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire."

Old Testament Quotes

[v.22]: Proverbs 26:11.

Chapter 3

Peter assures them of the certainty of Christ's coming to judgment against those scorners who dispute against it, 1-7. He instructs them in the patience of God and his promise to judge the world, 8, 9. He also describes the manner in which the world shall be destroyed, 10; exhorting them, from the expectation thereof, to all holiness of life, 11-15; and again to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles, 16-18.

1 This, beloved, is the second epistle I now write to you, in both of which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance, 2 So that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Savior.

3 Know this first, that scoffers will come in the last days, walking after their own lusts, 4 And saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." 5 For this they willingly are ignorant of: that by the word of God the heavens were of old and the earth formed out of the water and through the water, 6 By which the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. 7 But the present heavens and the earth are kept in store by the same word, reserved to fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, do not be ignorant of this one thing: one day with the Lord is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness, but is patient toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, the elements will melt with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are therein will be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in all holy deportment and godliness, 12 Looking for and hastening to the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens being on fire will be dissolved and the elements will melt with fervent heat? 13 Nevertheless, we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, in which dwells righteousness.

14 Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for such things, be diligent that you may be found by him in peace, without spot, and blameless. 15 And regard the patience of our Lord as salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, 16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them about these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which those who are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they also do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. 17 You therefore, beloved, seeing you know these things beforehand, beware lest you also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. 18 But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and forever. Amen.

The First Letter from John

1st John | Ἰωάνου Α'

Chapter 1

John describes the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life by fellowship with God, 1-4; to which we must add holiness of life to testify the truth of our fellowship and profession of faith and also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death, 5-10.

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and our hands have handled, concerning the word of life 2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and we testify and show to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested to us), 3 That which we have seen and heard we declare to you so that you also may have fellowship with us. And truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And these things we write to you so that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard from him and declare to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in darkness, we lie and do not speak the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Chapter 2

John comforts them against the sins of infirmity, 1, 2. To rightly know God is to keep his commandments, 3-8; to love our brothers, 9-14; and to not love the world, 15-17. We must beware of seducers, 18, 19; from whose deceits the godly are safe, preserved by perseverance in faith and holiness of life, 20-29.

1 My little children, these things I write to you so that you do not sin. And if any man sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 And he is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says, "I know him," and does not keep his commandments is a liar and the truth is not in him. 5 But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him. By this we know that we are in him. 6 He who says he abides in him, ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

7 Brothers, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard from the beginning. 8 Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in him and in you, because the darkness is past and the true light now shines. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in darkness even until now. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him. 11 But he who hates his brother is in darkness, walks in darkness, and does not know where he goes because darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name’s sake. 13 I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father. 14 I have written to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.

15 Do not love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not from the Father, but is from the world. 17 And the world and its lust passes away, but he who does the will of God abides forever.

18 Little children, it is the last time. And as you have heard that the antichrist comes, even now there are many antichrists, by which we know that it is the last time. 19 They went out from us, but they did not belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would no doubt have continued with us. But they went out so that they might be made manifest that none of them belonged to us. 20 But you have an unction from the Holy One and you know all things. 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it and because no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is the antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Whoever denies the Son, the same does not have the Father. But he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also. 24 Let that therefore abide in you which you have heard from the beginning. If that which you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you also shall continue in the Son and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he has promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things I have written to you concerning those who seduce you. 27 But the anointing which you have received from him abides in you, and you do not need that any man should teach you. But as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things and is truth and no lie, and even as it has taught you, you shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him so that when he appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before him at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who does righteousness is born of him.

Chapter 3

John declares the singular love of God toward us in making us his sons, 1, 2; who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 3-10; as also to love one another as brothers, 11-24.

1 Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. Therefore, the world does not know us because it did not know him. 2 Beloved, now we are the sons of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be. But we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 3 And every man who has this hope in him purifies himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whoever commits sin also transgresses the law, for sin is the transgression of the law. 5 And you know that he was manifested to take away our sins, and in him there is no sin. 6 Whoever abides in him does not sin. Whoever sins has not seen him, neither known him. 7 Little children, let no man deceive you. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. 8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil sins from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested so that he might destroy the works of the devil. 9 Whoever is born of God does not commit sin, for his seed remains in him. And he cannot sin because he is born of God. 10 In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: whoever does not do righteousness is not of God, neither he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning: that we should love one another. 12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one and slew his brother. And why did he slay him? Because his own works were evil and his brother’s were righteous.

13 Do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed from death to life because we love the brothers. He who does not love his brother abides in death. 15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer. And you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 In this we know love: because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. 17 But he who has this world’s goods and sees his brother have need and shuts up his heart of compassion from him, how does the love of God dwell in him? 18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth. 19 And by this we know that we are of the truth and shall assure our hearts before him. 20 For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart and knows all things. 21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, then we have confidence toward God. 22 And whatever we ask we receive from him because we keep his commandments and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment: to believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, as he gave us commandment. 24 And he who keeps his commandments dwells in him, and he in him. And by this we know that he abides in us: by the Spirit which he has given us.

Chapter 4

John warns them not to believe all who boast of the Spirit, 1-6; and exhorts to brotherly love, 7-21.

1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, 3 And every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not from God. And this is that spirit of antichrist, of which you have heard that it should come and even now already it is in the world. 4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world; therefore, they speak from the world, and the world hears them. 6 We are of God.

He who knows God hears us. He who is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God. And everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. 9 In this the love of God was manifested toward us: that God sent his only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through him. 10 In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God loved us in this manner, we ought also to love one another. 12 No man has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwells in us and his love is perfected in us. 13 By this we know that we dwell in him and he in us: because he has given us of his Spirit. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwells in him, and he in God. 16 And we have known and believed the love that God has to us. God is love. And he who dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him. 17 In this our love is made perfect so that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love. But perfect love casts out fear, because fear has torment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. 19 We love him because he first loved us. 20 If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? 21 And this commandment we have from him: he who loves God must also love his brother.

Chapter 5

He who loves God loves his children and keeps his commandments, 1, 2; which to the faithful are not grievous, 3-8. Jesus is the Son of God, 9-13; and is able to hear our prayers, 14-21.

1 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. And everyone who loves him who begot loves him also who is begotten by him. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and keep his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God: that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not grievous. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that overcomes the world: our faith.

5 Who is he who overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? 6 This is he who came by water and blood: Jesus Christ—not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears testimony, because the Spirit is truth. 7 For there are three who bear testimony in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit—and these three are one. 8 And there are three that bear testimony on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and these three agree in one. 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God which he has testified of his Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of God has the witness in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar because he has not believed the testimony that God gave of his Son. 11 And this is the testimony: that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He who has the Son has life, and he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life and that you may believe in the name of the Son of God. 14 And this is the confidence that we have in him: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. 15 And if we know that he hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired from him.

16 If any man sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is sin leading to death. I do not say that he shall pray for it. 17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not leading to death.

18 We know that whoever is born of God does not sin. But he who is begotten of God keeps himself, and that wicked one does not touch him. 19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in wickedness. 20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

The Second Letter from John

2nd John | Ἰωάνου Β'

Chapter 1

John exhorts a certain honorable matron and her children to persevere in Christian love and belief, 1-7, lest they lose the reward of their former profession, 8, 9; and to have nothing to do with those seducers who do not bring the true doctrine of Christ Jesus, 10-13.

1 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth, 2 For the truth’s sake which dwells in us and shall be with us forever: 3 Grace, mercy, and peace shall be with you from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found some of your children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father. 5 And now I implore you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. 6 And this is love: that we walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you have heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers have entered into the world who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. 8 Look to yourselves so that we do not lose those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. 9 Whoever transgresses and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ, he has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house, neither wish him happiness. 11 For he who wishes him happiness is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write to you, I do not wish to write with paper and ink. But I trust to come to you and speak face to face so that our joy may be full.

13 The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

The Third Letter from John

3rd John | Ἰωάνου Γ'

Chapter 1

John commends Gaius for his piety, 1-4, and hospitality, 5, 6, to true preachers, 7, 8; mentions the unkind dealing of ambitious Diotrephes on the contrary side, 9, 10; whose evil example is not to be followed, 11; and gives special testimony to the good report of Demetrius, 12-14.

1 The elder to the well-beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth:

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that you may prosper and be in health, even as your soul prospers. 3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brothers came and testified of the truth that is in you, even as you walk in the truth. 4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you do to the brothers and to strangers. 6 They have borne testimony of your charity before the church. You will do well to bring them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, 7 Because for his name’s sake they went forth, taking nothing from the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to receive such so that we may be fellow-helpers for the truth.

9 I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the pre-eminence among them, does not receive us. 10 Therefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he does, prating against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he himself does not receive the brothers and forbids those who would and casts them out of the church.

11 Beloved, do not follow that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God, but he who does evil has not seen God. 12 Demetrius has good report by all men and by the truth itself. And we also bear testimony, and you know that our testimony is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I do not wish to write to you with ink and pen.

14 But I trust I shall see you shortly and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to you. Our friends salute you. Greet the friends by name.

The Letter from Jude

Jude | Ἰούδα

Chapter 1

Jude exhorts them to be constant in the profession of the faith, 1-3. False teachers have crept in to seduce them, for whose evil doctrine and manners horrible punishment is prepared, 4-19; whereas the godly, by the assistance of the Holy Spirit and prayers to God, may persevere, grow in grace, keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers, 20-25.

1 Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, to those who are sanctified by God the Father, preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: 2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write to you concerning the common salvation, it was needful for me to write to you and exhort you that you should earnestly contend for the faith, which was once delivered to the saints. 4 For some men have crept in unexpectedly, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness and denying the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though you once knew this, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 And the angels who did not keep their first state, but left their own habitation, he has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness to the judgment of the great day, 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in like manner, giving themselves over to impurity and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also, these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of glorious [ones]. 9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil and disputing about the body of Moses, did not dare bring against him a railing accusation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you." 10 But these speak evil of those things which they do not know. But what they know naturally as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and have perished in the gainsaying of Korah. 12 These are spots in your feasts of charity when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear. They are clouds without water carried along by winds. They are withered autumn trees, without fruit, twice dead, plucked out by the roots. 13 They are raging waves of the sea foaming out their own shame. They are wandering stars to whom the blackness of darkness is reserved forever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, "Behold, the Lord comes with tens of thousands of his saints, 15 To execute judgment upon all and to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have impiously committed and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." 16 These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their own lusts, and their mouth speaks great swelling words, having men’s persons in admiration for the sake of profit.

17 But, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 That they told you, "There would be mockers in the last time who would walk after their own ungodly lusts." 19 These are those who separate themselves. They are sensual, not having the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying by the Holy Spirit, 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. 22 And on some have compassion, making a difference, 23 And others, save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, 25 To God the only wise, our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

The Revelation of the Apostle John

Revelation | Αποκάλυψις Ιωάνου

Chapter 1

The preface, 1-3. John's salutation to the seven churches of Asia, 4-6. The coming of Christ, 7. His glorious power and majesty, 8-20.

1 This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him to show to his servants things which must shortly come to pass. And he sent and signified it by his angel to his servant John, 2 Who bore testimony of the word of God and of the testimony of Jesus Christ and of all things that he saw. 3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep those things which are written therein, for the time is at hand.

4 John, to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace and peace be to you from him who is, who was, and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne, 5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. To him who loved us and washed us from our sins in his own blood 6 And has made us kings and priests to God and his Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. 7 Behold, he "comes with the clouds," and every eye shall see him, even those who pierced him. And all kindreds of the earth "shall wail because of him." Even so, Amen.

8 "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending," says the Lord, "who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty."

9 I, John, who also am your brother and companion in tribulation and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos because of the word of God and because of the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day and heard behind me a great voice like a trumpet, 11 Saying, "I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last," and, "What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

12 And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks, 13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks someone like the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot and girded around the chest with a golden girdle. 14 His head and his hair were white like wool, as white as snow, his eyes were as a flame of fire, 15 His feet like fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace, and his voice as the sound of many waters. 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars. And out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword. And his countenance was as the sun shining in its strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as if dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying to me, "Do not fear. I am the first and the last, 18 And the living one. And I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. I have the keys of hell and of death. 19 Write, therefore, the things which you have seen, the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter. 20 The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden candlesticks is this: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven candlesticks which you saw are the seven churches."

Chapter 2

What is commanded to be written to the angels, that is, the ministers of the churches of Ephesus, 1-7, Smyrna, 8-11, Pergamos, 12-17, Thyatira, 18-29; and what is commended or found lacking in them.

1 "To the angel of the church of Ephesus, write: 'He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks, says these things:

2 "'"I know your works, your labor, and your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And you have tried those who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars. 3 You have patience and have endured for my name's sake, and have not grown weary. 4 Nevertheless, I have this against you: that you have left your first love. 5 Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works. Otherwise, I will come to you quickly and will remove your candlestick out of its place unless you repent. 6 But this you have: that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God."'

8 "And to the angel of the church in Smyrna, write: 'The first and the last, who was dead and is alive, says these things:

9 "'"I know your works, tribulation, and poverty (but you are rich), and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear none of those things which you shall suffer. Behold, the devil will cast some of you into prison so that you may be tried. And you shall have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you a crown of life. 11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death."'

12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamos, write: 'He who has the sharp sword with two edges says these things:

13 "'"I know your works and where you dwell, even where Satan's seat is. And you hold firmly to my name and have not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you where Satan dwells. 14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit lewdness. 15 Likewise, you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. 16 Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. 17 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give to eat from the hidden manna and will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no man knows, except he who receives it."'

18 "And to the angel of the church in Thyatira, write: 'The Son of God, who has his eyes like a flame of fire and his feet are like fine brass, says these things:

19 "'"I know your works, charity, service, faith, your patience, and your works—and the last works to be more than the first. 20 But, I have a few things against you, because you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit lewdness and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 And I gave her time to repent of her lewdness and she did not repent. 22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation unless they repent of their deeds. 23 And I will kill her children with death. And all the churches shall know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each of you according to your works. 24 But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this doctrine and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak, I will put upon you no other burden. 25 But that which you already have, hold firmly until I come. 26 And he who overcomes and keeps my works to the end, 'to him I will give power over the nations, 27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron, and as the vessels of a potter they shall be broken to pieces,' even as I received from my Father. 28 And I will give him the morning-star. 29 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'"

[v.26]: Psalm 2:8. [v.27]: Psalm 2:9.[LXX (paraphrased)]

Chapter 3

The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved, 1, 2; exhorted to repent, and threatened if he does not repent, 3-6. The angel of the church of Philadelphia, 7-9, is approved for his diligence and patience, 10-13; the angel of Laodicea rebuked for being neither hot nor cold, 14-18, and admonished to be more zealous, 19. Christ stands at the door and knocks, 20-22.

1 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis, write: 'He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars says these things: "I know your works. You have a reputation of being alive, and yet you are dead. 2 Be watchful and strengthen the things which remain that are ready to die, for I have not found your works fulfilled before God. 3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If therefore you shall not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you shall not know what hour I will come upon you. 4 You have a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with me in white, for they are worthy. 5 He who overcomes, the same shall be clothed in white clothing. And I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. 6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'

7 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write: 'He who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, and he who opens and no man shuts, and shuts and no man opens, says these things:

8 "'"I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, and no man can shut it. For you have a little strength and have kept my word and have not denied my name. 9 Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan who say they are Jews and are not, but lie, behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet and to know that I have loved you. 10 Because you have kept the word of my patience, I also will keep you from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world to try those who dwell upon the earth. 11 Behold, I come quickly. Hold firmly to that which you have so that no man takes your crown. 12 He who overcomes, I will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go out no more. And I will write upon him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God. And I will write upon him my new name. 13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'

14 "And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans, write: 'The Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God, says these things:

15 "'"I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot. 16 So then, because you are luke-warm and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of my mouth. 17 Because you say, 'I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing,' and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked, 18 I counsel you to buy from me gold tried in the fire so that you may be rich, and white clothing so that you may be clothed and the shame of your nakedness may not appear, and anoint your eyes with eye-salve so that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If any man hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with me. 21 To him who overcomes, I will grant to sit with me on my throne, even as I also overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne. 22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'"

Chapter 4

John sees the throne of God in heaven, 1-3. The twenty-four elders, 4, 5. The four living beings full of eyes in front and behind, 6-9. The elders lay down their crowns and worship him who sat on the throne, 10, 11.

1 After this, I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet talking with me, which said, "Come up here and I will show you things which must be hereafter." 2 And immediately I was in the Spirit. And behold, a throne was set in heaven, and someone sat on the throne. 3 And he who sat was in appearance like a jasper and a sardius stone. And there was a rainbow around the throne in sight like an emerald. 4 And around the throne were twenty-four seats, and upon the seats I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white clothing, and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, thunderings, and voices. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. 6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like crystal. And in the midst of the throne and around the throne were four living beings full of eyes in front and behind. 7 And the first living being was like a lion, the second living being like a calf, the third living being had a face like a man, and the fourth living being was like a flying eagle. 8 And the four living beings, each of them had six wings around him and they were full of eyes within.

And they do not rest day or night, saying, "'Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty,' who was, and is, and is to come." 9 And when those living beings give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sat on the throne, who lives forever and ever, 10 The twenty-four elders fall down before him who sat on the throne and worship him who lives forever and ever. And they cast their crowns before the throne, saying, 11 "You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, honor, and power, for you have created all things, and for your pleasure they exist and were created."

[v.8]: Isaiah 6:3.[LXX (paraphrased)]

Chapter 5

The book sealed with seven seals, 1-8, which only the Lamb who was slain is worthy to open, 9-11. Therefore, the elders praise him and confess that he redeemed them with his blood, 12-14.

1 And I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a book written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals. 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book and to break its seals?" 3 And no man in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the book or to look upon it. 4 And I wept much because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book or to look upon it. 5 And one of the elders says to me, "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the book and to break its seven seals."

6 And I beheld, and behold, in the midst of the throne and of the four living beings and in the midst of the elders stood a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. 7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him who sat upon the throne. 8 And when he had taken the book, the four living beings and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each of them having harps and golden vials full of odors, which are the prayers of saints. 9 And they sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the book and to open its seals, for you were slain and have redeemed us for God by your blood out of every kindred, language, people, and nation, 10 And have made us kings and priests to our God. And we shall reign on the earth."

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living beings, and the elders. And their number was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, 12 Saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power, riches, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing." 13 And every creature which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, and those which are in the sea, and all which are in them, I heard saying, "Blessing, honor, glory, and power be to him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb forever and ever." 14 And the four living beings said, "Amen." And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped him who lives forever and ever.

Chapter 6

The opening of the first six of the seven seals in order, and what followed afterward, 1-17.

1 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, like the noise of thunder, one of the four living beings saying, "Come and see." 2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse. And he who sat on him had a bow, and a crown was given to him. And he went forth conquering and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second living being say, "Come and see." 4 And there went out another horse that was red. And power was given to him who sat upon him to take peace from the earth so that they should kill one another. And there was given to him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living being say, "Come and see." And I beheld, and behold, a black horse. And he who sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. 6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living beings say, "A measure of wheat for a denarius, and three measures of barley for a denarius, and see that you do not hurt the oil and the wine."

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living being say, "Come and see." 8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And his name who sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who were slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held. 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, do you not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11 And white robes were given to every one of them. And it was said to them that they should rest a little while longer until their fellow-servants and also their brothers, who should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood. 13 And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig-tree casts its untimely figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. 14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place. 15 And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the chief captains, the mighty men, every slave, and every free man hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, 16 And said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb. 17 For the great day of his wrath has come, and who will be able to stand?"

Chapter 7

An angel seals the servants of God in their foreheads, 3. The number of those who were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number, 4-8. Of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the throne, clad in white robes and with palm branches in their hands, 9-13. Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb, 14-17.

1 And after these things, I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth holding the four winds of the earth so that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, 3 Saying, "Do not hurt the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads."

4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed. And there were sealed one hundred and forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand were sealed. 6 Of the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand were sealed. 7 Of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand were sealed. 8 Of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

9 After this, I beheld, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number of all nations, kindreds, people, and languages, stood before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes and with palm branches in their hands. 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation to our God who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb." 11 And all the angels stood around the throne, the elders, and the four living beings. And they fell before the throne on their faces and worshiped God, 12 Saying, "Amen. Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

13 And one of the elders answered, saying to me, "Who are these who are arrayed in white robes? And where did they come from?" 14 And I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 Therefore, they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple. And he who sits on the throne will dwell among them. 16 'They shall no longer hunger, neither thirst anymore, neither shall the sun fall upon them, nor any heat.' 17 For the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will feed them and will lead them to living fountains of waters. And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Old Testament Quotes

[v.16]: Isaiah 49:10.[LXX (paraphrased)]

Chapter 8

At the opening of the seventh seal, 1, seven angels have seven trumpets given to them, 2-5. Four of them sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow, 6-8. Another angel puts incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar, 9-13.

1 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven angels who stood before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

3 And another angel having a golden censer came and stood at the altar. And much incense was given to him so that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God out of the angel’s hand. 5 And the angel took the censer, filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it upon the earth. And there were voices, thunderings, lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth. And the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea. And the third part of the sea became blood. 9 And the third part of the creatures having life which were in the sea died. And the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning like a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers and upon the fountains of waters. 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many men died by the waters because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, along with the third part of the moon and the third part of the stars, so that the third part of them was darkened. And the day did not shine for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are about to sound!"

Chapter 9

At the sounding of the fifth angel, a star falls from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomless pit, 1. He opens the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions, 2-11. The first woe past, 12. The sixth trumpet sounds, 13. Four angels who were bound are let loose. 14-21.

1 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven to the earth. And the key of the bottomless pit was given to him. 2 And he opened the bottomless pit, and there arose a smoke out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. And the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. 3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4 And it was said to them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God in their foreheads. 5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months. And their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when he strikes a man. 6 And in those days men shall seek death and shall not find it. And they shall desire to die, but death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle. And on their heads were something like crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men. 8 And they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions. 9 And they had breast-plates like breast-plates of iron. And the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. 10 And they had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails. And their power was to hurt men five months. 11 And they had a king over them, who is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew language is Abaddon, but in the Greek language he has his name: Apollyon.

12 One woe is past, and behold, there are still two more woes coming hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 Saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound in the great Euphrates River." 15 And the four angels were released who were prepared for that hour, day, month, and year to slay the third part of men. 16 And the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million. And I heard their number. 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision and those who sat on them, having breast-plates of fire, of jacinth, and brimstone. And the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and out of their mouths issued fire, smoke, and brimstone. 18 By these three the third part of men was killed: by the fire, by the smoke, and by the brimstone which issued out of their mouths. 19 For their power is in their mouth and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents and have heads, and with them they do harm.

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and of wood, which neither can see, hear, nor walk. 21 They did not repent of their murders, of their sorceries, of their lewdness, nor of their thefts.

Chapter 10

A mighty strong angel appears with a book open in his hand, 1-5. He swears by him who lives forever that there shall be no more time, 6-8. John is commanded to take and eat the book, 9-11.

1 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven clothed with a cloud and a rainbow upon his head. His face was like the sun and his feet like pillars of fire. 2 And he had in his hand a little book opened. And he set his right foot upon the sea and his left foot on the earth, 3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. And when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. 4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered and do not write them." 5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven 6 And swore by him who lives forever and ever, who "created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things which are in it," that there should be time no longer. 7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he has declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again, and said, "Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which stands upon the sea and upon the earth." 9 And I went to the angel and said to him, "Give me the little book." And he said to me, "Take it and eat it. It shall make your belly bitter, but it shall be in your mouth sweet as honey." 10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it. And it was in my mouth sweet as honey, but as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. 11 And he said to me, "You must prophesy again before many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

[v.6]: Exodus 20:11.[LXX] (paraphrased)

Chapter 11

The two witnesses prophesy, 1-5. They have power to shut heaven so that it may not rain, 6. The beast shall fight against them and kill them, 7. They lie unburied, 8-10; and after three and a half days rise again, 11-13. The second woe is past, 14. The seventh trumpet sounds, 15-19.

1 And there was given to me a reed like a rod. And the angel stood, saying, "Rise, and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship in it. 2 But leave out the court which is outside the temple and do not measure it, for it is given to the Gentiles. And they shall tread under foot the holy city for forty-two months. 3 And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy for one thousand two hundred and sixty days clothed in sackcloth." 4 These are the two olive-trees and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth. 5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. And if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. 6 These have power to shut heaven so that it may not rain in the days of their prophecy, and they have power over waters to turn them to blood and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

7 And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them and shall overcome them and kill them. 8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. 9 And those of the people, kindreds, languages, and nations shall see their dead bodies for three and a half days and shall not allow their dead bodies to be put in graves. 10 And those who dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them and make merry and shall send gifts to one another because these two prophets tormented those who dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three and a half days, the Spirit of life from God entered into them and they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell upon those who saw them. 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies beheld them. 13 And the same hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell. And seven thousand men were killed in the earthquake. And the remnant were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe comes quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded, and there were great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign forever and ever." 16 And the twenty-four elders who sat before God on their seats fell upon their faces and worshiped God, 17 Saying, "We give you thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who is, was, and is to come, because you have taken your great power and have reigned. 18 And the nations were angry, but your wrath has come. And the time has come that the dead should be judged and that you should give reward to your servants the prophets, to the saints, and to those who fear your name, small and great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament. And there were lightnings, voices, thunderings, an earthquake, and great hail.

Chapter 12

A woman clothed with the sun travails, 1-3. The great red dragon stands before her, ready to devour her child, 4, 5; after she delivers her child, she flees into the wilderness, 6. Michael and his angels fight with the dragon and prevail, 7-12. The dragon, being cast down to the earth, persecutes the woman, 13-17.

1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. 2 And she was with child and she cried out, travailing in birth and in pain to deliver.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven, and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns upon his heads. 4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to deliver to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a male child, who was to "rule all nations with a rod of iron." And her child was caught up to God and to his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness where she has a place prepared by God so that they should feed her there for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

7 And there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels fought 8 And did not prevail, neither was their place found anymore in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent called the Devil and Satan, which deceives the whole world. He was cast out upon the earth and his angels were cast out with him. 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, strength, the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ have come. For the accuser of our brothers is cast down, who accused them before our God day and night. 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony. And they did not love their lives even to death. 12 Therefore, rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea! For the devil has come down to you having great wrath because he knows that he has only a short time."

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the male child. 14 And two wings of a great eagle were given to the woman so that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place where she is nourished for a time, times, and half a time from the face of the serpent. 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman so that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was angry with the woman and went to make war with the remnant of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.5]: Psalm 2:9.[LXX (paraphrased)]

Chapter 13

A beast rises out of the sea with seven heads, ten horns, and ten crowns, 1. His description, power, blasphemy, cruelty, etc., 2-10. Another beast comes out of the earth with two horns, deceiving the world by his false miracles and causing everyone to receive his mark, 11-18.

1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea and saw a beast rise up out of the sea having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. 2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like the feet of a bear and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power, his seat, and great authority. 3 And I saw one of his heads as if it were wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world wondered after the beast. 4 And they worshiped the dragon which gave power to the beast. And they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" 5 And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and power was given to him to continue forty-two months. 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God to blaspheme his name, his tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And power was given to him over all kindreds, languages, and nations. 8 And all who dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. 9 If any man has an ear, let him hear. 10 He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity. He who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and he spoke like a dragon. 12 And he exercises all the power of the first beast before him and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. 13 And he does great wonders, even making fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. 14 He deceives those who dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to those who dwell on the earth that they should make an image to the beast which was wounded by the sword and lived. 15 And he had power to give life to the image of the beast so that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. 16 And he causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads 17 So that no man might buy or sell, except him who had the mark, the name of the beast, or the number of his name. 18 Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding count the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man.

And his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

Chapter 14

The Lamb standing on mount Zion with his company, 1-5. An angel preaches the gospel, 6, 7. The fall of Babylon, 8-14. The harvest of the world, 15-19. The wine-press of the wrath of God, 20.

1 And I looked, and behold, a Lamb stood on mount Zion, and with him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having his Father’s name written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, like the voice of many waters and like the voice of a great thunder. And I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps. 3 And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four beasts and the elders. And no man could learn that song but the one hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. 4 These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb. 5 And in their mouth was found no guile, for they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth and to every nation, kindred, language, and people, 7 Saying with a loud voice, "Fear God and give glory to him, because the hour of his judgment has come. And worship him who made heaven, earth, the sea, and the fountains of waters."

8 And there followed another angel, saying, "'Fallen, fallen is Babylon' that great city, who made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her lewdness."

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If any man worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. 11 And the smoke of their torment ascends up forever and ever. And they have no rest day or night who worship the beast and his image and whoever receives the mark of his name. 12 Here is the patience of the saints. Here are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus."

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'" "Truly," says the Spirit, "in that they shall rest from their labors, for their works follow with them."

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and someone like the Son of man sat upon the cloud having a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. 15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Thrust in your sickle and reap, for the time has come for you to reap, because the harvest of the earth is ripe." 16 And he who sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire, and cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe." 19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God. 20 And the wine-press was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even to the horses' bridles, as far as one thousand and six hundred furlongs.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.8]: Isaiah 21:9.[LXX]

Chapter 15

The seven angels with the seven last plagues, 1, 2. The song of those who overcome the beast, 3-6. The seven vials full of the wrath of God, 7, 8.

1 And I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for the wrath of God is filled up in them.

2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mingled with fire. And those who had gained the victory over the beast, over his image, over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God Almighty. Just and true are your ways, 'King of nations.'

4 'Who shall not fear you,' O Lord, 'and glorify your name'? For you only are holy. For 'all nations shall come and worship before you,' because your judgments are made manifest."

5 And after that, I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. 6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their chests girded with golden girdles. 7 And one of the four living beings gave to the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no man was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.3]: Jeremiah 10:7. [v.4]: Jeremiah 10:7; Psalm 86:9.[LXX]

Chapter 16

The angels pour out their vials full of wrath, 1-5. The plagues that follow, 6-14. Christ comes as a thief. Blessed are those who watch, 15-21.

1 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth."

2 And the first went and poured out his vial upon the earth. And there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast and upon those who worshiped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea, and it became like the blood of a dead man. And every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters, and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, "You are righteous, O Lord, who is and who was, because you have judged these things. 6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink, for they are worthy." 7 And I heard another from the altar say, "Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments."

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun, and power was given to it to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat and they blasphemed the name of God, who has power over these plagues. And they did not repent to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast, and his kingdom was full of darkness. And they gnawed their tongues because of the pain 11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. And they did not repent of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great Euphrates River, and its water was dried up so that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. 14 For they are the spirits of demons that work miracles, which go forth to the kings of the earth and of the whole world to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. 15 "Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he who watches and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame." 16 And he gathered them into a place called in the Hebrew language, Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air. And there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven from the throne, saying, "It is done." 18 And there were voices, thunders, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake such as has not been since men were upon the earth—so mighty an earthquake, and so great. 19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent. And men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because its plague was exceedingly great.

A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet with a golden cup in her hand sits upon the beast, 1-4; which is great Babylon, the mother of all abominations, 5-8. The interpretation of the seven heads, 9-11; and the ten horns, 12, 13. The victory of the Lamb, 14, 15. The punishment of the harlot, 16-18.

1 And one of the seven angels who had the seven vials came and talked with me, saying to me, "Come here. I will show to you the judgment of the great harlot who sits upon many waters, 2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed lewd deeds and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her lewdness." 3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-colored beast that was full of names of blasphemy and had seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet-color and decked with gold, precious stones, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her lewdness. 5 And upon her forehead was a name written, "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with great wonder.

7 And the angel said to me, "Why did you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her which has the seven heads and ten horns. 8 The beast that you saw, it was and is no more. And it shall ascend out of the bottomless pit and go into perdition. And those who dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, is no more, and yet is. 9 And here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits. 10 And there are seven kings: five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come—but when he comes, he must remain a short time. 11 And the beast that was and is no more, he is also an eighth, and belongs to the seven and goes into perdition. 12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but receive power as kings for one hour with the beast. 13 These have one mind and shall give their power and strength to the beast. 14 These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings. And those who are with him are the called, chosen, and faithful."

15 And he says to me, "The waters which you saw where the harlot sits are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. 16 And the ten horns which you saw upon the beast, these shall hate the harlot, shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh and burn her with fire. 17 For God has put in their hearts to fulfill his will and to come to one mind and give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God are fulfilled. 18 And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth."

Chapter 18

Babylon has fallen, 1-3. The people of God commanded to depart out of her, 4-8. The kings of the earth, with the merchants and mariners, lament over her, 9-19. The saints rejoice for the judgments of God upon her, 20-24.

1 And after these things, I saw another angel come down from heaven having great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory. 2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, "'Fallen, fallen is Babylon' the great, and she has become the habitation of demons, the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hateful bird. 3 For all nations have drank of the wine of the wrath of her lewdness, the kings of the earth have committed lewd deeds with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her delicacies."

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, so that you are not partakers of her sins and that you do not receive any of her plagues. 5 For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. 6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double to her double according to her works. In the cup which she has filled, fill to her double. 7 However much she has glorified herself and lived deliciously, in such amount give her torment and sorrow, for she says in her heart, '"I sit as a queen," "I am not a widow, and never shall I see sorrow."' 8 Therefore, her plagues shall come in one day: death, mourning, and famine. And she shall be utterly burned with fire, for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

9 "And the kings of the earth who have committed lewdness and lived deliciously with her shall bewail her and lament for her when they see the smoke of her burning, 10 Standing afar off because of the fear of her torment, saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.'

11 "And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her because no man buys their merchandise anymore: 12 The merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, of pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all thyine wood, all vessels of ivory, all vessels of most precious wood, of brass, iron, marble, 13 Cinnamon, odors, ointments, frankincense, wine, oil, fine flour, wheat, beasts, sheep, horses, chariots, slaves, and souls of men. 14 And the fruits that your soul lusted after have departed from you, and all things which were dainty and splendid have departed from you, and you shall no longer find them at all. 15 The merchants of these things who were made rich by her shall stand afar off because of the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, 16 And saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, precious stones, and pearls! 17 For in one hour such great wealth has come to nothing.' And every ship-master and all the company in ships, along with sailors and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like this great city?' 19 And they cast dust on their heads and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city in which all who had ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her opulence!' For in one hour she has been made desolate. 20 Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, for God has avenged you on her."

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence that great city Babylon shall be thrown down and shall no longer be found. 22 And the voice of harpers, musicians, of pipers, and trumpeters shall no longer be heard in you. No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore. The sound of a millstone shall no longer be heard in you. 23 The light of a candle shall no longer shine in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall no longer be heard in you. For your merchants were the great men of the earth, because by your sorceries all nations were deceived. 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, of saints, and of all who were slain upon the earth."

Chapter 19

God is praised in heaven for judging the great harlot and avenging the blood of his saints, 1-6. The marriage of the Lamb, 7-9. The angel will not be worshiped, 10-16. The birds called to the great slaughter, 17-21.

1 And after these things, I heard a great voice of many people in heaven, saying, "Alleluia. Salvation, glory, honor, and power to the Lord our God. 2 For 'true and righteous are his judgments.' For he has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her lewdness and has 'avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.'" 3 And again they said, "Alleluia. And 'her smoke rose up forever and ever.'" 4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying, "Amen. Alleluia." 5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all his servants, and those who fear him, both small and great." 6 And I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, "Alleluia. For the Lord God, the Omnipotent, reigns.

7 "Let us be glad and rejoice and give honor to him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready. 8 And it was granted to her that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white"—for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he says to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" And he says to me, "These are the true sayings of God." 10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, "Behold, do not do that. I am a fellow-servant with you and with your brothers who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And he who sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war. 12 His eyes were like a flame of fire and on his head were many crowns, and he had a name written that no man knew, but he himself. 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood. And his name is called, The Word of God. 14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. 15 And out of his mouth goes a sharp sword, so that with it he should smite the nations. And he "shall rule them with a rod of iron." And he treads the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16 And he has on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, "KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS."

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, "Come, and assemble yourselves to the supper of the great God 18 So that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great."

19 And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies assembled to make war against him who sat on the horse and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These were both cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. 21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him who sat upon the horse, which sword proceeds out of his mouth. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Old Testament Quotes

[v.2]: Psalm 19:9; 2nd Kings 9:7.[LXX] [(paraphrased)] [v.3]: Isaiah 34:10. [v.15]: Psalm 2:9.[LXX]

Chapter 20

Satan shall be bound for a thousand years, 1-5. The first resurrection; those who have part therein are blessed, 6. Satan shall be let loose again, 7. Gog and Magog, 8, 9. The devils shall be cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, 10, 11. The last and general resurrection, 12-15.

1 And I saw an angel come down from heaven having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he laid hold upon the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, bound him a thousand years, 3 Cast him into the bottomless pit, shut him up, and set a seal upon him so that he should no longer deceive the nations until the thousand years should be fulfilled. And after that, he must be released a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who were beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast nor his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. On such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years have expired, Satan shall be released from his prison, 8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them to battle—the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth and encompassed the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. 10 And the devil who deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night forever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was no place found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God. And the books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them. And they were each judged according to their works. 14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. 15 And whoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

A new heaven and a new earth, 1-9. The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof, 10-22. She needs no sun, the glory of God being her light, 23. The kings of the earth bring their riches to her, 24-27.

1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth. For the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no more sea. 2 And I, John, saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 4 And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, because the former things have passed away."

5 And he who sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And he said to me, "Write, for these words are true and faithful." 6 And he said to me, "It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will freely give to him who is thirsty from the fountain of the water of life. 7 He who overcomes shall inherit all things. And I will be his God, and he shall be my son. 8 But the fearful, unbelieving, the abominable, murderers, lewd men, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone. This is the second death."

9 And there came to me one of the seven angels who had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues and talked with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the bride, the Lamb’s wife."

10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, 11 Having the glory of God. And her light was like a stone most precious, even like a jasper-stone, clear as crystal. 12 It had a great and high wall and had twelve gates with names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel, and at the gates twelve angels. 13 On the east were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he who talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. 16 And the city lies square, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, its breadth, and its height are equal. 17 And he measured its wall: one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, which is also of an angel. 18 And the building of its wall was of jasper. And the city was pure gold, like clear glass. 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; 20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprase; the eleventh, a jacinth; and the twelfth, an amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls. Every single gate was made of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. 23 And the city had no need of the sun nor of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God enlightened it, and the Lamb is its light. 24 And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in its light. And the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it. 25 And its gates shall not be shut by day, for there shall be no night there. 26 And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. 27 And there shall in no way enter into it anything that defiles, neither whatever works abomination or makes a lie, but those who are written in the Lamb’s book of life.

Chapter 22

The river of the water of life, 1. The tree of life, 2-4. The light of the city of God is himself, 5-8. The angel will not be worshiped, 9-17. Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken from it, 18-21.

1 And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb 2 In the midst of its street. And on each side of the river was the tree of life, which bore twelve kinds of fruits and yielded her fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3 And there shall be no more curse. But the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him. 4 And they shall see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads. 5 And there shall be no night there. They need no candle, neither light of the sun, because the Lord God gives them light. And they shall reign forever and ever.

6 And he said to me, "These sayings are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show to his servants the things which must shortly be done."

7 "Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the sayings of the prophecy of this book."

8 And I, John, saw these things and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. 9 Then he says to me, "Behold, do not do that, for I am a fellow-servant with you, with your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the sayings of this book. Worship God."

10 And he says to me, "Do not seal the sayings of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. 11 He who is unjust, let him be unjust still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him be righteous still. He who is holy, let him be holy still."

12 "And behold, I come quickly. And my reward is with me to give to every man according as his work shall be. 13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 "Blessed are those who do his commandments so that they may have right to the tree of life and may enter in through the gates into the city. 15 For outside are dogs, sorcerers, lewd men, murderers, idolaters, and whoever loves and makes a lie.

16 "I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David and the bright and morning-star."

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And let him who hears say, "Come." And let him who is thirsty come. And whoever wishes, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify to every man who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book. 19 And if any man takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part out of the tree of life, out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He who testifies these things says, "Surely I come quickly." Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Appendix

A Gospel Message: How can I be Born Again?

> Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."
>
> — John 3:3

This scripture comes from a conversation between a Pharisee named Nicodemus, and Jesus. In saying this, Jesus is giving the deciding factor of a soul entering into Heaven. Jesus tells Nicodemus that a man must be born again. He does not speak concerning a rebirthing of the flesh, but that of the Spirit.

The truth is, no one may enter into Heaven unless he is born again. So, how can a person born of the flesh be reborn? In his commentary on the Bible, Matthew Henry says, "First, we must live a new life. Birth is the beginning of life; to be born again is to begin anew… We must not think to patch up the old building, but begin from the foundation. Secondly, we must have a new nature, new principles, new affections, new aims… By our first birth we are corrupt, shaped in sin and iniquity; we must therefore undergo a second birth; our souls must be fashioned and enlivened anew."

When God causes a person to be born again, He does something rather miraculous. Detailed by the prophet Ezekiel, God said, "A new heart I will also give you, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my judgments, and do them" (Ezekiel 36:26-27). This is a regeneration, or a recreation (rebirthing) of the person into an improved state. With this new heart and new spirit, the person will have repentance for his or her sins.

The question now is this: Are you born again?

If you were to die today, what would be God's words to you as you stand before Him in judgment? Would it be, "Well done you good and faithful servant… Enter into the joy of your lord" (Matthew 25:21, 23), or would it be, "I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity" (Matthew 7:23)?

To find out, you need to see yourself in the reflection of God's holy law. Let's examine some (how about six?) of the Ten Commandments. Have you ever told a lie? Have you ever stolen anything regardless of its value? Have you ever committed adultery? Better yet, have you ever looked at another person through eyes of lust? That is the same as adultery, as Jesus said, "whoever looks at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart" (Matthew 5:28). Have you ever murdered another person? Most of you out there have not killed anyone, but did you know that Jesus, in comparison to murder, said, "whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment" (Matthew 5:22). Have you ever used the Lord's name in vain, or as a curse? That is called blasphemy. Have you ever dishonored your father or your mother?

If you answered, "Yes," to any of the above questions, then you have broken God's law.

James 2:10 says, "For whoever keeps the whole law and yet offends in one point, he is guilty of all." Breaking even one commandment means you are guilty of breaking all of God's laws. That is because, "whatever things the law says, it says to those who are under the law so that every mouth may be stopped and all the world may become guilty before God" (Romans 3:19). "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). So, are you guilty? With God's law as the standard, do you think you will go to Heaven? After all, "the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God" (1st Corinthians 6:9-10). With a guilty verdict upon you, what do you think that God's judgment should be for you? Do you think that you will have your part in the lake which burns with fire (Revelation 21:8), which is the place also known as Hell?

Did you know, that even though such a punishment is just and fitting for the guilty, your debt has been paid if you are born again? You see, "the law was our school-master to bring us to Christ so that we might be justified by faith" (Galatians 3:24). "For [God] has made him who knew no sin to be sin for us so that we might be made the righteousness of God in him" (2nd Corinthians 5:21). "He himself bore our sins in his own body on the [cross] so that we, being dead to sins, should live to righteousness" (1st Peter 2:24). Jesus Christ came to call sinners to repentance (Matthew 9:13). Confess your sins to God, for, "if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1st John 1:9). The weight of our sins, coupled with knowing that, because of our unbelief, the wrath of God abides upon us (John 3:36), should drive us to the feet of Christ, "for godly sorrow works repentance to salvation" (2nd Corinthians 7:10). "The LORD is near to those who are of a broken heart and saves those who are of a contrite spirit" (Psalm 34:18). Repent of your sins and turn yourself to Christ, wholly trusting in Him as your Savior. "'And the Redeemer will come to Zion and to those in Jacob who turn from transgression,' says the LORD" (Isaiah 59:20).

If you see your need to call upon the Savior, for "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be delivered" (Joel 2:32), and repent of your sins, you are born again. "Confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, and you shall be saved" (Romans 10:9, paraphrased). Pursue baptism "in the name of Jesus Christ" (Acts 2:38). Seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness (Matthew 6:33). Engage in a relationship with God through prayer and the daily reading and studying of his word in the Bible (Deuteronomy 6:4-9, 8:3). Fellowship with other believers (Acts 2:42). Tell others about the gospel of Jesus Christ (Mark 16:15), preaching repentance and the forgiveness of sins (Luke 24:47). Amen.

License

Eclipse Public License - v 2.0

THE ACCOMPANYING PROGRAM IS PROVIDED UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS ECLIPSE PUBLIC LICENSE ("AGREEMENT"). ANY USE, REPRODUCTION OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM CONSTITUTES RECIPIENT'S ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT.

1. DEFINITIONS

"Contribution" means:

a. in the case of the initial Contributor, the initial content Distributed under this Agreement, and

b. in the case of each subsequent Contributor:

   i. changes to the Program, and

   ii. additions to the Program;

   where such changes and/or additions to the Program originate from and are Distributed by that particular Contributor. A Contribution "originates" from a Contributor if it was added to the Program by such Contributor itself or anyone acting on such Contributor's behalf. Contributions do not include changes or additions to the Program that are not Modified Works.

"Contributor" means any person or entity that Distributes the Program.

"Licensed Patents" mean patent claims licensable by a Contributor which are necessarily infringed by the use or sale of its Contribution alone or when combined with the Program.

"Program" means the Contributions Distributed in accordance with this Agreement.

"Recipient" means anyone who receives the Program under this Agreement or any Secondary License (as applicable), including Contributors.

"Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source Code or other form, that is based on (or derived from) the Program and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship.

"Modified Works" shall mean any work in Source Code or other form that results from an addition to, deletion from, or modification of the contents of the Program, including, for purposes of clarity any new file in Source Code form that contains any contents of the Program. Modified Works shall not include works that contain only declarations, interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solely in each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Program or Modified Works thereof.

"Distribute" means the acts of a) distributing or b) making available in any manner that enables the transfer of a copy.

"Source Code" means the form of a Program preferred for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files.

"Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License, Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including any exceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initial Contributor.

2. GRANT OF RIGHTS

a. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, and such Derivative Works.

b. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patent license under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell, import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shall apply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, at the time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such addition of the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by the Licensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any other combinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se is licensed hereunder.

c. Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants the licenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances are provided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe the patent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claims brought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectual property rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising the rights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient hereby assumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectual property rights needed, if any. For example, if a third party patent license is required to allow Recipient to Distribute the Program, it is Recipient’s responsibility to acquire that license before distributing the Program.

d. Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it has sufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grant the copyright license set forth in this Agreement.

e. Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, no Contributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other than those set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient’s receipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License (if permitted under the terms of Section 3).

3. REQUIREMENTS

3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then:

a. the Program must also be made available as Source Code, in accordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompany the Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Program is available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how to obtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarily used for software exchange; and

b. the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a license different than this Agreement, provided that such license:

   i. effectively disclaims on behalf of all other Contributors all warranties and conditions, express and implied, including warranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, and implied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose;

   ii. effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors all liability for damages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits;

   iii. does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rights in the Source Code under section 3.2; and

   iv. requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by any party to be under a license that satisfies the requirements of this section 3.

3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code:

a. it must be made available under this Agreement, or if the Program (i) is combined with other material in a separate file or files made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initial Contributor attached to the Source Code the notice described in Exhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made available under the terms of such Secondary Licenses, and

b. a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy of the Program.

3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent, trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations of liability ('notices') contained within the Program from any copy of the Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may add their own appropriate notices.

4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTION

Commercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilities with respect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program, the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial product offering should do so in a manner which does not create potential liability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includes the Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify every other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor in writing of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and any related settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor may participate in any such claim at its own expense.

For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial product offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performance claims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibility alone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have to defend claims against the other Contributors related to those performance claims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor to pay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must pay those damages.

5. NO WARRANTY

EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes all risks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement, including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors, compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programs or equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations.

6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

7. GENERAL

If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable.

If Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Program itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed.

All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient agrees to cease use and distribution of the Program as soon as reasonably practicable. However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and any licenses granted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue and survive.

Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of this Agreement, but in order to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted and may only be modified in the following manner. The Agreement Steward reserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) of this Agreement from time to time. No one other than the Agreement Steward has the right to modify this Agreement. The Eclipse Foundation is the initial Agreement Steward. The Eclipse Foundation may assign the responsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitable separate entity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given a distinguishing version number. The Program (including Contributions) may always be Distributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it was received. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published, Contributor may elect to Distribute the Program (including its Contributions) under the new version.

Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above, Recipient receives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of any Contributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication, estoppel or otherwise. All rights in the Program not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to be enforceable by any entity that is not a Contributor or Recipient. No third-party beneficiary rights are created under this Agreement.

Exhibit A – Form of Secondary Licenses Notice

"This Source Code may also be made available under the following Secondary Licenses when the conditions for such availability set forth in the Eclipse Public License, v. 2.0 are satisfied: {name license(s), version(s), and exceptions or additional permissions here}."

Simply including a copy of this Agreement, including this Exhibit A is not sufficient to license the Source Code under Secondary Licenses.

If it is not possible or desirable to put the notice in a particular file, then You may include the notice in a location (such as a LICENSE file in a relevant directory) where a recipient would be likely to look for such a notice.

You may add additional accurate notices of copyright ownership.
